JULY FIRST.

1863—Battle of Gettysburg begun.
1898—Attack on Santiago, Cuba, by General Shafter's corps.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Sunday; not much change in temperature. Maximum, 85; minimum, 60.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, JULY 1, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

TALK PATRIOTISM

Clergymen and Laymen Discuss Subject Before 1st M. E. Brotherhood.

LOVE OF COUNTRY DISCOURSES.

Dr. W. L. Saunders, Rev Drs. Morgan and Anderson and Others Give Instructive Talks to Local Men.

"Patriotism," was the theme of an interesting service held in Vincent chapel, of the First M. E. church, last evening under the auspices of the Brotherhood of the church. It was the last meeting of the men's association for the season and also one of the most successful. There were fully sixty men present, and after a brief business session, a most attractive program was presented for the education and entertainment of the men.

Samuel Bingaman, president of the Brotherhood, was in charge of the program, and the speakers included Dr. William L. Saunders, of North Plainfield; Rev. Dr. William H. Morgan, of Newark, who previously made the address at the commencement exercises at the Plainfield Business College; Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor of the First M. E. church; Rev. C. S. Kemble, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, and S. S. Swackhamer. The presence of all the speakers was much appreciated, especially that of Dr. Saunders. Owing to the fact that he had to preside at the Plainfield Business College commencement it was at first thought doubtful whether he could be present, but he and Dr. Morgan arrived late.

The remarks of all the speakers had a bearing on the general theme, "Patriotism," appropriate to Independence Day, and in consequence were of great interest at this time. Dr. Saunders spoke more especially concerning public opinion, contrasting the United States, which is conceded to represent public opinion, as against Russia, where there is no public opinion and where a man does not dare express his opinion publicly on any subject of importance. Dr. Saunders has traveled considerably abroad, especially in Russia and therefore spoke from a personal knowledge of affairs. He gave those present a keen insight into affairs in Russia, making everyone feel glad that they were American citizens living under the glorious freedom enjoyed in this country.

Dr. Morgan's remarks were more reminiscent, and having recently returned from a trip abroad he brought some fresh interesting facts by way of contrast between the Old and New World, especially as pertaining to patriotism. He told of his travels, giving his personal experience with people abroad. Dr. Morgan is an especially strong speaker and love of country is one of his favorite themes. He, too, made everyone feel proud of the fact that they were Americans by his stirring words.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson made a brief address on the principles upon which patriotism is based, and he gave some interesting facts connected with early history, showing how dear to every true American these principles are and what they should mean to them. Rev. C. S. Kemble, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, spoke along similar lines, touching some points not embodied in Dr. Anderson's remarks. Mr. Swackhamer put everyone in good humor by his witticism, which interspersed a most excellent talk on the recall and referendum as applied to patriotism, showing the latitude given to Americans and the advantages to be found in these principles of government. There was much food for thought in all the speeches of the evening and all agreed that the meeting was one of the best in the history of the Brotherhood. After the addresses, there was a social hour and refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream and cake, in charge of a committee of which David S. Dunavan was chairman.

Closing Meeting of Season.

A large attendance marked the closing meeting of the Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Baptist church held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Chambliss on Central avenue. The devotional service was led by Mrs. Chambliss. An interesting paper on "Italian Missions" was read by Miss Helen Adams. A social hour with refreshments concluded the meeting.

Open Air Service.

Another open air service will be conducted by the local Y. M. C. A. at the corner of West Front street and Madison avenue tonight at 8:15. The speakers will be Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, and Rev. George McNeely, of Newark. Cornet solos will be played by E. H. Guest.

FREDERICK HOLDEN, AGED 83 YRS., DEAD

Frederick Holden, one of the oldest inhabitants of New Market, died this morning after a lingering illness. He was in his eighty-fourth year and lived in New Market for the greater part of his life.

Mr. Holden was well known in this vicinity, especially in this city. He had been a manufacturer of brooms for many years selling his products to the merchants of this city and Dunellen. His wief died several years ago but two children survive him, Mrs. Nettie Tappes and Mrs. John M. Dayton, both of New Market. For the past few years Mr. Holden had made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Dayton, at whose home he died.

Funeral services will be held from the residence of Mrs. Dayton Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

LEGACIES RECEIVED BY RELATIVES HERE

Relatives residing here are beneficiaries under the will of Mrs. Camillia B. Tingley, late of Piscataway township, which was probated in the surrogate's office, New Brunswick, this week. The will provides that the executor shall first pay to her four children who at various times had advanced her sums of money, the amounts due as follows:

Mary B. Clawson, $133.35; Jennie M. Byer, $150; John R. Tingley, $126.80 and Ulysses G. Tingley, $225. Mrs. Tingley also directs that all of the residue of her estate be divided equally among her five children, the other daughter being Mrs. Lizzie GaNun, of this city. Ulysses G. Tingley, her son, is made sole executor and given full power to sell real estate. The will is dated January 29, 1910, and is witnessed by Anna Beck, of Dunellen, and Charles J. McNabb, of North Plainfield.

EIGHTY PUPILS ENROLL FOR SUMMER SCHOOL

Something over eighty pupils have signified their desire to take work in the summer school which the Board of Education is to open in the Whittier building on Monday, July 10. Mrs. S. L. Wardner, of 610 Division street, will be the principal of the school, and with Miss Margaret Case will handle the grammar school subjects. The high school subjects will be divided between Milton W. St. John and Miss Ruth Bullock, former graduates of the Plainfield High School. Miss Bullock has since graduated from Wellesley College and is now teaching in the Elizabeth High School. Mr. St. John is now in the engineering department in New York University.

Any pupils who desire to join the school and have not yet given in their names, may apply to Mrs. Wardner, either at her home or at the opening of the school on Monday, July 10. The sessions of the school will continue for six weeks. Any pupil who makes up his work before that time may take an examination and finish up whenever he is ready.

ADVANCE GUARD TO GO TO HOLY CROSS CAMP.

The advance guard of older boys leave this city tomorrow for Hedges Lake, N. Y., to prepare the camp for the boys of the Holy Cross choir, who start on Sunday July 9. When the entire company is assembled a week from Monday, there will be thirty boys at the camp under the direction of W. S. O'Brien. The choir will remain in the tent life for two weeks while several of the boys will spend six weeks at the picturesque lake.

Those who make up the advance guard are W. S. O'Brien, Russell Brakeley, Herbert Stein, Albert Miller, William Little, Robert Dewey, Allen Diamond, of this city, and Arthur Tillotson and George Patchel, of New York city, together with Charles Isby, sexton of the church. Mr. O'Brien will be assisted in his work by Douglas Anderson, of this city.

Will Conclude Pastorate Here.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss will conclude his labors as pastor of the First Baptist church tomorrow. He will have charge of the communion services in the morning and also preach a short sermon. In the evening there will be a union service and Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, will preach.

Miss Rodman and Miss Wickersham, of East Seventh street, have gone to Hot Springs, Va., where they will spend the summer.

UNION CO. BUDGET

How $442,500 Will be Spent as Certified by Board of Freeholders.

THE ASSESSORS ARE NOTIFIED.

Local Board to Meet at Elizabeth on August 8 to Ascertain Amounts to Be Levied in Taxing Districts.

As stated in The Daily Press, exclusively, yesterday, the total amount of money to be raised by tax for the use of Union county for the coming year will be $442,500 an increase of $73,500 over that of last year. The various amounts were certified to the local assessors yesterday by the Board of Freeholders. The various items which go to make up the total of $442,500 are as follows:

Current expenses: Courts, $60,000; county jail, $9,000; lunatics, $41,000; compensation and lawful expenses of freeholders, including salaries, $17,000; fees of coroners, $600; elections, $70,000; stationery, $3,000; record books and repairs, $1,200; advertising, publishing and printing, $2,500; schools, burial of soldiers and headstones and incidental expenses, $10,000; children's guardian account and juvenile delinquents, $1,000; National Guard, $1,500; tax board, $2,500; law library, $1,000; county clerk's office, salaries, etc., $8,000; surrogate's office, salaries, etc., $1,00; sheriff's office, salaries, etc., $8,000.

Debt and interest: Payment of interest on bonded debt, $44,000; payment on bond interest on temporary loans, $1,200; sinking fund, court house bonds, $8,000; sinking fund road improvement bonds, $1,500; sinking fund, armory bonds, $1,000; sinking fund, Rahway avenue, $1,000.

Public works: Permanent improvement of public buildings and grounds, heat, light, employees, etc., $20,000; erection and repair of culverts and bridges and salaries of bridge tenders, $50,000; repairs to county roads, $30,000; hospitals, $22,000; repairs to roads built under State Aid Road Act, $22,000; cleaning and maintaining gutters county roads, $1,500; roads built under State Aid Act, $2,000; tuberculosis hospital, $1,000, making a total of $442,500 to be assessed and collected in the manner and at the times prescribed by the laws.

The assessors throughout the county will meet at the Court House, Elizabeth, Tuesday morning, August 8, at 10 o'clock, to adjust and ascertain the proportion of said amount to be levied in each township, borough and ward of the county.

SOMERSET COUNCIL ELECTS ITS OFFICERS.

Somerset Council, No. 104, J. O. U. A. M., at its regular meeting, last evening, elected these officers for the ensuing year: Past Councilor, Edward Hughes; councilor, Guy Thomas; vice-councilor, Charles DeCamp; recording secretary, Walter Walker; assistant recording secretary, William Welsh; financial secretary, Jesse Scull; treasurer, P. H. Latourette; outside sentinel, Fred Welsh; inside sentinel, Franw Stillwell; conductor, George Van Orden; warden, Lester C. R. Dunham; trustees, one year, Fred Welsh, two years, William Creveling, three years, Guy Thomas; representative State Council, George Watts; representative Funeral Benefit Association, Fred Welsh. The installation will take place Friday evening, July 7.

TRINITY BOYS EXPLORE NEAR WASHINGTON ROCK.

The Boys' Mission Band of Trinity Reformed church went on a picnic to Washington Rock yesterday, being in charge of their president, Harold W. Schenck. The day was spent in playing baseball and exploring the mountains in the vicinity of the rock. Camp life was enjoyed at dinner time when the boys built a fire and cooked bacon, coffee, and other bits of camp "grub." During the explorations the boys saw two raccoons in a buttonwood tree trying to steal a crow's nest. The owner of the nest drove them off after a spirited fight.

In the party were Lawrence French, Elmer French, Joseph Wherry, William Hoffman, Walter Smith, Oscar Dilts, George Hummel, Lewis Chandler, Raymond Vail, Harold Vail, Howard Willett, and Alfred Willett.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lowe and son, Franklin, of Fairview avenue, left today for Asbury Park, where they will spend the summer at the Sunset Avenue House.

—Two reasons, yours and ours. Both satisfied. O-X-O Bread. ***

DIPLOMAS FOR 31

Elaborate Commencement Exercises of the Plainfield Business College.

DR. W. L. SAUNDERS PRESIDES.

Rev. Dr. Morgan, of Newark and Others Make Addresses—Principal A. S. Herr Pays a Tribute to His Wife.

Thirty-one pupils were graduated from the Plainfield Business College and School of English at the commencement exercises held in the Plainfield theatre last night. The house was crowded to its capacity with friends and relatives of the graduates. Dr. William L. Saunders, who presided, introduced the speakers with a delightful sense of humor. Those who delivered addresses were Mayor G. W. V. Moy, Herbert E. Parker, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., and Rev. Dr. William H. Morgan, of Newark.

The stage presented an attractive appearance with a sylvan setting in front of which was a bank of beautiful cut flowers. The speakers were seated at the left of the stage with the faculty of the school on the opposite side. During the overture, played by Korff's orchestra of seven pieces, the members of the graduating class dressed in black caps and gowns marched in from the wings and seated themselves in the middle of the stage.

The invocation was delivered by Rev. Franklin K. Mathiews, of Scotch Plains, and Mr. Saunders introduced Mayor Moy who extended a welcome to all present. He spoke of the value of a business college course and the need of such a training for all branches of life's work.

A round of laughter followed when Dr. Saunders suddenly realized that Dr. Savitz, the county superintendent of school, whom he had intructed as the next speaker was not in audience. B. F. Tallamy, of this city, sang as a baritone number, "Queen of the Earth." He responded to an encore with "Sleep and Forget."

Herbert E. Parker spoke on "What I Regard as an Efficiency Test to Inspire Public Confidence in a School Like This." The Y. M. C. A. secretary pointed out two tests, the first being that the work meets a need and the second that the methods are up to date. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Parker showed the need of vocational training for a life of service, and that the working conditions in business are unfavorable to the untrained worker. He declared that thousands of untrained men are doomed to stand still in positions to which they have been attraced by alluring pay because they have not the ability of trained brains to push ahead. On account of the monotony, hopelessness and insecurity of such positions the worst social evils, vagrancy, pauperism, insanity and crime result. The speaker also declared that an alarmingly large number of the youth of the country are going into business with inadequate preparation.

"Forces That Make for Human Character" was the subject of the address by Rev. Dr. William H. Morgan. He said that the biggest thing in life is a human being and that character will outlive wealth and education. The price of education, according to Dr. Morgan, who had educated himself and had received two degrees since he was twenty-three years old, is surely work and determination. He related the story of the late John Johnson, who was for many years governor of Minnesota, and who had come to this country a poor Norwegian laborer not knowing how to read or write. Dr. Morgan finally declared to the graduates that success depends on two words, "I will."

Mr. Tallamy sang another selection, "In the Garden of My Heart" after which a flashlight photograph was taken of the graduates, who held the bouquets of flowers, which had been presented to them by their friends.

After a speech by Prof. Herr, the principal of the school, in which he paid a beautiful tribute to the work of his wife, he presented the diplomas to the graduates in waltz time, the certificates being passed among the class members in exact precision according to the music.

Those who were graduated last night are: Minnie Margaret Callahan, Ethel Mantz Neumann, Lillian Belle Hamlin, Helen Elizabeth Mullen, Anna Veronica McCarthy, Winfield Wainright, William George Dealaman, Helen Sadie Lambert, Ruth Weinberger, Marcell Domenico Marro, Anna Mundell Clark, all of this city; Edna German Haynes, Margaret Agnes Mohan, Owen J. Mohan, Charles L. Wahl, Beatrice Mildred Cameron, of Dunellen; Ernestine McKee, Elizabeth; Oleo Mitchell Gray, of Somerville; Margaret Bates

(Continued on page 5.)

DROWNS IN BROOK

Nicholas Dameseo Loses His Life While Bathing at Sebring's Mills.

COMPANIONS RECOVER BODY.

Youth Employed at City Market Shouted to Friends "The Water is Fine" and Them Disappeared from Sight.

In company with a number of young men of his age, Nicholas Dameseo, eighteen years old, of East Third street, went, last night, for a swim in Green brook at Sebring's Mills and was drowned in twenty feet of water. His body was recovered several hours later.

Young Dameseo was employed in the City Market on North avenue. He had been in this country eight years, but had lived here only about three months. His mother lives in Brooklyn and she has been notified. County Physician Hubbard, of New Brunswick, viewed the body this morning and granted a burial permit.

Albert and Jerry Paoli, Stefano and Dominic Spilato, Edward and John Jones and Dominic Vetter were the drowned lad's companions. Dameseo was about the first to disrobe and joyfully acclaimed the fact that the water was fine after taking a dip. He was unable to swim and was warned, but made a reassuring reply.

Albert Paoli had struck out after plunging in and was swimming easily with the current some distance from the rest of the party when his attention was attraced by the cries of the other boys who said Nick had been down a long time. Young Paoli dove repeatedly but was unable to locate the lad at the place he was seen to go down.

The bank declines sharply at that point which is at a bend, having been washed away by the stream and this caused the boy to lose his footing. As it was quite dark the other boys did not immediately notice Nick's disappearance.

Becoming fatigued with his repeated diving, young Paoli dressed and went to Bound Brook for help. Boats and ropes were secured and others dove in an attempt to locate the body. It was finally located and by crossing and sinking the ropes it as brought to the shore.

The body was removed to the Dunellen morgue and the victim's companions returned to this city, notifying the police upon their arrival. Arrangements were later made to have the body brought here where the funeral will be held.

STATE TRUST COMPANY DEPOSITS $312,725.79.

The State Trust Company today has given out a comparative statement of deposits showing the company's growth since it began business on September 16 last, as follows:

September 17, 1910....	$138,541.95
November 10, 1910....	179,663.59
December 31, 1910....	206,115.50
April 5, 1911.....	240,192.11
May 12, 1911.....	268,284.26
June 12, 1911.....	283,922.66
June 30, 1911.....	312 725,79

This money had been deposited by about thirteen hundred people all of which shows a wide spread confidence in the company and its methods and as this result has been achieved in a little over nine months the company is to be heartily congratulated.

JOHN HILTON TO LEAVE PLAINFEILD COUNTRY CLUB.

John Hilton, who is now in his third season as superintendent of the Plainfield Country Club, has resigned his position to take effect on July 6. Mr. Hilton will take a similar position at the Apawamis Country Club, one of the largest in the East, where he was formerly a clerk before coming to Plainfield.

During his stay here Mr. Hilton has brought the country club service up to a high state of efficiency and he has many friends among the members who will regret to learn of his resignation. Last winter Mr. Hilton went to his native home in England and while abroad was married. Mrs. Hilton is now living at the club with her husband, having come to this country after the latter did early in the spring.

Crap Shooters Fined.

William Oliver, Eugene Britton, Oscar Greene and Edward Connett, all colored, were arraigned before Judge W. G. DeMeza, in the city court this morning on the charge of shooting crap last Sunday afternoon in the rear of Winfield Angleman's yard on West Front street. A fine of $2 each was imposed after a severe lecture by the court on the evils of gambling.

—Several reasons why you should eat O-X-O Bread. Get one, it speaks for itself. ***

DESPONDENT FLORIST ENDS HIS EXISTENCE

Ernest Marland, aged thirty years, employed for several months by Thomas Young, at his greenhouses at Harrison Lane, near Bound Brook, committed suicide yesterday afternoon in the greenhouses by shooting himself in the head. He was found a few minutes later by fellow-workmen who were attracted by the report of the revolver. When they reached the spot the man was dead.

Marland had been a resident in the vicinity about a year and had been employed by Mr. Young the past few months. He had a good reputation and the family is unable to account for the deed, except that recently he was heard to remark that he owed considerable money. Marland leaves a wife and three small children.

MISS SCHREIBWEIS THE NEW CITY NURSE

Miss Olive Louise Schreibweis, who was graduated from the Muhlenberg Hospital Training School for Nurses, has been engaged as city nurse to work under the direction of the Charity Organization Society. She succeeds Miss Autumn DeLany, who in turn succeeded her sister, Miss Olive DeLany. Miss Schreibweis since her graduation has been doing institutional work at the Women's and Children's Infirmary in New York city.

Sometime ago the city nurse work here, which was conducted by the City Union of The King's Daughters, was given up by that organization and turned over to the Charity Organization Society. The reason for this was that the work was getting beyond the scope of the King's Daughters and it required a larger organization to handle it. This will be done in the future. Miss Schreibweis began her duties today.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF BERTRAM FIRSTBROOK

The funeral of Bertram Collins Firstbrook, whose death occurred at his home on Liberty street, Wednesday afternoon after a two days' illness, was held yesterday afternoon from the residents of his mother Mrs. Mary E. Firstbrook, of East Second street. The residence was filled with a large gathering of relatives and friends representing all walks of life in the city and borough, while many came from distant parts.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the First Methodist church, conducted the service, assisted by Rev. Dr. Abel C. McCrea, of Jersey City, and Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor of Hope chapel, of which Mr. Firstbrook was a member and one of the original members of the present Sunday-school which first met in January, 1888.

The order of service was prayer by Rev. Dr. Anderson; scripture reading by Rev. Mr. Greene; address by Rev. Dr. McCrea; prayer by Rev. Mr. Greene, and closed with prayer by Rev. Dr. Anderson. William N. Runyon sang Tenneyson's "Crossing the Bar," and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" with a wealth of feeling and expression.

In speaking of the departed, Rev. Dr. McCrea said that death comes at all ages. In this particular instance the Angel of Death had taken a young man in half the allotted years which bears out that passage in God's word that those whom He loves He takes to Him. Continuing he recalled the night four years ago he had joined in holy matrimony Mr. and Mrs. Firstbrook and said that the sacred pledge given that night had been fulfilled until death do us part. About Mr. Firstbrook's gifts, the pastor said that he was of a natural bouyant nature and had used his talents for the enjoyment of others, thereby making the world a better place for his having lived.

There was an unusually large collection of floral tributes manifesting the esteem in which the deceased was held by all who enjoyed his friendship. These came from relatives, friends and organizations of which he was a member including Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., and Timbo Social Club. Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., also sent an appropriate set piece.

Interment was made in the family plot in the Methodist cemetery, the pall bearers being six young men who had been numbered among the departed closest friends; Philip Jahn, William Feiring, George W. Pope, William F. Doud, Chauncey F. Stout and Harry N. Blimm.

—Use Press want ads.

PUNISHES ANNOYER

The Young Woman's Father Thrashes Drunken Man Who Insulted Her.

COMMENDED BY THE COURT.

Tells Mr. Favoir He Did Right in Thrashing Myers Who is Given $20 or 30 Days as Extra Punishment.

Administering a scathing rebuke to William Myers, of Park avenue and lately of New Brunswick, for insulting a young woman on the street last night, Judge DeMeza in police court this morning commended the girl's father for giving her annoyer a good, sound drubbing. Myers' face showed the marks of the blows dealt him by Chris Favoir, of East Front street, the young woman's father who was with her when Myers, much the worse for liquor, had accosted her.

"You deserved all you got," said Judge DeMeza, in addressing Myers after hearing the testimony, "and more too. I'll give you the rest right now. So long as I am on this bench I'll see that the women of this community are protected from the insults of such as you. Now, I'll give you a $20 fine or thirty days in jail—take your choice. But mark my word, if you ever come before me again on a similar charge I'll make the jail sentence double."

Turning to the girl's father, Judge DeMeza complimented him for giving Myers a good thrashing. "You did just right," said the court, "and I want to tell you that under the circumstances you were justified in taking the law into your own hands and giving this man a licking.

Approaching Mr. Favoir as he stood with his daughter waiting for a car, Myers asked if a certain car was bound for Arlington avenue and received an affirmative reply. As Myers was about to board the car he extended his hand and address Mr. Favor's daughter said "Hello Kid." Almost at the same instant, Mr. Favoir's right fist landed on Myer's face and the blow was followed by another and another and Myers was sent reeling into the gutter. Roundsman Higgins and Patrolman Kelly arrived on the scene and escorted Myers to police headquarters.

Rev. Mr. Reid's Plans.

After spending several months in this city, which he makes his home while in the United States, Rev. Dr. Gilbert Reid, president of the International Institute of China, left this morning for a weeks' tour about New York before leaving for his post of duty in the Orient. He will leave New York Wednesday, July 12, for Liverpool, where he will transfer to a steamer plying the Mediterranean and Suez canal and thence to Shanghai, via the Indian ocean. Mrs. Reid and their son, Gilbert, and daughter, Jean, will accompany him.

Decision Again Reserved.

Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court this morning again reserved decision for another week in the case of Joseph Manhattan against Stanley Stroke, to allow the latter's counsel to prepare and submit a brief. Manhattan brought the action on an alleged violation of the city ordinance regarding the sale of liquor to a minor.

Series of Bible Readings.

Evangelist A. O. Lund is conducting a series of Bible lectures in the gospel tent at Church and East Front street, every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock. Every Wednesday at 8 o'clock the services will be held in English. Song service begins at 7:45. The public is cordially invited, especially Scandinavians.

Leave on Auto Trip.

P. Frank Stone, the photographer, and Mrs. Stone, of West Front street, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Craig, of Myrtle avenue, leave today in their automobiles for Asbury Park, where they will remain until Wednesday of next week. While at the shore they will enjoy a number of short trips in their autos.

Mr. Whitaker Leaves.

Thomas G. Whitaker, who has been physical director at the local Y. M. C. A. for the past year, left this city yesterday afternoon for Philadelphia, where he will become assistant swimming instructor in the University of Pennsylvania. He expects to take charge of playground work this summer.

Swedish Pastor a Benedict.

Rev. Gottfried Syabloom, pastor of the Swedish Congregational church, and Miss Grandlund, the latter of Michigan City, Ind., were married last evening at the home of the bride. After a wedding trip the couple will reside in this city.

Gents' Furnishings

MEN'S LIGHT WEIGHT UNDERWEAR—The famous Delmarvia sanitary checked dimity; short drawers, sleeveless shirts, reinforced; the most comfortable kind of underwear for warm weather; the 39c grade; on Saturday and Monday for 25c

MEN'S WASH TIES in pretty, neat, stylish designs; the regular 50c kind; on Saturday and Monday 35c; or 3 for $1.00

TRUNKS AND TRAVELING BAGS.

A complete line of both kinds, the kinds that we can fully recommend. We will sell you a trunk Saturday or Monday, cloth lined, extra heavy brass trimmings, reinforced with heavy iron bands; value $7.98; sale price.....$5.00

BABCOCK'S CORYLOPSIS

Talcum Powder in perforated can, regular value 15c; on sale Saturday and Monday at..10c

CHILDREN'S SOCKLETS.

Shirred elastic, with rosettes and bows; pink, white and blue; 19c value for.....10c

ALLOVER LACES.

in white cream and ecru; pretty designs; 18 inches wide; values up to $1.19, for.....79c

A. E. Force & Co

"THE WHITE STORE"

WE GIVE "S&H" THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. Premium Parlor on 3rd Floor. GREEN TRADING STAMPS

The "White Store" is Bountifully Supplied with Every Requisite that You May Need for the Proper Celebration of the "Glorious Fourth."

COME HERE ON SATURDAY AND MONDAY FOR THESE IMPORTANT BARGAINS.

Tuesday Being the 4th of July This Store Will Be Open for Your Accommodation on Monday Evening

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments

DRESSES—For Fourth of July outing, in natural color, white and blue, with embroidered front and piping; these are $2.50 values; Saturday and Monday $1.75

LADIES' DRSSSES—In neat checks, linen, figured effects; others with dainty borders; big variety of styles to select from; values from $5.00 to $7.50; on Saturday and Monday only at .....$2.98 and $3.98

THOSE WHITE LINGERIE DRESSES—All white lawn, handsomely trimmed with beautiful lace and medallions; no two alike; we consider these the best values we have ever offered you; positive values up to $10; on Saturday and Monday your choice for.....$3.98

LAST FEW DAYS OF THE MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE—There still are many exceptional values that can be picked up tomorrow. Some of which have been re-marked to close them; such as skirts, drawers, corset covers and combinations.

CORSETS—A special lot of light weight corsets in ventilated batiste, suitable for warm weather wear; all the sizes, and new models; regular $1.50; specially priced for Saturday and Monday $1.00

MIDDY BLOUSE WAISTS—Made of galatea, sailor collars of navy or cadet blue, with windsor ties; $1.25 quality for.....98c

MILLINERY AND FLOWER SPECIALS—Your choice of our beautifully trimmed hats, this season's new models, that sold up to $6.50; closing price $2.98

FLOWERS—All kinds of beautiful flowers for hat trimming purposes, that sold up to $1.25; closing price 39c

Popular Sheet Music Specials for 10c Per Copy

Honey Love
Who Are You With Tonight
Hurry Up Those Wedding Bells
Casey Jones
On Mobile Bay

It's Got to Be Some One I Love
Peggy Gray
You'll Do the Same Thing Over
Alamo Rag
Steamboat Bill

Lovie Joe
Summer Days
Dreamy Italian Waltz
All That I Ask is Love
Dreams Just Dreams

Housefurnishing Specials

ALARM CLOCKS—Heavy nickel, warranted one year; regular value 79c; on Saturday and Monday only for.....59c

STAIR BRUSHES—7 inches long, wire fastened; sold regularly for 29c; on Saturday and Monday for 19c

LADIES' HOSIERY.

Black lisle, black and white boot lace in sizes 8½ to 9½; regular 50c value; Saturday and Monday at 39c

A GREAT RIBBON SPECIAL

Consisting of satin and taffeta, all new shades and fancies, from 4 to 6 inches wide; values up to 39c; on Saturday and Monday 15c

SUN UMBRELLAS.

Ladies' mercerized Pongee Sun Umbrellas in brown, green and red; $1 grade for.....69c

FLAGS! FLAGS! FLAGS!

"Don't" leave your home unadorned on the Fourth. Let the Stars and Stripes float triumphant from every housetop on that day. We carry every conceivable kind and size from the small 5c grade to the largest all wool bunting; also poles and fixtures.

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL.

Health is Worth Saving, and Some Plainfield People Know How to Save It.

Many Plainfield people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering an ill health—the slightest delay is dangerous. Use Doan's Kidney Pills—a remedy that has cured thousands of kidney sufferers. Here is a Plainfield citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Margaret Reville, 732 West Third street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "For a long time I was troubled by lame and weak back and I never found anything that would help me until I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Randolph's Drug Store. My back was so painful and sore that I dreaded to stoop and whenever I caught cold or exerted myself, I suffered more severely. I tried several kidney remedies but it was left for Doan's Kidney Pills, which I obtained at Randolph's Drug Store to cure me. They are certainly a most effective preparation for kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

ECONOMY JARS WILL KEEP YOUR FRUIT PERFECT

When your fruits are "Economy Preserved" you can be absolutely certain that they will keep perfectly until you want to use them. They cannot spoil as the sanitary composition in the cap seals them to stay sealed.

Come in and let us show you how simple and how easy it is to preserve in the "Economy Way."

Here's the recipe:

Cook your fruit YOUR OWN WAY. Then while hot pour into Economy Jars and place caps on, using spring which comes with them to hold cap in place.

When cool there is about fifteen pounds suction holding the cap on to stay.

Order a dozen Economy Jars at once.

Price per dozen—1-qt. size, $1.20; 2-qt. size, $1.40.

New Caps and Springs for your last year's Economy Jars at small price.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-123 EAST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

TWO 'PHONES—6-214

Call one number; if central does not connect you with us, please call the other.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Stocks were dull and irregular in New York yesterday.

President Taft and his family left Washington for Beverly, Mass.

Cardinal Gibbons celebrated the fiftieth anniversary as Cardinal.

The battleship squadron commanded by Rear Admiral Badger left Kiel.

The federal Treasury closed the fiscal year with a surplus of $33,000,000 and $1,800,000,000 cash in its vaults.

Congress.—Senate: The discussion of reciprocity continued, with signs that a vote is near. House was not in session.

King George issued a message of thanks to his subjects for their "loyalty unstintedly expressed" during the coronation period.

Eight lives were lost in the collapse of a building of the new $400,000 water works at Buffalo; four other men were injured.

Officers of the state banks and trust companies of New York, passed resolutions protesting against Senator Grady's Clearing House bill.

It was learned at Albany that Governor Dix would probably appoint ex-Chief Croker of the New York Fire Department as State Fire Marshal.

The report of Herbert Knox Smith, Commissioner of Corporations, on his investigation of the United States Steel Corporation was made public.

Charges of immorality at Hoffman Island were made by an orderly at the hearing on Dr. Alvah H. Doty's administration as Health Officer of the port.

A verdict for $250,000 was rendered in London against Horatio Bottomley, M. P., for obtaining subscriptions to stocks issued under false pretences.

Judge Honore ruled that Evelyn Arthur See, on trial in Chicago for the abduction of Mildred Bridges, must answer the fourteen remaining counts in the indictment.

Harry Atwood, of Boston, took Mayor Mahan, of New London, in his biplane and followed the Yale-Harvard crews during part of their race at New London, Conn.

Suits to recover $2,000,000 in unpaid stock transfer taxes are being pressed by the New York State Controller; similar claims amounting to $3,000,000 have been outlawed.

The government prosecutors announced that the Wire Trust indictments were only the beginning of a further inquiry into other alleged pools among Steel Corporation subsidiaries.

Vessels were tied up in every English port by the seamen's strike; at Liverpool an attempt was made to set fire to a liner; the outlook was for worse conditions in the immediate future.

Mrs. Stella Hodge, who confessed killing Emile Amann at Warren, Pa., for which crime J. M. Andrews was convicted, was lodged in the Warren jail; the authorities discredit the woman's confession.

J. B. Reichmann, former president of the Carnegie Trust Company, was sentenced to serve four and a half months in prison and was sent to the Tombs pending a hearing on his application for a certificate of reasonable doubt.

The way was made clear to begin the work of digging the new subways in New York, and it was announced the first contracts would be let on Wednesday; President Shonts said the Interborough would not accept the modifications offered by the city, and therefore was "through."

The European aviation circuit, organized by "Le Journal," caused a dispute with its rival Paris newspaper "Le Matin," which culminated in a duel between the editors, in which both were slightly wounded; the dispute is to be arbitrated by a third newspaper and M. Labori, the advocate.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS MUST BE PUBLIC NOW.

Under the operation of one of the new laws affecting the government of schools in the State, and which went into effect yesterday, as specifically provided for in the act, all executive sessions of every school board will be public hereafter.

This requirement applies both to the members of the State Board of Education and to the school boards of every district throughout New Jersey, big or little. In addition, the law requires that all meetings shall begin by 8 o'clock in the evening.

The specific wording of the act is as follows:

"Its (the State School Board's) meetings, as well as those of every Board of Education in this State, shall be public, and shall commence not later than 8 p. m."

Some school boards have done practically all their important business in star chambers without permitting the public whom they were serving to have any knowledge of what was under consideration or to observe the manner of considering the subjects under discussion.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

—Use Press want ads.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 126 North Ave.
H. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbo & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....313 Watchung Ave.
Geo. Molodesky.....147 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
H. A. Laing.....148 W. Front St.
A. D. Madison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Mottl.....111 Park Ave.
Fehsle & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead....321 Watchung Ave.
C. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
F. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen .....R. Peters
New Market..... Corlell
Bound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains .....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood.....W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOMERVILLE.

The lawn fete which was given under the auspices of the Somerset County Hospital Women's Auxiliary Thursday evening on the lawn of Elmer Richards, in South Bridge street, was a financial success. The lawn was tastefully trimmed with Japanese latnerns. Music was furnished by the Somerville band.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Bergen, who were married in Plainfield Wednesday, are spending their honeymoon in Canada. On their return they will reside at the home of the bridegroom on West Cliff street, Somerville.

Mrs. Jacob Gernert has returned from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. David Loree, at Willimantic, Conn. Mr. Loree was formerly in business in Somerville.

William A. Burner, who has been in camp at Lake Hopatcong since April, is down from camp for a few days. He will return today for the summer.

Miss Edna Koch, of Grove street, has returned from Pine Hill, N. Y., where she spent three weeks with her grandmother.

Thomas White, of New York, has been spending a few days this week with his sister, Mrs. Charles Reynolds, in Raritan.

Miss Grace V. Kelly is ill at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kelly, in Somerset street.

Lloyd Vosseller, of Doughty street, and Edward Ehrn, of Raritan, are canoeing along the Delaware.

Jeremiah Flaherty has moved his family from Somerville to Bound Brook.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Harry Giddes, who played short stop for the Dunellen team last season and who was for three years one of the star players on the Plainfield High School nine, is covering third base for the team from the Central Railroad of New Jersey. He appears this afternoon on the local diamond opposed to his old club.

Clarence T. Voorhees, the popular and jovial butcher of North avenue, cut one of his fingers badly the other day with a cleaver. The wound was dressed at Pennock's drug store and Mr. Voorhees was able to go on the excursion Thursday.

Frank Webb, of Lincoln, has returned from a three months' business trip. Mr. Webb is a travelling salesman for a large manufacturing concern.

Isaac Breyer and family have returned from Tennessee and have moved into their residence on Dunellen avenue.

DeWitt Pierson, of New Market road, is suffering from two broken ribs, which he sustained in a fall the other day.

Harry Shugars has taken a position with John W. Moynihan, laying concrete walks.

Mrs. Winters, of Mountain View, is detained at home with a serious illness.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

RAN AWAY FROM HOME TO MARRY A WIDOWER.

Hackensack, July 1.—Running away from her parents, who objected to her marrying a widower twice her age, Miss Ida May Woods, of Franklin township Thursday, met Burdette MacDonald, of this city, and in the presence of Assistant Prosecutor John B. Zabriskie, were married by Rev. James K. Easley, in the latter's home.

Miss Woods left her home in the morning, ostensibly to go to Paterson. Instead she took the trolley to this town and met her future husband in the law office of Mr. Zabriskie, who is the attorney of the bridegroom. Miss Mary B. Noonan, Mr. Zabriskie's secretary, assisted the bride to don her newly purchased wedding dress while the license was being procured.

The bridegroom thought that a long-distance telephone message would suffice to notify his father-in-law of the marriage.

Cut Peach Crop Estimate.

Reports from the peach growing districts of Hunterdon county, says an exchange, indicate that the yield will be unusually small. Hunterdon is one of the banner peach counties of the state, and earlier in the season every indication pointed to a heavy yield, but the June drop has been the heaviest for a long time. Growers who three weeks ago predicted they would market between state that no more than 300 will be 2,000 and 3,000 baskets each now gathered, and these from the earlier varieties. One grower who anticipated a yield of from 8,000 to 10,000 baskets now reduces his estimate to about 1,500. The growers are at a loss to account for the heavy drop. One theory is that the extreme dry weather, followed by heavy rains, caused the fruit to loosen.

Mr. and Mrs. William Scarlett and son, of this city, have been visiting at Harlingen.

NO HIGH FLYING BY AVIATOR AT ASBURY.

Notwithstanding the several offers which Asbury Park has received from aeronauts, who want to fly there for a consideration, it is declared positively by the members of the Aero Club that there will be no such exhibition.

The meeting which was held last year was successful, but the death of Prince by a fall from his parachute, and almost fatal accident to Brookins so unnerved those in charge of the meet, that they declared when it was over that they would never consent to another flying exhibition.

It is a certainty that the offer of the several birdmen will be turned down. One of them wanted $6,000 for a flight from New York, following it up with a two days' exhibition.

SENATOR FRELINGHUYSEN UNDERWENT OPERATION.

Raritan, July 1.—State Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen is recovering from the effects of an operation which he underwent on Monday. He had been complaining for several days, but was at his desk in his New York office Saturday.

The Senator decided Sunday that he would call in his physicians, and Drs. Ely and Hooker, of Manhattan, were summoned. They advised the operation, and it was performed in the Frelinghuysen residence.

Mr. Frelinghuysen was reported as improving rapidly at his home this morning. He was notified during the day of his selection by Governor Wilson to be a member of the new State Board of Education.

GERAN DEFENDS RECALL.

Hackensack, July 1.—Assemblyman Elmer H. Geran, of Monmouth county, and District Court Judge Cornelius Doremus were the speakers at a meeting of the Federation of Civic Clubs in the Union League quarters here Thursday night. The recall feature of the Walsh commission government act was the subject of discussion by both and their views as to its application differed.

Judge Doremus as the first speaker, disclaiming any desire to criticize the measure, asserted that he did not favor the recall, because by its application it would be possible for a good official to be placed on the grill at the whim of persons unfriendly to him.

Mr. Geran in defense of the Walsh bill in its entirety, declared that the invoking of the recall would not be resorted to as frequently as some persons seem to think. With such a law, however, he said, officials realize they must perform their duties properly or suffer the consequences.

There were about 125 members of the various civic organizations present. William Dulles, president of the federation, introduced the speakers.

DUPLICATE CUPS ARRIVE.

Asbury Park, July 1.—Some of the duplicate cups to take the places of those stolen as prizes in the baby parade in August arrived Thursday, but Colonel John W. Aymar, the president of the carnival commission, refused to place them on exhibition until he was guaranteed that they would be protected. Mr. Aymar contends that had the publicity bureau, where the original cups were on exhibition, been properly lighted, there would have been no theft.

He says further that there should be an officer in the vicinity of the publicity bureau at all times of the night. It seems likely that Mr Aymar's request will be granted.

Fined for Using Sore Horse.

For allowing an employe to drive a horse on which the harness had rubbed a sore, Robin Rubenstein, of 32 Cherry street, Orange, was fined $10 and $3.60 costs by Justice of the Peace Henry L. Yost, of Montclair, Thursday afternoon. The arrest was made by Policeman Patrick Gannon. Charles N. Peterson, of that town, acting for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, preferred the charge. The dirver, it is said, had been warned against using the horse by a Montclair policeman the day before.

Farmer Oddly Injured.

Califon, July 1.—While John Pace, a farmer of Tewksbury Township, was stabling a team of horses Thursday, he accidently caught his foot in the lines. The animal bolted through the stable door and around the farm buildings, dragging Mr. Pace at the end of the lines. Mr. Pace was picked up in an unconscious condition, and removed to his home. While no bones were broken, he was cut and bruised about the head, body and arms.

KOLB'S SATURDAY SPECIALS

COCOANUT KISSES, lb.....18c
AFTER LUNCH MINTS, lb.....18c
MOLASSES KISSES, lb.....18c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c

We carry all the leading kinds of Ice Cream, Water Ices and Sundaes. Our new Ice Cream Parlor, which was recently completed, is the coolest place in town. Ice Cream orders in any quantity always receive our prompt attention. Give us a trial and convince yourself.

KOLB'S, 112 WEST FRONT ST.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

HAWES STRAW HATS—better than ever—$2.00 & $3.00

PANAMAS $5.00 and $6.00

119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

Metal Garages

Touring car size $100 and up. Recently completed one in Plainfield, for inspection. Sectional. Portable or permanent. Immediate delivery.

John H. Taylor & Bro.

Montclair, N. J.

TIMBO'S Stock for Smokers

Romeo and Juliets, La Carolinas, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merrails & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampe makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles.

133-135 North Avenue.

Beginning Monday, July 3rd, this store will open 8:30 during July, August and September.

Move For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

Beautiful line wash four-in-hands just received at 25c

FOURTH OF JULY SPECIALS

TO HELP YOU CELEBRATE THE GLORIOUS DAY—WE ARE PREPARED TO SERVE YOU TO YOUR SATISFACTION IN EVERY DEPARTMENT; STOCKS WERE NEVER MORE COMPLETE WITH WARM WEATHER NECESSITIES. THESE SPECIALS ARE FOR SATURDAY AND MONDAY.

25c WOMEN'S LISLE VESTS 19c.

Regular or extra sizes in these lisle vests, straight cut, splendid finish; regular 25c; on sale 19c

AN EXCEPTIONAL CORSET COVER VALUE AT 50c.

We are placing on sale a new lot of about six styles of corset covers that are made as nice and of as good materials and trimmings as a great many stores show at 75c; every one is fresh and clean and you will delight in choosing from the lot at 50c

18c GAUZE STOCKINGS 12c.

Not a pair in this lot is a "second;" it's a splendid saving on these gauze lisle stockings; fast black, all sizes; a regular 18c value; on sale 12c

50c LISLE STOCKINGS 39c.

A real gauze lisle stocking with garter tops; high spliced heels; double soles; Hermsdorf dye; regular 50c; on sale..39c

$5.98 AND $6.98 WOMEN'S LINEN SUITS AT $4.98.

Twenty-five women's pure linen Tailored Suits made in this season's leading style, in pure linen shrunk finish, either natural or half bleached; sailor or plain coat collar; well tailored; our regular values $5.98 and $6.98, though some stores get $8.00 or $9.00 for them; on sale.....$4.98

NEW ATTRACTIVE WASH DRESSES $2.98.

Several new styles just put in stock in figured batiste and ginghams; low neck style, some with sailor collars, trimmed in dainty embroideries; values up to $4.98; on sale.....$2.98

COOL DRESSING SACQUES 50c.

30 dozen comfortable, well made, cool dressing sacques; made of dependable, washable figured lawns, in several styles with square neck or sailor collar style; regular or princess length; values up to 75c; on sale.....50c
(Sizes 36 to 50).

STYLISH REPP WASH SKIRTS $1.69.

The season's best styles in these splendid Repp skirts, well tailored; they fit and hang as well as a high priced skirt; the best seller is a nine gored style; another good style is button on the side; values up to $2.75; on sale.....$1.69

10c WOMEN'S VESTS AT 7c

These are good 10c vests, made with taped neck and arms, cut full sizes, strictly first quality; on sale, each..7c

Men's Pongee Shirts made of genuine soisette, with collars or neck bands, and double cuffs, colors white, pongee and grey; usual $1.25 value at $1.00

Summer weight ribbed underwear for men, well made; regular 50c value; on sale 39c

Men's gauze lisle socks; black and colors, at.....12½c

FLAGS! FLAGS!

5x8 ft. standard quality all wool bunting flags at....$3.98
6x9, same at.....$4.98
4x6 same at.....$2.98
2x4 foot good heavy cotton bunting flags at.....45c
4x6 foot, same at.....85c
5x8 foot, same at.....$1.25
Red, white and blue bunting decorating for the Fourth; on sale 4c

This store is truly for the economically inclined. The goods we sell are of dependable quality, so you are assured of getting satisfactory service out of any article you buy---then again our prices are the very lowest possible---so you are assured of getting full value for every dollar you spend. Could the most frugal economist ask more than that?

Balance of summer goods including

Porch Screens, Screen Doors, Porch Chairs, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Swings

at the most interesting prices.

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases

Always the largest stock of well-made serviceable goods in these lines and a real saving in price too.

Shirley & Johnston

Babcock Building

SPORTS

News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	4th.	5th.	6th.	7th.	8th.
New York	7	..	13	3	10	4	37
Brooklyn	4	..	4	2	1	3	14
Boston	1	..	6	3	6	4	7	18
Philadelphia	3	5	2	1	4	4	19
Chicago	6	4	12	1	1	2	26
Cincinnati	..	6	1	3	3	2	15
Pittsburg	3	2	4	3	3	3	18
St. Louis	..	3	12	7	6	5	33

AMERICAN
New York	20	..	3	5	..	5	6	39
Philadelphia	7	..	3	10	..	3	6	49
Boston	1	..	2	3	..	4	7	17
Washington	8	..	1	11	2	9	3	45
St. Louis	..	1	..	..	2	6	..	9
Cleveland	..	10	..	..	12	8	1	31
Chicago	..	8	3	5	7	7	8	38
Detroit	..	4	6	3	3	3	..	16

Quinta de Roeda.

Do as you please.
Think as you please.
Use what you please.
But Speer's Wines from Passaic, N. J., vineyards are the top notch, high grade wines of America.

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	41	24	.631
Philadelphia	39	26	.600
Chicago	39	26	.600
Pittsburg	37	27	.578
St. Louis	36	29	.554
Cincinnati	29	36	.446
Brooklyn	23	41	.359
Boston	15	50	.231

Yesterday's Results.

Boston, 7; New York, 4.
Brooklyn, 3; Philadelphia, 0.
Chicago, 3; Cincinnati, 2.
St. Louis, 5; Pittsburg, 3.

Games Today.

Boston at New York.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
Pittsburg at St. Louis.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	44	22	.667
Philadelphia	42	22	.656
New York	35	28	.556
Chicago	32	28	.533
Boston	34	31	.523
Cleveland	30	38	.441
Washington	24	43	.358
St. Louis	17	46	.270

Yesterday's Results.

Boston, 7; New York, 6.
Philadelphia, 6; Washington, 3.
Chicago, 8; Cleveland, 1.

Games Today.

New York at Boston.
Philadelphia at Washington.
Chicago at Cleveland.
St. Louis at Detroit.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Rochester	43	21	.672
Baltimore	40	26	.606
Toronto	36	30	.545
Montreal	29	29	.500
Buffalo	27	30	.474
Jersey City	26	33	.441
Newark	22	36	.379
Providence	24	42	.364

Yesterday's Results.

Newark, 2; Providence, 1.
Baltimore, 10; Jersey City, 3.
Montreal, 4; Rochester, 1.

Games Today.

Newark at Providence (2 games).
Jersey City at Baltimore (two games).
Buffalo at Toronto (2 games).
Rochester at Montreal (2 games).

RAHWAY LICENSES GRANTED.

Rahway, July 1.—At a meeting of the Rahway Board of Excise, held Thursday night, the following licenses were granted: John Griggs, 45 Main street; William T. Weber, 7 Cherry street; Alexander Stamler, 58 Main street; Thomas O'Rourke, 99 West Grand street; Oscar Eberhardt, 220 Jaques avenue; William A. Huggans, 335 St. George's avenue; Philip H. Gehring, St. George's avenue.

A surprise was sprung when the board turned down the request for a renewal of a license made by M. Hildebrandt, of 254 Wast Grand street. The vote to reject was Mershon and Williams; to grant, Adler. The action was in line with the policy recently adopted by the majority of the board to reduce the number of saloons in the city. The licenses granted were the first to come under the new law of the board, which increased the fee from $500 to $700.

Heat Victim Falls 30 Feet.

Atlantic City, July 1.—Joseph Hattenboon, of Camden, was overcome by the heat while working on a signal platform thirty feet above the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad yard Thursday, and narrowly escaped death under the wheels of a Philadelphia express. He landed unconscious on top of a pile of cinders. By good fortune Hattenboon rolled in the direction opposite from the tracks used by the train, which thundered by before his body had come to a halt on the other side of the cinder pile.

Mrs. John Whitnack, of this city, has been visiting relatives at Harlingen.

N. Y. AMUSEMENTS.

Homespun melodrama, irresistible mirth, pretty and artistic dancing and feats of strength, mimicry and gymnastics all find a place on the meritorious bill which the management of Keith & Proctor's Fifth Avenue Theatre have arranged for the week of July 3rd. This all star program will be topped by Maude Lambert, who for many years has been identified with many of New York's most successful musical productions. Miss Lambert has always been known for beautiful gowns and knowing how to wear them, adding to this a beatuiful voice and figure. One must see Maude Lambert to really appreciate how and why she is considered the greatest song popularizer of them all. The way she "puts over" her songs is most fetching in style and method, yet the big noise does not happen, until she leaves the stage for a few moments, only to return a few seconds later in one of Madame Francis' marvelous creations, by far the most beautiful and costly gowns ever worn on the vaudeville stage.

The brilliant revival of Gilbert & Sullivan's most popular comic opera, "Pinafore," occupies the stage of the Casino Theatre for a limited engagement. The present revival of "Pinafore," the second in the series of comic operas written by Gilbert & Sullivan and undoubtedly the most widely known of all, is the direct result of the revival of "The Mikado" at the Casino a year ago. The success of "The Mikado" production was of such stupendous proportions as to establish absolute proof that the masterpieces were in as much demand as ever, encouraging the producers to fresh efforts along these lines. The intention is not only to produce again these works which electrified American and English theatregoers of a generation ago, but to give them more elaborate presentations than ever.

MOTORMAN'S NIGHT OFF.

For the first time in exactly a year Arthur Van Emburgh, of Elm street, Arlington, took a rest from work Thursday night. He is night motorman of the shuttle car which runs between Belleville turnpike and the Arlington Railroad station, and was on duty 364 nights during the last year.

Van Emburgh was married a year ago, and Thursday he obtained permission from his employers to take a respite from his labors in order to celebrate his wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. M.B-,c Sae iw tives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Manning Wyckoff, of Millstone, have been visiting rela-

Mrs. E. A. Watts and daughters, Dora and Myrtle, of Frankfort, have been visiting relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Garretson, formerly of Allentown, Pa., have removed to Roselle Park, Mr. Garretson's business office now being in New York with the Atlas Cement company.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING

Successors to Alex. Lusardi.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

YOU KNOW

of course, you know, but what do you know That is what I would like to know.

LAUGHING.

Went to Uptodate on Wednesday to pay my men who are getting my land prepared to sell lots. Saw a new $3,500 house being built. That is what making them laugh did. They all commenced to laugh when they saw me getting off the train but you should have seen me laugh when I saw that $3,500 house. These lots will be sold on the plan that you have to buy two to get one, for no house can be built on less than fifty feet and that must be a $2,000 house or better. I want to see you often, so you can pay me $1 down $1 per week. Read below.

UP-TO-DATE (LAKEWOOD).

I will commence selling lots at Uptodate in a few days; have almost completed what the last law requires as to lot selling, and I want you to know about the lots that I am about to deceive you with. For that reason I want all of you to use my ballot below and send me the name of someone who you want to tell you about them, and who will receive two lots for his trouble. The three who receives the most number of votes will go. I want them to tell you that you are getting more than a $100 lot for $25, and that I will not keep it up long. And I want as many of you who will pay their own expenses to go as well. I can not afford to take you. Let me know when you want to go, and I will tell you how to take a shorter walk from Uptodate depot to the lots than I walk from home to the Plainfield Depot. This contest will last two weeks from the date I commence to sell lots and any one buying before will receive their money back if they receive an adverse decision. The first two people who buy from this date, (July 26th) will receive four lots for two. Send your names at once, and you can pick your lots from maps.

MY TIME IS YOURS

159 NORTH AVENUE. 'PHONE 1907

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr.....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

OFFICIAL NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Public notice is hereby given that the placing of Firecrackers, Torpedoes, or other Fireworks, or inflammable or explosive substances upon any sidewalk, or in front of any store or other building contiguous to any public street in cities has been determind to be dangerous to life and property.

ALL PERSONS ARE WARNED that such danger must not be incurred within the limit of the City of Plainfield. Any person or persons who shall act in disregard of this notice will be prosecuted.

This notice is published by virtue of the authority conferred upon the subscriber by law.

T. O. DOANE, Fire Marshal.
6 22 27 7 1

W. W. WARNOCK'S New Bakery

Cor. North and Park Aves.

HOME-MADE BREAD, ROLLS, BISCUITS, DELICIOUS PIES, FANCY CAKES AND SPECIALTIES.

Telephone 209

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT—Notice is hereby given that the final account of the subscriber, surviving executor of Sarah P. Potter, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of July next.

Dated June 22, 1911.

WILLIAM C. HUBBARD.

ASA F. RANDOLPH, Proctor.

Fees—$4.20. 6 24 5s

Central R. R. News Stands.

You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers. English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.

LOUIS KADESH

23 Somerset Street

E. B. Maynard's

Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.

144 NORTH AVENUE.

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N.J.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

DEMOLLI

CATERER
CONFECTIONER
FRENCH BAKER

Demolli caters for receptions, teas, dinners, suppers—the finest kind of catering.

Demolli bakes French rolls and bread—the finest in town.

Candies all kinds, made in any shape to your order.

TELEPHONE YOUR ORDER.

demolli's

TELEPHONE 257

331 W. Front St.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)

217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 1 In American History.

1863—Battle of Gettysburg begun.
1898—Attack on Santiago, Cuba, by General Shafter's corps.
1905—John Hay, secretary of state of the United States, died; born 1838.
1910—Thomas B. Turley, ex-United States senator from Tennessee, died; born 1845.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:31, rises 4:29; moon sets 11:29 p. m.; moon at greatest libration west; 4 p. m., planet Mars at perihelion, nearest the sun. Constellations visible, 8:30 p. m., in July: Overhead, Hercules, Corona Borealis, Bootes; north, Ursa Minor, Draco; northeast, Cassiopeia, Cepheus, Cygnus, Lyra; east, Delphinus, Aquila; southeast, Sagittarius; south, Ophiuchus, Serpens, Scorpio, Libra; southwest, Centaurus, Hydra; west, Virgo, Leo; northwest, Canes Venatici, Leo Minor, Ursa Major, Lynx. First magnitude stars visible same hour, with rank after each: Overhead, Arcturus, 5; northeast, Deneb, 20; Vega, 6; east, Altair, 13; south, Antares, 16; west, Spica, 15; Regulus, 19. Planets during July, 1911: Mercury in Gemini, invisible; Venus in Leo, sets about 10 p. m.; Mars in Pisces, rises about midnight; Jupiter in Libra, sets about midnight; Saturn in Aries, rises about midnight; Uranus in Sagittarius, sets about 5 a. m.; Neptune in Gemini, rises about 4 a. m. Sun in constellation Gemini till 19th, then Cancer. Delta Aquarid meteors from 27th to 29th; Perseid meteors from 23d to 31st. This day, 1770, Lexell's comet came within 1,500,000 miles of earth.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 1, 1911.

THE FORUM.

Pertenent Questions.

Editor, The Daily Press:—

Will you kindly inform me what the actual points of difference are between the Water Company and the City Council? Is there any question between them as to the rates to be charged, or is the difference merely a question of putting some smooth-sounding phrases in the contract which don't mean anything to any one in a practical sense? Are we to be rushed into condemnation proceedings to please some one's vanity, or are we going into these proceedings because the Water Company and the Council can't agree on rates?

Mr. Bergen in his letter just published says that the Water Company cannot do what the Council wants done because such a clause would violate the contract obligations of the company. What are those obligations? Does the Council know? And why do they want the company to violate them?

CHARLES H. HAND.
July 1, 1911.

Headquarters for Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

"Store Closed Tuesday All Day. Open Monday Evening."

Specials for Saturday and Monday

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.
Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 22c
a pair; 5 pairs for $1.00; fine gauze fast black imported stockings, full fashioned; many stores would sell them for 35c a pair.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c
Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.
Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.
a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.
Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' COLLARS 19c.
Byron style, white and fancy embroidered collars; very cool and comfortable for summer use; usuallly 25c.

COME HERE FOR FLAGS.
We have a complete stock of cotton, silk and wool bunting standard American flags and the prices are most reasonable.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

BATH TOWELS 11c.
Heavy bleached Turkish bath towels, size 19x36, hemmed; regular selling price 18c each.

CHILD'S BONNETS 45c.
Pretty lawn sun bonnets, corded and embroidered ruffle; usual price 75c.

WINDOW SCREENS 19c.
22 inches high and opens to 33 inches; the best adjustable screen on the market; regular price 25c each.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.
Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.
Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.
Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.
a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.
The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.
A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.
Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $4.98.
Made of hard wood with round corners, lined with heavy galvanized iron; will hold 30 lbs of ice; a regular $7.50 refrigerator.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

MARTINE SAYS RUSSIA HAS BROKEN TREATY

Washington, July 1.—Senator Martine, of New Jersey, yesterday read in the Senate chamber an editorial commenting upon the action of the Russian government with relation to the American Jews traveling abroad under passport. He requested and received the unanimous consent of the Senate to have the editorial printed in the Congressional Record.

In speaking on the subject, Senator Martine said:

"This is a matter of most vital importance to the United States. The course of Russia is in reality an abrogation of the treaty between that country and ours. In this country we know no such thing as Jews; under our flag all creeds are dissipated; we know only American citizens. They, the Jews, have fought our battles, maintained our civilizations and increased our commerce, and are therefore entitled to the fullest protection our flag can offer on a par with any of our other citizens."

So strongly has this question been impressed upon other members of the Senate that several have declared their intention to take the matter up during the special session of Congress with the object in view of compelling the Russian government to abide by its treaty obligations.

Governor Names New Board.

Governor Wilson yesterday appointed the following as members of the new State Board of Education: William G. Schauffler, of Lakewood; State Senator J. S. Frelinghuysen, of Somerset county; Edmund B. Osborn, of South Orange; John C. VanDyke, of New Brunswick; Prof. Henry Jones Ford, of Princeton; John P. Murray, of Jersey City; Col. D. Stewart Craven, of Salem, and Melvin Rice, of Red Bank. Senator Frelinghuysen, it has been decided, is not eligible for the appointment, because he is a member of the State Legislature.

Mrs. William Granville Meader.

Mrs. Zerrie Fitz-Randolph Huntsman Meader, wife of William Granville Meader and daughter of Zerrie Fitz-Randolph and the late John F. Huntman and niece of former Mayor L. V. F. Randolph, of this city, died yesterday at Attleboro, Mass. She leaves a husband and an infant child. The funeral will be held Monday afternoon at the Union Congregational chapel, on Stewart treet, Providence, R. I., at 2:30 o'clock.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

Perseverance Lodge Elects.

The following were elected officers of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., at the meeting last night: Chancelor Commander, John Bicknell; vice-chancelor, Ephraim Compton; master of work, Jeremiah Moore; prelate, Jeremiah Douglas; master at arms, John Nischwitz; inner guard, Peter Lund; outer guard, Peter Stram. Grand Chancelor Edgar, of Neshanic, will install next Friday night.

"Gay Papa" at Proctor's.

"His Gay Papa," a comedy skeach will be presented at Proctor's theatre on Monday by Bond-Benton Co., and Deodato, the sensational Italian necromancer and magician; Herr Hillebrand and Niva DeLong in the "Athlete and the Singing Venus," and Sprague and Dixon, live wire talkers and singers in a "Mile of Laughs,' will complete the fine bill. Proctor's theatre is the coolest place in town these days.

Fugitive Returns.

William V. Krewson, of Manning avenue, who fled from town the other day when he was told to appear in the borough court for not having taken out a dog license, has returned to the borough. The twenty-year-old fox terrier, which caused all the weeping and gnashing of teeth, let alone worrying, was chloroformed before his master returned home.

Admitted to the Bar.

Augustus C. Nash, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Nash, Sr., and Harry F. Helwig, both of this city, have been admitted to the New Jersey Bar, announcement of the fact being made at Trenton, yesterday by the State bar examiners. W. Lester Glenney, of this city, an attorney, received his counselors' degree.

Mrs. Lester A. Woodruff.

Ethel Arnold, daughter of Eugene F. and Sarah Chabert, and wife of Lester A. Woodruff, aged twenty-nine years, died last night at her home, 142 Manning avenue, from Bright's disease. The funeral service ill be held at the late home, tomorrow and will be private.

Frank Rickert Injured.

Frank Rickert, the expressman of Fairview avenue, while unlaoding a car at the freight house, yesterday threw the thumb on his right hand out of joint. Mr. Rickert went to the office of Dr. C. B. Lufburrow, where the thumb was set in place and then put in splints.

Miss Jean Cuzen and her brother, Allen Cuzen, who have been spending the past month with Mr. and Mrs. James Cuzen, of West Front street, and visiting points of fhterest, left today on the Furnessia, of the Anchor Line, for Scotland. Miss Cuzen returns to her home at Coatesbridge, Scotland, and Mr. Cuzen will return to Francistown, South Africa, reaching there in September.

—Use Press want ads.

THE FLY'S REVENGE.

Ten little flies
All in a line;
One got a swat!
Then there were . . . . . .

Nine little flies
Grimly sedate,
Licking their chops—
Swat! There were . . . . . .

Eight little flies
Raising some more—
Swat, swat! swat, swat!
Then there were . . . .

Four little flies
Colored green-blue;
Swat! (Ain't it easy!)
Then there were . .

Two little flies
Dodged the civilian—
Early next day
There were a million!
—Buffalo News.

SOLUTION OF SERVANT PROBLE

The German Housewives Society in Philadelphia seems to have solved the servant girl problem. Its officials and members work with the aim of taking care of the many girls who come to this country from Germany and of seeng that they get proper situations. With the aim as a basis the organization has expanded, until now it seeks to adjust difficulties between the housewife and maid. It seeks to promote a spirit of fair dealing between the employer and the servant. The records of all the girls who receive positions through the society are kept. It a girl is discharged she is reported at once to the society If she quits she may report the reason at once to the headquarters of the organization. No girl can get a second position until he has explained satisfactorily why she left her former place. The society provides its members with servants.

WHERE WOMEN ARE WINNING.

Whatever opinion be held upon the extension of the privileges of suffrage to women, there can be no denial of the earnestness of the propaganda conducted in their behalf, nor of the remarkable progress which has been made. This is particularly conspicuous in Great Britain, where at this moment a bill to confer the parliamentary franchise on women is pending in the House of Commons with a far better chance of passage than at any time since the beginning of the movement.

In view of the undisputed fact that there has been a declared majority in the commons in favor of women's suffrage, at least as an abstract proposition, since 1886, and as woman suffrage bills have successfully passed the second reading stage no less than six times in previous session, it is not risking much to predict that it will not be very long before the experiment will be tried in Great Britain, and the first fight of the women for equal political privileges will have been won.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Fanwood, New Jersey, July 1st, 1911.

PUBLIC NOTICE

is hereby given that I, Charles Sheelen, Collector of the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and State of New Jersey, pursuant to the authority of the statutes in such cases made and provided, will, on the twenty-sixth day of July, 1911, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, in the Collector's Office in said taxing district, expose For Sale and sell the several tracts and parcels of land hereinafter specified, or any part or parts of the said land sufficient for the purpose on which the taxes for the year 1910 remain unpaid and in arrears, to such person or persons as will purchase the same for the shortest term, and pay the tax lein thereon, including interests and costs of sale.

The said sale is made under the provisions of an act of the Legislature entitled "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April 8th, 1903, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

The said land, and the names of the persons against whom the said taxes have been assessed, and the amount of the same, are as follows:

Mrs. L. J. Ellis, house and lot, Forest Ave. . $80.51
Martin Rose, house and lot, Midway and Hunter Aves. . . . . 26.
George Shay, house and lots, Terrill Road . . 22.

Given under my hand this 1st day of July, 1911.
7 14s CHARLES SHEELEN, Collector.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Manual massage and hydrothreputic treatment given in the privacy of the home and under your own family physician.
Treatments by appointment only

DO YOU KNOW.

That a bit of realiable coloring placed in the water in which a tub frock is washed will restore its color and may be used with saftey if it is properly rinsed and dried? This applies only to such gowns as are not trimmed with white or other trimmings.

Wet linen should never be thrown into the clothes hamper, as it is apt to mildew and communicate mildew to the other things in the basket. Dampness also turns the willow of the basket black. If anything sweet has been spilled on the table linen rinse it out or throw it rough dry into the hamper. Otherwise it may become the prey of roaches or water bugs in a city flat.

J. Edgar Gray, of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, will deliver a free Bible lecture tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Building Trades' Hall, 204 West Front street. The topice will be "The Judgment Day, When and Where, Here or Hereafter, at Death or at the Resurrection." Mr. Gray is an able student. The public is invited.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State, Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.
GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

EDUCATIONAL.

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 28, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprietor
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 344

INTERNATIONAL BIBLE STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION
Free Bible Lecture
Tomorrow Afternoon at 3 o'Clock, by
J. EDGAR GRAY
Topic, "The Judgment Day—When and Where, Here or Hereafter, At Death, or At the Resurrection."
Building Trades Hall
No. 204 West Front St.
All are welcome. No collection.

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given.
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

NOTICE.
I desire to notify the public in general that I will continue the Painting and Interior Decorating business formerly conducted by the late WILLIAM C. CHAMBERLAIN, and I ask for a share of your patronage. Estimates cheerfully furnished. Respectfully,
ISAAC C. MILLER,
Tel. 1088-J. 26 6 415 East 3d St.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The regular services will be held tomorrow at the Baptist church. The morning sermon will be by the pastor Rev. Franklin K. Mathiews, at 10:45. Following the sermon the regular monthly communion will take place. Bible study meeting will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. The B. Y. P. U. meeting will take place at 7 o'clock in the church parlors.

Manager Alberts has signed Foley, late of the Binghampton team, to help MacLaughlin out in the box work for the locals. Foley has played on the local diamond several times, being a former member of the semi-professional Stirlings, of Brooklyn.

Lyall Mooney, who has been visiting relatives in town, has returned to his home at Summit.

Walter Demarest, of Front street, is visiting relatives at New Brunswick, for two weeks.

Miss Rita DeMott, assistant postmaster, is visiting at her home at Gladstone.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mrs. Mendil, of Holly Park, who was suffering from blood poisoning, is so much improved she was out yesterday.

Mrs. P. F. Kaine underwent a successful operation at Muhlenberg Hospital yesterday.

Miss Mary McDonough is visiting her uncle, P. F. Kaine.

DIPLOMAS FOR 31

(Continued from page 1.)

Reynolds, of Scotch Plains; Elizabeth Closterman, of Westfield; Clara Agnes Klemm, of Watchung; Adolphus W. Warwick, of Hampton; Joseph, Leslie Young, of Hampton; Sarah Alice Jelliffe, of North Branch Depot; Florence May Whitenack, of South Bound Brook; Ethel M. Gillespie, of Bound Brook; Leroy Belding Veghte, of Bound Brook; Anna Margaret Fisher, of South Bound Brook; Mai Frances Field, of White House; Cora Evelyn Smith, of New Market; Fred Leon Purcell, of Raritan.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Edwin Mayham, of Rahway, whose marriage to Miss Grace Helen Terrill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Terrell took place at the home of the bride's parents in Rahway this week, will occupy their house recently purchased on Lenox avenue, Westfield, on their return from their wedding trip.

The meeting of the Superintendents and assistants, which was to have been held in the First Baptist church tomorrow afternoon at 4:30, for the purpose of perfecting the organization of the Plainfield Sunday-school Superintendents' Union, has been postponed one week. This meeting will be held next Sunday afternoon at the same time and place.

Rev. J. E. Duerschner, who has been here with his family since Sunday, left for Troy, N. Y., yesterday and he will move to that city later. Rev. E. Isler, of Richmond Hill, L. I., has been occupying the pulpit at the Evangelical Lutheran church, Grove street and Mercer avenue. He will conduct English services tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Threw Lighted Lamp at His Bride.

Paterson, July 1.—Because his wife refused to give him money which she had saved, Harry Sugar, of 33 High street, threw a light at her while she was in bed Thursday night. Now Sugar is locked up in jail waiting action by the grand jury. Mrs Sugar, a bride of a year, told Justice of the Peace Shea that her husband spends all the money he can earn and beg from her for drink.

"The Mermaid."

The "Mermaid," the popular through express, via the New Jersey Central from Scranton to the North Jersey Coast resorts is now in service in both directions. The Mermaid which carries Pullman broiler parlor car will leave Plainfield at 2:11 p. m., until Sept. 6 inclusive. Returning, the Mermaid arrives Plainfield 2:23 p. m. 7 1 10oaw

Fourth of July Excursions also Sunday, July 2, via New Jersey Central. Lake Hopatcong, $1; leave Plainfield 9:50 a. m. Mauch Chunk, Glen Onoko and the Switchback, $1.50; leave Plainfield 9:18 a. m. both dates. 6 26 4 m-w-f-s

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

LIBRARY DIRECTORS ARE RE-APPOINTED

Mayor G. W. V. Moy today re-appointed William H. Larrabee, J. Herbert Case and Dr. Leonard Waldo as members of the Board of Directors of the Plainfield Public Library and Reading Room, for the full term of three years. All three men have served as directors for several years and are in close touch with the affairs of the institution. Dr. Waldo has been particularly interested in the proposition to erect a new public library building on College place, and it is expected that some definite announcement of plans, etc., will be made soon.

The present organization of the board is as follows: President, Alexander Gilbert; vice-president, L. V. F. Randolph; treasurer, J. Herbert Case; secretary, William M. Stillman; Dr. Leonard Waldo, William F. Merrill, W. H. Larrabee and Cornelius B. Tyler.

BOW-WOW GETS HIS OWN DOG LICENSE

Not only have "the powers that be" in the borough haled the citizens of that community to court, but they have even been the cause of dogs 'cutting up" strange antics since they have been enforcing so drastically an ordinance providing for all canines to be licensed. This morning "Spite," a dog owned by Earl Sovereign, of Somerset street, paid his own license fee just as if he were a citizen of the borough.

Mr. Sovereign decided that it would be best to have his dog on the list of the protected ones and so he sent his pet bull terrier in the charge of John Kitchen to the office of the borough clerk, Frederick A. Martin. Mr. Kitchen dropped the check for two dollars, when he reached the office, on the sidewalk and started to go down Somerset street.

Despite the fact that his master had left him, "Spite" took the check by his teeth, pushed open the screen door, and walked boldly up to Miss Williams, who has charge of the dog licenses. He jumped up in her lap dropping the check and then jumped down again. He barked and scratched his neck as if to say: "Give me my license."

Miss Williams understood the sign and immediately made out a license, having seen the name of the master on the dog's collar. With the brass tag of liberty upon his shoulders, the happy bull dog pushed open the door and fearlessly entered the land of licenses once more.

"Spite" is a well built brindle bull terrier, being only nine months old. He is rather peaceful, not having the usual fighting spirit of his race, but he is very prococious. His master says that "Spite" is an educator rather than a prize fighter.

BENEVOLENT COUNCIL CHOOSES ITS OFFICERS.

The following were elected officers of Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M. at last night's meeting:

Junior past councilor, C. A. Doeringer; councilor, W. C. Cubberley; vice-councilor, Charles Dornmann; recording secretary, W. H. I. Cubberley; financial secretary, E. R. Honeyman; treasurer, J. H. Adams; conductor, A. G. Adams, warden, John Ayers; inside guard, B. H. Bornmann; outside guard, G. S. Martin; trustees, three years, H. C. Runyon; two years, Isaac N. Wyckoff; one year, A. G. Adams.

The officers will be installed next Friday night.

Mrs. Margaret Hipp.

Mrs. Margaret Hipp, wife of George Hipp, died shortly before noon today, at her home on West Second street, after an illness of several weeks. She had been a resident of this city for a number of years and is survived by several children besides her husband. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Metal Garages.

Have one on your own property and save your storage rental. We have them fireproof from $100 up. Immediate delivery. Recently completed one in Plainfield. John H. Taylor & Bro., 219 Glenridge avenue, Montclair, N. J. 6 29 2

Mrs. Christopher O'Neill, of Elizabeth, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. J. Shattle, of West Fourth street.

Jeremiah Elliott, of Woregan, Conn., is visiting his father-in-law, Thomas McCue, of West Fourth street.

NURSE'S TIMELY AID BOY HURT IN ACCIDENT

James Glaser, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Glaser, Jr., of Alton, is at Muhlenberg Hospital suffering from a fracture of the left thigh and severe injuries to his right leg, the result of an accident last night. The boy's conditions was reported today to be favorable for an early recovery.

The boy was returning home on his father's dead-horse wagon, which was in charge of Michael Wenneskie, an employe. While driving through Watchung avenue, between Franklin place and Richmond street, the lad lost his balance, fell off the wagon, and the front wheel passed over both legs. The wagon weighs about 2,700 and at the time was carrying a dead horse weighing about 1,400 pounds. That the boy was not killed instantly seems a miracle.

At the time of the accident, Miss Ethel Humphrey, a trained nurse, happened to be close by and she ran to the assistance of the lad. Picking him up, she haled a passing automobile and young Glaser was taken as quickly as possible to the office of Dr. Hedges on Watchung avenue. The physician was not at home, but Dr. W. H. Murray was summoned and he set the broken bone, gave temporary treatment and had the boy removed in the ambulance to the hospital. The prompt action of Miss Humphrey and the physisian combined to increase the boy's chances for recovery, and the little fellow was brave through it all.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. E. A. Edgar, Sr., of Fairview avenue, is spending the summer on Long Island.

Miss Rose Cooper, of Franklin avenue, is spending the month of July at Asbury Park.

Alfred Sharp Manley, of Park avenue, has gone to Lake Hopatcong, for the summer.

Miss Irene Smith, of New York city, is visiting Miss May Hanlon, of Westervelt avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schaffus, of Fairview avenue, will remove to New York next week.

Mrs. Joseph Brown and Miss Grace Brown, of Grant avenue, are stopping at Indian Lake, N. Y.

Mrs. Belle Elliott, of Nutley, is visiting her cousin, Miss Lillian A. Force, of Duer street.

Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Clark, of Stebbins place, are spending the summer at Indian Lake, N. Y.

Harold S. Robins, of East Second street, left today for a ten days' vacation at Schroon Lake, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rocap and daughters, of West Front street, are enjoying an extended tour in the Berkshires.

Miss Hazel Rose, of Belmont avenue, who has been detained at Muhlenberg Hospital for the last month, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Smith, of West Sixth street, left today for Ithaca, N. Y., where they will spend the month of July.

The Misses Theresa and Clara Schwartz, of West Front street, have returned from a visit with relatives at Martinsville.

Edward T. Wilson and family, of Sycamore avenue, have gone to Point of Woods, L. I., to spend the summer in their cottage.

The many friends of Benjamin Duvier, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Jersey City, will be grieved to learn of his misfortune. Some time ago he received an injury to his leg and after on examination made by his physician last week, was ordered not to use the leg for at least a year. A present he is staying with relatives here.

Miss Margaret Penny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Penny, of West Fifth street, was received at Muhlenberg Hospital today to undergo treatment for her eyes. She was discharged from the hospital some time ago after undergoing treatment for six months. The treatment she is to receive this time is an entirely new method and is the same as is employed at the Rockefeller Institution, New York.

James Donovan.

Word was received here yesterday of the death of James Donovan, at Frankford, Philadelphia, and his brother, George, with his brother-in-law, John DeNise, of West Front street, left immediately to take charge of the body. Mr. Donovan is survived by four sisters, the Misses Nora, Teresa and Helen Donovan and Mrs. John DeNise and a brother, George Donovan. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Concise Information.

Eddie Williams, the broker, was about to write a note to a man whose initials he had forgotten. Rather than look it up he picked up the 'phone (he did know the number) and asked the man's stenographer to give him her employer's initials.

"C. D.," was the answer, but Williams wasn't certain.

"C. C., did you say?"

"No," she snapped. "C. D.—understand? D. for dog."

And rang off.

Eddie entertains no doubts of the sentiment she entertains towards her employer.—Cleveland Leader.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR VEGETABLES
Asparagus, Green Beans, Boston Lettuce, Tomatoes, Egg Plant, Celery, Cucumbers, Spinach, Radishes, Beets, Rhubarb.
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 820-J.

HUDSON RIVER
MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 315 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 824-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2084-Gramercy.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

DIED.

WOODRUFF—At her residence, 142 Manning avenue, North Plainfield, on Friday, June 30, 1911, Ethel Arnold, daughter of Eugene F. and Sarah Chabert and wife of Lester A. Woodruff, aged 29 years.

Funeral strictly private.

HOLDEN—At New Market, N. J., June 30, 1911, Frederick Holden, aged 83 years, six months, five days.

Funeral from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John M. Dayton, on Monday, July 3, at 3 p. m.

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Two pupils for training. Address Supt. Somerset Hospital, Somerville, N. J. 6 26 6

WANTED—Young lady in insurance office. Liefke & Laing, Park avenue.

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK; REFERENCE. R. N. CRANE, 243 LELAND AVENUE. 7 1 2

WANTED—Woman to do general housework; must be good worker and respectable; good wages to right party. Apply at once 255 East Second street. 7 1 3

WANTED—Young girl to assist in kitchen. 'Phone 290-W, or call 433 East Seventh street. 6 28 tf

WANTED—White waitress and chambermaid; reference. 964 West Seventh street. 6 30 tf

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

WANTED—Girl for general housework; must be good laundress; references. 2 Waynewood place. 6 26 tf

WANTED—White girl to take care of children and do upstairs work. Apply afternoons, 248 East Ninth street. 6 29 tf

WANTED—Colored woman as laundress, plain cook. Apply Restaurant, 179 North avenue. E. H. Clevely. 7 1 3

WANTED—OPERATORS, ALSO LEARNERS, ON LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR; PAID WHILE LEARNING. SCHILLER BROS., 320 WEST FRONT STREET. 6 8 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Swatz, First National Bank Building 3 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. in sums to suit, on good mortgages. Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Gold signet ring with E. M. D. monogram. Return to 111 Somerset and get reward.

FOUND—Boston bull terrier. Owner can have same by applying at this office and paying for this advertisement. 6 30 2

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

FOR SALE—Two desirable building lots, five minutes walk from Netherwood station. K. M., Daily Press. 6 30 2

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—October 1st, small house; improvements; near depot; desirable tenants; adults. Address B. O. D., care Daily Press. 6 29 3eod

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED — A teamster, on a farm; must come well recommended. Netherwood Farm, Mountain avenue. Tel. 1379-W. 6 26 6

MAN wanted to press clothes, steady work. Cobbs, 146 East Fifth street. 6 29 3

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—One good experienced real estate office salesman, and two others; please write me in your own handwriting. D. Foster Updike, 159 North avenue. 6 29 3

WANTED—A young married ambitious man to sell Schmalz bread in Plainfield and suburbs, wholesale and retail. For particulars apply or write Schmalz Bakery, Hoboken, N. J. 6 27 6

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Janitor, or Endress 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

THREE rooms to let for light housekeeping; city water. 321 Lyman place. 7 1 3

TO LET—Elegant large and small furnished rooms; improvements. 175 East Front street. 3 30 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 6 27 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO RENT—Four rooms and bath, $20; heat and hot water furnished; desirable location. Address D, care Press. 6 29 6

FOR RENT—From July 1, eight-room house, all latest improvements, nice grounds; $32.50; also seven-room house, part improvements; $17.00; apartments to rent. D. F. Dugan, 521 East Seventh street. 6 15 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Five rooms and bath; all improvements. 968 West Third street. 6 26 6

TO RENT—Two connecting rooms in select neighborhood, on main trolley line; two minutes from railroad station. Address P. O. box 611, city. 6 27 6

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 2 1 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Black mare, runabout and harness. Joseph Harrigan, 929 South avenue. 6 29 3

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

GOOSEBERRIES for sale. 'Phone 111-J. 7 1 tf

FOR SALE—Surrey and business wagon. H. Ryno, 145 Manning avenue. 7 1 3

FOR SALE—Horse that is too slow for my work; not lame; $50. Inquire stable, Washington avenue, near Front street.

FOR SALE—3 pure bred rabbit puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanizing, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 2 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

THE EXCHANGE, No. 225 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

CHARLES GRANT, first-class tinner, all kinds repairing neatly done. 628 East Third street. 6 30 3

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 226 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 3 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

PLEASANT large and small furnished rooms, in private family. 503 East Seventh.

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth st. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 percent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Runabout in good condition; state type, year and price; must be cheap. Address Auto, care Press. 7 1 3

SECOND hand lumber wanted for cash. Address Cash, Press office. 7 1 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 3 16 tf

FORTY YEARS in BASEBALL

A History of the Great National Game

By CAPT. A. C. ANSON

Former Manager of the Chicago National League Team

Next morning we arrived at the state capital. All our traveling thus far had been done at night, and it has always been a wonder to me how we managed to play so much ball during the day and so much poker at night, with sleeping cutting a very small figure in the situation. At Des Moines we played a close and exciting game, the score at the ninth inning standing 3 to 2 in favor of the All-Americas. Thus far the picked nine had carried off the lion's share of the glory, but it was all in the family, and I consoled myself that our turn would come next.

On the morning of the 25th we were in Omaha, and there we got another red-hot reception. The All-Americas won out again, getting wise to Ryan's slow, left-handed delivery after the fifth inning and pounding him all over the field. The heavy batting tickled the Omaha folks and they shouted themselves hoarse. We played a game at Hastings, Neb., next day after a lot of excitement had been caused by the falling of a section of the grandstand loaded with people. Fortunately nobody was killed, but a good many were badly shaken up.

The Chicagos won that game by a score of 5 to 4. Our mascot, Clarence Duval, had joined us at Omaha and things had taken a turn. Playing ball without a mascot—but thereby hangs a tale.

CHAPTER XIX.

I Reinstate Our Mascot.

A baseball club without a mascot is like a ship without a rudder. Probably some one will rise to remark that such a statement is tommyrot, but it's my honest opinion and I'm going to stick to it. During those pennant-winning years in the early eighties the Chicago club's mascot was one of our leading features. The first time I ever saw him he toddled into the grounds togged out in a miniature Chicago baseball uniform and everybody thought he was so cute that we adopted him as our mascot right on the spot. His name was Willie Hahn, he said, and his parents lived in a house across the street from the ball grounds. Willie was about five years old and he was so bright and winsome in his ways that the lady patrons of the game took to him immensely. He was always on hand at the home games and he was given the freedom of the grounds at all times. After the Hahns moved from the neighborhood it took us a long time to recover from our loss. It was years before I set eyes on our mascot again. One day while I was in my billiard parlor in Chicago, a fine, husky-looking chap came in and introduced himself to me as our long-lost mascot. He had grown to man's estate and was in business for himself and doing well.

Willie was succeeded by Clarence Duval, a little darkey I picked up in Philadelphia. Clarence was a singer and dancer from away back, and a coon whose skill in handling the baton was something great. I've seen many a crack bandmaster who couldn't hold a candle to him. I knew that we were in need of a mascot, so I made a proposition to Clarence, and he took me up at once. I togged him out in a blue suit with big brass buttons and installed him in his new position. I don't mind telling you that we played in great luck from the very moment Clarence began to officiate.

But not for long. He proved to be an ungrateful little rascal, and when Verona Jarbeau, the actress, came along and offered him a position in her company he deserted us without a word of warning. He was stage struck, anyhow, and the chance to gratify his ambition was too good to be neglected. Of Clarence's stage career I know little, but I do know that when he sneaked into the grounds at Omaha that day he didn't look as if prosperity had struck him very hard. Tom Burns smuggled him into a carriage, bundle of rags that he was, and when he reached the ball grounds Clarence made his appearance in his old position, just as if nothing had ever happened to interrupt our friendly relations, and ordered us to dress ranks with all the assurance of a major general. When the band struck up a march he took his place in front of the players and gave such an exhibition of baton swinging as made the actual drum major turn green with envy, while the crowd shrieked itself wild with delight.

When we returned to the car I sent for the deserter and asked him how he had the gall to show up after treating us so shabbily.

"Miss Jarbeau an' me couldn't agree, cap'n," he explained, with a grin all over his black face. "She done insisted on havin' de centah o' de stage all de time, an' no self-respectable ahtist's goin' to stan' dat."

I told him he was on the black list and that we had no use for deserters in our business. He admitted that he had treated us badly, but declared that

Miss Jarbeau had promised to make a "big stah" of him, but had failed to carry out her threat. I was mighty severe with the little coon and told him he deserved all he got, and that it would be impossible for us to reinstate him. He went off boo-hooing like a calf and I went into the dining car to see if I could get a bite to stay my stomach until dinner time.

The train had started for Hastings when I went back to the sleeper, but Clarence was still there. I threatened to throw him out of the window, but some of the boys interceded for him and started to raise a purse for the little rogue. I chipped in, of course, and I finally consented to let him accompany the club as far as San Francisco, with the provision that if he didn't behave himself I would see to it personally that he was skinned. When we reached Hastings he was taken out and given a bath—against which he fought with tooth and nail—arrayed in a light-colored check traveling suit, shod with patent-leather shoes and fancy spats and provided with a high hat and cane.

When Clarence marched on to the field that afternoon in all his finery he was the observed of all observers. President Spalding, who had just been on a business trip to Kansas City, was so taken with the little coon that it was at once decided to take him to Australia. He was made to sign an ironclad contract which had such horrible penalties attached to it that the darkey shook in his new shoes when it was read over to him by one of the boys.

"Now, I suppose you'll desert us again if you should happen to meet Miss Jarbeau in San Francisco," I said after he had made his mark at the foot of the agreement.

"Dat's kase you doan' know dis niggah, cap'n," he grinned. Then he looked himself over admiringly. "I jes' wish dat woman could see me now," he went on. "I knows whut Miss Jarbeau 'ud say. She'd say: 'My Lawd, Clarence, who is you?' An' den she'd say, 'Come right along wid me, my boy, an' doan' let me lose sight o' you no moah.' Dat's whut she'd say, all right, all right."

"Then what would you say?" I asked.

"Whut I'd say, cap'n? I'd say, 'Go 'long, white woman. I hain't got no use fo' you no moah.' No, sah, Cap'n Ansing, I'se done wid actresses fo' suah."

I still had my doubts, but the little cuss kept his word and remained with us during the entire trip around the world. His dancing and mimicry made lots of fun for the boys, but he was certainly a "no account nigger," if ever there was one, and I ached to throw him overboard more than once on that trip.

We made a stay of two days in Denver and our first game was witnessed by 7,500 people, the biggest crowd we had seen for many a day. Each player in the Chicago team was recognized as he made his appearance and received an ovation. It turned out to be a very poor game, though, for the field was a bad one and we were not yet accustomed to the high altitude and it bothered us considerable. We won all right, the score standing 16 to 12 in our favor.

Next day we played a game that was something like the real thing, although in spite of our mascot the victory went to the All-Americas, the score being 9 to 8. On this occasion John Ward made his first appearance with the All-Americas, playing shortstop in a masterly fashion. The fielding on both sides was superb, and it was not until two extra innings had been played that the game was decided. I shall never forget Hanlon's magnificent running catch of Sullivan's long fly. It was a play that captured the crowd, and every fan stood on his feet and yelled until Hanlon had raised his cap a dozen times and bowed to the grandstand in recognition of the ovation.

I forgot to say that the old gentleman, or "Pa Anson," as the boys always spoke of him, had joined our party, and I never saw him in a happier mood. The combination of baseball and poker was exactly to his taste, and for once in his life he found himself in his proper element. It was one of the old gentlemen's pet theories that he would rather play poker and lose right along than not play at all. He found no difficulty in that crowd in getting up a poker party any old time, and he soon became a big favorite. Whether he lost or won I do not remember, but from my previous acquaintance with him I should say he probably didn't lose any great amount.

CHAPTER XX.

I Ride a Cross-Eyed Sorrel Horse.

We arrived at Colorado Springs just at daybreak. It had been arranged that the members of our party should be given an opportunity to see the Garden of the Gods before breakfast, and we found the horses and wheeled conveyances we had ordered by telegraph awaiting us as we stepped on to platform of the depot. To this day I don't know who was responsible for the freak of nature that was assigned to me—a cross-eyed sorrel nag that had spent the greater part of his eventful career in chasing cattle among the mountains and was as full of zigzags and nonsense as his hide would hold. Of course, I might have crowded into the park wagon that was provided for the ladies and those whose physical condition made horseback riding impracticable, but I didn't care to advertise the fact that my equestrian education had been neglected, so I kept mum and made up my mind to straddle that cross-eyed piece of horseflesh or perish in the attempt.

It would have been far better for me if I had smothered my pride and squeezed my two hundred and a quarter pounds into one of the park wagons. I had been hoping that my avoirdupois would have the effect of sobering that unprincipled beast, but I certainly had another guess coming. He didn't seem to mind me any more that if I had been a bit of thistledown, and the minute I landed in the saddle he began a series of evolutions that would have puzzled an expert cavalryman. After the first I didn't attempt to get onto his curves, but devoted all my energies to keep from being spilled along the roadway.

We reached Manitou without accident, and I wouldn't be afraid to wager my pile that my fool sorrel had covered 12 miles instead of six that were necessary. The scenery was very beautiful, no doubt, but I had no time for it, and I am pretty certain that the rest of the party saw a great deal more of me and my job than of the sunrise that was turning Pike's Peak into a thing of golden beauty. Be that as it may, I shall ever regard it as one of the most noteworthy pieces of good luck that ever befell me that I did not alight from that demoniac beat until I landed on the veranda at the hotel where we breakfasted.

At the breakfast table no direct reference was made by any member of the party to my equestrian exhibition and I was mighty appreciative of the courtesy. The ladies were rapturous over the scenic loveliness of the spot, but I was too hungry and the spread was too good to join them in their praise. I kept as mum as an oyster until big Mark Baldwin, who was always on the lookout for something to sharpen his wit on, stopped swallowing long enough to remark, with a face as innocent looking as that of a new-born babe:

"This one morning's experience has done more to convince me that one need not go abroad in order to see the sights than anything that I've ever come up against."

I saw what he was driving at, and so did the others. I made up my mind that he shouldn't be the only joke-smith in the bunch, and so butted in to this effect:

"This one morning's experience has convinced me that playing ball isn't the cutest trick in the world. Learning to be a cowboy in one lesson is about the biggest job I've tackled so far."

"But with your mount it must have been dead easy," said the big Smoky City twirler. "That animal is what I call a prime saddle horse. I quite envied you from my uncomfortable seat in the park wagon."

(To be continued next Saturday).

Modern Farming.

Cityman—Do you keep bees?

Countryman—No; there are more up-to-date methods of getting stung. —Woman's Home Companion.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 281

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 318 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Ruggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 24 St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.34, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.25, 6.43, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.30, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 2.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.29, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.28, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily —8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-3.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
142 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 18, 1911.

NEW YORK—Arrive—5.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.40 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—4.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 2.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—4.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—4.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—4.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—4.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—4.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—4.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—4.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—8.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—8.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

Netherwood Bakery
H. HANSEN, Prop.
1135 Park Terrace 'Phone 1764
Home-made Bread, Rolls, Biscuits, Delicious Pies, Fancy Cakes and Specialties.
Ice Cream and Water Ices
Orders delivered at short notice also on Sundays.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.
'PHONE 440-J.

In the Churches

First Baptist Church—Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss minister—Divine worship at 10:30 a. m. and 7:45 p. m.; Bible School, Men's Bible conference class, 9:30; Young People's Society, 7 p. m.

Park Avenue—Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, pastor—11:00, preaching; 9:45, Bible school; 7:45, preaching.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00 prayer meeting; 10:30, preaching; 9:30, sunday school; 6:30, vesper service, short sermon by the pastor.

Mt. Olive—M. W. Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching, 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:30, preaching.

Ebenezer—Rev. G. E. Scruggs, pastor. 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school.

Calvary—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching by the pastor; subject, "Put on the Harness;" 3:30, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Ye Are My Witnesses."

Shiloh—Rev. Edward Roberts, pastor, preaching at 11:00 a. m. by Rev. G. E. Scruggs; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00 p. m., preaching by the pastor, subject, "Devotion."

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Brock, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—10:45, Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardner will preach; 9:30, Sunday school; 7:45, union service at First Baptist church.

Netherwood Reformed Church, Leland and Midway avenues—Pastor, Rev. Royal A. Stout—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:45, Sunday school; 7:00, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

German—Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor—10:45, preaching in German; no evening service.

Marconnier chapel—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00 Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 7:00, C. E. Society meeting; 7:45, union service at First Baptist church.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridon Zelie, minister—10:30, morning worship; 9:30, Sunday school. Rev. Dr. Henry H. Stebbins, of Rochester, N. Y., will preach in the morning; no evening service.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching by the pastor.

Warren chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:45, Sunday school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:30, preaching by the pastor.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11 a. m. and 8:00 p. m; Sunday school, 3:00; sacred concert in the evening.

Episcopal.

Grace Church—Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Rector—Services: 7:30 a. m., celebration of the Holy Communion; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer, litany and sermon. (On the first Sunday of the month Holy Communion and sermon). 3 p. m., Sunday school; 4:30 p. m., evensong.

Church of the Heavenly Rest—Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, matins and sermon (Holy Eucharist first Sunday in the month); 7:30 p. m., Evensong and sermon; services in charge of lay reader.

St. Stephen's—Rev. Elory G. Bowers, B. D., rector—11:00, celebration Holy Eucharist and sermon.

Holy Cross Church—Rev Royal R. Miller, of New York, will be in charge of the 11:00 o'clock services.

Grace Church Mission for Colored People—10:00 a. m., Sunday school; 8 p. m., evensong and address. Strangers are cordially invited.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor; and communion; 2:30, Sunday school; 7:30, union services at First Baptist church.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Church—Rev. C. S. Kemble, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor and communion; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; 7:15, Epworth League, led by the pastor; 8:00, Walter M. McGee will give impressions of a world-wide field.

Grace M. E.—Rev. C. C. Cain, minister—11:00, preaching by the pastor and communion; 9:30, Sunday chool: 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. Littleton Sturgess, pastor—11:00 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching by the pastor.

Roman Catholics.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, morning worship and communion; 11:55, Sunday school.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, pastor—10:30, Sunday-school; 4:30, young people's meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00 a. m.

Lutheran.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Rev. J. Duerschner, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue—9:30, Sunday-school; 10:30, English service, first Sunday in each month; all other Sundays, German services.

Swedish Lutheran—Rev. John Estlund, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue; evening service only at 8:00.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock Building, Front street and Madison avenue—Service 11:00 a. m., lesson sermon, "God.;" 10:00, Sunday school; reading room open daily 2 to 5 p. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—Church closed until September.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Captain and Mrs. Hewitt officers in charge—11:00, Holiness meeting at the hall; 2:30, Sunday-school and Bible class in hall; 6:30, Young People Legion meeting; 8:00, all services from this evening up to and including Tuesday in charge of Ensign and Mrs. Hopkins, of Boston.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms; 7:45, gospel talk and special music.

Italian Mission—Preaching by Theodore Boretty, Sundays at 11:00 a. m. in Italian, and song and prayer service Wednesday evenings at 8 at Y. M. C. A.; Sunday school in English and Italian at 2:30 in chapel of First Presbyterian church.

West End Tabernacle—2:30 p. m., Sunday school; 7:00, C. E. meeting; 8:00 p. m., gospel service.

Wilson Memorial Chapel—10:45 a. m., preaching services.

Meeting room, 209 East Front street, near Watchung avenue—George Mackenzie will deliver an address each Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Bible students are invited to atend and bring their Bibles.

W. C. T. U.—4 p. m., gospel temperance service, Mrs. T. C. Bodine will speak and Mrs. Radabough and daughter of Russia, will sing.

SOME SEASONABLE JELLIES.

At this season of the year the jam and jelly shelf presents a decidedly empty appearance. Some tables are never considered complete without "spreads," so a few seasonble ones are made to tide over the space until canning time. Three such jams are:

Strawberry Jam—Allow for each pound of stemmed berries a generous three-quarters of a pound of sugar. Put the friut over the fire in a preserving kettle and cook half an hour, stirring often. Add the sugar, boil twenty minutes, skim carefully and place in airtight jars while boiling hot. The berries should be ripe and solid and of good flavor.

Rhubarb Jam—Allow to each pound of rhubarb cut in half-inch pieces one pound of sugar and one lemon. Peel the yellow rind of the lemon off thin, remove the white part and slice into a bowl, removing the seeds. Turn the rhubarb over the lemon, add the sugar and allow to stand over night. In the morning boil three-quarters of an hour in the preserving kettle,, stirring from the fire, then pour into air tight jars.

Presevred Ripe Tomatoes—Scald and peel red ripe tomatoes. To each pound of fruit allow one pound of sugar and one lemon and squeeze out the juice. Put enough water over the sugar to disolve it, skim the syrup carefully, add to the tomatoes and cook slowly for two hours. When about done add the lemon juce and the grated rind.

Marriage as Greece Had It.

One of ex-Governor Pennypacker's best stories, and he has a rare collection of rare, witty stories, is one bearing upon the prevalence of divorce. At a recent meeting, when he discussed the need of uniform divorce laws, the ex-Governor told the story, sayin:

"Too many Americans are in sympathy with the little schoolboy who was asked to write his idea of Greek marriage customs.

"After a little thought, the lad wrote:

" 'Among the Greeks a man only married one wife, which was called monotony.' "—Philadelphia Times.

To Vote on Commission Rule.

Gloucester, July 1.—A movement is afoot here to obtain a special election to vote on the commission form of government. Petitions necessary to be presented to have a day fixed for the election are in circulation, and many citizens are signing them. Residents opposed to the present Republican machine administration are said to be in favor of the new plan.

Transcontinental Bicyclist Due.

Belmar, July 1.—Riding on a bicycle from Seattle, Wash., to this place, Howard Dukes, son of Mrs. Mary Dukes, of this place, is expected to reach here within a week or two. Dukes had been all around the world, but this is the first time he has ever undertaken so long a journey on a bicycle.

Advertised Mail Matter

E. H. Bird, P. M.

Brown, Miss K M	Moore, Mrs P
Bates, Mrs W T	Miller, Mrs E
Breson, Pearl	Matthews, Mr J H
Brown, M K	Mackenzie, Dr F H
Butler, Mr Wm	Martin, Miss Mary
Conley, Mrs F R	O'Donnell, Miss F
Culhane, Miss Kitty	O'Higgins, H J
Conell, Miss L V	Pearce, Mr Edw
Chapman, Miss J W	Phillips, Mr Geo
Day, Mrs C	Phillips, Mrs H
Emory, Mr C	Powelson, Mr J S
Eggert, Mr&Mrs. H	Polon, Mr James
Ensminger, G F	Parter, Mr John
Fletcher, Miss S E	Platt, Mr Gibson
Findley, Mr E T	Parker, Mrs W
Fox, Mrs A	Pickering, Mrs John
Green, Mrs F	Randolph, Mr H
Gibbons, Mrs H L	Randall, Mr P
Grant, Mrs E C	Randolph, Mr R H
Harless, Mr R E	Richardson, Mr P
Hudson, Mr	Roberts, Mr H R
Holmes, Mr S M	Robson, Mr Wm
Hodges, Miss P	Robins, Mr C
Hagelmeyer, Miss J	Root, Mrs E J
Hadden, Mr J H	Rodgers, Miss Mary
Jones, Mrs Nettie	Rogoff, Mr Chas
Jones, Mr Lean	Reid, Mrs Maggie
Johnson, Mrs Lizzie	Riker, Mr C B
Jaques, Mrs	Rushmore, Mr M
Jenson, Mr	Shay, Miss Lucy
Jones, Mr Robert	Smith, Mr Irwin
Lindh, Miss Gert	Sturla, Miss Helen
Livingston, Mr W	Storison, Mr Giles
Leilow, J	Smith, May L
Lee, Mr H G	Tice, Mr Wm
Ludlow, Mr Wm	Tranlontono, Mr
Lavering, Agnes	Whalen, Miss M
Lalgiels, Mrs	Williams, Mr A
Massie, Miss Ectell	Williams, Rev. I T
Murphy, Miss Irene	Zurlage, Mr J H

780 West Front st.

"Please say advertised."

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

CHAPTER XXVII.

Miss Hope Suggests.

No sooner had Miss Maclaire vanished than Keith's thoughts turned toward Hope Waite. She would need someone in her loneliness to take her mind from off her brother's death, and, besides, much had occurred of interest since the funeral, which he desired to talk over with her. Beyond even these considerations he was becoming aware of a pleasure in the girl's company altogether foreign to this mystery which they were endeavoring together to solve. He yearned to be with her, to look into her face, to mark how clearly the differing soul changed her from Christie Maclaire. He could not help but like the latter, yet somehow was conscious of totally different atmospheres surrounding the two. With one he could be flippant, careless, even deceitful, but the other aroused only the best that was in him, her own sincerity making him sincere.

Yet there was reluctance in his steps as he approached the door of "15," a laggardness he could not explain, but which vanished swiftly enough at Hope's greeting, and the sudden smile with which she recognized him.

"I was sure you would come," she declared frankly, "and I took an early lunch so as to be certain and be here. It has seemed a long time since."

"And you might have even thought I had forgotten," he answered, releasing her hand reluctantly, "if you could have looked into the dining-room since, instead of staring out of these windows."

"Why? How forgotten?" her eyes opening wide in surprise.

"I had the pleasure of taking supper with Miss Maclaire."

"Oh!" the exclamation decidedly expressive.

"Yes, I come at once to you with the confession. However, our meeting was purely accidental, and so I hope for pardon."

"Pardon from me? Why, what difference can it possibly make to me?"

"Would you have me consort with the enemy?" he asked, scarcely daring to press his deeper meaning.

"Oh, no, of course not. What did you talk about? Do you mind telling?"

"Not in the least; our conversation was entirely impersonal. She was telling me about Hawley; what a wonderfully good man he is. I have begun to suspect the fellow has fascinated the poor girl—he is a good looking devil, possessed of a tongue dripping with honey."

"Surely you do not mean she has fallen in love with him," and Hope shuddered at the thought. "Why—why that would be impossible for—for a good woman."

"Standards of morality are not always the same," he defended gravely. "Miss Maclaire's environment has been vastly different from yours, Hope. She is a variety hall singer; probably, from her own account, a waif since childhood; and Hawley has come to her in the character of a friend appealing both to her interest and sympathy. I do not know she is in love with him, I merely suspect she may be; certainly she is ready to do battle on his behalf at the slightest opportunity. She believes in him, defends him, and resents the slightest insinuation directed against him. He even escorts her back and forth from her work."

"You know this?"

"I certainly do," and he laughed at the recollection. "Fairbain met us coming out of the dining-room—you know what a delightful, blunt, blundering fellow he is! Well, Miss Christie must have made an impression even on his bachelor heart, for he actually requested the privilege of escorting her to the Trocadero, and back to the hotel after the performance to-night—hinted at a lunch, the gay old dog, and pranced about like a stage-door Johnnie. It was a treat to watch her face when he blurted it all out, snapping his sentences as if he swung a whip-lash. She excused herself on the score of a previous engagement."

"But that was not necessarily with Hawley."

"I asked her directly, after the doctor had disappeared."

"You must have become very familiar," questioning once again in her voice.

"So Miss Maclaire evidently thought, judging from her manner. However she answered frankly enough, and even defiantly added the information that the gentleman had something to impart to her of the utmost importance, sarcastically asking me if I didn't wish I could be there and overhear. But sit down, Hope, until I tell you all that has occurred."

He went over the various events in detail, watching eagerly the expression upon her face as she listened intently, only occasionally interrupting with some pertinent inquiry. The light fell so that she sat partially in the shadow, where her eyes could not be read, yet he experienced no difficulty in comprehending the various moods with which she met his narrative, the color changing in her cheeks, her supple form bending toward him, or leaning backward in the chair, her fingers clasping or unclasping in nervous attention. He began with Neb's report, repeating, word by word, as nearly as he could recollect, what had passed between Hawley and her father. He paused to inquire if she had ever heard the name Bartlett, but her reply was merely a negative shake of the head. When he described their missing the train, she was, apparently, not convinced as to the General's departure upon it, although finally agreeing that, if he really believed the report that the man sought was elsewhere, it would be characteristic of him to accept the first means of getting there. "If he only knew I was here," she exclaimed wearily, "it might be so different, but, oh, we are all of us just groping in the dark." Then Keith turned to his chance meeting with Miss Maclaire, and repeated carefully their conversation, dwelling particularly upon the few admissions which had slipped through her lips. These did not seem important to either, although they treasured them up and talked them over. Then, having exhausted the topic, silence fell between them, Keith asking the privilege of lighting a cigar. Hope, after watching him apply the match, thinking what a fine face he had as the ruddy flame brought it forth with the clearness of a cameo, leaned back, drawing aside the semblance to a lace curtain, and staring forth, without seeing, into the street.

Somehow, it was hard for her to fully realize the situation, and how closely it affected her. The swiftly passing events, the complication arising so suddenly, apparently out of nothing, left her feeling as though she must surely awake from a dream. She could not comprehend what it was all about; the names Bartlett and Phyllis had no clear meaning, they represented nothing but shadows; and this other woman—this music hall singer—what could there be in common between them? Yet there must be something—something of vital importance to her father—something which had already cost her brother's life. That was the one thing which made it seem an actuality—which brought it home to her as a rugged fact. But for that—and Keith—Keith sitting there before her—she would have doubted it all. And yet even Keith had come into her life so suddenly, so unexpectedly, as to leave her dazed and uncertain, that she extended her hand and touched him, as though to make sure of his actual presence.

"What is it, Hope?"

"Oh, nothing—nothing," her voice breaking in a little sob. "It is so silly, but I was just wondering if you were real—everything seems so impossible. I cannot bring my mind to grasp the situation."

He did not smile, but only took the groping hand into both of his own.

"I think I understand, little girl," he said gravely. "You are totally unused to such life. Almost without a moment's warning you have been plunged into a maelstrom of adventure, and are all confused. It is different with me—since the first shot at Sumter my life has been one of action, and adventure has grown to be the stimulus I need, and upon which I thrive. But I assure you," pressing the soft hand warmly, "I am real."

"Of course I know that; it makes me glad to know it. If I could only do something myself, and not just sit here, it would all become real enough to me."

She rose suddenly to her feet, clasping her hands together, her face changing with new animation.

"Why couldn't I? I am sure I could. Oh, Mr. Keith, it has just come to me how I can help."

He looked at her questioningly, thinking of her beauty rather than of what she said.

"Do—do I really appear so much like—like that woman?" she asked anxiously.

"Very much, indeed, excepting for the slight difference in age."

"That would never be noticed in the dark, or a poor light. Am I the same height?"

"Practically, yes."

"And my voice?—could you distinguish me from her by my voice?"

"I might; yet probably not, unless my suspicions were aroused. What is it you are thinking about?"

She took a deep breath, standing now directly facing him in the light.

"Of playing Miss Maclaire to-night," she said quickly. "Of taking her place, and learning what it is of so much importance Hawley has to report. Don't you think it might be done?"

The sheer audacity of this unexpected proposal left him speechless. He arose to his feet, gripping the back of the chair, almost doubting if he could have heard aright, his eyes searching the girl's face which was glowing with excitement. Of course he could not permit of her exposure to such a risk; the scheme was impracticable, absurd. But was it? Did it not offer a fair chance of success? And was not the possible result worthy the risk assumed? He choked back the earlier words of protest unuttered, puzzled as to what he had best say. A quick-witted resourceful woman might accomplish all she proposed.

"It looks so simple," she broke in impulsively, moving nearer him. "Don't you think I could do it? Would it be unwomanly?"

"The result, if accomplished, would abundantly justify the means, Hope," he acknowledged at last. "I was not hesitating on that account, but considering the risk you would incur."

"That would be so small—merely the short walk alone with him from the theater to the hotel," she pleaded. "Once here it could make no difference if he did discover my identity,

"Don't You Think I Could Do It? Would It Be Unwomanly?"

for there would be plenty of men near at hand to come to my defence. Oh, please say yes."

"If I do, then we must make the illusion perfect, and take as few chances of discovery as possible. I must learn exactly how the other dresses, and when she leaves the theater. Fortunately for the success of your plan the Trocadero permits no one but performers to come behind the scenes, so that Hawley will be compelled to wait for the lady outside the stage door. I had better go at once, and see to these details."

"Yes," she said, her eyes sparkling with anticipation, "and I am so glad you are willing. I will be most discreet. You are not sorry I made the proposal?"

"Certainly not. At first it struck me as altogether wrong, but the more I think of it the stronger it appeals to me. It may reveal to us the whole conspiracy, and I cannot believe Hawley would venture upon any gross familiarity likely to cost him the good opinion of his ally. There is too much at stake. Wait here, Hope, and I will be back the very moment I learn all that is necessary."

A glance at the office clock convinced Keith that, in all probability, Miss Maclaire had not, as yet, departed for the scene of her evening triumph. Still, it could not be long before she would, and he lit a cigar, sitting down in a corner partially concealed by the clerk's desk to wait her appearance. This required longer than anticipated, and fearing lest he might have missed the departure entirely, he was about to question the busy Thomas, when he beheld Hawley enter hurriedly from the street and run up the stairs. He, then, had been the laggard. All the better, as he would now have no opportunity to unfold his tale to the lady, as it would be necessary for them to hurry to the theater. Whatever the nature of the revelation it would have to wait until the walk home. The excitement of the adventure was already creeping into Keith's blood, his pulse quickening.

The two returned almost immediately, conclusively proving that Miss Maclaire, fully dressed for the street, had been awaiting the arrival of her gallant with some impatience. Hawley was busily explaining his delay as they came down the stairs, and paid little attention to the seemingly deserted office. Indeed, Miss Christie monopolized all his thoughts. With quick scrutiny the watcher noted the more conspicuous articles of apparel constituting her costume—the white mantilla thrown over her head, the neatly fitting blue dress, the light cape covering the shoulders—surely it would not be difficult to duplicate these, so as to pass muster under the dim light of the streets. Far enough in their rear to feel safe from observation he followed, noting with increased pleasure the rapidity with which they covered the required distance. Clearly Miss Christie was already nervous lest she have not sufficient time remaining in which to properly dress for her act, and there would be no exchange of confidences on the outward journey. Hawley left her, as Keith anticipated, at the stage entrance, the lady hastening within. Her escort strolled leisurely back to the front of the house, and finally, purchasing a ticket, entered, the performance already having begun.

Keith knew perfectly the arrangement of the theater—the seats in front; tables all through the center; a gallery filled with benches; a noisy orchestra beneath the stage; a crowded audience of men, with only here and there a scattered representative of the gentler sex; busy waiters dodging in and out among the tables, and down the aisles, filling orders for liquids from the nearby saloon. The air would be pungent with the odor of drink, thick with the fumes of tobacco, and noisy with voices, except as some special favorite on the stage won temporary attention. The Trocadero possessed but one redeeming feature—no doorway connected stage and auditorium, and the management brooked no interference with his artists. It had required some nerve to originally enforce this rule, together with a smart fight or two, but at this period it was acknowledged and respected. No sooner had Hawley vanished than Keith found occasion to enter into casual conversation with the door-keeper, asking a number of questions, and leaving impressed upon the mind of that astute individual the idea that he was dealing with a "gent" enamored of one of the stage beauties. A coin slipped quietly into the man's hand served to deepen this impression, and unlocked discreet lips otherwise sworn to secrecy. Out of much general information a little of real value was thus extracted—Miss Maclaire's act began at 9:45 and was over promptly at 10:10. It required about twenty minutes more for her to change again into street clothes, and she usually left the theater immediately after, which would be about 10:30. Yes, there was a vestibule outside the stage door, and on bad nights, those waiting for the ladies could slip in there. But on such a night as this they generally hung around outside. No, there was no watchman, but the manager was frequently prowling around. He'd be busy, however, at 10:30, getting the stage ready for the "Flying Hermanns." Abundantly satisfied and resisting the door-keeper's professional suggestion that he'd better buy a ticket and take a look at the show, Keith slipped away, and hastened back to the hotel. The more he investigated the more feasible appeared the girl's plan, and he was now fully committed to it.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

The Stage Door of the Trocadero.

Hope discovered very little difficulty in duplicating the outer garments Keith reported Miss Maclaire as wearing. The colors, indeed, were not exactly the same, yet this difference was not sufficient to be noticeable at night by the eyes of a man who had no reason to suspect deceit. The girl was in a flutter of nervous excitement as she hastened about the room, donning her few requirements of masquerade, yet Keith noted with appreciation that she became perceptibly cooler as the moment of departure approached. With cheeks aflame and eyes sparkling, yet speaking with a voice revealing no falter, she pressed his arm and declared herself prepared for the ordeal. The face under the shadow of the mantilla was so arch and piquant, Keith could not disguise his admiration.

"Am I Christie Maclaire?" she asked laughingly.

"Sufficiently so to fool our friend," he returned, "but I am ready to swear that lady never looked so charming."

"A compliment, and spoken as though you really meant it."

"Have I not been honest enough with you in the past to be credited with honesty now?" he protested, a little hurt by the bantering tone.

"Of course you have; I merely talk lightly to keep my courage up. You can have no idea how afraid I am."

"Then you are truly an actress, for you appear the picture of enjoyment. But we must go, or Hawley will be there before us, and thus spoil all our plans."

They passed out through the office together, seeing no one familiar to either, Hope keeping her face partially concealed. The east side of the street was less frequented than the other, having fewer saloons along its way, and they chose its darkness. As they advanced, the long habit of frontier life caused Keith to glance behind before they had progressed a block, and he was thus made aware that they were being followed. Conversing lightly, and without a word to alarm the girl, he managed to observe every movement of the dimly outlined figure which advanced with them, timing every motion to theirs. Long before they crossed the street to the Trocadero he was convinced there was no mistake—the fellow, whoever he might be, was trailing them. Keith smiled grimly to himself, resolving that as soon as he had left the lady he would teach the spy a lesson not soon to be forgotten.

They barely entered the outer circle of the Trocadero lights, noting a group of men thronging about the doors, and hearing the sound of the band within, and then turned swiftly down the narrow dark alleyway leading toward the stage entrance. Keith, having been there before, advanced confidently, but Hope, her heart beating wildly, clung to his arm, scarcely venturing a word in reply to his whispered assurances. Fortunately they encountered no one, and Keith, feeling cautiously in the dark, easily succeeded in locating the opening to the vestibule. Listening intently he became convinced that no one occupied the little shed. He had intended to remain with the girl until the time came for her to emerge, but the remembrance of that figure dogging them all the way from the hotel now caused a change of plan. He held her hand closely clasped in his.

"Now, Hope, I am going to leave you," he whispered, "and your own wit will have to carry you through. I know you will play your part all right, and it will be mine to wait for Christie, and give her some explanation of why Hawley failed to meet her as he promised. It will never do for her to suspect, until you have time to learn all possible. You are not afraid?"

"Yes, I am," clinging to him, "but—but I am going through it just the same."

"The truest kind of courage, my girl. Now slip inside, but hold the door ajar. Hawley will certainly be here within ten minutes, and you must join him at once, or else the other might appear. You can judge as to its being him even in this darkness. Good-bye."

(To Be Continued.)

The Disguise.

A man who had traded horses with a Quaker went to him a few days later and said:

"You beat me in that trade."

"Well, what does thee want me to do? Does thee want me to trade back?" inquired Broadbrim.

"Oh, no; not at all. I just want you to lend me your hat a few days till I trade with somebody else."—Ram's Horn.

ELECTRIC POWER BEATS STEAM

The manufacturer who has his eye on his cost sheets cannot afford to disregard the expenses of his power plant.

Sentiment cuts no figure in such a case. The question with him is how can efficiency be increased without adding to the costs, or better still, how can he get a more efficient drive at a reduced cost.

Central Station Electric Power is the answer in nine cases out of ten.

This statement is not a mere guess. It is founded on fact and can be substantiated by actual experiences.

One case which might be cited is that of the Chicle Products Company, whose plant is on Mt. Pleasant Avenue, Newark. This concern formerly maintained a duplicate power plant, including a 45 H. P. steam engine and a 45 H. P. oil engine. It discarded both and substituted an installation of electric motors, aggregating 40 H. P., which are driven by Central Station current.

The change has resulted in a more economical, more satisfactory and more efficient power drive.

What Central Station Power has accomplished for the Chicle Products Company it can accomplish for others.

Let our engineers demonstrate what it can do in your particular case.

PUBLIC SERVICE ELECTRIC CO.

COME RAIN COME SUNSHINE

In all seasons and for all occasions there is to be found in the

Made in Berkshire

line manufactured by

Eaton, Crane & Pike Co.

a distinctive something which appeals to all users of fine writing paper.

Crane's Linen Lawn

in the new fashionable shades are the daintiest creations for this season. Come in and see them

Lenox Stationery Store

102 Madison Ave.

TEL. 1036-R. BABCOCK BUILDING.

The Little Store Around the Corner.

Typewriters Bought, Sold, Rented and Repaired (all makes.)

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS

at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

PROPOSALS FOR ADDITION TO THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held Monday evening, June 19, 1911, the Board will meet on Thursday evening, July 6, 1911, at eight o'clock at the board room in the High School building, corner West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, to receive sealed proposals for the proposed addition to the High School. Plans and specifications which are now on file in the office of the architect, James Gamble Rogers, 11 East Twenty-fourth street, New York, and also on file in the Board of Education room, West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield.

All proposals to be endorsed, "Proposals for the addition to the High School Building," and adressed to the secretary of the Board.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board. No bids will be received previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

For the Board of Education.
F. B. Clark, Clerk of the Board.
-6 23 26 28 30 7 1 3 6

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

JOS. F. BURKE

718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R

Successor to Mrs. John Brown

General Contractor and Grader

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Leave orders at

J. T. Vail's, North avenue, 'Phone 194.

Postoffice Box 718.

For prices address

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS

CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.

ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.

Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 88-A.

ESTATE OF Margaret L. Marsh, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the nineteenth day of May, 1911, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

EDITH M. MARSH, Executrix.

CHARLES L. MOFFETT, Proctor.

5 20 9oaw-s Fees—$11.10

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 804-J.

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL

21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.

R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.

Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.

Estimates cheerfully furnished.

THIS MEANS YOU

may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Royal Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.

Old Floors Refinished

GEO. E. WATT

150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

KODAKS

Complete line of Photo Supplies

Printing and Developing

AT DOANE'S

115 Park Ave.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Estimates Furnished.

Jobbing a Specialty.

1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

FRANK NEIDIG'S

LINCOLN MEAT MARKET

Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."

94 Somerset St.

Telephone—781.

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT

The QUEEN CITY HOTEL

All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.

P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

G. J. WEINMAN

CAFE

213 Park Ave., Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON

NORTH AVENUE

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED

SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

Advertisements

—FOR—

New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,

—and—

Newark Evening News

Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

INDEPENDENCE

The spirit of 1776 still prevails. Be independent of high prices by purchasing your Tea, Coffee, Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables of W. W. Dunn and You Will Save Money.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Duer St. & Lincoln Av.

CHAS. KEDERLING

FURNITURE PACKER.

Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.

Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S

Storage Wareshoue

316-318 WEST FRONT ST.

Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.

Furniture removed with care.

Tel. 640-R. Residence 312 Lee place.

JOHN WIRTH

(Successor to Henry Liefke.)

BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY

201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728

Orders delivered at short notice.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles

KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

Sooner or Later

everything resolves itself into Economics. Just as soon as you commence to live your life upon a sound scientific basis Life Insurance must come in for consideration.

To leave your wife and children without provision is certainly the worst kind of Economics.

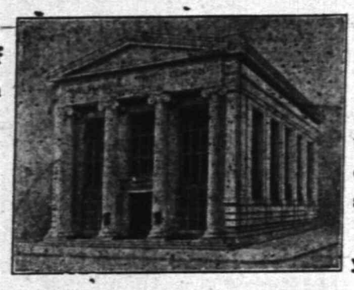
The Prudential

Take up the question NOW, while you can secure your protection much cheaper than you can later on.

SAFETY FOR VAULABLES

OUR STORAGE VAULT is of fire and burglar-proof construction, is free from dampness and is large enough to accommodate trunks and boxes of all sizes.

Storage rates 50c a month and upwards.



OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT is also of fire and burglar-proof construction and affords absolute protection for valuable papers, jewelry, etc. It is equipped with boxes of all sizes.

Safe Deposit rates $5.00 a year upwards.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW

AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

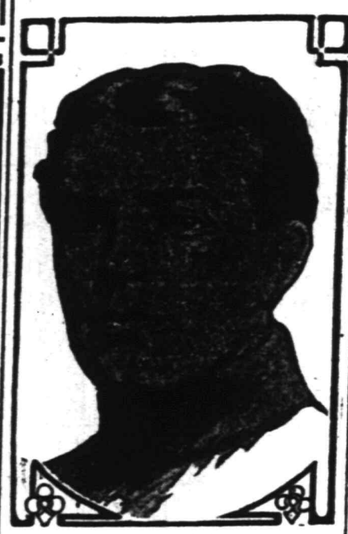
By EARL MOORE.

Premier Pitcher Philadelphia National League Team and Who Is Considered One of the Greatest of Pitchers.

The greatest play I ever saw is one that saved a game for me against the Cincinnati Reds a couple of years ago.

I was hesitating whether to choose that, or the catch that Dode Paskert made in New York this spring, as my greatest play, but had to give it to the other because Paskert's play was individual and the other required mechanical ability, speed, quick thinking and everything else that goes with baseball.

The play was made by Knabe, Doolin and Grant on the Philadelphia grounds, and was so fast that I don't believe a quarter of the spectators realized what had been done until they stopped to figure it out or read about it later in the newspapers.



EARL MOORE.

The play came up late in the game which we were winning. We had a lead of one run and the Reds hadn't been hitting me very hard, but in the seventh, I believe it was, two of them got on bases, one on an error the other on a hit, and Lobert was next—a fast man and a dangerous hitter. I'm glad he's with us now instead of against us, for he used to give me a lot of worry even when he didn't get a lot of hits.

The runners were on first and second and no one out and naturally I thought Lobert would bunt, and I kept pitching to keep him from laying down a perfect bunt until he had one strike and two balls. Then he crossed me and instead of bunting cut into a fast ball and sent it past me so fast all I could do was to burn the ends of my fingers grabbing at it. I didn't even check its force, and the ball was going a little to the third base side of second, with Doolan going over as fast as he could trying to cut it off or block it down. Knabe was going back of him in a desperate effort to reach the ball if it got past Doolan.

The ball got under Doolan all right, and Mike after crossing second base whirled and turned back. Knabe meantime had more luck. The ball bounded a little higher when it went under Doolan and leaped high enough for Knabe to reach it, although it didn't seem possible that he could make any play. Instead of trying to catch the ball and toss it back to Doolan at second for a force, Knabe reached out his right hand and slapped the ball as if playing hand-ball, and slapped it straight back into Doolan's hands, forcing the runner who was coming down from first. There wasn't a chance for Doolan to double Lobert at first, because Lobert is an extremely fast man, and besides Mike's back was turned to first base and he couldn't make a play there. Instead he cut loose a fast throw to Grant on third. The runner going from second to third thought the ball had gone on to the outfield, and whirled around third to go home. The coacher saw it too late but tried to turn him back, and Grant nailed him by five feet, making a double play off what seemed to be a sure base hit.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

Library in Mourning.

"I have just finished a queer job," said the free lance bookbinder. "I have been putting a small library into mourning.

"The mother of a family had died. The father had been rather a gay old boy during her lifetime, but after her death he made up for past transgressions by swathing everybody and everything about the place in black. Not even the books escaped. Every book with a frivolous binding was covered with black cloth and the title printed on the outside in white ink.

"It wasn't exactly a pleasant job. Some books call for a somber garb and I chucked them into mourning with a right good will, but it nearly killed me to put W. W. Jacobs and books like that into black."

DEPOSITS - $312,725.79

COMPARATIVE

September 17th, 1910	-	$138,541.95
November 10th, 1910	-	179,663.59
December 31st, 1910	-	206,115.50
April 5th, 1911	-	240,192.11
May 12th, 1911	-	268,284.26
June 12th, 1911	-	288,922.66
June 30th, 1911	-	312,725.79

COMMENT IS SUPERFLUOUS

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

R. Henry Depew, President
E. F. Feickert, Vice-President M. C. VanArsdale, Vice-President
Frederic Coriell, Secretary-Treasurer

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYNTON BEACH
CHILDREN'S DAY
SATURDAYS IN JUNE
FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND
SWINGS AND SLIDE
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE
TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Hale Norcross & Co., sketch, "Mrs. Jones-Smith-Casey;" The Five Armstrongs, Scotch Dancers & Pipers; Muriel Window, Character Singer; The Alvarez, European Equilibrists.

LIBERAL INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

4% on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

3% on CHECKING ACCOUNTS of $500 or more.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Capital - - - $150,000.00
Surplus and Profits - 280,000.00
(all earned)

ENSIGN AND MRS. HOPKINS ARE VISITING HERE

—Photo by Stone.

Ensign and Mrs. Hopkins.

Ensign and Mrs. Arthur Hopkins, formerly in charge of the Salvation Army work here, but now of Boston, will conduct special meetings for four days at the local barracks, commencing this evening. There will be an open-air service, tonight at West Front street and Madison avenue, followed by a welcome meeting at the barracks.

Tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock there will be a holiness meeting and in the evening a great salvation meeting. Monday evening a musical and ice cream festival will be held at the barracks and on Tuesday evening a farewell meeting will conclude the special services. The ensign and his wife will be guests of Captain and Mrs. Hewitt during their stay here.

BASEBALL.

The show is at Crescent Oval this afternoon.

High Bridge is going to do some padding for this afternoon according to all reports. Lindermann will undoubtedly do the twirling for the visiting team.

Unless some catasthophe of some kind occurs between now and 3:30, "Red" Waller will be on the Plainfield slab against High Bridge. Nelson will do the catching and Brit Martin will be back on second base.

President Ban Johnson, of the American League, announced yesterday that the report of the Detroit team being transferred to St. Louis was absolutely without foundation. The patronage in Detroit, according to the president of the organization, is up to all expectations and the Tiger management is considering the building of a new ball park.

The local team will stay at the top of the league whether it wins or loses. There's consolation in that fact anyway so don't get worried.

Jack Martin, the local boy who is playing on the Richmond, Va., team, is making good as well as making a hit with the fans. One baseball enthusiast in that vicinity says that Martin is the best run getter on his team and the best fielder. He also says that the Plainfield boy is one of the best base stealers in the league and a heavy batter. He predicts a future for Martin greater than that of Dave Fultz.

Mike Donlin is getting more than his share of the plaudits of the fans now that he has returned to the New York club. Mike is still a king pin with the stick and will be heard from when the final roll call is made of the league sluggers.

Cy Young was driven from the box yesterday by the Chicago Americans, who bangs his delivery for twelve hits.

The Sunday-school League starts off today with a game between the Park Avenue and First Baptist teams on the Cricket field.

Much interest has been manifested in the Sunday-school organization and two teams have been refused admision to the schedules. These are the First Presbyterian and South Plainfield Baptist, the reason in each case being that only a four team schedule could be played in the allotted time.

SEEKING HUSBAND OF WOMAN FOUND SLAIN.

Camden, July 1.—Detectives were scouring the woods and every hamlet in the lower end of Camden county and over into Gloucester county Thursday and yesterday in a vain effort to capture Salvatore Salamone, whose seventeen-year-old wife Ida was found murdered along the tracks of the Atlantic City Railroad, near Williamstown Junction, early Thursday morning.

Witnesses have been found who saw Salamone shortly after 1 o'clock disappear up the tracks with his wife in the direction of where her body was later found. She had died from strangulation, and the authorities are confident that he can clear up the mystery surrounding the crime.

—Use Press Want Ads.

WINDFALL TO CHURCH FROM AN OLD LEGACY

New Brunswick, July 1.—Edwin W. Valentine, of Woodbridge has been named administrator of the estate of Sophia Harned, who died at Woodbridge, nearly sixty years ago, the appointment having been made so that the Woodbridge Methodist church can receive $500 from the estate.

Mrs. Harned died January 15, 1852. She left a will which provided that after the bequests specified had been paid, the balance should go to the church and the estate closed. The church people recently learned that there was a bank account in New York in the name of Mrs. Harned. Hence the administrator.

Mr. Valentine is president of the board of trustees of the church. The bank was sent here for the original will to compare Mrs. Harned's signature with that at the bank, and the request has been forwarded to Trenton.

The will of Mrs. Henrietta Mundy, of Metuchen, has been probated at the surrogate's office. It disposes of $10,000 in bequests as follows:

To testatrix's daughters, Amelia M. Tappen, wife of John V. Tappen; Phoebe E. Hummer, wife of H. S. Hummer and Gabriella McAdams, wife of William T. McAdams, $1,000 each; to her granddaughters. Henrietta M. Ayres, Annie May Veghte and Helen L. McAdams and to her grandson, William T. McAdams, $1,000 each; to John V. Tappen, Henry S. Hummer and William T. McAdams, $200 each; to each of her great-grandchildren, $50 each. She directs that $1,200 be invested and the income thereon paid to her daughter, Pheobe E. Hummer, the principal upon her death to go to the grandchildren.

Albert Wooden has filed a caveat against the probating of the will of his brother, Charles H. Wooden, of Woodbridge. He left all his property to Mrs. Amelia J. Lamb, his sister-in-law. On filing the will she gave as the next of kin the name of the contestant, Sarah Sofield, of Metuchen and said there were two sisters in the West unknown to her.

Oddly Hurt by Suit Case.

Long Branch, July 1.—Cyrus S. King, of New York business man with a summer home here, met with a peculiar accident Thursday while enroute for New York. He had his suitcase with him and after placing it in front of the seat, crowded in between the case and the seat. In moving his legs to get an easier position a ligament was torn in his left knee. When Matawan was reached Mr. King was assisted to the platform and took the next train back to Long Branch. At the Monmouth Memorial Hospital he was given attention and later removed to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Brokaw and their son, DeWitt Brokaw, of Sycamore avenue, accompanied by Walter Curtis, of New York, sailed today for Europe, where they will tour in an automobile through the summer.

SIGN LANGUAGE FOR AMERICAN BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts of America are learning a universal sign language and, therefore, are developing the real Esperanto. Under the guidance of Ernest Thompson Seton, Chief Scout, the boys are learning the signs of communication not only between the boys of this country, but also between the boys of every other nation. The plan now being developed means that eventually the boys of all nations will have a common language, and that they will be drawn more closely together. Such binding of the boys of the different nations together, it is asserted by the leaders of the Boy Scout movement, will tend greatly toward the promotion of universal peace.

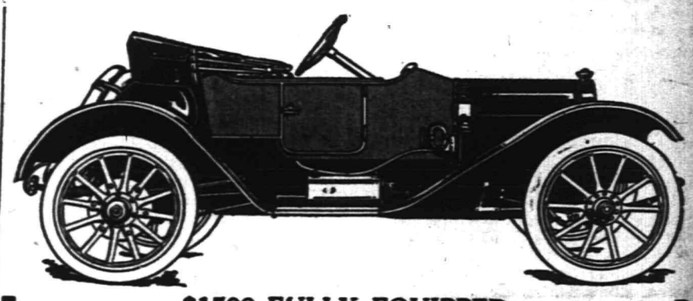
The sign language is simple. It is common to all nations. It, perhaps, was developed long before the art of speaking. It is natural to use gestures and signs to emphasize one's ideas in speaking. These gestures may express entire sentences. For instance, the traffic patrolmen in crowded thoroughfares in New York use the sign language. They are on duty all day directing the traffic of thousands of vehicles, and perhaps never speaking one word.

Baseball players have a sign language. Every sport has given rise to certain gestures or signs that are perfectly natural and are understood easily by persons not versed in that special activity. Children and grown-ups use gestures, and, therefore, signs instinctively. More than 100 signs are used by the children in the public schools. There are 3,000 signs that students of the language have picked up. A person can communicate his thoughts intelligently with 600 of them. The ordinary person uses a vocabulary of not more than 2,000 words. The signs have been developed in the deaf and dumb schools so that the deaf and dumb alphabet is discarded, expect for the spelling of proper names and unusual words.

"It is a fact," says Chief Scout Seton, "that at many deaf and dumb schools whole lectures are delivered and sermons preached by the use of a highly developed sign language. A single sign may convey an entire sentence. The savages out West have a sign language. A person who understands the sign language can talk to an Indian. He can convey his meaning adequately to persons of different nations, such as Russsia, China and India without speaking a word."

Chief Scout Seton points out that the use of the sign language makes a person more observant, and that observing persons use it. The sign language may be used in signalling. It may be employed in places such as hopsitals, where persons may not be permitted to speak. It is used in places where the noise is so great that the voice cannot be heard, or perhaps in speaking to one another across a room. Its use is so greatly recognized that it is being developed in the army and many other places.

Chief Scout Seton has prepared a dictionary of signs, with illustrations which will soon be ready not only for the use of the scouts, but for all persons who are interested in learning the sign language. "Every person uses signs," say Chief Scout Seton, "but the Boy Scouts in developing it are spreading it throughout the entire world, and are putting into practice the real Esperanto language. They will naturally come in closer contact with one another, and will be united in a universal brotherhood. What can be more helpful in the promotion of universal peace? I hope every Boy Scout will study sign language."



$1500 FULLY EQUIPPED
THE CLASSIEST ROADSTER BUILT
A. C. THOMPSON AUTO CO.
Tel. 1510 413-421 Park Ave.
(THE MOST UP-TO-DATE GARAGE IN NEW JERSEY)

OUTING AND PICNIC SANDWICHES ARE BEST WHEN MADE WITH
O-X-O BREAD
BECAUSE OF ITS LASTING FRESHNESS and DELIGHTFUL FLAVOR
SANITARY MADE AND HANDLED
Ask Your Grocer

HOMING PIGEON RACE HONORS FOR PARSONS

The Plainfield Homing Pigeon Fanciers Club has closed a most successful spring and early summer season, and there will be no more races until September when young birds bred this year will be flown as far as two hundred miles. The last event of this season was the 500-mile old bird race from Newton, N. C., June 24. Seventy-nine birds from five lofts competed. The lofts represented and number of birds from each follow: Robert S. Parsons, fourteen birds; D. C. Anderson, sixteen birds; Charles E. Faber, twelve birds; R. W. K. Anderson, twenty-seven birds; F. C Brunner, ten birds.

The birds from R. S. Parsons' loft were first, the average speed being 676.56 yards per minute, and those from D. C. Anderson's loft were second, the average speed being 644.03 yards per minute.

Mr. Parsons won first and second in the 100 and 200 mile races and first in the 500 mile race, with general average speed of 876.37 yards per minute for the series of five races. Mr. Faber won first in 300 and 400 mile races, D. C. Anderson won second in 300 and 500 mile races, while Mr. Brunner won second in 400 mile race. The bird which won the 500 mile race, belonging to Mr. Parsons, is two years old and has taken part in several remarkable flights, one of which was from Ontario. In this long race the bird finished second. Up to last night some of the birds in the 500 mile race had not returned, due to heavy winds, and storms, which doubtless caused them to temporarily lose their course.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurray Burtis, of Fairview avenue, have gone to Good Ground, L. I., for two weeks. They will stop at the Bayside House.

Mrs. Frank Hand and daughter, Miss Lavinia Hand, of Fairview avenue, will spend the months of July and August at Monticello, N. Y.

Mrs. Webb, of Texas, has come north for the summer and is stopping at present at the home of her mother, Mrs. D. J. Yerkes, of Grove street.

Mrs. Anna VanFleet, of Duer street, left yesterday on a two months' vacation at her former home, Allertown, Hunterdon county.

Charles A. Reed and family, of New York, who have occupied the house of William Griscom, on Sycamore avenue, for a few weeks, have gone to Spring Lake for the season.

—Use Press want ads.

JULY THIRD.

1775—Washington took command of the colonials at Cambridge.
1863—Decisive day at Gettysburg; Pickett's charge repulsed.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Probably fair and continued warm tonight and Tuesday.
Maximum, 99; minimum, 71.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, JULY 3, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

HIS FINAL SERMON

Rev. Dr. Chambliss Preaches to First Baptists on Righteous Character.

HIS VACATION BEGINS TODAY.

Clergyman's Resignation Takes Effect Sept. 1—A Large Congregation Hears His Helpful Discourse.

Rev. Dr. John A. Chambliss preached his last sermon as pastor of the First Baptist church before a large congregation yesterday morning. Following the sermon ten candidates were given the right hand of fellowship into the church by the pastor. The retiring preacher starts his vacation today and his resignation takes effect on September 1.

Dr. Chambliss took for his text yesterday morning the fourth verse of Psalm 112; "Unto the upright ariseth light in the darkness," the sermon being in part as follows:

"God makes no difference between the rich and the poor, the refined and the uncultured, or the somebodies and nobodies of society for the Heavenly Father is no respector of persons. But God is a respecter of character. We are not all alike in character and hence blessings are bestowed upon us according to ourselves and our conditions. The divine blessings are not given at random but are made to fit the individuals souls.

"Life is not the same to any two of us and so our needs are different. Trials and death might appear in an entirely different light to one than to the other for men see differently. From the humblest and homeliest flower, poets can bring thoughts too deep for tears.

"Who is the upright man however? Upright is a picture word which compares the upright being with the lower animals. It is better to be a beast of the field than to be an upright being with a bad character. An object perpendicular to the earth offers the greatest resistance to the forces of gravity, which always pull in a downward direction. And so the upright character must be straight and perpendicular to withstand the contrarily opposed forces of Satan which act in a downward path. An upright man is a man who stands on his own feet, who follows the truth at all odds and who does the right thing at any cost.

"The theology of old made strong men for it, gave them an obstinancy to do right. There is too much moral flabbiness among the Christians of today.

"Uprightness is more than strength and straightforwardness; it is also grace and compassion. Strength blended with gentleness are the factors which make up true manliness. Be as the tree, graceful and fruitful but do not be rough! A Grecian pillar would be built large and strong yet there would be lily work at the top. And so in our lives, let us not forget the lily work!

"A plant grows most in the night time and so we grow and develop most in trial. Without sorrow this would be a world without martyrs, heroes or even Russian Baptists. There is no rejoicing in the light unless you get there by going through the darkness. The symbol of Christianity should not be the cross alone but the cross and the crown for sacrifice goes with glory and life with death.

"The bane and the antidote always grow near one another; in the spiritual life there is help near every need. It is better to be with Christ in a dungeon than in a palace without Him. Christ is winning His Kingdom and God's servants are facing the sunrise of His bright morning for His day is near.

"Keep up and fight hard. It is only through faith that we are able to see the light in the darkness. 'Weeping may endure for a night but joy cometh in the morning.'"

Hurt While at Play.

Charles Salvadore, of North avenue, while playing with some companions on Richmond street yesterday afternoon, ran into a trolley car and was knocked down receiving bruises and sprains about his arms and hands. Fortunately he was knocked away from the car and was able to go to his home after recovering from the shock and fright.

Recovers Pocketbook.

Thomas O'Gorman, driver of the police patrol, found a woman's pocketbook containing a sum of money, on Liberty street yesterday morning, and turned it in at police headquarters where it was claimed later by Miss Katherine Brick, of Myrtle avenue.

—Use Press want ads.

—Neuman Bros. will celebrate Independence Day, tomorrow, by closing their store all day.

DEATH SUMMONS MRS. WM. MITCHELL

Mrs. Ella Mitchell, aged about sixty years, wife of William Mitchell, of Watchung avenue, died yesterday at her home of a concerous growth. She had been ill since last November. In December she underwent an operation at the hospital and since that time had been confined to her bed.

Mrs. Mitchell was a native of Jersey City, and had lived in Plainfield about five years. She is survived by her husband, three daughters, the Misses Hazel, Ethel and Loretta Mitchell, and one son, George Mitchell, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Schnectady, N. Y. Her mother, Mrs. Rebecca Ely, who is about eighty-four years old, resides at Jersey City. Four sisters and two brothers, one of the latter being William Ely, who was prominent in politics in Hudson county for twenty-seven years, also survive her. Mr. Ely was at one time city treasurer of Jersey City and was assistant postmaster for a number of years.

The funeral services will be held at the late home on Watchung avenue, this evening at 8 o'clock, Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel, officiating and the burial will be at Washingtonville, N. Y., tomorrow.

LESS RAIN IN JUNE, AND IT WAS COOLER

'Weather Prophet' John Nagle, in giving the statistics of weather for June shows that the mean temperature was 0.3 below the normal, and the precipitation was 0.23 below normal. There were eighteen rainy days, number of days clear, 8; partly cloudy, 12; cloudy, 10. The dates of thunder storms were 2, 6, 10, 11, 12, 13, 16 20, 22, 24, 25 and 27. The prevailing wind was southwest. These statistics are also given:

Highest temperature, 93, date 28th; lowest temperature, 48, date 17th; mean temperature, 69.0; normal temperature, 69.3; mean maximum, 79.7; mean minimum, 58.2; mean daily range, 21.5; greatest daily range, 37.; monthly range, 45.; total precipitation, 3.90 inches; normal precipitation, 4.13; greatest amount in twenty-four hours, 1.04 date 12th.

MONDAY MORNING IN THE POLICE COURT

Archie Drake was held under $200 bail for the Union County Grand Jury this morning in the city court by Judge William G. DeMeza, for obtaining a suit of clothes under false pretenses.

John Walsh, who was arrested Saturday night for drunk and disorderly conduct on Front street, was given a suspended sentence after a lecture on the evils of drink.

Harry Bennett, of Elm place, was araigned on a complaint made by Overseer-of-the-Poor Alex Ayers, for non-support of his wife. Bennett ws placed under $500 bonds to pay his wife $7 per week.

Residents in the vicinity of West Third street and Evona avenue, complained to the police yesterday that some Polanders were holding a Fourth of July celebreation and had caused several children narrow escapes. Patrolman Nolan was sent but when he arrived the celebrants had stopped the shooting nd were had stopped the shooting and were

The city police have been asked to be on the lookout ofr two horses said to have been stolen from Dean's Station Saturday night This is the description: black mare, 8 years old, 15 hands high, white star on face and one white hind leg. The other is a bay mare, short tail and mane, white star on face and white hind foot.

James Bowen, of Richmond street, was arrested by Patrolmen Nolan and McCarty last night while intoxicated. William G. DeMeza imposed a sentence of $10 fine or thirty days in the city court this morning.

Break Ground for New Church.

The members of the Mt. Olive Baptist church will break ground tomorrow night at 6 o'clock for the new church to be erected on Liberty street, in place of the old edifice, which has been in use for a greaf many years. Appropriate exercises will attend the breaking of ground, which will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. Dr. M. W. Vaughn.

The Little Store Around the Corner.

All automobilists should call and see us. We can save you money. Standard Tire Vulcanizing Company, 118 Madison avenue. H. P. Vosseller, R. E. Sebring. ***

FOURTH'S EVENTS

Independence Day to be Quietly Celebrated in the City and Borough.

WESTFIELD REAL ATTRACTION.

Baseball and Golf—Postoffice and Stores to Be Closed—League Games are Scheduled—No Local Paper Published.

For the first time in many years, Plainfield will practically have a quiet Fourth tomorrow. No big celebrations of any kind have been planned for the day. The one at the Plainfield Country Club will be more or less of a private character. The fact that Westfield will have a monster celebration doubtless will have a tendency to attract many Plainfielders. The Jr. O. U. A. M. and Red Men, of this city, will be among those in line at the big parade there in the morning.

All of the stores will be closed here for the day and the drug stores will observe the usual holiday hours, that is close from 1 to 6 o'clock. The postoffice will be open until 10 o'clock, and there will be one delivery of mail in the morning. The circulating department of the Plainfield Public Library will be closed all day, but the reading room will be open from 2 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon with an asistant in charge. The art gallery will also be open from 2 to 5 o'clock.

Aside from possibly a few minor games, there will be no baseball here of any great interest. In the Central New Jersey League Plainfield will play a postponed game at Somerville in the morning and in the afternoon will play at High Bridge. The nearest game here will be at Scotch Plains, where in the morning Bound Brook will play the locals and in the afternoon the 'Plains aggregation will meet Westfield on the grounds of the former. Somerville will play Bound Brook at the latter place in the afternoon.

Plainfield's team tomorrow will be practically the same as on Saturday last, with the possible exception that Dalton may play third instead of Stallings. Waller expects to pitch both games for the local team, and is confident of winning the two contests.

The Dunellen baseball team will play a double header at home with the crack Rahway Field Club. Harny will pitch for Dunellen in the morning and Frederickson in the afternoon.

There will be plenty doing in the way of golf at both the Plainfield Country Club and Park Golf Club. In the morning at the Plainfield Country Club there will be a four-ball, 18 holes, medal play, handicap, for Classes A and B. Two teams in each class to qualify for finals at match play. Teams to consist of two players, both of whom must be in the same class. In the afternoon there will be finals in the four-ball tournament, driving contest and approaching and putting contest. In tennis there will be a continuation of the mixed doubles on the club's courts.

There will be a band concert at the club in the afternoon and one in the evening with a fine display of fireworks for the entertainment of the members and their friends.

There will be special holiday events at the Park Golf Club, both morning and afternoon, in golf and tennis, while tea will be served at the clubhouse in the afternoon for members and friends.

One of the strong attractions at Westfield tomorrow afternoon will be the horse racing at the Fair Acres track. Between thirty and forty of the best horses in the State will be seen in the various events.

REV. DR. T. L. GARDNER IS HEARD AT TRINITY.

Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardner, editor of The Sabbath Recorder, occupied the pulpit of Trinity Reformed church, yesterday morning and despite the intense heat, there was a large congregation, and all thoroughly enjoyed the fine sermon. Dr. Gardner took his text from Jeremiah 1:10, "What Seest Thou," in which he told of God's call to Jeremiah. He then made a personal application of the text to present every day conditions, giving a practical and helpful discourse, frequently illustrating it in an interesting manner. During the services, LeRoy Titsworth sang a solo very acceptably.

Drowning Victim's Funeral.

The funeral of Angelo Demeseo, the young man drowned at Sebring's Mills Friday night, will be held tomorrow morning from St. Mary's church, where a requeim mass will be celebrated. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

—Use Press Want Ads.

CITY PLAYGROUNDS

Annual Opening of Recreation Places For Children on Wednesday.

FOUR TO BE PUT IN USE HERE.

Women in Charge Selected by Commission—Playgrounds to Be Open From 9:30 to 12 and From 2 to 6 o'clock.

The municipal playgrounds of this city will be officially opened Wednesday, July 5, for the second annual summer session. No elaborate exercises will be held at the opening although it is expected that a large number of children will attend the morning and afternoon sessions and arangements are being made to take care of the extra crowd.

These playgrounds are located in the school yards of the Bryant, Franklin, Irving and St. Mary's schools, and it is expected that the Parker field will be ready within a few days, thus adding another playground to the four. The work this year will be pushed harder than ever and every member of the commission is working hard to make this season far excel last year in the work of the playground. Father B. M. Bogan, of St. Mary's church, is very much interested in the playground movement and permitted the necessary apparatus to be instituted in the school yard of the parochial school.

Each playground will be open during the morning of each week day from 9:30 until 12 and in the afternoon from 2 until 6 during July and August and until September 9. The Parker field, which will have a playground within its gates, will not be ready before the middle or later part of this month. The plans for the shelter house have been drawn and Howard Craig is now superintending the work on the foundations.

The equipment at the municipal playgrounds will be far more complete this year than last. Among the new pieces of apparatus, which has been purchased by the commission are, swing frames, baby swings, children's slides, see-saws and sand boxes, which will be installed before the opening day.

Four women have been engaged by the commission to take charge of the work. Miss Harriett E. Moe, of Jersey City, who was in the playground work in this city last year, will direct the play at the Bryant school. Miss Mary L. Childs, of Middlehaddam, Conn., who was also here last year, will be in charge at the Franklin school. The new playground at the Irving school will be cared for by Miss Ethel Skillman, of Watchung avenue. Miss Skillman is a graduate of the Plainfield High School in '09 and has had two years' experience in the playgrounds of New York city, where she assisted Miss Sarah Curry. Miss Amy T. O'Grady, of New York city, will have charge of the work at the St. Mary's school yard.

The commission expects to appoint an auxiliary committee of women in order to help the directors of the grounds in entertaining the children. The appointments will be made within a few days.

TRAIN HIT LABORER; VICTIM WILL RECOVER

George Schernberger, aged 27 years, employed as a laborer by the New Jerey Central, who was struck by an express train at the North Avenue Station, Saturday afternoon, was reported much improved at Muhlenberg Hospital, today, with excellent chances for recovery. Schernberger, was was working with a track gang, near the station, was about finishing up his work for the day, when he accidentally stepped on the main eastbound tracks just as the train came along.

Schernberger suffered a fracture at the base of the the skull, scalp wound and wounds of the right arm. He was rushed to the hospital in the police patrol, his condition being considered very serious. Saturday evening it was thought the man woul die but yesterday there was a decided improvement in his condition and today there was still further improvement. Schernberger lives at Elizabeth and has a wife and one child.

Rev E. G. Bowers in Charge.

Rev. Elory G. Bowers, rector of St. Stephen's church, Netherwood, has been secured to take charge of the 11 o'clock morning services on Sunday in the Holy Cross church during the month of July.

Peter Condon, a New York lawyer, has leased R. J. Letcher's residence on Belvidere avenue, for the summer months.

WEDDED AT GRACE

Miss Helen Phillips Becomes Mrs. J. F. Harper at Church Ceremony.

CHARLES HARPER BEST MAN.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson Officiates—Mrs. Keith Summer Brahe Matron of Honor—Couple to Reside in New York.

Miss Helen Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Phillips, of Rockview avenue, North Plainfield, and John F. Harper, son of Mrs. James I. Harper, of New York, were married at Grace church, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large number of guests from New York, Brooklyn and several other distant points. Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in satin and chiffon, the train being embroidered crepe and of the third generation. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Keith Summer Brahe, of New York, a recent bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a gown of white satin, trimmed with point lace and carried a bouquet of pink rambler roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary A. Faber and Miss Margaret McCutchen, of the borough, and their gowns were of white lace over white satin, trimmed with touches of pink, and they carried pink rambler roses.

The best man was Charles Harper, of Brooklyn, brother of the groom, and the ushers were Keith Summer Brahe, Dr. James P. Haney, cousin of the bride; James I. Harper, brother of the groom, of New York, and Henry Russell Phillips, Jr., brother of the bride.

The wedding marches were played by S. Frederick Smith, organist of the church. The matron-of-honor led the way, followed by the bridesmaid and the bride, accompanied by her father, who gave her in marriage. At the chancel they were met by the groom and the best man. On leaving the church the bride and groom led the way.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, there being about 250 guests. The house was attractively decorated with summer flowers and ferns, the color scheme in the dining room being pink and white. At the church Easter lilies were used exclusively. The music at the home was furnished by Harry Wetton's orchestra, of Elizabeth.

The bride was the recipient of a large collection of costly and useful gifts from relatives and friends. She is a favorite in a large circle of friends. During her residence here she has been prominent in society affairs and especially active in the work of the City Union of The King's Daughters of which she was an officer for several years.

The groom is a member of a well-known New York family, and he is principal of one of the public schools in that city. He has many friends here where he has been a frequent visitor. After a trip the couple will make their home in New York city.

NONPARIEL CLUB TO OPENS ITS NEW HOUSE.

The Nonpareil Social Club will open its new clubhouse on St. Mary's avenue, near Berckman street, tomorrow afternoon, when a tea will be served by a committee of women, the wives of the members. The committee comprises Mrs. C. J. Mackoy, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mrs. Eugene Johnson, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. W. N. Daniels, Mrs. J. W. Maury, Mrs. E. Thames.

There will be a reception and dance in the evening under the direction of W. N. Daniels, W. J. Willis, E. Thames, J. Hedgeman, R. Stevens, Eugene Johnson, J. W. Maury, Robert Lee.

These are the officers of the club: President, C. J. Mackoy; vice-president, J. Stewart; secretary, W. H. Jones; corresponding secretary, J. D. Smith; treasurer, R. Stevens; sergeant-at-arms, Robert Lee.

Clifford Randolph a Benedict.

Clifford Randolph, the well-known baseball pitcher, who has been with Binghampton, of the New York State League, this season, and Miss Marie Fox, of Albany, N. Y., were married at Albany on Thursday last and since then have been spending a few days with relatives here. Yesterday the couple left for Haverhill, Mass., where Mr. Randolph will join the pitching staff of the Haverhill club, of the New England League, having been released by Binghamton.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Whitall, of Martine avenue, are spending several days at Atlantic City.

Allan Lane and family, of Washington avenue, have gone to Point-of-Woods, L. I., where they have a cottage.

STEAMSHIP SPOKANE DASHED ON ROCKS

The Steamship Spokane, of the Pacific Coast Line, upon which accommodations for a large party of Plainfielders had been secured for her next trip, was carried out of her course on Saturday and was tossed like a chip aganist North Bluff on the East shore of the Narowa, near Seattle. In striking the rocks a hole was stove in her starboard and the vessel began to fill rapidly. All the passengers were rescued under great difficulties, some jumping overboard and swimming to shore.

Among the Plainfielders who had engaged passage on the Spokane for her next trip were Mrs. Chapman Fisk and daughter, Miss Dorothy Fisk; Miss Annie G. Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fisk; Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hyde, of this city; Mrs Albert church, of Nek York and Charles Chapman, of Rutland, Vt.

News of the accident to the Spokane reached Plainfield yesterday and at once the Plainfielders began an investigation. Arrangements will doubtless be made to secure another steamer to take the place of the Spokane.

BRAKEMAN INJURED; KNOCKED FROM CAR

Frank Swope, a brakeman on a Philadelphia and Reading freight train, suffered a fracture of his left arm and severe bruises and contused wounds this morning, when he was knocked from the top of a freight car by an outlet pipe, while the train was travelling at a high rate of speed near the Greenbrook tanks. A fellow-brakeman saw the accident and signalled the engineer who stopped the train.

Swope was brought to this city on his train and it was at first planned to remove the injured man to the hospital, but later it was decided to take him to the office of Dr. Albert Pittis, the local physician for the New Jersey Central, his injuries not being considered so serious. Dr. Pittis set the broken bones and dressed the other wounds, after which the man was sent to his home in Philadelphia. He will be detained from work for several weeks.

TWO SLIGHTLY HURT IN THIS RUNAWAY

When Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Earle, of Watchung avenue, were driving down the Dugway hill in the Watchung mountains in a runabout yesterday afternoon, their horse became excited due to the heavy weight upon his shoulders and started to kick. The animal broke the shafts of the runabout and Mrs. Earle jumped from the carriage, breaking three of her fingers and cutting herself severely about the head and arms.

The horse started on a mad run down the mountains after he had freed himself from the harness and wagon and came down Somerset street at a frantic gait. Several men attempted to catch the animal. The equinne slowed up when he came to Front street and slowly trotted to Blair's livery stable, where he is owned.

William de La R. Anderson, the "mayor" of Watchung, happened to come by the scene of the accident in his automobile and took the injured couple to the office of Dr. B. VanD. Hedges. Mrs. Earle was severely shaken up beside being cut and bruised. Her husband, however, escaped with a few bruises. Before being brought to this city, Mr. and Mrs. Earle were given first aid attenion by William E. Patti, of Watchung.

The carriage was not badly damaged except for the broken shafts and the horse was not injured in the least.

Honeyman Party Arrives.

A cable message has been received from A. V. D. Honeyman, of this city, announcing that he and his party, numbering about twenty, had arrived safely in Paris on Friday, after a pleasant voyage on the Prinz Friedrich Wilhelm, of the North German Lloyd Line. Their tour will cover portions of England, Ireland, Wales, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Germany and Denmark; also a ten days' cruise along the Norwegian coast.

An Infant's Funeral.

The funeral of Isaac, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Johnson, of South Plainfield, was held this afternoon from the residence of his parents where his death occurred yesterday morning.

SWELTERING DAYS

Mercury Soared to 99 Yesterday and Today it Climbs Above 100.

THE HUMIDITY IS INTENSE.

No signs of Cooler Weather, but it is Hotter in Many Other Cities—Yesterday Warmest July Day in Years.

The first effects of a heat wave from the west struck the east yesterday and Plainfield was in its grasp the mercury in the thermometer soared to 100 degrees. "Weather Prophet" John Neagle, however, says that the official thermometer didn't get any higher than 99 degrees but that the intense humidity made many believe it had gone up above 110. Hundreds of thermometers about the city and borough showed 100 degrees or over. No heat prostrations, nevertheless, were reported at the hospital or by the police.

After an almost unbearable night, the sweltering inhabitants of the city and borough arose this morning to find the thermometer cutting up the same antics. At 7:50 this morning, according to Neagle, the mercury stood at 91 degrees. Two hours later many thermometers showed 95. At 1:30 this afternoon the temperature was 102 degrees.

Yesterday was the hottest July day since 1908, when comparisons are made by the official thermometer. Three years ago on July 12, the mercury soared to 100. Last year it reached its highest point on July 24, when it was 98. It registered the same on July 18, 1905. It was much hotter on July 2, 1901 than it was yesterday for then the temperature was 104. On July 3, 1898, and again on July 17, 1900, the thermometer was 101. It was 100 degrees on July 29, 1894; 99 degrees on July 26, 1893 and 105 on July 26, 1892.

With the thermometer registering 94½ degrees New York city suffered yesterday from the highest temperature of this year, but there were other cities in which the heat was even greater.

Thirteen deaths were reported in Chicago, and the number of prostrations ran in hundreds. Persons dropped by scores in the streets, in cars and in the parks.

From all points in the East and Middle West the day was reported as the warmest of the summer, and in many cases the warmest in the history of the local weather bureau.

The hottest place on the North American continent was Rockliffe, Ontario, where the thermometer stood at 108 degrees. Some of the other heat records were:

Marquette, Mich	104
Kansas City	102
St. Joseph, Mo.	102
Des Moines, Iowe	102
Omaha, Neb.	102
Charles City, Iowa	102
Fort Smith, Ark.	100
Louisville, Ky.	100
Keokuk, Iowa	100
Alpena, Mich.	100
Sioux City, Iowa	100
Chicago	98
Detroit	98
Harrisburg, Pa.	98
Cairo, Ill.	98
Toledo, Ohio	98
Philadelphia	94
Eastport, Maine	54

Six other cities reported 96 degrees of temperature.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS BEGIN BUSINESS HERE.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins, of Elizabeth, have opened undertaking and funeral parlor at 332 Park avenue, corner of Fourth street. Higgins' Brothers are established undertakers, being in the business in Elizabeth since 1868. They have all the opportunities of the most modern establishment, and also have their own private livery stable in connection with their business.

Higgins' Brothers are New Jersey and New York licensed embalmers. The firm maintains night and day service and have telephone connections.

Mrs. Hipp's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Hipp, wife of George Hipp, of West Second street, was held this morning. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. D. F. Hogan at St. Mary's church. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. The pall bearers were John McCann, Albert Mathews, James Shannon, John Lyons, Edward Eskerson and Patrick Newell.

Dinner for Mr. Frost.

George H. Frost, owner of the Engineering News of New York, and one of the proprietors of the Courier-News of this city, will be given a complimentary dinner at the Railroad Club, 50 Church street, New York, on Friday. The occasion will mark his seventy-first birthday. Mr. Frost is a former councilman.

Gents' Furnishings

MEN'S LIGHT WEIGHT UNDERWEAR—The famous Delmarvia sanitary checked dimity; short drawers, sleeveless shirts, reinforced; the most comfortable kind of underwear for warm weather; the 39c grade; on Monday for.....25c

MEN'S WASH TIES in pretty, neat, stylish designs; the regular 50c kind; Monday 35c, or 3 for $1.00

TRUNKS AND TRAVELING BAGS.

A complete line of both kinds, the kinds that we can fully recommend. We will sell you a trunk Monday, cloth lined, extra heavy brass trimmings, reinforced with heavy iron bands; values $7.98; sale price $5.00

BABCOCK'S CORYLOPSIS

Talcum Powder in perforated can, regular value 15c; on sale Monday at 10c

CHILDREN'S SOCKLETS.

Shirred elastic, with rosettes and bows; pink, white and blue; 19c value for.....10c

ALLOVER LACES.

in white cream and ecru; pretty designs; 18 inches wide; values up to $1.19, for.....79c

A. E. Force & Co.

"THE WHITE STORE"

WE GIVE "S. H." GREEN TRADING STAMPS

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. Premium Parlor on 3rd Floor.

The "White Store" is Bountifully Supplied with Every Requisite that You May Need for the Proper Celebration of the "Glorious Fourth."

COME HERE TODAY FOR THESE IMPORTANT BARGAINS.

Tuesday Being the 4th of July This Store Will Be Open for Your Accommodation on Monday Evening

Ladies' Ready-to-Wear Garments

DRESSES—For Fourth of July outing, in natural color, white and blue, with embroidered front and piping; these are $2.50 values; Monday $1.75

LADIES' DRSSSES—In neat checks, linen, figured effects; others with dainty borders; big variety of styles to select from; values from $5.00 to $7.50; Monday only at $2.98 & $3.98

THOSE WHITE LINGERIE DRESSES—All white lawn, handsomely trimmed with beautiful lace and medallions; no two alike; we consider these the best values we have ever offered you; positive values up to $10; Monday your choice for.....$3.98

LAST FEW DAYS OF THE MUSLIN UNDERWEAR SALE—There still are many exceptional values that can be picked up today. Some of which have been re-marked to close them; such as skirts, drawers, corset covers and combinations.

CORSETS—A special lot of light weight corsets in ventilated batiste, suitable for warm weather wear; all the sizes, and new models; regular $1.50; specially priced Monday..$1.00

MIDDY BLOUSE WAISTS—Made of galatea, sailor collars of navy or cadet blue, with windsor ties; $1.25 quality for.....98c

MILLINERY AND FLOWER SPECIALS—Your choice of our beautifully trimmed hats, this season's new models, that sold up to $6.50; closing price $2.98

FLOWERS—All kinds of beautiful flowers for hat trimming purposes, that sold up to $1.25; closing price 39c

Popular Sheet Music Specials for 10c Per Copy

Honey Love
Who Are You With Tonight
Hurry Up Those Wedding Bells
Casey Jones
On Mobile Bay
It's Got to Be Some One I Love
Peggy Gray
You'll Do the Same Thing Over
Alamo Rag
Steamboat Bill
Lovie Joe
Summer Days
Dreamy Italian Waltz
All That I Ask is Love
Dreams Just Dreams

Housefurnishing Specials

ALARM CLOCKS—Heavy nickel, warranted one year; regular value 79c; on Monday only for 59c

STAIR BRUSHES—7 inches long, wire fastened; sold regularly for 29c; Monday for..19c

LADIES' HOSIERY.

Black lisle, black and white boot lace in sizes 8½ to 9½; regular 50c value; Monday at..39c

A GREAT RIBBON SPECIAL

Consisting of satin and taffeta, all new shades and fancies, from 4 to 6 inches wide; values up to 39c; Monday 15c

SUN UMBRELLAS.

Ladies' mercerized Pongee Sun Umbrellas in brown, green and red; $1 grade for.....69c

FLAGS! FLAGS! FLAGS!

"Don't" leave your home unadorned on the Fourth. Let the Stars and Stripes float triumphant from every housetop on that day. We carry every conceivable kind and size from the small 5c grade to the largest all wool bunting; also poles and fixtures.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 246

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR
and PAPERHANGER
83 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—731.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Felix Mottl, the Austrian composer, died at the age of fifty-five.

The American consulate General at Bogota, Columbia, was premanently closed.

Eugene F. Ware, formerly Commissioner of Pensions, died at Cascade, Col.

The United States practice squadron, with the naval cadets on board, arrived at Kiel.

Five New England towns and cities began celebrations of their 150th anniversaries.

The hottest day of the year exacted a heavy toll, at least ten deaths due to the heat being reported in New York.

Borough President Gresser issued a statement blaming the Controller and other city officials for the bad roads in Queens.

The British shipping strike extended to Queenstown, but a settlement at today's conference was confidently anticipated.

Claims aggregating $250,000 have been filed against Mexico for killing and wounding Americans at El Paso during the battle of Juarez.

A dispatch from Pittsburg said that two deaths and ten injuries were the toll of Sunday's automobiling in that section of Pennsylvania.

Five persons were killed and three injured when a Long Island Railroad train struck a spring wagon at a crossing near Glendale, Queens.

Maurice de Rothchild's Ossian won the Prix du President de la Republique at Maisons Laffitte, W. K. Vanderbilt's Negofol being unplaced.

A madman interrupted high mass in a Williamsburg church, and on being removed it was found he had numerous cruciform wounds, he said, to atone for sin.

Five deaths from the heat and a score of prostrations occurred in Chicago; the mercury registered 100 degrees at the street level at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

A proposition to buy one hundred thousand acres of land annually in Palestine for Jewish colonies was made at the convention of the Federation of American Zionists at its session at Tannersville, N. Y.

It was said at Denver that Mrs. Isabelle Patterson Springer, divorced wife of John W. Springer, a Denver banker, will not be called as a witness in the second trial of Harold F. Henwood, for the murder of Sylvester L. von Phul.

President Taft, accompanied by his aunt, Miss Delia Torrey, of Millbury; Major Archibald Butt and Secret Service men, left Boston at 2 p. m., for Indianapolis; the President motored to Boston from the summer White House at Beverly; Miss Torrey left the party at Worcester, Mass.

Further details of the "safe and sane" celebration planned for tomorrow, in New York, included a big Jewish demonstration on the East Side, consisting of a parade and two mass meetings, the customary entertainment at Tammany Hall and an historical dragon parade by the Chinese.

The French Foreign Minister decided in view of the Moroccan situation precipitated by Germany not to accompany the President of the Republic on the visit planned to the netherlands; Germany press comment took it for granted that the partition of Morocco was imminent and that the Fatherland required a coaling station in those regions.

TRIES SUICIDE IN A CHURCH

Newton, July 3.—Missing since Thursday, Anthony F. O'Donnell, a building contractor and leading churchman here, was found overcome by illuminating gas in the pastor's room of the First Presbyterian church at High and First streets, Friday night. He had attempted suicide. Financial troubles were attributed as the cause of the man's action.

Stretched out upon the floor of the church room, Mr. O'Donnell was unconscious when Lestor Layton and Thomas Woodruff, other members of the church, found him. A rubber tube reaching from an open jet on the wall to his head told the story of how the contractor sought to end his life. The tube had fallen from his mouth.

Investigation developed that about the time Mr. O'Donnell was planning his self-destruction five mortgages involving his residence and his place of business were recorded in the registrar's office here by Thomas W. Bentley, a silk manufacturer. They aggregate $8,200, and all but $1,000 of this amount had been advanced to O'Donnell and his wife. The balance was taken on a mortgage given by John McManiman, a business partner of the would-be suicide.

About the same time a number of employes of the contracting firm at work on the new plant of the Newton Gas and Electric Company here quit their jobs. There are various reasons given for this but the chief cause is said to have been the inabil-

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 126 North Ave.
S. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbie & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....213 Watchung Ave.
Jos. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....667 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
H. A. Laing.....148 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Metli.....111 Park Ave.
Dubois & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....331 Watchung Ave.
C. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
J. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....E. Peters
New Market..... Corlell
Bound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glamer
North Plainfield.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood..... W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Richard Pennock, of Dunellen avenue, will go to the Y. M. C. A. State camp for boys at Lake Wawayanda next week.. The camp this year will be larger than ever, over 400 being enrolled for the summer. Mr. Pennock expects to enter several of the athletic contests which have been scheduled for the boys of each section, he being in the second group from Plainfield, which will be in charge of Erwin Leland.

Washington Camp. No. 98, Patriotic Sons of America, will go to South Plainfield Thursday night to attend the district meeting of the lodge. Delegates will be present from New Brunswick, Metuchen, Bound Brook, Raritan and many of the other towns in the district.

Many Dunellenites are planning to go to the celebration at Westfield tomorrow. The Fourth of July will be rather quiet in the borough this year.

William Vail, of Front street, has taken a position with the park brigade of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

The Rosary Society of St. John's church attended Holy Communion in a body at the church yesterday morning.

Mrs. Harry Apgar, of Philadelphia, is visiting this week with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Apgar, of Front street.

Goldson W. Smalley has completed the work on the much needed cross walks on North avenue.

DeWitt Pierson, of New Market road, is suffering from two fractured ribs.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon Bible study meetings at the Baptist church have been discontinued during July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harper have been entertaining Mrs. Harper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Skillman, of New York.

William Deegan, who has been visiting relatives in New York for two weeks, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Augusta Miller entertained Henry Bradwell and daughter, of Newark, over Sunday.

SOMERVILLE.

Master Ernest Pfathecher, who has been enjoying a vacation with his uncle, Rev. William Sahler, at Harlingen, returned this week to his home in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Estelle Van Buren, Mrs. D. C. Sinclair and son, Ronald, and Miss Nellie Apgar, all of Middaugh street, have gone to South Royalton, Vt., for the summer.

M. H. Johnson and family, of North Bridge street, left Saturday for Ocean Grove, where they have taken a cottage for the summer months.

George Young, of Rocky Hill, has taken a position in the stone quarries near New Durham, and will move in the near future to the last named place.

Louis P. Gaston has purchased the Johnson residence at West High and North Grove streets. He and his family will occupy it in the autumn.

Henry Brien, Sr., of New York, is spending a few days with Henry Brien, Jr., and family, at Green Knoll, north of Somerville.

The Misses Barbara and Janet Shed, of Rocky Hill, sailed Saturday for Scotland. They expect to be away about six weeks.

The Misses Sutphen, Corse, Shaw and Brink returned Saturday from Lake Hopatcong, where they spent a week.

Dr. and Mrs. William Stockton, of North Bridge street, have gone to Harvey Cedars for the summer.

W. W. Higgins, of New York, is a guest of his granddaughter, Mrs. Abram Cruser, at Blawenburg.

Mrs. Eliza Sayres, of Elizabeth, is spending some time with the Misses Porter, in North Bridge street.

Miss Elizabeth Carey is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. J. Wolverton, in Jersey City.

Mrs. Garretson, of Paterson, is a guest at the home of Miss Martha Van Pelt, at Millstone.

Mrs. A. H. Haynes and children, of Rocky Hill, are guests of relatives at Mill River, Mass.

Miss Edith Johnson, of Dover, is a guest of Mrs. William H. Cawley, Jr., in East Main street.

Mrs. Gulick, of Bound Brook, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. Huston Laban, at Harlingen.

Rayne Marcus, of New York, is a guest at the home of Mrs. William Honan, in Raritan.

Miss Grace McKeehan, of Blawenburg, is spending the summer at New Bloomfield, Pa.

The Misses Hoffman, of Brooklyn, are guests of Mrs. Mary Leibig, in Loomis street.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Davis, of Millstone, are entertaining relatives from Newark.

Miss Bidwell, of High street, is visiting her brother, at Reddesville.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

AT THE DAY'S END

Nothing on Earth so Good for nervous, fidgety, restless people as a bottle of comforting and delicious

Bartholomay
Rochester
Beer or Ale

You'll sleep better, eat better, and work better if you'll stick to this quality beverage. Keep it in the house.

Distributed by

Henry Haurand
68 Somerset St.
'Phone 229

BARTHOLOMAY MEANS QUALITY

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

Garret Clickner is spending his vacation with relatives in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. VanNest are entertaining Newark relatives.

Mrs. Reginald Meeks is spending a week in New York.

—Terry Brothers, painters and decorators, of this city, have just completed painting and papering the home of Dr. Tuttle, on Greenbrook road, Dunellen.

Miss Ruth Van Vliet, daugnter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Van Vliet, of Washington avenue, is spending a few weeks at Northfield, Mass.

PROPOSALS FOR ADDITION TO THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held Monday evening, June 19, 1911, the Board will meet on Thursday evening, July 6, 1911, at eight o'clock at the board room in the High School building, corner West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, to receive sealed proposals for the proposed addition to the High School. Plans and specifications which are now on file in the office of the architect, James Gamble Rogers, 11 East Twenty-fourth street, New York, and also on file in the Board of Education room, West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield.

All proposals to be endorsed, "Proposals for the addition to the High School Building," and adressed to the secretary of the Board.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board. No bids will be received previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

For the Board of Education.
F. B. Clark, Clerk of the Board.
6 23 26 28 30 7 1 3 6

FLAGS! FLAGS!!
LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY

4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)
8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.
18 ft. ROPE wiih galvanized iron Pulley.
1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.

SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40

Phone 668-J
William H. Olmsted
331 Watchung Ave.

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AEVNUE.

HOTELS.

GILBEY'S
Pure Wines and Liquors

Gilbey's world-famous Brands are the finest Imported Wines and Liquors obtainable, and every bottle is guaranteed as to its Purity, Quality and Genuineness.

In order to serve our guests with the very best that money can buy, we have imported a shipment of the Gilbey Brands from London.

ASK FOR THEM AT
THE QUEEN CITY HOTEL BAR
P. FLOERSH, Proprietor.
5 15 16 m th

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms.

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave., Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers, Watches, Clocks and Jewelry. Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

—Use Press want ads.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

Beginning Monday, July 3rd, this store will open 8:30 during July, August and September.

Money For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

Beautiful line wash four-in-hands just received at 25c

Our July Clearing Sale

Will Be Announced

Wednesday

Store Will Close at 7 p.m. Today

ity of the firm to get material with which to continue the work. The contract amounts to about $60,000.

Selecting the church as the place to commit his deed, Mr. O'Donnell might have succeeded but for the accidental discovery of him by Layton and Woodruff. As they entered the church, one of them detected the odor of gas. They traced it to the pastor's room which is in front of the edifice to the left of the entrance.

Prior to the finding of the man, Rolland Hull, the church organist, was in the choir loft for more than an hour practicing the hymns for the Sunday services. Five physicians were summoned.

The unconscious man was taken into the open air. The doctors agreed after examination of the victim, that the poisonous fumes had overpowered him only a short time before he was found.

The church members carried Mr. O'Donnell to his home at 18 Linwood avenue, where it was said yesterday morning that he was in a critical condition. A physician was in attendance.

Mr. O'Donnell is about fifty years old. He has always been prominently identified with the affairs of this place. He is superintendent of the Sunday-school here, and for many years has been an elder. He engaged in the contracting business for himself several years ago and when the business developed he took Mr. McManiman in as a partner.

ANOTHER GIRL FIEND'S VICTIM

Roselle Park, July 3.—In full view of the Kenilworth Station of the Rahway Valley Railroad, and within a stone's throw of several factories, Gertrude Wilkinson, fifteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs John Wilkinson, of Seaton avenue, Roselle Park, while walking with her sister, one year younger, Saturday afternoon, was attacked and brutally injured by a young man, who is described as a foreigner. Her condition is serious.

County Detective John A. Galatain, with a posse, including County Detective Frank V. Lowden and Patrolman James Ratchford and Simon Birmingham, of Roselle Park, scoured the county until late at night, looking for the assailant.

The crime parallels in many details the recent assault in Springfield several weeks ago. The fiend who perpetrated it answered the description of the man who is being sought for the Springfield attack.

The Wilkinson girls, after doing some housework Saturday, were given a half-holiday by their mother in appreciation of their labors. They decided to walk to Kenilworth to visit friends, and on the way met a man who was riding a wheel in the opposite direction.

The girls declare that the man followed them to the house they visited in Kenilworth. On the way home and a short distance from their friend's house the girls had to pass through an open field near the Kenilworth Depot. A path leads through the field.

The sisters had gone only a short distance when the man whom they had seen before on the bicycle sprang from the bushes along the path and seized Gertrude by the throat, threatening that if she did not keep quiet he would kill her. As the girl fought with him she cried to her little sister to run for assistance. The sister ran crying across the fields to a factory, where she secured help.

The men from the factory saw the girl's assailant spring on his wheel and ride off. A pursuit was started but without result. County Detective Galatain, it is believed, has a tangible clue in the matter.

The girl, after the attack, was taken to the home of friends, and afterward removed to her home in Roselle Park. Prosecutor Swift has been notified.

YOUR HOME

can be built or bought on money borrowed from Home Building and Loan Association.

Many people own their property who otherwise could never have had it.

Interest at favorable rates, with principal easily repaid in small monthly payments.

Apply to Home Building and Loan Association or Arthur E. Crone, Secretary.

tu-th

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

BROKAW'S CREAMERY.

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,
(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

I. GOLDBERG.
Tel. 1512-L. 510 Watchung Ave.
EXPERT LADIES' TAILOR.
Perfect fitting and good workmanship guaranteed.
Special prices on Linen Suits for this season. 5 10 tf m-w

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures. China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 358 E. Front St.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Royal Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 813 Lee place.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 80 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

ECONOMY JARS WILL KEEP YOUR FRUIT PERFECT

When your fruits are "Economy Preserved" you can be absolutely certain that they will keep perfectly until you want to use them. They cannot spoil as the sanitary composition in the cap seals them to stay sealed.

Come in and let us show you how simple and how easy it is to preserve in the "Economy Way."

Here's the recipe:

Cook your fruit YOUR OWN WAY. Then while hot pour into Economy Jars and place caps on, using spring which comes with them to hold cap in place.

When cool there is about fifteen pounds suction holding the cap on to stay.

Order a dozen Economy Jars at once.

Price per dozen—1-qt. size, $1.20; 2-qt. size, $1.40.

New Caps and Springs for your last year's Economy Jars at small price.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 EAST FRONT ST.,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
TWO 'PHONES—6-214
Call one number; if central does not connect you with us, please call the other.

TIMBO'S
Stock for Smokers

Romeo and Juliets, La Carolines, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merrails & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampe makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles,

133-135 North Avenue.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

Central R. R. News Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

USE A GAS RANGE AND SAVE MONEY

If you have to depend upon a coal fire to do your cooking, you must either keep the fire going, thus wasting a lot of heat, or else start a new fire for every meal.

This means endless worry as well as needless work and needless expense.

Then, with a coal fire you are kept guessing whether it is just right or not.

With a gas range you can have your fire ready at a moment's notice, and you can absolutely regulate the heat to suit your needs and when the meal is cooked, a turn of a valve stops the expense instantly.

Gas ranges save more than worry; they save money. We sell them at reasonable prices and on monthly payments.

PUBLIC SERVICE GAS CO.

From July 7th to Sept. 2nd inclusive, this store will close Friday evenings at 6 o'clock and Saturdays at 1 p. m., other days as usual at 5:30 p. m.

Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. S. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE," New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK

CLOSED ALL DAY 4TH OF JULY.

Wednesday, July 5th, a Big Sale of Fine Remnants

Every year right after the Fourth of July we hold a remnant sale for the purpose of ridding our stocks of several weeks' accumulation. The goods are all eminently desirable, in fact just as good as when cut from the piece, only they are remnants and because of this they are offered at

¼ to ½ Off Regular Prices

They are clean, nice pieces, suitable for women's and children's dresses, waists and for so many purposes in the home. As many women have learned the value of an offering of this character we suggest your coming early Wednesday morning to secure these bargains, embracing remnants of silks.

Remnants of Black and Colored Dress Goods.
Remnants of White Goods.
Remnants of Wash Goods.
Remnants of Dress Linings.
Remnants of Muslins and Sheetings.
Remnants of Household Linens, Toweling
Remnants of Choice Fabrics.

Half dozens of napkins, doilies, scarfs, centres, plain linens, embroidered pieces, etc.

Annual Sale Wool Blankets

Including White, Gray, Plaid and Suitable for Camping, Porch, General House Use, etc.

Think of buying new blankets at an average saving of one fourth! These July sales are brought about by our own method of buying; the placing of large contracts with the most prominent mills in America when their season is ordinarily dull and when they are glad to keep their mill busy with new orders.

We do not ask you to take them now if you don't want to—you can pay a reasonable deposit and we will hold them for you until December, if so desired.

Prices range from—

Regular $2.00 wool finished blankets, white and gray, size 66x80, special price.....$1.69

Regular $9.00 to $25 novelty high grade blankets in great profusion, special at.....$6.98 to $19.98

711 TO 721 BROAD ST., NEWARK.
ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.
TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sec.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	9	..						9
Brooklyn	7	..						7
Boston	1	..						1
Philadelphia	2	..						2
Chicago	3	13						16
Cincinnati	0	2						2
Pittsburg	2	2						4
St. Louis	2	2						4
AMERICAN
New York	8	..						8
Philadelphia	13	..						13
Boston	2	..						2
Washington	0	..						0
St. Louis	0	2						2
Cleveland	5	6						11
Chicago	2	6						8
Detroit	8	14						22

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	42	24	.636
Chicago	41	26	.612
Philadelphia	40	26	.606
St. Louis	38	29	.567
Pittsburg	37	29	.561
Cincinnati	29	38	.433
Brooklyn	23	42	.354
Boston	15	51	.227

Yesterday's Results.
Chicago, 13; Cincinnati, 3.
St. Louis, 3; Pittsburg, 0.

Saturday's Scores.
New York, 9; Boston, 1.
Philadelphia, 8; Brooklyn, 7.
Chicago, 3; Cincinnati, 0.
St. Louis, 3; Pittsburg, 2.

Games Today.
Cincinnati at Chicago.
New York at Philadelphia.
Boston at Brooklyn.

Games Tomorrow.
New York at Philadelphia (two games).
Boston at Brooklyn (two games).
St. Louis at Pittsburg (two games).
Cincinnati at Chicago (two games).

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	46	22	.676
Philadelphia	43	22	.662
New York	36	28	.563
Chicago	33	29	.532
Boston	34	32	.515
Cleveland	31	39	.443
Washington	24	44	.353
St. Louis	17	48	.262

Yesterday's Results.
Detroit, 14; Cleveland, 6.
Chicago, 6; St. Louis, 2.

Saturday's Scores.
New York, 8; Boston, 2.
Philadelphia, 13; Washington, 8.
Detroit, 8; St. Louis, 0.
Cleveland, 5; Chicago, 2.

Games Today.
Philadelphia at New York.
Washington at Boston.
St. Louis at Cleveland.

Games Tomorrow.
Philadelphia at New York (two games).
Washington at Boston (2 games).
St. Louis at Cleveland (two games).
Chicago at Detroit (2 games).

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	45	22	.672
Baltimore	42	26	.618
Toronto	37	31	.544
Montreal	30	31	.492
Buffalo	28	31	.475
Jersey City	26	35	.426
Newark	25	36	.410
Providence	24	45	.348

Yesterday's Results.
Newark, 9; Providence, 2.
Rochester, 9; Montreal, 2.

Saturday's Scores.
Newark, 4; Providence, 3.
Newark, 5; Providence, 2.
Baltimore, 7; Jersey City, 3.
Baltimore, 7; Jersey City, 6.
Montreal, 6; Rochester, 3.
Rochester, 14; Montreal, 11.
Buffalo, 6; Toronto, 4.
Toronto, 5; Buffalo, 3.

Games Today.
Jersey City at Baltimore.
Buffalo at Toronto.
Rochester at Montreal.

Games Tomorrow.
Newark at Jersey City (a. m.)
Jersey City at Newark (p. m.)
Montreal at Baltimore (two games).
Toronto at Rochester (two games).

Daniel Douglas and family, of Grove street, are planning to spend the summer at Manasquan, where they have taken a cottage.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 3, 1911.

COMMISSION GOV'T AGITATES DEMOCRATS

The Plainfield Democratic Club at a meeting to be held Monday, July 10, will vote upon a resolution to determine whether the citizens of Plainfield desire to adopt the commission form of government and arranging for a series of public discussions on the subject. In this way it is hoped to give everyone an opportunity to thoroughly inform themselves on the merits of the question before an election is held.

The club will also at that time discuss the question of the nomination of candidates for the primaries to be held in the fall, and it is expected that a plan of action will be determined upon as to the approaching campaign. The Democrats expect to wage a lively fight in the fall election and for this purpose will begin early the preparations for placing a ticket in the field.

RECORDER COLLECTS FINES FROM DRUNKS.

Mrs. Annie Nelson, of Washington street, Charles Dilts, of Second street, and Michael Kennedy, of Second street, were arraigned in the borough court this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly on Somerset street Saturday night. Recorder Dolliver was extremely lenient with the offenders and fined them $5 each.

Sheridan Jones, an old offender in North Plainfield, was helplessly drunk Saturday night and Marshals Herrmann and Pope were obliged to carry him to the borough jail. In the borough court this morning, Sheridan was quite penitent when the judge mentioned a sixty days term at Somerville. A fine of $3 was imposed upon the old offender, who was given another chance to reform.

ELECTRICIAN "ROASTED" AFTER FIREMEN "ROAST."

While repairing fire alarm box No. 75, at Randolph road and Park avenue this morning the city electrician unintentionally sent in an alarm. The horses all stood the run in the intense heat well, although Chief Doane in no unmistakable language told the man what serious results could easily happen from his carelessness. The drivers also had some plain English remarks as warm as the weather to say and said them.

Suspended Sentence.

Stephen Murphy, formerly of this city, but lately of Staten Island, came to town Saturday night in company with his young son and became intoxicated. He has a daughter ill in the hospital and he said in the city court this morning that the purpose of his visit was to see her. Judge William G. DeMeza read Murphy's record and then suspended a sentence of $100 and 59 days in the county jail against Murphy if ever again within a year he comes to this city. Permission was granted him to visit his daughter after which he was to board the first train out of town.

Dr. M. P. E. Grosszmann left Saturday for California, where he will attend a convention of educators.

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

"Store Closed Tuesday All Day. Open Monday Evening."

Specials for Saturday and Monday

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.
Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 22c
a pair; 5 pairs for $1.00; fine gauze fast black imported stockings, full fashioned; many stores would sell them for 35c a pair.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c
Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.
Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.
a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.
Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' COLLARS 19c.
Byron style, white and fancy embroidered collars; very cool and comfortable for summer use; usuallly 25c.

COME HERE FOR FLAGS.
We have a complete stock of cotton, silk and wool bunting standard American flags and the prices are most reasonable.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

BATH TOWELS 11c.
Heavy bleached Turkish bath towels, size 19x36, hemmed; regular selling price 18c each.

CHILD'S BONNETS 45c.
Pretty lawn sun bonnets, corded and embroidered ruffle; usual price 75c.

WINDOW SCREENS 19c.
22 inches high and opens to 33 inches; the best adjustable screen on the market; regular price 25c each.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.
Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.
Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.
Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.
a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.
The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.
A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.
Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $4.98.
Made of hard wood with round corners, lined with heavy galvanized iron; will hold 30 lbs of ice; a regular $7.50 refrigerator.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

GLOUCESTER'S DUKE IS DEAD AT BELFAST

William J. Thompson, the "Duke of Gloucester," and once owner of the Gloucester race track, passed away yesterday at Belfast, Ireland, his birthplace, to which he returned broken in health, entangled financially and with all his old prestige gone He left Belfast in his boyhood, more than fifty years ago, and in that half century which intervened between his departure and his return to Ireland he occupied a unique position in New Jersey politics. He came to America a clean-minded, honest Irish boy, trained as only a poor honest mother can train her own. To the end of his life he is said to have clung to the ideals of clean personal living implanted in his mind in his Irish cottage.

William J. Thompson, the Duke of Gloucester, came into this title by reason of the dominance which he gained over Democratic politics in southern New Jersey, with the little town of Gloucester for its base. Fifteen and twenty years ago the papers discovered that a resort where gambling went on unrestrained, where a row of dance halls was strung along the Delaware river had grown up within striking distance of Philadelphia.

Edward Allen Surprised.

Edward Allen was given a surprise at the home of his cousin, Miss Helen Leitheusser, on East Second street, Wednesday evening. The evening was spent playing games, singing popular songs, after which refreshments were served. Those present were Miss L. Helstrom, Miss E. Miller, Miss M. Premier, Miss A. Coles, Miss Rosmond Cary, Miss Clara Allen, Miss Helen Leitheusser and Joseph Kirch, Lester Renninger, Herbert Renninger, Howard Debcle, Charles Beckman and Edward Allen Bound Brook to Blame.

Over the misspelling of Bound Brook on a score card, William Brown, Jr., of Watchung avenue, and Michael Gilman of the borough became involved in a war of words that was followed by blows. Patrolman McCarty placed Brown under arrest on Gilman's complaint and this morning in the city court, Judge William G. DeMeza imposed a fine of $3 or 10 days on Gilman and suspended sentence on Brown, whom the testimony showed had whipped Gilman under provocation.

Charles Meyer.

After a lingering illness, Charles Meyer died yesterday at his home in New Market. He had been a resident of that place for many years and lived on what is known as the Clausen place. He is survived by his widow and one son, Paul Meyer, living at home. The funeral will be held from his late home Wednesday and interment will be private.

PERSONAL.

J. Albert Fowler, of New York, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Dunavan, of Grandview avenue.

Rev. C. L. Goodrich and family, of West Seventh street, are planning to spend the summer in Europe, expecting to leave this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, Jr., of Jackson avenue, have returned from a visit to Mrs. J. F. Grandin, of Hamden, Hunterdon county.

Mr. and Mrs William Wadkins, of Garfield, N. J., will be guests over the Fourth of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stahl, of Grandview avenue.

Mrs. J. C. Martin, of Duer street, has the sympathy of her friends and neighbors this warm weather, since she is ill with quinsy sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartley Mellick, of Park Terrace and Belvidere avenue, are parents of a nine pound boy, born to them at 5 o'clock this morning.

Miss Mabel H. Vail, of East Fifth street, a special teacher in the New York city public schools, is spending her vacation in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Hugh B. Sweeny, of Liberty street, who is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis, is stopping at Nassau Hall, Asbury Park, for several weeks.

Mrs. Chapman Fisk and daughter, Miss Dorothy G. Fisk, of West Seventh street; Miss Annie G. Fisk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Fisk, of this city; Mrs. Albert Church, of New York, and Charles Chapman, of Rutland, Vt., leave Wednesday for a trip to Alaska.

BELLEVILLE FIGHTING LOCATION OF A PLANT.

That North Plainfield and Bound Brook are not the only municipalities in this section engaged in a contest over the location of a sewage disposal plant is evidenced by the action of the Belleville Board of Trade last Friday night, when a committee of citizens was appointed to collect a fund in preparation for a fight aganist any attempt on the part of an outside municipality to locate as sewage disposal plant near the Belleville line.

The committee named has been furnished with a list of members of the board who are in arrears in their dues. The total is about $100 and Dr. Edward O. Cyphers, president of the Board of Trade, said that he thought all of this money could be collected and when the object of the fund is explained, considerable more would be subscribed.

The system proposed is the Imhoff.

Rev. Dr. Matteson, representing the Old Baptist Ministers' Home, will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church, Sunday morning, presenting the needs of the home and in the evening he will preach at the union service to be held at the First M. E. church.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

YOU KNOW

of course, you know, but what do you know That is what I would like to know.

LAUGHING.

Went to Uptodate on Wednesday to pay my men who are getting my land prepared to sell lots. Saw a new $3,500 house being built. That is what making them laugh did. They all commenced to laugh when they saw me getting off the train but you should have seen me laugh when I saw that $3,500 house. These lots will be sold on the plan that you have to buy two to get one, for no house can be built on less than fifty feet and that must be a $2,000 house or better. I want to see you often, so you can pay me $1 down $1 per week. Read below.

UP-TO-DATE (LAKEWOOD).

I will commence selling lots at Uptodate in a few days; have almost completed what the last law requires as to lot selling, and I want you to know about the lots that I am about to deceive you with. For that reason I want all of you to use my ballot below and send me the name of someone who you want to tell you about them, and who will receive two lots for his trouble. The three who receives the most number of votes will go. I want them to tell you that you are getting more than a $100 lot for $25, and that I will not keep it up long. And I want as many of you who will pay their own expenses to go as well. I can not afford to take you. Let me know when you want to go, and I will tell you how to take a shorter walk from Uptodate depot to the lots than I walk from home to the Plainfield Depot. This contest will last two weeks from the date I commence to sell lots and any one buying before will receive their money back if they receive an adverse decision. The first two people who buy from this date, (July 26th) will receive four lots for two. Send your names at once, and you can pick your lots from maps.

MY TIME IS YOURS
159 NORTH AVENUE. 'PHONE 1907

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr.....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD
736

Friends' Picnic.

The annual picnic of the First Day Sunday School of the Society of Friends was held Saturday afternoon in Wayside Park, Dunellen. There was a gratifying attendance and the time was pleasantly passed with various games after which luncheon was served. The trip was made by trolley.

Which?

Woman and Folly
Twin mimics are,
One understudy,
The other the star.
—Smart Set.

Altruism.

"They're the most popular people in the neighborhood."

"That so. Why?"

"They own a vacuum cleaner and don't object to lending it."—Detroit Free Press.

—Use Press want ads.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Held Private Funeral.

The funeral services of Mrs. Lester Woodruff, who died on Friday, were held yesterday at the late home on Manning avenue, and were private. The burial was in Hillside cemetery.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corperation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

EDUCATIONAL.

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 28, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprietor
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 344

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Manual massage and hydrotheraputic treatment given in the privacy of the home and under your own family physician.
Treatments by appointment only

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

EXCURSIONS.

New Jersey Central
THE MERMAID
To ASBURY PARK
and Other
North Jersey Coast Resorts
Through Vestibuled Express Pullman Buffet Parlor Cars and Coaches Scranton to Point Pleasant.
Close connection for New York
RUNS DAILY Except Sundays
IN BOTH DIRECTIONS
Until September 6, Inclusive
Leave Plainfield 2:11 p. m.
See ticket agts. for detailed schedule
6-26 7-3-10-17-24-31 8-7-10-14-21-28

4TH of JULY OUTINGS
VIA
New Jersey Central
Mauch Chunk GLEN ONOKO THE SWITCHBACK
ROUND TRIP $1.50 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:19 a.m.
LAKE HOPATCONG
ROUND TRIP $1.00 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:50 a. m
Similar Excursions to LAKE HOPATCONG Every Sunday and Labor Day
Children HALF FARE Each Outing

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given.
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.
502 Watchung Avenue.
Little boys' suits and little girl's dresses made to order; also orders taken for hemming. Initial work a specialty. Tea served from 3 to 5 p. m.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Winship spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Thorn, of Lakeside avenue.

Miss May Manley has returned to her home in Plainfield, after a visit with her cousin, Miss May Sofield.

John McDonough has returned to New York, after a visit with his mother, Mrs. James Gallagher.

Miss Bertha Suit, of Easton, has returned home after a visit with Miss Irene Miller.

Francis McCaffrey, of Cleveland, has returned home after a visit with P. F. Kaine.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Manning have returned from their honeymoon.

Miss Cecilia McCaffrey, of Elizabeth, is visiting Mrs. P. F. Kaine.

Miss Alice Snyder is visiting her grandmother in Newark.

Mrs. Nathan Snyder is visiting relatives at Phillipsburg.

Mrs. P. F. Kaine is improving from a severe illness.

LOCAL ENDEAVORERS TO ATTEND SESSIONS

Mrs. Milton Miller will be the official delegate of the Plainfield Christian Endeavor Union to the Atlantic City convention, but there will be a large delegation of local members at the gathering. The party will leave here Thursday morning on the 8:12 train going to Elizabethport, where connections will be made with the 9:05 train on the New Jersey Central. There will be a special coach on this train for Endeavorers.

Among those going from this city will be Alfred Everett, Elmer Hunting, Donald Mortimer, Miss Martha Kline, Miss Clara King, Miss Harriet Squier, Miss Agnes Leighs, Mrs. William Jones, Miss Bertha Jones, Mrs. B. Frank Coriell, Miss Lucy Coriell, Mr. and Mrs. William Kriney, Mrs. William Crow, Mrs. Charles Jeter, Mrs. Valentine Utzinger, Miss Christine Viebrock, Miss Harriet Randall, Miss May Randolph, Miss Anna Bach, Miss M. Lee, Miss Marie Clayton, Roy Layton, Fred Soper, Elmer Gayle and Clarence LaRue.

There will be several contests during the convention and it is said that the local union is quite likely to secure the Christian Endeavor Library offered to the Endeavorers showing the greatest progress in systematic Bible study.

LIVELY TENNIS GAME AT P. C. C. SATURDAY

An auspicious start was made in the mixed championship doubles at the Country Club Saturday afternoon when the semi-finals were reached with ten pairs entered in the opening round. The closest match in the preliminaries was between Miss Dorothy Burke and George Burke against Mr. and Mrs. Francis Frost, the former couple winning out 9-7, 8-6.

In the finals for the men's novice championship Saturday afternoon, Horace Earle, of Yale University, defeated Charles Eppa Lipscomb in four out of five sets. Mr. Lipscomb led the match for two sets but then the Yale man came back, winning out.

Tomorrow morning at 10:30, Miss Barbara Fleming and Albert D. Beers will play Miss Ashwell and Percy Brown while Miss Dorothy Burke and George Burke will meet Mr. and Mrs. Howard Colby. The winners of these matches will play the finals of the mixed doubles tournament tomorrow afternoon.

The annual lawn tennis championships for Plainfield and North Plainfield will be started on the Country Club courts next Saturday in the afternoon. This tournament is open to all residents of the city and borough.

Printing of Laws Belated.

Trenton, July 3.—The slowness with which the laws passed by the last Legislature are being printed and distributed is a subject of complaint. The last laws to be distributed were signed by Governor Wilson on April 24, and after more than two months they have just been distributed.

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays

DR. HERRING PREACHES AT THE UNION SERVICE

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring was the preacher at the first of the union services of the First Baptist, First Methodist, First Presbyterian and Trinity Reformed churches held in the First Baptist church last night. A large congregation was present. The singing was provided by the choir of the First Baptist church, several appropriate selections being sung.

Dr. Herring took for his text the words of Paul in 1 Corinthians 3:21, "All things are yours whether of Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world of life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours, and ye are Christ's and Christ is God's." He said in substance, "'You are a rich man indeed if these words are true and there are no greater riches for which any man could wish.' The apostle enumerates for us just what constitutes the Christian's wealth. First he tells us that all that Paul and Apollos and Peter have to say of Christ belong to every Christian. These were the three great preachers of the time. None of these preachers with all the wealth of their imagination could exceed the real greatness of Jesus Christ. All the inspiring and comforting things they had to utter belong to every Christian.

"Then he tells us that the things of the world are ours. We are accustomed to think of the things of the world as sinful but Paul tells us that the beautiful and enjoyable things of the present world belong to us and that we should enjoy these things to the full but only as we permit none of them to obscure our vision of God. The things of the world and life which a man really own are the things he has learned to appreciate. A man's real possessions are mental rather than material. One man owns acres of land, he possesses the title deeds and pays taxes on it, but a lover of wild flowers and birds passes through it and is its real owner. It means more to him for he has learned to appreciate its real value, and the legal owner is but his servant.

"But a strange thing about this text is that the things of death are spoken of as ours, as if death were a real blessing. Well, death does open unto us treasurers that life in this world can never give to us. What are the glories of death? I mean to the good man. Death is but the continuation of a man's earthly life under other and better conditions, for this life is much the vestibule of a life more beautiful and more satisfying that this, and death is but the passing from the vestibule into his glorious room whose glories are ours.

"Lest you think that some influence will deprive you of your possessions now and hereafter, the apostles adds, 'and ye are Christ's,' and he means that the victory that He has won belongs to you. No power in this world or universe will be able to hurt you because you are His.

"The climax of this remarkable verse is in these words, 'And Christ is God's.' Why was it necessary for Paul to say this? Simply to show that there is no rule above Christ's, no will contrary to His will.

Because of all this, possible wealth that is yours, banish unhappy thoughts from your minds and centre your thoughts on your real possessions."

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Miss Margaret Harrison, soprano soloist at the Old South Presbyterian church, New York city, who has taken Mrs. June Bilby's place at the First M. E. church for the summer, sang yesterday for the first and delighted the congregation. She has a particularly fine voice.

SECOND ANNIVERSARY OF EAST END CHURCH

Interesting services marked the second anniversary of the Netherwood Reformed church yesterday, during which there was recounted the success enjoyed by the congregation under the helpful leadership of Rev. Royal A. Stout, the pastor. The regular communion service was held in the morning and the anniversary services in the evening. There was special music by the vested boy choir, and Rev. Dr. Robert H. Craig, of this city, assisted by offering prayer. The services were of a patriotic order, the music being a feature in this respect.

An address was delivered by Rev. Mr. Lane, of this city. This was of a congratulatory nature and he gave the members of the church and congregation much encouragement. Rev. Royal A. Stout, the pastor, gave an excellent talk on the subject: "The Space of Two Years," in which he compared the local church with the one at Ephesus, and dwelling on the fact that while the present organization is more or less temporary, there is a magnificent future. He spoke of the possibilities of this field of Christian work and the fond hope that in the near future the congregation would have a new and more commodious house of worship.

Mr. Stout stated that while there are more than one hundred earnest workers in the church, the membership is about forty. He said that during the past two years the church had raised about $3,000 and had erected a parsonage valued at about $5,000. Mr. Stout reported all of the various societies to be in excellent condition financially and increasing in membership. The work of the new boy choir under the leadership of Horace J. Martin, Sr., was also complimented.

At Lake Hopatcong.

Lake Hopatcong, July 3.—Hotels and business men are preparing for the rush to this resort tomorrow. Although the formal opening of the season was on Decoration Day, Independence Day is considered the real start of the most active season. Many plans have been made for the celebration of the Fourth, but it is expected that the most important ceremonies will be at the Lake Hopatcong Yacht Club. While not definitely decided, it is probable motorboats or sailing vessels will race around the five-mile course. In the evening the grounds about the club will be used for the display of fireworks.

Miss Jessie Hockridge, of Crescent avenue, who has been very ill with rheumatism in a sanitarium, is expected to return to her home today.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYNTON BEACH
CHILDREN'S DAY
SATURDAYS IN JUNE
FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND
SWINGS AND SLIDE
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Bond-Benton Co., sketch, "His Gay Papa;" Deodato Sensational Italian Necromancer; Hillebrand & DeLong, "Athlete and Singing Venus;" Sprague & Dixon in "A Mile of Laughs."

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR VEGETABLES
Asparagus, Green Beans, Boston Lettuce, Tomatoes, Egg Plant, Celery, Cucumbers, Spinach, Radishes, Beets, Rhubarb.
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 839-J.

HUDSON RIVER
MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 315 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 2345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1228. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W Res. 417 W. 3d St. Tel. 902-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2004-Gramercy.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

MARRIED.

HARPER-PHILLIPS — Saturday, July 1, at Grace Church by the rector, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Harriette Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Phillips, to John Fergerson Harper, of New York.

DIED.

MITCHELL—On July 2, 1911, at her residence, 1345 Watchung avenue, Plainfield, N. J., Ella J., wife of William Mitchell, late of Jersey City, N. J.
Funeral private.

MEYER—At his home, New Market, N. J., July 3, 1911, Charles Meyer.
Interment private on Wednesday.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—GIRL FOR GENERAL HOUSEWORK; REFERENCE. R. N. CRANE, 243 LELAND AVENUE. 7 1 2

WANTED—Young girl to assist in kitchen. 'Phone 290-W, or call 433 East Seventh street. 6 28 tf

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

WANTED—Girl for general housework; must be good laundress; references. 2 Waynewood place. 6 26 tf

WANTED—Colored woman as laundress, plain cook. Apply Restaurant, 179 North avenue. E. H. Cleveley. 7 1 3

OFFICE girl wanted at Independent Ice Co., 138 North avenue. Call in person. 7 3 2

WANTED—OPERATORS, ALSO LEARNERS, ON LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR; PAID WHILE LEARNING. SCHILLER BROS., 320 WEST FRONT STREET. 6 8 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue 9 19 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—October 1st, small house; improvements; near depot; desirable tenants, adults. Address B. O. D., care Daily Press. 6 29 3eod

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press 3 31 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants place at general housework; plain cook, wash and iron. Call 434 West Second street. 7 3 2

EXPERIENCED laundress wants washing to do; home or days work preferred. Sanderson, 532 West Third, rear.

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

BOY wanted; work about house and grounds. Address Permanent, care Press. 7 3 2

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—A young married ambitious man to sell Schmalz bread in Plainfield and suburbs, wholesale and retail. For particulars apply or write Schmalz Bakery, Hoboken, N. J. 6 27 6

YOUNG man wanted for general work. 441 West Front street.

WANTED—Clerk, with some experience in grocery store; reference exchanged. Address Exchange, care Press. 6 30 3

WANTED—An experienced grocery clerk, good position. Address Position, care Press. 6 30 3

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire of Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

THREE rooms to let for light housekeeping; city water. 321 Lyman place. 7 1 3

TO LET—Elegant large and small furnished rooms; improvements. 175 East Front street. 3 30 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

TO LET—Seven room house, 17 Somerset place. Inquire 368 Somerset street. 6 28 3eod

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 3 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 6 27 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO RENT—Four rooms and bath, $20; heat and hot water furnished; desirable location. Address D, care Press. 6 29 6

FOR RENT—From July 1, eight-room house, all latest improvements, nice grounds; $32.50; also seven-room house, part improvements; $17.00; apartments to rent. D. F. Dugan, 521 East Seventh street. 6 15 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO RENT—Two connecting rooms in select neighborhood, on main trolley line; two minutes from railroad station. Address P. O. box 611, city. 6 27 6

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Black "Post" Fountain Pen. Reward. Dr. Lowrie. 7 3 3

LOST—Gold signet ring, initials P. M. D. Reward at 42 Mountain avenue. 7 3 6

LOST—On road from Martinsville, silk scarf. Return to this office. 7 3 3

LOST—Gold barrett on Grant avenue between Sherman avenue and Eighth street, Sunday night. Reward if returned to 746 Grant avenue.

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 3 1 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

GOOSEBERRIES for sale. 'Phone 111-J. 7 1 tf

FOR SALE—Surrey and business wagon. H. Ryno, 145 Manning avenue. 7 1 3

FOR SALE—3 pure bred rabbit puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanizing, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 2 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

CHARLES GRANT, first-class tinner, all kinds repairing neatly done. 628 East Third street. 6 30 3

BEFORE selling your furniture, see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 3 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TO LET—Elegant large and small furnished rooms; improvements. 175 East Front street.

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 3 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth st. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1734. 7 1 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Runabout in good condition; state type, year and price; must be cheap. Address Auto, care Press. 7 1 3

SECOND hand lumber wanted for cash. Address Cash, Press office. 7 1 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 3 16 tf

HAHNE & Co.

Sale Rugs and Carpets
Many Things Reduced
Thruout Month of July

HAHNE & Co.

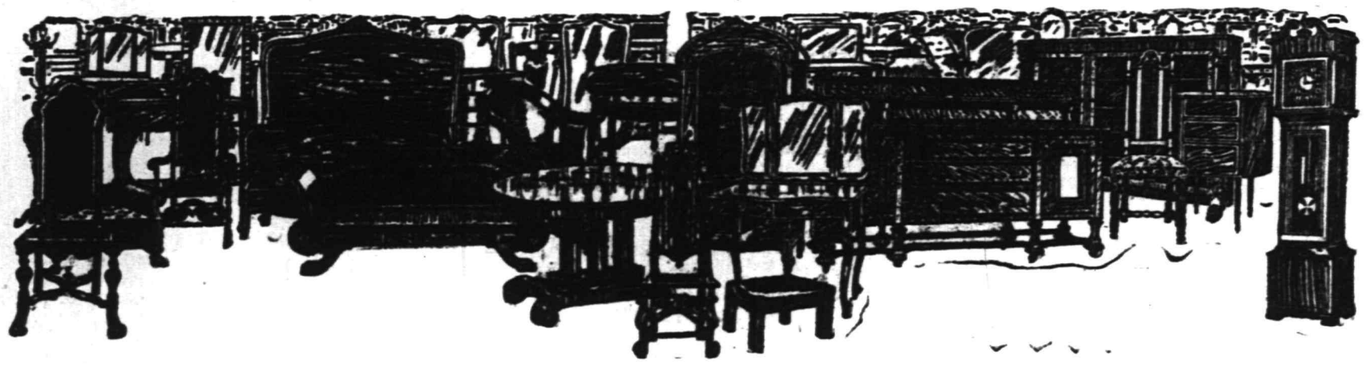
Curtains and Upholsteries
Many Things Reduced
Thruout Month of July

Three Hundred Carloads of Furniture in Hahne & Co's July Furniture Sale

Quarter Million Dollar Display--Covering More Than Two Acres

Every Piece of Furniture in the House Reduced 10 to 50 Per Cent.

Excepting Only the Few Pieces Restricted by Manufacturers.



Everything in This Magnificent Stock Available to Those Who Wish to Buy on the Club Plan

A Method Employed by Thousands of Jersey's Best People.

A Practical Presentation of Fully $50,000 in Profits to the People

When we modestly estimate the stock of furniture on our retail floors and in our storehouse to be equal to three hundred carloads—six gigantic freight trains of fifty cars each—we give you some conception of the magnitude of the collection of furniture which we place before you when we ring up the curtain on the July Furniture Sale which begins tomorrow morning.

No other trade event in the State is so closely related to the pocketbooks of the people of New Jersey. No other one makes possible such enormous savings to the public. None appeals so intimately to all the people as does this furniture sale, for the man of millions and the owner of the humblest cottage find it an occasion in which they can participate with decided profits.

This is not an occasion for mere shouting and bragging, but a genuine trade movement of a quarter of a million dollars' worth of furniture, every piece of which, with the most trifling exceptions, is materially reduced in price, these reductions running from 10 to 50 per cent., meaning plainly that in no case do you pay more than $90 for $100 worth of furniture, and that often $100 worth can be bought for $50.

Every home-keeper, every proprietor of a hotel or boarding-house, every commissioner, director or manager of an institution will find in this sale positive economies, and all of these people will be keenly interested in the event.

The needs of the hour may be fully satisfied in this sale, since our lines of Summer Furniture are now at their very best. The needs of the future can likewise be provided for—one can buy profitably even for Christmas gift giving—and where an adequate payment is made goods will be held for future delivery, so that one need not bother with them during the summer.

Too much stress cannot be laid upon the fact that in the pricing of our furniture regularly we compete with the most powerful New York establishments and that we are practically without competition in Newark. If this were not true the reductions in prices would mean little, but since it is true they mean actual savings to the people.

There will be one whole month in which you can take advantage of this sale—to the very end of July, but we would advise you to make selections while stocks are most varied—the earlier the better.

As always we will sell any of this furniture at the reduced prices, on our Easy-payment Club Plan to responsible people, extending to you this decided advantage if you wish to buy a quantity of furniture involving considerable expenditure without interfering with your reserve cash in any way, paying it out of your income as is convenient.

Wide Diversity of Styles In This Gigantic Sale

July Sale PIANOS At Greatly Reduced Prices

150 styles of Parlor Suites
60 styles of Music Cabinets
250 styles of Fancy Tables
40 styles of Bookcases
80 styles of Couches
75 styles of Morris Chairs
350 styles of Fancy Chairs and Rockers
150 styles of Sideboards
100 styles of China Closets
100 styles of Extension Tables
200 styles of Chiffoniers
200 styles of Dressers
Many styles of Cheval Glasses
75 styles of Brass Beds
50 styles of Enameled Beds
50 styles of Wood Beds
200 styles of Mission Pieces
75 styles of Summer Porch Pieces
25 styles Lawn Furniture
75 styles of Office Desks

July Sale PIANOS At Greatly Reduced Prices

Fuller Details Will Appear From Day to Day As the Sale Progresses

Plainfield in .... The Olden Days.

Re-printed from The Weekly Constitutionalist

October 2, 1873.

A young son of P. M. French, Esq., had his leg broken, while playing with a wagon, in company with other lads, on Wednesday last.

The ancient structure for years past known as the "depot" is being moved backward some thirty-six feet for the purpose of making room for the laying of sidetracks. We wish we could state positively that active operations would be immediately commenced toward erecting that new depot we hear and read so much about in the reports of the committee to treat Mr. Johnston regarding elevation. When, Oh, when, is the vexed question to be settled.

BRADSHAW—At Newark, N. J., Sunday afternoon, September 28, Robert Bradshaw, in the 66th year of his age.

Unveil thy bosom, faithful tomb;
Take this new treasure to thy trust
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust.

Messrs Spicer & Hubbard have taken up their quarters temporarily at Hartfelder's Mill, North Plainfield, where they will execute all orders promptly that may be left to their care. They hope in a short time to commence business again in a factory of their own.

We are glad to learn that a sufficient sum has been guaranteed to the Excelsior H. & L. Co., No. 1, Scotch Plains, by liberal minded citizens as to warrant their ordering a handsome truck similar in style to No. 1, of this city. The apparatus will be completed and delivered by December 1. Meantime there is room on the subscription papers for a few more names. The cause is a good one and that the amount will be raised without much difficulty.

October 9, 1873.

Dr. W. C. Boone respectfully offers his professional services to the citizens of Plainfield and vicinity. He may be found at his residence corner of Central avenue and Third street.

A large number of the latest styles of ball tickets and orders of dancing of foreign and domestic manufacture, have just been received at this office. Committees are requested to call and inspect them before ordering elsewhere. Every description of printing for balls, parties socials, etc., printed in elegant style and at low rates for cash.

Friend Jerome Pack has made the hearts of the employers of this office glad from the devil up, by the gift of a pitcher of the sweetest new cider we have tasted in a long while. He has the article for sale.

We notice that the firm of Runyon & Force, carpenters and builders, are out with a handsome new business wagon. The shop of this firm is on Second street, between Elm and William. All work entrusted to their care wil lreceive prompt attention.

October 23, 1873.

It is pleasant to know in these times that the minds of all are not fully absorbed in the matter of making money, but are directed to the securing of other treasures. The fact is demonstrated by the marriage notices to be found in this issue. By reference to said notices it will be seen that the Misses Annie F. and Irma G. Mulford, daughters of B. T. Mulford, esq., have been united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Messrs. Lewis Hummer and Andrew Lutkins, of this city. We heartily congratulate the contracting parties on their selection of partners.

October 23, 1873.

Bold Robbery. During the absence of Expressman Holmes and assistants on Monday evening, between six and seven o'clock, the office of the Central Express Company was entered by parties unknown and a package containing $30 taken from the safe. Entrance was affected by opening a window in the rear of the office and removing the bar from the door.

Rev. Joseph Stockbridge, of this city, chaplain in the United States Navy, has been placed on the retired list, in conformity with the act of December 21, 1862. Mr. Stockbridge entered the Navy in 1841, having been on the active list for thirty-two years, a longer period than any other chaplain.

FATHER AND SON.

Nothing else a father can give his son is so fine as the knowledge that his father is his friend and backer in every legitimate enterprise and his stanch supporter in every honest contention. The boys who goes to his father with all his troubles never goes wrong. When you see a man and his son chummy you may gamble that both are pretty white citizens.

When father and son confide in each other anybody may safely confide in either. The father whose son tells him everything will never have to wonder what to tell his son. A man whose son will walk up to him in public and slap him on the back is the luckiest man in the world. If a boy san do better work when his father is about he has a good father. —Chicago News.

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

CHAS. E. VAIL

Jeweler and Optician

has RE-OPENED at his new location

236 Park Avenue

Opposite North Ave.

All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.

Eastman's Kodak Supplies

COMB RAIN COMB SUNSHINE

In all seasons and for all occasions there is to be found in the

Made in Berkshire

line manufactured by

Eaton, Crane & Pike Co.

a distinctive something which appeals to all users of fine writing paper.

Crane's Linen Lawn

in the new fashionable shades are the daintiest creations for this season.

Come in and see them

Lenox Stationery Store

102 Madison Ave.

TEL. 1036-R. BABCOCK BUILDING.

The Little Store Around the Corner.

Typewriters Bought, Sold, Rented and Repaired (all makes.)

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS

CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.

ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.

Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 88-A.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 18, 1911.

NEW YORK—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 3.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

Advertisements

—FOR—

New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,

—and—

Newark Evening News Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.45, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.28, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.45, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.50, 5.43, 7.06 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.22, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only) 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

The longing to clasp her in his arms, to speak the language of his heart, was almost overwhelming, yet the memory of that figure slinking along behind them, and the brief time

"Yes, You Can Get Up. I Reckon You're Beginning to See Clearer, Ain't You?"

before Hawley's probable appearance, for he would leave the theater at the conclusion of Miss Maclaire's act, restrained all demonstration. This was a moment for action, not for words of love; no delay should hazard the success of their undertaking. He heard the slight creak of the door as the girl slipped within the concealment of the vestibule, and then he glided away through the darkness with the stealthy silence of an Indian. There was no one in the alley-way, which was narrow and easily explored, but the glow from the front windows plainly revealed the shadow of a man near the entrance, and Keith slipped up toward him, hugging the side of the building for concealment, prepared to resort to harsh measures. As he reached out, gripping the astonished loiterer by the collar, they stared at one another in surprise, and the gripping hand as instantly released its hold.

"You, Fairbain! What the devil does this mean? What are you spying on us for?"

Clearly taken aback, yet not greatly disturbed, his eyes showing pugnacious and his jaw set, the Doctor rubbed his throat where Keith's knuckles had left a red welt.

"Damn you, I think I'm the one to ask for an explanation," he growled. "She said she was not going with you, and now you are around here together at this hour. I had a right to know whether I was being played with like that."

"But, man, that was not Miss Maclaire I was with; it was Hope Waite. Come back here under the tent flap while I explain."

Fearful of the coming of Hawley he fairly dragged the portly figure of the bewildered Doctor with him, striving, by quickly spoken words, to make him comprehend the situation. Knowing previously something of the issues involved, it was not difficult to make Fairbain grasp the meaning of this present movement, yet his sympathies were at once enlisted upon the side of Miss Christie. He'd be damned if he would have any part in such a scheme—if she had a right to the money he'd help her get it—it was a cowardly trick, and he'd fight if necessary, to keep her from becoming a victim. His voice rose, his arms brandishing violently, his sentences snapping like rifle shots. Keith angered, and fearful of a discovery which would leave Hope exposed, realized the futility of discussion and turned to physical force. Grasping the gesticulating man with both hands, he flung him backward and dragged him into the empty tent, kneeling on him as he throttled him to the earth.

"Now, Doctor, you listen to me," he said sternly "I'm through arguing. I hate to treat you like this, for you are my friend, but I'll not stand for interference here. Do you get that, you old fool? Lie still until I get through! I respect your feelings toward Miss Maclaire. She is a good girl, and I hope to heaven you get her if you want her. But you never will if you permit this affair to go on. Yes, I know what I am talking about. In all that Hope and I do we are serving you and Christie—our only fight is with 'Black Bart' Hawley. Stop being a bullet-headed old fool, Fairbain, and understand this thing. Lie still, I tell you, and hear me out! Hawley is a liar, a thief, and a swindler. There is a swindle in this thing somewhere, and he hopes to pull out a big sum of money from it. He is merely using Christie to pull his own chestnuts out of the fire. She is innocent; we realize that, but this fellow is going to ruin the girl unless we succeed in exposing him. He's not only involving her in his criminal conspiracy, but he's making love to her; he's teaching her to love him. That's part of his scheme, no doubt, for then she will be so much easier handled. I tell you, Fairbain, your only chance to ever win the interest of Christie Maclaire is to help us down this fellow Hawley. Yes, you can sit up; I reckon you're beginning to see clearer, ain't you?"

Keith drew aside the flap of the tent to glance without, the light falling on Fairbain's face as he struggled to a sitting posture. He had had a new thought driven into him, yet failed to entirely grasp its significance.

"But, Jack," he asked, still half angry, "how about the girl? Hasn't she any right to this money?"

"I don't know," honestly, "we don't any of us know, but whatever she has the right to she is going to get. You can bet on that, old man. We're bucking Hawley, not Christie Maclaire—get that into your head. He hasn't any right, that's certain, for he murdered and stole to get the papers—be quiet! Here the fellow comes now!"

They peered out together through the convenient tent flap, Fairbain scarcely less interested than the other, already dimly comprehending that his truly dangerous rival was the gambler, and that he could best serve the lady by helping to prove to her the real character of that individual. He was still blindly groping in the haze, yet out of Keith's sharp, stinging words there had come to him a guiding light. The latter gripped his arm in restraint.

"Easy, old man, easy—let him pass."

Hawley turned into the alley whistling, evidently well pleased with the situation and anticipating other delights awaiting his coming. The glow of the Trocadero's lights served, an instant, to reveal his face, shaded by the broad brim of his hat, and then he vanished into the dark. Keith leaning far out, yet keeping well within the shadows, heard the faint creak of the vestibule door and the soft murmur of distant voices. Then he drew back suddenly, his hand again grasping Fairbain. Two figures—those of a man and woman—emerged into the dim light, and as quickly disappeared. Apparently her hand was upon his arm, and he was bending down so as to gain a glimpse of the face partially concealed by the folds of the mantilla. Only a word or two reached them, a little laugh, and the woman's voice:

"Why, of course I hurried! you said you had something of such importance to tell me."

"Fairbain," spoke Keith, his lips almost at the ear of the other. "That was Hope, all right, and she has got him going already. Now, man, will you help us out?"

"I? How?"

"Go back there, and meet Miss Maclaire. I don't care where you take her—lunch, anywhere; only keep her from the hotel as long as possible. You can do it far better than I, for she will not suspect you of any interest in this affair. Tell her any lie you can think up on account of Hawley's absence. Good Lord, old man, can't you see this is your chance; go in and win."

Fairbain struggled to his feet, still a bit dazed and uncertain, yet tempted by the opportunity.

"You're perfectly sure, Keith, this isn't anything that will hurt the girl?"

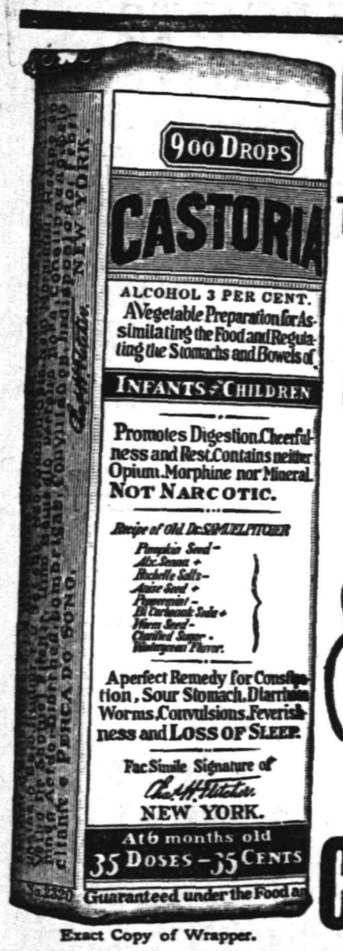
"Sure! Of course I am. It's just Hawley I'm gunning after. For God's sake, haven't you got that clear yet?"

"I—I reckon I'm an old fool, Jack," admitted the Doctor regretfully, "and when an old fool is in love he hasn't got any sense left. Anyhow I'll do what you want me to now. Where are you going?"

"To watch those others. There is no knowing what play Hawley might try to pull off, and I want to keep within gun-shot of him. Hurry up, man; that vestibule door creaked just then."

He shoved him down the dark alley and dodged back himself across the front of the tent out into the street. There was a crowd of men in front of the Trocadero, but the couple he sought were nowhere in sight.

(To Be Continued.)



Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

Absolute Sense of Security In the Purchase of a Mathushek & Son Piano

The seeker of a piano may come to our ware-rooms, choose from a large collection of proved instruments, and he will find the very best of Pianos and the best of Player-Pianos.

He will find our terms the fairest and most liberal.

In other words, we are determined that our piano patrons shall enjoy an ABSOLUTE SENSE of SECURITY.

This means more than good intentions. It means that WE first of all must possess that sense of absolute security in building the PIANOS TO BE SOLD.

THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD

with many valuable improvements

FACTORY DIRECT TO BUYER MEANS A LARGE SAVING.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.

No. 310 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1365

SPECIAL NOTICE—High grade and artistic tuning and repairing Pianos and Player-Pianos by factory experts.

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE

1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

SHERIFF SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between The Prudential Insurance Company of America, complainant, and Thomas Weston and others defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office in the Court House, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE NINETEENTH DAY OF JULY, A. D. 1911,

Beginning at a point in the southerly line of Watchung avenue formerly Broadway, which is distant three hundred and ninety-four (394) feet westerly from the point of intersection of the westerly line of East Ninth street with said southerly line of Watchung avenue, which point is also in the westerly line of the property now or formerly of M. E. Squires, thence southerly along the westerly line of said Squires land one hundred and fifty (150) feet to a corner in line of land now owned by Robert H. Cook, formerly Rutter; thence running along his line westerly and parallel with Watchung avenue sixty-nine (69) feet to land of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church; thence northerly along land of said church and parallel with the first course one hundred and fifty (150) feet to the southerly line of Watchung avenue; thence easterly along Watchung avenue sixty-nine (69) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to Elizabeth S. Nolen by deed of Isaac S. Melbourn and wife, dated June 10, 1881, recorded in book 149 of Deeds for Union County, pages 70, etc.

ROBERT J. KIRKLAND, Sheriff.
EDWARD D. DUFFIELD, Sol'r.
6 19 5 EDJ&DP Adv. Fees $19.32.

SHERIFF'S SALE—Union County Common Pleas Court. Peter Breidt City Brewing Company, vs. Antonio Corono and Lui (Lugi) Curcio, defendant. Fi. fa. de bo. et ter. On Docketed Judgment.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that certain lot, tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE TWELFTH DAY OF JULY, A. D. 1911,

Beginning at a point in the middle of La Grande Avenue being a corner of land of Jacob Paritz and John A. Benner; thence south 47 degrees, 35 minutes east, along said Benner's land two hundred and fifty (250) feet, more or less to a boundary line of Jacob Paritz; thence northeasterly along said boundary line fifty (50) feet; thence north 47 degrees, 25 minutes west, two hundred and forty (240) feet, more or less to the middle of said La Grande avenue; thence southwesterly along the middle of said La Grande Avenue fifty (50) feet more or less to the place of beginning.

ROBERT J. KIRKLAND, Sheriff.
JOHN J. STAMLER, Att'y.
6 12 5m. EDJ&DP Adv. Fees $13.56

JOS. F. BURKE

718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R

Successor to Mrs. John Brown

General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, 'Phone 894.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager,
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

INDEPENDENCE

The spirit of 1776 still prevails. Be independent of high prices by purchasing your Tea, Coffee, Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables of W. W. Dunn and You Will Save Money.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Dunn St. Lincoln Pl

IF there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.

407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

ESTATE OF EUGENE WIGGER Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrott, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of May, 1911, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JAMES P. POWERS, Administrator.
Fees $11.10 5 15 9 osw m

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS

110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Go to John Lopresti's

405 WATCHUNG AVENUE

Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.

'PHONE 446-J.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Buying Real Estate

is easy. If you have money you can find plenty of people who are ready to help you buy.

SELLING is a different matter. In this transaction you need to take advantage of every material aid.

Come in and Talk it Over

A GUARANTY OF TITLE is often an assistance in selling real estate. It at least removes any objection growing out of a possible defect in title.

When you buy, secure a Guaranty of Title. Then it will follow the property when you sell.

Fidelity Trust Co.,

Newark N. J.,

has the largest title plant in the State of New Jersey, and guarantees titles to property anywhere in the State.

Beginning July 8th and continuing until September 2nd, this store will close at 6 p. m. Fridays and at 1 p. m. Saturdays.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

New Jersey's Greatest Mail Order Organization.

We are justly proud of our mail order system. We feel that it is one of the strongest links in the chain of this great store's success. We want you to use it—test it thoroughly and allow us to demonstrate its many splendid advantages. The Bamberger mail order system is not the result of a day, but the culmination of years of painstaking effort. In fact, this branch of our business is so perfectly organized that you may shop as quickly by mail as in person. There are no delays—no errors—satisfaction is snugly packed with each parcel we send out. If you are not a patron (which is highly improbable) send in a trial order and you'll quickly realize the truth of the foregoing statements.

DAILY SEASHORE WAGON SERVICE.

THE STATE'S BEST MAIL ORDER DEPARTMENT.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

NEWARK, N.J.

Extra Thick Best Quality

JAR RUBBERS

WE CLOSE AT NOON SATURDAYS

J. W. GAVETT

West Front Street.

HAWES STRAW HATS—better than ever—$2.00 & $3.00

PANAMAS $5.00 and $6.00

119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

HIS FAULT, NOT THE HATS.

Pittsfield, in the Berkshire Hills, had in the old days, like many another New England town, a number of men and women who were called "characters." One of these was Bill Brown, a man unfortunately addicted to drink and frequently intoxicated for days at a time.

On one occasion he went into the shop of the local hatter, Mr. Smith, and asked for the best beaver in the store. Mr. Smith produced the desired article, saying as he took the money: "That beaver will last a man a life time."

Bill went proudly down the main street with his fine beaver on his head and immediately celebrated the event with a protracted debauch.

When he recovered he returned to the shop with a most disreputable hat.

"Look here, I thought you said this beaver would last me a lifetime."

"So it would," growled Mr. Smith, "if you had died when you ought to."—Youths Companion.

A Large Party.

Hollis Cooley, who weights 350 pounds found himself stuck in a small town for the night unless he could bring about the halting of a limited train. So he wired thus:

"Conductor No. 7—Stop at Red Bridge for a large party."

And it worked, too.—Chicago Evening Post.

It Is a Fact that the greater percentage of men who die uninsured leave their families practically nothing. What would your family have if you were taken from them suddenly? Have that life insurance question settled now.

The Prudential

has the policy to meet your requirements.

WRITE FOR PARTICULARS

SAFETY FOR VAULABLES

OUR STORAGE VAULT is of fire and burglar-proof construction, is free from dampness and is large enough to accommodate trunks and boxes of all sizes.

Storage rates 50c a month and upwards.

OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT is also of fire and burglar-proof construction and affords absolute protection for valuable papers, jewelry, etc. It is equipped with boxes of all sizes.

Safe Deposit rates $5.00 a year upwards.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

LEAGUE SURPRISES

Bound Brook Shuts Out Westfield and Somerville is Walloped.

PLAINFIELD IS NOW ON TOP.

And Scotch Plaine Jumps From Fifth to Third Place—The Stories of Saturday's Contests.

Several surprises occurred in the Central League Saturday afternoon. Bound Brook, which had been almost in the slough of despond, whitewashed the Westfielders on the Mt. Ararat grounds and scored seven runs themselves. The defeat of Somerville at the hands of Scotch Plains was also an unlooked for event.

Plainfield had an easy time with High Bridge, putting the local team safely on the pinnacle of glory. Scotch Plains moved up alongside of Somerville in the race while Westfield continued in its tie with High Bridge.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Plainfield	4	0	1,000
Somerville	2	2	.500
Scotch Plain	2	2	.500
Westfield	2	3	.400
High Bridge	2	3	.400
Bound Brook	1	3	.250

Saturday's Results.

Plainfield, 8; High Bridge, 2.
Bound Brook, 7; Westfield, 0.
Scotch Plains, 6; Somerville, 3.

Plainfield Wins.

It was all Plainfield in Saturday's game at the Oval with the High Bridge team and the local boys made it four straight in the Central League to the tune of 8 to 2. "Red" Waller, as usual, was the real thing and he didn't have to work very hard in order to show it. He had the High Bridge boys at his mercy when he wanted to pitch and then in the eighth inning he just tossed them over allowing the visitors to score.

Despite the high temperature which the weather man handed out Saturday afternoon, a record crowd came out to witness the Plainfield victory. Brit. Martin was again on second base with Nelson doing the backstop work.

Blackwell, who was on the slab for the visiting team, was wild in the opening round and Driscoll's Darlings pounded his southpaw slants for a trio of runs. Cosgrove, the first man up, walloped the horsehide to right for a double, taking third on a wild pitch by Blackwell. Joe Harter was there in the pinch and brought the speedy right fielder across the pan with a clean single to center. Blackwell hit Driscoll and walked Hartman and Eddie Stallings. A long sacrifice fly by Billy Stallings brought the Plainfield first baseman home. Brit Martin singled but the next man was an easy out.

In the third, with two down, Billy Stallings sent a clean hit into right field, being advanced on Brit Martin's one base swat toward the left garden. Walter Nelson then slammed a double in the direction of the high school, scoring two tallies. Another run came over in the next innings due to Joe Harter's daring base running. He clouted a single to left, stealing second and going to third in a mix up between the short stop and second baseman. Driscoll sent a grounder to short and Harter slid home ahead of the ball.

An error by Eddie Walton gave "Big Six" Nelson a berth in the sixth and while "Red" was fanning the humid atmosphere, the Plainfield catcher had stolen second coming across the rubber when Cosgrove sent his second two bagger over the right fielder's head. Harter and Driscoll were then disposed of in order and the scoring ceased for the time being. But Eddie Stallings was there with a two sacker in the seventh and together with an error by Jack Walton and his brother's single he was able to score the last run for the local team.

High Bridge had a look-in when "Red" eased up in the eighth and accordingly Eddie Walton laced out a single followed by a double from Blackwell's own willow. In the final round, Titus straightened out one of the Sandy Twirler's twisters for a single coming home on a one sacker and a two bagger by the Walton boys.

Leid was the star of the game with his sensational work in left field. He nabbed four flies and when he pulled down, while running at top speed, a long swat by Billy Stallings which had a three sack label on it, the fans stood up and tipped their hats. Harter made a thrilling running catch of Bruggy's short pop, mitting the horsehide after a desperate sprint. Silver played a great game at first accepting eleven chances without a misplay.

The game developed and printed:

Plainfield.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Cosgrove, rf	1	2	3	0	0
Harter, cf-ss	2	2	2	0	0
Driscoll, 1b	1	0	9	1	0
Hartman, ss-cf	0	0	1	0	0
E. Stallings, lf	1	1	1	0	0
W. Stallings, 3b	1	2	1	1	0
Martin, 2b	1	2	1	0	2
Nelson, c	1	2	8	5	0
Waller, p	0	1	1	2	0
	8	12	27	9	2

High Bridge.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
J. Walton, 2b	0	1	4	6	1
C. Walton, 3b	0	1	0	3	0
E. Walton, ss	1	3	2	2	1
Bruggey, rf	0	1	0	0	0
Blackwell, p	0	1	0	1	0
Eph. Walton, cf	0	0	0	0	0
Leid, lf	0	0	4	1	0
Silver, 1b	0	1	11	0	0
Titus, c	1	1	3	0	0
	2	9	24	13	2

Plainfield .....3 0 2 1 0 1 1 0 x—8
High Bridge ....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1—2

Two-base hits—Cosgrove (2), E. Stalling, Nelson, E. Walton. Struck out—By Waller, 9; by Blackwell, 2. Hit by pitcher—Driscoll. Wild pitch—Blackwell, Waller. Bases on balls—Off Waller, 3; off Backwell, 2. First base on errors—Plainfield, 1; High Bridge, 2. Stolen bases—Harter (2), Driscoll, W. Stallings, Nelson. Sacrifice hits—Cosgrove, Harter, Driscoll, W. Stallings. Double plays—J. Walton to E. Walton, Blackwell to J. Walton to Silver. Time of game—1:35. Umpire—Mr. Degnan.

Westfield Shut Out.

Charley Newhouse, manager of the Bound Brok team, must have some inside information on the number of pennants to be awarded in the Central New Jersey League. And acting on this information has evidently laid himself out to capture the one to be awarded for whitewashing proficiency if what he handed Westfield Saturday and what was handed him the previous week by Somerville, is to be taken as a criterion.

Westfield was smeared 8 to 0, which is one better than the county seaters plastered the Bound Brookers. Perhaps, in addition to the information on the nnumber of flags to be handed out, Charley also has the dope on what is necessary to qualify in fitness for performing, as well as standing, this difficult operation and therefore went Chet's pets that one better. The operation incidently pulled him out of last place in the run for the big flag.

It was indeed a bitter pill for Mt. Ararat and one o fher native sons, George Ortlieb, was chief chemist. He pitched a somewhat erratic, but consistent game. He showed evidences of blowing at times and in two innings walked the first two to face him. The sharp fielding of his mates and the deadly throwing of his battery partner, Poole, then became effective in smothering the fond hopes growing out of these gifts.

The eighth was the only real chance Westfield had for spiking the plate. With three on, two on passes and one on a hit, and none out, George's mates, by some nifty fielding, pulled him out of the hole he had fallen into. In two other innings Westfield threw away chances for scoring by presuming to take liberties on the cushions with Bill Poole.

Owing to the lead Bound Brook gained in the first and kept adding to intermittently, maintaining it the while, the game smacked of lassitude.. The score:

Westfield.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Boettner, ss	0	0	0	2	1
Kean, 2b	0	0	1	1	1
Halliwell, 3b	0	0	1	4	0
O'Rourke, 2b-ss	0	0	2	0	1
Streaser, lf	0	1	1	0	0
Rogers, cf	0	2	1	0	0
Erxleben, 1b	0	1	11	0	0
Craig, rf	0	2	2	0	0
Seery, c	0	0	8	1	0
Skillman, p	0	0	0	3	0
	0	6	27	11	3

Bound Brook.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Adler, 2b	0	0	3	2	0
Bollinger, rf	3	1	0	0	0
Roberson, lf	1	1	1	0	0
Poole, c	1	2	7	1	0
Nolan, cf	0	1	2	0	0
Whartleg, 3b	1	2	4	1	0
Wiltse, 1b	1	1	8	0	0
Powers, ss	1	1	2	3	0
Ortlieb, p	0	2	0	1	0
	8	11	27	8	0

Bound Brook ...3 0 0 2 0 0 1 1 1—8
Westfield .....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Two-base hits—Poole, Whartley. Bases on balls—Off Ortlieb, 6; off Skillman, 2. Hit by pitched ball—Hallowell. Double play—Powers Adler, Wiltse. Sacrifice hits—Poole, Whartley. Struck out—By Ortlieb, 6; by Skillman, 7. Stolen bases—Bollinger, Whartley, Powers (2). Left on bases—Bound Brook, 5; Westfield, 11. Wild pitch—Skillman. Time of game—2 hours. Umpire—Mr. Cox.

The Plains' team by making hits at the right time had no trouble in defeating Somerville Saturday afternoon by the score of 6 to 3. McLaughlin was invincible in the pinches and kept the hits scattered. The support behind both pitchers was of big league style.

To make a sure thing of it Manager Albert changed the batting order and was the first man to face Clinton. He drew a pass, stole second on the first ball pitched and came home on Gray's single to center field. In the third round the Plains team put another across the pan after two men were out. Frentz walked, going to second on a passed ball and coming home on McLaughlin's drive to left.

Somerville was blanked until the fifth when Friar placed a line drive into left field, Flannery making a long run and catching the spheroid not more than a foot above the ground. Everyone applauded the fast play and was surprised when Dalley called Friar safe, claiming that the ball was "trapped." Torpey picked out a hot one and sent it sizzling into left scoring Friar. Clinton was an easy out at first, Swanson made first on a fluke, and Gordon scored Torpey on a hit to left field, thus tieing the score. Swanson then crossed the pan.

With the score 3 to 2 against them the Plains boys came back in their half of the eventh and garnered three more runs. Mullin walked, Baldwin sent one past first, but Mullin was caught at third. Gray walked stole second, and Frentz cleaned house with a pretty drive to center. McLaughlin then scored Frentz with a double in the same direction.

Washburn made the fans sit up and take notice in the eighth by slamming the horsehide over the fence for a trip around the circuit. McLaughlin was invincible after this and Somerville never had a look-in.

The score:

Scotch Plains.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
J. Albert, 2b	1	0	4	2	0
Gray, 3b	1	1	4	2	0
Frentz, 1b	2	1	13	0	0
McLaughlin, p	0	2	0	2	0
Flannery, lf	0	1	1	0	0
H. Albert, c	0	1	2	1	2
Washburn, rf	1	1	1	0	0
Mullin, ss	0	1	0	5	0
Baldwin cf	1	3	2	0	0
	6	11	27	12	2

Somerville.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Swanson, 3b	1	1	4	1	0
Gordon, lf	0	1	1	1	0
Wolfe, cf	0	0	1	0	0
MacDonald, 2b	0	3	7	1	1
MacLaughlin, 2b	0	1	1	1	0
Friar, ss	1	1	1	2	0
Grimes, rf	0	0	1	0	0
Torpey, c	1	1	11	1	0
Clinton, p	0	1	0	2	0
	3	9	27	9	1

Plains .....1 0 1 0 0 0 3 1 0—6
Somerville ....0 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0—3

Struck out—By Clinton, 13; by MacLaughlin, 9. Bases on balls—Off MacLaughlin, 1; off Clinton, 4. Two-base hits—H. Albert, MacLaughlin. Home run—Washburn. Umpire—Mr. Dalley.

DEPOSITS - $312,725.79

COMPARATIVE

September 17th, 1910 -	$138,541.95
November 10th, 1910 -	179,663.59
December 31st, 1910 -	206,115.50
April 5th, 1911 - -	240,192.11
May 12th, 1911 - -	268,284.26
June 12th, 1911 - -	288,922.66
June 30th, 1911 - -	312,725.79

COMMENT IS SUPERFLUOUS

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

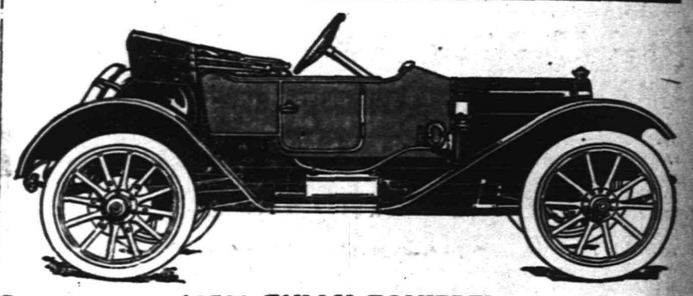
R. Henry Depew, President
E. F. Feickert, Vice-President — M. C. VanArsdale, Vice-President
Frederic Coriell, Secretary-Treasurer

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.



$1500 FULLY EQUIPPED

THE CLASSIEST ROADSTER BUILT

A. C. THOMPSON AUTO CO.

Tel. 1510 413-421 Park Ave.

(THE MOST UP-TO-DATE GARAGE IN NEW JERSEY)

DUNELLEN DEFEATS OLD RIVALS AGAIN

Dunellen took the measure of the C. R. R. or N. J. team for the second time this season at the Dunellen grounds Saturday afternoon. When the dust had cleared away and the shouting was over, the borough boys won the game 9 to 4.

Nine hits were swatted out by the Dunellenites, Hand getting a three-bagger to his credit. Nonamaker was spiked in the sixth inning and obliged to retire from the game. Dodwell, who took the injured man's place on the third sack, made two sensational stops with throws in proportion.

The score:

Dunellen.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Nonamaker, 3b	2	2	2	1	1
Nash, 2b	1	0	2	0	0
Barnes, 1b	2	1	11	0	0
Hand, c	1	2	8	4	0
Coyle, ss	0	1	0	3	0
Schott, lf	1	0	1	0	0
Elliott, rf-cf	1	2	1	1	0
Frederickson, p	1	1	0	0	0
Dodwell, cf-3b	0	0	2	2	0
Peddington, rf	0	0	0	0	0
	9	9	27	11	1

C. R. R. of N. J.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Morton, cf-2b	1	1	6	0	0
Elers, c	1	1	6	1	0
Monahan, 1b-p	0	1	5	0	0
Gildes, 3b	0	1	2	1	3
Cropsey, ss	1	2	2	3	1
Doyle, cf-lf	0	1	1	0	0
McCormack, 2b-lf	0	0	2	0	0
Drake, rf	1	0	0	1	0
Rosenboner, p-2b	0	0	0	1	1
	4	7	24	7	5

C. R. R. of N. J.1 2 1 0 0 0 0 0 0—4
Dunellen .....2 1 0 2 0 4 0 0 x—9

Three-base hit—Hand. Struck out—By Frederickson, 7; by Rosenbower, 4. First base on balls—off Frederickson, 4; off Rosenbower, 3; off Monahan, 3. Double play—Elliott to Barnes, Elers to Monahan, Cropsey. Hit by pitcher—Elliott and Schott. Umpire—Mr. Herbert.

ROYAL A. C. TROUNCED BY NETHERWOOD NINE.

The Netherwood Athletic Club defeated the Royal A. C. in a hot game Saturday afternoon by the score of 9 to 7. Terry, the Netherwood pitcher, was as steady as a rock with men on bases.

The line up and score by innings:

Royal A. C.—A. Somerset, lf; Garner, ss; Kline, cf; Ford, c; Barnes, 1b; P. Somerset, 3b; Simmons, 2b; Davis, p; Smith, rf.

Netherwood A. C.—Coon, rf; P. Terry, 2b; W. Terry, c; Clarke, 3b; W. Walls, ss; E. Conkling, cf; V. Terry, p; Kuly, lf; Peterson, 1b.

Royal A. C.....0 1 0 2 1 0 0 3 0—7
Netherwood A. C.0 1 2 0 3 0 0 2 1—9

Strunk out—By Davis, 9; by Terry, 7. Home run—P. Somerset.

—Neuman Bros. store will be closed all day tomorrow, July 4.

PARK AVENUE BAPTIST TAKES FIRST GAME

The Park Avenue Baptist defeated the First Baptists in the first game of the Sunday School Baseball League on the Cricket field Saturday afternoon. The score was 18 to 15 although the First church team outbatted its opponents by four hits.

The score follows:

Park Avenue.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Hillyer, c,-2b	2	1	6	1	0
Wilson, 2b-c	3	3	8	3	1
Ricketts, p	2	2	1	2	0
C. Doane, ss	2	1	3	2	1
W. Doane, 1b	2	1	12	0	2
Donovan, lf	1	0	2	0	1
Houston, cf	1	0	0	0	0
Cumings, rf	2	1	0	0	0
Wilcox, 3b	3	1	1	2	2
	18	10	33	10	7

First Baptist.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Bailey, c-p	5	4	9	3	0
Hartley, rf	2	0	0	0	1
Pomeroy, 1b	2	3	14	0	0
Smith, p-c	2	3	4	2	0
Powlison, ss	0	2	2	4	1
Trotter, 3b	1	1	3	4	1
Dufford, lf	1	0	0	0	1
Denton, cf	2	1	0	0	2
Zueifel, cf	0	0	0	0	1
Manning, 2b	0	0	0	1	3
	15	14	32	14	10

SOME PRIZE WINNERS AT COUNTRY CLUB

The leading event at the Plainfield Country Club, Saturday was the final for the June trophy, Classes A and B, the play having been continued through the month of June and arousing much interest. In Class A R. S. Rowland won the trophy, defeating Henry D. Hibbard, 3 up and 2 to play, while in Class B, C. W. King won the cup, defeating LeRoy H. Gates, 3 up, in a fine match.

The other events was a kickers' handicap, 18 holes medal play, handicap. The hidden score was 72, and D. H. Rowland won the competition with a score of 78, 15-72. The other scores were uniformly low, and the event brought out a large number of competitors.

The social features at the clubhouse were also greatly enjoyed. There were about one hundred at dinner in the evening and many remained for the dance. The club has arranged for a fine celebration tomorrow. There will be a band concert in the afternoon, and another concert with fireworks in the evening. Practically all of the tables have been taken for dinner in the evening.

F. J. Cranwell, of the Conroy Engineering Co., of 217 West 125th street, New York, is visiting in town today.

COUNTRY CLUB NINE WINS ITS FIRST GAME

The Plainfield Country Club played its first baseball game of the season on the country club diamond Saturday afternoon when it defeated the Plainfield High Schol team in a close contest by a score of 4 to 3. Rushmore pitched for the Country Club and Bailey, of the North Plainfield High School nine, was in the box for the school team. Each allowed four hits, and the support was good.

Will Glenney distinguished himself catching for the home team, and Millick played a good game at first Ford Johnson scored two of the four runs and got two hits, while Bours and Rushmore got the remaining hits and runs. The score:

Plainfield Country Club.

	R.	H.	E.
Schoonmaker, 2b	0	0	0
Johnson, lf	2	2	2
Brown, ss	0	0	1
Glenney, c	0	0	0
Dumont, 3b	0	0	1
Mellick, 1b	0	0	1
Wills, cf	0	0	0
Bours, rf	1	1	0
Rushmore, p	1	1	0
	4	4	3

Plainfield High School.

	R.	H.	E.
E. VanZandt lf	1	0	0
Carpenter, c	0	1	0
Bailey, p	0	0	0
Good, 3b	0	1	0
Ricketts, ss	0	0	0
Clarke, 2b	0	2	0
Carty, 1b	1	0	0
Ulrich, cf	0	0	0
G. VanZandwt, rf	1	0	0
	3	4	0

P. C. C.....1 0 0 0 3 0 0 0 0—4
P. H. S.....1 0 1 0 1 0 0 0 0—3

SATURDAY'S RESULTS AT PARK GOLF CLUB

In addition to the regular events at the Park Golf Club, Saturday, there was a special competition for cups offered by the club, 18 holes, medal play, handicap, for Classes A and B. Dr. H. K. Carroll won the Class A trophy and A. N. Morrison the Class B trophy. Other events included the weekly competition for the President's and golf club cups and the women's handicap competition, nine holes, both attracting a large field. These scores were returned for the President's and golf club trophies:

A. M. Morrel, 105, 21-84; H. L. Moodey, 115, 31-84; Alexander Gilbert, 105, 20-85; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 110, 22-88; Samuel Townsend, 108, 19-89; W. E. Lough, 105, 14-91; W. V. Byard, 110, 15-95; Nelson A. Miller, 115, 16-99; U. G. Tingley, 112, 10-102.

These cards were returned in the women's competition:

Miss Bess R. TenEyck, 71, 24-47;
Miss Grace A. TenEyck, 59, 7-52;
Miss Harriett R. Shreve, 72, 19-53;
Miss May Shreve, 70, 14-56.

NEW LIABILITY SCALE.

More than ten thousand employees of the Public Service Corporation have been notified to forward to the corporation's office their acceptance or rejection of the employers' liability law, which fixes a scale of compensation for injuries which employees may suffer at their daily work. The law takes effect tomorrow.

Acceptance of the right to a fixed compensation, which takes away the right of an injured employee to sue, is to be made individually—that is, such employees as desire may accept the fixed scale of compensation for themselves and the action of the other employees will have no effect on the bearing of the new law on them. Public Service employees have been instructed by the officers of the company on the provisions of the law.

—Press Want Ads. pay.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Hudson, of Somerset street, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson and Miss Alice Patterson, of Boston; and Miss Kathryn Foster, of New York.

JULY FIFTH.

1758—George Augustus Viscount Howe of the British colonial army killed near Fort Ticonderoga, N. Y.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Thursday; continued warm.
Maximum, 100; minimum, 73.

Established May 10, 1887.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1911.

Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

BIG DAY AT P.C.C.

Golf, Dinners, Fireworks and Dancing Comprised the Holiday's Program.

BAND'S CONCERTS ENJOYED.

W. T. Glenney Wins in Approaching and Putting—C. B. Morgan First in Driving Contest—200 Had Dinner There.

Notwithstanding the intense heat the holiday events and special program arranged attracted a large number of members and friends to the Plainfield Country Club yesterday. The veteran golfers made their rounds of the course, although they admitted that the heat was almost unbearable. It was quite cool at the clubhouse, where a large number gathered to enjoy the many privileges. During the afternoon iced tea was served and everything possible was done for the comfort of the guests. One of the most enjoyable features was the concert by a band.

In the evening the band gave another concert following dinner. Superintendent John Hilton served nearly two hundred guests and the service was all to be desired. The fine display of fireworks was greatly enjoyed and thousands of people were attracted to the hillside to see the exhibition which lasted until nearly 10 o'clock. Those who cared to do so spent the time dancing.

In the morning there was a four-ball match on the course for both classes, the teams being composed of two players of the same class. The qualifying round resulted as follows:

Class A—F. O. Reinhart and R. S. Rowland, 69, 6-63; C. C. Riggs and D. H. Rowland, 79, 14-65. Final, F. O. Reinhart and R. S. Rowland defeated C. C. Riggs and D. H. Rowland, 4 up and 3 to play.

Class B—L. H. Gates and W. G. Cooke, 85, 22-63; H. E. Moore and H. A. G. Taylor, 68, 19-67 . Final, L. H. Gates and W. G. Cooke defeated H. E. Moore and H. A. G. Taylor, 1 up.

There was also a driving competition, which was won by C. B. Morgan, his average for three drives being 251, 218 and 211, a total of 680. W. T. Kaufman was second with a card of 198, 237, and 238, and H. D. Hibbard finished third with a card of 203, 215 and 232.

In the approaching and putting contest, L. G. Carman, W. T. Glenney and W. Lester Glenney were tie for first place with a score of 9. In the playoff, W. T. Glenney won with a score of 9, while the other two players each made a score of 10.

BENEFIT PERFORMANCE FOR T. A. B. ON JULY 17.

Under the auspices of the T. A. B. Society, and the personal direction of Paul H. Burns, as chairman of the committee and the coaching of Walter Sherwin, late star of "Ben Hur," two plays will be given at St. Mary's Hall, on Monday night, July 17, the proceeds to be for the benefit of T. A. B. Society.

The first play will be entitled "Miss Civilization," and those who will take the several characters are Miss Josie Murphy, Frank P. Cullen, William V. Sullivan, G. A. Keating and Frank I. Donnelly. The name of the second play is "Love's Alchemy," and it will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Burns and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Moore.

Big Sketch at Proctor's.

Proctor's new bill commencing tomorrow includes Emmet DeVoy and Hermine Shone Co., in the comedy fantasy sketch, "The L'ttle Goddess," which is full of pleasant surprises. There is a company of seven and special scenery is carried with electrical effects. This will be one of the biggest acts offered in a long time. The Three Juggling Bannons, famous for their skill in using Indian clubs; Anita Primrose in character studies, something new and out of the ordinary and George Fredo, the German Baron from Milwaukee, a musical comedian, completes the bill.

Instructions to Delegates.

The local Christian Endeavorers who contemplate going to Atlantic City, tomorrow, are requested to arrive early at the North Avenue Station for the 8:12 train. The round trip fare from Plainfield will be $4.50, and as the signatures of the delegates will be required on each ticket the Endeavorers are urged to be at the station early enough to allow for this work.

Public Installation.

State Deputy Townley, of Elizabeth, will publicly install the officers-elect of Royal Council, No. 77, O. U. A. M., tonight. The members have planned to entertain their friends, and after the installation an entertainment will be provided with refreshments.

RAM'S HORN CAMP IS OPEN FOR SEASON

Thomas M. Muir's Camp "Ram's Horn," on Halsey Island, Lake Hotapcong, which opened for the season on Sunday, was crowded yesterday by Fourth of July visitors from Plainfield and surrounding places. All the guests enjoyed the dinner, which is served at a moderate charge and many of them spent some time on the lake.

Ram's Horn Camp occupies an ideal location on the island and its appointments are well night perfect. Under the management of Mr. Muir, it has done a prosperous business for some years past and the prospects are that this season all records will be eclipsed. The chef, "Bud" Klein, of this city, has had considerable experience at camp resorts and judging from the way the patrons devoured the dinner yesterday he gives excellent satisfaction.

Young men planning to spend a week or so vacation at a moderate rate should get in communication with Mr. Muir before deciding where they will go.

EVENTS OF HOLIDAY AT PARK GOLF CLUB

The Park Golf Club was the scene of much social activity, in addition to the golf events yesterday, and no one seemed to be disturbed by the prevailing heat wave. During the afternoon tea was served at the clubhouse by women members of the club, while the play was being enjoyed on the course. The club course is especially favored in having many large trees thereon, which protects from the sun's intense heat.

The chief event was a match play competition against bogie. In this contest, J. H. Howell and A. N. Morrel were tie for firet place both being 5 up on the colonel. This will be played off later. The other cards returned were as follows:

W. V. Byard, 1 up; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 2 down; N. A. Miller, 3 down; N. H. Morrison, 4 down; U. G. Tingley, 5 down; P. C. Sweeny, 5 down; Samuel Townsend, 6 down; H. L. Moodey, 8 down.

Another interesting event was the approaching and putting competition. This was won by Miss May Shreve and W. V. Byard with a score of 12. Several other close scores were returned in this competition.

TO SUPPLY PULPIT AT FIRST BAPTIST

The pulpit supply committee of the First Baptist church has arranged the list of supplies from July 9 to October 15th inclusive, and the preachers will come from all parts of the country, the majority being well-known in the Baptist denomination. The committee has announced that none of the supplies who will preach here will be a candidate for the pastorate of the church to succeed Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, who concluded his services on Sunday. The list is as follows:

July 9, Rev. Dr. W. B. Matteson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; July 16, Rev. Clarence M. Gallup, of Providence, R. I.; July 23, Rev. Johnson L. Miner, of New York city; July 30, Rev. C. H. Dodd, of Baltimore, Md.; August 6, Rev. John Snape, of Utica, N. Y.; August 13, Rev. Walter J. Swaffield, of Lawrence, Mass.; August 20, Rev. Frank A. Smith, of Haddonfield, N. J.; August 27, Rev. James F. Stifler, of Evanston, Ill.; September 3 and 10th, Rev. Dr. Samuel McBride, of Brooklyn; September 13, open; September 24, Rev. M. L. Wood, of Huntington, W. Va.; October 8 and 15th Rev. John F. Watts, of Lynn, Mass.

CELEBRATED ARTIST VISITS FRIENDS HERE.

Mle. Yannatta, a celebrated portrait painter of Caerta, Italy, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Den. J. Galbraith, of West Fourth street. She is a member of the famous Arts Club of Naples, Salvatore Rasa, named in honor of that celebrated painter. Mle. Yannatta recently completed the portraits of Incagnoli, Senator De Simone, Nicotera, men very prominent in the Italian government affairs and also of Bishop M. Natale, for the city building at Casapulle. Her father was a particular favorite of King Victor Emanuel II and was commissioned by the King to paint historical subjects during the time Florence was a republic. A number of these paintings are at present in the Royal House of Naples, Capo de Monte.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

'PETS' NOT BEATEN

Plainfield Leaders tie With Somerville and Defeat High Bridge Nine.

PLAYERS ARE PROSTRATED.

Somerville and Scotch Plains Defeat Bound Brook and Westfield Wallops Scotch Plains— Some Exciting Contests.

Plainfield maintained its clean record in the Central New Jersey League yesterday although the morning game with Somerville went to a ten-inning tie. The locals had little trouble in defeating the High Bridge team in the afternoon at High Bridge. Despite the heat, all the league games were well attended. Several of the players were overcome by the heat on the different diamonds but none was seriously affected.

"Red" Waller pitched for Driscoll's Darlings at Somerville in the morning and at High Bridge in the afternoon, not seeming to mind the heat in the least. Jimmy Clinton twirled almost a double header for he did the box work for Somerville in the morning and pitched the last six innings against Bound Brook in the afternoon after Rymer had been driven from the mound.

It is reported that the Bound Brook club will file a protest before the league meeting tonight against the result of the game at Scotch Plains yesterday morning. On account of the heat it is alleged that R. H. B. Dalley, the umpire, was unable to render a fair decision on a ball that went ten feet outside the foul line and which he called fair.

The tie game between Plainfield and Somerville will stand until the end of the season, when, in case there is a tie, the match will be played off.

Yesterday's Results.

Plainfield, 3; Somerville, 3 (10 innings) a. m.

Plainfield, 12; High Bridge, 6; (5 innings) p. m.

Somerville, 10; Bound Brook, 9, p. m.

Scotch Plains, 6; Bound Brook, 3, a. m.

Westfield, 12; Scotch Plains, 9, p. m.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Plainfield	5	0	1,000
Somerville	3	3	.500
Scotch Plains	3	3	.500
Westfield	3	3	.500
High Bridge	2	4	.333
Bound Brook	1	5	.166

Pets Escape Defeat.

By a wonderful ninth inning rally after two men were down, Plainfield's Pets managed to keep their record clean at Somerville yesterday morning and draw a tie score after ten hot innings on an ovenlike diamond. The game was called in the tenth because of the heat and the afternoon matches for both teams. Plainfield fans were at the Somerset county seat in large numbers when the umpire yelled "play ball," and the excitement of the crowd throughout the entire game was intense despite the height of the thermometer.

The game was a pitchers' battle in ten acts between the old faithful, "Red" Waller and the smiling Jimmy Clinton. Although the score was a tie, the local twirler had the better of the argument for Clinton was weakening at the finish, being nearly ovecome with the heat. Nevertheless Jimmy fanned eleven men and allowed but five scattered hits while "Red" only struck out four and gave six hits.

Plainfield started to do things in the opening round, when with one down, Hartman laced a pretty one to center, stole second and came home when Frair made a bungle of Eddie Stallings hot liner. But that was all for a long while.

While Driscoll's Darlings were jaunting along with a one run lead, Somerville sprang a surprise in the fourth. Wolfe walked and stole second after two men had been retired. McDonald, the next batter, had two strikes called on him, upon which he said a few strong words and gritted his teeth. He picked out the next ball that came across and sent it over the fence for a trip around the circuit. Then in the sixth another tally was made by the Somerville bunch on a single by Swanson and two well placed scarifice hits by Gordon and Wolfe.

In Plainfield's half of the ninth, the score stood 3-1 in favor of Somerville. Eddie Stallings led off with a single past short, taking second when Friar made a mix up of Driscoll's grounder. Brit Martin flied out and Big Six Nelson came to the front of the stage. Clinton made a balk at this critical moment and Stallings and Driscoll moved up a

(Continued on page 5.)

VICTIM OF FOURTH

Mountainville Man in Hospital Here Seriously Hurt by Cannon Explosion.

HIS COMPANIONS ALL INJURED.

C. B. Haver Loses Two Fingers and Part of Hand But His Eyesight May Be Saved—He was Thrown 20 Feet.

Holding a steel rod which was being hit with a sledge hammer to ram home the wad of a cannon, C. B. Haver, of Mountainville, was seriously injured by a premature explosion, supposedly caused by a spark, and is in Muhlenberg Hospital in a critical condition. Two fingers and a part of his hand were blown off, his face and eyes filled with powder and he was bruised and cut about the body. It is thought that he may not loose his eyesight.

The accident occurred at Mountainville Monday night at eleven o'clock. Haver in company with Charles and John Hoffman, and John Nobman were loading the cannon which was made by Mr. Hoffman, 20 years ago from a car axle. The bore of the cannon was larger that the rod allowing the lattter considerable play. All of the men were more or less injured but Haver is the only one in a serious condition.

He was blown about twenty feet. The rod nor the sledge have not been found. He was taken to Dr. Miller's office at Lebanon by Clarence Farley in an automobile. When Dr. Miller had made an examination it was decided to bring the wounded man to this city, after putting temporary dressings on his wounds. The automobile broke all speed limits in making the run and was stopped at Front street and Madison avenue by Roundsman Higgins and Patrolman Kelley at 4 o'clock yesterday morning.

As soon as the cause for the hurry was explained the party was taken to Dr. Ellis W. Hedges' office and thence to the Hospital. Haver is a married man and has two children. He is employed in the steel works at High Bridge.

SAVE DUNELLEN BOY FROM WATERY GRAVE

Mead Holstein, of Watchung avenue, and DeForest Miller, of Hillside avenue rescued Thomas Reed, of Dunellen yesterday afternoon from drowning in Stoney brook, at Sebring's Mills. Reed, who is but thirteen years of age, in company with a number of other boys, had gone to the brook to swim.

The Dunellen youth, who is unable to swim, had lost his footing on the declining clay bank and slid out beyond his depth. He came up and had the presence of mind to shout, attracting the attention of the other boys. Holstein and Miller started for him at the same time and managed to grasp him, when he came up the second time and pulled him to the shore in a semi-conscious condition. After being removed to his home, Reed was revived and today seems none the worse for his experience.

RECEPTION AND DANCE AT NEW CLUB OPENING.

The Nonpareil Social Club opened its new clubhouse on St. Mary's avenue near Berkman street yesterday afternoon with a tea followed by a dance in the evening. The affair was a complete success and a large number of the members and their friends spent the afternoon and evening in the new clubhouse. Tea was served by a committee of the wives of the members composed of Mrs. C. J. Mackoy, chairman; Mrs. W. H. Jones, Mrs. Eugene Johnson, Mrs. Robert Lee, Mrs. W. N. Daniels, Mrs. J. W. Maury and Mrs. E. Thames.

The reception and dance committee consisted of W. N. Daniels, W. J. Willis, E. Thames, J. Hedgeman, R. Stevens, Eugene Johnson, J. W. Maury, Robert Lee and W. H. Jones.

Injured on a Motorcycle.

An unknown man riding a motorcycle ran into a telephone pole at East Front and Washington streets at noon today. A telephone message to the hospital resulted in sending the ambulance to the scene of the accident. When it arrived the man had gone. It was reported that he was not severely injured and his motor was such that he could continue.

Mrs. M. D. Sweeny and daughters, Evelyn and Dorothy Sweeny, of New York city, and formerly of Plainfield are spending the summer at West End.

COUNCILMEN BUSY

Big Batch of Routine Matters Occupy Attention of the City Fathers.

RESOLUTIONS AND PETITIONS.

City Clerk Given a Month's Vacation —Civil Engineer to Make Changes in City Map—Reports are Received.

The intense heat kept several members away from the July meeting of the Common Council, Monday night, and in the absence of President Tolles, Mr. Buxton occupied the chair. The business of the evening was disposed of as quickly as possible, and it was decided to hold an adjourned meeting Monday evening, July 10, to take up other matters.

A petition from Enoch Berry, of Leland avenue, regarding street improvements was referred and communications from the Plainfield-Union Water Company informing the council that hydrants as ordered, had been installed, werefiled. Andrew Muir and others asked that Spruce street be extended to Fourth street, was referred to the street committee, and a petition for lights on Leland avenue, Gresham road and Berkeley avenue, was referred to the light committee.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company sent a list of the names of its policemen to the council for information. The regular report of the Plainfield Firemen's Pension Fund was received and filed. D. J. Galbraith was given permission to remove a building from Plainfield avenue to Sherman avenue.

Dudley Miller, the Park avenue druggist, complained of a gas engine in the rear of 413 Park avenue, which distrubed the neighborhood The matter was referred to the committee on laws and ordinances and the Board of Health.

Horace G. Adams, clerk of the District court, reported receipts for the past month to be $173.21 and disbursements, $60.15, the balance, $113.06 being turned over to the city treasurer. Building Inspector T O. Doane reported the granting of 39 permits and Street Commisioner A. J. Gavett reported the granting of 21 sewer permits.

At this point Mr. Buxton asked Mr. Holt to take the chair, to allow the former to introduce several resolutions, one of which granted City Clerk J. T. MacMurray one month's vacation from July 6, and authorizing George B. Wean to act in his place. Mr. Mygatt voted no on the resolution, humorously remarking that he might want to move for a reconsideration of the matter.

Another resolution offered by Mr. Buxton and adopted provided for the employment of H. C. Van Emburgh, civil engineer, to make all necessary changes on the city maps for the period of one year for $225.

Mr. Gloak offered a resolution which was adopted, awarding the contract to Mobus & Burke for macadamizing a number of streets, as set forth in a recent ordinance. The Plainfield firm was the lowest of ten bidders. The checks of the unsuccessful bidders were ordered returned.

The petition of H. P. Greenwood, of Cameron avenue, asking for permission to connect with a sewer at his own expense, was granted on motion of Mr. Gloak, and in this connection Mr. Gloak offered a resolution which was adopted, authorizing the sewer committee to have plans drawn for the extension of the sanitary sewer system in Lenox and Cameron avenues and Laramie road, by means of a small pumping station.

On motion of Mr. Clay, the petition for an arc light at Park and North avenues was granted. Mr. Clay also reported back petitions for lights on Albert street, Leland avenue, West Seventh street, Monroe avenue and Grant avenue, and on his motion they were granted. The petition for five lights on Emerson avenue, was laid on the table for further consideration. Mr. Clay reported that the P. S. C. had removed a light from Spooner and Darrow avenues, without authority, and the city clerk was instructed to communicate with the company and ask for an explanation. On motion of Mr. Mygatt a telephone was ordered placed in the new committee room of the council, adjoining that of the Mayor's office.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederickson Home..

Charles Frederickson, son of Captain Christian Frederickson, accompanied by his wife, returned home Sunday from Dallas, Texas, where for six weeks he was ill in the hospital with typhoid fever. He has recovered from the disease, but is still very weak. Mr. Frederickson is employed by the Walter Scott Printing Machine Company, and went to Dallas to erect a press at the Times-Herald office. He had just finished his work, when he contracted the fever and had to go to the hospital.

ATTEMPT TO MURDER FELLOW COUNTRYMAN

Barbata and Silvia Carlo, brothers, set upon Louis Ermick, at Berckman street and St. Mary's avenue last night, the former with a stiletto and the latter with an iron rod. When Patrolman Nolan and McCarty arrived on the scene Ermick was bleeding from wounds in his shoulders, arms and head. The two brothers were uninjured. Dr. Lufburrow patched up Ermick's wounds preventing him from bleeding to death. One slash of the keen blade intended for the abdomen had been knocked aside by his arm and that member was laid open from the elbow to the wrist in turning the blow.

Judge William G. DeMeza held all three under bail for the Union County grand jury. Ermick was able to get a bondsmean and was released in the care of friends. The cause of the quarrel is unknown the men refusing to discuss it. Chief Kiely thinks it is some family affair of long time standing. Barbato Carlo admitted using the stiletto with intent to kill. None of the men had been drinking.

FLIGHT FROM TEXAS TOO MUCH FOR PIGEON

What is probably one of the longest flights on record by a carrier pigeon was accidently discovered by Enoch Giles, of 417 East Sixth street, Monday afternoon. He was at work with a gang of men on the bridge over the Hackensack river, on the Newark and New York branch of the Central railroad, when the pigeon alighted from exhaustion on some of the structural work.

It was too much fatigued to fly away when the men approached and they carried it to a shady spot where it was fed and revived with ice water. While this was being done an examination of it was made and fastened to its leg by a small brass band was the following message: "Released June 25 at 11.45 a. m. at El Paso, Texas, by J. B. Fisher. If caught please release as it is bound for New York."

After resting for a short time the bird continued on its way and doubtless arrived at its destination in New York Monday night.

The longest flight by any local birds was made by 72 birds released at Newton, North Carolina, June 24. R. S. Parsons, of West Front street, had fourteen entries in that flight.

PARK CLUB MEMBERS ENJOYED THE FOURTH

The members and friends of the Park Club enjoyed Independence Day at the club in a quiet manner. During the afternoon there was an informal reception on the large extension veranda, where iced tea was served under the direction of the entertainment committee of the club. An added attraction was instrumental music by Mueller's orchestra, of Brooklyn.

In the evening the clubhouse and spacious grounds were attractively illuminated with hundreds of Japanese lantern, and Mueller's orchestra rendered another popular program of music,, during which some of the young people enjoyed dancing. Ices and refreshments were served under the direction of Henry Johnson, the club steward. During the evening there was a small display of fireworks, chiefly bombs and Roman candles. A few balloons were sent up by members of the club.

BOROUGH'S RECORDER LEVIES SOME SMALL FINES.

James Filmore and Charles Brighton, colored, both of Grove street, were arraigned in the borough court this morning charged with being drunk and disorderly. They were arrested on Somerset street Monday night by Marshal L. V. Pope. Filmore was fined $3 and Brighton's penalty was set at $2.

William James, of Howard street, was arrested Monday night by Special Marshal Erick Sohle, for being drunk and disorderly. Recorder Charles M. Dolliver imposed a fine of $2 upon the offender.

Mrs. Harvey Carter, colored, of Harmony street, made a complaint against her husband for cruel treatment. Carter's hearing was postponed until tomorrow morning.

Winners in Mixed Doubles.

The final in the mixed doubles, tennis tournament, at the Plainfield Country Club, was played yesterday on the club courts, whn Miss Barbara Fleming and Albert D. Beers won the event by defeating Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Colby, 6-3, 6-4.

A TRIFLE COOLER

Mercury Drops to 99 Degrees and a Little Breeze Lessens Discomfort.

THERMOMETER 100 YESTERDAY.

Since Monday the Temperature Has Fallen Three Degrees and Now a Thunderstorm is the Promised Blessing.

Probable local thunder showers is the promised relief from the intense heat in which this part of the country has been enveloped since Sunday. It was a trifle cooler today with a bit more breeze, but the intensity of the heat seems to be almost to be almost as strong as that of yesterday. The present unusual weather conditions started in on Saturday with a temperature of 88 degrees, which increased to 99 degrees on Sunday and to 102 degrees on Monday and 100 degrees yesterday. There was a drop of one degree today, street thermometers registering 99 degrees about noon. It was 86 degrees at 9 o'clock this morning. Weather Prophet Nagle said it was 97 degrees at 1:30 this afternoon.

The heat periods of five days' duration since 1892 are interesting. In 1892 in five days the maximum temperature ran from 100 to 105 degrees; 1894 same period of time from 92 to 100 degrees; 1898, from 87 to 101 degrees; 1900, from 88 to 101 degrees; 1901, from 88 to 104 degrees; 1908, from 82 to 100 degrees; 1911, from 88 to 102 degrees. On an average such hot and cold spells run about three days.

It is quite remarkable that while throughout this section there have been reported many cases of heat prostration, only one had been reported up to 2 o'clock today. That was an Italian, employed by Mobus & Burke, contractors, who was working in a gang on West Front street near Oxford place, where the street is being macadamized. The man was removed to the hospital and it was impossible to get his name. His condition is not considered serious.

Next to the suffering experienced by people, horses and other animals are passing through a severe ordeal. This morning the Plainfield Cab Company lost a valuable young horse from the heat.

The local soda fountains, as well as every other place where cold drinks are dispensed, have been doing a rush business, and all this week the ice cream makers have been pushed to the limit. There has been a record-breaking business in electric fans, one of the popular sources of relief.

Weather reports indicate today that the lessening of torrid conditions may come from over the upper lake regions. This morning Duluth reported a temperature of 58 and Alpena, Mich., 68. In all of the large cities the temperature is from 95 to 108, with hundreds of cases of deaths from prostration.

CELEBRATED THEIR 47TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr and Mrs. William Green, of Somerset street, entertained a company of friends at their home Monday night in honor of the forty-seventh anniversary of their marriage. Whist was the feature. Mrs. William Hart and Hugh A. Todd scored the greatest number of points and were awarded prizes. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson received the consolation prizes.

The affair was of double interest for it marked the twenty-second anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, of Fairview avenue, who were also present. Among the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles I. Nash, Peter C. Sweeney, Hugh A. Todd, Miss Ethel Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. William Hart, of this city, and Miss Alice Patterson, of Boston. During the evening a supper was served.

Drowning Victim's Funeral.

The funeral of Angelo Demeseo, the lad drowned in Stoney brook at Sebring's Mills last Friday night was held yesterday morning from St. Mary's church where a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Vincent Sciolla. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. There was a large attendance at the service and many handsome floral tributes attested the esteem in which the young man was held by a large circle of firends.

The Wild Waves Call.

This hot weather reminds us that the Baptist excursion takes place on Thursday, July 27.

—Use Press want ads.

—There is nothing more refreshing these days than iced tea or coffee and Neuman Bros. have just the kind of tea and coffee for this beverage.

10c 4-4 UNBLEACHED MUSLIN AT 7c.
3,000 yards of this fine smooth finished muslin.

25c HUCK TOWELS 15c.
These towels are a large size, 18x36, in half linen and very fine full bleach, white borders; by the dozen $1.70

12½c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Hemmed and ready for use; size 18x38.

25c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra size, 22x50-inch and extra heavy weight; hemmed.

12½c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Fringed, size 20x40 inches.

25c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra heavy hemmed, extra large size, 22x45 inch.

15c CURTAIN SWISS 10c.
25 pieces, all different patterns and size dots, stripes and figures; it is 36 inches wide and popular make, and sells everywhere for 15c.
Rug department, 2nd floor.

59c MERCERIZED COTTON DAMASK FOR 39c.
900 yards of different patterns to select from; 64 inches wide; this is the biggest bargain we have ever offered in table damask.

12c FRUIT OF THE LOOM MUSLIN FOR 8½c.
Limit 15 yards to a customer.

69c FLOUNCING FOR 39c.
18 to 27 inches wide, of fine swiss and cambric; think of this reduction.

$1.00 & $1.25 FLOUNCINGS 69c.
27 to 45 inches wide in swiss and batiste; suitable for skirts and dresses.

49c CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES FOR 29c.
20 different styles to select from; 18 inches wide on lawn and nainsook.

25c AND 35c RIBBONS 15c.
100 pieces of 4 to 5-inch ribbon; plain and fancy colors, satin, taffeta moire, messaline, checks and plaids.

$2.50 LINENE EMBROIDERED DRESSES FOR $1.50.
In blue, white, tan, skirts neatly piped.

$1.25 COMBINATIONS FOR 89c.
These are combination of corset cover and drawers, trimmed with lace or embroidery.

$1.00 MUSLIN GOWNS FOR 75c.
Lace or embroidery trimmed.

10c CHAMBRAYS FOR 7c.
Blue mixed and cadet only; 27 and 32 inches wide; these are a great bargain and they are always staple.

Watch the daily papers closely for bargains. Something will be added from day to day of interest to you.

A. E. Force & Co
"THE WHITE STORE"
WE GIVE "S. & H." THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. GREEN TRADING STAMPS
Premium Parlor on 3rd Floor.

Every Housekeeper should read each item in this great July Clearance Sale announcement — it will pay.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE BEGINS TOMORROW

This means big reductions in prices in all departments. Our stock must be cut down $25,000 by the 31st and to do so we must give bargains to induce quick buying and big crowds. We have been preparing for this sale the past three months and have made many fortunate purchases which we will share with you. This is the month when all surplus and summer stocks must be closed out, as we never carry over to the next season anything but the most staple lines. The prices quoted here are but a fraction of the many bargain values to be found here during the sale.

NOTICE—We know that this sale and these prices will bring big crowds in the late forenoon and late afternoon, and in order to divert the rush to the earlier hours we will give double S. & H. Green Trading Stamps from 8 to 10 a. m. and from 12 to 2 p. m., until further notice.

12½c LADIES' RIBBED VESTS 8c.
These are fine quality of vests, with smooth elastic rib; all sizes.

50c LADIES' LISLE GLOVES 25c.
In white, tan, grey, pongee and black; 2-button lengths.

75c AND $1.00 LAWN WAISTS FOR 49c.
These are fine white lawn, prettily trimmed with lace, in all the good sizes.

$1.50 RUGS FOR 98c.
50 velvet rugs and brussels, size 36x72 inches, in a fine line of best designs; rug department, second floor.

LADIES' WHITE LAWN WAISTS $1.00 & $1.25 WHITE WAISTS FOR 69c.
Lace and embroidery trimmed and others have colored embroidery.

$2.98 LADIES' UMBRELLAS FOR $1.49.
4 dozen ladies' best American taffeta umbrellas, with fine gold, silver and pearl handles.

$1.50 TO $2.50 CORSETS FOR 69c.
This lot are odd sizes and broken lots from different fine grades, a few slightly soiled, but nevertheless a great bargain.

10c FINE PRINTED LAWNS 6c.
These are 30 inches wide and come in a big range of colors; pretty printed designs.

59c MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS FOR 39c.
50 dozen in all the latest patterns, light and dark figures and stripes; cuffs attached.

19c INDIA LINON FOR 12c.
Fine sheer quality, 30 inches wide; this lot will prove one of the biggest bargains of the sale.

25c TO 35c FANCY WASH GOODS TO GO AT 15c.
This lot will contain several lines of fine materials, such as Lawns, Organdies, Foulards, Voiles, Gauzes and Marquisettes in solid colors, stripes and checks; also fancy figures. This is an extraordinary chance to buy fine wash goods as cheap as.....15c

35c EMBROIDERIES FOR 15c.
Suitable for dresses and skirts, large variety of styles, patterns and widths; also fine swiss galloons; 5 to 18 inches wide.

50c NOVELTY SILK AND COTTON WASH GOODS FOR 25c.
In this lot are silk and cotton print of foulards, silk and cotton printed jacquards and organdies; also a fine line of silk striped madras shirtings; all in one lot at, yard 25c

$10.50 RUGS FOR $5.98.
9x12 Smyrna rugs in a nice line of new patterns.

15c TALCUM POWDER 10c.
Your choice of Mennen's or Babcock's Corylopsis Talcum Powder; only one can to a customer.

10c PAPER OF PINS 5c.
Large paper of pins in all sizes; 360 pins to a paper.

29c & 39c WASH BELTS FOR 15c
White and colored with pearl and fancy buckles.

5c TOILET SOAPS PER DOZEN 45c.
Witchhazel, Buttermilk, Oatmeal, Hazel Cream, Turkish Bath, Household Tar, Old English, Brown Windsor and Summer Blossom, White Ribbon, Swift's & Armour's best toilet soaps.

25c PEROXIDE OF HYDROGEN FOR 17c.
One pound bottle of the best quality.

$1.00 MISSES' PARASOLS 75c
White linene with embroidery band of pongee with different colored borders.

69c CLOTHES BASKETS FOR 39c.
10 dozen split willow clothes baskets, medium size; on sale in basement.

GREAT REDUCTIONS IN LADIES' WASH DRESSES.
Two racks full of beautiful wash dresses in Lawn, Cotton, Voile, Linen, Batiste, Bordered Dresses, Natural Linen Dresses; all will be included in this great JULY CLEARANCE SALE; they must be closed out and the price will do it.

These are values ranging in price from $5.00 to $12.00; Sale price while they last at.....$2.98

CLEARANCE OF LADIES' TRIMMED HATS.
$7.50 BEAUTIFULLY TRIMMED HATS FOR $2.98.
All of our trimmed hats must be disposed of in this sale, to do so we have made the price at about half the regular cost; on sale, millinery department, second floor.

$11.00 HIGH GRADE TRIMMED HATS FOR $4.49.
This lot is the best of stock and must be sold regardless of cost; this is an unusual opportunity. Millinery department on 2nd floor.

50c LOT OF MEN'S HOSE FOR 25c.
This is another lot of broken lines; all put in together to make a complete line of sizes; these are all fancy hose in all the good colors.

15c MISSES' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton hose, two thread heel and toe, all sizes.

15c BOYS' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton, extra spliced heel and toe in sizes 6 to 9½.

10c PRINTED ORGANDIE 7c.
This is an exceptional offer, 27 inches wide, beautiful line of pretty floral designs in all the best colors.

9c AMOSKEAG APRON GINGHAM FOR 6½c.
These are the genuine standard make in brown, tan, red and green in the different size checks.

75c LADIES' LONG KIMONAS 49c.
There is a big variety of styles, floral effects; all the sizes.

35c TO 49c GRANITE WARE 19c
We have selected a big line of different sizes and styles of grey granite cooking utensils to be sold; all at one price; on sale in basement.

39c PARLOR BROOMS FOR 25c.
25 dozen fine parlor brooms, four sewed, hard wood handles, No. 6; on sale in basement.

25c TO 50c MEN'S HALF HOSE FOR 12½c.
One lot of black, tan and grey and silk embroidered; these odd lots are put in together to make one complete line of sizes 9½ to 11½.

25c LADIES' HOSE FOR 19c.
Black, white and tan, fine gauze lisle, double heel and toe; garter top.

10c DRESS GINGHAMS 7c.
About 5,000 yards in plaids, stripes and checks in all the colors

10c EMBROIDERIES FOR 5c.
Consisting of edgings, insertions and beadings, in swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dresses, trimmings and underwear; ½ to 2 inches wide.

29c EMBROIDERIES FOR 14c.
Big variety of patterns in all widths, on swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dress trimming; 2 to 8 inches wide.

7c BLEACHED TOWELING 5c.
1,000 yards of Warsaw twilled bleached toweling, 17 inches wide.

12½c GLASS TOWELING 10c.
20 inches wide, blue and red checks, in several sizes.

6c UNBLEACHED CHEESE-CLOTH 4c.
This is a good quality and is 36 inches wide.

69c COTTON DIAPER 49c.
18 inches wide, fine quality; 10 yards to a piece.

12½c PILLOW CASES 9c.
45x36 bleached cases, made of the Crescent quality muslin.

22c TABLE OILCLOTH 15c.
July Clearance Sale price, these are 5-4 best standard oilcloth in all the light and dark grounds; small figures and checks.

$1.25 FINE COTTON TABLE DAMASK FOR 79c.
500 cloths to choose from in a big variety of patterns in fine mercerized cloths; 58 inches wide in lengths from 2 to 3 yards; 20-inch napkins to match; value $1.25 for dozen.....79c

25c LADIES' COLLARS FOR 10c.
One lot of Ascot ties and Dutch collars; a good assortment.

19c GALATEA CLOTH 9c.
These are in short lengths, cadet, light and dark tans, stripes and figures.

12½c PERCALES FOR 9c.
36-inch fine percale in a big line of small figures, stripes and checks, light and dark grounds.

20c WHITE GOODS 10c.
In plain and figured effects, 50 pieces of different weaves, stripes, checks and figures; fine and sheer for waists and dresses.

25c NAINSOOK FOR 18c.
Extra fine white nainsook, 36 inches wide, soft and sheer; another big bargain.

25c WHITE LAWN 18c.
25 pieces 40 inch, extra fine dress lawn at a big reduction.

20c EMBROIDERIES FOR 10c.
In various widths and patterns in swiss, nainsook and cambric; large variety of styles to select from; widths from 1 to 4 inches.

50c PILLOW TOPS FOR 19c.
In lot over 100, in a big variety of designs.

In Other Days.

Strombus—Your face—er—seems familiar. We've met before somewhere, have we not?

Hallotis—Yes; before you inherited your fortune, you know, you used to deliver groceries to my house.—Chicago Tribune.

Distracting.

"What drove the lady exchange editor crazy?"

"Reading of bargains in cities a thousand miles away." — Toledo Blade.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 331

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 119 W. Front St. Tel. 617-J.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St. Tel.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Riggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 15c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse,
The City Market, 125 North Ave.
E. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbo & Co.....218 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....213 Watchung Ave.
Jos. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....857 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
F. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
M. A. Laing.....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Ratti.....111 Park Ave.
Debele & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....331 Watchung Ave.
E. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
F. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....R. Peters
New Market.....Corliell
Sound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood.....W. M. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Third baseman Nonamaker, of the borough nine, was badly injured in the game Saturday with the Central Railroad of New Jersey team. He was spiked by one of the opposing players and obliged to leave the game. Benjamin Dodwell, who took his place on the third sack, proved to be a worthy substitute and made some sensational plays.

A new street is being added to the list of thoroughfares in the borough. This new highway is to be known as Fourth street, being located between Madison and Lincoln avenues. In order to build the road it has been necessary to make a cut through the properties of Edward Moore, Walter R. H. Hardingham and J. Wesley Blaine.

The Dunellen baseball club has certainly put a representative nine on the diamond this year. The team is playing fast and speedy ball, having defeated some of the best clubs in this vicinity. Dunellenites are supporting the team in good shape and Manager Bogardus expects to have a successful season.

Washington Camp, No. 98, Patriotic Order Sons of America, goes to South Plainfield tomorrow night to attend the district convention at that place. It is expected that a large number of the local camp will make the trip.

Yesterday was extremely quiet in the borough, being more or less on the safe and sane plan, although the baseball game attracted a large crowd.

Charles Vleet, of Lincoln avenue, has taken a position with the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

William Vail, of Front street, is working with the park brigade of the C. R. R. of N. J.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Fourth passed quietly in town. no serious accidents were reported. Burnt fingers were as usual in evidence but they were soon forgotten by the youngsters. A number attended the celebration at Westfield Two ball games were the only home attraction, the morning game was deserving of better support but the crowd turned out at the afternoon contest in good shape.

The local ball team certainly are not quitters. With the team played out with the heat from the morning game and without a regular pitcher, in the game against Westfield yesterday afternoon, the boys kept Westfield guessing and at times worried, because Westfield had padded up in nice shape for a win, only three of the regulars being in the lineup.

Edward Varety won second prize for Ramshackle vehicles in the parade yesterday at Westfield. Ed's rig certainly looked the part of a hasbeen, the work being done by Charles Mashin.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hollingsworth, of Buffalo, are spending a few days with Mr. Hollingsworth's father, Loftus Hollingsworth, of Johnston's Drive.

Mrs. Frederick K. Clark entertained friends from Newark over the Fourth.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thornton and children, of New oYrk, are visiting Mr. Thornton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton, of the Thornton Hotel.

Robert Hart, of New York city, has returned home after a few days vacation spent with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hart, of Lehigh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hendrickson are entertaining out of town friends.

John Higgins, who has been visiting in town, has returned home.

John Thornton has returned from a visit to New Market.

A linen-covered table with a well-kept bowl of goldfish thereon will add to the generally pleasant effect.

Bartholomay means Quality

¶ BARTHOLOMAY means the choicest of materials, the best skill and experience in brewing.

Bartholomay
ROCHESTER
Beer or Ale
IS ABSOLUTELY PURE

¶ Whether you drink beer for your health's sake, or for social pleasure, you ought to drink "BARTHOLOMAY". Order a dozen bottles to-day, and after you have once used it you will never be without it.

DISTRIBUTED BY
HENRY HAURAND
68 Somerset Street
'Phone 229

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 82-A.

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL,
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

ECONOMY JARS WILL KEEP YOUR FRUIT PERFECT

When your fruits are "Economy Preserved" you can be absolutely certain that they will keep perfectly until you want to use them. They cannot spoil as the sanitary composition in the cap seals them to stay sealed.

Come in and let us show you how simple and how easy it is to preserve in the "Economy Way."

Here's the recipe:

Cook your fruit YOUR OWN WAY. Then while hot pour into Economy Jars and place caps on, using spring which comes with them to hold cap in place.

When cool there is about fifteen pounds suction holding the cap on to stay.

Order a dozen Economy Jars at once.

Price per dozen—1-qt. size, $1.20; 2-qt. size, $1.40.

New Caps and Springs for your last year's Economy Jars at small price.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 EAST FRONT ST.,
PLAINFIELD, N. J.
TWO 'PHONES—6-214
Call one number; if central does not connect you with us, please call the other.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

FLAGS! FLAGS!!
LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY
4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)
8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.
18 ft. ROPE with galvanized iron Pulley.
1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.
SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40
Phone 668-J
William H. Olmsted
331 Watchung Ave.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.39, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.25, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58. Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.39, 8.45, 9.02, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.42, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.25, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily —8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.
6 25 11

Try a Press Want Ad

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms.

G. J. WEINMAN CAFE
213 Park Ave., Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N.J.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 82.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice.

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 764-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

A Decisive Drop Down of Prices On All Summer Goods to Force a Quick, Positive and Final Clearance

This July Clearance Sale is the supreme money saving event in a decade. And when we make this broad sweeping claim we speak from our extensive knowledge of goods, prices and former special sales held in this store and elsewhere. It is a stock reducing event of gigantic proportions and will be bound to interest every person within miles of this store.

In the volume of faultless and desirable merchandise embraced, in its reckless disregard for former prices, real values and possible profits, this July Clearance Sale will surpass any ever attempted.

With over two months of hot weather before you, we have set aside this particular time for adjusting our stocks and completely clearing out all Summer goods. And in order to accomplish our object as quickly as possible we offer you values that speak more convincingly than any words we might use of how deep we have sent the price knife into former costs.

CLEARING PRICES IN THE MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

25c Sox for 15c—Plain and fancy lisle sox light and madras shades; were 25c; sale..15c

$1.00 Pongee Shirts 79c—White and natural pongee shirts with single cuffs; regularly $1.00; sale.....79c

50c Negligee Shirts 35c—About 35 dozen negligee shirts, all sizes, but mostly odds and ends in patterns, including a full line of black and white neat stripes; 14 to 17; sale 35c

50c Otis Underwear 39c—Best known 50c balbriggan, but shirts only; on sale.....39c

50c Neckwear 37c — It's clearing time with silk neckwear; your choice now of about 30 dozen all silk rich four-in-hands; regularly 50c; sale..37c

39c Tubular Belts 25c—Black only, all sizes 34 to 44.

Odds and Ends of 25c Four-in-hands at 5c—Grouped in one lot to close out; odds and ends of silk four-in-hands sold at 25c; on sale 5c

59c "Oye" Underwear 47c—Athletic style, coat shirt, knee drawers; made of mercerized figured soisette, with blue trimming; regular 59c; sale....47c

Pure Linen Heavy Huck Towels 15c—You don't often buy a heavy all linen huck towel at 15c. We bought these 60 dozen several months ago, but they were just delivered to us; the manufacturer is swamped with orders on them, so good are they for the price. You will buy them by the dozen when you see them; on sale.....15c

4-4 Anchor Muslin, yard...10c

4-4 Hill Muslin, yard.....8c

4-4 Brown Muslin, yard.....6c
(Regular 7½c).

4-4 Special 10c Cambric, yd.8c

(Other specials just as good; no room to quote prices).

29c Striped Linons, yard...19c

25c French Ginghams, yd..19c

10c White Cross Bar Lawns, yard 7c

29c White French Lawns..19c
(45 inches wide).

(These are good specials to pick up).

(Crowded out from the Men's Section).

Columbia Shirts, all clean, fresh patterns this season; all sizes 14 to 17; on sale.....79c

JULY PRICES IN WOMEN'S READY TO WEAR SECTION

98c Shirt Waists 69c—In one style there is a complete run of sizes, others are odds and ends, more or less soiled; formerly 98c; sale 69c

Black Jap Silk Waists, low neck, kimono sleeves, trimmed with white Val. lace; on sale—$1.69

Women's Rep Suits, odds and ends, white, blue and tan, formerly sold up to $6.50; on sale $1.98

Girl's and Misses' Middies, all white with white collars and white with blue collars, tailored and strapped; sale.....98c

Children's Dresses Values Up to $1.98; on Sale 98c.
About 100 children's colored Lawn, Gingham and Percale Dresses, ages 6 to 14, and 2 to 5; these are stylish and of good materials, well made, not all sizes in every style, but plenty to choose from; on sale 98c

Misses' and Women's Wash Skirts Sold up to $2.25; on sale $1.
Included in this lot are white India Linon Skirts and tan, blue and pink suiting; all are made to fit right, and at this price they should not last long; about 65 skirts in all; on sale..$1.00

$5.98 and $6.98 Pure Linen Tailored Suits at $4.85.
The best styles of the season, all are pure linen, well tailored, with plain or sailor collars; natural and half bleached; on sale $4.85
(Alterations free).

$2.98 and $3.98 Wash Dresses at $1.98.
All this season's styles, and good styles too, made just as you like them made; some of percales with large sailor collars, and button down the front with large pearl buttons; others of figured lawns and ginghams, with low and high neck: it's a bargain you will like; on sale.....$1.98

$3.98 and $4.98 Wash Dresses at $2.98.
About 50 Wash Dresses in figured Lawns, Batistes, Ginghams and Percales, some of the best sellers of the season; choose while choosing is best; on sale.....$2.98

25 per cent Reduction on all Children's White Dresses.

You will appreciate this announcement most if you know our regular values; nothing is reserved; this reduction of one-fourth is on every child's white dress in the house; ages 6 to 14.

Women's Long Kimonas Were $1.98; sale $1.69.—Several attractive styles in figured lawn kimonas, dainty floral patterns, pretty styles; neatly made.

WASH GOODS SECTION.

39c Tussah Silk 29c—10 shades in this popular silk for cool summer wear as well as for party Dresses.

35c Figured Seco Silk 25c—The styles are pretty, the saving worth while on such well known wash silks.

29c and 35c Wash Goods 19c—All this season's wash goods, embroidered dimities, tissues and satin striped lawns; reduced to almost half.

12½c and 15c Batistes 9c—Choose from about 40 pieces, they sold this season at 12½c and 15c; it's a good saving to buy.

Mercerized Foulards Regularly 15c and 19c; on sale 12½c and 15c — Good assortment, dark and light styles.

25c Mercerized Pongee 19c—Several shades, but mostly in natural; that's the most wanted shade this season.

15c Ginghams at 11c—About 35 pieces dress ginghams, 32-inches and 27 inches wide; all standard make.

Store For Your Money at

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	9	..	3	12				24
Brooklyn	7	..	8	6				21
Boston	1	..	3	5				9
Philadelphia	6	..	7	11				24
Chicago	3	13	..	10				26
Cincinnati	0	3	..	5				8
Pittsburg	2	2	..	13				15
St. Louis	3	3	..	4				10
AMERICAN
New York	8	..	8	12				28
Philadelphia	12	..	13	18				43
Boston	5	..	6	6				17
Washington	6	..	6	9				21
St. Louis	2	2	3	9				16
Cleveland	5	6	4	8				23
Chicago	2	6	..	17				25
Detroit	8	14	..	14				36

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Philadelphia	43	26	.623
Chicago	42	26	.618
New York	42	27	.609
St. Louis	39	30	.565
Pittsburg	38	30	.559
Cincinnati	29	39	.426
Brooklyn	25	43	.368
Boston	16	53	.232

Yesterday's Results.
MORNING GAMES.
Philadelphia, 11; New York, 7.
Boston, 3; Brooklyn, 2.
Chicago, 8; Cincinnati, 3.
St. Louis, 3; Pittsburg, 2.
AFTERNOON GAMES.
Philadelphia, 7; New York, 5.
Brooklyn, 4; Boston, 2.
Pittsburg, 11; St. Louis, 1.
Chicago, 2; Cincinnati, 2 (10 innings).

Games Today.
New York at Philadelphia.
Boston at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Pittsburg.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Philadelphia	47	22	.681
Detroit	47	23	.671
Chicago	34	30	.531
New York	36	32	.529
Boston	36	33	.522
Cleveland	32	40	.452
Washington	25	46	.352
St. Louis	18	50	.265

Yesterday's Results.
MORNING GAMES.
Philadelphia, 7; New York, 4.
Washington, 6; Boston, 4.
Chicago, 7; Detroit, 3.
Cleveland, 6; St. Louis, 5 (13 innings).
AFTERNOON GAMES.
Philadelphia, 11; New York, 9 (11 innings).
Boston, 4; Washington, 3.
St. Louis, 4; Cleveland 2.
Detroit, 11; Chicago, 10 (11 innings).

Games Today.
Philadelphia at New York.
Washington at Boston.
St. Louis at Cleveland.
Chicago at Detroit.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	47	22	.681
Baltimore	44	27	.620
Toronto	38	33	.535
Montreal	31	32	.492
Buffalo	29	33	.468
Jersey City	28	36	.438
Newark	25	38	.397
Providence	25	46	.352

Yesterday's Results.
MORNING GAMES.
Jersey City, 7; Newark, 3.
Providence, 5; Baltimore, 4.
Buffalo, 3; Montreal, 2.
Rochester, 4; Toronto, 1.
AFTERNOON GAMES.
Jersey City, 4; Newark, 3 (10 innings).
Baltimore, 17; Providence, 1.
Montreal, 5; Buffalo, 2.
Rochester, 4; Toronto, 2.

Games Today.
Jersey city at Newark.
Montreal at Buffalo.
Toronto at Rochester.
Providence at Baltimore.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Certificate of Dissolution.

To all to whom these presents may come, Greeting:

WHEREAS, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the

AMERICAN INDIES COMPANY,

a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No. 110 East Front street, in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, State of New Jersey (Henry G. Runkle being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of "An act concerning corporations (Revision of 1896)," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, S. D. DICKINSON, Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the twenty-third day of June, 1911, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Trenton this Twenty-third day of June, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(SEAL)

S. D. DICKINSON,
Secretary of State.
Fee—$15.00

6 28 5w

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

Central R. R. News Stands.

You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.

Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.

Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

TIMBO'S
Stock for Smokers

Romeo and Juliets, La Carolines, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merralls & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampe makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles.

133-135 North Avenue.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING

Successors to Alex. Lusardi.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

THIS MEANS YOU

may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova, Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

CHAS. KEIDERLING

FURNITURE PACKER.

Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.

Tel. 559-J 958 E. Front St.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue

816-818 WEST FRONT ST.

Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 813 Lee place.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles

KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

I. GOLDBERG.

Tel. 1512-L. 510 Watchung Ave.
EXPERT LADIES' TAILOR.
Perfect fitting and good workmanship guaranteed.
Special prices on Linen Suits for this season. 5 10 tf m-w

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES

Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 5, 1911.

FOURTH'S AFTERMATH IN THE POLICE COURT

John Boran, sixty-five years old, of Cottage place, became helplessly drunk in the course of his celebrations of the Glorious Fourth and was locked up. Judge William G. DeMeza suspended sentence.

Three young men became involved in a heated argument at Second street and Park avenue last night and three blows were struck before the police arrived. A fine of $20 or 10 days in jail was suspended this morning by the court.

On complaint of Mary Spencer, of Central avenue, Thomas Doyle, John Rhogan and Joseph Hobane, were arrested last night at her home. A plea of not guilty was entered and the hearing set down for Friday morning.

Bartholomay Taylor, of Park avenue, was allowed to go under a suspended sentence of sixty days suggested by himself to the court this morning. He said that if ever again he is arrested for drunkenness the Judge should send him to jail for that length of time.

James Dady, Jr. and Theodore Smith met on Front street, Monday night, and the former began to put a polish on the latter for a remark he had made some time before. Smith was arrested and Dady appeared in court on his own accord. Sentence was suspended by Judge William G. DeMeza, in the city court yesterday morning.

Mrs. Mary Horan.

After a long illness following a stroke of appoplexy, Mrs. Mary Horan, widow of Thaddeus Horan, died this morning at her home on West Seventh street, in her seventy-ninth year. Mr. Horan's death occurred three years ago. Surviving are three daughters, all living here. The funeral will be held at her late residence, Friday morning at 8:30 and from St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Bound Brook's Protest.

On the ground that a drive by Henry Alberts, on which two runs came in, fell foul, Manager Newhouse, of Bound Brook, will enter a protest at the meeting tonight against yesterday morning's game at Scotch Plains being credited and will request that it be played over. The score resulted 5 to 3 in Scotch Plains favor. At the time Umpire Dalley called the alleged foul fair, the score was 3 to 2 in favor of Bound Brook.

Admitted to Bar.

Augustus V. Nash, of Prospect avenue, was sworn in as a member of the New Jersey bar this morning before the Supreme Court at Trenton. He was graduated from the City High School in 1908 and from the Newark Law School last month. He has not decided as yet where he will establish himself but for the present he will be engaged in his brother's office on Park avenue.

No Fires on Fourth.

Chief T. O. Doane, of the fire department, reports that yesterday was a most quiet and uneventful day in his line of business, not a single alarm being received for the first time in the city's history.

Headquarters for

Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

Week-End Specials

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.

Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

PALMER HAMMOCKS $3.98.

For the regular $5.00 ones; extra wide and extra long, with wide valance and lay back pillow; all the newest color combinations.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c

Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.

Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.

a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.

Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 11c.

A special lot of fine gauze cotton stockings, fast black, with extra spliced heels and toes; would be good value at 18c.

COME HERE FOR FLAGS.

We have a complete stock of cotton, silk and wool bunting standard American flags and the prices are most reasonable.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.

Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

LADIES' NECKWEAR 18c.

A special lot of pretty Jabots made of fine white lawn and trimmed with lace and embroidery; 25c value.

LADIES' SKIRTS 98c.

Fine white linene wash skirts, the newest models; an excellent skirt for outing purposes; usually $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $7.98

instead of $12.50; apartment style; holding 50 lbs of ice, with three shelves in provision compartment; a good serviceable hard wood refrigerator.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.

Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.

Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.

Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.

Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.

a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.

The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.

A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.

Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

BATH SPRAYS 69c.

instead of 98c; the Monarch shower bath spray, complete with faucet connection, rubber tube and aluminum spray.

CHILDREN'S PARASOLS 39c.

In pink, blue and red; Japanese styles with tinsel effects; were made to sell for 75c.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

BLANKETS and CURTAINS

LEFT TO BE

CLEANED

WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT

125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State, Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY

410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order

Hoagland's Express

to call for your BAGGAGE

Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w

Home Tel. 648-L

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.

VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST

Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.

HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY

Office: HEDDEN LIVERY, 118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.

DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

R. Morris Adkins

MASSEUR and HYDROPATH

Manual massage and hydrotheraputic treatment given in the privacy of the home and under your own family physician.

Treatments by appointment only

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD

736

Celebrate the Fourth.

The Westervelt Dramatic Society celebrated the Fourth yesterday by entertaining the neighborhood with with songs and recitations. The society is made up of children ranging in ages from 3 to 13 years living in the vicinity of Westervelt avenue and the affair yesterday was held on a lawn in that section. Refreshments were served by the parents of the members.

Buy at This Store Today

You will need a pair of comfort-giving ties on that vacation trip and why not buy them today, and get just so much more wear out of them. Another thing, my stock is complete today in all sizes and widths in every design and pattern. The present opportunity of getting just the shape and material you fancy should appeal to you.

My prices are

$2, $2.50, $3, $3.50, $4 and $5

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 EAST FRONT ST.

The Shoe Store That's Growing

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.

OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.

Grace Poultry Farm

Somerville, N. J.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

YOU KNOW

of course, you know, but what do you know That is what I would like to know.

LAUGHING.

Went to Uptodate on Wednesday to pay my men who are getting my land prepared to sell lots. Saw a new $3,500 house being built. That is what making them laugh did. They all commenced to laugh when they saw me getting off the train but you should have seen me laugh when I saw that $3,500 house. These lots will be sold on the plan that you have to buy two to get one, for no house can be built on less than fifty feet and that must be a $2,000 house or better. I want to see you often, so you can pay me $1 down $1 per week. Read below.

UP-TO-DATE (LAKEWOOD).

I will commence selling lots at Uptodate in a few days; have almost completed what the last law requires as to lot selling, and I want you to know about the lots that I am about to deceive you with. For that reason I want all of you to use my ballot below and send me the name of someone who you want to tell you about them, and who will receive two lots for his trouble. The three who receives the most number of votes will go. I want them to tell you that you are getting more than a $100 lot for $25, and that I will not keep it up long. And I want as many of you who will pay their own expenses to go as well. I can not afford to take you. Let me know when you want to go, and I will tell you how to take a shorter walk from Uptodate depot to the lots than I walk from home to the Plainfield Depot. This contest will last two weeks from the date I commence to sell lots and any one buying before will receive their money back if they receive an adverse decision. The first two people who buy from this date, (July 26th) will receive four lots for two. Send your names at once, and you can pick your lots from maps.

MY TIME IS YOURS

159 NORTH AVENUE. 'PHONE 1907

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.

Let Mr. .....

Address .....

Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

Mme. Brunelly

Masseuse, Manicurist, Hair Dresser

HAVE YOU

inspected the summer hair goods at Mme. Brunelly's Hair Dressing Parlor? They are entirely different from and a great improvement on all others in elegance, originality and exclusiveness, being light and fluffy.

Coronet braids and chignons are especially desirable for summer wear, being made of naturally wavy hair, not affected by damp weather and perspiration.

A special course of treatment to eliminate dandruff and falling hair evils is a feature of this parlor.

An experienced manicure is always in attendance.

Gray hair restored to its original color with one bottle of Gray Hair Restorer. Price $1.00.

The facial massage and shampoo treatments given in this parlor are the best given in the city. A visit will convince you.

Mm. Brunelly

228

West Front St.

In the Sebring Bldg.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matt and daughter, Emily, of this city, left yesterday for the west. The trip will include Chicago, Milwaukee, Detroit and Cleveland and they will return in about two weeks.

EXCURSIONS.

UP THE HUDSON

POPULAR EXCURSION TO

West Point and Newburg

Every Wednesday

June 28 to Sept. 13, incl.

VIA

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL AND HUDSON RIVER DAY LINE STEAMER "ALBANY"

Round Trip Tickets 1.50

Direct connection between Train and Steamer at Pier 1, adjoining Passenger Station, Jersey City. Train leaves Plainfield 7:39 a. m. 6-30 7-5 9 12 16 19 23 26 30

POPULAR OUTINGS... VIA New Jersey Central

LAKE HOPATCONG

EVERY SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY

ROUND TRIP $1.00 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:50 a.m.

ATLANTIC CITY

NEXT SUNDAY, JULY 9th

ROUND TRIP $2.50 Train Leaves Plainfield 7:58 a. m

Children HALF FARE Each Outing

7-5-2-eod

John S. Lewis

Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given.

Box 173,

Scotch Plains, N. J

Announcement!

ALBERTO BUCCINI

347 Fifth Ave., New York City

Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

'PETS' NOT DEFEATED

(Continued from page 1.)

peg. Then Nelson sent a sizzler to Friar, who had already fumbled twice. The short stop was not going to break his record and again he juggled the sphere. Nelson beat out his throw to first and Stallings had scored. The ball was at the initial sack, Driscoll was rounding third, and the score stood 3-2 in favor of Somerville with two down, but the Plainfield first baseman made a desperate slide for homeplate and beat the ball by inches, tieing the score the ball by inches, tieing the score

Plainfield.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Cosgrove, rf	4	0	0	2	0
Hartman, ss	5	1	1	5	2
Donovan, 3b	4	0	0	2	2
E. Stallings lf	3	1	1	0	0
W. Stallings cf	4	0	0	3	1
Driscoll, 1b	4	1	0	11	1
Martin, 2b	4	0	2	1	2
Nelson, c	4	0	0	5	2
Waller, p	3	0	1	1	3
Totals	35	3	5	30	13

Somerville.

	A.B.	R.	H.	P.O.	A.
Swanson, 3b	4	1	1	0	0
Gordon, lf	3	0	0	4	0
Wolfe, cf	2	1	0	1	0
McDonald, 1b	4	1	1	6	1
Frair, ss	4	0	1	0	2
McAffee, 2b	4	0	1	4	2
Grymes, rf	3	0	0	0	0
McCarty, c	4	0	2	13	2
Clinton, p	4	0	0	2	3
Totals	32	3	6	30	10

Score by innings:
Plainfield ....1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0—3
Somerville ....0 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 0—3

Summary — Errors — Frair, 3; Driscoll, 2. Earned runs—Somerville, 3. Left on bases, Somerville, 1; Plainfield, 8. First base on balls, off Waller, 2; off Clinton, 5. First base on errors, Plainfield, 2; Somerville, 2. Struck out, by Clinton, 11; by Waller, 4. Stolen bases: E. Stallings, 4; Donovan, Hartman, Wolfe, McCarty. Sacrifice hits: Gordon, Wolfe. Hit by pitcher, Cosgrove. Wild pitch, Clinton. Two base hit, McCarty. Home run, McDonald. Umpire, Frank Cox.

Pets Defeat High Bridge.

High Bridge tried out a new pitcher, named Cettid, yesterday afternoon in the game with Plainfield and he lasted just one inning for the locals got to his delivery in the opening round and swatter out eleven runs. "Red" Waller was in the box for the Plainfield boys and stood the heat like asbestos at the North Pole, while Cettid was compelled to retire from the game on account of the temperature. Only five innings were played because three of the High Bridge players were overcome by the heat and forced to leave the field.

The sandy haired twirler of the Plainfield team did not exert himself after this landslide of runs came over the pan and the High Bridgers took advantage of the fact in order to pile up a few tallies. Plainfield appeared with the same lineup as in the morning game with Somerville and the combination worked too well for anything that High Bridge could offer in the line of resistance. Brit Martin and Eddie Stallings were the show of the game, each making two runs and two hits with seven put outs between them.

While the temperature was rising and falling we saw the game like this:

Plainfield

	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
Cosgrove, rf	0	0	2	0	0
Hartman, ss	2	2	0	1	0
Martin, 2b	2	2	4	0	0
E. Stallings, lf	2	2	3	0	0
W. Stallings, cf	1	1	2	0	0
Driscoll, 1b	1	1	3	0	0
Donovan, 3b	2	2	0	2	0
Nelson, c	1	0	1	0	0
Waller, p	1	0	0	1	0
Totals	12	10	15	4	0

High Bridge

	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
J. Walton, 2b	2	2	3	2	1
C. Walton, 3b	2	2	1	1	0
E. Walton, ss	0	2	1	0	0
Hearn, c	1	2	1	3	1
Blackwell, rf p	0	1	2	0	0
E. H. Walton, cf	0	1	1	0	0
Leid, lf	0	0	0	0	0
Silva, 1b	0	0	4	1	0
Cettid, p rf	0	0	1	0	1
Emmans, rf	0	0	1	0	0
Greenfield, cf	1	1	0	0	0
Totals	6	11	15	7	3

Score by innings:
Plainfield .....11 1 0 0 0—12
High Bridge .....1 0 1 0 4—6

A Red Hot Session.

The battle between the old rivals Bound Brook and Somerville, yesterday afternoon at the former place was as hot as the weather and resulted as the majority of the previous battles have in favor of the Somerset county seat nine. The score was 10 to 9, and its closeness gives but a faint suggestion of the real struggle.

The game was replete in hitting and fielding stunts on both sides, with the victors having a shade the better in each. One circuit clout is in the county seat hit column as a background against the five doubles and but three errors. Bound Brook has two home runs, three doubles and five errors. In addition to the heavy hitting and fast and loose fielding there were some funny base running stunts that brought the big crowd to its feet and caused water to doused in the face of the runner when he sank at the feet of his fellows nearly overcome from his efforts. None of the men were obliged to quit although they will long remember the day and the game.

Rymer, who began in the box for the county seaters, was hit so heavily that Chet put in Jimmy Clinton, who had pitched the morning game. Jimmy wa strong and his shoots had the usual mysterious 'unhittable' effectiveness.

The score:

Somerville.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Swanson, 3b	2	1	0	1	0
Gordon, lf	1	3	1	0	0
Wolff, cf	1	2	3	0	0
McDonald, 1b	2	0	8	0	1
Fryer, ss	1	2	0	1	1
McAffee, 2b	1	0	3	1	0
Grimes, rf	1	0	3	0	0
Torpey, c	0	0	1	1	0
Rymer, p	0	0	0	0	0
McCarty, c	1	2	8	0	1
Clinton, p	0	1	0	3	0
	10	11	27	7	3

Bound Brook.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Adler, 3b	2	2	2	2	3
Bollinger, rf	0	0	1	0	0
Roberson, lf	1	0	1	0	0
Poole, c	2	2	4	5	0
Nolan, cf	0	2	0	0	0
Manning, 2b	0	0	1	3	0
Meehan, 1b	1	2	15	0	0
Power, ss	2	0	3	3	2
Ortlieb, p	1	1	0	6	0
*Smith	0	0	0	0	0
	9	9	27	19	5

*Batted for Bollinger in ninth.

Score by innings:
Somerville ....2 0 2 0 0 0 3 3 0 0—10
Bound Brook ..0 0 5 2 1 0 1 0 0—9

Home runs—Poole, Adler, McAffee. Two-base hits—Wolff, Gordon (2), McCarty (2), Adler, Poole, Meehan. Sacrifice hits—Gordon, McDonald, Adler, Bollinger. Struck out—By Rymer, 1; by Clinton, 8; by Ortlieb, 3. Base on balls—Off Rymer, 2; off Clinton, 1; off Ortlieb, 2. Stolen bases—Swanson, Gordon, Wolff, Fryer (2), Power. Passed ball—Poole, McCarty, Torpey. Left on bases—Somerville,5; Bound Brook, 5. Time of game—2 hours 15 min. Attendance—1,100. Umpire—Cox.

'Plains Broke Even.

Scotch Plains broke even yesterday on the 'Plains diamond, winning from Bound Brook in the morning and being defeated by Westfield in the afternoon. On account of the extreme heat three players were overcome, Poole, the Bound Brook catcher and Mullin and Washburn, of the Scotch Plains team. Poole was replaced by Graham but Mullin and Washburn were able to resume play after a short rest.

Warry McLaughlin was steady in the pinches in the morning game and allowed but ten scattered hits while the 'Plains batters slammed the ball in clusters. In the afternoon, Foley, a new twirler, was given a tryout but was only good for three innings after which Westfield batted him freely. Manager Alberts was then obliged to go in the box himself and he surprised the fans by holding the Mt Arrarat bunch safe for the rest of the game.

Dave White, a brother of the erstwhile famous Steve White, was on the mound for the Westfield team but was hit hard by the 'Plains sluggers throughout the whole game. There were several disputes during the day on account of some poor decisions by Umpire Dally, who officiated in both games.

The scores:

MORNING GAME
Bound Brook.

	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
J. Adler, 2b	0	0	1	2	0
Bollinger, rf	0	0	2	0	0
Roberson, lf	0	2	5	0	0
Poole, c, Graham, c	0	2	4	0	0
Nolan, cf	0	2	0	0	0
Manning, 3b	1	1	0	2	0
Meehan, 1b	1	2	12	0	0
Powers, ss	1	1	0	2	0
Smith, p	0	0	0	4	0
Ortleib,	0	0	0	0	0
Total	3	10	24	10	0

Scotch Plains.

	R.	H.	P.O.	A.	E.
J. Alberts, rf	0	1	3	0	1
Gray, 3b	2	1	1	5	0
Frentz, 1b	2	1	9	0	0
MacLaughlin, p	0	2	0	1	0
Flannery, lf	0	0	0	0	0
H. Alberts, c	0	1	7	1	0
Washburn, 2b	0	1	4	3	0
Mullin, ss	1	2	1	2	2
Baldwin, cf	1	0	2	0	0
Total	6	9	27	12	3

Score by innings:
Bound Brook ...0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 1—3
Scotch Plains ...0 0 0 0 0 3 0 3 x—6

AFTERNOON GAME.
Score by innings:

	R.	H.
Westfield ..0 0 3 5 0 0 1 3 0—12	16
'Plains ....1 2 0 1 2 3 0 0 0— 9	12

Batteries—White and Seery; Foley, J. Alberts and H. Alberts. Umpire, R. H. B. Dalley.

Crowds at Playgrounds.

The municipal playgrounds of this city were officially opened for the summer this morning. All the play spots were crowded with youngsters, who played all morning on the new apparatus. Over a hundred children were cared for at the Irving School yard and the other grounds were almost as crowded.

Will Attend Anniversary.

Hugh Hosie, of South Second street, will leave tomorrow on the Mauretania of the Cunard Line, for his former home in Glasgow, Scotland, where on July 15 he will attend the fiftieth wedding anniversary of his parents. He secured passage through the agency of Mulford Estil, of Park avenue.

Mayor Holds Levee.

'Mayor' W. de laR. Anderson, of Watchung, gave a lawn party to about 150 friends at his home last night. There was an impromptu program of vocal and instrumental selections and a fine display of fireworks. Cooling refreshments were served during the evening.

Deike—Brennan.

The marriage of Miss Mary Brennan and William Deike, both of this city, took place last Friday night at St. Mary's rectory, Father Bogan officiating. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Cecilia Brennan and John Deike, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Mrs. Melissa Reid.

Mrs. Melisa Reid, colored, died early yesterday morning at her home on East Front street. She had been in failing health for some time and the end was not entirely unexpected. Her home was with James Babbitt and she had nursed the latter's wife previous to her death last Tuesday. The funeral will be private.

Funeral of an Infant.

The funeral service of Leonard F. Ward, Jr., aged 10 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Ward, was held at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of the parents, 539 West Fourth street. The child died on Monday after a short illness.

Local Horses at Westfield.

L. B. Harris won second money in the first race at Westfield, yesterday, his horse, "Review Bells," driven by Thomas Brantingham, finishing second in the last two heats. A. C. Blair's horse, "Aron B.," finished fourth.

William VanDeventer, of East Fifth street, has gone to "Valentines," The Glen, N. Y.

Mrs. Francis deLacy Hyde and children, of Mountain avenue, returned today from California.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Mauro, of East Second street, are parents of a boy, born to them on Monday.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
ARE HEADQUARTERS FOR VEGETABLES
Asparagus, Green Beans, Boston Lettuce, Tomatoes, Egg Plant, Celery, Cucumbers, Spinach, Radishes, Beets, Rhubarb.
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

AMUSEMENTS.
BOYNTON BEACH
CHILDREN'S DAY
SATURDAYS IN JUNE
FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND SWINGS AND SLIDE
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS
PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Bond-Benton Co., sketch, "His Gay Papa;" Deodato Sensational Italian Necromancer; Hillebrand & DeLong, "Athlete and Singing Venus;" Sprague & Dixon in "A Mile of Laughs."

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 820-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

Mrs. Judson Stewart, of Willow avenue, has gone to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Martin, formerly of this city, but now of Newark, are parents of a girl born to them a few days ago.

JohnC. Schinkle, proprietor of the O-X-O bakery, on North avenue, has removed with his family from Englewood to 144 Netherwood avenue.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40, Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers' License—1228. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 902-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094-Gramercy.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants. Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

DIED.

WARD—On Monday, July 3, 1911, Leonard F. Ward, Jr., son of Leonard F. and Emma F. Ward, aged 10 months.

Funeral services at the residence of his parents, 539 West Fourth street, on Wednesday, July 5th, at 3:30 p. m.

HORAN—In this city, July 5, 1911, Mrs. Mary Horan, widow of the late Thaddeus Horan, in her 79th year.

Funera' from her late residence, 420 West Seventh street, Friday, July 7, at 8:30 a .m., and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a solemn requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Good laundress by the day, white. Apply evenings, 541 Stelle avenue. 7 5 tf

WANTED—Young girl to assist in kitchen. 'Phone 290-W, or call 433 East Seventh street. 6 28 tf

WANTED—Cook and waitress at 338 East Front street. 7 5 4

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

WANTED—Colored woman as laundress, plain cook. Apply Restaurant, 179 North avenue. E. H. Clevely. 7 1 3

OFFICE girl wanted at Independent Ice Co., 138 North avenue. Call in person. 7 3 2

WANTED—OPERATORS, ALSO LEARNERS, ON LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR; PAID WHILE LEARNING. SCHILLER BROS., 320 WEST FRONT STREET. 6 8 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage Mulford opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 3 31 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. in sums to suit, on good mortgages. Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—2 good boys to learn plumbing trade. Call 23 Vine street. 7 5 3

CARPENTERS wanted. 423 John street. 7 5 3

YOUNG man wanted for general work. 441 West Front street.

BOY wanted; work about house and grounds. Address Permanent, care Press. 7 3 2

FOR RENT.

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms. 671 West Fourth street. 7 5 tf

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire over Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

THREE rooms to let for light housekeeping; city water. 321 Lyman place. 7 1 3

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 8 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 6 27 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO RENT—Four rooms and bath, $20; heat and hot water furnished; desirable location. Address D, care Press. 6 29 6

FOR RENT—From July 1, eight-room house, all latest improvements, nice grounds; $32.50; also seven-room house, part improvements; $17.00; apartments to rent. D. F. Dugan, 521 East Seventh street. 6 15 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Black "Post" Fountain Pen. Reward. Dr. Lowrie. 7 3 3

LOST—Gold signet ring, initials P. M. D. Reward at 42 Mountain avenue. 7 3 6

LOST—On road from Martinsville, silk scarf. Return to this office. 7 3 3

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 2 1 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants position as general houseworker. 215 Muhlenberg place. 7 5 3

POLISH girl wants place at general housework; plain cook, wash and iron. Call 434 West Second street. 7 3 2

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FOR SALE—Surrey and business wagon. H. Ryno, 145 Manning avenue. 7 1 3

FOR SALE—3 pure bred rabbit puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanizing, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 2 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

THE EXCHANGE, No. 825 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 30 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—to purchase a gas range; must be in good order. Apply at 921 Watchung avenue. 7 5 2

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

WANTED—Runabout in good condition; state type, year and price; must be cheap. Address Auto, care Press. 7 1 3

SECOND hand lumber wanted for cash. Address Cash, Press office. 7 1 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 2 16 tf

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

King George reviewed 35,000 boy scouts in Windsor Great Park.

Ex-President Benjamin Harrison's home in Indianapolis is to be sold under partition proceedings..

Public buildings erected from a fund of $100 established a century ago were dedicated at Goshen, Mass.

Emil Seidel, Socialist Mayor of Milwaukee, was burned about the head and face when flames burst from a gas heater.

And automobile carrying five persons was run down by a trolley car near Providence, R. I., and three of the party were killed.

Charles C. Witmer was thrown 400 feet to the ground and badly injured by the capsizing of his biplane at Pittsfield, Mass.

President Taft spoke in Indianapolis on reciprocity, declaring it to be good Republican doctrine and a benefit to American farmers.

Harry N. Atwood battled against heavy winds and lack of gasolene and flew from Governor's Island to Atlantic City in five hours.

The lure of the waters of the metropolitan district for refreshment from the oppressive heat led to fourteen moer deaths from drowning.

Germany ordered the third class cruiser Berlin to replace the gunboat Panther at Agadir, Morocco, thus tripling her force at that point.

Thirty more deaths and hundreds of prostrations in New York were ascribed to the hot wave, which continues with practically unabated fury.

Enraged by a juvenile celebration of the holiday, the janitor of a tenement house in New York shot a boy, killed his father and wounded another man.

William T. Stead, in a tribute to George Washington, proposed that a statue of "the greatest Englishman of the eighteenth century" should be placed at Westminster.

Americans in all the large cities of the world celebrated the Fourth by receptions and banquets; 4,000 attended the reception given at Dorchester House, the residence of the Ambassador in London.

Tammany held its customary Fourth of July celebration with long talks, short talks and the like, but the heat caused the attendance to be far below the usual point.

President Fallieres arrived at Amsterdam on the French warship Edgar Quinet, and was received by Queen Wilhelmina and the Prince Consort of the Netherlands.

The crisis in the veto bill was reached when Lord Lansdowne in the House of Peers moved the official opposition amendments thereto; votes thereon will be taken today.

The govenment thermometers in Chicago at the weather station registered more than 101 at 5 o'clock yesterday, and on the street level at the same time showed 104 degrees.

The New York State Superintendent of Insurance has obtained orders from the Supreme Court to dissolve the Empire State and Citizen's Fire Insurance associations and distribute the assets in the form of dividends.

More than five hundred celebrations of Independence Day were held in New York, the most important being at City Hall, where the Mayor reviewed a parade of nations, and the aldermen held a special meeting to commemorate the centenary of the building; there were fewer accidents and fires, and the only fatality was in the case of a little girl whose clothing was set on fire by a firecracker.

—Use Press want ads.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

BROOKLY
BUFFALO

PHILADELPHIA
NEW YORK

NEWARK.

OPPENHEIM, COLLINS & Co

Broad and William Sts., Newark

Before-Inventory Clearance Sale.

Women's and Misses' Tailored Suits,

Lingerie, Foulard, Dimity and Linen Dresses,

Coats of Pongee, Serge, Satin and Linen,

Lingerie, Chiffon and Net Waists,

Children's Coats and Dresses,

Separate Skirts and Petticoats,

Offered beginning Wednesday, July 5, 1911,

at a Great Reduction.

We Close Saturdays at 12:30 Until After Labor Day

BUT — we are open for business from Monday morning until Saturday noon.

THIS WEEK WE OFFER — very attractive bargains in Porch Furniture. Willow Chairs—Reed Porch Tables—Porch Rockers—Rattan Couches and Old Hickory Chairs and Tables.

BABY CARRIAGES — A fine line of Reed Hood Pullman Sleeper Carriages, corduroy lining and large rubber tires. Prices from $12.50 to $30.00.

Refrigerators, Bed Hammocks, Reed Chairs

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

This Store Will Not Be Open Evenings During July and August, Excepting Saturday, July 1

HAHNE & CO

•IMPORTERS• NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS •RETAILERS•

THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

Importance of the July FURNITURE SALE to the People of New Jersey

Consider the fact that we offer in this July movement every piece of furniture with most trifling exceptions in our gigantic stocks at prices from 10 to 33 1-3 per cent. less than regular markings.

Consider, also, that all the furniture in this sale is identical in character with that which forms the basis for our great business—every stick of it dependable, trustworthy and beautiful.

Consider, again, the fact that stocks are up to their fullest assortment and that there will be a wide variety of every kind of all-the-year round furniture, and porch and lawn furniture of every description included in the sale.

One more important fact—you can buy any of this furniture on our Easy Payment Club Plan.

THIS THREE-PIECE SUIT.

Mahogany finish frames, nicely polished; sofa quite large; large arm chair and comfortable rocker; heavy design of frames, polished panels in the back; cushions in seat are loose and tied with cord and tassels, filled with all hair; can be removed for cleaning purposes. Choice of coverings—silk, plush, silk velour, panne plush. Our regular price $72.00, July Sale Price $45

GRAND DISPLAY OF DINING ROOM FURNITURE.

In quartered oak, golden and Early English finishes, mahogany, polished or dull, and special colors—Sideboards, Side Tables, China Closets, Chairs, Extension Tables.

Liberal reductions on all, in our July Sale.

VARIETY OF STYLES IN WHITE ENAMEL FURNITURE.

Greater than at any previous season. including gray enamel shaded ivory white and pure white, plain and decorated. English Somnoes, Toilet Dressers, Cheval Glasses, Writing Desks, Rockers, Chairs, Chiffoniers, Bedsteads, Bureau, Tables, Costumers, Washstands. Every article reduced during this month, JULY.

SIDEBOARDS.

As shown in this picture; all parts made of quartered oak, golden finish, polished; base is 22 inches deep and 4 feet long; in the front has a slight swell in shape; has claw feet; mirror in the top of best quality French plate, size 14x40; shelf supported by neat plain design. Regular price $35.00. July Sale price...$29

CHINA CLOSETS.

These beautiful closets are built of quartered oak, highly polished; in design just like illustration; mirror at top, reflecting mirrors in two upper panels; bent glass in each end; bent glass panel in door; 40 inches wide; regular price $35.00. July Sale price $27

EXTENSION TABLES.

Same as this illustration; have a 44-inch top and extend to 6 feet, in quartered oak top and leaves; golden oak finish, polished; have a 10-inch upright pedestal, legs are 3 inches, with 4-inch claw and O. G. molded rim. Regular price $25; July Sale Price $16

DINING ROOM CHAIRS.

Like we picture here; made of quartered oak with a very fine polished finish; have shaped legs; box frame; best quality of open woven cane seat; back with a neatly designed panel; also with pad leather seat. This is one of our exclusive designs; regular price, canes, $2.50, July Sale, Price, $1.98; regular price leather, $3.25; July Sale Price.....$2.50

CHIFFONIERS.

Base has a fancy shape top and is 32 inches wide; contains 5 large drawers, all having locks, keys and wood knobs, nicely finished in white enamel; mirror is of best quality; size 16x20; swings in the standards; regular price $12.50; July Sale Price $10.50

BEDROOM CHAIRS.

Made of hardwood; square tapered legs; neat design of spindle back; open cane seat; frame and cane are neatly enameled; just as pictured here; regular price $2.00; July Sale Price.....$1.50

DRESSERS.

All white enamel; smooth, glossy finish; base 36 inches long; has 2 large and 2 small drawers; wood knobs; French bevel mirror size 20x24, in adjustable swinging frame; just the article for summer furnishing; regular price $12.75; July Sale Price $11

ROCKERS.

Suitable for bedroom use; matching the chair; have square urpights in the base; strong runners; all parts of the wood, including open cane seat, are neatly white enameled; as illustrated; regular price $3.50; July Sale Price.....$3

DRESSERS.

Same as pictured here, made of mahogany and birdseye maple, nicely finished, size of base 23x45, plate glass is of best quality beveled, size 24x30. Solid veneer backs on the base; dustproof drawers; regular price $35.00; July Sale Price $31

A variety of Bedroom Furniture in mahogany, Circassian Walnut, Birdseye Maple, Quartered Oak.

All Reduced in July Sale.

THESE CHIFFONIERS.

Beautiful indeed; made of finely selected mahogany and birdseye maple; base is 22x35, contains four large and two small drawers; dustproof panels between every drawer; best imported French plate mirror, size 18x22; regular price $35.00; July Sale Price $31

IRON BEDS.

Same as pictured; one of the very newest in fashion; a simple and elegant design; the corner posts and top rails of the head and foot are 2 inches square; filling rods are 7-8 inch round, bottom rods are 1 1-16 inch; heavy brass caps on the posts; brass mounted casters, lignum vitae wheels; three coats of finish on these beds; perfect, hard, smooth and gleaming white, like porcelain; bed is a beautiful combination of brass and white; regular price $15; July Sale price....$10

FIRST CLASS BEDDING INCLUDED IN OUR JULY SALE AT MUCH REDUCED PRICES.

We represent the best manufacturers of bedding, and our stock is dependable.

The display includes Brass Beds, Metal Beds, Brass Cribs, Metal Cribs, Bolsters, Mattresses, Box Springs, Hair Mattresses, Metal and Sliding Couches, Cots, Divans, Pillows, Springs, Feather Pillows, Felt and Cotton.

OFFICE CHAIRS AND DESKS.

Same as illustration, suitable for house or office; sanitary leg construction; made of nicely selected oak and the top or writing bed is of 5-ply built-up quartered oak. Drawers are hardwood and fitted with movable partitions. Right hand pedestal has double drawers suitable for books. Centre drawer in the knee space. It is 32 inches deep, regulation height, made in three different lengths. No desk can be better bulit.

Price of 50-in. $21, July sale price..$19.00

Price of 55-inch, $23.50; July Sale Price $21.50.

Price of 60-inch, $25.50; July Sale price $23.50.

Chairs—Same as accompanying cut, made of nicely selected oak, solid wood seat, saddle shape, polished. It revolves and can be adjusted to any height and reclines to any position; regular price, $6.25; July Sale Price.....$5.25

(Desks of all kinds, greatly reduced in our July Sale).

$21 COUCHES, $15.

As shown in this picture, 6 feet 2 inches long and 30 inches wide; frame is of quartered oak, golden finish; end is slightly rounded, fluted ball foot, carved at head. It is nicely tufted and plaited on the sides, has a comfortable sloping head, steel open spring construction inside, and may be had in your choice of two coverings—chase leather green and also red velour. Regular price $21. July Sale Price $15

(Velour and Leather Couches of all kinds at great reductions).

MORRIS CHAIRS.

Like the illustrations; made of quartered oak, golden finish and mahogany finish; has a strongly constructed base, fancy shape arms, turned spindles in the sides, carved on the front, back is easily adjusted to any desired position.

Cushions—are of plain green and red, also fancy designs; all edges are neatly finished; nicely tufted and rounded corners.

Regular price $10.25 July sale price $8

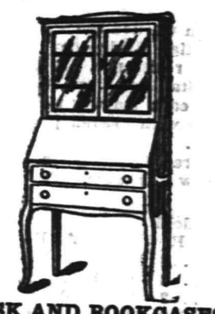
(Reclining chairs of every kind reduced in July Sale).



DESK AND BOOKCASES.

Same as illustrated; familiar to most people as a secretary's desk; mahogany finish; stands 62 inches high, is 28 inches wide; there are two convenient drawers; French shaped legs; spaces at the top for books; has a drop writing lid and convenient arrangement inside, such as are usually found in writing desks; a well-built article in every detail.

Regular price $17.00 July Sale price, $12.50.

(Writing desks of every description marked down in our July Sale.)

$2.50 ROCKER AT $1.90.

Same as this illustration; made of first quality flat and round reeds; prettily interwoven design in the back; has a roll arm extending around the top; height is correct for comfort; base is made of maple and strongly put together; all parts are neatly shellacked; in the July sale..$1.90

(Greatly reduced July Sale prices on our entire stock of all Rockers; large assortment).

HAHNE & CO. Broad, New & Halsey Streets, Newark

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

CHAPTER XXIX.

By Force of Arms.

With her heart throbbing fiercely, Hope clung to the outer door of the vestibule endeavoring to see a little of what was transpiring without. About her was dense darkness, and she dare not explore the surroundings. Behind could be heard, through what must have been a thin partition, the various distractions of the stage, shifting scenery, music, shuffling feet, voices, and the occasional sound of applause. The girl had nerved herself to the encounter with Hawley, but this waiting here in darkness and uncertainty tried her to the uttermost. If some one should venture out that way how could she excuse her presence or explain her purpose? She found herself trembling in every limb from nervous fear, startled by every strange sound. Would the man never come? Surely Christie herself must be ready to depart by this time.

Almost prepared to flee before the terrors thus conjured up within her mind, they left her as if by magic the moment her straining eyes distinguished the approach of a dim figure without. She could not tell who it was, only that it was the unmistakable form of a man, and that he was whistling softly to himself. It might not prove to be the gambler, but she must accept the chance, for flesh and blood could stand the strain of waiting no longer. Yet she was not conscious of fear, only of exultation, as she stepped forth into the open, her blood again circulating freely in her veins. At the slight creak of the door the man saw her, his whistle ceasing, his hat lifted. Instantly she recognized him as Hawley, her heart leaping with the excitement of encounter.

"Why, hullo, Christie," he said familiarly, "I thought I was early, and expected a ten minutes' wait. I came out as soon as you left the stage."

"Oh, I can dress in a jiffy when there is any cause for hurry," Hope responded, permitting herself to drift under his guidance. "Are you disappointed? Would you prefer to commune with nature?"

"Well, I should say not," drawing her hand through his arm, and then patting it with his own. "I have seen about all I care to of nature, but not of Christie Maclaire."

"You may learn to feel the same regarding her," Hope answered, afraid to encourage the man, yet eagerly fearful lest she fail to play her part aright.

"Not the slightest danger," laughing lightly, and pressing her arm more closely against his body. "Although I must confess you exhibited some temper when I was late to-night."

"Did I not have occasion to? A woman should never be kept waiting, especially if her engagement be imperative."

"Oh, I am not finding any fault, you little spit-fire. I like you all the better because you fight. But the trouble was, Christie, you simply jumped on me without even asking how it occurred. You took it for granted I was late on purpose to spite you."

"Well, weren't you?" and the girl glanced inquiringly up into his face, as they passed out of the alley into the light of the Trocadero's windows. "You certainly acted that way."

"No, I did not; but you wouldn't listen, and besides I had no time then to explain. There's a lot happened this afternoon I want to tell you about. Will you give me time to talk with you?"

"Why, of course," surprised at the question, yet full of eagerness. "Why should you ask that?"

"Because I want you alone where no one can overhear a syllable. I'm afraid of that damned hotel. You never know who is in the next room, and the slightest whisper travels from one end to the other. That is one way in which Keith got onto our deal—he had a room next to Willoughby and Scott, and overheard them talking. I'm not going to take any more chances. Will you go to 'Sheeny Joe's' with me?"

She drew back from him.

"'Sheeny Joe's?' You mean the saloon near the depot?"

"Sure; what's the use of being so squeamish? You sing and dance to a saloon crowd, don't you? Oh, I know you're a good girl, Christie, and all that. I'm not ranking you with these fly-by-nights around here. But there's no reason that I can see why you should shy so at a saloon. Besides, you won't see any one. Joe has got some back room where we can be alone, and have a bite to eat while we're talking. What do you say?"

"Oh, I would rather not," Hope faltered, bewildered by this unexpected request, already half-tempted to break away and run. "Really I—I don't want to go there."

Hawley was evidently surprise at this refusal, naturally supposing from her life that Miss Maclaire's scruples would be easily overcome. This obstinacy of the girl aroused his anger.

"You women beat the devil," he ejaculated, gruffly, "pretending to be so damn particular. Maybe you'd rather stand out there on the prairie and talk?" with a sweep of his hand around the horizon.

"Yes, I would," catching desperately at the straw. "I'm not afraid of you; I'm not blaming you at all, only I—I don't want to go to 'Sheeny Joe's.'"

He looked at her, puzzled at her attitude, and yet somewhat reassured by her expression of confidence. Oh, well, what was the difference? It might be better to let her have her own way, and the change would not materially interfere with his plans. Of course, it would be pleasanter sitting together at one of Joe's tables, but he could talk just as freely out yonder under the stars. Besides, it might be as well now to humor the girl.

"All right, Christie," his voice regaining its pleasant tone. "You shall have your way this time. There is too much at stake for us to quarrel over this."

Frightened, yet not daring to resist or exhibit the least reluctance, she clung to his arm, and permitted him to lead her to the right down a dark passage and out into the open land beyond. He had to feel his way carefully, and scarcely spoke, yet proceeded as though the passage was reasonably familiar and he had some definite point in view. She answered, in monosyllables, now thoroughly regretful of having permitted herself to drift into this position, yet not in the least knowing how to extricate herself. Hawley took everything for granted, her very silence convincing him of her acquiescence. With throbbing pulse, Hope felt the small revolver hidden within her dress, undoing a button so that, in emergency, she might grasp it more quickly. Hawley felt the movement, the trembling of her arm.

Mad With Terror, She Pulled the Trigger.

"You are afraid, just the same," he said, pressing her to him lover-like. "Darkness always gets on a woman's nerves."

(To Be Continued.)

The Steel Vaults and Formidable Bars and Locks which make up the modern safe deposit vaults are not only confined to the use of the wealthy.

The man of modest means as well as the man of wealth requires a place of safety for his valuable papers, contracts and other articles of value.

The Safe Deposit Vaults of Fidelity Trust Co.

NEWARK, N. J.,

are the largest in New Jersey. Boxes can be obtained from $5 per year up.

Before leaving for the country, write or 'phone us, and a representative of this department will call to arrange for the care of your valuables.

Absolute Sense of Security In the Purchase of a Mathushek & Son Piano

The seeker of a piano may come to our ware-rooms, choose from a large collection of proved instruments, and he will find the very best of Pianos and the best of Player-Pianos.

He will find our terms the fairest and most liberal.

In other words, we are determined that our piano patrons shall enjoy an ABSOLUTE SENSE of SECURITY.

This means more than good intentions. It means that WE first of all must possess that sense of absolute security in building the PIANOS TO BE SOLD.

THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD

with many valuable improvements

FACTORY DIRECT TO BUYER MEANS A LARGE SAVING.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.

No. 310 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1365

SPECIAL NOTICE—High grade and artistic tuning and repairing Pianos and Player-Pianos by factory experts.

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE

1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

HAWES STRAW HATS—better than ever—$2.00 & $3.00

PANAMAS $5.00 and $6.00

119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

Beginning July 8th and continuing until September 2nd, this store will close at 6 p. m. Fridays and at 1 p. m. Saturdays.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY. STS.

Not open Friday evenings
Close Saturday at 1 p. m.

Rev. T. Aird Moffet, pastor of the First Congregational Jube Memorial Church, in a recent sermon on the subject of Friday night closing said, in part:

"The age of competition is passing and the era of co-operative action is upon us, and already some of its benefits are in evidence. The public has also a responsibility. We must adjust our program to the new order and do our shopping within the hours provided by this new arrangement. Labor itself must, with unselfish wisdom, discover some way to help in the solution of this problem rather than to hinder the good work."

Beginning next Saturday the larger stores will close at 1 p. m. Saturdays, and, contrary to a custom long in vogue, remain closed Friday evenings.

The department stores took this action for the benefit of the employees, solely, and it now remains, as the Rev. Moffett says, for the buying public to adjust its shopping accordingly.

We don't believe the Friday night closing will work any hardship upon the public at large; on the contrary we believe this new order of things will meet with the commendation of every reasonable person.

Don't come down next Friday night expecting to find the stores open, and don't put off your buying until late in the week. Your individual co-operation is necessary in this matter. May we count upon your help?

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

NEWARK, N.J.

From July 7th to Sept. 2nd inclusive, this store will close Friday evenings at 6 o'clock and Saturdays at 1 p. m., other days as usual at 5:30 p. m.

Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. Plaut & Co.

BEE HIVE, New Jersey's Shopping Centre, NEWARK

Sale of Summer Dresses

The sale of summer dresses has simply become phenomenal with us this season, and that accounts for the immense variety we carry. Now we announce a sale and those who respond will secure a bargain.

Women's Reg. 1.50 & 2.00 Dresses

It is the clean up, and we therefore cannot guarantee all sizes in any one style, but there is a good assortment of sizes in the collection; lawns, percales, light effects, cool and summery; low necks, pipe trim or lace yokes; open front or back at side, very pretty; special at $1.19

Women's 3.98 Summer Dresses

Summer dresses at $2.75; this lot embraces women's and misses' sizes, in lawns, percales and ginghams. Lawns are all the go and these are beauties, a particularly pretty model is a low neck, one with waist lace trimmed, skirt is plain with flounce headed with a deep tuck and lace; a wonderful seller at $3.98; others ginghams, side effect fastening front, others opening back; special at $2.75

Women's Reg. 5.00 to 6.00 Dresses

The very choice of the season; none reserved. Dresses that have sold in large quantities at $5.00 to $7.00, splendid quality lawns, repps, ginghams, tissues, linens, dimities; in a great variety of patterns as well as plain colors, dozens of styles including the Dix make, which is recognized as the peer of any dress made in this market; too many styles to attempt description; special at.. $3.98

Women's Reg. 7.50 to 10.00 Summer Dresses

This lot includes dresses right up to $10.00, and there will be none in the lot selling regularly at less than $7.50; all on one large table, arranged for easy selection. John Anderson ginghams, dimities, tussahs, lawns, swiss and other fabrics; misses' and women's sizes, low or high neck, plain or dressy dresses; a delightful collection and many at half price; special at..... $5.00

$12.50 and $13.50 Dresses at $7.75.

$15.00 and $16.50 Dresses at $10.00.

$19.50 to $22.50 Dresses at $14.50.

711 TO 721 BROAD ST. NEWARK.

ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

BURDENS LIFTED.

From Plainfield Backs—Relief Proved by Lapse of Time.

Backache is a heavy burden;
Nervousness wears one out;
Rheumatic pain; urinary ills;
All are kidney burdens—
Daily effects of kidney weakness.
No use to cure the symptoms,
Relief is bu temporary if the cause remains.

Cure the kidneys and you cure the cause.

Relief comes quickly—comes to stay.

Doan's Kidney Pills help the kidneys.

Here's proof that you can verify.

A. K. Mattis, 127 West Fourth street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I gave Doan's Kidney Pills my endorsement five years ago after receiving a cure through their use and today I confirm all I then said in their praise. My cure has been permanent."

(Statement given January 20, 1911).

On August 28, 1905, Mr. Mattis said: "I was troubled for years by a dull backache and pains in my head. I believe that my trouble was due in a great measure to a bad fall I had. Nothing semed to help me and when I read of the good work Doan's Kidney Pills were doing in similar cases, I got a supply at Randolph's Drug Store. Their use drove away my aches and pains and my experience gave proof of their merits."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

JOS. F. BURKE

718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R

Successor to Mrs. John Brown

General Contractor and Grader

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North avenue., 'Phone 994.

Postoffice Box 718.

For prices address

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

INDEPENDENCE

The spirit of 1776 still prevails. Be independent of high prices by purchasing your Tea, Coffee, Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables of W. W. Dunn and You Will Save Money.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Duer St. Lincoln Pl

IF there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.

407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

CHAS. E. VAIL

Jeweler and Optician

has RE-OPENED at his new location

236 Park Avenue

Opposite North Ave.

All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.

Eastman's Kodak Supplies

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS

110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Go to John Lopresti's

495 WATCHUNG AVENUE

Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.

'PHONE 448-J.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

COME RAIN COME SUNSHINE

In all seasons and for all occasions there is to be found in the

Made In Berkshire

line manufactured by

Eaton, Crane & Pike Co.

a distinctive something which appeals to all users of fine writing paper.

Crane's Linen Lawn

in the new fashionable shades are the daintiest creations for this season.

Come in and see them

Lenox Stationery Store

102 Madison Ave.

TEL. 1036-R. BABCOCK BUILDING.

The Little Store Around the Corner.

Typewriters Bought, Sold, Rented and Repaired (all makes.)

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement

Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Estimates Furnished.

Jobbing a Specialty.

1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 347-J

FRANK NEIDIG'S

LINCOLN MEAT MARKET

Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."

94 Somerset St.

Telephone—781.

SAFETY FOR VAULABLES

OUR STORAGE VAULT is of fire and burglar-proof construction, is free from dampness and is large enough to accommodate trunks and boxes of all sizes.

Storage rates 50c a month and upwards.

OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT is also of fire and burglar-proof construction and affords absolute protection for valuable papers, jewelry, etc. It is equipped with boxes of all sizes.

Safe Deposit rates $5.00 a year upwards.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.

LOCAL CYCLERS WON PLACES AT RAHWAY

The Plainfield Cycle Club entered several of its members in the twenty-five mile handicap road race at Rahway yesterday but the best that the local boys could do was to get twenty-second place. William Drake was the first Plainfield rider to finish, he having had only a four minute handicap and finishing in twenty-second place. Eddie Simons was twenty-sixth with a start of three minutes. Robert Gullberg, twenty-seventh with four minutes, Paul Phillips twenty-eighth with four minutes and George Simons twenty-ninth with two minutes.

The race was a hotly contested one, over eighty speedy riders having entered. Clarence Benz, of Jersey City, with a handicap of six minutes finished first. The course was layed between Rahway and Elizabeth, being three laps to the twenty-five miles. Good time was made respite the intense heat.

William Simons, George Jones and Ernest Mantz, three other Plainfielders who started in the race, were obliged to drop out on account of punctures. Several members of the local cycling club made the trip to Rahway by wheel and helped bring home the prizes.

ERRORLESS GAME IS PLAYED AT WATCHUNG

The North Plainfield Township Improvement Society team took the nine representing the Watchung Firemen into camp yesterday morning on Wilson field. After the smoke had rolled back by the zephyrs wafting over the crest of the Watchung range, the score stood 4 to 5, but the firemen contested that in the intense excitement the scorer missed one of their runs. And so another meeting has been arranged to take place in the near future.

The game as played was in a class by itself, being an errorless one and captured by clean and healthy, though sparse, hitting, but hitting at the right time. The lineup was as follows; N. P. T. I. S., Bodin, p; Vail, c; Worrell, 1b; Demler, 2b; Featherstone, 3b; Clements, ss; Canning, lf; Fell, cf; Anderson, rf. Firemen, P. Kelm, c; Stutz, p; Allen, 1b; W. Demler, 2b; Triano, 3b, Texier, ss; H. Klem, lf; W. Walker, cf; J. Walker, rf.

On account of the extreme heat, the midweek meeting of the Congregational church will be omitted this evening. The address by Miss Mary Dunning, of Mexico, will be given at some other time.

The William N. Runyon Bible class will have charge of the midweek prayer meeting at the Park Avenue Baptist church tonigat.

At the prayer meeting in the Crescent Avenue church tonight, William D. Murray wil tell about the great student conference just held at Northfield, Mass.

Statement of Condition June 30, 1911 (condensed)

As rendered to the Department of Banking and Insurance, State of New Jersey

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Railroad and other Bonds	$47,537.50	Capital Stock	$100,000.00
Loans and Investments	310,871.31	Surplus and Profit	44,675.48
Furniture and Fixtures	7,896.60	Reserved for Taxes	700.00
Cash	91,462.15	Deposits	312,725.79
Interest Accrued	583.71	Interest Accrued	250.00
	$458,351.27		$458,351.27

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

R. Henry Depew, President
E. F. Feickert, Vice-President M. C. VanArsdale, Vice-President
Frederic Coriell, Secretary-Treasurer

THREE HUNDRED AT THE FRESH AIR HOME

Miss Sara Curry, with three hundred mothers and children, arrived at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home this morning, where they will remain until September. The opening service of the camp will be held on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. George A. Chapman will preside, and the address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson. Raymond A. McGee, of the First M. E. church choir, will be the soloist, and Clifford A. Braider will have charge of the music.

The children's choir will also render special music. Services will also be held at the camp Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of each week to which the public is invited. Several improvements have been made at the camp since last summer, all tending to add to the comfort and convenience of the large family.

COUNCIL GETS ADVICE ON MAYOR'S ACTION

An opinion from Judge Gilbert Collins relative to the payment of certain claims which had been held up by Mayor Moy and later returned with the warrants signed, was received by the Common Council at its July meeting Monday evening. The matter had been referred to him for advice. Judge Collins said that in his opinion the matter was governed by chapter 128 of the laws of 1904, which requires the Mayor within ten days after the receipt of any bill or claim, which have been ordered paid, to either approve or disapprove the same. In the absence of an ordinance he must write the words "approved" or "disapproved," over his signature.

Judge Collins stated that there is no power for a resolution ordering claims paid to take effect after the expiration of ten days, and if the Mayor does not act and the only authority to repass a bill or claim is in case of disapproval. He, therefore, said it is not proper for the Council to act. In his opinion the city treasurer needs nothing further than the Mayor's signature to the check for his protection and may pay checks in that way.

It is understood that the bills held up by the Mayor have been paid. City Treasurer W. F. Arnold communicated with the Council asking for further instructions; also inquiring whether the Mayor could rightfully maintain a separate account. It is understood that the moneys received by Mayor Moy since January 1 from licenses of circuses, carnivals dances, etc., amounting to about $186, have been deposited by him in The Plainfield Trust Company. It is said that all such moneys according to law must be turned over to the city treasurer, as the custodian of city funds. No action was taken regarding this matter Monday night, but it is understood that legal advice will be secured on the subject.

Break Ground for Church.

With services conducted by Rev. M. W. Vaughn, pastor of Mt. Olive Baptist church, Rev. E. W. Roberts, pastor of Shiloh Baptist church, and Rev. D. E. Robertson, of Newark, ground was broken last evening for the new Mt. Olive church. Miss Maurica Vaughn, daughter of the pastor, turned the sod for the young women of the church, Harry Gordon, for the young men and Daniel Wyckoff for the adults. Mr. Wyckoff is the oldest member of the congregation and was present 40 years ago when ground for the present church was broken.

Dunellen Tied and Won.

The Dunellen baseball team played a ten inning tie yesterday morning at Dunellen with the Rahway Club, 3-3 and defeated the same nine in the afternoon to the tune of 9-5. Harney pitched for Dunellen in the morning and Frederickson officiated on the slab in the afternoon. Both games attracted a large crowd of rooters.

—Neuman Bros. will have for tomorrow's trade their usual fine display of choice fresh vegetables.

ELECTRIC FANS BRING BREEZES

Summer's heat loses half its terrors if you have an electric fan to make your cooling breezes to order.

You can get an 8-inch, 12-inch or 16-inch fan and have comfort in home or office at an expense of from one-quarter of one cent to one cent per hour.

Why swelter when relief is so readily obtainable?

Public Service Electric Co.

7-5-3

Scheuer's Bargains

FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Scheuer's Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour, 24½ Bag 75c; per Barrel - - - $5.90

Evaporated Milk Gold Cross Brand 3 tall 10c cans 23c	Borden's Malted Milk 45c size a bottle 38c	Imported Olive Oil 25c size a bottle 31c	Franklin Mills Entire Wheat Flour 25c size, 5-lb pkg. 21c	Percil Oxygen Washing Compound, 25c size 21c	Platt's Chloride Odorless Disinfectant 50c size, a bottle 38c
Schimmell' Salad Dressing large bottle 10c	Post Toasties Toasted Corn Flakes 10c size, a pkg. 8c	Breakfast Cocoa Gold Medal Brand 18c size, ½-lb can 15c	Shredded Wheat Co.'s Triscut 10c size, a package 8c	Johnson's Preserves 3-lb crock 23c	Pyles' Pearline Equal to 3 of the 10c size, pkg. 18c
Pure Italian Olive Oil Gallon can 2.75	Libby's Chow-Chow Quart Mason Jar 25c	Gold Dust Washing Powder 4-lb package 19c	Campbell's Soup 3 cans 25c	Choice Rice White and Clean 3 lbs 14c	Peeled Peaches Regular 22c a lb 17c

WASHINGTON ROCK CO GINGER ALE SARSAPARILLA, ROOT BEER OR BIRCH BEER, per doz. quart bottles...80c

Mother's Oatmeal 10c size package 23c	Pearl Hominy or Samp 5-lb bag 14c	G. Washington Prepared Coffee 35c kind, a can 30c	National Biscuit Co. Uneeda Biscuits a package 4c	Marshall's Kippered Herring in Tomato Sauce 8c	White Rolled Oats Fresh and Sweet 6-lbs for 18c
New Florida Potatoes 6-quart pony basket 43c	Franco-American Potted Beef 10c size, a can 8c	Bismark Herring a jar 23c	Mustard Sardine 10c size 3 cans for 25c	10 Stamps with 3 bunches Rhubarb 10c	10 Stamps with 2 Bunches Fresh Jersey Beets. 10c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Baking Powder 45c	100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Premium Teas 60c	70 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Tea 50c	30 Stamps with 1 lb Oolong, Mixed or English Breakfast 35c	20 Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java 32c	10 Stamps with 1 lb Coffee 23c

DRAKES POUND CAKE, RAISIN CAKE, MARBLE CAKE, FRUIT CAKE, a lb.....18c

10 S. & H. STAMPS WITH

Large Bottle Blue.....10c
1 Box Ball Blue.....10c
1 box Royal Talcum Powder.....10c
1 box Royal Tooth Powder.....10c
1 Package Macaroni.....10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla.....15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish.....10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline.....10c
1 Package Parlor Matches.....12c
Large Bottle Ammonia.....10c
7-lb Bag Salt.....10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish.....10c

20 S. & H. STAMPS WITH

3-lb box Gloss Starch.....20c
3 Large Rolls Toilet Paper.....25c
Large Bottle Witch Hazel.....25c
Large Bottle Harris Ammonia.....25c
Quart Bottle Welch's Grape Juice....45c
Large bot. Slick Shine Fur. Polish....25c
Large box Silver Star Stove Polish...15c
½-gallon Bottle Cider Vinegar.....20c
1 lb Premium Java Coffee.....27c

IN OUR VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT.

Fresh Asparagus, a bunch.....18c
California Juicy Oranges, dozen.....30c
Large Ripe Bananas, dozen.....20c
Fresh Wax Beans, a quart.....7c
Fresh Green Beans, a quart.....7c
Large Head Lettuce.....5c
Fresh Jersey Rhubarb, 3 bunches.....10c
New Yellow Onions, pony basket.....47c
New Florida Potatoes, pony basket...43c
Fresh Carrots, 3 bunches.....10c

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CHEESE.

Best American Old Cheese, lb.....18c
Best Imported Swiss Cheese, a lb....34c
Best Imported Roquefort Cheese, lb..40c
French Camembert Cheese, tin.....35c
Muenster Cheese, a lb.....24c
Best Limburger Cheese, lb.....20c
Philadelphia Cream Cheese, each....10c
Neufchatel Cream Cheese, each.....5c
Pimento Cream Cheese, jar.....15c
Pim-Oliv Cream Cheese, jar.....15c

CRACKERS AND BISCUITS.

Ivin's Spice Wafers, a lb.....12c
Fig Bars, a lb.....10c
H. & P. Breakfast Biscuits, 2 pkgs...25c
Frou-Frou-wafer, lb.....45c
Lemon Cake, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Ginger Snaps, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nic Nacs, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nabisco Sugar Wafers, pkg.....9c
Filigree Fingers, pkg.....9c
Five O'clock Teas or Social Teas, pkg.9c

SUMMER DRINKS.

Doles Pineapple Juice, bottle.....25c
Pure Juice of Lemons, bottle.....25c
Duffy's Apple Juice, bottle.....15c
Raspberry Syrup, bottle.....25c
Strawberry Syrup, bottle.....25c
Rose's Lime Juice, bottle.....20c
Orangeade Syrup, bottle.....25c
Grape Juice, ½-pint bottle.....10c
Hire's Root Beer Extract, bottle.....15c
Gold Medal Root Beer Extract, bot..10c

This store is truly for the economically inclined. The goods we sell are of dependable quality, so you are assured of getting satisfactory service out of any article you buy---then again our prices are the very lowest possible---so you are assured of getting full value for every dollar you spend. Could the most frugal economist ask more than that?

Balance of summer goods including

Porch Screens, Screen Doors, Porch Chairs, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Swings

at the most interesting prices.

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases

Always the largest stock of well-made serviceable goods in these lines and a real saving in price too.

Shirley & Johnston
Babcock Building

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

JULY SIXTH.

1747—John Paul Jones (John Paul) distinguished American naval commander, born in Kirkbean, Scotland; died July 18, 1792.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair tonight and Friday; not much change in temperature. Maximum, 97; minimum, 71.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

PLAYGROUND OPEN

Four Hundred Youngsters Enjoyed First Day's Sport at Play Places.

COMMISSION HOLDS MEETING.

Auxiliary Committee of Women Appointed to Help in the Playground Work—Change in Hours Announced.

Four hundred children went to bed tired and happy early last night after a day's enjoyment at the municipal playgrounds, which were officially opened in the morning for the season. The intense heat did not bother the youngsters in the least and they slid the slide and swung the swings as if there were no such thing as high temperature and humidity. When, however, the heat became too great in the afternoon. Herbert E. Parker, secretary of the playground commission, ordered the grounds closed for the day. It was a sad moment for the little children who were having "the time of their lives" and were then obliged to stop. But the directors of the grounds explained the situation and the youngsters left the yards reluctantly.

This morning the children swarmed back to the yards long before the gates were opened, anxiously waiting for 9:30 to arrive. By 10 o'clock nearly eighty youngsters were at each of the four playgrounds, all of which were cooled by the southwest breeze.

At the Bryant school yard, Miss Harriet E. Moe had the children seated in a circle under the shade of a large elm tree and was teaching them to make paper picture frames After these were completed the youngsters were given more difficult tasks in the form of work with laces. From these laces the children are learning to make baskets, small handbags, and picture frames. Several of the older ones acquired the art of making these last year under the direction of Miss Moe and they are helping the instructor this year in teaching the new comers what they have already learned.

One of the real values of the playground was shown this morning at the Bryant school yard when a little boy tried to get a shovel from another boy in the sand pile. The first youngster insisted on having the shovel and Miss Moe's attention was called to the disturbance when the boy began to cry while struggling for the desired play-thing. The supervisor then applied the remedy, which consisted in punishing the boy for his selfishness by sending him home. The little boy came back to the playground with his mother who asked why her son had been sent away. Miss Moe told her that her boy had been selfish at which the parent stated that she never knew her son to have that sort of a disposition.

Miss Mary L. Childs, who is in charge of the playground at the Franklin school yard, has already started to organize the children in groups, which are to be in charge of weekly monitors. This system was used last year, the monitors being appointed every day but it is believed that the weekly appointments will tend toward producing more efficient results. During the mornings, each group will play on a piece of apparatus for a half hour, at the end of which time Miss Childs will blow a whistle and the children will change places.

The playground commission held a meeting last night in the Mayor's office, four members, George P. Mellick, Harry W. Marshal, George L. Babcock and Herbert E. Parker, being present. An auxiliary committee of three women was appointed by the commission, consisting of Mrs. William E. Gibbs, of Watchung avenue, Mrs. Elory G. Bowers, of Woodland avenue, and Mrs. Stephen Voorhees, of Madison avenue, all of whom are deeply interested in the playground work. These women will each select an additional member of the committee. It is expected that the auxiliary committee will take charge of the manual training and industrial work at the playgrounds as well as get other women interested in the playgrounds.

The commission decided to have the playgrounds close at 5 o'clock in the afternoon instead of at 6 as it was first announced on the schedule. It was also voted to have all the pieces of apparatus covered over with either wooden or canvass roofs in order to protect the children from sunstroke. The report on the new Parker field was read. The field, it is stated, would surely be ready by Labor Day, that the ground had been prepared for a boys' gymnasium frame, that the tennis courts were almost complete and that the foundations for the shelter house had been dug.

—Try Press want ads. They bring results.

MANY PROSTRATED

Only Three Victims of the Heat Reported But There Were Many Others.

SOME RELIEF AGAIN PROMISED.

Thermometer in Shady Places Registers 99 Today and the Official Forecaster Says It is Ninety-Nine and a Half Degrees.

The Government weather sharps made the welcome announcement today that there will be a break in the heat wave and that by late tonight or tomorrow something like normal conditions will prevail again, much to the great relief of the whole country. According to the information from Washington the barometric depression which is now over the Mississippi Valley will advance eastward and cause areas of cloudiness and precipitation as far as New England during Thursday.

This low pressure is now over the Mississippi Valley and rains have fallen as far as the lake region, and the cooler weather is moving southeastward over the Rocky Mountain regions.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon one reliable thermometer registered 99 degrees, which is the same as yesterday at the same hour. The official thermometer yesterday was 97 and today it was 2½ degrees higher. Last night the weather conditions were as trying as on the several nights previous and to many sleep was out of the question, except in cases where a person was fortunate enough to have a bed room on the south side of the house.

There were three cases of heat prostration reported yesterday, Joseph Costella, an Italian, employed by Mobus & Burke, the contractors, who are macadamizing West Front street, who was removed to the hospital. He was reported to be improved today. James Brennan, aged 32 years, of Madison avenue, was found in a vacant lot on West Front street, 1st night, unconscious from the heat. He was taken to the hospital, where he is improving. George J. Finger, the shoe merchant, was overcome at his store during the afternoon and was assisted to his home on Park avenue. His condition is improved today. There were at least a dozen other cases of heat prostration but as they were treated at home the police have no official information concerning them.

John Duffy, who is employed as a laborer on street work by the city, was taken to the hospital early this afternoon. He quit at noon and went to his home on West Third street and was not at work when overcome by the heat.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY ROYAL COUNCIL

The public installation of the officers-elect of Royal Council, No. 77, O. U. A. M., last night, to which the friends of the organization were invited, attracted a large number of people. The program included popular selections by an orchestra of which Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan was leader and a number of vocal selections by a male quartet. There were several short speeches by local and visiting officers, after which refreshments were served, dancing was enjoyed and some of those present played euchre.

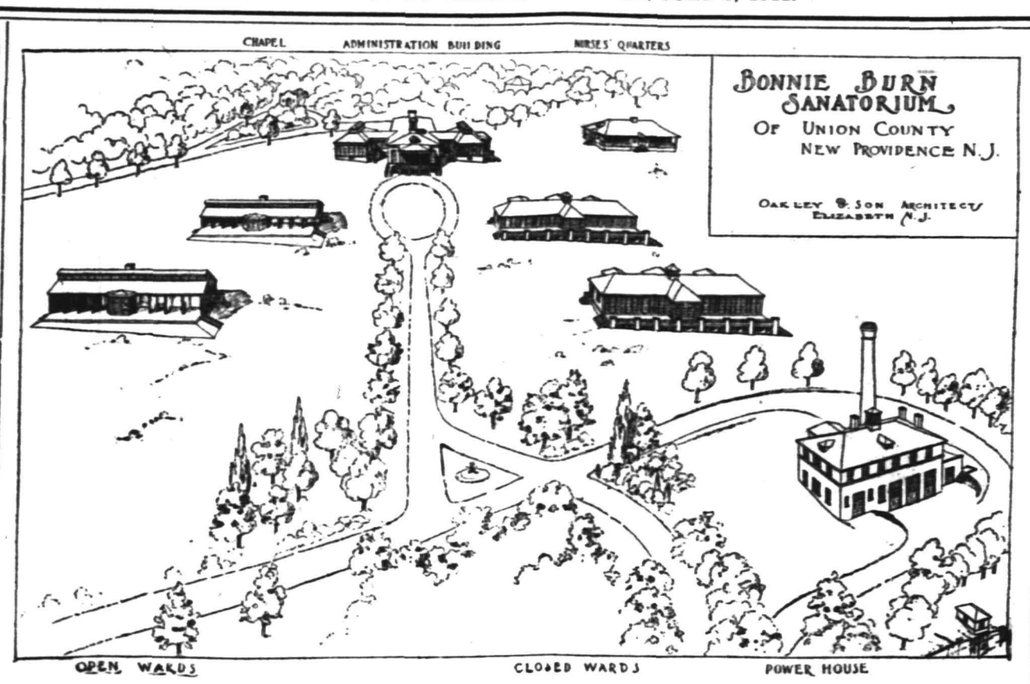
These officers were installed by District State Deputy J. E. Townley, of Americus Council, of Elizabeth:

Senior Ex-Councilor, Louis Bimble, Jr.; junior ex-councilor, Guy E. Thomas; councilor, E. B. Rowland; vice-councilor, F. G. Welsh; recording secretary, J. L. Bennett; assistant recording secretary, John G. Bicknell; financial secretary, R. V. Kinney; treasurer, William E. Day; inductor, George VanOrden; examiner, Hazelton Reynolds; inside protector, L. C. R. Dunham; outside protector, S. Frank Runyon, trustees, three years, F. G. Welsh; two years, P. H. Latourette; one year, Thomas E. Currin, Jr.; representative to State Council, Louis Bimble, Jr.; board of managers Royal Council Funeral Benefit Fund, Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, Guy E. Thomas, R. V. Kinney, F. L. Soper, Jr., Thomas E. Currin, Jr.

—Use Press want ads.

—Our bluefish, direct from Seabright, were big sellers last week. There's a reason. We will have another shipment for tomorrow. The Ivamy Co., Tel. 1024-1025. ***

Mr. and Mrs. William VanDeventer and daughter, Margaret, of East Fifth street, left yesterday for the Glen, N. Y., where they will be registered at "The Valentines."



PLANS FOR UNION COUNTY SANATORIUM FOR TUBERCULAR PATIENTS

One of the finest sites possible to select was obtained by the building committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of Union county, when the property, situated in an extreme corner of Union county, east of the Berkeley Heights road, between Fanwood and New Providence, was selected for its model sanatorium. The tract is located on the side of a mountain, facing in a southerly direction, the north of the property and the entire top of the mountain being covered, to the edge of the property, with a thick woods and the lower section divided by a brook which develops into a small lake, being an admirable situation for an institution of this kind.

Oakley & Son, architects, of Elizabeth, selected by the freeholders, after a great deal of re-search and study, have developed what is probably the best existing type of institution for the treatment of this disease. A number of prominent institutions have been visited, and the best of each of these selected and compiled in such a way as to make this sanatorium a model. The firm has frequently conferred with Dr. Thomas S. Carrington, of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

The building, as shown in the cut, include the administration building two wards for incipient cases, and two wards for advanced cases, a nurses home, a power house and various other smaller buildings. The administration building contains the office and waiting rooms, the kitchen and dining rooms, one for the incipient cases, one for nurses, one for the help and a private dining room for the doctors in charge.

The kitchen equipment contains all modern conveniences, including coal, charcoal and steam cooking apparatus. In the basement of this building there is a bake shop of sufficient size and containing all necessary apparatus for all the necessary baking, also a refrigerator plant, which will operate a large cold storage room and various smaller refrigerators contained in the kitchen and service pantries. This structure is designed as all others in the group are, to give the greatest possible amount of light and ventilation and have high ceilings and immense glass areas, as may be seen in the cut.

The open wards are buildings wherein the incipient cases will be quartered and consists of an assembly room, situated in the centre, flanked with a series of four stalls or rooms on either side. These rooms are open to the south and at no time will they be closed off from the outer air. The parting walls running up to a height of eight feet and pone above to the roof, in which there is a continuous line of ventilating transons. At the rear of these rooms, the walls contain a number of large windows which, while keeping out the snow, will still give the needed light. These buildings have also all the toilet equipments necessary and peculiar to an institution of this character.

The closed wards are designed to accommodate the advanced or chronic cases, and are laid out in a manner similar to the open wards, with the exception that while they will keep out the severest weather of Winter, they are still capable of being converted into open wards, as will be necessary in mildest weather. The entire front of this building, also the sides and rear contain as many windows as the constructiin of the building will permit, and have an admirable ventilating system. As in the case of the above. wards, the closed wards also have broad porches and terraces running the entire length of the building, making possible the rolling of the beds directly out of the room into the open air.

(Continued on page 2.)

LOCAL ELKS PLAY BROOKLYNITES TODAY

The Plainfield Elks baseball team with a number of rooters went to Brooklyn this afternoon to fire the opening gun in the Elks' League. There would have been a much larger accompanying the nine had it not been for the excessive heat.

"Warry" MacLaughlin was slated to do the delivering and a pick of the lodge athletes were to back him up. These include Walter MacNaughton on first; Marcus Hoyt on second; Howard Craig on third; Smith at short, and Townley, Moynihan and McCullough in the field. As the delegation boarded the train, those who saw them off shouted, "Get the first one, boys."

MATCHES IN POCKET CAUSE OF A BLALE

Phillip Fatis, of 236 East Fourth street, aged twenty-three years, was badly burned this morning at his home when his clothing was set on fire by a quantity of matches he had in his trousers pocket and which became ignited when he lay down on a cot. He was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital in the patrol wagon by Detective Sergeant Flynn. This afternoon he was reported as resting easy.

When the fire was discovered a 'phone message brought the police patrol and the fire apparatus. The victim was wrapped in a blanket and carried out after which the firemen made short shift of the flames which had spread to the cot and woodwork of the room.

HERE IS A CARNEY WHO IS A SCRAPPER.

William Carney, of Philadelphia, employed in the Levering & Garrigue factory, proved himself a match for three men, including a policeman near Taylor's Hotel in Dunellen Tuesday afternoon. When too enraged Irishmen jumped on Carney's friend William Ryan and pounded him so severely that he had to be taken to Muhlenberg Hospital the husky Carney beat them both to the ground and then knocked out Chief Marshal Charles Wyhuskey, who attempted to arrest him. The four fighters were later landed in the borough lockup and will be given a hearing tonight. Ryan was able to leave the hospital after a short time.

Mrs. Mary Emma Everest.

Mrs. Mary Emma Everest, aged 60 years, widow of Robert R. Everest died this morning at her home on East Seventh street, from paralysis, having suffered several strokes. She had been a resident of this city for many years and was a member of St. Stephen's church, and when health permitted was a regular attendant at the services. Her husband died about a year ago. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Stengle, who lived with her. The funeral services will be held at the late home, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Elory G. Bowers will officiate and burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

Michael Hefferman was arrested yesterday for being drunk and unable to take care of himself. Judge William DeMeza in the city court this morning heard the weather blamed for it all and allowed Hefferman to go under a suspended sentence.

PLAINFIELD ELKS TO ATTEND CONVENTION

Past Exalted Ruler Joseph Noonan, of Plainfield Lodge, No. 885, B. P. O. E., the local delegate to the Grand Lodge sessions in Atlantic City next week, will leave Saturday afternoon for the coast resort. He will be joined on Monday by a number of other members and the party will make the Hotel Raymond its headquarters. Nearly all of those going will be accompanied by their wives.

During the week a large number from this city will go to the convention city for a couple of days and on Thursday, the day of the big parade, special trains will be run from all points.

HORSE'S DASH ENDS AT TICKET WINDOW

A runaway horse caused a panic among the waiting passengers on the east bound side of the North avenue station of the Central Railroad last night and before being caught gave several persons a close call from injury. The horse, owned by Wells Cregar, a cabman, was caught by John Sampson Payne, of West Eighth street.

The runaway started at the City Park fountain where Cregar had unchecked it to let it drink. Before he could resume his seat the horse dashed off, collided with another wagon containing three children at Ninth street and Park avenue, then by a roundabout route reached the station. The hack was torn loose in the collision. The door of the station was open and the maddened animal dashed inside stopping when its front feet slid against the wainscoating under the change shelf of the ticket window. Payne grasped the bit before the horse regained its footing and held on, turning it over to the driver who came up after Payne had managed to get it outside.

Mrs. H. L. Van Camp.

Mrs. H. L. VanCamp, aged thirty-eight years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Angleman, of 226 East Fourth street, died at her home in Newark, yesterday. She underwent an operation and while it was successful, the intense heat resulted in complications and death resulted. Mrs. VanCamp leaves a husband and one daughter. The funeral services will be held tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in Newark and the burial will be at Rocktown, Hunterdon county.

Michael Crawley.

After a long illness Michael Crawley died last night at the home of his brother, Daniel Crawley, on Ann street, where he had been living for about a year, coming here from New York on account of his poor health. He is survived by his widow and three children. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's church Saturday morning and interment wil. be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Young Woman Missing.

Miss Hazel VanFleet, aged 15 years, daughter of Mrs. VanFleet, of 68 Elm place, has been reported to the police by her mother as missing. The young woman had been visiting Mrs. Myer, of Bound Brook, but left there yesterday for her home. Since that time nothing has been heard of her.

HE ENDS HIS LIFE

Crazed by the Heat, Edward Dooley Takes Fatal Dose of Carbolic Acid.

DIES IN HALF AN HOUR.

Pours Deadly Drug Into Glass of Milk and Swallowing it Tells Wife and Daughter What He Had Done.

Temporarily crazed by the heat, Edward Dooley, of 317 West Front street, drank carbolic acid in milk in the kitchen of his home last evening and in half an hour was dead. After committing the deed he calmly told his wife and daughter what he had done. The frantic wife rushing to the adjoining flats for help and sent the daugater, Miss Agnes Dooley, for a policeman. Patrolman Sweeney was found at Front street and Park avenue and after notifying headquarters he jumped in a passing automobile and rushed to Dooley's home. Reaching there he found the victim in a semi-conscious condition on the kitchen floor being rubbed by Thos Doyle and John Hogan who had responded to Mrs. Dooley's request for help.

The kitchen was stifling hot and as the patrol wagon had been sent for, Patrolman Sweeney carried the man down two flights of stairs to the street. At the door he met Dr. Gesswein who had been summoned by another neighbor. There was nothing the physician could do as the deadly effects of the poison were already apparent and Dooley expird in a few minutes. Patrolman McCarty and Detective Sergeant Flynn arrived with the patrol just as the man was breathing his last. After an examination of the premises and those who were familiar with the circumstances, the police allowed the removal of the body to Cole's undertaking rooms, where it was viewed early this morning by County Physician F. W. Westcott.

Dooley was in his fortieth year and had lived all his life in this city. He was a driver on one of the repair wagons of the Telephone company but had not been at work yesterday because of the intense heat. Ten minutes before he was summoned, Patrolman Sweeney had spoken to Dooley as the latter passed on his way home, and they had exchanged remarks about the weather. At the time Dooley did not seem at all like a man bent on taking his life, the patrolman stated. Dooley was a familiar figure about town and was particularly conspicuous at ball games a number of years ago. He was an ardent rooter and with a big voice would cheer his favorites much to the amusement of other fans.

Surviving are his widow and daughter, and a brother Peter Dooley, of Poughkeepsie. The funeral service will take place on Saturday morning.

LOCAL ENDEAVORERS OFF FOR CONVENTION

The representatives of the Plainfield Christian Endeavor Local Union to the International Endeavor convention to be held at Atlantic City, left here this morning on the 8:12 o'clock train for Elizabethport, where they connected with a regular train, to which was attached a special coach for the Endeavorers.

The Plainfielders were supplied with badges and credentials which will entitle them to seats in the big convention. Mrs Milton Miller, of this city, is the official delegate from the union, but arrangements were made whereby others wishing to could attend the meetings. It is expected that President Taft will be among the speakers at the big gathering, in fact, he has promised to speak.

Those who left here this morning included the following: Alfred Everett, Elmer Hunting, Donald Mortimer, Miss Martha Kline, Miss Clara King, Miss Harriet Squier, Miss Agnes Leighs, Mrs. William Jones, Miss Bertha Jones, Mrs. B. Frank Coriell, Miss Lucy Coriell, Mr. and Mrs. William Kriney, Mrs. William Crow, Mrs. Charles Jeter, Mrs. Valentine Utzinger, Miss Christine Viebrock, Miss Harriet Randall, Miss May Randolph, Miss Anna Bach, Miss M. Lee, Miss Marie Clayton, Roy Layton, Fred Soper, Elmer Gayle and Clarence LaRue.

—You must educate people to eat fish. We sell the fresh kind which constitutes the education. The Ivamy Co., Tel. 1024-1025. ***

—There is no better diet during these warm days than fresh vegetables. Neuman Bros. can supply you with the best the market affords. They will have a large display tomorrow.

MAKES RARE GIFT

Senator Ackerman Presents Colonial Notes of States to the Public Library.

SIX HUNDRED IN COLLECTION.

Invaluable Assortment Donated by Public Spirited Citizen to Municipal Institution and He Will Give More.

The Plainfield Public Library was presented with a collection of Colonial notes by State Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, of this city, yesterday which is said to be the finest of the kind in existance. This is the second time within a month that the senator has made donations from his valuable collection which was gathered at considerable expense and many years' of patient labor. His first contribution was made to the State on June 3 and has been placed in the museum at Trenton, properly mounted. It is considered among the most precious of the museum's curios.

When Senator Ackerman made the tender of the collection to the board of governors of the library, a committee was appointed to ascertain the nature of the gift as it was not known by any of the board members that such a rare collection existed. After an inspection the offer was gladly accepted. The senator's reason for making the donation is to encourage others to do something of a similar nature now that it has been decided to enlarge the building. A specially constructed standard with glass frames has been ordered for properly displaying the collection and it will be in readiness early in the fall when the notes will be on exhibition to the public.

The collection consists of more than 600 pieces. Notable in it are seventy-five New Jersey shilling notes bearing the date of 1756. They were printed at Woodbridge . There are also eighty New Jersey notes of one dollar denomination. These bear the date 1780, the earliest date that the word "dollar" was used on notes used and printed by the colonists. In addition there are forty-one from Maryland; fifty-two issued by Connecticut; six by Delaware; twenty-seven by Georgia; fourteen by Massachusetts; eight by New Hampshire; forty by New York; fourty-four by North Carolina; ninety-three by Pennslyvania; eighteen by Rhode Island and Providence plantations; thirty-five by South Carolina and seventy-one by Virginia.

Some of the Massachusetts notes are punched denoting that they had been redeemed by the colony issuing them. New Haven and Vermont were the only other colonies redeeming their notes and designating it in this manner. There are no Vermont notes in the collection for they are almost impossible to obtain.

The Virginias are for the largest amounts, some of them being for $1,500. North Carolina comes next with some for $600. The Virginia notes were issued prior to the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

Senator Ackerman also has in his possession notes issued by Elizabeth, New Brunswick, Perth Amboy and the First Presbyterian church of Newark. The Newark church notes are signed by E. Boudinot and were issued at the time when churches were authorized to do so. The date on them is 1790. All of these notes the senator proposes to present to the proper authorities in the cities mentioned in the near future to be put in their libraries or museums.

MYSTERY IN SHOOTING.

Wildwood, July 6.—Samuel Norris, trustee of the Wildwood Aerie, Order of Eagles, was shot Monday afternoon and is in a critical condition at the Emergency Hospital. Some mystery surrounds the shooting. The story told by John Farley, the youth who did the shooting, is that while standing on the second-story porch of the Hotel Farley, which is owned by his father, William J. Farley, the youth says he saw his friend Norris passing by on a bicycle. Wishing to frighten him, he threw a cartridge to the pavement.

The cartridge exploded and the bullet entered the left shoulder blade of the unfortunate man, grazed the spine and lodged against the right shoulder.

Automobile Outing.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick, their daughter Miss Edith Mellick, of East Seventh street, and Miss Edith Hartley, of New York city, left today for an automobile tour through the Berkshires thence to Lake George, Lake Champlain and the White Mountains. They will be gone about three weeks.

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

Watch the daily papers closely for bargains. Something will be added from day to day of interest to you.

A. E. Force & Co.

"THE WHITE STORE"

WE GIVE "S. & H." THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. GREEN TRADING STAMPS

Premium Parlor on 3rd Floor.

Every Housekeeper should read each item in this great July Clearance Sale announcement — it will pay.

JULY CLEARANCE SALE BEGINS TOMORROW

This means big reductions in prices in all departments. Our stock must be cut down $25,000 by the 31st and to do so we must give bargains to induce quick buying and big crowds. We have been preparing for this sale the past three months and have made many fortunate purchases which we will share with you. This is the month when all surplus and summer stocks must be closed out, as we never carry over to the next season anything but the most staple lines. The prices quoted here are but a fraction of the many bargain values to be found here during the sale.

NOTICE—We know that this sale and these prices will bring big crowds in the late forenoon and late afternoon, and in order to divert the rush to the earlier hours we will give double S. & H. Green Trading Stamps from 8 to 10 a. m. and from 12 to 2 p. m., until further notice.

10c 4-4 UNBLEACHED MUSLIN AT 7c.
3,000 yards of this fine smooth finished muslin.

25c HUCK TOWELS 15c.
These towels are a large size, 18x36, in half linen and very fine full bleach, white borders; by the dozen $1.70

12½c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Hemmed and ready for use; size 18x38.

25c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra size, 22x50-inch and extra heavy weight; hemmed.

12½c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Fringed, size 20x40 inches.

25c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra heavy hemmed, extra large size, 22x45 inch.

15c CURTAIN SWISS 10c.
25 pieces, all different patterns and size dots, stripes and figures; it is 36 inches wide and popular make, and sells everywhere for 15c.
Rug department, 2nd floor.

59c MERCERIZED COTTON DAMASK FOR 39c.
900 yards of different patterns to select from; 64 inches wide; this is the biggest bargain we have ever offered in table damask.

12c FRUIT OF THE LOOM MUSLIN FOR 8½c.
Limit 15 yards to a customer.

69c FLOUNCING FOR 39c.
18 to 27 inches wide, of fine swiss and cambric; think of this reduction.

$1.00 & $1.25 FLOUNCINGS 69c.
27 to 45 inches wide in swiss and batiste; suitable for skirts and dresses.

49c CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES FOR 29c.
20 different styles to select from; 18 inches wide on lawn and nainsook.

25c AND 35c RIBBONS 15c.
100 pieces of 4 to 5-inch ribbon; plain and fancy colors, satin, taffeta moire, messaline, checks and plaids.

$2.50 LINENE EMBROIDERED DRESSES FOR $1.50.
In blue, white, tan, skirts neatly piped.

$1.25 COMBINATIONS FOR 89c.
These are combination of corset cover and drawers, trimmed with lace or embroidery.

$1.00 MUSLIN GOWNS FOR 75c.
Lace or embroidery trimmed.

10c CHAMBRAYS FOR 7c.
Blue mixed and cadet only; 27 and 32 inches wide; these are a great bargain and they are always staple.

12½c LADIES' RIBBED VESTS 8c.
These are fine quality of vests, with smooth elastic rib; all sizes.

50c LADIES' LISLE GLOVES 25c.
In white, tan, grey, pongee and black; 2-button lengths.

75c AND $1.00 LAWN WAISTS FOR 49c.
These are fine white lawn, prettily trimmed with lace, in all the good sizes.

$1.50 RUGS FOR 98c.
50 velvet rugs and brussels, size 36x72 inches, in a fine line of best designs; rug department, second floor.

LADIES' WHITE LAWN WAISTS $1.00 & $1.25 WHITE WAISTS FOR 69c.
Lace and embroidery trimmed and others have colored embroidery.

$2.98 LADIES' UMBRELLAS FOR $1.49.
4 dozen ladies' best American taffeta umbrellas, with fine gold, silver and pearl handles.

$1.50 TO $2.50 CORSETS FOR 69c.
This lot are odd sizes and broken lots from different fine grades, a few slightly soiled, but nevertheless a great bargain.

10c FINE PRINTED LAWNS 6c.
These are 30 inches wide and come in a big range of colors; pretty printed designs.

59c MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS FOR 39c.
50 dozen in all the latest patterns, light and dark figures and stripes; cuffs attached.

19c INDIA LINON FOR 12c.
Fine sheer quality, 30 inches wide; this lot will prove one of the biggest bargains of the sale.

25c TO 35c FANCY WASH GOODS TO GO AT 15c.
This lot will contain several lines of fine materials, such as Lawns, Organdies, Foulards, Voiles, Gauzes and Marquisettes in solid colors, stripes and checks; also fancy figures. This is an extraordinary chance to buy fine wash goods as cheap as.....15c

35c EMBROIDERIES FOR 15c.
Suitable for dresses and skirts, large variety of styles, patterns and widths; also fine swiss galloons; 5 to 18 inches wide.

50c NOVELTY SILK AND COTTON WASH GOODS FOR 25c.
In this lot are silk and cotton print of foulards, silk and cotton printed jacquards and organdies; also a fine line of silk striped madras shirtings; all in one lot at, yard 25c

$10.50 RUGS FOR $5.98.
9x12 Smyrna rugs in a nice line of new patterns.

15c TALCUM POWDER 10c.
Your choice of Mennen's or Babcock's Corylopsis Talcum Powder; only one can to a customer.

10c PAPER OF PINS 5c.
Large paper of pins in all sizes; 360 pins to a paper.

29c & 39c WASH BELTS FOR 15c
White and colored with pearl and fancy buckles.

5c TOILET SOAPS PER DOZEN 45c.
Witchhazel, Buttermilk, Oatmeal, Hazel Cream, Turkish Bath, Household Tar, Old English, Brown Windsor and Summer Blossom, White Ribbon, Swift's & Armour's best toilet soaps.

25c PEROXIDE OF HYDROGEN FOR 17c.
One pound bottle of the best quality.

$1.00 MISSES' PARASOLS 75c
White linene with embroidery band of pongee with different colored borders.

69c CLOTHES BASKETS FOR 39c.
10 dozen split willow clothes baskets, medium size; on sale in basement.

GREAT REDUCTIONS IN LADIES' WASH DRESSES.
Two racks full of beautiful wash dresses in Lawn, Cotton, Voile, Linen, Batiste, Bordered Dresses, Natural Linen Dresses; all will be included in this great JULY CLEARANCE SALE; they must be closed out and the price will do it.

These are values ranging in price from $5.00 to $12.00; Sale price while they last at.....$2.98

CLEARANCE OF LADIES' TRIMMED HATS.
$7.50 BEAUTIFULLY TRIMMED HATS FOR $2.98.
All of our trimmed hats must be disposed of in this sale, to do so we have made the price at about half the regular cost; on sale, millinery department, second floor.

$11.00 HIGH GRADE TRIMMED HATS FOR $4.49.
This lot is the best of stock and must be sold regardless of cost; this is an unusual opportunity. Millinery department on 2nd floor.

50c LOT OF MEN'S HOSE FOR 25c.
This is another lot of broken lines; all put in together to make a complete line of sizes; these are all fancy hose in all the good colors.

15c MISSES' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton hose, two thread heel and toe, all sizes.

15c BOYS' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton, extra spliced heel and toe in sizes 6 to 9½.

10c PRINTED ORGANDIE 7c.
This is an exceptional offer, 27 inches wide, beautiful line of pretty floral designs in all the best colors.

9c AMOSKEAG APRON GINGHAM FOR 6¼c.
These are the genuine standard make in brown, tan, red and green in the different size checks.

75c LADIES' LONG KIMONAS 49c.
There is a big variety of styles, floral effects; all the sizes.

35c TO 49c GRANITE WARE 19c
We have selected a big line of different sizes and styles of grey granite cooking utensils to be sold; all at one price; on sale in basement.

39c PARLOR BROOMS FOR 25c.
25 dozen fine parlor brooms, four sewed, hard wood handles, No. 6; on sale in basement.

25c TO 50c MEN'S HALF HOSE FOR 12½c.
One lot of black, tan and grey and silk embroidered; these odd lots are put in together to make one complete line of sizes 9½ to 11½.

25c LADIES' HOSE FOR 19c.
Black, white and tan, fine gauze lisle, double heel and toe; garter top.

10c DRESS GINGHAMS 7c.
About 5,000 yards in plaids, stripes and checks in all the colors

10c EMBROIDERIES FOR 5c.
Consisting of edgings, insertions and beadings, in swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dresses, trimmings and underwear; ½ to 2 inches wide.

29c EMBROIDERIES FOR 14c.
Big variety of patterns in all widths, on swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dress trimming; 2 to 8 inches wide.

7c BLEACHED TOWELING 5c.
1,000 yards of Warsaw twilled bleached toweling, 17 inches wide.

12½c GLASS TOWELING 10c.
20 inches wide, blue and red checks, in several sizes.

6c UNBLEACHED CHEESECLOTH 4c.
This is a good quality and is 36 inches wide.

69c COTTON DIAPER 49c.
18 inches wide, fine quality; 10 yards to a piece.

12½c PILLOW CASES 9c.
45x36 bleached cases, made of the Crescent quality muslin.

22c TABLE OILCLOTH 15c.
July Clearance Sale price, these are 5-4 best standard oilcloth in all the light and dark grounds; small figures and checks.

$1.25 FINE COTTON TABLE DAMASK FOR 79c.
500 cloths to choose from in a big variety of patterns in fine mercerized cloths; 58 inches wide in lengths from 2 to 3 yards; 20-inch napkins to match; value $1.25 for dozen.....79c

25c LADIES' COLLARS FOR 10c.
One lot of Ascot ties and Dutch collars; a good assortment.

19c GALATEA CLOTH 9c.
These are in short lengths, cadet, light and dark tans, stripes and figures.

12½c PERCALES FOR 9c.
36-inch fine percale in a big line of small figures, stripes and checks, light and dark grounds.

20c WHITE GOODS 10c.
In plain and figured effects, 50 pieces of different weaves, stripes, checks and figures; fine and sheer for waists and dresses.

25c NAINSOOK FOR 18c.
Extra fine white nainsook, 36 inches wide, soft and sheer; another big bargain.

25c WHITE LAWN 18c.
25 pieces 40 inch, extra fine dress lawn at a big reduction.

20c EMBROIDERIES FOR 10c.
In various widths and patterns in swiss, nainsook and cambric; large variety of styles to select from; widths from 1 to 4 inches.

50c PILLOW TOPS FOR 19c.
In lot over 100, in a big variety of designs.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The funeral services for the late Frederick Holden, who died Saturday at the residence of his son-in-law, John M. Dayton, of New Market, were held Monday afternoon from Mr. Dayton's home. Rev. Mr. Phelps, of Bound Brook, officiated and interment was made in South Plainfield.

The members of Washington Camp, No. 98, Patriotic Order Sons of America, go tonight to South Plainfield to attend their district convention.

The funeral of Charles Meyer, of William street, New Market, was held yesterday afternoon from his late home. The burial was in Samptown.

Edward Hannon, of Park street, and William Greenhall, of North avenue, went to New York Tuesday and saw the Yankees play two games.

No Sunday school excursion leaves the borough today; the Methodist school goes to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove next Thursday.

The Borough Council did not hold a meeting Monday night on account of the heat. The adjourned meeting was held last night instead.

Although Tuesday was a very warm day, none of the Dunellen baseball players were overcome by the heat.

SOMERVILLE.

The Knights of King Arthur, a club of boys from the First Baptist church, who have been in camp along the Millstone River, returned to Somerville Monday. They have been under the care of Rev. F. J. Soule, pastor of the church, and a competent group of managers, taken from the young men of the church.

Lodge of the Castle, No. 82, Knights of Pythias, has elected the following officers: Chancellor commander, L. B. Lamoreaux; vice-chancellor, Philip P. Crous; master of work, L. J. Drake; master at arms, W. E. Perrine; inside guard, William Harris; outside guard, Benjamin J. Duffield.

Mrs. George H. Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. James La Fevre, has purchased the house owned by Louis P. Gaston, opposite De La Fevre's residence, on West Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Snyder and children, of West High street, have gone to Ocean Grove, where Mr. Snyder has rented a cottage for the summer.

Mrs. Cammon and Miss Sarah Cammon left on Saturday for Lake Hoptacong, where they expect to spend the summer in their cottage.

Miss Gladys Kanouse has returned to her home in Newark, after spending some time with her cousin Miss Olive E. Myers, on Canal street.

Mrs. William Brennan, of Pittsburg, Pa., is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Charles Van Nest and Mrs. John Fahey, in Raritan.

Miss Angeline Green, of New York city, is spending some time at the home of her uncle, William F. Green, in Somerset street.

Mrs. A. Carr and Mrs. Ella Westcott, of South street, have gone to Asbury Park, where they expect to spend the summer.

Mrs. Charles Bosberger and Master Walter Breitkopf have sailed for Germany, where they expect to spend a vacation season.

Mrs. Jacob Kline, Jr., and Mrs. Jennie Kline are spending a week at Lake Hopatcong as guests of Mrs. A. M. Case.

Mrs. Eugene McCarthy has gone to join her husband in Washington, D. C., who has a government position there.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Myers, of Lakehurst, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Myers, in Gaston avenue.

Miss Mary C. Burnes is spending two weeks at the home of her corsin, Mrs. Sadie C. Plower, in Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller have returned to their home in Raritan after a week spent at Pottersville.

Miss Mirian Hodge, of West Cliff street, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Peter B. Hodge, ot Plainfield.

Miss Mary Fleming, of Washington, D. C., is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Nevius, on Mercer street.

Mrs. Mary B. Barcalow is spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Cecil Hoffman, in New York.

Rayne Marcus, of New York city, has been spending a week with Mrs. William Honan in Raritan.

Miss Edith Johnson, of Dover, has been a guest of Mrs. William H. Cawley on East Main street.

Miss Theresa Hahn, of Jersey City, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Huff, on West Cliff street.

Frankelma Du Mont, of Newark, is visiting her grandfather, Mr. Du Mont, in Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. David T. Lane are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Gulick, at New Germantown.

Mrs. Lent, of Newark, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Gainor, on Anderson street.

Clarkson Cramer, of North Bridge street, is spending some time at Harvey Cedars.

Miss Anna Van Fleet, of West Cliff street, is spending a week at Asbury Park.

Frank Feild, a student of Rutgers College, is spending his vacation at Seabright.

Mrs. Janus Mulligan and son, of New York, are guests of Mrs. Rose Mulligan.

Miss Edith Hill, of Neshanic, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edgar.

Mrs. Jane Brewer, of Harlingen, is visiting relatives at Flemington.

Mrs. Polhemus and daughter, Margaret, are at Ocean Grove.

Mrs. Hendershot is the guest of relatives at Roycefield.

Harry Rankin is spending a week with relatives in Ohio.

WHEN U NEED —EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

LIBERAL INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

4% on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

3% on CHECKING ACCOUNTS of $500 or more.

CITY NATIONAL BANK
Capital - - $150,000.00
Surplus and Profits - 280,000.00
(all earned)

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

COMMISSION RULE PLAN BLOCKED NOW

Last week developed two setbacks for the commission plan of municipal government, the movement having been beaten in both Hoboken and New Brunswick, and it now appears certain that Trenton will be the only one to adopt immediately the new scheme of control. Jersey City will decide the question at a special election two weeks from tomorrow, but that the plan will be rejected by a pronounced vote is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

Advocates of commission government there have obtained the necessary unmber of signers, but have refrained thus far from filing the petition in the hope that the election might be delayed until Fall, when there might be more hope of success. On the other hand, the foes of the idea, led by Sheriff Kelly, of Hudson County, one of the so-called "big six," have started petitions for an immediate election, so that the issue can be disposed of and the way cleared for the coming campaign.

Governor Wilson has not yet named the Commissioner of Education, and has given no hint as to whom he will appoint. Besides Dr. Chapin of the State Normal School at Montclair and Dr. Green, of the State Normal Sshool at Trenton, Dr. Henry A. Fine, of Princeton University Faculty, is being mentioned, and many believe he will be selected.

PERSONAL.

Thomas Dixon, of New York city, is visiting friends in the borough.

Patrick Kenvey, of Old Point Comfort, Va., is visiting relatives in the city and borough.

William and Carroll Taylor, of Fairview avenue, are visiting relatives in Massachusetts.

G. A. Bailey, of the local postoffice staff of clerks, is enjoying a vacation of fifteen days.

Fred Dixon, of West Sixth street, has returned from an extended business trip through the west.

Mrs. William Frank, of New York, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Seidel, of Jackson avenue.

Albert Reiber, of New York city, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Charles M. Dolliver, of Fairview avenue.

Miss Dolly Burner, of Jackson avenue, who has been detained at home by illness, is much improved.

Mrs. Ellen Mullen, of Westervelt avenue, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Hughes, at Red Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Nichols, of Fairview avenue, are spending a two weeks' vacation in New York State.

Miss Mary O'Connor, of Fairview avenue, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. John O'Connor, of Baltimore, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Hall, who were recently married, are now at "Idlewild Inn," Berkshire county, Mass.

Miss Gertrude Monahan, of Wilkes Barre, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs Cormick McDonough, of Fairview avenue.

George B. Wean, city stenographer, returned yesterday from Asbury Park, where he has been spending several days.

Miss Irene Smith, of New York, has returned home after spending a week with Miss May Hanlon, of Westervelt avenue.

Miss Annabel Jones, of Mt. St. Mary College, left today for South Carolina, where she will spend the summer with her parents.

Mrs. W. A. Burnet and daughter, Miss Mildred Burnet, of Sandford avenue, are spending the summer with relatives in Toronto, Canada.

Charles Hebbard, of Syracuse, N. Y., has returned home after spending a few days at the home of his aunt, Mrs. M. H. Ewart, of Fairview avenue.

Miss Glenna Higgins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Higgins, of West Front street, has returned from a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Higgins, at Three Bridges.

Glad Train Hit Him.

Kingston, Ont., July 6.—At the hospital here is a man who is glad he was struck by a train and hurled 100 feet. He is Louis Renaud, of Aylmer, Quebec, who suffered a scalp wound and several broken ribs in the accident, but recovered his hearing. He had been stone deaf.

—Plainfield Aerie, 866, Fraternal Order of Eagles, held the third successful "ladies' night" in the lodge rooms Monday night.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.23, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.53 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.30, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.29 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.29, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.42, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLEE, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS

CHOICE MEATS. GAME IN SEASON.

ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.

Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 88-A.

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL,

21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.

Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

FURNITURE, OIL CLOTHS, STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

HOTELS.

GILBEY'S Pure Wines and Liquors

Gilbey's world-famous Brands are the finest Imported Wines and Liquors obtainable, and every bottle is guaranteed as to its Purity, Quality and Genuineness.

In order to serve our guests with the very best that money can buy, we have imported a shipment of the Gilbey Brands from London.

ASK FOR THEM AT
THE QUEEN CITY HOTEL BAR
P. FLOERSH, Proprietor.
5 15 16 m th

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL

All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF

EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Room.

G. J. WEINMAN CAFE

213 Park Ave., Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON

NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

E. B. Maynard's

Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AEVNUE.

A Decisive Drop Down of Prices On All Summer Goods to Force a Quick, Positive and Final Clearance

This July Clearance Sale is the supreme money saving event in a decade. And when we make this broad sweeping claim we speak from our extensive knowledge of goods, prices and former special sales held in this store and elsewhere. It is a stock reducing event of gigantic proportions and will be bound to interest every person within miles of this store.

In the volume of faultless and desirable merchandise embraced, in its reckless disregard for former prices, real values and possible profits, this July Clearance Sale will surpass any ever attempted. With over two months of hot weather before you, we have set aside this particular time for adjusting our stocks and completely clearing out all Summer Goods. And in order to accomplish our object as quickly as possible we offer you values that speak more convincingly than any words we might use of how deep we have sent the price knife into former costs.

CLEARING PRICES IN THE MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

25c Sox for 15c—Plain and fancy lisle sox light and madras shades; were 25c; sale..15c

$1.00 Pongee Shirts 79c—White and natural pongee shirts with single cuffs; regularly $1.00; sale.....79c

50c Negligee Shirts 35c—About 35 dozen negligee shirts, all sizes, but mostly odds and ends in patterns, including a full line of black and white neat stripes; 14 to 17; sale 35c

50c Otis Underwear 39c—Best known 50c balbriggan, but shirts only; on sale.....39c

50c Neckwear 37c — It's clearing time with silk neckwear; your choice now of about 30 dozen all silk rich four-in-hands; regularly 50c; sale..37c

39c Tubular Belts 25c—Black only, all sizes 34 to 44.

Odds and Ends of 25c Four-in-hands at 5c—Grouped in one lot to close out; odds and ends of silk four-in-hands sold at 25c; on sale 5c

59c "Oye" Underwear 47c—Athletic style, coat shirt, knee drawers; made of mercerized figured soisette, with blue trimming; regular 59c; sale....47c

Pure Linen Heavy Huck Towels 15c—You don't often buy a heavy all linen huck towel at 15c. We bought these 60 dozen several months ago, but they were just delivered to us; the manufacturer is swamped with orders on them, so good are they for the price. You will buy them by the dozen when you see them; on sale.....15c

4-4 Anchor Muslin, yard...10c

4-4 Hill Muslin, yard.....8c

4-4 Brown Muslin, yard.....6c
(Regular 7½c).

4-4 Special 10c Cambric, yd.8c

(Other specials just as good; no room to quote prices).

29c Striped Linons, yard...19c

25c French Ginghams, yd..19c

10c White Cross Bar Lawns, yard 7c

29c White French Lawns..19c
(45 inches wide).

(These are good specials to pick up).

(Crowded out from the Men's Section).

Columbia Shirts, all clean, fresh patterns this season; all sizes 14 to 17; on sale.....79c

WASH GOODS SECTION.

39c Tussah Silk 29c—10 shades in this popular silk for cool summer wear as well as for party Dresses.

35c Figured Seco Silk 25c—The styles are pretty, the saving worth while on such well known wash silks.

29c and 35c Wash Goods 19c—All this season's wash goods, embroidered dimities, tissues and satin striped lawns; reduced to almost half.

12½c and 15c Batistes 9c—Choose from about 40 pieces, they sold this season at 12½c and 15c; it's a good saving to buy.

Mercerized Foulards Regularly 15c and 19c; on sale 12½c and 15c — Good assortment, dark and light styles.

25c Mercerized Pongee 19c—Several shades, but mostly in natural; that's the most wanted shade this season.

15c Ginghams at 11c—About 35 pieces dress ginghams, 32-inches and 27 inches wide; all standard make.

JULY PRICES IN WOMEN'S READY TO WEAR SECTION

98c Shirt Waists 69c—In one style there is a complete run of sizes, others are odds and ends, more or less soiled; formerly 98c; sale 69c

Black Jap Silk Waists, low neck, kimono sleeves, trimmed with white Val. lace; on sale— $1.69

Women's Rep Suits, odds and ends, white, blue and tan, formerly sold up to $6.50; on sale $1.98

Girl's and Misses' Middies, all white with white collars and white with blue collars, tailored and strapped; sale.....98c

Children's Dresses Values Up to $1.98; on Sale 98c.
About 100 children's colored Lawn, Gingham and Percale Dresses, ages 6 to 14, and 2 to 5; these are stylish and of good materials, well made, not all sizes in every style, but plenty to choose from; on sale 98c

Misses' and Women's Wash Skirts Sold up to $2.25; on sale $1.
Included in this lot are white India Linon Skirts and tan, blue and pink suiting; all are made to fit right, and at this price they should not last long; about 65 skirts in all; on sale..$1.00

$5.98 and $6.98 Pure Linen Tailored Suits at $4.85.
The best styles of the season, all are pure linen, well tailored, with plain or sailor collars; natural and half bleached; on sale $4.85
(Alterations free).

$2.98 and $3.98 Wash Dresses at $1.98.
All this season's styles, and good styles too, made just as you like them made; some of percales with large sailor collars, and button down the front with large pearl buttons; others of figured lawns and ginghams, with low and high neck: it's a bargain you will like; on sale.....$1.98

$3.98 and $4.98 Wash Dresses at $2.98.
About 50 Wash Dresses in figured Lawns, Batistes, Ginghams and Percales, some of the best sellers of the season; choose while choosing is best; on sale.....$2.98

25 per cent Reduction on all Children's White Dresses.

You will appreciate this announcement most if you know our regular values; nothing is reserved; this reduction of one-fourth is on every child's white dress in the house; ages 6 to 14.

Women's Long Kimonas Were $1.98; sale $1.69.—Several attractive styles in figured lawn kimonas, dainty floral patterns, pretty styles; neatly made.

Store For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	9	..	3	12	14	5
Brooklyn	7	..	8	3	6	5
Boston	1	..	3	2	5	2
Philadelphia	8	..	7	18	3	7
Chicago	3	13	..	10	..	..
Cincinnati	9	3	..	5	..	..
Pittsburg	2	6	..	13	6	..		21
St. Louis	3	2	..	4	3	..		13
AMERICAN
New York	8	..	8	13	9
Philadelphia	13	..	13	18	8
Boston	2	..	6	5	2
Washington	8	..	2	9	7
St. Louis	6	2	3	9	7
Cleveland	5	6	4	8	11
Chicago	2	6	..	17	1
Detroit	8	14	..	14	8

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Philadelphia	44	27	.620
Chicago	42	26	.618
New York	43	28	.606
Pittsburg	39	30	.565
St. Louis	39	31	.557
Cincinnati	29	39	.426
Brooklyn	26	39	.277
Boston	16	54	.229

Yesterday's Results.
Philadelphia, 6; New York, 4.
New York, 10; Philadelphia, 1.
Brooklyn, 5; Boston, 2.
Pittsburg, 6; St. Louis, 3.

Games Today.
Chicago at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	48	23	.676
Philadelphia	47	23	.671
New York	37	32	.536
Chicago	34	31	.523
Boston	36	34	.514
Cleveland	34	40	.459
Washington	26	46	.361
St. Louis	18	51	.261

Yesterday's Results.
New York, 9; Philadelphia, 8.
Detroit, 8; Chicago, 1.
Cleveland, 11; St. Louis, 7.
Washington, 7; Boston, 2.

Games Today.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	47	23	.671
Baltimore	45	27	.625
Toronto	39	33	.542
Montreal	31	33	.484
Buffalo	30	33	.476
Jersey City	29	36	.446
Newark	25	39	.391
Providence	25	47	.347

Yesterday's Results.
Jersey City, 7; Newark, 3.
Toronto, 5; Rochester, 3.
Baltimore, 12; Providence, 5.
Buffalo, 9; Montreal, 5.

Games Today.
Jersey city at Newark.
Montreal at Buffalo.
Toronto at Rochester.
Providence at Baltimore.

Whoever thought that "Red" Waller had seen his day should just consider the sandy twirler's performance Tuesday. He pitched ten innings in a broiling sun at Somerville in a tie game and then did the mound work for the Plainfield team at High Bridge in the afternoon. In neither game did the old faithful show any signs of weakening and his smiling speed continued without a letup.

Joe Alberts, of Scotch Plains nine, certainly deserves credit for his work in the game Saturday afternoon with Westfield. After Foley had been knocked out of the box, Joe, who does not claim any honors as a slab superintendent, went on the mound and held the Mt. Ararat sluggers safe throughout the rest of the game.

Dave White was hit hard by the 'Plains team even though his big brother Steve is twirling on the Boston Americans.

Lewis Slocum, the Plainfield boy who has been coming into the limelight of late, is pitching great ball for the McNulty Brothers' nine of New York on Sundays. Slocum is only a youngster and he has plenty of speed and curves. With a little more headwork and control, he will make good within a few years, provided that he gets in with the right team.

Donovan, the new third baseman on the Plainfield nine Tuesday, made a favorable impression as a fielder but was not much of a stick artist. He covered his bag in good shape, however.

Clinton's balk saved the day for Driscoll's Darlings at Somerville Tuesday morning. The undecided motion made it possible for Eddie Stallings to move to third and Driscoll to reach second. From these positions the runs were scored when Walter Nelson sent that hot liner to Friar. Driscoll had to go some to reach home on the swat but a fast slide gave him the decision.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

Central R. R. News Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.

Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING

Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

THIS MEANS YOU

may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova, Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH

(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice.

HENRY WIERENGA

Residence 'Phone 517-3.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Rigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

CHAS. KEIDERLING

FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping.
Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue

816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 213 Lee place.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles

KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 6 In American History.

1747—John Paul Jones (John Paul), distinguished American naval commander, born in Kirkbean, Scotland; died in Paris July 18, 1792.

1759—Commodore Joshua Barney, gallant naval officer in the Revolution and war of 1812, born; died 1818.

1802—General Daniel Morgan, Revolutionary hero, died; born 1736.

1905—The remains of Paul Jones formally delivered to the United States government by France.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:30, rises 4:32; moon sets 1:19 a. m.; 10 a. m., planet Venus at greatest elongation east of the sun, farthest east from that body—viz, 45½ degrees; now almost directly approaching the earth at a speed of 1,300 miles a minute.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 6, 1911.

C.E. FRESH AIR CAMP OPENED YESTERDAY

The Union County Christian Endeavor Union camp opened at Scotch Plains yesterday with an enrollment of twenty-one boys from Elizabethport. These youths will stay for several weeks and then will be replaced by others from either the same or other towns. This method will be employed throughout the summer season until a large number have been entertained and benefited by this workth movement. Fred C. Lounsbury is one of the originators of the plan and has worked hard to put it through.

The camp is situated almost at the rear of Mt. St. Mary College and is large enough to accomodate twenty-four boys in addition to the superintendent and his assistants. Mr. Williams, of Roselle, is in charge and is assisted by a cook and an assistant cook. These men will continue the camp until Labor Day.

The institution will be maintained by contributions from the different societies in the union in towns in Union county. Children from these places will be given the preference at the camp but it is understood that children from other towns, even out if the State, will be accomodated when possible. The camp is for boys only.

—At Neuman Bros. tomorrow there will be a fine display of choice fruit, including red and black raspberries, blackberries, huckleberries and peaches.

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Week-End Specials

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.
Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

PALMER HAMMOCKS $3.98.
For the regular $5.00 ones; extra wide and extra long, with wide valance and lay back pillow; all the newest color combinations.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c
Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.
Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.
a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.
Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 11c.
A special lot of fine gauze cotton stockings, fast black, with extra spliced heels and toes; would be good value at 18c.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

LADIES' NECKWEAR 18c.
A special lot of pretty Jabots made of fine white lawn and trimmed with lace and embroidery; 25c value.

LADIES' SKIRTS 98c.
Fine white linene wash skirts, the newest models; an excellent skirt for outing purposes; usually $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $7.98
instead of $12.50; apartment style; holding 50 lbs of ice, with three shelves in provision compartment; a good serviceable hard wood refrigerator.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.
Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.
Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.
Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.
a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.
The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.
A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.
Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

BATH SPRAYS 69c.
instead of 98c; the Monarch shower bath spray, complete with faucet connection, rubber tube and aluminum spray.

CHILDREN'S PARASOLS 39c.
In pink, blue and red; Japanese styles with tinsel effects; were made to sell for 75c.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

DUNELLEN NOT BEATEN BY RAHWAY F. C.

Dunellen tied and won Tuesday with the Rahway Field Club at Dunellen, the score of the morning game being 3-3 and of the afternoon contest 9-5. Harney, who was on the slab for the Dunellenites in the morning, pitched great ball for ten innings. Frederickson was almost invincigle in the afternoon game, holding Rahway down to eight scattered hits.

The scores:

Dunellen.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Nonamaker, 3b	0	0	1	3	1
Coyle, ss	0	1	2	2	1
Peacock, cf-3b	2	4	3	1	0
Barnes, 1b	1	2	8	0	1
Schott, lf	0	0	3	0	0
Elliott, rf	0	0	1	0	0
Clark, 2b	0	0	2	2	1
Harney, p	0	0	0	1	0
Dodwell, c-cf	0	1	10	0	0
	3	8	30	9	4

Rahway.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Brown, 3b	1	0	3	3	2
Van Hoven, c	1	0	4	1	0
Young, p	0	0	0	2	0
Smith, 1b	0	0	14	0	0
Hoblizell, ss	0	1	1	3	0
W. Hoblizell, lf	0	1	2	1	0
Worth, cf	1	3	3	0	0
Hamilton, 2b	0	1	1	3	1
Van Pelt, rf	0	1	2	0	0
	3	7	30	13	3

Rahway .....0 0 1 0 0 0 2 0 0—3
Dunellen .....0 0 2 0 0 0 0 1 0—3

Two-base hits—Worth, Peacock, Barnes (2). Struck out—By Harney, 9; by Young(3. Hit by pitcher—by Harney.

AFTERNOON.

Dunellen, 9; Rahway, 5.

Rahway ...0 0 0 0 0 2 0 3 0—5 8 4
Dunellen ...3 0 1 1 1 2 1 0 x—9 10 4

Batteries—Van Pelt, Brown and Vanderhoven; Frederickson, Nonamaker and Coyle.

Unread Rembrandts.

On a recent voyage Chief Engineer Galloway, of the ocean liner Lapland, was showing a Texan over the ship. They got to talking and Galloway said it seemed a pity that American millionaires were bringing so many European art treasurers to this country nowadays.

"It's hardly right," he argued, "that men who just happen to have the money should be able to take Rembrandts and Van Dycks from countries that have had them for generations."

"That's so," agreed the Texan. "Those fellows just go over to Europe and buy 'em up, don't they? Why, say, Galloway, not one in ten'll ever read em!"—Saturday Evening Post.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

FIRE CAUSES $1,000 LOSS A NOON TODAY

A blaze supposedly caused by children shortly after noon today totally destroyed a shed and damaged a vacant dwelling owned by Dr. B. VanD. Hedges, at 514 Watchung avenue, and a barn at the rear of 510 Watchung avenue, owned and used by Neuman Brothers. The total loss is more than $1,000. The fire started in the shed and rapidly spread to the barn and dwelling.

The firemen turned their attention to the dwelling first as it was seen that the shed was doomed when they arrived. After dousing the flames on the dwelling, they went to work on the barn. Besides using it for their horses, Neuman Brothers also had it as a storehouse for barrel and case goods and there was a large quantity of hay in the loft. A force of clerk and drivers from the store had carried and rolled most of the groceries out of danger.

The barn was formerly the property of the late Dr. Chauncey Field and under his ownership was fitted up as a sort of clubhouse and den. He had passed many hours at recreation therein at billiards with some of his companions.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT BEGINS ON SATURDAY

The Plainfield annual open championship tennis tournament in men's singles, which is scheduled to begin on the courts of the Plainfield Country Club on Saturday afternoon, it is expected will be the biggest affair of the kind held here. Each year this tournament attracts a majority of the best players in the city and borough and the play is always of great interest.

The event is open to all players residing in Plainfield and North Plainfield, whether they are members of the country club or not. Play will begin at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and the event is scheduled to be finished on Saturday, July 15. Matches will be the best two out of three sets, except in the final round, when three out of five sets will be played. Entries may be made to any member of the tennis committee or to S. W. Merrihew, chairman, 1016 South avenue, this city, up to 8 o'clock, Friday evening, July 7.

"Jack, what shall I do about Mrs. Goodhand's bridge tea? I simply can't go, you know."

"Oh, send her a check!"—London Opinion.

Miss Mary Thickstun, of Central avenue, left today for Belmar, where she will spend the remainder of the summer.

EDUCATIONAL

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 28, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprietor
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 344

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

PITCHED WATCHUNG COP INTO THE LAKE

Watchung did not escape the heat of Tuesday and consequently the "powers that be" in the town hid behind a hot wave while undressing and took a plunge in the "ice" pond. But it didn't end there for the bunch was gay and was celebrating the signing of the Declaration of Independence, which made Watchung and its "mayor" things of reality as well as of realty.

While in the process of bathing, John Hermann splashed some water on one Edward Cannon, captain of Precinct No. 1, of the renowned Watchung police force. Captain Cannon, who attired in his citizens clothes, became enraged and let Herman remember his act by a hard fist blow on the latter's face. The battered man did not reciprocate with his fists but he picked up the officer of the law and tossed him into the lake. Cannon was doumbfounded as well as wet but the water cooled his anger and temper considerably.

BUTT AND BUT.

The last time President Taft was traveling in Texas he was invited to a dinner of bacon and boiled cabbage. The invitation was telegraphed from the citizens of a small town to the President's private car and was received by Captain Archibald W. Butt, the President's aide. After consulting with the President the captain telegraphed this reply:

"The President accepts your invitation with pleasure. BUTT."

This is the way the message read when the prospective host received it:

"The President accepts your invitation with pleasure, but."—Popular Magazine.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD
736

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Manual massage and hydrotheraputic treatment given in the privacy of the home and under your own family physician.
Treatments by appointment only

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.
Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.
G. O. KELLER'S CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.
GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!
YOU KNOW
of course, you know, but what do you know That is what I would like to know.

LAUGHING.

Went to Uptodate on Wednesday to pay my men who are getting my land prepared to sell lots. Saw a new $3,500 house being built. That is what making them laugh did. They all commenced to laugh when they saw me getting off the train but you should have seen me laugh when I saw that $3,500 house. These lots will be sold on the plan that you have to buy two to get one, for no house can be built on less than fifty feet and that must be a $2,000 house or better. I want to see you often, so you can pay me $1 down $1 per week. Read below.

UP-TO-DATE (LAKEWOOD).

I will commence selling lots at Uptodate in a few days; have almost completed what the last law requires as to lot selling, and I want you to know about the lots that I am about to deceive you with. For that reason I want all of you to use my ballot below and send me the name of someone who you want to tell you about them, and who will receive two lots for his trouble. The three who receives the most number of votes will go. I want them to tell you that you are getting more than a $100 lot for $25, and that I will not keep it up long. And I want as many of you who will pay their own expenses to go as well. I can not afford to take you. Let me know when you want to go, and I will tell you how to take a shorter walk from Uptodate depot to the lots than I walk from home to the Plainfield Depot. This contest will last two weeks from the date I commence to sell lots and any one buying before will receive their money back if they receive an adverse decision. The first two people who buy from this date, (July 26th) will receive four lots for two. Send your names at once, and you can pick your lots from maps.

MY TIME IS YOURS
159 NORTH AVENUE. 'PHONE 1907
Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr..... .....
Address ....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

A Camping Necessity—The Caloric
WE SOLD AND SHIPPED FIVE CALORICS TO CAMPERS LAST WEEK

Your time is all your own, for pleasure, if you have a Caloric Fireless Cooker in your Camp Outfit.

Just put your food in the Caloric in the morning and when you come back to camp at night a fine hot, sumptuous dinner is ready to serve.

Now as an example of how easy it is to cook with a Caloric: One user has three boarders and commutes each day.

She prepares the food for dinner and puts it in the Caloric in the morning before she leaves.

At night the dinner is piping hot and thoroughly and well cooked.

See how easy it would be for you to go off hunting, fishing or tramping and not be bothered with the worry of getting meals ready when back at camp.

Let us show you a Caloric and tell you all about it.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at
Putnam & De Graw's

Advertise in The Daily Press

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL

AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c

CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM

DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?

T. S. Armstrong

THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 125 North Ave.
H. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbo & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....212 Watchung Ave.
Jos. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
F. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
H. A. Laing.....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Reth.....111 Park Ave.
Debele & Stahl.....112 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....221 Watchung Ave.
F. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
J. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....R. Peters
New Market..... Coriell
Bound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. R. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood..... W. M. Olmstead

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The married and single men of Fanwood played a game of baseball on the morning of the Fourth. Several scorekeepers were used in an effect to keep tabs on the runs but the runs have not been tallied as yet and the umpire is holding his decision until he receives the official figures.

The thermometer has hovered around 95 during the past few days but there has been no serious cases of prostration.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Stevens have returned from a visit with relatives and friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Putnam, of Plainfield, have been visiting her father, Augustus L. Frents.

William Spicer has purchased looms and will shortly open a carpet weaving place in town.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

A number of young people of this place serenaded Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Manning, who were recently married, on Monday evening and were treated to lemonade and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hamilton and daughter, of Perth Amboy, have returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandherr have been entertaining Harry Guman, of New York, for a few days.

Miss Gertrude Monahan, of Wilkes Barre, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller.

Miss Esther Thornton, who has been visiting at Jersey City, has returned.

Miss Mabel Pace, of Somerville, is visiting her sister, Mr. Walton Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. John Horn are entertaining friends from New Brunswick.

INQUIRY INTO COUNTY OFFICES IS UNDERWAY.

Freehold, July 6.—Charles E. Close, clerk of the Board of Freeholders, who, with O. E. Davis, county auditor, was recently designated to investigate the county offices, including those of county clerk, surrogate and sheriff, began the work in the sheriff's office yesterday. Mr. Close says that their report will not be completed in a week or more.

Replying to Sheriff C. E. F. Hetrick's statement made a few days ago to the effect that he had made his report of receipts and disbursements for the term ending June 15 in proper time, Mr. Close declared that C. Asa Francis had received the report and check in an envelope postmarked June 27, one week later than the time prescribed by law.

In his published interview Sheriff Hetrick said that he still recognizes C. Asa Francis as county collector. Mr. Close says that he recognizes Charles E. McDonald as collector when pay day rolls around, as he accepts his pay check without question.

SWIMMER'S INJURIES FATAL.

Morristown, July 6.—Injuries sustained when he struck his head on a rock while bathing in Pocahontas Lake last Wednesday afternoon caused the death of Henry Hodson, twenty-one years old, a carpenter, at All Souls Hospital late Monday afternoon.

Hodson went swimming with Edward Nally in Pocahontas Pond at the foot of Lakeside place. He dived from the dock and in landing his head struck a rock buried beneath the surface.

Funeral services were held at his late home in Lakeside place this afternoon.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

ALLEGED CLUB MEMBERS ASSAULTED MOTORMAN.

Three Newarkers were held under bail for trial in Millburn in connection with an assault made on Harry Watson, a motorman of the Morris County Traction Company, Monday night.

Watson said that the assault on him followed his refusal to open the doors of the front platform to let the men out. At Millburn Centre the dispute came to a head and Watson was struck behind the ear and rendered unconscious. Policeman Whight arrested the trio, who were Arthur Mangler, Edward Barrett and John Kurfess, all members of the Ironside A. C., of Newark, who had been playing baseball at Summit Monday.

BLOOMFIELD SOLON HITS DRUM CORPS MUSIC.

A suggestion by Councilman Unangst at a meeting of the Bloomfield Town Council Monday night to appropriate $51 for a drum corps to accompany Excelsior Hose Company to Caldwell on July 29, did not meet the approval of Councilman Chabot. Mr. Chabot said that he did not consider drum corps music good music. He thought for $51 the town could get something better than a drum corps. The other councilman sided with Unangst, however. In addition to getting a drum corps the firemen will be provided with a team to haul the apparatus.

HEROIC NEWARK SAILOR MAY GET U. S. MEDAL.

Edward Sweeney, of Newark, a seaman on the cruiser Hist, will receive a life-saving medal if the Secretary of the Treasury concurs in the recommendation of the Navy Department.

In full uniform, Sweeney jumped overboard off Portsmouth, N. H., June 12, and rescued Fred Claus, of the battleship Wisconsin.

SEVEN TIMES HE'S HAD DISLOCATED SHOULDER.

Asbury Park, July 6.—For the seventh time Fred Scheall, a summer visitor, sustained a dislocated shoulder while bathing yesterday at the Fourth avenue grounds.

The shoulder was put in place by Dr. R. W. Marren, the beach physician, and Dr. George F. Wilbur.

Hill Quits Summit Board.

Summit, July 6.—The resignation of George Hill as a member of the Board of Education, it was learned yesterday has ben tendered to Mayor George F. Vreeland. Mr. Hill, since his reappointment to the board January 1 for a three-year term has served a term of two years as a member of the board. During the controversy over the dismissal of Miss Louise Connolly as school superintendent, which was particularly bitter, Mr. Hill was under hot fire, but stood out against Miss Connolly until her retirement was accomplished. Business reasons are given as Mr. Hill's reason for retiring.

Girl Victim of Celebrator.

Elizabeth, July 6.—Reckless use of a pistol by John Lookters, thirteen years old, in "celebrating" Tuesday evening, resulted in the shooting of Ethel Masterson, thirteen years old. She was shot in the leg and seriously injured. The boy disappeared after the shooting. The girl, who lives at 39 Pine street, was treated by Dr. Stein and then removed to the Elizabeth General Hospital. The boy's home is at 174 Front street.

$2.50 Atlantic City Outing.

Next Sunday, July 9, via New Jersey Central. Leave Plainfield 7:58 a. m. 7 6 2th-s —Iced tea and coffee will help to make life worth living these days and don't forget that Neuman Bros. carry the finest brands of tea and coffee.

BABY CAMP FUND

City Union of King's Daughters is in Urgent of Cash Just Now.

THE OPENING ON JULY 15.

Special Camp Committee is Appointed—Contributions Will Be Received by The Daily Press.

The executive committee of the City Union of The King's Daughters met this morning at the home of the treasurer, Mrs. A. M. Most, on Myrtle avenue, and received reports for the past month. It was shown that there is now only a balance of $219.74 in the general fund and there is a great need for more funds to carry on the camp and day nursery work. The expenses of the organization amount to $250 a month, hence the apparent need for more money.

The officers are ready to open the camp on the mountain at a minute's notice, but it has been planned to delay the opening until the middle of July when the Day Nursery closes, unless the need is urgent. Mrs. W. Cahoone is chairman of the camp commitee this year, and any information desired may be secured from her by telephone.

The city nurse work has now been taken over by the Charity Organization Society, combining the work of the King's Daughters, public schools and tuberculosis society, and Dr. W. H. Murray is the general chairman of the committee. The oher members are Mrs. F. W. Jones, Miss Burke, George L. Babcock and Dr. E. W. Hedges. Miss Olive Louise Schreibweis has been engaged as the city nurse. Later it is planned to employ two or three trained nurses.

During June 375 children were cared for at the Day Nursery and Mrs. Mae Hall, acting as temporary nurse, made 317 visits, the demands for the services of a nurse being heavy.

The City Union of The King's Daughters makes an appeal to all friends of the work to assist by generous contributions in the support of the baby camp on the mountains. The intense heat of the past week has caused a great deal of illness among the little ones throughout the city and borough and the camp is intended to meet just this situation. Many persons have the idea that the bequest left the union by Mrs. M. E. Edgerton in her will should amply provide for the work but as a matter of fact that legacy was given the Day Nursery and must be spent for that work.

The union has purchased a property on West Front street, which will be opened in the fall as a day nursery. In the meantime there is an urgent need for funds to carry on the baby camp work. Those who are planning to spend the summer out of town are requested not to forget the sick babies who must stay at home. All contributions of money left at The Daily Press will be acknowledged and the money will be turned over to the union, or money may be sent direct to Mrs. Anna Most, treasurer of the organization.

Received to date:

Woman's Christian Work Society — 7th Day Baptist Church $5.00

PIERCE A CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATE

Announcement was made today by former Assemblyman Carlton B. Pierce, of Cranford, of his candidacy for the State Senate.

"I am entering the lists," said Mr Pierce, "not so much in the spirit of a seeker of office, as to make good the expectation of a year past; and because of an interest, which I have found real, in legislative matters. Should the honor come to me, I shall endeavor to the best of my ability, to fill the office worthily.

"There are three things in my mind, I would like to assist in accomplishing—One, to correct the tax laws, to secure a uniform scale of real estate assessment, whether full value or less, throughout county and State. Another, to secure a revision, or at least a compilation, of the state statutes now in a hopeless state of confusion. And the third, to reach a solution of the grade crossings without placing the burden upon the local communities affected. In New York, the burden is borne between railroad and State, except that in the City of New York, the city pays a part. As New Jersey, even more than New York, is a highway for through travel, it has seemed to me, in New Jersey as in New York, the subject should be treated as a State and not a local matter."

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ANOTHER GREAT MAGAZINE.

Which Will Cost You Nothing—Free With North American.

The North American has a high-class magazine which is given free. It will be called the Family Magazine. It is the same size and general appearance as the Monthly Magazine which has been such a popular feature of the Sunday North American for several months. The Monthly Magazine will continue to be given free with The North American of the second Sunday of each month. The Family Magazine is given free with The North American of the fourth Sunday of each month. The Family Magazine, as indicated by its name, is planned with an especial view to appeal to every element in the family circle.

In Chicago.

Mrs. Dearborn—My husband is a self-made man, you must remember.

Mrs. Wabash—Well, it looks to me as if he spent too much time on his feet!—Yonkers Statesman.

The Young Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will meet this evening at the home of the Misses Ruski, 431 West Sixth street.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME

is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.

You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.

Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD. NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Telephone 220-J.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 2345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 534-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 902-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 3094-Gramercy.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants. Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

DIED.

EVEREST—On Thursday, July 6, 1911, Mary Emma, widow of Robert R. Everest, aged 60 years.

Funeral services at her late residence, 622 East Seventh street, on Saturday, July 8, at 2:30 p. m. 7 6 2

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Good laundress by the day, white. Apply evenings, 541 Stelle avenue. 7 5 tf

LARGE sized girl wanted; wages to start $3 per week. Apply City Market News Stand, 125 North avenue, after 7 p. m.

GIRL wanted for general housework; must have references. Apply 516 Woodland avenue. 7 6 3

WANTED—Girl for housework; no washing or upstairs work; must be good plain cook with reference; $25. 31 Myrtle avenue. 7 6 3

WANTED—Cook and waitress at 338 East Front street. 7 5 4

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

WANTED—OPERATORS, ALSO LEARNERS, ON LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR; PAID WHILE LEARNING. SCHILLER BROS., 320 WEST FRONT STREET. 6 8 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mallard opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 3 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—2 good boys to learn plumbing trade. Call 23 Vine street. 7 5 3

CARPENTERS wanted. 423 John street. 7 5 3

BOY—More money in one day may be earned with me than during an entire week in other ways. Applicants must be bright, neatly dressed, clean hands and face. I want the manliest boy in the city. Come early prepared for work. J. C. Field, 411 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

FOR RENT.

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms. 671 West Fourth street. 7 5 tf

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Fine Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—4 rooms on West Third street, near Clinton avenue. Inquire 433 Orchard place. 7 6 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 7 6 tfeod

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO RENT—Four rooms and bath, $20; heat and hot water furnished; desirable location. Address D, care Press. 6 29 6

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Black "Post" Fountain Pen. Reward. Dr. Lowrie. 7 3 3

LOST—On July 4th, tan and black collie, white tip on tail. Return to 1220 East Front street and receive reward. 7 6 3

LOST—Gold signet ring, initials P. M. D. Reward at 42 Mountain avenue. 7 3 6

LOST—Monday afternoon at Plainfield Country Club, gold watch with fob attached. Liberal reward if returned to Wylie Brown, 1239 Watchung avenue. 7 6 tf

LOST—On road from Martinsville, silk scarf. Return to this office. 7 3 3

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 3 1 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants position as general houseworker. 215 Muhlenberg place. 7 5 3

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FOR SALE—3 pure bred hound puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

HAY FOR SALE—6½ acres, standing; near town; cheap. 31 Brook avenue. 7 6 3

FOR SALE—An imported Irish crochet hand made collar. Address Mrs. Emmons, 18 Steiner place, N. P. 7 6 2

INDIAN MOTORCYCLE broken in an accident; don't want to bother having it repaired. Has a good engine and two good tires; will sell either today or Friday for about the price of a pair of new tires. 425 East Second street.

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanizing, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 2 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask. 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 3 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 325 East Fifth st. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—to purchase a gas range; must be in good order. Apply at 921 Watchung avenue. 7 5 2

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 2 16 tf

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Stocks were weak in New York yesterday.

Prices for corn soared in Chicago on reports of heat and drouth following the holiday.

The principal European powers agreed to hold "conversations" on the subject of Morocco.

The temperature at Albany, N. Y., was 116, and at Junction City, Kan., 113; at Newport, R. I., the mercury registered 78.

Maria Pia, widow of King Luis of Portugal, mother of King Carlos, grandmother of ex-King of Italy, died near Turin.

There was a falling off of nearly $7,000,000 in customs receipts at the port of Boston for the fiscal year which ended June 30.

It was announced at Lake George, N. Y., that Edward M. Shepard was confined to his bed at his summer home by a severe cold.

President Shonts of the Interborough conferred with Borough President McAneny, of New York, and others on subway matters.

President Taft returned to Washington from Indianapolis and expressed gratification over the reception given to his speech on reciprocity.

The explosion of an aerial bomb found in the debris of a Fourth of July celebration in Brooklyn killed a boy and fatally injured two others.

Six thousand drivers in the Street Cleaning Department in New York threatened a strike against the new plan of removing garbage at night.

R. B. Fosdick, Commissioner of Accounts of New York, announced he would investigate alleged graft in the purchase of fireworks for the city.

Judge E. H. Gary, presiding at the first meeting of the International Steel Conference at Brussels, put in a plea for the "golden rule" in the steel trade.

Fighting was reported between seamen in barracks at Lisbon, incited by monarchists, and the populace; cavalry and infantry were called out to restore order.

There were 29 deaths from the heat in Philadelphia, 11 in Cleveland, 37 in Chicago, 4 in Pittsburg, and deaths were also reported from many other cities.

Turkey began military preparations in view of Montenegro's continued activity; it was thought not improbable that the Sultan's minister at Cettinje may be recalled.

Mrs. Felicia Rees, continuing her testimony on behalf of E. A. See, charged with the abduction of Mildred Bridges, in Chicago, described the meetings in See's flat as being entirely moral.

The Pope in a letter received by the Apostolic Delegate in Washington, which was sent to President Taft, applauded the lead taken by the United States in the movement for universal peace.

The House of Lords passed by a vote of 253 to 46 an amendment to the veto bill excluding Home Rule legislation from its operation; the government announced it could not accept the amendment.

The hot wave completed its fourth day with no diminution of its intensity, causing widespread suffering and numerous deaths, in New York, but a cool wave was predicted as likely to come from the West tomorrow.

Congress.—Senate: Senator Burton, replying to criticism of Mr. Taft by Senator Cummins, upheld the President's right to make the Canadian reciprocity agreement and advocate it in speeches. House: The resolution providing for direct election of Senators was sent to conference.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS
Bears the Signature of
Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought
In Use For Over 30 Years.
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

YOUR HOME

can be built or bought on money borrowed from Home Building and Loan Association.

Many people own their property who otherwise could never have had it.

Interest at favorable rates, with principal easily repaid in small monthly payments.

Apply to Home Building and Loan Association or Arthur E. Crone, Secretary.

tu-th

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

We Close Saturdays at 12:30 Until After Labor Day

BUT we are open for business from Monday morning until Saturday noon.

THIS WEEK WE OFFER very attractive bargains in Porch Furniture. Willow Chairs—Reed Porch Tables—Porch Rockers—Rattan Couches and Old Hickory Chairs and Tables.

BABY CARRIAGES A fine line of Reed Hood Pullman Sleeper Carriages, corduroy lining and large rubber tires. Prices from $12.50 to $30.00.

Refrigerators, Bed Hammocks, Reed Chairs

POWLISON & JONES
149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

This Store Will Not Be Open Evenings During July and August, Excepting Saturday, July 1

HAHNE & CO.
IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS ·

THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

SALE SAMPLE STOCKINGS
FOR MEN, WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

We have cleaned up the sample lines of a lot of New York's largest importers and distributors of hosiery—got the salesman's samples in the best styles and colorings that were produced for this season's wear. We have grouped them into as few lots as possible so as to make the selection easy; the selling started promptly upon the opening of the store this morning; plenty of extra salespeople have been provided.

WOMEN'S STOCKINGS.

Lot 1—Women's 25 Stockings—Imported and domestic makes; lisles and cottons; blacks tans and good colors will be sold for only..16c

Lot 2—Women's 50c Stockings—Fine imported makes, lisles and fine cottons; blacks, tans and colors; plain weaves and lace effects; embroidered insteps, for 27c

MEN'S HALF HOSE.

Lot 1—Men's 25c Socks of lisles and cottons; blacks, tans and colors; well made; in this sale for only 15c

Lot 2—Men's 50c Socks—Fine cottons and lisles; blacks, tans and colors; various styles for only 25c

CHILDREN'S HOSIERY.

Lot 1—Infants' 50c Silk Stockings—Pure thread silk; blacks, whites, tans and colors, for only 25c

Lot 2—Infants' Socks—White with colored tops, lisles and cottons; 25c grades for only 12½c

AN ADDITIONAL ATTRACTION.

300 Pairs Women's $1.25 and $1.50 Pure Thread Silk Stockings; fine guage; blacks, tans and whites; reinforced; for only.....85c

LACE CURTAINS AT HALF

All Odd Pairs of Lace Curtains, including many handsome designs in Irish Point, Renaissance, Marie Antoinette, Bonne Femme, Scotch Lace Swiss and Ruffled Net will be offered in the July Sale at just half price.

ODD PAIRS PORTIERES

These are excellent portieres, all of them—some of the very highest grades, in pretty patterns and beautiful colorings, but most of them will not be duplicated, so we are eager to close out what we have on hand, and we sacrifice the profits and more in order to sell them speedily.

	Reg. price, pair.	Special		Reg. price, pair.	Special
Armure Portieres	$6.00	$4.00	Silk Damask Portieres	$36.50	$18.25
Washable Portieres	$9.00	$4.50	Damask and Velour Portieres	$52.00	$26.00
Red Silk Armure Portieres	$12.00	$6.00	Imperial Velour Portieres	$35.00	$27.50
Satin Durby Portieres	$21.00	$10.50	Silk Velour Portieres	$45.00	$30.00
Tapestry Portieres	$18.00	$9.00	Emb. Silk Velour Portieres	$75.00	$56.00
Embossed Velour Portieres	$30.00	$15.00

LACES AT HALF
PRETTY EMBROIDERIES, TOO.

Beautiful Washable Laces, Cluny, Torchon, Valenciennes—In white and ecru shades; a large variety of patterns to choose from; at just about half their value—the yard 5c & 10c

Valenciennes Lace Edgings and Insertings—Value 50c a dozen yards, will go in this sale at only 25c.

All Linen, Cluny and Torchon Lace Bandings—4 to 6 inches wide; value 50c a yard, will be offered at only 21c.

45-inch Flouncings—Open lace work designs on soft batiste cloth; a variety of new and winning patterns; value $2.50 the yard, will be special priced $1.25.

27-inch Swiss and Batiste Embroideries and Flouncings, value $1.25 the yard, will go in this sale at only 69c.

Embroidered Flouncings, Swiss and Nainsook—22 and 27 inches wide, at about half regular prices—29c, 39c, 49c.

WOMEN'S KNIT UNDERWEAR
A MANUFACTURER'S PREDICAMENT—OUR OPPORTUNITY.

We bought the best of a great stock of women's knit underwear, including a very well known brand, at a price far, far below its value, and with this lot we will offer the sample pieces of one of the largest distributors of knit underwear in the country bought advantageously.

Lot 1—Women's Vests; white ribbed cotton; low neck, sleeveless style; 15c value..10c

Lot 2—Women's Vests of lisle and cotton; plain and fancy yokes; low neck, sleeveless styles and knee length pants; value 25c at 17c

Lot 3—Women's Lisle Vests; low neck; sleeveless, plain and fancy yokes; pants in knee lengths and union suits; 35c values 25c

Lot 4—Women's Union Suits; fine lisles, low neck, sleeveless styles; knee lengths; $1 value; at just half price, 50c.

MAN-TAILORED SKIRTS $1.25

The success which attended our previous season of this fine special offer of tailor-made separate skirts has led us to bring you this advantage again, so we have made arrangements to take orders for the making of 400 more skirts.

We employ only tailors of the first class to do this work, and if it were not the tailors' dull season we could not quote such a price as we do on orders received Thursday, Friday and Saturday—$1.25.

We will have no difficulty in fittting those of stout figure as well as all others; a perfect fit is guaranteed in every instance.

We recommend most highly these splendid skirt materials:

Linen Duck, Tan Khaki, Dapple Gray Linen, Ramie Crash, White Pique, White Rep, White Butcher Linen. Prices range from 29c to 75c the yard.

FINEST OF RUGS
IN THE GREAT JULY SALE AT PRICES THAT WILL DELIGHT YOU

WILTON RUGS.
Standard Qualities.

27x54 inches, reg. $3.95; sale price $3.00
36x63 inches, reg. $5.95; sale price $4.75.
4½x7½ feet, reg. $12.50; sale price $11.25.
6x9 feet, reg. $22.50; sale price $19.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $35.00; sale price $28.50.
9x12 feet, reg. $37.50; sale price $29.50.

BODY BRUSSELS RUGS.

10½x14 feet, reg. $50.00; sale price $37.50
10½x12 feet, reg. $42.50; sale price $32.00.
10½x10½ feet, reg. $37.50; sale price $28.00.
9x12 feet, reg. $30.50; sale price $26.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $28.00; sale price $25.00.
6x9 feet, reg. $21.00; sale price $19.00.
4½x7½ feet, reg. $11.50; sale price $9.95.

TAPESTRY BRUSSEL RUGS.

6x9 feet, reg. $7.95; sale price $6.95.
7½x9 feet, reg. $10.00; sale price $8.95.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $13.50; sale price $12.00.
9x12 feet, reg. $16.75; sale price $14.50.

TAPESTRY BRUSSELS RUGS.
Best 10-Wire Quality.

7½x9 feet, reg. $12.00; sale price $10.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $16.00; sale price $13.50.
9x12 feet, reg. $19.75; sale price $16.50.

SUMMER RUGS REDUCED.

Hofi Fiber Rugs.
Kaba Fiber and Wool Rugs.
Rag Style Colonial Rugs.
Algerian Porch Rugs.
Fiber Matting, special prices.
Carpets are reduced, too.

FRENCH WILTON RUGS.

All the discontinued patterns of these most popular Rugs. Regularly restricted prices; to be sold at special prices in the July sale.

10½x14 feet, reg. $85.50; sale price $69.50.
10½x12 feet, reg. $75.50; sale price $59.50.
10½x10½ feet, reg. $66.00; sale price $55.00.
9x12 feet, reg. $55.00; sale price $43.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $50.00; sale price $39.50.
6x9 feet, reg. $35.00; sale price $27.50.
4½x7½ feet, reg. $19.50; sale price $15.00.
3x5¼ feet, reg. $8.50; sale price $6.95.

BUNDHAR WILTON RUGS.

The heaviest and best wearing Wilton Rugs; discontinued patterns in the July Sale

10.6x14.0 feet, reg. $63.00; sale price $49.50.
10.6x12.0 feet, reg. $54.00; sale price $44.50
10.6x10.6 feet, reg. $47.00; sale price $39.50
9x12 feet, reg. $40.00; sale price $32.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $37.50; sale price $29.50.
6x9 feet, regular $24.50; sale price $19.50.
4½x9½ feet, reg. $14.00; sale price $12.50.
3x5¼ feet, reg. $6.50; sale price $5.45.

AXMINSTER RUGS.
Best Seamless Qualities.

9x12 feet, reg. $27.50; sale price $24.50.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $24.50; sale price $21.95.
6x9 feet, reg. $14.25; sale price $12.50.
4½x6½ feet, reg. $7.95; sale price $6.75.
3x5.10 feet, reg. $4.00; sale price $3.45.

AXMINSTER RUGS.
Best Sewed-Seam Rugs.

11.3x15 feet, reg. $39.75; sale price $32.50.
10½x12 feet, reg. $29.50; sale price $26.50.
9x12 feet, reg. $24.50; sale price $22.00.
8½x10½ feet, reg. $22.50; sale price $20.25.

"DUKE" THOMPSON TO BE BURIED AT GLOUCESTER.

Gloucester City, July 6.—The body of William J. Thompson, who died suddenly Sunday at Belfast, Ireland, will be brought back to this country by his son, Rufus B. Thompson, who was with him when death came. The remains will probably land in New York, and are expected here within the next week.

Upon the arrival of the body the date of the funeral will be set, and it will take place from his late home here. Services will be held in St. Mary's Catholic church, of which Mr. Thompson was one of the most generous supporters. Interment will be in the family plot at St. Mary's cemetery, where he has two sons and a daughter buried.

Henry J. West, who is the receiver of his estate, said that the death of Mr. Thompson will complicate affairs. The bankruptcy proceedings which have been partly heard by S. Conrad Ott, referee, will continue. Before Mr. Thompson left on the trip to Ireland he was examined on most of the important points involved in the settlement of his estate.

Mr. Thompson's widow will get a large portion of the $50,000 life insurance payment to be made to the estate. Under the bankruptcy act the trustee ascertains the cash surrender value of the insurance policy as of date of adjudication. The family will have thirty days in which to redeem the cash surrender value of Mr. Thompson's policies. The balance will leave a comfortable sum for the widow.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED BY FATHER OF FIANCEE.

Keyport, July 6.—A revolver which Robert C. Cook was cleaning Tuesday afternoon went off accidentally and a bullet struck Miss Anna Siltzsinger, of Murray Hill, N. Y., fiancee of Cook's son. She died less than an hour later as the result of the wound.

Young Cook, his father, Robert Cook, a friend of the family, Neil Anderson, and Miss Siltsinger went out to the garden in the back of the Cook residence to sit under the trees and get some relief from the stifling heat indoors. Young Cook had a revolver with which he was shooting off blank cartridges for a while, when his father went into the house, bringing out some bullets, and asked his son for the gun, saying he would show the young people how to shoot.

Cook, Sr., inserted a bullet into the revolver after cleaning the pistol chamber. He had the muzzle pointing toward the young girl, when it went off.

The young people were to have been married next month, and the girl's visit was partly to make the final arrangements for the wedding. Almost the last thing they were talking about was about the wedding and what they would do after the wedding.

Coroner J. I. Stickle, of Navesink, was called, and when he viewed the body and heard the story he decided that the shooting was accidental and issued a burial permit.

SKY SET OFF FIREWORKS ACCOMPANIED WITH RAIN.

Fourth of July pyrotechnics of the nature variety in the form of lightning and thunder, made up for the absence of firecrackers and other noise makers in North Arlington and Kearney Tuesday afternoon. The electrical disturbance was accompanied in North Arlington by a shower of hail, which was succeeded by a deluge of rain. There was also a gale strong enough to blow over a few trees in the woods along Kearny avenue and back of the reservoir. The hail did some damage to the crops in the borough. The storm lasted not more than fifteen minutes.

It seemed as if two storms met over Kearny, one from the West and the other from the Southwest. For a half-hour or more there was a downpour of rain in the upper end of the town, but in the lower section of Pomeroy avenue only a few drops fell.

HEAT KILLS BABE SOON AFTER IT IS BAPTIZED.

Union Hill, July 6.—Bearing a three-month-old baby in her arms, a woman appealed to Policeman Kolb Tuesday afternoon to direct her to a clergyman.

The baby, she said, was dying from the heat and it had not been baptized. She had been unable to find a doctor in his office and the infant was so low that she feared to wait any longer.

The policeman accompanied the woman to the home of the nearest clergyman, to whom a hurried explanation was made. The clergyman baptized the child and it died while the mother and policeman were tramping in search of a doctor.

—Use Press want ads.
—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

"Yes, that and loneliness," resenting his familiarity. "Do we need to go any farther? Surely, we are alone here."

"Only a few steps; the ravine is yonder, and we can sit down on the rocks. I want to smoke, and we will be entirely out of sight there."

He helped her down the rather sharp declivity until both were thoroughly concealed below the prairie level. Feeling about with his hands he found the surface of a smooth rock, and seated her upon it. Then a match flared, casting an instant's gleam across his face as he lighted his cigar. Blacker than ever the night shut down about them, and he groped for a seat beside her. She could perceive just one star peering through a rift of cloud, and in her nostrils was the pungent odor of tobacco. With a little shiver of disgust she drew slightly away from him, dreading what was to come. One thing alone she felt was in her favor—However familiar Hawley attempted to be, he was evidently not yet sufficiently sure of Miss Maclaire to become entirely offensive. She might not have frowned at his love-making, but apparently he had not yet progressed sufficiently far in her good graces to venture to extremes. Hope pressed her lips together, determined to resist any further approach of the man. However, his earliest words were a relief.

"I reckon, Christie," he said slowly, between puffs on his cigar, the lighted end of which faintly illumined his face, "you've got the idea I have brought you out here to make love. Lord knows I'd like to well enough, but just now there's more important matters on hand. Fact is, my girl, we're up against a little back-set, and have got to make a shift in our plans—a mighty quick shift, too," he added, almost savagely.

"I—I don't think I understand."

"No, of course, you don't. You imagine all we've got to do in a matter of this kind is to step into the nearest court, and draw the money. One trouble is, our evidence isn't complete—we've got to find that woman who brought you up."

"Oh!" said Hope, not knowing what else to say.

"Yes," he went on, apparently satisfied with her exclamation. "Of course, I know she's dead, or at least, you say so, but we haven't got enough proof without her—not the way old Waite promises to fight your claim—and so we've got to hunt for a substitute. Do you happen to know any old woman about the right age who would make affidavit for you? She probably wouldn't have to go on the stand at all. Waite will cave in as soon as he knows we've got the evidence."

He waited for an answer, but she hardly knew what to say. Then she remembered that Keith insisted that Miss Maclaire had no conception that there was any fraud in her claim.

"No, I know no one. But what do you mean? I thought everything was straight? That there was no question about my right to inherit?"

"Well, there isn't, Christie," pulling fiercely on his cigar. "But the courts are particular; they have got to have the whole thing in black and white. I thought all along I could settle the entire matter with Waite outside, but the old fool won't listen to reason. I saw him twice to-day."

"Twice?" surprise wrung the word from her.

"Yes; thought I had got him off on a false scent and out of the way, the first time, but he turned up again like a bad penny. What's worse, he's evidently stumbled on to a bit of legal information which makes it safer for us to disappear until we can get the links of our chain forged. He's taken the case into court already, and the sheriff is here tryin' to find me so as to serve the papers. I've got to skip out, and so've you."

"I?" rising to her feet, indignantly. "What have I done to be frightened over?"

He laughed, but not pleasantly.

"Oh, hell, Christie, can't you understand? Old Waite is after you the same way he is me. It'll knock our whole case if he can get you into court before our evidence is ready. All you know is what I have told you—that's straight enough—but we've got to have proof. I can get it in a month, but he's got hold of something which gives him a leverage. I don't know what it is—maybe it's just a bluff—but the charge is conspiracy, and he's got warrants out. There is nothing for us to do but skip."

"But my clothes; my engagement?" she urged, feeling the insistent earnestness of the man, and sparring for delay. "Why, I cannot go. Besides, if the sheriff is hunting us, the trains will be watched."

"Do you suppose I am fool enough to risk the trains?" he exclaimed, roughly, plainly losing patience. "Not much; horses and the open plains for us, and a good night the start of them. They will search for me first, and you'll never be missed until you fail to show up at the Troadero. Never mind the clothes; they can be sent after us."

"To-night!" she cried, awakening to the immediate danger, and rising to her feet. "You urge me to fly with you to-night?—now?"

"Sure, don't be foolish and kick up a row. The horses are here waiting just around the end of the ravine."

She pressed her hands to her breast, shrinking away from him.

"No! No! I will not go!" she declared, indignantly. "Keep back! Don't touch me!"

Hawley must have expected the resistance, for with a single movement he grasped her even as she turned to fly, pinning her arms helplessly to her side, holding her as in a vise.

"Oh, but you will, my beauty," he growled. "I thought you might act up and I'm ready. Do you think I am fool enough to leave you here alone to be pumped dry? It is a big stake I'm playing after, girl, and I am not going to lose it through the whims of a woman. If you won't go pleasantly, then you'll go by force. Keep still, you tigress! Do you want me to choke you?"

She struggled to break loose, twisting and turning, but the effort was useless. Suddenly he whistled sharply. There was the sound of feet scrambling down the path, and the frightened woman perceived the dim outlines of several approaching men. She gave one scream, and Hawley released his grip on her arms to grasp her throat.

She jerked away, half-stumbling backward over a rock. The revolver, carried concealed in her dress, was in her hand. Mad with terror, scarcely knowing what she did, she pulled the trigger. In the flash she saw one man throw up his hands and go down. The next instant the others were upon her.

(To Be Continued.)

Use TIZ-- Smaller Feet

Sore Feet, Tender Feet and Swollen Feet Cured Every Time. TIZ Makes Sore Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

Everyone who is troubled with sore, sweaty, or tender feet—swollen feet—smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions can quickly make their feet well now. Here is instant relief and a lasting, permanent remedy—it's called TIZ. TIZ makes sore feet well and swollen feet are quickly reduced to their natural size. Thousands of ladies have been able to wear shoes a full size smaller with perfect comfort.

It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleanses them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists 25 cents per box or direct if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY.

In the matter of the Petition of the United States of America for the appointment of Commissioners to fix the compensation, &c., to be paid to Charles E. Vail, et als., trustees, &c., for their lands, etc. } On Petition, &c. Application for Payment of Award of Commissioners. Order.

To Matthais A. Brown, Sarah Ann Brown, his wife, their respective heirs, devisees and personal representatives, the heirs, devisees and personal representatives of George R. Pound, deceased, and of Henry R. Shotwell, deceased; the successors in office, heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Hugh Townsend, Elijah Shotwell, Smith Webster and Samuel L. Pound, "Trustees of the Friends School Society" at Plainfield, in the County of Essex and State of New Jersey," and to the unknown owners of property in the Petition in the above entitled cause, described.

Application having been made by petition to this Court by Charles E. Vail and others, Trustees, for payment to them of the compensation and award made by J. Fred MacDonald, William A. Woodruff and Frank H. Smith, Commissioners heretofore appointed in the above entitled matter:

IT IS, on this twenty-sixth day of June, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eleven, ordered that you and each of you appear before this Court at the Post-office building in the city of Trenton, on the fifth day of September, Nineteen Hundred and Eleven, at 10:30 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any you have, why the compensation and award heretofore made in said matter should not be paid to the petitioners Charles E. Vail, William D. Williams, Clarence B. Vail and Ephraim M. Vail, Trustees of the Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends for Rahway and Plainfield, as in the petition by them filed herein, prayed for, or such other relief be granted as may be deemed equitable and just.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in The Daily Press, a newspaper published at Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, once a week for five weeks.

JOHN RELLSTAB, Judge.

A True Copy.
GEORGE T. CRANMER, Clerk. 6 29 5oaw

PROPOSALS FOR ADDITION TO THE HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Board of Education of the City of Plainfield, N. J., at a meeting held Monday evening, June 19, 1911, the Board will meet on Thursday evening, July 6, 1911, at eight o'clock at the board room in the High School building, corner West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, to receive sealed proposals for the proposed addition to the High School. Plans and specifications which are now on file in the office of the architect, James Gamble Rogers, 11 East Twenty-fourth street, New York, and also on file in the Board of Education room, West Ninth street and Arlington avenue, in the City of Plainfield.

All proposals to be endorsed, "Proposals for the addition to the High School Building," and adressed to the secretary of the Board.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Secretary will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding, or their agents, provided such parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also to make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Board. No bids will be received previous to the hour designated, and none will be received thereafter. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

For the Board of Education.
F. B. Clark, Clerk of the Board.
6 23 26 28 30 7 1 3 6

INDEPENDENCE

The spirit of 1776 still prevails. Be independent of high prices by purchasing your Tea, Coffee, Groceries, Fruits and Vegetables of W. W. Dunn and You Will Save Money.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN
THE PARK GROCER
Duer St. [illegible]

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

COMB RAIN COMB SUNSHINE

In all seasons and for all occasions there is to be found in the

Made in Berkshire

line manufactured by

Eaton, Crane & Pike Co.

a distinctive something which appeals to all users of fine writing paper.

Crane's Linen Lawn

in the new fashionable shades are the daintiest creations for this season.

Come in and see them

Lenox Stationery Store
102 Madison Ave.
TEL. 1036-R. BABCOCK BUILDING.
The Little Store Around the Corner.

Typewriters Bought, Sold, Rented and Repaired (all makes.)

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1910.

NEW YORK mails, Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.40 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 2.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—4.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 8.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 8.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R
Successor to Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue, 'Phone 394.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement
Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.
'PHONE 446-J.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Try a Press Want Ad

From July 7th to Sept. 2nd inclusive, this store will close Friday evenings at 6 o'clock and Saturdays at 1 p. m., other days as usual at 5:30 p. m.
Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. J. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE," New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK

WOMEN'S WAISTS, KIMONOS, ETC.
A Feature of Our Great July Sale

IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE JULY SALE OFFERINGS OF WOMEN'S APPAREL.

REGULAR $1.50 SHORT AND LONG KIMONOS.
Fine quality lawns, white grounds with floral patterns in light blue, lavender, pink; square neck of fine embroidery, ribban run through back, tucked belt at waistline to match neck, long sleeves, cuffs to match neck, another model in fancy lawn, kimono sleeves, white grounds with rose designs; sizes 34 to 44, at.. $1.19

REGULAR $1.00 SACQUES AND KIMONOS.
Long or short, lawn, white, well covered with polka dots in lavender, black or light blue; large fancy collars with border of large dots, four tucks from shoulder to bust, plain back, belt at waistline to match collar; ¾ sleeves, turn back border to match; another model in long kimono, elegant quality of lawn; special at..... .79

GOOD $1.00 HOUSE DRESSES.
All well made, in stripes, dark or light, also neat checks, high or low neck, long or short sleeves, broad or smal tucks; plain back, neat belt at waist line; sizes 34 to 44, at..... .77

WOMEN'S AND MISSES' $3.00 COAT SWEATERS.
Three good models for you to select from in double breasted and shawl collar, collarless models or standing collar, in a very neat fancy stitch; two pocket mode with turn over lap; good shape sleeve, neat cuffs and just the right length and new models, collarless models in gray, red and white; sizes 34 to 44; misses' sizes 30 to 34, at..... $1.79

REGULAR $1.50 TOTS' COAT SWEATERS.
Elegant quality wool, plain mannish stitch, collarless, full fashioned, two pockets, plain sleeves, close knit cuffs, good pearl buttons; in red, gray and gray with red trimmings; sizes 30 to 34, at..... $1.19

WOMEN'S REG. $4.00 GRAY COAT SWEATERS.
Very good model in a neat fancy stitch, good length, elegant quality, V neck, single breasted, two pockets, turn over lap semi-fitted, good pearl buttons, sizes 34 to 44, at..... $3.29

REGULAR $5 WOMEN'S SWEATERS.
Women's gray coat sweaters, well made and serviceable; in a very good fancy stitch fitted V neck, collarless, just the right length, two pockets, turn over laps, close knit cuffs; sizes 34 to 44, at..... $3.79

GREAT JULY SALE OF SUMMER FOOTWEAR
About 700 Pairs of Odd and Small Lots of This Season's Goods Not all Sizes in Every Style But all Sizes in Entire Lot.
Odds and ends are bound to accumulate in a great shoe business like ours, but the price we put shoes to clean up stocks at the end of each season always attract earger buyers, many of whom go away delighted with the bargains we give them. Of course in these sales sizes are broken and occasionally we disappoint a few customers, for if we had every size we had no broken lots and hence few broken prices—collectively the sizes are good in this lot.

WOMEN'S $2.50 TO $3.00 SUMMER TIES AND STRAP PUMPS.
All Goodyear welts, consisting of broken lots of gun metal and patent leather, ankle strap pumps, tan calf oxfords, tan kid and gun metal and patent leather ties; a few $2.00 shoes in the lot, but mostly $2.50 and $3.00, at..... $1.69

711 TO 721 BROAD ST. NEWARK.
ALL MAIL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.
All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

NO NIGHT SHOPPING IN THIS STORE UNTIL FALL CLOSE SATURDAY AT NOON.

STRAUS'S
RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT LOWEST PRICES
683-687 BROAD ST., 21 W. PARK ST. NEWARK, N.J.

Mid-Summer Sale of MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

We cannot too strongly emphasize the importance of this sale as it permits you to buy new, fresh looking undermuslins at a fraction of their cost. Thousands of Pieces in This Sale, Each at a Special Bargain Price.

AT 15c—Value 25c—Brassieres, corset covers, drawers and short skirts, cambric ruffles, tucked, trimmed in a number of styles with lace and embroidery.

AT 19c—Value 29c—Corset covers and drawers, nicely trimmed with embroidery and laces; all sizes.

AT 25c—Value 39c—Drawers, corset covers and short skirts; fine quality of cambric; a number of pretty styles.

AT 39c—Value 59c—Night robes, combinations, corset cover and skirt, or corset cover and drawers, short skirt, drawers, corset covers and petticoats; corded band chemise and skirt length chemise; a large assortment elaborately trimmed.

AT 45c—Value 68c—Night robes, slip over or open front corset covers, drawers and petticoats; all made of nainsook or cambric trimmed; with embroidery or lace beading and ribbon; all sizes.

AT $1.98-$2.50—Value $3-$4—A lot of hand-made and hand embroidered underwear, consisting of corset covers, drawers and chemise, very dainty.

AT 25c—Value 50c—Summer Corsets, in batiste or net; sizes 15 to 26 inches.

AT 65c—Value 98c—Petticoats, night robes, drawers, corset covers, combinations and skirt length chemise, fine materials, elaborately trimmed with linen and Val. lace, also fine Hamburg.

AT 29c—Value 39c—Night robes in cambric, yoke of tucks and insertings of embroidery, nicely made.

AT 88c—Value $1.25—Night robes, petticoats, chemise, drawers, corset covers, princess slips and combinations, made of fine lawn, cambric and nainsook, trimmed with embroidery, lace and ribbons.

AT $1.35—Value $2.00—A lot of pretty combinations, petticoats, night robes, princess slips, drawers and corset covers, trimmed with German, Valenciennes or fine Hamburg.

AT $1.89—Value $2.50—Petticoats, princess slips, drawers and combinations, all made in the finest quality of nainsook and elaborately trimmed with embroidery and lace.

The David Straus Co.
683-687 Broad St. 21 W. Park St.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 281

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 313 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St. Kit

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
M. MERSTRICH, Prop.
Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY
Stiles & Co.
'HILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS
at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.
Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

HUDSON RIVER
MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 815 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

NOTICE OF ORDER TO LIMIT CREDITORS.

Somerset County Surrogate's Court.

Estate of William H. Burridge, Deceased. Notice is hereby given, that on the twenty-third day of May, A. D. 1911, on the application of the undersigned, as Executrix of the Estate of William H. Burridge, deceased; an order was made by the Surrogate's Court, requiring the creditors of the said William H. Burridge, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor shall be forever barred of his or her action therefor against the subscriber.

FANNY LUCY HOOLEY, Executrix.
Fee $14.80 5 25 9th Plainfield, N. J.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—781.

SAFETY FOR VAULABLES

OUR STORAGE VAULT is of fire and burglar-proof construction, is free from dampness and is large enough to accommodate trunks and boxes of all sizes.

Storage rates 50c a month and upwards.

OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT is also of fire and burglar-proof construction and affords absolute protection for valuable papers, jewelry, etc. It is equipped with boxes of all sizes.

Safe Deposit rates $5.00 a year upwards.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

ROTH & CO.'S

Fish Specials
For Friday, July 7

Fancy Weakfish, lb	8c
Extra Fancy Fresh Caught Bluefish, lb	8c
Fresh Caught Sea Bass, lb	8c
Fresh Caught Porgies, lb	8c

Special Offer

1,000 lbs Fresh Caught Chicken Halibut, lb	12c
Clams, in shell, doz	12c

ENDRESS COMPANY

SEAFOOD

Weakfish, lb	10c
Flounders, lb	10c
Sea Bass, lb	10c
Bluefish, lb	12c

Cod, Halibut, Bonita Mackerel, Spanish Mackerel, Eels, Hard and Soft Crabs

Porgies, lb 12c

SANATORIUM PLANS

(Continued from page 1.)

These buildings have a diet kitchen from whence the bed patients will be served, and also have, in addition to the regular toilet accomodations, a medical room for the treatment of nose and throat cases.

The nurses' building was designed for the accomodation of the female nurses, and will be equipped in the very best and most modern manner and will have, in addition to the regular bed rooms, sleeping porches, giving the nurses an opportunity to sleep either in doors or out-doors, as is customary in institutions of this nature. The power house is situated within a short distance of the lake and about sixty feet below the administration building which, being the highest of the group, will be located in such a manner as to keep all the other buildings within view and under the eye of the managing doctor. Other mechanical and engineering reasons necessitated its location at this point. This structure contains the boilers, power generation and heating, the engines and electric generators for light and power. The gas making machinery, the incinerator also the pump for water supply and a modern steam laundry. The engineers and firemen will also be quartered in this building. From this building all the heat will be supplied to the various buildings, also all the lights, both gas and electric. It will also supply the water used for drinking and other purposes. From this point also, all the buildings will be protected against fire.

At the lake will be situated, in a separate building, the fire-pump from where their pipe lines will run to the various buildings for both interior and exterior protection. The reservoir for the water supply will be located at the extreme top of the hill and 100 feet above the lake level being a positive supply of the very best and purest water, known as the Watchung spring water. The tank will have a capacity of 52,000 gallons, and will be constructed of reinforced concrete.

The little chapel building will be located in the northwesterly corner of the property and will be beautifully situated among the trees, giving a splendid view of the surrounding country. The interiors of all the buildings will be so constructed as to avoid any possible angles and corners. The floors and walls being water-proof and of a jointless construction preventing any possibility of the accumulation of dirt of any character. The general design of the buildings, comprising the institution, will be of Italian character. All the roofs will be covered with tile and all the side walls, wherever possible, will be stuccoed over fireproof material.

These buildings are all white, with their bright red roofs, situated in an open view with a back ground of very fine trees, while being one of the finest institutions of its character in the United States, will give more an impression of a resort and to a great extent will be this in reality, and will make possible the caring of patients, not only with the greatest conveniences, but with the comforts of home and the greatest possibility, even probability, of recovering, all within easy traveling distance to every city, town and village in the county. Everything about it will be of the very pleasantest description.

One of the points demanding the greatest study is, the system of sewers, and this subject is being very amply handled by the County Engineer, J. L. Bauer, who will design a sewage disposal plant of the very best type preventing the contamination of any of the streams in the vicinity. All the buildings are practically one story in height with the necessary basement and every floor can be entered from grade, making a possible exit to all persons in the institution in case of fire, enabling them to go immediately out to the ground without having to run down a flight of stairs. All bed rooms for patients are so situated that the patients can be taken directly from the rooms to the open air without being taken from bed.

Trade Candor.

All honor to the Strand draper who exhibited a cautionary notice in his shop window the other day—"These ties will only last a few days."—London Junch.

"Do you know, litle boy, that your sister promised to marry me at the party last night?"

"Of course. That's what the party was for."—Bystander.

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By FRED LUDERUS.

First Baseman Philadelphia National League Team, Whose Hitting Has Been One of the Sensations of the Present Season.

Although I haven't been in the Big Leagues long enough to be an authority on great plays, I once saw one which certainly was the greatest I ever witnessed. How anything could be better I can't imagine.

The play was made by Mike Doolan, our short stop, who I think is the greatest short stop in the country. Doolan does more things down there at short than any one I know of, and keeps right on doing them all the time, cutting off hits, making plays in all directions, and throwing from any position, even when both his feet are off the ground. When I first joined the team and was doing bench duty I used to sit and wonder how Mike could do the things he did, and one of the first breaks I made after going on first was to drop a ball because I was so surprised that Doolan ever reached it in time to make a throw at all.

The greatest play I ever saw him or anyone else make was in a game at Pittsburg. We had the game won by two runs in the seventh inning, when things began to go wrong, and before we could check the Pirates at all they had the bases full with only one out and George Gibson at the bat. The infield was drawn in so as to make the play either way. That is playing the middle distance, so as to either try for a double play from the plate to first, or from second to first, depending on the way the ball was hit. Gibson hit that ball between Grant and Doolan, a fast high bounder that seemed impossible for either one to reach. Doolan must have started the moment the ball was hit, and was sprinting back and up toward third at top speed, trying to head off the ball and at least keep more than one runner from scoring. The ball bounded high and Doolan made a leap and grabbed it, keeping it from going on to left. Still it didn't seem possible for him to make a play as he was going with his side to the base, his back to the plate, and to stop and make a throw in time seemed impossible. But he didn't stop or try to turn. He whipped that ball, or jerked it, with his right hand, throwing under his left arm to third straight into Grant's hands. Gibson was slowing up a bit to make the turn at first, and like a flash Grant shot the ball across to Bransfield, and beat Gibson a step. Doolan's wonderful performance had turned what seemed the winning base hit into a double play.

FRED LUDERUS.

I don't think there is another short stop in the country who could more than have reached the ball, and I'm certain that not another one would even have attempted to make a throw if he did grab the ball. The play saved the game for us, as Pittsburg scored one in the ninth inning and we only beat them by one run.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

The Czar Can't Retire.

"I tell you," the czar said as he ruefully surveyed the report of a popular uprising, a petition from the peasants and a threatening note from the powers—"I tell you, this thing of being an absolute monarch has its drawbacks."

"But, sire," put in a courtier, "surely you do not favor a democratic form of government?"

"No, of course, I don't. But it surely must be a great comfort to a man who is certain to get the worst of it to be able to announce that on account of the advice of his physician, he is about to retire from the cares of politics."

Another Quibble.

"Don't you hate to sleep in an upper berth?"

"No, I like to sleep when I have to take an upper berth."

Statement of Condition June 30, 1911 (condensed)

As rendered to the Department of Banking and Insurance, State of New Jersey

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Railroad and other Bonds	$47,537.50	Capital Stock	$100,000.00
Loans and Investments	310,871.31	Surplus and Profit	44,675.48
Furniture and Fixtures	7,896.60	Reserved for Taxes	700.00
Cash	91,462.15	Deposits	312,725.79
Interest Accrued	583.71	Interest Accrued	250.00
	$458,351.27		$458,351.27

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

R. Henry Depew, President
E. F. Feickert, Vice-President M. C. VanArsdale, Vice-President
Frederic Coriell, Secretary-Treasurer

Grocery Bulletin FOR SATURDAY

Granulated Sugar, 5 lbs	27c
Eagle Brand Milk, 2 cans	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 3 cans (tall)	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 6 cans (small)	25c
Golden Glow Milk, 3 cans	25c
Fancy Butter, per lb	25c
Extra Fancy Creamery Butter, per lb	29c
Best Lard, 2 lbs	25c
Compound Lard, per lb	10c
Old Dutch Cleanser, 3 cans	25c
Curtice Bros. Jams, per jar	15c
Domino Sugar, 5-lb box	39c
Hecker's Oats, 3 packages	25c
Pillsbury Flour, per bag	85c
Gold Medal Flour, per bag	85c
Hecker's Flour, per bag	85c
Family Flour, per bag	70c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	80c
Muellen Macaroni, 3 packages	25c
Kirkman's Soap, 10 bars	45c
Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 bars	45c
Babbitt Soap, 10 bars	40c
Extra Fancy Head Rice, 3 lbs	25c
California Oranges, 15 for	25c
New Potatoes, pony basket	45c
Van Camp Beans, (1-lb cans) 4 for	25c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, per dozen	25c

We Give the S. H. Trading Stamps.

Fred. H. Firstbrook
116 W. Front St.
'Phone 1754

ELECTRIC FANS BRING BREEZES

Summer's heat loses half its terrors if you have an electric fan to make your cooling breezes to order.

You can get an 8-inch, 12-inch or 16-inch fan and have comfort in home or office at an expense of from one-quarter of one cent to one cent per hour.

Why swelter when relief is so readily obtainable?

Public Service Electric Co.

7-6-3

A. & P. Pure Food Bulletin, July 3 to 8, Inclusive.

Going Away This Summer?

If so, this is just to remind you that we can still supply you, whether in the mountains, at the seashore or in the rural district. Drop us a postal, Dept. M, Box 290, New York City, and we will see that you are supplied. We are always at your disposal, whether you are North, South, East or West.

A. & P. Fancy Patent Flour, 1/8 pack. 69c
A Sensational Reduction. No Better Flour Milled.

Laundry Starch, lb 3c

SALMON, Red Alasks, a can	15c
PRUNES, 40-50's, lb	15c
SULTANA TOMATOES, 3 cans	25c
MACKEREL, 8-lb kit	99c
SOUSED MACKEREL, a can	19c

New Laid Eggs, doz 27c

Fancy Elgin Creamery Butter, lb 28c

EL PRIMERO ASPARAGUS, a can	26c
IONA LIMA BEANS, 3 cans	25c
FLY PAPER, 3 double sheets	5c
BEECH NUT BACON, medium jar, 18c; large jar	30c
QUAKER, GRANDMOTHER, MOTHER OATS, 3 pkgs	25c
GOLD DUST, pkg	19c

EXTRA LIBERAL OFFERING OF STAMPS.

80 Stamps with 1 can BAKING POWDER	50c
25 Stamps with 1 bottle EXTRACTS	25c
15 Stamps with 1 can A. & P. COCOA	20c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS AND COFFEES.

10 with 1 lb Sultana, 25c.	30 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 35c
20 with 1 lb 8 O'clock, 25c.	40 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 40c
20 with 1 lb Plaza, 30c.	60 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 50c
30 with 1 lb El Ryad, 35c.	75 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 60c

10 Stamps Free

with 1 can A. & P. JELLY POWDER	10c
with 1 can OLD DUTCH CLEANSER	10c
with 1 jar A. & P. SMOKED BEEF	15c
with 1 bottle SALAD OIL	18c
with 1 pkg. MACARONI OR SPAGHETTI	10c
with 1 can IMPORTED MOYEN PEAS	13c
with 2 boxes A. & P. STOVE POLISH, ea.	5c
with 2 pkgs. A. & P. GELATINE, each	5c
with 1 bottle QUEEN OLIVES	15c

ARE YOU GOING TO THE SEASHORE?
Our Stores at Asbury Park, Long Branch and Atlantic City will supply your wants.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO.

137 W. Front Street
Telephone 117
350 Stores in the U. S.

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYNTON BEACH
CHILDREN'S DAY
SATURDAYS IN JUNE
FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND
SWINGS AND SLIDE
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE
TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Emmet E. Devoy & Co., sketch, "The Little Goddess;" Three Juggling Bannons, Indian Club Jugglers; Anita Primrose, Character Singer; George Fredo, Musical Comedian.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

ONE KILLED, ANOTHER INJURED, ON RAILROAD.

One man was killed by a freight train and another was seriously injured in two different accidents on the Pennsylvania Railroad in the Waverly section Monday. Patrick De Ofano, twenty-six years old, of 51 Madison avenue, Newark, was the victim.

The man was trying to board a freight train while on his way to work, when he slipped and fell under the wheels. He was brought to the Market Street Station on another train and was removed from there in the City Hospital ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital. He died shortly afterward.

William Brady, thirty years old, of 305 Jelliff avenue, Newark, a brakeman, fell from a freight train traveling between Waverly and Greenville Monday night. His left leg was so terribly mangled it was amputated when he was admitted to St. Michael's Hospital. His condition is serious.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

BRAKEMAN HELD FOR PENNSY FATAL CRASH.

Camden, July 6.—Furnishing $5,000 bail through representatives of the railroad, Leon Harris, a brakeman of Salem, who is charged with manslaughter in being responsible for the wreck on the West Jersey Railroad st Lucaston, in which two persons were killed and seventeen injured, was released from the Camden County Jail Tuesday by order of Judge Joline. The young brakeman appeared heartbroken and declined to talk about the wreck.

Since Harris practically admitted after the wreck that the collision was caused by a mistake on his part in turning a switch, County Physician Jones, in Camden, yesterday decided that an inquest will not be necessary.

It was stated at Cooper Hospital Tuesday night that all the victims of the wreck are entirely out of danger.

BOY'S JEST ON DEATH QUICKLY COMES TRUE.

Paterson, July 6.—When seventeen-year-old John Moore, of 61 Ryle avenue, riding on top of a Lackawanna freight car bound toward Newark, predicted, "I've lost my pencil and my handkerchief and I suppose the next thing I will lose my life," he little realized that within a few minutes his prediction would come true.

Moore made the above remark to several companions, all of whom were from Newark, when the train was passing Denville and when the train reached Boonton, Moore was hurled from the train when his head came in contact with an iron bridge. He was picked up dead from the embankment by the crew of the train, several minutes later.

Auto Hit and Sped On.

Rahway, July 6.—John Connors, colored, was knocked down Tuesday by an automobile, which did not stop. One of the wheels of the auto went over Connor's body. He was taken home in a cab summoned by bystanders who witnessed the accident.

—The best hot weather beverage is iced tea and coffee and Neuman Bros. sell high grade tea and coffee which make an ideal drink.

EXCURSIONS.

First M. E. Church, Grace M. E. Church, Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, of Plainfield; Dunellen M. E. and Wilson Memorial Chapel.

ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
METHODIST
SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF PLAINFIELD AND DUNELLEN TO
ASBURY PARK and OCEAN GROVE
Thursday, July 13
Baggage car for baskets, Baby Carriages, Bicycles, etc.
Adults $1.25 Children 90c
Leave Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; and Plainfield, 8:15 a. m. Returning leave Ocean Grove 7:10, stopping at Plainfield, Grant avenue, Clinton avenue and Dunellen. 7 6 6

Camp Ram's Horn
Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.
Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.
THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

Cure by Proxy.

Doctor—What your husband needs Mrs. Nagget, is a complete rest. I have prescribed a sleeping draft.

Mrs. Nagget—Very well, doctor; when shall I give it to him?

Doctor—Don't give it to him at all. Take it yourself.—The Throne.

JULY SEVENTH.

1897—Hon. William Slocomb Groesbeck, distinguished Ohio congressman, died; born 1816.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Probably fair tonight and Saturday, lower temperature tonight. Maximum, 99; minimum, 75.

Established May 10, 1887.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, JULY 7, 1911.

Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM DYING?

Mrs. Sarah A. Hendrickson, Former Matron of Children's Home Probably Fatally Hurt.

Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson, who was the matron of the Children's Home in North Plainfield for nearly twenty years, lies in a critical condition at the home of Mrs. George Hartpence, of Ringoes, as the result of an automobile accident at Copper Hill, near Flemington, on Wednesday night. She is reported to be suffering from concussion of the brain and ever since the accident has been in an unconscious condition. Three physicians are in attendance, but little or no hope is entertained for the victim's recovery.

Mrs. Hendrickson, who severed her connection with the Children's Home in November, has since then been visiting friends at different place,although she retained her residence here. She had been the guest of friends at Farmingdale and a few days ago left to spend a few days with Mrs. George Hartpence, at Ringoes. Wednesday night the two women went out for a pleasure ride in Mrs. Hartpence's car and when they arrived at Copper Hill something went wrong with the auto. The machine was taken to a garage for repairs and it was dark when the two women started back for Ringoes. Soon after leaving Copper Hill they noticed an automobile approaching. It carried large searchlights which blinded Mrs. Hartpence, who was driving, so that in turning off the narrow road, she ran into a large pole.

Mrs. Hartpence was on the side of the car which struck the pole, and she was scarcely scratched. It is believed that Mr. Hendrickson, who is a very large woman, jumped and was thereby injured. In the excitement of the moments Mrs. Hartpence was unable to tell exactly just what her companion did, but a few minutes later she found her lying in the road unconscious. The machine was damaged but little.

As soon as possible Mrs. Hendrickson was taken to Mrs. Hartpence's home at Ringoes, where physicians were summoned and they have been in constant attendance ever since. Miss Hannah Brewer, matron of the Children's Home, succeeding Mrs. Hendrickson, is a sister of Mrs. Hartpence, and she received a letter last night from the latter, in which was told the details of the accident. The letter stated that the physicians considered Mrs. Hendrickson's condition critical.

Mrs. Hendrickson during her long residence here made many friends and was most successful in her management of the Children's Home. She was a native of Somerville and when her husband died twenty years ago, she was engaged to take the position of matron at the local institution. Mrs. Hendrickson has one daughter, Mrs. William Rockafellow, who lives in Orange.

MEETINGS IN INTEREST OF FRESH AIR HOME.

The interest of the people of Plainfield is invited in support of the work to be conducted at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, which was opened this week, and is in charge of Miss Sara Curry, the matron. There are about three hundred mothers and children at the camp. The first religious service will be held at the camp on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. George A. Chapman, of this city, one of the active workers in this enterprise, will be in charge of the meeting, and the address of the afternoon will be made by Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the First M. E. church.

The music, which will be in charge of Clifford A. Braider, organist of the First M. E. church, will be a feature. There will be singing by the children's choir, and Raymond A. McGee, of the First M. E. church quartet, will be the soloist on this occasion. Meetings will be held at the camp on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of each week during the summer.

Installation at Unity Lodge.

Deputy Grand Chancellor W. J. Edgar and staff, of Neshanic, installed the following officers at Unity Lodge, No. 102, K. of P., in the local lodge rooms last night: Chancellor Commander, Hervey Moultain; vice-chancellor, A. F. Randolph; prelate, Charles A. Nicholls; master of work, Nelson Wiley; master at arms, Alfred P. Drew; inner guard, Jeremiah VanWinkle, Jr.; outer guard, Joseph D. Anderson.

GILBERT AGAIN HEAD OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The board of directors of the Plainfield Public Library has elected the following officers for the ensuing year, following the re-appointment of W. H. Larrabee, J. Herbert Case and Dr. Leonard Waldo as directors for three years:

President, Alexander Gilbert; vice-president, L. V. F. Randolph; treasurer, J. Herbert Case; secretary, William M. Stillman; library committee, Dr. Leonard Waldo, W. F. Merrill and W. H. Larrabee; art committee, C. Boardman Tyler, Dr. B. VanD. Hedges and L. V. F. Randolph.

The building committee in charge of the plans for the new Carnegie library report progress and the committee appointed to change the drinking facilities to comply with the new State law have also reported progress.

The board, on behalf of the institution, has received from Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., a handsome American flag. Old Glory was presented by P. H. Latourette on behalf of the council, and Mr. Gilbert and Mr. Randolph accepted the gift on behalf of the board and responded in fitting words to the committee from the council. This is the first flag to fly from the library and it will be displayed every day.

OFFICERS INSTALLED BY FRANKLIN COUNCIL

Past Councilor George Watts, of Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U A. M., installed the officers of Franklin Council, No. 41, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night, and despite the intense heat there was a large attendance of members, including visitors from some of the other councils of the city. After the installation and other business of the evening, refreshments were served by the good and welfare committee of Franklin Council. These officers were installed:

Past Councilor, Frank M. Legge; councilor, L. D. Hall; vice-councilor, John Kriney; recording secretary, Forster Hartpence; assistant recording secretary, Norman Loughlin; financial secretary, Ephraim Compton; treasurer, Thomas E. Currin, Jr.; conductor, Henry Nolte; warden, W. S. Hinton; inside sentinel, Howard Owen; outside sentinel, W. G. Meyers; trustees, one year, Frank M. Legge; two years, John Kliner; three years, John Kriney; representatives to State council, Thomas E. Currin, Jr., and Roy DeCamp; captain of the team, Norman Loughlin; representative Funeral Benefit Association, Forster Hartpence.

SALVATION ARMY DOES A SPLENDID WORK

Showing that there was an attendance of 8,248,497 at the meetings of the Salvation Army in this country last year, the officials of the Army have issued from the national headquarters in New York an interesting statistical report entitled "What We Do." In connection with this report there has been issued a booklet giving the address delivered by Lieutenant Colonel Alex M. Damon before the National Congress of Gospel Mission Workers at Washington, D. C., last May on "The Salvation Army."

The report shows that in the United States the army has 896 outposts, with 6,104 local officers and bandsmen. More than 4,000,000 copies of the "War Cry" were published.

The number of Christmas dinners furnished to the poor for the year was 344,062, and 18,335 Thanksgiving dinners were provided. The good work done by the army in another line is shown by these statistics:

Number of persons afforded temporary relief outside industrial homes and hotels, 309,591; number mothers given summer outings, 3,972; number children given summer outings, 24,373; number men found employment outside own institutions, 65,124; number women found employment outside own institutions, 5,355; number meals supplied outside own institution, 161,329; number beds supplied outside own institutions, 36,538; number pounds of ice distributed, 1,593,834; number pounds of coal distributed 4,579,788.

—Give the children Ritz famous ice cream and they will be cool and properly nourished. ***

Robert V. Hoffman, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Red Top Farm, near Norwalk, Conn., was presented by his wife, with a son, last Thursday.

HERE'S LUCKY 13

Plainfield Elks Get Hoodoo Number But It Was Too Much For Brooklyn.

A FIVE INNINGS' CONTEST.

Warry McLaughlin on the Mound for 885, Whose Delegation of Ball Players were Royally Entertained.

Plainfield Elks romped to Brooklyn yesterday afternoon and tackled the undefeated antlered ones of lodge No. 22, of that city, on a mossy diamond in Prospect Park. The antlers of the local men were far too sharp for their famous Brooklyn brothers and consequently the team from 885 won its first game of the season in runaway time to the tune of 13-3, and also defeated the Brooklyn nine for the first time in its history. Only five rounds were necessary for the knockout of the boys of 22, who were satisfied after this much that they were no match for the Plainfield wearers of the B. P. O. E. badge.

Elkdom from this city and Brooklyn were there on the cheering lines in large and enthusiastic numbers. Despite their defeat, the Brooklyn Elks proved themselves to be royal hosts and both victors and vanquished enjoyed themselves after the fray on the diamond.

The Brooklyn team frightened the Plainfield Elks last week by defeating the Jersey City lodge which has one of the strongest nines of Elks in this vicinity, but the locals were calmed after the first inning yesterday, when the butted their antlers against the horsehide for six tallies, these being garnered from a brace of singles, a three bagger, a two sacker, and a swat for the circuit by old faithful Warry McLaughlin. Dunne, an ex-Brown University baseball star, was on the mound for the Brooklyn lodge but his delivery just suited his Plainfield brothers, who kept the fusilade up for three innings.

Warry was invincible during the first two rounds but in the third session he slowed up and Brooklyn made a tally by bunching two hits. Two more runs came across for the trolley-dodging Elks in the fourth when they galloped around the bases on hits, Dove making a home run by way of excitement.

Craig was the ace man with the stick for Plainfield, clouting out two singles and a homer. Torpey was not far behind in the swatfest with three one sackers to his credit. The local lodge nine played an errorless game and every Plainfielder fielded his position like a "vet." Flannery showed elk-like speed in left field, capturing four flies in the five innings without a single misplay. Marcus Hoyt cut quite a swell on the keystone sack, taking three chances without an error. Walter MacNaughton proved that he is good for another season's fast work on the initial bag and his hard three-base swat will admit him to the list of the immortal buckers of Elkdom. Smiling Jack Torpey chewed up McLaughlin's delivery in great style, while Happy Howard Craig grinned with contentment from his station on third. Collins and Bristol were the speed boys for the Brooklyn lodge.

The hoof prints on the diamond looked something like this:

Plainfield, 885.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Flannery, lf	2	1	1	4	0
MacNaughton, 1b	4	2	1	6	0
Hoyt, 2b	3	2	1	1	2
Craig, 3b	4	2	3	0	4
Torpey, c	4	3	3	3	0
Nolan, cf	3	1	2	0	0
Evans, ss	3	1	2	0	1
McLaughlin, p	3	1	1	1	3
Townley, rf	3	0	1	0	0
Totals	29	13	15	15	10

Brooklyn, 22.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Collins, 3b	3	0	0	3	0
Bristol, 1b	3	0	1	3	0
Roman, 2b	3	0	1	1	1
Blaisdell, lf	2	0	1	2	0
Donnelley, ss	2	0	0	0	0
Sooney, cf	2	1	0	1	0
McAleer, rf	2	1	1	0	0
Dunne, p.	2	0	0	2	0
Dove, c	2	1	1	2	0
Wright, 2b	1	0	1	1	1
Totals	21	3	6	15	2

Score by innings:

Plainfield	6	4	3	0	0	—13
Brooklyn	0	0	1	2	0	— 3

Summary—Two-base hits—Dunne, Wright, Evans. Three-base hits—MacNaughton. Home runs—Dove, Craig, McLaughlin. First base on balls—Off Dunne, 3. Struck out—By Dunne, 1; by McLaughlin, 2. Stolen bases—Roman, Evans, Torpey. Left on bases—Plainfield—1. First base on errors—Plainfield, 3; Brooklyn, 1. Hit by pitcher—Nolan. Errors—Roman, 3; Umpire—Mr. Marshal.

WILL YOU HELP GET FANS FOR HOSPITAL?

During these trying days, the patients at Muhlenberg Hospital are suffering intensely from the effects of the heat and humidity. Unfortunately there are no electric fans in the wards and as many of the patients are unable to use hand fans, they feel the high temperature excessively.

A well wisher of the institution had his attention yesterday attracted to the absence of electic fans and at once set about to procure them. The P. S. C. kindly loaned him one for the purpose and as many more are sorely needed to alleviate the deplorable condition, he appeals to the public through this paper for contributions. This man is "Nobody" and he starts the fund by chipping in five dollars.

Received today:

From "Nobody" $5.00

This afternoon "Nobody" lent three electric fans to the hospital for the summer as he is closing his house until fall. Then he induced a neighbor, who is going away for the summer, to loan his two fans. The suggestion is made to those who are going away for a vacation that they lend their fans for the same purpose. Manager Harrison, of the hospital, says he will see that they are properly tagged and that they are returned as soon as their owners get back home.

FIRST HEAT VICTIM WAS A CITY EMPLOYE

Shortly after being overcome by the heat, John Duffy, fifty years old, of West Third street, a member of Street Commissioner Gavett's force, died yesterday afternoon in Muhlenberg Hospital. He was not at work when stricken having quit for the noon hour and with the other men of his gang was in the city lot on Second street at lunch when overcome. He was rushed to the hospital where everything possible was done to revive him but without avail.

Mr. Duffy had been a resident of this city for many years and will be recalled by many who did not know his name as the man with a peculiar affliction that obliged him to hold his head sidewise. He was a widower and lived with his three children, the Misses May and Margaret Duffy and John Duffy. He is also survived by two bothers, Thomas and Peter Duffy, of this city.

THERMOMETER TAKES BIG JUMP DOWNWARD

The mercury in the thermometer took a drop today and the inhabitants of this sweltering "Queen City" are counting their many blessings. According to John Neagle distributor of weather bulletins and prophet of temperature, the official thermometer at 2 o'clock this afternoon registered 90 degrees. Twenty-four hours previously it stood at 99½ degrees. Just one week ago today the mercury started to play monkey-shines climbing as high as it could and for six days it has been hovering at the 100 mark. The one best bet is "probable" and next to it is "local showers and cooler weather."

While Plainfield has been in the grip of the heat, one man overcome by it committed suicide and one man was killed by the effects of the hot wave. Five prostrations were reported to the police and a score of others were treated by physicians.

Next Excursion to the Shore.

The next excursion to Asbury Park from this city will be that of the Sunday-schools of the First M. E. Grace M. E. and Monroe Avenue M E. churches, of this city; the Dunellen Methodist and the Wilson Memorial chapel, on Thursday, July 13. The committee in charge has completed all arrangements for a delightful day at the shore.

Edward Dooley's Funeral.

The funeral of Edward Dooley, who committed suicide Wednesday night while temporarily deranged from the heat, will be held tomorrow morning at ten o'clock from his late home on West Front street and interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

Phillip Macintyre and son, Russel Macintyre, of West Eighth street, have returned from a three days' fishing trip at Dingman's Ferry, Pike county, Pa. They caught forty-five trout and fifteen bass.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

—The best hot weather diet is Ritz famous ice cream. ***

ORDINANCE SIGNED

Mayor Approves Measur Changing Method of Paying City's Bills.

HE GIVES HIS REASONS

Places Responsibility Where it Belongs and Relieves City Executive of Much Physical Labor.

Mayor G. W. V. Moy today signed the ordinance recently passed by the Common Council which changes somewhat the method of paying claims, and has filed the ordinance with City Clerk MacMurray. In explaining his action Mayor Moy said this afternoon:

"I heartily approve the law under which the ordinance was drawn and passed chiefly because it puts the responsibility of paying bills where it belongs. At the same time it relieves me of the physical labor of signing checks, but understand it does not relieve me of passing on all bills and claims, as before. All bills and claims must be presented to the Mayor for approval or disapproval.

"The Common Council by passing the ordinance has not changed the time-limit in which bills must be returned. That has been in effect since 1904. There were certain claims presented which I did not nor do not now think are legal, such as the one from Fiss, Doer & Carroll for a dead horse; the Meeker claim bill, wherein the city was not properly protected and one of the overseer-of-the-poor for carfare. If it is right for the city to pay the overseer-of-the-poor's carfare, it is right to pay the carfare of every other city official. If a man is hired by the city to do something that man should be paid for his services. It is not the amount of a bill that enters into the argument, but it is the principle. Sometime ago I served notice on City Treasurer W. F. Arnold not to pay any city bills without the signature of the Mayor on the voucher.

"The ordinance was drawn under the provisions of chapter 128 of the laws of 1904, which authorizes the Common Council to designate who shall sign checks, and in this case the president of the Council and the city clerk is authorized to do that work. It certainly relieves me of a great deal of responsibility, for which I am thankful, and the Common Council is held directly responsible, as it should be, in the payment of claims."

MISSES QUINN'S PUPILS GIVE EXCELLENT RECITAL.

The second recital by the pupils of the Misses Alice M. and M. Katherine Quinn was held last night in the Knights of Columbus hall and despite the warm weather was well attended. This recital was by the younger pupils. The more advanced were heard last Thursday.

The progress made by the little ones, their average age is only about nine, was most gratifying to their parents and friends as well as the teachers. Those taking part were the Misses Mary Weienga, Margaret McGinley, Julia Renz, Mary Butscher, Emily Pilger, Florence Russ, E. Schuck, R. Kregar, Margaret Gallagher, M. Lapman, E. McNally, G. Brown, Teresa Kregar, Elizabeth Geary, and Masters Harold Keenan, Thomas Culhane. Joseph Gallagher, Harold Whitford. John Ball, Paul Geary, E. McKeon and Dan Kregar.

ANOTHER CONTRIBUTION FOR BABY CAMP FUND.

Another contribution of five dollars was received today by this paper for the baby camp fund which brings the total up to $10. As was stated yesterday there is an urgent need of money in order that the laudable work of the City Union of King's Daughters may be properly carried on.

Received today:

From a Friend $5.00

Previously acknowledged:

Woman's Christian Work Society 7th Day Baptist Church .. $.500

State Forester to Lecture.

State Forester Alfred Gaskill, of Trenton, will address the members of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society at its meeting in Watchung, Monday evening. He will offer valuable suggestions as to fighting and controlling forest fires; also giving a scientific talk on forestry and timber cutting. "Mayor" W. delaR. Anderson will preside at the meeting and introduce Mr. Gaskill. The lecture by the latter will be illustrated with a large number of fine pictures.

—The best hot weather beverage is iced tea and coffee and Neuman Bros. sell high grade tea and coffee which make an ideal drink.

BIDS RECEIVED FOR HIGH SCHOOL WINGS

At a meeting of the Plainfield Board of Education last night bids for the addition to the high school building were opened. The architect had drawn two sets of plans on which the bidders based their estimates and in order to handle the matter more expeditiously it was left in the hands of the building committee to make the selection. Two wings are to be built.

The bids were as follows; general construction contract, Michael Rimmer $31,650; on the alternate bid or second set of plans a deduction of $1,911; H. J. Weinzelberger, of Phillipsburg, general construction contract, $29,884, alternate plans, deduct $742; John Abbott, general contract, $28,485, alternate plans deduct $500; Ross Bush & Co., general contract, $27,400, alternate plans deduct $650.

Heating and ventilating, Den. J. Galbraith, $6,085;alternate No.1 add $618, alternate No. 2 deduct $44; Storm & Co., of Newark, $6,100, alternate No. 1, add $721, alternate No. 2 deduct $30; George J. Tobin, $6,547, alternate No. 1 add $647, alternate No. 2 deduct $50.

Plumbing: Den. J. Galbraith $448, alternate No. 1 deduct $87; George J. Tobin, $691, alternate No. 1 deduct $100.

POSTPONED TRIAL OF WIFE DESERTER

Richard T. Hone was arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza, in the city court this morning on a complaint of Overseer-of-the-Poor Alex Ayers for non-support. Hone was arrested here last October after deserting his wife in Pottstown, Pa She followed and located him living with another woman on Park avenue. He was arrested and paroled in the custody of his counsel for one week. Before the date set for his trial he ran away but was arrested in New York city and has been in the county jail awaiting the action of the Union County Grand Judy since.

Hone's counsel, William Wilson, of Elizabeth, took out a writ of hadeas corpus. As soon as he was released and when Overseer-of-the-Poor Ayers was apprised of the fact he swore out another warrant. In the meantime Hone had secured a bondsman in the amount of $500 for his appearance before the grand jury and as Mr. Ayers' counsel, J. Henry Crane had not had time to prepare his case, the trial was set over for one week.

LITTLE GIRL MAKES A LONG TRIP ALONE

Frances, the seven-year-old daughter of R. Morris Adkin, of this city, arrived in New York yesterday from Jacksonville, Fla., having made the trip unaccompanied by friends. She took passage on the. Clyde Line Steamer Rio Grande, on Thursday, June 29, but did not leave until the next day noon, which under normal conditions would have brought her to New York on Monday, at which time Mr. Adkin went to meet her as stated. But after touching Brunswick, Ga., and Charleston, S. C., the ship became fast in the mud of Charleston River, owing no doubt to the extremely low tide prevailing at the time. After spending more than two days lightening the ship of its cargo, among which was a large quantity of delicious southern watermelons, the boat finally floated and without further mishap reached port yesterday morning at 7 o'clock. Some of the passengers were transferred to the Steamer Arapahoe, of the same line and reached port at 1:30, July 4. The others could not be taken as the Arapahoe was already loaded to the limit with passengers from the south bound for the woods and watering places of the north.

Frances is to spend the present month with her aunt, Mrs. Frank Houston Boyle, of Westfield, and then accompany her on a trip to her old home in Ticongeroga, N. Y. Mrs. Boyle is a graduate of The Haun School of Speech Arts, New York city, and has arranged to give several evening entertainments at Ticonderoga and near-by towns. The young traveler was in the best of health and spirits when met by her father yesterday morning and reported having had "a splendid time."

Announce Excursion Date.

The annual excursion of the Sunday-schools of the Congregational, First Presbyterian and Park Avenue Baptist churches to Asbury Park will be held on Thursday, July 20, with the usual attractive features.

WILSON VETOES THE SEWER BILL

North Plainfield's Plans For Sanitary Sewer System Receive a Serious Setback.

Senate Bill No. 301, introduced by Senator Joseph Sherman Frelinghuysen for the North Plainfield Sewage Commission, was vetoed this morning by Governor Woodrow Wilson, who, in withholding his signature, set forth his reasons. He said that the bill had been drawn and introduced to relieve a situation between the borough of North Plainfield and Bound Brook in regard to the location of a sewage disposal plant, and while its passage would relieve the situation for North Plainfield, it might also easily apply to other municipalities.

The Governor had consulted with Attorney General Wilson regarding the bill and was informed, moreover, that the measure curtailed the powers of the State Board of Health and deeming this an unwise procedure he had withheld his signature.

The vetoing of this bill by Governor Wilson virtually means that all of the work for the past year and a half done by the North Plainfield sewage commission has been for naught and removes for some time the possibility of the borough having a sewage disposal plant and sewer system.

The Governor's decision has caused general rejoicing in Bound Brook and at the same time deep dissappointment in North Plainfield. All of the steps made by the North Plainfield sewage commission had been carefully taken and only after exhaustive work on the part of its legal advisor, Sherrard Depue. Many obstacles had been overcome in this preliminary work which included a special election last fall at considerable expense; the securing of permission from the North Plainfield Township committee to locate the disposal plant within the borders of the township and the signatures of a majority of the borough property owners signifying their willingness to pay a portion of the cost by taxation and their approval of the proposed expenditure of $300,000 given at a special election. Plans had been drawn showing the route of the sewer and the streets through which the pipes would be laid. This work was done by skilled engineers and these plans were necessary before the State Board of Health would give permission for the installation of the sewers.

The first steps in the installation of sewers were taken under the administration of Samuel Townsend while he was Mayor of the borough. When he was succeeded by Mayor N. B. Smalley, the latter retained the commission appointed by Mayor Townsend and has been active in cooperating with the members in furthering the movement.

The borough council holds a regular meeting tonight and it is possible that the Governor's action will be discussed.

SUSPENDS SENTENCE ON DISORDERLY ONES.

Trial of the disorderly charge preferred against Thomas Boyle, John Hogan and Joseph Boban by Mary Spencer consumed more than an hour of Judge William G. DeMeza's time in the city court this morning and resulted in a suspended sentence of $10 or 30 days each for Boyle and Boban and a fine of $5 for Hogan.

The young men were all friendly with the complainant and averted that they were keeping a previously made appointment at the time the disorderly act took place. They had been at the complainant's home during the afternoon and again in the early evening. The third visit was made at 11:30 and admittance was refused them. Complainant denied that she had invited the young men to call at that hour.

Annuonce Summer Services.

Rev. Elory G. Bowers, rector of St. Stephen's church, will have charge of the 11 o'clock Sunday morning services at the Holy Cross church until August 15. At his own church there will be holy communion at 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning and matins and sermons at 9:45. There will be no Sunday-school or evensong. At Holy Cross church the aniy service will be at 11 o'clock, the Sunday-school and evensong being discontinued for the summer.

—Use Press want ads

—Keep well by keeping cool. Take home Ritz famous ice cream. ***

Watch the daily papers closely for bargains. Something will be added from day to day of interest to you.

A. E. Force & Co

"THE WHITE STORE"

WE GIVE S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY. Premium Parlor on 3rd Floor.

Every Housekeeper should read each item in this great July Clearance Sale announcement — it will pay.

ATTEND OUR GREAT JULY CLEARANCE SALE

This means big reductions in prices in all departments. Our stock must be cut down $25,000 by the 31st and to do so we must give bargains to induce quick buying and big crowds. We have been preparing for this sale the past three months and have made many fortunate purchases which we will share with you. This is the month when all surplus and summer stocks must be closed out, as we never carry over to the next season anything but the most staple lines. The prices quoted here are but a fraction of the many bargain values to be found here during the sale.

NOTICE—We know that this sale and these prices will bring big crowds in the late forenoon and late afternoon, and in order to divert the rush to the earlier hours we will give double S. & H. Green Trading Stamps from 8 to 10 a. m. and from 12 to 2 p. m., until further notice.

10c 4-4 UNBLEACHED MUSLIN AT 7c.
3,000 yards of this fine smooth finished muslin.

25c HUCK TOWELS 15c.
These towels are a large size, 18x36, in half linen and very fine full bleach, white borders; by the dozen $1.70

12½c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Hemmed and ready for use; size 18x38.

25c UNBLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra size, 22x50-inch and extra heavy weight; hemmed.

12½c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 9c.
Fringed, size 20x40 inches.

25c BLEACHED TURKISH TOWELS FOR 18c.
These are extra heavy hemmed, extra large size, 22x45 inch.

15c CURTAIN SWISS 10c.
25 pieces, all different patterns and size dots, stripes and figures; it is 36 inches wide and popular make, and sells everywhere for 15c.
Rug department, 2nd floor.

59c MERCERIZED COTTON DAMASK FOR 39c.
900 yards of different patterns to select from; 64 inches wide; this is the biggest bargain we have ever offered in table damask.

12c FRUIT OF THE LOOM MUSLIN FOR 8½c.
Limit 15 yards to a customer.

69c FLOUNCING FOR 39c.
18 to 27 inches wide, of fine swiss and cambric; think of this reduction.

$1.00 & $1.25 FLOUNCINGS 69c.
27 to 45 inches wide in swiss and batiste; suitable for skirts and dresses.

49c CORSET COVER EMBROIDERIES FOR 29c.
20 different styles to select from; 18 inches wide on lawn and nainsook.

25c AND 35c RIBBONS 15c.
100 pieces of 4 to 5-inch ribbon; plain and fancy colors, satin, taffeta moire, messaline, checks and plaids.

$2.50 LINENE EMBROIDERED DRESSES FOR $1.50.
In blue, white, tan, skirts neatly piped.

$1.25 COMBINATIONS FOR 89c.
These are combination of corset cover and drawers, trimmed with lace or embroidery.

$1.00 MUSLIN GOWNS FOR 75c.
Lace or embroidery trimmed.

10c CHAMBRAYS FOR 7c.
Blue mixed and cadet only; 27 and 32 inches wide; these are a great bargain and they are always staple.

12½c LADIES' RIBBED VESTS 8c.
These are fine quality of vests, with smooth elastic rib; all sizes.

50c LADIES' LISLE GLOVES 25c.
In white, tan, grey, pongee and black; 2-button lengths.

75c AND $1.00 LAWN WAISTS FOR 49c.
These are fine white lawn, prettily trimmed with lace, in all the good sizes.

$1.50 RUGS FOR 98c.
50 velvet rugs and brussels, size 36x72 inches, in a fine line of best designs; rug department, second floor.

LADIES' WHITE LAWN WAISTS $1.00 & $1.25 WHITE WAISTS FOR 69c.
Lace and embroidery trimmed and others have colored embroidery.

$2.98 LADIES' UMBRELLAS FOR $1.49.
4 dozen ladies' best American taffeta umbrellas, with fine gold, silver and pearl handles.

$1.50 TO $2.50 CORSETS FOR 69c.
This lot are odd sizes and broken lots from different fine grades, a few slightly soiled, but nevertheless a great bargain.

10c FINE PRINTED LAWNS 6c.
These are 30 inches wide and come in a big range of colors; pretty printed designs.

59c MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS FOR 39c.
50 dozen in all the latest patterns, light and dark figures and stripes; cuffs attached.

19c INDIA LINON FOR 12c.
Fine sheer quality, 30 inches wide; this lot will prove one of the biggest bargains of the sale.

25c TO 35c FANCY WASH GOODS TO GO AT 15c.
This lot will contain several lines of fine materials, such as Lawns, Organdies, Foulards, Voiles, Gauzes and Marquisettes in solid colors, stripes and checks; also fancy figures. This is an extraordinary chance to buy fine wash goods as cheap as.....15c

35c EMBROIDERIES FOR 15c.
Suitable for dresses and skirts, large variety of styles, patterns and widths; also fine swiss galloons; 5 to 18 inches wide.

50c NOVELTY SILK AND COTTON WASH GOODS FOR 25c.
In this lot are silk and cotton print of foulards, silk and cotton printed jacquards and organdies; also a fine line of silk striped madras shirtings; all in one lot at, yard 25c

$10.50 RUGS FOR $5.98.
9x12 Smyrna rugs in a nice line of new patterns.

15c TALCUM POWDER 10c.
Your choice of Mennen's or Babcock's Corylopsis Talcum Powder; only one can to a customer.

10c PAPER OF PINS 5c.
Large paper of pins in all sizes; 360 pins to a paper.

29c & 39c WASH BELTS FOR 15c
White and colored with pearl and fancy buckles.

5c TOILET SOAPS PER DOZEN 45c.
Witchhazel, Buttermilk, Oatmeal, Hazel Cream, Turkish Bath, Household Tar, Old English, Brown Windsor and Summer Blossom, White Ribbon, Swift's & Armour's best toilet soaps.

25c PEROXIDE OF HYDROGEN FOR 17c.
One pound bottle of the best quality.

$1.00 MISSES' PARASOLS 75c
White linene with embroidery band of pongee with different colored borders.

69c CLOTHES BASKETS FOR 39c.
10 dozen split willow clothes baskets, medium size; on sale in basement.

GREAT REDUCTIONS IN LADIES' WASH DRESSES.
Two racks full of beautiful wash dresses in Lawn, Cotton, Voile, Linen, Batiste, Bordered Dresses, Natural Linen Dresses; all will be included in this great JULY CLEARANCE SALE; they must be closed out and the price will do it.

These are values ranging in price from $5.00 to $12.00; Sale price while they last at.....$2.98

CLEARANCE OF LADIES' TRIMMED HATS.
$7.50 BEAUTIFULLY TRIMMED HATS FOR $2.98.
All of our trimmed hats must be disposed of in this sale, to do so we have made the price at about half the regular cost; on sale, millinery department, second floor.

$11.00 HIGH GRADE TRIMMED HATS FOR $4.49.
This lot is the best of stock and must be sold regardless of cost; this is an unusual opportunity. Millinery department on 2nd floor.

50c LOT OF MEN'S HOSE FOR 25c.
This is another lot of broken lines; all put in together to make a complete line of sizes; these are all fancy hose in all the good colors.

15c MISSES' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton hose, two thread heel and toe, all sizes.

15c BOYS' HOSE FOR 10c.
Fine ribbed black cotton, extra spliced heel and toe in sizes 6 to 9½.

10c PRINTED ORGANDIE 7c.
This is an exceptional offer, 27 inches wide, beautiful line of pretty floral designs in all the best colors.

9c AMOSKEAG APRON GINGHAM FOR 6½c.
These are the genuine standard make in brown, tan, red and green in the different size checks.

75c LADIES' LONG KIMONAS 49c.
There is a big variety of styles, floral effects; all the sizes.

35c TO 49c GRANITE WARE 19c
We have selected a big line of different sizes and styles of grey granite cooking utensils to be sold; all at one price; on sale in basement.

39c PARLOR BROOMS FOR 25c.
25 dozen fine parlor brooms, four sewed, hard wood handles, No. 6; on sale in basement.

25c TO 50c MEN'S HALF HOSE FOR 12½c.
One lot of black, tan and grey and silk embroidered; these odd lots are put in together to make one complete line of sizes 9½ to 11½.

25c LADIES' HOSE FOR 19c.
Black, white and tan, fine gauze lisle, double heel and toe; garter top.

10c DRESS GINGHAMS 7c.
About 5,000 yards in plaids, stripes and checks in all the colors

10c EMBROIDERIES FOR 5c.
Consisting of edgings, insertions and beadings, in swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dresses, trimmings and underwear; ½ to 2 inches wide.

29c EMBROIDERIES FOR 14c.
Big variety of patterns in all widths, on swiss, cambric and nainsook; suitable for dress trimming; 2 to 8 inches wide.

7c BLEACHED TOWELING 5c.
1,000 yards of Warsaw twilled bleached toweling, 17 inches wide.

12½c GLASS TOWELING 10c.
20 inches wide, blue and red checks, in several sizes.

6c UNBLEACHED CHEESECLOTH 4c.
This is a good quality and is 36 inches wide.

69c COTTON DIAPER 49c.
18 inches wide, fine quality; 10 yards to a piece.

12½c PILLOW CASES 9c.
45x36 bleached cases, made of the Crescent quality muslin.

22c TABLE OILCLOTH 15c.
July Clearance Sale price, these are 5-4 best standard oilcloth in all the light and dark grounds; small figures and checks.

$1.25 FINE COTTON TABLE DAMASK FOR 79c.
500 cloths to choose from in a big variety of patterns in fine mercerized cloths; 58 inches wide in lengths from 2 to 3 yards; 20-inch napkins to match; value $1.25 for dozen.....79c

25c LADIES' COLLARS FOR 10c.
One lot of Ascot ties and Dutch collars; a good assortment.

19c GALATEA CLOTH 9c.
These are in short lengths, cadet, light and dark tans, stripes and figures.

12½c PERCALES FOR 9c.
36-inch fine percale in a big line of small figures, stripes and checks, light and dark grounds.

20c WHITE GOODS 10c.
In plain and figured effects, 50 pieces of different weaves, stripes, checks and figures; fine and sheer for waists and dresses.

25c NAINSOOK FOR 18c.
Extra fine white nainsook, 36 inches wide, soft and sheer; another big bargain.

25c WHITE LAWN 18c.
25 pieces 40 inch, extra fine dress lawn at a big reduction.

20c EMBROIDERIES FOR 10c.
In various widths and patterns in swiss, nainsook and cambric; large variety of styles to select from; widths from 1 to 4 inches.

50c PILLOW TOPS FOR 19c.
In lot over 100, in a big variety of designs.

Moran, of Somerset street.

Miss Adele Smith and Herbert Smith, of West Cliff street, are visiting relatives in New Brunswick.

Arthur Van Fleet and family, of East Main street, are spending two weeks in Brooklyn.

Miss Helen Eddowe is entertaining Miss Grace Thomas, of Frederick, Md.

Miss Beatrice Safford, of Cliff street, is at Avon.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Miss Nellie Manning has gone to Atlantic City, as a delegate to the National Christian Endeavor Convention. She is registered at the Warwick.

Rev. J. J. Allen and his bride, are expected home today and will reside temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. John Pickering.

Miss Grace Norman has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Louis Wizel, of South River.

Miss M. Nevius has returned from a visit with friends in New Brunswick and Middlebush.

Miss Kitty Dolan, of Jersey City, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. William Thornton.

PERSONAL.

Miss Ella Moore, of Philadelphia, is visiting Miss Eleanor Middlekauf, of Rockview avenue.

Howard Turrili, of Grove street, is spending his summer vacation at Lake Minnewaski, N. Y.

Mrs. Irving Bininger, of Westervelt avenue, has gone south for a two months' stay with friends.

Theodore Sperry, formerly of this city, but now of Flatbush, spent Tuesday visiting old acquaintances in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Vanderbeek, formerly of Verdon street, the borough, are now living on West Front street, near Albert street.

Mrs. William R. Faber, of Park place, who is spending the summer with her family in Connecticut, has been in town for a few days.

Theodosia Vail, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vail, of Elmwood place, will give a birthday party at her home on Saturday.

George Archibald Bailey and Eugene MacLoughlin left last evening for Lake Hopatcong, where they will stop for two weeks at "Camp Ramshorn," which is conducted by Thomas M. Muir, of this city.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Dr. W. B. Matteson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who preaches at the First Baptist church Sunday morning, will also preach at the union service in the evening at the First M. E. church.

There will be the celebration of the Holy Eucharist at 7:30 and matins and sermon at 9:45, Sunday morning at St. Stephen's church, in charge of the rector, Rev. Elory G. Bowers. During the month of July Mr. Bowers will also have charge of the 11 o'clock service Sunday mornings at Holy Cross church.

ABOLISHED HIS OWN WELL-PAID OFFICE.

Hackensack, July 7.—Elected on a platform calling for the abolition of the office, Robert A. Sibbald made good and retired Wednesday as register of deeds of Bergen county. Mr. Sibbald, from the beginning declared that Bergen county was not in need of such an office, and that the law creating it was intended only to provide a sinecure for some political pensioner. He was nominated and elected on the Democratic ticket. The position paid a salary of $4,000 a year.

Largely through his efforts the recent Legislature enacted a law abolishing the registership in Bergen county. The law became effective July 4 and Mr. Sibbald withdrew from the official roster. The work of the office will be looked after by the county clerk as was done before the new office was created.

RIBS BROKEN BY FALL WITH BARREL OF CHINA.

Summit, July 7.—Falling down a flight of stairs in a storage room in Beechwood place Wednesday afternoon with a barrel of chinaware on his back, James Benjamin, colored, of 48 Chestnut avenue, sustained fractures of three ribs on his right side and other injuries.

On getting to his feet after the fall Benjamin first examined the barrel of china to ascertain if any of the pieces had been broken. Finding that no damage had been done to the contents of the barrel he walked to his home, where he was attended by a physician.

HEAT PREVENTS MAIL DELIVERY IN IRVINGTON.

Owing to the extreme heat Wednesday the afternoon postal delivery in Irvington, was curtailed by Superintendent John S. Whigan, of the local postoffice. Three of the carriers attached to the Irvington station, nearly collapsed while making their deliveries in the morning which caused the superintendent to drop the second delivery.

—All the cases called for hearing in the District court yesterday morning were set over until July 20, the next day court will be held.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 125 North Ave.
H. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbs & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....213 Watchung Ave.
Jos. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson.....667 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
E. J. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
H. A. Leing.....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Estil.....111 Park Ave.
Debois & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....231 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
F. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....R. Peters
New Market.....Coriell
Bound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield.....C. F. Wittke, A. R. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glaeser
Scotch Plains.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood.....W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Twelve young men from the borough went to Wayside Park Monday night and upon their return woke the residents of Dunellen out of their peaceful slumbers. The young "vandals" shot revolvers, rang church bells, pulled the whistles on the locomotives in the railroad yard and stopped several of the main line trolley cars. They continued their celebration until the early hours of the morning and let the Dunellenites know that the Declaration of Independence was signed on July 4, 1776.

Two stage loads of members of Washington Camp, No. 98, Patriotic Order Sons of America left the borough last night for South Plainfield where they attended the district convention of the order. A large number of delegates were present from the different camps in the district and everyone had a good time.

Harry Nonamaker, who broke his finger in Tuesday afternoon's game between the local team and the nine from Rahway Field Club, is now carrying the injured member in a cast. He was attended immediately after the accident by Dr. J. C. Smith. Coyle took his place behind the bat for the rest of the game.

Benjamin Dodwell, who was hit in the stomach by a batted ball while catching in the morning game for the local nine Tuesday, was obliged to retire from the backstop work. Harry Nonamaker took his place and did the catching for the remainder of the contest.

An unknown Italian, from Rahway, was overcome by the heat Wednesday afternoon on Prospect avenue while walking to New Market. Dr. J. C. Smith was called and the sick man was soon able to go to his home in Rahway by trolley.

Edward Quinn, of Lincoln avenue, has returned from a vacation trip to Atlantic City.

SOMERVILLE.

Plans have been completed by P. C. Van Neys for the kitchen and beginners' room of the Second Reformed church. The work will commence on the addition in another week or ten days.

Miss Edna Hardcastle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hardcastle, of North Bridge street, returned Wednesday from Silver Bay, where she spent two weeks.

Miss Margaret H. Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Anderson, is spending a week with her aunts, the Misses Stevens, in Morristown.

William Lisser, of the New York police department, is spending a ten day vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Lisser, in Raritan.

Miss Margaret McWilliams, of Plainfield, is spending several days with her father, John McWilliams, of Doughty street, Raritan.

The Misses Frelinghuysen, of Division street, left on Monday for their farm west of Somerville for the summer months.

Mrs. Nevius and Miss Mae Fleming are at Asbury Park. Mrs. Nevius is attending the Summer School of Methods.

Mrs. E. C. Wise and children left yesterday morning for Long Branch, where they will spend the summer months.

Frank Reilly and family, of Bloomfield, are visiting Mrs. Reilly's father, Thomas Comboy, in Raritan.

Francis S. Vanderveer and family, of East Somerville, are spending a month at Sea Cliff, Long Island.

Miss Rose Mulligan, of Waterbury, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 326. Telephone 19-F-42

KOLB'S SATURDAY SPECIALS

COCOANUT KISSES, lb.....18c
AFTER LUNCH MINTS, lb.....18c
MOLASSES KISSES, lb.....18c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c

We carry all the leading kinds of Ice Cream, Water Ices and Sundaes. Our new Ice Cream Parlor, which was recently completed, is the coolest place in town. Ice Cream orders in any quantity always receive our prompt attention. Give us a trial and convince yourself.

KOLB'S, 112 WEST FRONT ST.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

BROKAW'S CREAMERY.
No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.
TEL 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLEY, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.
6 25 11

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 82-A.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms.

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave., Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

IF there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

This July Clearance Sale is the Money-Saving Event of the Entire Year in its Bountiful and Practically Limitless Possibilities for Effecting the Most Worth-While Economies.

25c Sox for 15c—Plain and fancy lisle sox light and madras shades; were 25c; sale..15c

$1.00 Pongee Shirts 79c—White and natural pongee shirts with single cuffs; regularly $1.00; sale...........79c

50c Negligee Shirts 35c—About 35 dozen negligee shirts, all sizes, but mostly odds and ends in patterns, including a full line of black and white neat stripes; 14 to 17; sale 35c

59c "Oye" Underwear 47c—Athletic style, coat shirt, knee drawers; made of mercerized figured soisette, with blue trimming; regular 59c; sale....47c

Pure Linen Heavy Huck Towels 15c—You don't often buy a heavy all linen huck towel at 15c. We bought these 60 dozen several months ago, but they were just delivered to us; the manufacturer is swamped with orders on them, so good are they for the price. You will buy them by the dozen when you see them; on sale......15c

4-4 Anchor Muslin, yard...10c
4-4 Hill Muslin, yard.......8c
4-4 Brown Muslin, yard.....6c
(Regular 7½c).
4-4 Special 10c Cambric, yd. 8c

Women's Rep Suits, odds and ends, white, blue and tan, formerly sold up to $6.50; on sale $1.98

Children's Dresses Values Up to $1.98; on Sale 98c.

About 100 children's colored Lawn, Gingham and Percale Dresses, ages 6 to 14, and 2 to 5; these are stylish and of good materials, well made, not all sizes in every style, but plenty to choose from; on sale 98c

Misses' and Women's Wash Skirts Sold up to $2.25; on sale $1.

Included in this lot are white India Linon Skirts and tan, blue and pink suiting; all are made to fit right, and at this price they should not last long; about 65 skirts in all; on sale..$1.00

$5.98 and $6.98 Pure Linen Tailored Suits at $4.85.

The best styles of the season, all are pure linen, well tailored, with plain or sailor collars; natural and half bleached; on sale $4.85
(Alterations free).

$2.98 and $3.98 Wash Dresses at $1.98.

All this season's styles, and good styles too, made just as you like them made; some of percales with large sailor collars, and button down the front with large pearl buttons; others of figured lawns and ginghams, with low and high neck: it's a bargain you will like; on sale.............................$1.98

$3.98 and $4.98 Wash Dresses at $2.98.

About 50 Wash Dresses in figured Lawns. Batistes, Ginghams and Percales, some of the best sellers of the season; choose while choosing is best; on sale..........................$2.98

50c Otis Underwear 39c—Best known 50c balbriggan, but shirts only; on sale.........39c

Columbia Shirts, all clean, fresh patterns this season; all sizes 14 to 17; on sale.....79c

39c Tussah Silk 29c—10 shades in this popular silk for cool summer wear as well as for party Dresses.

35c Figured Seco Silk 25c—The styles are pretty, the saving worth while on such well known wash silks.

29c and 35c Wash Goods 19c—All this season's wash goods, embroidered dimities, tissues and satin striped lawns; reduced to almost half.

12½c and 15c Batistes 9c—Choose from about 40 pieces, they sold this season at 12½c and 15c; it's a good saving to buy.

25c Mercerized Pongee 19c—Several shades, but mostly in natural; that's the most wanted shade this season.

15c Ginghams at 11c—About 35 pieces dress ginghams, 32-inches and 27 inches wide; all standard make.

25 per cent Reduction on all Children's White Dresses.

You will appreciate this announcement most if you know our regular values; nothing is reserved; this reduction of one-fourth is on every child's white dress in the house; ages 6 to 14.

29c Striped Linons, yard...19c
25c French Ginghams, yd..19c
10c White Cross Bar Lawns, yard 7c

More For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

THE GOLDEN KEY

to the Door of Opportunity is "Ready Money."

This gives the ability to make an initial investment or to provide support while awaiting the productive period of a new enterprise.

Valuable opportunities are constantly lost, merely from lack of "Ready Money" to use at the right time.

Protect yourself—and provide for the time when a cash fund will be absolutely essential by SAVING NOW.

Fidelity Trust Co.,

Newark, N. J.,

will open an account with you in the Savings Department for any sum from $2 up.

4 per cent. on amounts up to and including $1,000.

3½ per cent. on amounts in excess of $1,000.

Not Open Friday Night. Close at 1 p. m. Saturday.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Rich Picking in Outerwear

Hundreds of shrewd women are taking advantage of our lowered prices on summer dresses.

Women's Linen Suits—Stylish suits of pure natural linen on sale Friday at $3.98. The plain tailored coats are finished with neat pearl buttons and the skirts come in a pleasing new model. $5.00 and $6.00 values. We have also included a few $10.00 to $15.00 suits, in white and colors, that are soiled from handling; special while they last $3.98

Women's Silk Dresses—Fine foulards in polka dots and stripes; plain colored messaline; neatly trimmed; $17.50 and $22.50 values; special $9.75

Women's Linen Coats—Semi and loose fitting styles, made of pure natural linen, with storm collars; splendid values at the price; each $3.50

Women's Wash Dresses—Several pretty styles in this collection of $5 tub dresses; rep and white lingerie; $7 to $9 values; spec. $5.00

Women's Wash Skirts—Two pleasing styles in these white wash skirts; made of good linon and sold regularly for $1.50 each; special at $1.00

Girls' and Misses' Wear

Girls' School Dresses—Smart little dresses in high and Dutch neck effects. Made of Anderson's ginghams, percale or linen; 6 to 14. $2.50 and $3.00 values...$2.00

Misses' White Skirts—Two styles, including the new panel gored effect buttoned on the side—white linon; regularly $1.50 each; special price $1.00

Girls' White Dresses—These dainty dresses are shown in the season's most popular styles; sizes 6 to 14 years—high and Dutch neck effects $5.00

Girls' Wash Dresses—Of percales, chambrays, lawns and linene; Dutch necks and short or kimono sleeves; sizes 6 to 14 years at. $1.00

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

NEWARK N.J.

SPORTS

News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	9	..	3	12	14	2		40
Brooklyn	7	..	8	6	5	1		27
Boston	1	..	3	5	2	11		22
Philadelphia	8	..	7	18	7	9		49
Chicago	3	13	..	10	..	6		32
Cincinnati	0	3	..	5	..	12		20
Pittsburg	2	0	..	13	6	10		31
St. Louis	3	3	..	4	3	13		26
AMERICAN
New York	8	..	8	13	9	..		38
Philadelphia	13	..	13	18	8	0		52
Boston	2	..	8	8	2	..		20
Washington	8	..	6	9	7	..		30
St. Louis	0	2	3	9	7	8		29
Cleveland	5	6	4	8	11	4		38
Chicago	2	6	..	17	1	1		27
Detroit	8	14	..	14	8	..		44

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc
Chicago	43	26	.623
Philadelphia	44	28	.611
New York	43	29	.597
Pittsburg	40	30	.571
St. Louis	40	31	.563
Cincinnati	30	39	.435
Brooklyn	26	44	.371
Boston	16	55	.225

Yesterday's Results.

Chicago, 6; New York, 2.
Pittsburg, 10; Brooklyn, 1.
St. Louis, 13; Philadelphia, 9.
Cincinnati, 12; Boston, 11 (12 innings).

Games Today.

Chicago at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc
Detroit	48	23	.676
Philadelphia	47	24	.662
New York	37	32	.536
Chicago	34	32	.515
Boston	36	34	.514
Cleveland	35	40	.467
Washington	26	46	.361
St. Loius	19	51	.271

Yesterday's Results.

St. Louis, 8; Chicago, 1.
Cleveland, 4; Philadelphia, 0.

Games Today.

New York at Chicago.
Boston at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Washington at Detroit.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	48	23	.676
Baltimore	46	27	.630
Toronto	39	33	.542
Montreal	31	34	.477
Buffalo	30	33	.476
Jersey City	30	36	455
Newark	25	40	.385
Providence	25	48	.342

Yesterday's Results.

Jersey City, 6; Newark, 4.
Baltimore, 8; Providence, 1.
Rochester, 6; Montreal, 5 (10 innings).
Toronto at Buffalo; rain.

Games Today.

Baltimore at Newark.
Montreal at Rochester.
Toronto at Buffalo.
Providence at Jersey City.

OLDEST CITIZEN OF DOVER DEAD

Dover, July 7.—Funeral services for Dr. Isaiah Condict, Dover's oldest citizen and the father of four sons who are also physicians, was held at his late home this afternoon. Dr. Condict died Tuesday, after an illness of about a year.

Dr. Condict was born at Succasunna, October 6, 1817, and received his early education in the public schools of that village. Later he taught school at Stillwater, Sussex county and at the same time studied medicine. He began practicing medicine at Blainstown sixty-seven years ago and was the first principal of the Blairstown Academy.

Life in the country in those days was far from being as convenient as now, and the young physician encountered many hardships and surmounted many obstacles in caring for his widely scattered patients.

Besides Dr. Arthur Condict, the survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Geo. Singleton, with whom the decedent lived; Dr. D. Trimble Condict, of Goshen, N. Y.; Dr. E. E. Condict, of Trenton, and Dr. F. L. Condict, of New Brunswick.

WORKMAN QUITS AFTER UNEARTHING SKELETON.

A skull and dismembered bones of a skeleton were uncovered by workmen digging a cellar for a house to be built on Cortlandt street, near Holmes street, Belleville, yesterday afternoon. They are believed to be those of a man. The police think that the cellar is being dug on a private burying ground. This theory is corroborated by stories told by old residents in the locality, who say that years ago they saw headstones there.

The workman who made the find is a foreigner, and he refused to continue digging at the place after he had unearthed the skull. His employer, John C. La Fucherie, contracting mason, put him to work in another place. Mr. La Faucherie notified the police, who communicated with County Physician McKenzie. With the county physician's permission the larger bones were taken from the cellar to the Belleville police station where an employe of Kunz's morgue in Orange called for them last night.

Police Chief Flynn had an officer detailed at the cellar until all the pieces of the skeleton, together with small rotted fragments of a wooden coffin or box, had been taken away to the morgue.

IMPERILS TWO LIVES BY DIVE FROM CANOE.

Paterson, July, 7.—In attempting to dive from a canoe into the Passaic River, Paul Steiner, a dentist, of this city and Passaic overturned the canoe in which two young women were seated. The three were saved by James Hunter, son of one of the owners of Hunter & Daly's bath-houses, on Little Falls road.

The young women, who came from Clifton and Passaic, were forced to don bathing suits, in which they remained for several hours while their street clothing was being dried in the boathouse attached to the baths. They declined to give their names.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

YOU KNOW

of course, you know, but what do you know That is what I would like to know.

LAUGHING.

Went to Uptodate on Wednesday to pay my men who are getting my land prepared to sell lots. Saw a new $3,500 house being built. That is what making them laugh did. They all commenced to laugh when they saw me getting off the train but you should have seen me laugh when I saw that $3,500 house. These lots will be sold on the plan that you have to buy two to get one, for no house can be built on less than fifty feet and that must be a $2,000 house or better. I want to see you often, so you can pay me $1 down $1 per week. Read below.

UP-TO-DATE (LAKEWOOD).

I will commence selling lots at Uptodate in a few days; have almost completed what the last law requires as to lot selling, and I want you to know about the lots that I am about to deceive you with. For that reason I want all of you to use my ballot below and send me the name of someone who you want to tell you about them, and who will receive two lots for his trouble. The three who receives the most number of votes will go. I want them to tell you that you are getting more than a $100 lot for $25, and that I will not keep it up long. And I want as many of you who will pay their own expenses to go as well. I can not afford to take you. Let me know when you want to go, and I will tell you how to take a shorter walk from Uptodate depot to the lots than I walk from home to the Plainfield Depot. This contest will last two weeks from the date I commence to sell lots and any one buying before will receive their money back if they receive an adverse decision. The first two people who buy from this date, (July 26th) will receive four lots for two. Send your names at once, and you can pick your lots from maps.

MY TIME IS YOURS

159 NORTH AVENUE. 'PHONE 1907

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr...
Address ....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

WRAPPED IN WAX PAPER

DAYLIGHT BAKERY WELL VENTILATED

O-X-O BREAD

HOME MADE BEST MATERIAL USED

ASK YOUR GROCER PHONE 1726

PLAINFIELD.N.J. J.C.Schinkel. PROP.

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE

Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobacco.

PHONE 440-J

Central R. R. News Stands.

You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
1— NORTH AEVNUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W Front St. Tel. 886-W

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova. Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 617 [illegible]
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Digger.
[illegible] MOVING A SPECIALTY

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture Trunks, Pictures [illegible] Glass and Bric-a-Bras Packed [illegible] Crated for Storage and Shipping.
[illegible] Rooms to Let [illegible] 38 E. Front St

WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
[illegible]
Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
[illegible] 440 [illegible] Residence 313 Lee place.

Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches Clocks and [illegible]
[illegible] Clock Repairing
Specialty
[illegible] Ave. Plainfield, N.J.

A Camping Necessity—The Caloric

WE SOLD AND SHIPPED FIVE CALORICS TO CAMPERS LAST WEEK

Your time is all your own, for pleasure, if you have a Caloric Fireless Cooker in your Camp Outfit.

Just put your food in the Caloric in the morning and when you come back to camp at night a fine hot, sumptuous dinner is ready to serve.

Now as an example of how easy it is to cook with a Caloric:
One user has three boarders and commutes each day.
She prepares the food for dinner and puts it in the Caloric in the morning before she leaves.
At night the dinner is piping hot and thoroughly and well cooked.
See how easy it would be for you to go off hunting, fishing or tramping and not be bothered with the worry of getting meals ready when back at camp.
Let us show you a Caloric and tell you all about it.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

Advertise in The Daily Press

PROSTRATIONS INCREASE AND MILLS CLOSE DOWN.

Paterson, July 7.—Five protrations was the heat record of Wednesday, as reported from the two local hospitals. This makes a total of eighteen prostrations, with two fatalities, treated at the hospital since the present hot wave started.

The intense heat made it necessary for many of the manufacturers of this city to close their mills at noon. This was done for the benefit of the employes, who found it practically impossible to work while the temperature was so high.

One of the large plants to close down was the old Strange mill, on Madison street, in which several firms are located. McCollom & Post, Aronsohn Brothers, Samuel J. Aronsohn, Haenichen Brothers and many others closed down.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TOPICS.

Asbury Park, July 7.—Rev. Dr. Robert W. Rogers, of the Drew Theological Seminary, Wednesday afternoon gave the first lecture of the series of six he is to deliver before the New Jersey Sunday-school Association's school of methods, which opened in the Asbury Park High School assembly-room for its annual session of one week. His subject was "The Story of the Creation."

Yesterday morning he spoke on "The Story of Eden." These lectures are open to the public. His series deals with "Genesis and Recent Researches" and is said to be the best thing the school has ever offered.

More than two hundred Sunday-school teachers were present at the opening exercises.

Miss Hazel Moore, of West Fifth street, is visiting friends in Trenton.

Carl Strong, of Watchung avenue, has returned from Bermuda, where he spent ten days.

THE DAILY PRESS.
Plainfield, N. J., July 7, 1911.

ON LOCAL DIAMONDS TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Plainfield's Pets are scheduled to play the Bound Brook tail enders on the Oval tomorrow afternoon. "Red" Waller will be on the slab for the local nine with Nelson on the receiving end. It is reported that Bound Brook will come here padded up in order to capture a second game for a respectable percentage in the league standing. The battery for Bound Brook has not been announced as yet.

A hot game is expected at Westfield tomorrow afternoon when Scotch Plains lines up against the Mt. Ararat bunch to try to get revenge for Tuesday's defeat. High Bridge is on the card to play Somerville tomorrow afternoon on the latter's grounds.

In the city Sunday-school league, two games are scheduled. Trinity Reformed will line up against the Park Avenue Baptist nine while Monroe Avenue M. E. plays the First Baptist team. The first game will be played on the Cricket field and the Monroe Avenue-First Baptist contests will be run off on the Clinton avenue grounds.

Dunellen will be the scene of a hot game between the team of that borough and the Phoenix A. C. nine, of New York city. Dave Smith, a former resident of Dunellen, will play short-stop for the Phoenix team, which will have a fast semi-professional battery in the points.

NORTHFIELD ECHOES OF LOCAL INTEREST

Plainfield is represented by fourteen young women at the Northfield conference for college and boarding school girls at Northfield, Mass., this week. The Smith college delegation and the Plainfield representatives have affiliated. They are rooming in the Betsy Moody cottage which was erected by Dwight L. Moody in memory of his mother. The Plainfield girls are being chaperoned by Miss Margaret Mead, of East Front street.

A reception was given in the Betsy Moody cottage yesterday afternoon to the officials and delegates of the conference. Nearly 300 young women were entertained by the Plainfield and Smith delegations at this function. Befors the end of the week the attendance at the conference is expected to be over 700. The Plainfield girls met Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moody yesterday afternoon He is the son of the world renowned evangelist, Dwight L. Moody, and is now carrying on his father's great work at the Northfield conferences. Bishop Trotter, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, and Rev. Dr. McDowell, of Newark, are among the notable preachers whom the local girls have met.

Each member of the Plainfield delegation is enrolled in one of the Bible study classes, which are held every morning for an hour. In the afternoon the time is given over to sports and recreations of all sorts. Miss Barbara Fleming, of this city, is picked as a sure winner in the convention tennis tournament. Every evening the members of the several delegations assemble on Round Top, a hill near the conference grounds, and there a song service is held.

The Plainfield delegation, which will remain at Northfield for the entire week, is composed of the Misses Margaret and Frederica Mead, of East Front street, Louise Andrews, of Central avenue, Eleanor DeGraff, of Central avenue, Margaret V. Leggett, of Madison avenue, Marie Finch, of Park avenue, Barbara Fleming, of Park avenue, Marion Snyder, of Prospect avenue, Muriel Collins, of West Fourth street, Dorothy Adams, formerly of this city, Dorothy Burke, of Ravine road, Helen Hyde, of Woodland avenue, and Ruth VanVleet, of the borough. Miss Bessie Alpaugh, of East Sixth street, is at the conference with the Montclair delegation.

NEW BRUNSWICK ADDS TO HEAT'S FATALITIES.

New Brunswick, July 7.—Three men and two women succumbed to the heat here and in surrounding communities Wednesday. They were Mrs. Anna Thomas, of 19 New street; Mrs. Elizabeth Paulus, of 226 Somerset street; Peter R. Letson, of Stelton; Mathias Allgair, of Sayreville, and James E. Miller, of the Parker House.

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Week-End Specials

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.
Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

PALMER HAMMOCKS $3.98.
For the regular $5.00 ones; extra wide and extra long, with wide valance and lay back pillow; all the newest color combinations.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c
Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.
Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.
a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.
Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 11c.
A special lot of fine gauze cotton stockings, fast black, with extra spliced heels and toes; would be good value at 18c.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

LADIES' NECKWEAR 18c.
A special lot of pretty Jabots made of fine white lawn and trimmed with lace and embroidery; 25c value.

LADIES' SKIRTS 98c.
Fine white linene wash skirts, the newest models; an excellent skirt for outing purposes; usually $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $7.98
instead of $12.50; apartment style; holding 50 lbs of ice, with three shelves in provision compartment; a good serviceable hard wood refrigerator.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.
Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.
Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.
Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.
a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.
The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.
A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.
Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

BATH SPRAYS 69c.
instead of 98c; the Monarch shower bath spray, complete with faucet connection, rubber tube and aluminum spray.

CHILDREN'S PARASOLS 39c.
In pink, blue and red; Japanese styles with tinsel effects; were made to sell for 75c.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

MR. FRELINGHUYSEN'S ELIGIBILITY DECIDED

Although he has received an opinion form the Attorney General's office regarding the eligibility of Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen for membership on the new State Board of Education, Governor Wilson declined yesterday at Trenton to make any statement upon the subject, except to say that he believed the situation would be satisfactorily adjusted The Governor took the position that in the rather peculiar circumstances surrounding the case, it would be discourteous for him to enter into a discussion of the subject at this time. He promised that he would make a statement as soon as he felt that he could do so with propriety.

The question as to whether the appointment of Senator Frelinghuysen was a violation of the constitutional prohibition against appointing a member of the Legislature to any civil office created during the time for which he was elected is still being debated about the Capitol. Senator Frelinghuysen has announced that until his status is definitely established he will not take an active part in the affairs of the new board lest any cloud should be cast upon the legality of their proceedings. It is accepted as a foregone conclusion that whether he serves in the interim or not, he will be appointed when the Legislature reconvenes and all doubt as to his eligibility has thus been removed.

GOVERNOR'S PLANS FOR THE NEAR FUTURE

It is not likely that Governor Wilson will make any further appointments this week. He said yesterday at Trenton that although he has been in communication with men he has had under consideration for the several positions yet to be filled, he has been unable to reach a positive decision yet. Some of the men whom the Governor would have liked to have named have not signified their willingness to accept the positions. This is particularly true in the case of the commissioner of education, regarding which position the Governor is still in doubt. He is anxious to obtain the most capable person possible for the important post.

The Governor will meet with the Court of Pardons at the State House, Trenton, next Monday, and following the session of that body will start for Frankford, Ky., where he is to address the Kentucky Bar Association next Wednesday evening. He will return to Trenton immediately, probably arriving there Friday night.

The Governor's family will move from Lyme, Conn., to Sea Girt during the latter part of next week. The Governor announced yesterday that he would continue during the summer to be at the State House each Tuesday, and would spend as much more time there as might be necessary to attend to the duties of his office. When not in Trenton or making addresses he will make his home at Sea Girt.

—Use Press want ads.
—There is no better diet during these warm days than fresh vegetables. Neuman Bros. can supply you with the best the market affords. They will have a large display tomorrow.

Levy Bro's TWO STORES

HOT WEATHER ATTRACTIONS

$1.48 HOUSE DRESSES 85c.
The well known "La Mode" make, the best fitting house dress made; excellent quality percale; 2-piece dresses, all sizes.....85c

A sample line of the popular "La Mode" dresses one and two-piece styles; Dutch neck and regular cut; values up to $3.00; at .....98c to $1.98

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR.
Ladies' Nainsook Gowns, slip over style, trimmed with linen lace and ribbon.....49c
50c Muslin Drawers with cluster tucks and embroidered ruffle at 39c
Summer Net Corsets.....49c

SHIRT WAISTS.
A splendid lot of lawn and percale waists; Dutch neck and high neck; some with colored embroidery; excellent values..39c & 49c

$1.50 & $1.98 WHITE WAISTS AT 98c.
To reduce our stock of waists we have assembled a grand lot of higher grade waists for.....98c

KIMONAS.
Cool lawn kimonas, fast colors, for 29c
Long Kimonas in lawn, crepe and silk .....49c to $4.98
An exceptionally fine lot of crepe Kimonas $1.98
25c Tissue Handkerchiefs....19c

HOSIERY.
Ladies' wafer lisle hose, value 35c, at 25c
Men's 25c lisle drop stitched hose 19c
Men's Athletic Underwear....19c
Ladies' Ribbed Vests, regular 15c at 10c

ROMPERS
For the children.....25c & 49c

DRESS LAWNS.
A good assortment of colored dress lawns at yard.....4¾c
15c White Persian Lawn....7½c
Extra heavy Turkish Towels, bleached 12½c
39c Corset Covers in great variety of styles 23c

These Disagreeable Days

emphasize the need of comfortable footwear.

We have every summer necessity as well as the more extreme designs in Low Shoes and Oxfords that are not obtainable elsewhere.

Prices here are always as low and in many cases less than other shoe stores ask.

White Ducks and Tan Leather are very much sought after just now---and they're here.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE
127 EAST FRONT ST.

Prize Hot Wave Tale.

Lowell, Mass., July 7.—Gilbert Wright, of Chelmsford, a suburb of Lowell, says that a setting of eggs which the hen had abandoned when almost ready to hatch, hatched out without the hen's assistance at the finish. The heat drove had been so finish. The heat had been so nest, but it was warm enough for the atmosphere to take the place of the hen. Ten eggs have already hatched and others are expected today.

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to extend our hearty thanks to the fire department for their very excellent services yesterday, when our storehouse was threatened with destruction, but was saved by their good work.

We also feel especially grateful to friends and neighbors who labored so successfuly in saving the contents of our storehouse. Were it not for thme our loss would have been heavy.

Very truly yours,
NEUMAN BROS.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.
We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corpcration, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.
GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.

ORGANIZED 1864
THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD
736

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO
R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Watch it for "Health Hints" and information about his work.
Treatments by appointment only

EXCURSIONS.
First M. E. Church, Grace M. E. Church, Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, of Plainfield; Dunellen M. E. and Wilson Memorial Chapel.
ANNUAL EXCURSION of the METHODIST SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF PLAINFIELD AND DUNELLEN TO ASBURY PARK and OCEAN GROVE
Thursday, July 13
Baggage car for baskets, Baby Carriages, Bicycles, etc.
Adults $1.25 Children 90c
Leave Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; and Plainfield, 8:15 a. m. Returning leave Ocean Grove 7:10, stopping at Plainfield, Grant avenue, Clinton avenue and Dunellen. 766

POPULAR OUTINGS... VIA
New Jersey Central
LAKE HOPATCONG
EVERY SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY
ROUND TRIP $1.00 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:30 a.m.

ATLANTIC CITY
NEXT SUNDAY, JULY 9th
ROUND TRIP $2.50 Train Leaves Plainfield 7:58 a. m

Children HALF FARE Each Outing

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given.
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

A BIBLE CLASS GIFT FOR MRS. CHAMBLISS

Mrs. Chambliss, wife of Rev. Dr J. A. Chambliss, former pastor of the First Baptist church, was given a surprise at her home on Central avenue, last night by the members of the Bible class of that church, of which George A. Chapman is the teacher. The class, an unusually large one composed of women, desired to show in a substantial way appreciation of Mrs. Chambliss for her interest in the church's welware

During the early part of the evening, Mrs. George H. Batchelor, a friend, invited Mrs. Chambliss to take a carriage drive, and when they returned she found about forty friends waiting to greet the pastor's wife, who was further surprised, when Mr. Chapman, on behalf of his class, presented her with a handsome traveling clock. In doing so he expressed the high regard and appreciation in which she was held by not only the members of the class, but everyone in the church. Mrs. Chambliss thanked all for the gift.

A social time followed, during which refreshments were served. The affair was informal and was in consequence all the more enjoyable. Mrs. Chambliss added interest to the evening by showing to the company her wedding trousseau, worn fifty years ago when she and Dr. Chambliss were married. The peculiar southern style of a half-century ago was an object of much curiosity to those of the present generation. She also related some of the interesting incidents of her younger days, recalling stirring scenes of the Civil War. There was only one thing lacking to make the affair complete and that was the absence of Dr. Chambliss. He left yesterday for an outing in Maine and it was a source of regret that he was not present to share his wife's enjoyment of the happy affair.

ORANGE TO LEARN HOW MUCH WATER IT SELLS.

For the purpose of ascertaining the actual amount of water supplied to consumers in Orange, it was decided at a meeting of the Water and Street Lighting Committee of the Common Council Wednesday night to have special reports prepared by Frank X. Schieman, the clerk of the department, semi-annually.

Monthly reports are now made by Henry Berg, chief engineer of the municipal plant, showing the amount pumped into the mains, but no statements have ever been made to indicate just how much of the amount was actually sold. With the additional data to be prepared by Mr. Schieman, the committee hopes to be able to detect any unusual causes of waste.

The committee also decided to have the supply shut off from delinquents unless water bills, some of which have been standing for years, are paid at once. As was reported by Mr. Schieman, such bills amount to more than $4,000, and are charges against a comparatively small number of consumers. The water clerk was instructed to notify such delinquents that the supply would be turned off after five days unless the bills are paid.

A Holiday Party.

A number of young people from the city and borough were the guests of S. R. Droescher at Cranford on Tuesday. The party made the trip by bus. After luncheon canoe trips on the Cranford river were enjoyed. Among those present were the Misses Marjorie Hart, Helen George, Emma VanZandt, Theodosia Van Zandt, Florence Stephenson Marguerite Wotton. Mrs. Olmsead, Mrs. VanZandt, Mrs. F. M. Ward and Messrs. Harry Gladstone Blimm, Jack Disraeli Todd, William Nischwitz, Louis Van Zandt, Malcolm Van Arsdale, Frank Helwig, Harry Smith, Marshall Ward, Alfred Olmstead and F. M. Ward.

Mrs. Horan's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary Horan, whose death occurred at her home on West Seventh street Thursday, was held this afternoon from St. Mary's church where a requiem mass was celebrated. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends at the services and the numerous handsome floral tributes attested the esteem in which the deceased was held by a large acquaintance.

Stanley Jenkins, of New York city, is visiting Herbert Hillman, of Madison avenue.

Miss Jane Restler, of Brooklyn, has been visiting Miss Helen Bestler, of West Seventh street.

FIRST COMMISSIONER OF STATE'S SCHOOLS

Calvin N. Kendall, city superintendent of schools, in Indianapolis, Ind., is now mentioned as the man whom Governor Wilson has selected to be the New Jersey State Commissioner of Education, the new $10,000 job created by the last Legislature.

Mr. Kendall is a noted educator, and it has been said for a couple of days that the choice of Governor Wilson has narrowed down to him. The governor will not talk on the subject, but it is intimated by some that he is awaiting only the coming back of Mr. Kendall from the Pacific coast, where he is attending the meeting of the National Educational Association, before announcing the appointment of Mr. Kendall.

Mr. Kendall is a Democrat, and has been noted for his squareness in dealings both political and as an educator. He is backed by some powerful men of national renown.

Mrs. Thomas Mulcahy.

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Ellen Creveling Mulcahy, wife of Thomas Mulcahy, of 324 McDowell street, died this morning in Muhlenberg Hospital where she was received late in April. She was thirty-five years old and had been a resident of this city neary all her life. Surviving besides her husband are several small children the youngest being but an infant several months old. Announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Three Couples Engaged.

Announcement is made of the engagements of three young women employed by the Woodhull & Martin Company, Miss Edna Moffett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Moffett, to Frank Simon; Miss Allene V. Carver, to W. M. Higgins and Miss Katheryn S. Vail, to George Romond, of Clinton avenue. The weddings will take place during the summer.

All Well at Wawayanda.

A letter from C. W. Bingaman, boys' secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., who is in charge of the Plainfield delegation at the State Y. M. C. A. camp at Lake Wawayanda, states that all the campers are well and that the Plainfield leaders re among the most popular directors of the camp. The local boys will return from camp next Thursday.

To Hold Lawn Fete.

The Young Ladies' Aid Society of the German Lutheran church held a meeting last night in the church. It was decided to hold a lawn festival during the latter part of this month on the lawn at the home of the Misses Ruskie, 431 West Sixth street.

Many Patients at Hospital.

Muhlenberg Hospital is crowded to the limit with patients at present, there being fifty-two, and the staff of nurses is kept very busy in consequence. The patients have been getting along well considering the extreme neat.

Hearst Cass Outing.

William Randolph Hearst Cass, formerly of Chicago, but now of the Courier-News reportorial staff, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Hacquer, at their bungalow on the mountains.

A Sir Knight.

Word was received here this morning of the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Knight, of St. Louis, yesterday. Mrs. Knight was formerly Miss Mabel Jenkins, of East Sixth street.

—Use Press want ads.

KISSES ARE COSTLY WHEN THEY'RE STOLEN

Kisses at $13.25 per are rather expensive. This is what Dominick Pugliese, of Chestnut place, Roselle, thinks after facing Judge Van S. Roosa, of Roselle, in court and paying that sum on a charge of disorderly conduct, committed when he seized Miss Margaret Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Hudson, of 311 Clay avenue, west, Roselle Park, about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening and placed an ardent kiss on her lips.

The girl was passing through Locust place on her way from a drug store to her home at the time. Miss Hudson alleged that Pugliese followed her along the street and caught up with her at a dark spot in Locust place. Her screams frightened the offender and he fled.

A warrant for his arrest was placed in Marshal Simon Birmingham's hands yesterday and he visited the place where Pugliese is employed and found him missing. After some clever deteceive work, Marshal Birmingham located the offender in a secluded place among friends in the Aldene section.

Efforts are being made by the local police to break up a gang of young fellows who anhoy young women by their remarks and actions and all caught will receive stiff doeses of justice.

HEAT SUFFERER DROPS DEAD.

Perth Amboy, July 7.—Remen Johnson, fifty years old, dropped dead Wednesday night at the foot of High street, a few minutes after helping to launch an oyster skiff. Mr. Johnson suffered from the heat all day and was sitting near the water in an effort to cool off, when John Seaman, a neighbor, asked him to help put the boat into the Raritan. Johnson, returning to his seat, said: "Phew, but it's hot!" and fell forward dead.

He was an exempt fireman and one of the organizers of the local association. A widow and two children survive him.

Pastors to Exchange.

Rev. William C. O'Donnell, pastor of the M. E. church, Woodbridge, will exchange with Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, Sunday morning. Mr. O'Donnell with his family, is living on Franklin place, this city.

Enter C. J. Fisk, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fisk, formerly of Scranton, but now of this city, are parents of a ten pound boy, born to them this morning. Mr. Fisk is the son of former Mayor and Mrs. Charles J. Fisk, of West Seventh street.

Charter Bill Vetoed.

In finishing up with the unsigned bills today Governor Wilson, in addition to disapproving Senate Bill, No. 301, vetoed the Camden Charter Bill.

Sunday at Lake Hopatcong.

Special excursion via New Jersey Central, next Sunday and every Sunday and Holiday. Round trip, $1. Leave Plainfield 9:50 a. m. 7 7 2f-s

Mrs. Judd Stewart and son, Edgar, of Willow avenue, have gone to Colorado for the summer.

Chauncey and Douglas Stewart, of Willow avenue, are camping in the Adirondack mountains.

Rev. St. John Fitch, of aPrk avenue, will occupy the pulpit at the Westfield Baptist church on Sunday morning and in the evening will preach at Bethel chapel, here.

—Iced tea and coffee will help to make life worth living these days and don't forget that Neuman Bros. carry the finest brands of tea and coffee.

Phil Jahn, with his force of men, was obliged to quit work on a roof yesterday on account of the heat. They had been at work on the roof for several days and all managed to work the full time.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME
is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.
You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.
Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD. NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Telephone 829-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40, Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 2345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1226.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 334-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 3094-Gramercy.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

EVEREST—On Thursday, July 6, 1911, Mary Emma, widow of Robert R. Everest, aged 60 years.

Funeral services at her late residence, 622 East Seventh street, on Saturday, July 8, at 2:30 p. m. 7 6 2

DUFFY—in this city July 6, 1911, John Duffy, in his 50th year.

Funeral from his late residence, 435 West Third street, Saturday, July 8, at 8:30 a. m., and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

CROWLEY—July 5, 1911, Michael Crowley.

Funeral from his brother's residence, Mr. John Crowley, Ann street, Saturday, July 8, at 8:15 a. m., and from St. John's church, Dunellen, N. J., at 9 a. m., where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of his soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Plain cook. Apply 542 West Seventh street, evenings. 7 7 tf

WHITE girl for general housework; must be good plain cook. 441 West Front street.

GIRL wanted for general housework; must have references. Apply 516 Woodland avenue. 7 6 3

WANTED—Cook and waitress at 338 East Front street. 7 5 4

WANTED — Girl for general housework. Apply 322 Clinton avenue. 7 7 3

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

WANTED—OPERATORS, ALSO LEARNERS, ON LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR; PAID WHILE LEARNING. SCHILLER BROS., 320 WEST FRONT STREET. 6 8 1mo

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—2 good boys to learn plumbing trade. Call 23 Vine street. 7 5 3

YOUNG man for general work. Dr. Lufburrow, 441 West Front street.

CARPENTERS wanted. 423 John street. 7 5 3

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 3 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to [illegible] bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz. First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 3 16 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

FOR RENT.

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms. 671 West Fourth street. 7 5 tf

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire [illegible] Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—4 rooms on West Third street, near Clinton avenue. Inquire 433 Orchard place. 7 6 3

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 8 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

LOWER part of double house, part improvements; $15; four room flat, 421 Sycamore street; colored people; six room flat, $14; stable to let; very low. Chas. H. Hand, Watchung avenue. 7 7 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—On July 4th, tan and black collie, white tip on tail. Return to 1220 East Front street and receive reward. 7 6 3

FOUND—Purse. Owner can have same by calling at 231 East Sixth street.

LOST—On Wednesday, pocketbook containing sum of money and trunk key. Owner took 7:25 train to New York and from there went to Fulton street subway station. Reward at this office. 7 7 3

LOST—Bank book, No. 23061, on the Plainfield Savings Bank. Please leave at bank.

NOTICE—Fifty dollars reward will be paid for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of person or persons that have been destroying signs at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue, near Leland.

LOST—Gold signet ring, initials P. M. D. Reward at 42 Mountain avenue. 7 3 6

LOST—Monday afternoon at Plainfield Country Club, gold watch with fob attached. Liberal reward if returned to Wylie Brown, 1239 Watchung avenue. 7 6 tf

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 2 1 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants position as general houseworker. 215 Muhlenberg place. 7 5 3

WANTED—Washing to take home or go out. 610 West Fourth street. 7 7 2

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FOR SALE—3 pure bred hound puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

HAY FOR SALE—6½ acres, standing; near town; cheap. 31 Brook avenue. 7 6 3

FOR SALE—An imported Irish crochet hand made collar. Address Mrs. Emmons, 18 Steiner place, N. P. 7 6 3

FAMILY ice box for sale; first class ice saver; in good condition; will sell cheap to quick buyer. Murray's auction room, 164 East Front street. 7 7 6

FOR SALE—A pony, harness and carriage. Inquire at 109 Summit avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 7 7 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanising, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 3 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

AT MURRAY'S auction rooms you can find a large variety of books at our book stand from 5 to 10 cents each, by good authors. We have also goods arriving daily; any one can get a bargain if in need of anything. All kinds of goods bought and sold; also merchandise at Murray's, 164 East Front street, opposite the Woodhull & Martin building. 'Phone 666. 7 7 2

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 3 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Stocks were strong in New York yesterday.

The fifth day of the heat wave continued to prey on humanity, and several deaths and numerous prostrations resulted Mayor Gaynor withheld his consent to the Stillwell bill providing that a courthouse be erected in City Hall Park, New York.

It was learned that the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian church, New York, had declined a contribution of $100,000 made by the late Smith Ely.

Commissioner Waldo deposed Inspector Russell as head of the Detective Bureau in New York, naming Inspector Hughes as his successor.

Deputy Chief Thomas J. Ahearn was retired from the New York Fire Department on full pay after continuous service of thirty-eight years.

A Lisbon dispatch stated that the reports of conflicts between the Portuguese loyal troops and sympathizers with the monarchists were untrue.

Vedrine led the nine contestants in the Paris-Utrecht-London-Paris aviation race in the flight across the British Channel from Dover to Calais.

Two motormen were killed and five other persons injured in a charge by the police on a mob near the streetcar barns at Indianilla, near Mexico City.

A dispath from London stated that the seamen's strike situation had improved and that dockers at Glasgow and Sunderland were resuming work.

A board of naval experts in explosives is being selected by the Navy Department to study the hull of the Maine in the cofferdam in Havana Harbor.

The Public Service Commission, of New York, gave a hearing on the free transfer situation, and counsel for one company said he would need six months to present his case.

The New York Park Board was deadlocked over the election of a landscape architect to fill the place made vacant by the removal of Samuel Parsons, Jr., eight weeks ago.

An action to separate the business of coal mining from railroading was begun, says a dispatch from Washington, by the Attorney General against the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Representative E. B. Vreeland, of New York, in an address before the Ohio Bankers' Association, at Cedar Point, Ohio, indorsed ex-Senator Aldrich's plan for a central bank.

Attorney General Wickersham discussed the Supreme Court's recent decisions in the Standard Oil and Tobacco cases before the Michigan State Bar Association, at Battle Creek, Mich.

An official of the Standard Oil Company said it would be some time yet before the company would be ready to announce a plan of reorganization in accordance with the Supreme Court's decision.

The missing letters from W. E. D. Stokes to Miss Lillian Graham were produced in court, and it was shown that they had been taken from her rooms by employes of the Ansonia, Mr. Stokes' hotel, in New York.

Congress.—Senate: The Senate listened to a remarkable defence of Christian Science by Senator Works, of California, and to an attack on reciprocity by Senator Gronna, of North Dakota. The House was not in session.

Answering complaints of street cleaners, Mayor Gaynor wrote to Commissioner Edwards that if the men struck there would be plenty to take their places, and added that the night removal of garbage must be continued in New York.

The defense in the McNamara alleged dynamite conspiracy case sprung a surprise on the prosecution in Los Angeles when it asserted that the court had no jurisdiction in the nineteen charges of murder, as the brothers had been extradicted for alleged dynamiting.

MONEY MAD NEIGHBORS RANSACK DEATH HOUSE.

Pittsburg, July 7.—A few minutes after it became known that Frederick Prager had been found dead in bed at his home, 265 High street, north side, neighbors rushed to the house and began ransacking for $11,000 alleged to be hidden somewhere about the premises. It took a squad of police to clear the house of fortune hunters and save the building from being wrecked.

Prager succumbed during the night to the heat. Three weeks ago his sister, Mrs. Emma Strana, committed suicide, while a few months ago John Strana met a violent death in a mill. The three deaths wiped out the Strana-Prager families and neighbors endeavored to get the rumored fortune.

The police will make a thorough search some time today.

Honey Muffins.

Sift together one and one-half pints of flour, two rounding teaspoonfuls of baking powder, a small half teaspoonful of salt. Work in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Beat and add three eggs, one teacupful of honey and one-half pint of milk. Bake in a hot oven.

GERMANS CHEATED IN BEER

Short Measure Costs the Thirsty $12,500,000 a Year, Says a Munich Statistician.

A Munich statistician estimates that Germans last year were swindled out of $12,500,000 worth of beer, all through getting short measure, and this it seems has been going on systematically for years. No wonder that the beer drinkers of the fatherland are in a ferment of excitement about it.

The discovery arose out of the prosecution in the courts of Munich, where beer drinkers forgather at the original fount, of a big beerhall proprietor and his staff of waiters who were accused of habitually serving short measure with intent and malice aforethought; that is, their liter and half liter steins never contained the quantity fixed by law.

The prosecution alleged that the brewery which stood behind the beerhall made $52,500 a year extra profit by giving false measure.

The case resulted in a conviction, but the defendants brought scores of witnesses to prove that in Munich, Berlin, Leipzig and other German cities, and also in Vienna, short measure was always served.

"No German in his life," said one witness, "has ever drunk an honest measure of beer."

Needless to say this last revelation has made a painful impression.—New York Sun.

HOW THE BURGLAR BREAKS IN

Window Is His Usual Point of Entrance, and Early Morning His Best Time.

Nearly all burglars get in, not through the door, which the householder is so careful to bolt and chain, but through the window. In London in one year 357 burglars got in through windows, only 85 entered through doors, 15 through fanlights and 11 by "breaking out." False keys were used 25 times. The favorite hours are two to six in the morning. The householder falls into his soundest sleep about an hour after dosing off, and is least likely to hear a burglar, say, between one and three o'clock. But the policeman on duty since ten o'clock, must be growing tired by cock-crows, and that seems why the burglar selects the later hours.

The housebreaker chooses either the very early morning, when the family is likely to be out, or the dinner hour, when persons are not apt to be thinking of him. Between six and eight o'clock in the morning there are 383 cases of housebreaking. Then, during the next five hours, from eight to ten o'clock, the total is only 114.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Measuring Meteor's Speed.

An interesting use has been found in astronomy for the bicycle wheel. By fitting such a wheel with a series of opaque screens placed at regular intervals and then rotating it with the aid of a small motor at the rate of from 30 to 50 turns in a minute before the cameras used to photograph meteors, one investigator has succeeded in measuring the velocity of the meteor's flight. The principle depends upon the interruptions produced by the screens in the trails of light made upon the photographic plates by the flying meteor. The velocity of the wheel is known at every instant by means of a chronographic record, and the length of the interruptions indicates the speed of the meteor.

The Spice of Life.

Those gray-uniformed special policemen in the Subway have a way of performing their duties coldly and automatically, as if their souls—if any—were elsewhere. But there is one of them, at the Fourteenth street station, who takes some pleasure in his job.

The raucous monotony of the cry, "Watch your step! Watch your step!" became too much for him one day last week as he stood by the side door of an express train teaching passengers the way they should go. So he rearranged it thus:

"Watch your step, ladies. Watch your step, gentlemen. Ladies and gentlemen, watch your pocketbooks!"

Healthy Sailors.

The health of the navy was better in 1909 than in any other yearly period of the last decade, and the death rate was the lowest ever recorded for that arm of the fighting services, according to the annual report of the surgeon general of the navy.

The recorded death rate was 5 per 1,000. The percentage of sick from disease and injuries was 4.09, as compared with the 10-year average of 5.218. The surgeon general recommends that the entire personnel under 50 years of age be vaccinated against typhoid fever.

More Up-to-Date.

De Style—Old Dreemy doesn't build castles in the air any more.

Gunbusta—Is that so?

De Style—He builds aeroplane stations in the air now.—Judge's Library.

Between Office Boys.

"How'll you get off for the opening game? You killed your grandmother off last season."

"I'll get off to go to grandfather's wedding. What's the matter with the old man getting married again?"

The Boynton Square Fire Pot Never Clogs With Ashes

The square pot of the BOYNTON furnace clears free each time the grate is turned. That keeps the fire lively and gives all the available heat in the coal.

House owners who use the "BOYNTON" call it "an economical furnace." It is. It saves money in reduced fuel bills, lessened labor and in longer years of usefulness than other furnaces.

BOYNTON

"Square Pot" Furnaces

and BOYNTON "square pot" boilers solve heating troubles—in homes, schools, churches and business blocks. If you need a heating plant, investigate the "BOYNTON" See your dealer about BOYNTON "square pot" furnaces and boilers.

BOYNTON FURNACE CO., 37th St., Near Broadway NEW YORK

FLAGS! FLAGS!!

LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY

4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)

8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.

18 ft. ROPE wiih galvanized iron Pulley.

1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.

SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40

Phone 668-J

William H. Olmsted

331 Watchung Ave.

JOS. F. BURKE

718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R

Successor to Mrs. John Brown

General Contractor and Grader Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North avenue., 'Phone 894. Postoffice Box 718. For prices address

FRANK BURKE, Manager. 825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

Of Interest To Housekeepers

You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Dunr St r Lincoln Pl

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating. Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN

Old Company's Lehigh Coal Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal $5.00 per ton.

929 South Avenue

Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE

Successor to Rheaume.

COAL

OFFICE AND YARD

674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL

Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 813 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS

747 West Front St. Kit

R. L. CLINE

(Successor to C. H. Boggs & Co.)

Best Quality Lehigh Coal

Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons

BEST LEHIGH COAL.

Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.

BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH

COAL

'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR

LIKE TILE

The Sanitary Wall Covering.

WOOD KRUSTA

Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.

Interior Decoration a Specialty

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators, 145 North Avenue.

THE REASON

I have the soundness of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.

James C. Hansen

Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.

141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.

Painters & Paperhangers

Formerly with Woolston & Buckle

PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.

Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS

Painters & Decorators

First Class Work Guaranteed.

408 East Fifth St.

Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN

PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER

85 SOMERSET ST.

opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

KODAKS

Complete line of Photo Supplies

Printing and Developing

AT DOANE'S

115 Park Ave.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS

110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

ELECTRIC FANS BRING BREEZES

Summer's heat loses half its terrors if you have an electric fan to make your cooling breezes to order.

You can get an 8-inch, 12-inch or 16-inch fan and have comfort in home or office at an expense of from one-quarter of one cent to one cent per hour.

Why swelter when relief is so readily obtainable?

Public Service Electric Co.

7-6-3

BARTHOLOMAY

"Here's a health to those whom we love:
Here's a health to those who love us,
And a health to those who love those whom we love,
And a health to those who love those who love us!"

If you don't treat your friends to Bartholomay, you don't treat them right.

Bartholomay

ROCHESTER

Beer or Ale

is a treat that you and your friends will appreciate. Delivered promptly to your home by

HENRY HAURAND

68 SOMERSET ST. 'PHONE 229

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE

1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

Extra Thick Best Quality

JAR RUBBERS

WE CLOSE AT NOON SATURDAYS

J. W. GAVETT

West Front Street.

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning July 9, 1911.

Topic.—Lessons from great lives.—VII. David.—I Sam. xvii, 32-51. Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

The life of David is one of the most interesting and instructive to be found in the Bible. He was the greatest of Israel's kings and the great ancestor of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is called the "Son of David." He was attractive in personal appearance, strongly religious in disposition and received his education under the direction of Samuel. His early years were spent in caring for his father's flocks. They were years of close fellowship with God. It was at this time also that he developed the genius for music and poetry that was afterward consecrated in the Psalms. After the incident of the slaying of the giant Goliath he entered upon his varied relations with King Saul, which formed such an important part of his life. David was anointed king three times. The first occasion was by Samuel while he was still a youth in his father's home. In the next place he was anointed king of Judah at Hebron after the death of Saul. Seven and a half years later he was called by the people to reign over the united kingdoms. He died, according to Josephus, at the age of seventy and "was buried in the city of David."

The life of David is well worthy of our study for the useful lesson that it may teach us.

1. The life of David teaches a lesson on trust in God. The one predominating characteristic of David's conflict with Goliath was his humble yet sublime trust in God. Goliath trusted in himself, in the power of his mighty weapons, but David, discarding the coat of mail that Saul put on him, went forth "in the name of the Lord of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel," whom Goliath had defied. Nor was his trust misplaced. David was confident that it would not be. God had been with him before when he was in danger and had delivered him from the lion and the bear. Since he had been with him in the past David rightly concluded that he would still be with him, especially when the welfare of the nation was at issue. David's trust in God was strong throughout his entire life. His Psalms constantly breathe a spirit of confidence and of trust. In all the perplexing experiences of his life he trusted in the Lord and always found Him faithful. We, too, may have the same confidence in God.

2. The life of David teaches a lesson on friendship. History contains few examples of friendship that equal that which existed between David and Jonathan. Jonathan formed the strongest attachment for David, and his friendship was returned. "The soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved David as his own soul." A friend is "another self." Friendship "really seems to consist in loving rather than in being loved. It is wishing a person what we think good for his sake and not for our own and as far as in our power, though exerting ourselves to procure it. And a friend is he who entertains and meets a return of this feeling." Such a conception of friendship was realized between Jonathan and David. Jonathan sacrificed everything for David's interests, and David appreciated and returned his love. Friendship in some degree is necessary in all our lives. In our friendships let us try to manifest the qualities that were embraced in that between Jonathan and David—"appreciation, love, confidence, tenderness, unsuspicious intercourse—with an additional religious element."

3. The life of David teaches a lesson in God's mercy. David was not a perfect man. Yet in his disposition and aspirations he was a man after God's own heart. He sinned most grievously, yet he repented of his sins, and God in His abundant mercy graciously pardoned him. And He is still willing to exercise mercy toward all who have wandered away from Him. The Lord is "plenteous in mercy." "His mercy endureth forever."

BIBLE READINGS.

I Sam. xvi, 11-13; xviii, 1-4, 14; xxi, 1-12; xxiv, 1-17; II Sam. ii, 1-7; vi, 11-15; xii, 1-23; xviii, 32, 33; Ps. xxxvii, 5; xl, 1-4; ciii, 1-8.

ENDEAVOR.

"What hast thou for thy scattered seed,
O sower of the plain?
Where are the many gathered sheaves
Thy hope should bring again?"
"The only record of my work Lies in the buried grain."

"O conqueror of a thousand fields,
In dinted armor dight,
What growths of purple amaranth
Shall crown thy brow of might?"
"Only the blossoms of my life Flung widely in the fight."

"What is the harvest of Thy saints,
O God, who dost abide?
Where grow the garlands of Thy chiefs
In blood and sorrow dyed?
What have Thy servants for their pains?"
"This only—to have tried."
—Julia Ward Howe.

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

CHAPTER XXX.

In Christie's Room.

Keith swept his glance up and down the street without results. Surely Hawley and his companion could not have disappeared so suddenly. They had turned to the right, he was certain as to that, and he pushed through the crowd of men around the theater entrance, and hastened to overtake them. He found nothing to overtake—nowhere along that stretch of street, illumined by window lights, was there any sign of a man and woman walking together. He stopped, bewildered, staring blindly about, failing utterly to comprehend this mysterious vanishing. What could it mean? What had happened? How could they have disappeared so completely during that single moment he had waited to speak to Fairbain? The man's heart beat like a trip-hammer with apprehension, a sudden fear for Hope taking possession of him. Surely the girl would never consent to enter any of those dens along the way, and Hawley would not dare resort to force in the open street. The very thought seemed preposterous, and yet, with no other supposition possible, he entered these one after the other in hasty search, questioning the inmates sharply, only to find himself totally baffled—Hawley and Hope had vanished as though swallowed by the earth. He explored dark passage-ways between the scattered buildings, rummaging about recklessly, but came back to the street again without reward.

Could they have gone down the other side, in the deeper shadows, and thus reached the hotel more quickly than it seemed to him possible? There was barely a chance that this could be true, and yet Keith grasped at it desperately, cursing himself for having wasted time. Five minutes later, breathless, almost speechless with anxiety, he startled the clerk.

"Has Miss Waite come in? Miss Hope Waite?"

"Blamed if I know," retorted the other, indifferently. "Can't for the life of me tell those two females apart. One of them passed through 'bout ten minutes ago; Doc Fairbain was with her. Another party just went upstairs hunting Miss Maclaire, and as they haven't come down, I reckon it must have been her—anything wrong?"

"I'm not sure yet," shortly. "Who was this other person?"

"Old fellow with white hair and whiskers—swore like a pirate—had the sheriff along with him."

It came to Keith in a flash—it was Waite. Perhaps Christie knew. Perhaps the General knew. Certainly something of importance was crystallizing in the actress' room which might help to explain all else. He rushed up the stairs, barely waiting to rap once at the closed door before he pressed it open. The sight within held him silent, waiting opportunity to blurt out his news. Here, also, was tragedy, intense, compelling, which for the instant seemed to even overshadow the fate of the girl he loved. There were three men present, and the woman. She stood clutching the back of a chair, white-faced and open-eyed, with Fairbain slightly behind her, one hand grasping her arm, the other clinched, his jaw set pugnaciously. Facing these two was Waite, and a heavily built man wearing a brown beard, closely trimmed.

"You'd better acknowledge it," Waite snapped out, with a quick glance at the newcomer. "It will make it all the easier for you. I tell you this is the sheriff, and we've got you both dead to rights."

"But," she urged, "why should I be arrested? I have done nothing."

"You're an adventuress—a damn adventuress—Hawley's mistress, probably—a—"

"Now, see here, Waite," and Fairbain swung himself forward, "you drop that. Miss Maclaire is my friend, and if you say another word I'll smash you, sheriff or no sheriff."

Waite glared at him.

"You old fool," he snorted, "what have you got to do with this?"

"I've got this to do with, you'll find—the woman is to be treated with respect or I'll blow your damned obstinate head off."

The sheriff laid his hand on Waite's shoulder.

"Come," he said, firmly, "this is no way to get at it. We want to know certain facts, and then we can proceed lawfully. Let me question the woman."

The two older men still faced one another belligerently, but Keith saw Christie draw the doctor back from between her and the sheriff.

"You may ask me anything you please," she announced, quietly. "I am sure these gentlemen will not fight in my room."

"Very well, Miss Maclaire. It will require only a moment. How long have you known this man Hawley?"

"Merely a few days—since I arrived in Sheridan."

"But you were in communication with him before that?"

Scheuer's Bargains

FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Scheuer's Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour, 24½ Bag 75c; per Barrel - - - $5.90

Evaporated Milk Gold Cross Brand 3 tall 10c cans 23c	Borden's Malted Milk 45c size a bottle 38c	Imported Olive Oil 35c size a bottle 31c	Franklin Mills Entire Wheat Flour 25c size, 5-lb pkg. 21c	Percil Oxygen Washing Compound, 25c size 21c	Platt's Chloride Odorless Disinfectant 50c size, a bottle 38c
Schimmell' Salad Dressing large bottle 10c	Post Toasties Toasted Corn Flakes 10c size, a pkg. 8c	Breakfast Cocoa Gold Medal Brand 18c size, ½-lb can 15c	Shredded Wheat Co.'s Triscut 10c size, a package 8c	Johnson's Preserves 3-lb crock 23c	Pyles' Pearline Equal to 3 of the 10c size, pkg. 18c
Pure Italian Olive Oil Gallon can 2.75	Libby's Chow-Chow Quart Mason Jar 25c	Gold Dust Washing Powder 4-lb package 19c	Campbell's Soup 3 cans 25c	Choice Rice White and Clean 3 lbs 14c	Peeled Peaches Regular 22c a lb 17c

WASHINGTON ROCK CO GINGER ALE SARSAPARILLA, ROOT BEER OR BIRCH BEER, per doz. quart bottles...80c

Mother's Oatmeal 10c size 3 packages 23c	Pearl Hominy or Samp 5-lb bag 14c	G. Washington Prepared Coffee 35c kind, a can 30c	National Biscuit Co. Uneeda Biscuits a package 4c	Marshall's Kippered Herring in Tomato Sauce 8c	White Rolled Oats Fresh and Sweet 6-lbs for 18c
New Florida Potatoes 6-quart pony basket 43c	Franco-American Potted Beef 10c size, a can 8c	Bismark Herring a jar 23c	Mustard Sardine 10c size 3 cans for 25c	10 Stamps with 3 bunches Rhubarb 10c	10 Stamps with 2 Bunches Fresh Jersey Beets. 10c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Baking Powder 45c	100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Premium Teas 60c	70 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Tea 50c	30 Stamps with 1 lb Oolong, Mixed or English Breakfast 35c	20 Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java 32c	10 Stamps with 1 lb Coffee 23c

DRAKES POUND CAKE, RAISIN CAKE, MARBLE CAKE, FRUIT CAKE, a lb.....18c

10 STAMPS WITH

Large Bottle Blue.....10c
1 Box Ball Blue.....10c
1 box Royal Talcum Powder.....10c
1 box Royal Tooth Powder.....10c
1 Package Macaroni.....10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla.....15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish.....10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline.....10c
1 Package Parlor Matches.....12c
Large Bottle Ammonia.....10c
7-lb Bag Salt.....10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish.....10c

20 STAMPS WITH

3-lb box Gloss Starch.....20c
3 Large Rolls Toilet Paper.....25c
Large Bottle Witch Hazel.....25c
Large Bottle Harris Ammonia.....25c
Quart Bottle Welch's Grape Juice....45c
Large bot. Slick Shine Fur. Polish....25c
Large box Silver Star Stove Polish...15c
½-gallon Bottle Cider Vinegar.....20c
1 lb Premium Java Coffee.....27c

IN OUR VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT.

California Juicy Oranges, dozen.....30c
Large Ripe Bananas, dozen.....20c
Fresh Wax Beans, a quart.....5c
Fresh Green Beans, a quart.....5c
Large Head Lettuce.....8c
Fresh Jersey Rhubarb, 3 bunches.....10c
New Yellow Onions, pony basket.....47c
New Florida Potatoes, pony basket...43c
Fresh Carrots, 3 bunches.....10c

SPECIALS IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT

Hinquarter of Spring Lamb, a lb....18c
Forequarter of Spring Lamb, a lb...14c
Shoulder of Lamb, a lb.....14c
Fresh Killed Jersey Fowl, lb.....20c
Stewing Fowl, lb.....16c
Fancy Roasting Chickens, a lb.....22c
Loin of Jersey Pork, a lb.....15c
Boneless Rib Roast, per lb.....18c
Boneless Pot Roast, a lb.....12½c
Fresh Plate or Brisket Beef, a lb.....6c
Fresh Stewing Lamb, a lb.....7c

Prime Chuck Roast, a lb.....12½c
Prime Chuck Steaks, a lb.....12½c
Fresh Chopped Beef, a lb.....12½c
Lean Salt Pork, a lb.....14c
Finest Sugar Cured Hams, a lb.....18c
Boneless Bacon, by the strip, lb.....18c
Lean Plate or Navel Cow Beef, a lb...6c
Wafer Sliced Smoked Beef, ½-lb box..15c
Finest Cooked Corn Beef, ½-lb.....18c
Finest Cold Boiled Ham, ½-lb.....18c
Lamb Chops, Shoulder, a lb.....16c

CRACKERS AND BISCUITS.

Ivin's Spice Wafers, a lb.....12c
Fig Bars, a lb.....10c
H. & P. Breakfast Biscuits, 2 pkgs...25c
Frou-Frou-wafer, lb.....45c
Lemon Cake, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Ginger Snaps, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nic Nacs, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nabisco Sugar Wafers, pkg.....9c
Filigree Fingers, pkg.....9c
Five O'clock Teas or Social Teas, pkg.9c

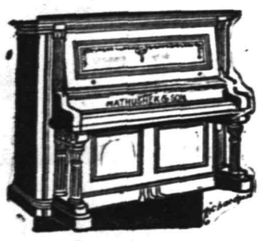
Absolute Sense of Security In the Purchase of a Mathushek & Son Piano

The seeker of a piano may come to our ware-rooms, choose from a large collection of proved instruments, and he will find the very best of Pianos and the best of Player-Pianos.

He will find our terms the fairest and most liberal.

In other words, we are determined that our piano patrons shall enjoy an ABSOLUTE SENSE of SECURITY.

This means more than good intentions. It means that WE first of all must possess that sense of absolute security in building the PIANOS TO BE SOLD.



THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD

with many valuable improvements

FACTORY DIRECT TO BUYER MEANS A LARGE SAVING.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.

No. 310 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1365

SPECIAL NOTICE—High grade and artistic tuning and repairing Pianos and Player-Pianos by factory experts.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)

217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 16, 1910.

NEW YORK—Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.40 a. m., 1.20, 2.30, 5.00, 5.20, 6.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.20, 2.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.25, 1.30, 5.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.20, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.25, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.25, 2.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.20, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—8.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—8.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

H. H. BIRD, P. M.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Estimates Furnished. Jobbing a Specialty.

1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

FRANK NEIDIG'S

LINCOLN MEAT MARKET

Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."

94 Somerset St.

Telephone—781.

For Sale or To Let

The Factory Building lately occupied by the

Crescent Embossing Co., located at

546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.

Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.

Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.

Especially suitable for light manufacturing.

Can be seen only by appointment with

Fred C. Lounsbury

Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.

Tel. 1036-R

or

Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.

Tel. 310-J

Advertisements

—FOR—

New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,

—and—

Newark Evening News Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

The pleasant voice and quiet demeanor of the sheriff seemed to yield the girl confidence and courage.

"Yes, he had written me two or three letters."

"You met him here then by appointment?"

"He was to come to Sheridan, and explain to me more fully what his letters had only hinted at."

"You possessed no previous knowledge of his purpose?"

"Only the barest outline—details were given me later."

"Will you tell us briefly exactly what Hawley told you?"

The girl's bewildered eyes wandered from face to face, then returned to the waiting sheriff.

"May—may I sit down?" she asked.

"Most certainly; and don't be afraid, for really we wish to be your friends."

She sank down into the chair, and even Keith could see how her slender form trembled. There was a moment's silence.

"Believe me, gentlemen," she began, falteringly, "if there is any fraud, any conspiracy, I have borne no conscious part in it. Mr. Hawley came to me saying a dying man had left with him certain papers, naming one, Phyllis Gale, as heiress to a very large estate in North Carolina, left by her grandfather in trust. He said the girl had been taken West, when scarcely two years old, by her father in a fit of drunken rage, and then deserted by him in St. Louis."

"You—you saw the papers?" Waite broke in.

"Yes, those that Hawley had; he gave them to me to keep for him." She crossed to her trunk, and came back, a manilla envelope in her hand. Waite opened it hastily, running his eyes over the contents.

"The infernal scoundrel!" he exclaimed, hotly. "These were stolen from me at Carson City."

"Let me see them." The sheriff ran them over, merely glancing at the endorsements.

"Just as you represented, Waite," he said, slowly. "A copy of the will, your commission as guardian, and memoranda of identification. Well, Miss Maclaire, how did you happen to be so easily convinced that you were the lost girl?"

"Mr. Hawley brought me a picture which he said was of this girl's half-sister; the resemblance was most startling. This, with the fact that I have never known either father or mother or my real name, and that my earlier life was passed in St. Louis, sufficed to make me believe he must be right."

"You—you—" Waite choked, leaning forward. "You don't know your real name?"

"No, I do not," her lips barely forming the words. "The woman who brought me up never told me."

"Who—who was the woman?"

"A Mrs. Raymond—Sue Raymond—she was on the stage, and died in Texas—San Antonio, I think."

Waite swore audibly, his eyes never once deserting the girl's face.

"Hawley told you to say that?"

"No, he did not," she protested warmly. "It was never even mentioned between us—at least, not Sue Raymond's name. What difference can that make?"

He stepped forward, one hand flung out, and Fairbain sprang instantly between them, mistaking the action.

"Hands off there, Waite," he commanded, sternly. "Whatever she says goes."

"You blundering old idiot," the other exploded. "I'm not going to hurt her; stand aside, will you!"

He reached the startled girl, thrust aside the dark hair combed low over the neck, swung her about toward the light, and stared at a birthmark behind her ear. No one spoke, old

Keith Straightened Up, Looking Directly Into the Fierce Questioning Eyes.

Waite seemingly stricken dumb, the woman shrinking away from him as though she feared he was crazed.

"What is it?" asked the sheriff, sternly.

Slowly Waite turned about and faced him, running the sleeve of his coat across his eyes. He appeared dazed, confounded.

"My God, it's all right," he said, with a choke in the throat. "She's—she's the girl."

Christie stared at him, her lips parted, unable to grasp what it all meant.

"You mean I—I am actually Phyllis Gale? That—that there is no mistake?"

He nodded, not yet able to put it more clearly into words. She swayed as though about to faint, and Fairbain caught her, but she slipped through his arms, and fell upon her knees, her face buried in her hands upon the chair.

"Oh, thank God," she sobbed, "thank God! I know who I am! I know who I am!"

CHAPTER XXXI.

The Search for the Missing.

The note of unrestrained joy of relief in the woman's voice rang through the room, stilling all else, and causing those who heard to forget for an instant the sterner purpose of their gathering. Fairbain bent over her, like a fat guardian angel, patting her shoulder, her eyes so blurred with tears as to be practically sightless, yet still turned questioningly upon Waite. The sheriff was first to recover speech, and a sense of duty.

"Then this lets Miss Maclaire out of the conspiracy charge," he said, gravely, "but it doesn't make it any brighter for Hawley so far as I can see—there's a robbery charge against him if nothing else. Any one here know where the fellow is?"

For a moment no one answered, although Keith took a step forward, reminded instantly of Hope's predicament. Before he could speak, however, Christie looked up, with swift gesture pushing back her loosened hair.

"He was to have met me at the theater to-night," she said, her voice trembling, "but was not there when I came out; he—he said he had important news for me."

"And failed to show up—did he send no message?"

"Doctor Fairbain was waiting for me instead. He said that Mr. Hawley was called suddenly out of town."

The eyes of the sheriff turned to Fairbain, whose face grew redder than usual, as he shifted his gaze toward Keith.

"That was a lie," he confessed, lamely. "I—I was told to say that."

"Just a moment, Sheriff," and Keith stood before them, his voice clear and convincing. "My name is Keith, and I have unavoidably been mixed up in this affair from the beginning. Just now I can relieve the doctor of his embarrassment. Miss Hope Waite and I have been associated together in an effort to solve this mystery. This evening, taking advantage of the remarkable resemblance existing between herself and Miss Maclaire, Miss Hope decided upon a mask—"

"What's that," Waite broke in excitedly. "Is Hope here?"

"Yes, has been for a week; we've had all the police force of Sheridan hunting you."

The old man stared at the speaker, open-mouthed, and muttered something about Fort Hays, but Keith, paying little attention to him, hurried on with his story.

"As I say, she decided upon impersonating Christie here, hoping in this way to learn more regarding Hawley's plans. We had discovered that the two were to meet after the evening performance at the stage door of the Trocadero. I escorted Hope there, dressed as near like Miss Maclaire as possible, and left her inside the vestibule waiting for 'Black Bart' to appear. At the head of the alley I ran into Fairbain, told him something of the circumstances, and persuaded him to escort Miss Christie back to the hotel. He was not very hard to persuade. Well, Hawley came, and Hope met him; they went out of the alleyway together arm in arm, talking pleasantly, and turned this way toward the hotel. The doctor and I both saw and heard them. I was delayed not to exceed two minutes, speaking a final word to Fairbain, and when I reached the street they had disappeared. I have hunted them everywhere without finding a trace—I have even been through the resorts. She has not returned to the hotel, and I burst in upon you here hoping that Miss Maclaire might have some information."

She shook her head, and Waite, glaring impotently at the two of them, swore sharply.

"Good God, man! my girl! Hope, alone with that damn villain. Come on, Sheriff; we've got to find her. Wait, though!" and he strode almost menacingly across the room. "First, I want to know who the devil you are?"

Keith straightened up, looking directly into the fierce questioning eyes.

"I have told you my name—Jack Keith," he replied, quietly. "Doctor Fairbain knows something of me, but for your further information I will add that when we met before I was Captain Keith, Third Virginia Cavalry, and bearing dispatches from Longstreet to Stonewall Jackson."

The gruff old soldier, half-crazed by the news of his daughter's peril, the gleam of his eyes still revealing uncontrolled temper, stared at the younger face fronting him; then slowly he held out his hand.

"Keith—Keith," he repeated, as though bringing back the name with an effort. "By God, that's so—old Jefferson Keith's boy—killed at Antietam. And you know Hope?"

"Yes, General."

He looked about as though dazed, and the sheriff broke in not unkindly.

"Well, Waite, if we are going to search for your daughter we better be at it. Come on, all of you; Miss Maclaire will be safe enough here alone."

He took hold of Keith's arm, questioning him briefly as they passed down the hall. On the stairs the latter took his turn, still confused by what he had just heard.

"Who is Miss Maclaire?" he asked.

"Phyllis Gale."

"Of course, but who is Phyllis Gale? What has she to do with General Waite? His daughter has told me she never heard of any one by that name."

(To Be Continued.)

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

SAFETY FOR VAULABLES

OUR STORAGE VAULT is of fire and burglar-proof construction, is free from dampness and is large enough to accommodate trunks and boxes of all sizes.

Storage rates 50c a month and upwards.

OUR SAFE DEPOSIT VAULT is also of fire and burglar-proof construction and affords absolute protection for valuable papers, jewelry, etc. It is equipped with boxes of all sizes.

Safe Deposit rates $5.00 a year upwards.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

W W

MIDSUMMER CLEARING SALE OF ORIGINAL GOODS

Men's Suits

22.00	Suits	now	16.50
18.00	"	"	14.50
16.50	"	"	12.90
15.00	"	"	11.50
12.00	"	"	8.50
10.00	"	"	6.50

Men's Pants

3.00	Pants	now	2.25
2.50	"	"	1.75
2.00	"	"	1.50
1.50	"	"	1.15
1.00	"	"	85c
1.00	Ki Ki	"	85c

Neckwear

1.00	Neckwear	now	65c
75c	"	"	50c
50c	"	"	39c
25c	"	"	19c

Underwear

1.00	Underwear	79c
75c	"	55c
50c	"	39c
25c	"	19c

Shirts

2.00	Shirts	now	1.50
1.50	"	"	1.15
1.00	"	"	85c
75c	"	"	55c
50c	"	"	39c

Hats

3.00	Straw	Hats	1.75
2.00	"	"	1.50
1.50	"	"	1.05
1.00	"	"	85c
6.00	Panamas	now	3.50

Hosiery

50c	Hose	now	25c
25c	"	"	19c
19c	"	"	11c

Belts

75c	Belts	now	50c
50c	"	"	39c
25c	"	"	19c

HEIDELBERG TAILORING

WEINBERGER'S

CLOTHING HATS FURNISHINGS

202-4 WEST FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, N.J.

W W

COOL

SUMMER SUITS

REDUCED

To ½ and Less Than Half Former Prices

All wool blue serge and fancy cassimere suits, values up to $14; now $8.98

All of our fine summer suits that were formerly priced up to $25; now $12.98

Here's an opportunity for every man to secure a suit at a great saving.

SPECIALS IN

COOL FURNISHINGS

Men's soft shirts, made of genuine soisette, colors cream, white, blue and striped; all have French cuffs; some with collars to match; special 98c

Regular 50c pure silk socks, 35c pair, or 3 pairs for $1.00

Alpaca Coats, regular $2; special $1.25

Serge Coats, regular $4; special $2.75

SUMMER TROUSERS

Regular $5 pure worsted trousers; special $2.95

Regular $3.50 all wool cassimere trousers; special $2.50

Regular $3.00 fine worsted trousers; special $1.98

ALL OUR STRAWS AT ONE-HALF.

THE OUTLET

140 WEST FRONT STREET.

Grocery Bulletin FOR SATURDAY

Granulated Sugar, 5 lbs	27c
Eagle Brand Milk, 2 cans	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 3 cans (tall)	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 6 cans (small)	25c
Golden Glow Milk, 3 cans	25c
Fancy Butter, per lb	25c
Extra Fancy Creamery Butter, per lb	29c
Best Lard, 2 lbs	25c
Compound Lard, per lb	10c
Old Dutch Cleanser, 3 cans	25c
Curtice Bros. Jams, per jar	15c
Domino Sugar, 5-lb box	39c
Hecker's Oats, 3 packages	25c
Pillsbury Flour, per bag	85c
Gold Medal Flour, per bag	85c
Hecker's Flour, per bag	85c
Family Flour, per bag	70c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	80c
Muellen Macaroni, 3 packages	25c
Kirkman's Soap, 10 bars	45c
Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 bars	45c
Babbitt Soap, 10 bars	40c
Extra Fancy Head Rice, 3 lbs	25c
California Oranges, 15 for	25c
New Potatoes, pony basket	45c
Van Camp Beans, (1-lb cans) 4 for	25c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, per dozen	25c

We Give the S.H. Trading Stamps.

Fred. H. Firstbrook

116 W. Front St.

'Phone 1754

AMUSEMENTS.

BOYNTON BEACH

CHILDREN'S DAY

SATURDAYS IN JUNE

FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND SWINGS AND SLIDE

HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening

FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S

VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.

THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN

ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.

THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE

TODAY'S PROGRAM.

Emmet E. Devoy & Co., sketch, "The Little Goddess;" Three Juggling Bannons, Indian Club Jugglers; Anita Primrose, Character Singer; George Fredo, Musical Comedian.

Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Camp Ram's Horn

Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.

Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.

THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor, Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.

502 Watchung Avenue.

Little boys' suits and little girl's dresses made to order; also orders taken for hemming. Initial work a specialty. Tea served from 3 to 5 p. m.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NINES SCHEDULE FOR SEASON

The organization of the Plainfield Sunday-school Baseball League was completed last night at the meeting of the executive committee at the Y. M. C. A. N. M. Smith, manager of the Monroe Avenue team, was chosen chairman of the managing committee of the league. Several discussions occupied the time, the most important being over the question of making the league one of six teams rather than one of four. The First Presbyterian Sunday-school, which had been anxious to be admitted, did not have a representative present although the South Plainfield Baptist church did. After a lengthy argument, it was decided to lay the motion for a six team schedule on the table until the next meeting of the executive committee which will take place Thursday night, July 13.

The First Baptist representative filed a protest before the committee concerning the game which that school played with the Park Avenue team last Saturday. The First Baptists asked to have the match not counted on the ground that Dudley Wilcox, who played with the Park Avenue team, was not an eligible player since he did not attend that Sunday-school. After an hour's debate the magnates decided that the protest was not valid.

A schedule for the season was arranged last night as follows:

July 8—Trinity vs. Park Avenue Baptist; Monroe Avenue vs. First Baptist.

July 15—Park Avenue vs. Monroe Avenue M. E.; First Baptist vs. Trinity.

July 22—Trinity vs. Monroe Avenue M. E.; Park Avenue Baptist vs First Baptist.

July 9—Monroe Avenue M. E. vs. First Baptist; Park Avenue Baptist vs. Trinity.

August 5—Trinity vs. First Baptist; Monroe Avenue M. E. vs. Park Avenue Baptist.

August 12—First Baptist vs. Park Avenue Baptist; Monroe Avenue M. E. vs. Trinity.

August 19—Park Avenue Baptist vs. Trinity; First Baptist ve. Monroe Avenue M. E.

August 26—Trinity vs. First Baptist; Monroe Avenue M. E. vs. Park Avenue Boptist.

September 2—Trinity vs. Monroe Avenue M. E.

BASEBALL.

Three old Fordham College stars were in the lineups in the Plainfield-Somerville game Tuesday morning. Hartman, the short stop for the Pets, held down the same position for the college nine, while he was studying law at that institution. He is now practicing as legal attorney in New York. McCarty, who caught for Somerville, is one of Fordham's best all-round athletes, being a star baseball player and a speedy quarterback. The Somerville second baseman, McAfee, is also a Fordham diamond idol.

Dunellen is having hard luck this season with injudies to its players. Last Saturday Hand was overcome by the heat and Tuesday two more of the players were knocked out. Harry Nonamaker, one of the best all-round men on the team caught a foul tip off the bat and received a broken middle finger on his right hand. The injury will keep him out of the game for two or three weeks. Benjamin Dodwell was hit in the stomach with a foul ball Tuesday morning and obliged to leave the game. He soon recovered, however.

The Tigers didn't let the Athletics keep ahead of them very long for Hughey Jennings' crew are now back on the topmast.

Jimmy Clinton certainly has plenty of speed and curves for he had the Plainfield batters fooled in that Somerville game. He struck out eleven men but five bases on balls and a balk proved fatal.

The High Bridge team is more or less of a combination of Waltons. There is one on second, one at short, one on third and one in left field. And they can all play some ball too.

Christy Mathewson, the premier pitcher of the New York Giants, is getting his bumps at the hands of the Phillies now-a-days. In two games during the recent series with the Quakers, Christy was hit for twenty-eight safeties and a total of thirty-eight bases.

On account of the severe heat of this week, the Phillies will be taken to Atlantic City for the coming week end. The management evidently works on the supposition "that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy."

Hughey Jennings and Pitcher Summers, of the Detroit team, have been suspended for three days by President Ban Johnson as a result of their argument with Umpire Mullen.

When it comes to good looking fellows, that Somerville team would take prizes at a beauty show against any set in the league. But looks do not win games at that for it isn't the hair that makes the football players.

Statement of Condition June 30, 1911 (condensed)

As rendered to the Department of Banking and Insurance, State of New Jersey

RESOURCES		LIABILITIES
Railroad and other Bonds	$47,537.50	Capital Stock	$100,000.00
Loans and Investments	310,871.31	Surplus and Profit	44,675.48
Furniture and Fixtures	7,896.60	Reserved for Taxes	700.00
Cash	91,462.15	Deposits	312,725.79
Interest Accrued	583.71	Interest Accrued	250.00
	$458,351.27		$458,351.27

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

R. Henry Depew, President

E. F. Feickert, Vice-President M. C. VanArsdale, Vice-President

Frederic Coriell, Secretary-Treasurer

A BIG LAMB SALE AT ROTH & CO.'S

SATURDAY, JULY 8

Genuine Spring Lamb—Hindquarters of Lamb, 15c lb	Forequarters of Spring Lamb, 8½c lb	Rib Chops from Spring Lambs, 16c lb	Neck of Lamb, Breast of Lamb, Lamb Stew, 6c lb

Sugar Cured Cottage Hams, no fat, no bone, all meat, lb . . 17c

1,000 lbs Celebrated Phila. Bacon, by strip, lb . . 17c

Boneless Pot Roast, Chuck Pot Roast, lb . 12½c

Butter, to advertise, lb . . 24c

Best Creamery Butter, lb . . 30c

SATURDAY WILL BE OUR BIG POULTRY DAY

Fricassee Chickens, Soup Chickens. 13½c lb

Fancy lot of Small Dry Picked Young Fowl, 19c lb

Jersey Broilers, Fryers, Small Roasting Chickens, 20c lb

Loins of Jersey Pork, Pork Chops, 13½c lb

Extra Special in Sugar Cured Brisket Corned Beef, 6½c lb

Fish Special in Fresh Caught Fish—Chicken Halibut, steak or to boil, 12c lb

Sugar Cured Small Smoked Cala. Hams, lb . 10½c

Pure Lard, 2 lbs for . 25c

Fancy Fat Salt Pork, very special, lb . . 10c

Best Bologna in town, all kinds, this includes Frankfurters and Pressed Hams, lb . . 12½c

Proctor's Hot Weather Show.

Emmet Devoy & Co., in a fantastic dream sketch, "The Little Goddess," is making a hit at Proctor's theatre. The sketch is one of the best seen here in a long time and it gives an amusing display of Venus. The act is presented by a company of seven people, with special scenery and electric effects. Anita Primrose, a clever English character singer, impersonates "Stage Struck Liz," "A Plainfield Johnnie," and "An Italian Girl." The Three Bannons, expert Indian club jugglers, together with George Fredo, the irristible German comedian from Milwaukee, complete a fine bill. Go to Proctor's and get the breeze.

Will Practice for Game.

The Probasco Bible class baseball team will practice on the Cricket Field this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, in preparation for the game tomorrow with the Monroe Avenue M. E. church team. The game will be played on the Monroe avenue grounds at 3:45 o'clock.

—At Neuman Bros. tomorrow there will be a fine display of choice fruit, including red and black raspberries, blackberries, huckleberries and peaches.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Hazel, of East Sixth street, leave tomorrow on the Celtic, of the White Star Line, for Europe. They will be gone two months. They secured passage through the agency of Mulford Estil, of Park avenue.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

The Regular Season's Clearance of

Bates-Street Shirts

Will Be Inaugurated Tomorrow, July 8—Values and Assortment Better than Ever.

THE MEN'S SHOP - 214 Park

BIG SPECIALS

—AT—

Applegate's Meat & Produce Market

Hindquarter Mutton	15c	Plate Corned Beef, lb	6c
Legs Mutton	16c	Forequarter Lamb	12½c
Prime Rib Roast, lb	20c	Ice Cold Watermelons	50c
Fresh Killed Jersey Fowl, lb	22c	Potatoes, pony basket	43c
Sweet Corn Bacon, by strip, lb	22c
Blade Roast, lb	14c

All Vegetables at Lowest Market Prices.

Clifford L. Applegate

ORDERS CALLED FOR AND DELIVERED PROMPTLY.

163 Somerset St.—'Phone 1710

JULY EIGHTH.

1778—French fleet arrived in Delaware bay to aid the Revolution.
1792—Congress voted to make Washington seat of government

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Probably showers tonight or Sunday; not much change in temperature.
Maximum, 90; minimum, 66.

Established May 10, 1887.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1911.

Two Cents a Copy—$8 a Year.

TO WIDEN STREET

Borough Council Plans to Improve Upper End of Somerset Street.

FINAL ACTION THIS MONTH.

Reports and Petitions Received—Bills Ordered Paid—Plainfield Park Associates Want Clinton Ave. Paved.

The passing of the ordinance to widen Somerset street from Jackson avenue to Johnston's drive on its first and second reading was the principal matter of business before the North Plainfield Council at its regular monthly meeting last night. This measure provides for a sixty foot street from curb to curb for a stretch of one mile, the improvement being desired by all the property owners on the thoroughfare. Plans for the proposed work were made by Harry C. VanEmburgh, borough engineer, who brought them to the Council chamber. After the passing of the ordinance on its second reading, the Council voted to hold a special meeting on Friday night, July 28, when objections to the ordinance from the citizens of the borough will be received and considered.

Four of the councilmen were present last night, Alexander Milne and B. R. Waldron, being out of town. Owing to the absence of Mr. Waldron, chairman of the street committee, a bill for $1,100 from Mobus & Burke for macadamizing on Clinton avenue was laid over until the next regular meeting. Mayor Smalley and all the councilmen favored the payment on the claim, which provided for the improvement of that thoroughfare at a low rate, but Councilman J. J. Stahl refused to approve the bill in the absence of Mr. Waldron.

The treasurer's report showed a balance of $1,078.13 for the past month. Recorder Charles M. Dolliver reported thirty-six arrests and $46 in fines during the month of June. Both of these were accepted.

Petitions received from the residents of Harrison avenue signed by George J. Rilling and others asking for another electric street light and new side walks near Cedar street, were referred to committees with power.

The Plainfield Park Associates petitioned the Council to take over Clinton avenue and Parkview avenue for the borough. A lengthy discussion followed, during which the Mayor said that Clinton avenue had been borough property for the last thirty years. The Park Associates desired to have Clinton avenue paved at an expense to the borough of $1,100. The petition was referred.

Bills against the borough to the amount of $2,650.32 were read and ordered paid. Councilman Stahl reported for the fire and water committee expenses amounting to $400.13 for the month of June.

A motion made by Councilman L. B Woolston providing for a loan of $1,500 for the carrying on of borough current expenses was passed and referred to the finance committee with power.

AUTO VICTIM'S INJURIES LIKELY TO PROVE FATAL

Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson, former matron of the Children's Home, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Copper Hill, near Flemington, Wednesday night, still remains unconscious and is said to be growing weaker. This information was received this morning by Miss Hannah Brewer, matron of the Children's Home.

At the request of the family, Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, of the borough, left this afternoon for Copper Hill, in the hope that he may be able to do something for the injured woman. The physicians who have been in charge of Mrs. Hendrickson have given up hope for her recovery.

Rev. Mr. O'Donnell to Preach.

The union service of the First Baptist, First M. E., Trinity Reformed and First Presbyterian churches will be held at the First M. E. church, tomorrow evening at 7:45 o'clock, and Rev. William C. O'Donnell, formerly pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, will be the preacher, instead of Rev. Dr. W. B. Matteson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who finds that he cannot remain for the evening service.

His Death Exaggerated.

The rumor current about town last night to the effect that William Kitchen, of Everett place, had been killed by diving into a swimming hole in Greenbrook near his home, proved to be much exaggerated. He was injured on the Fourth of July in this manner and is confined to his home, but will have sufficiently recovered in a day or so to be out.

—Use Press want ads.

MRS. LOUISE MILLIGAN, LONG ILL, DIED TODAY

Mrs. Louise Milligan, wife of William Milligan, of John street, died at Muhlenberg Hospital at 6:30 o'clock this morning, following a long illness. Her condition became serious last spring and since then she had been in the hospital three different times. She recently underwent an operation and her condition was considerably weakened by the recent heat wave.

Mrs. Milligan was the daughter of Adam Martin, formerly of this city, but now of Lincoln, and she was born in this vicinity. Se was a member of the First Baptist church, and also active in the work of the King's Daughters.

Besides her husband and her father, she is survived by four brothers and three sisters. The brothers the John Martin, of New York; Theodore and Charles Martin, of this city, Roy Martin, who is on the United States Battleship Idaho; while the sisters are Mrs. Annie Harsell, of this city; Miss Carrie Martin and Mrs. Emma Waldron, of New York. The funeral will be private.

COMPLAINT AGAINST STROKE IS DISMISSED

The complaint brought against Stanley Stroke by Joseph Manhattan was dismissed in the city court this morning by Judge William G. DeMeza. This is the case tried last Saturday in which decision was reserved. The complaint, it appears, was brought as the result of a difference between Manhattan, who is the deposed president of the John III Sobriesky Society, and Stroke, who had been made president. Manhattan alleged in his complaint that Stroke had violated the ordinance governing the sale of liquor and had sold beer to a minor, namely Manhattan's son, Stanley, nine years old.

According to the boy's testimony, he did not drink the beer but bought it on his father's order to whom it was handed and drunk. The method of payment was by check system started by Manhattan before he was desposed.

These facts were reviewed by Stroke's counsel, F. J. Blatz, as well as the matter of the Essex Club case where the same sort of check system is used and on which the courts had rendered a decision. In dismissing the complaint Judge DeMeza warned Stroke against the method of the society in conducting its affairs.

SOMERSET COUNCIL'S OFFICERS INSTALLED

Past Councilor Jesse M. Scull installed the officers-elect of Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., last night, and during the evening one candidate was initiated. There was a large attendance of members nd much interest was manifested in the proceedings. These officers were instlled:

Past Councilor, Edward Hughes; councilor, Guy E. Thomas; vice-councilor, Charles DeCamp; recording secretary, Walter Walker; assistant recording secretary, Fred Kohler; financial secretary, Jesse M. Scull; treasurer, P. H. Latourette; outside sentinel, Fred Welsh; inside sentinel, Frank Stillwell; conductor, George VanOrden; warden, Fred Welsh; trustees, one year, Fred Welsh; two years, William Creveling; three years, Guy E. Thomas; representative State Council, George Watts; representative Funeral Benefit Association, Fred Welsh. P. H. Latourette was re-appointed chaplain, making eight consecutive years he has served in this capacity.

The officers-elect of Benevolent Council, No. 256, Jr. O. U. A. M., were also installed last night, the work being performed by a past councilor of the council. The officers are as follows:

Junior past councilor, C. A. Doeringer; councilor, W. C. Cubberley; vice-councilor, Charles Dornmann; recording secretary, W. H. I. Cubberley; financial secretary, E. R. Honeyman; treasurer, J. H. Adams; conductor, A. G. Adams; warden, John Ayers; inside guard, B. H. Bornmann; outside guard, G. S. Martin; trustees, three years, H. C. Runyon; two years, Isaac N. Wyckoff; one year, A. G. Adams.

Injured Woman Recovering.

Mrs. H. C. Beidleman, of South avenue, who was severely injured in a trolley car collision six weeks ago, is expected to be able to be out within two weeks.

CITY HEALTH GOOD

Only 28 Communicable Cases Reported to the Board During June.

MANY PERMITS ARE ISSUED.

There Were Thirty-five Births, Twenty-three Marriages and Sixteen Deaths During the Month.

There was a decided decrease in the number of cases of communicable diseases during June as compared with the previous month, according to the reports presented at the July meeting of the Board of Health, last night. There was a total of twenty-eight for June against fifty-one for May. The number of cases reported for June follow:

Scarlet fever, 3; diptheria, 3; tuberculasis, 11; typhoid fever, 1; measles, 3; chicken-pox, 7; a total of 28. In addition to the above, one case of typhoid fever and one of scarlet fever was brought to Muhlenberg Hospital from North Plainfield. At the present date only three houses are under quarantine and those are on account of scarlet fever. Twenty houses and the isolation ward at the hospital were disinfected; also sixty-four rooms.

A sample of city water and one from a well were taken for analysis during the month. The result showed the former to be of the usual excellent quality, but the well water was found to be polluted. There were two cases in court during the month, one for violation of the plumbing ordinance and the other for violation of the milk ordinance. A conviction was obtained in each case. Thirty-one samples of milk and two of cream was obtained for analysis; also thirty-one samples of ice cream.

In connection with the diagnostic work, the following specimens were brought to the laboratory for examination: Diphtheria, 14; tuberculosis 6; malaria, 3; typhoid fever, 2; a total of 25. The following inspections were made during the month: Milk supply, 211; plumbing, 108; general work, 343, a total of 662. The following returns were made during the month of June: Marriages, 23; births, 35; still-births, 3; deaths, 16. Permits were granted and bonds filed as follows:

Milk permits—Miles S. Wilson, Morris Deutsch, J. A. Herbermann, Burnley Farms, all renewals. Ice permits—The Independent Ice Company. Barber shop permits—William Feiring, Joseph Clement, G. Donato. The applications of Nicola Rocco, Richard Walter, Leon Ferrara, Raffey Tooze, Brown& Hill, W. Thomas Bowzer and Frank S. Trivigno were laid on the table. Hair dressing establishment—Mrs. Julia H. Thornton. Plumbers'. bonds—Jacob Voehl, A. S. Giles, Samuel McCauley, P. F. Kaine and P. A. McVoy.

D. R. DOUGLAS SAVED FROM WATERY GRAVE.

Daniel R. Douglas, of Grove street, had a narrow escape from drowning at Asbury Park Thursday afternoon, being saved after going down twice by the ardent efforts of a lifeguard. Mr. Douglas was enjoying a swim near the fishing pier and went out beyond his depth. He suddenly began to sink and upon seeing her husband in danger, Mrs. Douglas, who was sitting on the beach nearby, began to scream for help, her cries bringing a life guard to the scene.

When the drowning man was brought to the beach, he was in an unconscious condition but was revived after a short time. He was taken to the hotel where Mr. and Mrs. Douglas and their children are spending the season.

John Duffy's Funeral.

The funeral of John Duffy, who died at Muhlenberg Hospital on Wednesday afternoon after he had been overcome with the heat, was held this morning from St. Mary's church where a requiem mass was celebrated by Father Sciolla. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the church and a number of handsome floral tributes were sent from many of them. The bearers were James Mahoney, Arthur McGinley, John Taylor, Thomas Roddy, Patrick Newel and Edward McCann.

Shower for Miss Cubberley.

Mrs. Robin C. Brown, of Verdon street, gave a linen shower yesterday afternoon for Miss Mabelle Cubberley, who will shortly be married to Mrs. Brown's brother, Gideon Fountain, of Los Angeles, Cal. The shower was a complete surprise to Miss Cubberley. There were about twenty present and Miss Cubberley received a fine collection of linen.

—Press Want Ads. pay.

'C.J.F.' CHIPPED IN $25 FOR BABY CAMP FUND

As he was about to start on his summer vacation, "C. J. F." dropped into The Daily Press office to say good-bye and besides extending his hand he extended his check. "Like a lot of others, I have got the habit of helping your baby camp fund and here's twenty-five dollars." We fell on his neck—also on his check.

"C. J. F." $25.00
Previously acknowledged:
Woman's Christian Work Society
7th Day Baptist Church... $5.00
From a Friend..... $5.00

ELKS TO CHALLENGE THE LEAGUE WINNER

Well pleased with the showing made in the opening game with the Brooklyn Elks team at that place Thursday afternoon, the Plainfield Elks' team management is arranging to issue a challenge to the winning team of the Central New Jersey League. The last scheduled game in the league is September 30. There will possibly be some postponed games to be played off after that date, but it would be possible for a game with the Elks before the season became too late.

The game in all likelihood will be arranged if the one provision can be agreed upon. In the lineup of the Elks team are several Leaguers and it might happen that some of them play on the team winning the championship. If this is the case it would be necessary to have the league team fill the Elks players' positions from other teams in the league or else let the Elks fill with other than players who are members of the order.

The players making this arrangement necessary are Warry MacLaughlin, who pitches for Scotch Plains; Jack Torpey, who catches for Somerville, Lou Wiltse, who is the first baseman for Bound Brook, Howard Craig, Harry Flannery and Fred Nolan, who are outfielders for Westfield, Scotch Plains and Bound Brook respectively.

The game would be played on Crescent Oval and there is talk of the proceeds being given to some local charity. A return game is also being mentioned to be played in the teams' town, the same arrangement about the funds to be considered. This would make a splendid finish to a season now at its height, with the support and interest increasing daily, auguring well for the success of the league.

BOROUGH COMMITTEE TO ACT ON BUILDING PERMITS.

All building permits submitted to the North Plainfield Council last night were referred to the committee with power, with the exception of one from Henry DeMott for a house on Jefferson avenue. Action upon this request for a permit was laid over for a month. These were referred:

Joseph Genisman for a four-room addition to his house on Somerset place; Dr. P. J. Zeglio for an addition to his shed on Pearl street; Joseph Currens for a chicken coop on DuPont street between Union and Duer streets; James Moore for a house on Mountain avenue between Whitewood and Westervelt avenues; Fred Sandford for a brick and frame barn next to the corner of Sycamore and Willow avenues; Henry McGee for alterations to his house on Orchard place; Mrs. Brown Rolston for a house on Rockview avenue; A. L. Cadmus for a house on Willow avenue near Magnolia avenue.

Co. K Off for a Hike.

Captain Kitchell with forty members of Co. K left the armory on West Front street this afternoon for the annual hike to Sterling. Upon reaching there camp will be pitched on the school grounds and tomorrow the men will do preliminary extended work as practise for going into camp at Sea Girt two weeks from today. Camp will be broken tomorrow afternoon when the return to this city will be made.

Plainfield Couple Weds.

Miss Hazel Patrick, daughter of Mrs. Frank Krewson, of the borough, and William Hand, son of Samuel T. Hand, of this city, were married July 4 in New York, the announcement being made today. While the friends of the couple knew of their engagement it was not expected that the wedding would take place until fall. Mr. Hand holds a position with the Pullman Palace Car Company in Jersey City.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Haines, of East Second street, are parents of an eight-pound boy born to them this week. Mrs. Haines was formerly Miss Mary Roberts, of Martinsville.

WILSON'S REASONS

Why the Governor Vetoed Senate Bill, No 301, are Given by Him.

CONSULTED STATE'S LAWYER.

Measure Impaired the Supervising Jurisdiction of the State Board of Health He Considered.

Why Governor Wilson vetoed Senate bill, No. 301, is set forth in the following statement attached to the measure returned with his disapproval:

"There are two significant considerations of this second proviso, first, that the council may make changes in any plant at any time before the commencement of the work,' and, second, may make such changes at such time, in such manner and to such extent as may be necessary to conform to the conditions which the State Board of Health may lawfully impose. The time when these changes may be made has a distinct significance, by reason of the fact that the plan of the sewage system is not required to be submitted to the State Board of Health prior to the election; nor by any distinct language is it to be submitted to the State Board of Health at all.

"Under the principle of exclusion by failure to make inclusion, since the first proviso requires the submission of plans of waterworks to the State Board of Health and the State Water Supply Commission, and omits any reference to such submission of plans of a sewage system, it would seem, by the ordinary rules of interpretation, that the plans of a sewage system need not be submitted to the State Board of Health.

"It would seem to follow, therefore, that the condition which the State Board of Health might lawfully impose would rest in the vigilance of the State Board of Health to discover, prior to the commencement of the work, the plans upon which the work was to be constructed; and if the State Board of Health should discover these plans, so that criticism thereof might be made prior to the commencement of operations, to such an extent the jurisdiction of the State Board of Health would probably be retained. I doubt, however, under the language of the second proviso, that the State Board of Health would have jurisdiction after the work of construction had actually been begun.

"The language of the second significant phrase is peculiar, in view of the present statutory jurisdiction of the State Board of Health. Section 7 of Chapter 72 of the laws of 1900, reads as follows: 'It shall be unlawful for any person, corporation or municipality to build, or cause to be built, or operate any plant for the treatment of sewage or other polluting substance from which the effluent is to flow into any of the waters of this State, except under such conditions as shall be approved by the State Sewage Commission, to whom any new plans shall be submitted before building.'

"The functions of the State Sewage Commission are now vested in the State Board of Health. You will observe that the conditions which are to be approved by the State Sewage Commission, now the State Board of Health, are not specified by law, but seen to rest in the sound discretion of the board. Under this language neither the Sewage Commission nor the State Board of Health have imposed conditions or suggested methods, but have approved or disapproved plans presented.

"It is possible that under the phrase, 'lawfully impose,' there may be a purpose to restrict the State Board of Health to such conditions as may be found to be stated in the law, as within the power of such board to impose, whereas, in fact, the board is not authorized to impose any conditions but merely to approve or disapprove, in their second discretion.

"The language of these two provisos is so peculiar that it is impossible to determine just wha force or effect will be given to them by a court of law. That they are intended to have some effect upon Section 7 of the sewage act, to which I have referred, is evident."

In disapproving the bill the Governor made the following statement:

"This is a bill drawn to relieve a local situation, but under the requirements of the State constitution it is, of course, drawn in general terms and might apply, should similar conditions arise elsewhere to other places than North Plainfield. It is very unfortunate therefore, that a proviso should have been introduced into the bill which is so framed as to be of doubtful construction with regard to the powers of the State Board of Health to safeguard the public health in the premises.

(Continued on page 5.)

DRIVER SKIPPED OUT WITH BOSS'S CASH

After delivering a load of feed and collecting the money for it at South Plainfield last night, Harvey Carter, colored, of Harmony street, a driver for the Plainfield Feed company skipped town taking with him $50 of the firm's money. No trace could be found of the colored man this morning when a warrant for his arrest was sworn out by the company.

Carter was arrested Wednesday by Chief Marshal Weiss on a complaint made by Carter's wife, who claimed that her husband had ill-treated her. When the time for the hearing arrived Thursday morning, the faithful wife was nowhere to be found, the police believing that she became frightened and fled. The husband was released and allowed to continue his work.

At 7:30 last night he brought the team of horses and the feed wagon back to the stable and then beat a hasty retreat with the money in his pocket.

THREE NEW DIRECTORS IN THE STATE TRUST

At a regular meeting of the board of directors of the State Trust Company yesterday, Dr. Frank C. Ard, George L. Babcock and Edward Maurer were elected directors of the company. Dr. Ard is well known in Plainfield, where he has built up a large practice. George L. Babcock is a son of the late George H. Babcock and is active in the business affairs of Plainfield. Edward Maurer is a successful exporter and importer, engaged in business in New York where his firm is well and favorably known. These men bring to the board qualifications that will be of material assistance in the building up of the company's business and the remarkable progress thus far made will doubtless continue at even a greater rate than in the past.

These are the officers of the company: R. Henry Depew, president; Edward F. Feickert, first vice-president; Morris C. VanArsdale, second vice-president; Frederic Corieli, secretary-treasurer. The board of directors is now composed of the following representative men: Dr. Frank C. Ard, George L. Babcock, William A. Clark, George S. Clay, Dr. J. H. Cooley, Frederic Corieli, R. Henry Depew, A. H. Dundon, Edward F. Feickert, George H. Frost, George M. Holstein, Nelson A. Miller, Alexander Milne, Edward Maurer, William Newcorn, A. W. Ransome, M. C. Van Arsdale, J. V. E. Vanderhoef.

LUNCHEON IN HONOR OF GEORGE H. FROST

George H. Frost, of Watchung avenue, founder and president of The Engineering News and also president of the Courier-News Publishing Company, was given a complimentary luncheon at the Machinery Club, Hudson Terminal Building, yesterday, in honor of the seventy-third anniversary of his birthday. There were about thirty-five engineers, industrial managers and other friends present. Charles Whiting Baker and Alfred E. Kornfield were hosts, the former being the toastmaster.

Following the luncheon there were congratulatory speeches by State Senator E. R. Ackerman, W. H. Wiley, William Barclay Parsons; Robert W. Lesley, of Philadelphia; Charles Kirchhoff, president of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, and Dr. William L. Saunders, president of the Ingersoll-Rand company.

Ever since he began the publication of The Engineering News in Chicago in 1874, Mr. Frost has been its active head. In 1876 he changed the place of publication to New York, where it has been issued ever since. It is the only trade paper in America which has been under one management for thirty-seven years. ater Mr. Frost acquired the Courier-News plant in this city and is the president of the company and is also owner of the Frost building on Park avenue. Mr. Frost served the city as a councilman from the Second ward for several years and is greatly interested in local affairs.

Michael Crowley's Funeral.

Funeral services for Michael Crowley was held this morning from the residence of his brother on Ann street and at St. John's church in Dunellen where a requiem mass was celebrated by Father Dunphy. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery this city.

MAYOR RESENTS WILSON'S ACTION

Borough Executive Fiercely Denounces Governor For Vetoing North Plainfield Sewer Bill.

"We'll have a sewage system if we have to sewer to Trenton," declared Mayor Newton B. Smalley, while discussing Governor Wilson's action in vetoing Senate Bill No. 301, at a at a meeting of the North Plainfield council last night. At this declaration the borough fathers nodded their heads in approval as did all the citizens of the borough who were at the meeting. The Council did not convene until nearly 9 o'clock, the time being taken up in denouncing the Governor's action, which will prevent the borough from having a sewer system for several years to come. The climax of the sentiment in the borough was reached when Mayor Smalley asked for the privilege of the floor and opened fire on New Jersey's executive.

"There was absolutely no reason for the vetoing of this measure as the bill had fairness written all over it." declared the Mayor. "This bill would give a municipality the chance to apply to the State Board of Health in order to make changes in any proposed sewage system, leaving the matter entirely to the power of that body to approve or to reject.

"The excuse given to the Governor by the citizens of Bound Brook was a lame one and the excuse for the signing of the bill was also lame. In my opinion there have been many senseless bills introduced and passed through the legislature and the Governor this year. No Republican in the Senate had the nerve to oppose these foolish measures.

"Governor Wilson is after votes and nothing else. I expected the vetoing of that measure because it was a good bill. Governor Wilson is a big man but he's no bigger that the borough of North Plainfield and we'll have a sewage system if we have to sewer to Trenton.

"If it could be shown that the proposed sewage disposal plant would in any way damage Bound Brook, there would be a reason for refusing to sign such a bill. But there is nothing which can prove that Bound Brook will be injured at all by this plant and so it seems to me as if the veto was given because the citizens of Bound Brook did not want the plant near them and the interests of North Plainfield were not considered in the matter at all. If the proposed location for the plant was wrong, we could find a new one; but it will be impossible for us to change our plans now without the expenditure of a large amount of money and the loss of much valuable time.

"Governor Wilson's action in this matter shows him to be the Governor of those who vote for him and not the Governor of the people in his State."

No action was taken by the council last night in regard to the sewer question as a thorough discussion of the question is to be held before any forward steps are taken in the matter.

BOROUGH COUPLE WEDDED BY JUSTICE T. H. SNAPE.

Miss Jennie Carra, of Harmony street, and Joseph A. Church, of Watchung avenue, were married Thursday afternoon at 4:15 by Justice of the Peace Thomas H. Snape at the home of the groom. Many of the friends of the bridal couple attended the ceremony.

Thomas Carra, a brother of the bride, was best man and Miss Anna Church, a sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. The house was appropriately decorated for the occasion.

After the festivities, which continued until midnight, the couple left for a honeymoon through the Hudson river valley. Upon their return they will live in the borough, where Mr. Church conducts a fruit business on Somerset street.

Addition to Silk Factory.

The Watchung Silk Company on Chatham street asked the North Plainfield Council last night for a permit to erect a large addition to its factory and the request was referred to the committee with power to act. The proposed addition is to be built of brick and work will be started as soon as the building permit is granted.

The funeral serivce for Mrs. Thos. Mulcahy will be held at her late residence on McDowell street at 8:15 and at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery.

DON'T FAIL TO READ

our advertisement in next Monday evening's local papers for the greatest Bargains and most liberal "Trading Stamp" inducement ever offered in any of our Great July Clearance Sales.

THIS IS IMPORTANT.

A. E. Force & Company

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market.....125 North Ave.
S. M. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbie & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....213 Watchung Ave.
Geo. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson.....667 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
S. A. Laing.....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
M. Brill.....111 Park Ave.
Debeis & Stahl.....112 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....531 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
J. Motley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....E. Peters
New Market.....Coriell
Round Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield.....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glaser
Scotch Plains.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood.....W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The game this afternoon between the borough team and the Phoenix A. C. nine, of New York city, is sure to be a hot fight. The city team is coming here padded with a semi-professional battery. Dave Smith, formerly of Dunellen, will cover short stop for the Phoenix team. Frederickson will be on the mound for the Dunellen boys with Hand behind the bat.

Routine matters, consisting of the ordering of bills paid, and the discussion of reports, was the principal business before the Borough Council Wednesday night. A heated argument over the police protection in Dunellen was indulged in with the result that a report of all arrests will be handed to the Council each month.

Alfred Day, of Front street, and Adam Dealaman, of Washington avenue, have returned from a bicycle trip to Vienna, this state. The trip was made in fourteen hours, the distance being fifty-four miles. The young men stopped off in Vienna to visit Mr. Dealaman's uncle and aunt.

Harry Nonamaker, who sustained a broken finger in the game last Tuesday with the Rahway Field Club, will not be able to play on the Dunellen team this afternoon. Hand will do the catching and Dodwell will undoubtedly be on third base.

Miss Pearl Shively, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Shively, of Whittier avenue, has gone to make a visit with relatives in Elizabeth.

Ruth Shively, who cut herself severely by falling downstairs at her home the other day, is reported as being much improved.

Percy Abbott, of New Market road, entertained the fans at the game Tuesday afternoon by his enthusiastic antics.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

SOMERVILLE.

Funeral services were held yesterday for David Yost, who was injured about the head by a fall down the stairs in his apartments at Germania Hall about five weeks ago, and died Tuesday. He was sixty years of age, and leaves a daughter and son, Henry Yost, who is a local letter-carrier.

Rev. and Mrs. Frank Smith and son, of Haddonfield, are guests of Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Henry V. Voorhees, on West Cliff street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Conkling, of Glen Gardner, have been visiting the former's mother, Mrs. J. T. Conkling, on South street.

Mr. and Mrs. Ackor, of Plainfield, have been guests this week of their daughter, Mrs. Aaron Van der Veer, of Cliff street.

Miss Brown, of West Main street, left yesterday for Rahway, where she expects to spend the summer with relatives.

Edward L. Purcell, organist of St. Bernard's church, has been granted a vacation during July and August.

Leon Schwartz left Wednesday for Paris, where he expects to spend the next few months.

Mrs. M. J. Hickey and the Misses Helen and Jennie Hickey, are at Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. William Smith, of West Main street, is visiting relatives at New Brunswick.

Mrs. James Brown and children have been visiting this week in Philadelphia.

Miss R. Anna Miller left today for Spring Lake, where she will spend a month.

Miss Olive Myers, of Raritan, is visiting relatives in East Orange.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The young people of the Baptist church and a number of their friends enjoyed a picnic last night along the banks of Green brook, on the Johnston farm. The woods were prettily trimmed with Japanese lanterns and a most enjoyable time was had playing games and partaking of the good things to eat.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist church will consist of morning preaching at 10:45; B.Y.P.U. meeting at 7 p. m., in the church parlors. The 4 o'clock Bible study meeting has been discontinued during July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Meyer and son, Albert, leave on Thursday, July 13, for a visit of several months with relatives in Germany. This will make Mr. Meyer's thirteenth trip across the big pond.

Miss Caroline Lent is spending part of her two months' vacation enjoying bungalow life with a party of friends in the Maine woods.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward have been entertaining Mr. Ward's father, from New York, over the Fourth.

Mrs. Ellen Mullen, of Westervelt avenue, has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Hughes, of Red Bank.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, former pastor of the First Baptist church, is enjoying a part of his summer vacation in the woods of Maine.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Struthers, of Leland avenue, are sojourning in the Catskills.

George Finger, of Park avenue, has recovered from a slight attack of heat prostration.

Miss Iola Moore, of Kensington avenue, left today for the Pocono Mountains, where she will spend her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Clark, of East Ninth street, left today for the Adirondacks, where they will spend several weeks.

Rev. Dr. C. M Anderson, pastor of the First M. E. church, will take his vacation during the month of August, but his plans have not been decided upon as yet.

Eldon Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson a Miller, of Washington avenue, who is home from Syracuse University, has decided to spend his vacation in the Catskills.

Former Judge John Ulrich left yesterday for Rochester, N. Y., where he will attend the sessions of the Imperial Council of the Ancient Arabic Noble Order Mystic Shrine, which will be held next week.

GOVERNOR APPOINTS ELECTION OFFICERS.

Governor Wilson sent to the office of the Secretary of State yesterday at Trenton his nomination of the election officers for the various counties as provided for by the general election law. Under that statute the chairman of each county sends to the chief executive the names of the election officers for the county boards of elections, and the governor ratifies the selections by sending the names to the registering officer of the State.

George H. Stewart, of Elizabeth, Republican; R.H.McAdams, of Elizabeth, Democrat, are reappointed as members of the Union County Board. For the Somerset County Board Joseph Lambruskin, of Somerville, Republican, and John H. Mattison, of Somerville, Democrat, were re-appointed.

SOCIALISTS' LETTER TO CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORERS.

Atlantic City, July 8.—A communication from J. C. Hogan, representing the Socialists of Pennsylvania, was read at the International Christian Endeavor convention Thursday morning. In it he challenged the motives of the Endeavor Society, comparing them unfavorably with the ideas of the Socialists.

The letter follows up an attack made by the party at the convention of 1909 in St. Paul. At this time George W. Coleman, superintendent of the Christian Endeavor Patriotic League, replied to Mr. Hogan's letter, but refused to enter a discussion.

Secretary Shaw stated the communication would be given recognition later, but at present there was no time to answer it. It will probably be referred to the patriotic committee again.

—Use Press want ads.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

KOLB'S SATURDAY SPECIALS

COCOANUT KISSES, lb.....18c
AFTER LUNCH MINTS, lb.....18c
MOLASSES KISSES, lb.....18c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box.....25c

We carry all the leading kinds of Ice Cream, Water Ices and Sundaes. Our new Ice Cream Parlor, which was recently completed, is the coolest place in town. Ice Cream orders in any quantity always receive our prompt attention. Give us a trial and convince yourself.

KOLB'S, 112 WEST FRONT ST.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms.

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave.. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.28, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.52, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only), Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.29, 8.45, 9.02, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.28, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 82-A.

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

FURNITURE, OIL CLOTHS, STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Stocks were irregular in New York yesterday.

John W. Gates was reported from Paris to be mending rapidly.

Twenty-one persons died from the effects of the heat in Philadelphia

Two thousand strikers' wives, with children clinging to their skirts, paraded Manchester, presenting a pathetic spectacle.

Mrs. Jenkins testified before the federal grand jury in the investigation of the alleged smuggling of jewels valued at $150,000.

A treaty abolishing pelagic sealing was signed in Washington by the representatives of the United States, Great Britain, Russia and Japan.

Congress. — Senate: Senators Gronna and Thornton spoke against the reciprocity bill; an effort to adjourn to Monday was defeated. The House was not in session.

Lieutenant Conneau won the one thousand mile international circuit aviation race, which finished at Vincennes, close to Paris; his winnings will be more than $25,000.

Ex-President Castro was reported in Venezuela, having landed at a point in Colombia close to the border; measures were taken by the Caracas government to find him.

The general appraisers heard importers of ale deny bribery of officials to get excessive allowances for outages, said to have amounted to $1,000,000.

King George and Queen Mary arrived at Kingstown Harbor for their first visit as sovereigns to Dublin; they remained the night aboard the royal yacht.

Judge Bordwell handed down a decision in the Los Angeles courts holding that his court had jurisdiction to try John J. McNamara on murder charges.

The hotel detective who took Mr. Stokes' letters from the apartment of his assailants testified that he thought he was furthering the ends of justice by allowing his employer to censor them.

The Grand Republic's oak hull was ripped when the ship ran on submerged wreckage near Coney Island; her 1,177 passengers were landed at Steeplechase Pier.

Efforts were made to show individual members of the Board of Estimate, of New York, that the Interborough company was much abused in the subway terms offered by the city.

There were many deaths again from heat, but the cool wave that had been predicted arrived before the day wore away, causing a big drop in the temperature and corresponding relief to suffering humanity.

The inquiry into the alleged fireworks graft in New York, revealed that it was generally understood among manufacturers that they would have to pay for contracts to furnish fireworks for city celebrations.

The Legislature at Albany recalled the Stilwell New York City courthouse bill from Mayor Gaynor, who indicated that he would veto the bill in its present form; the measure is to be amended so as to give the Board of Estimate and Apportionment an additional six months in which to agree upon a site, and, failing to do so, the courthouse commission is to have power to select a site.

SUMMIT PLAYGROUND OPEN.

Summit, July 8.—The temporary playground between Maple street and Summit avenue opened for the season Thursday. There was an unusually large attendance, 140 children being present in the morning and 180 in the afternoon. The average attendance per day has been 175 children.

In spite of the hot weather and the fact that the new apparatus had not arrived, the day proved to be a most successful one and a blessing for many families. For example, there was one family of ten children present, the oldest being ten years of age, and the youngest six months. All were well taken care of and amused by the very able superintendent, Miss Spinning.

The new apparatus, which is expected to arrive today, includes a buck, spring board, parallel bar, horizontal bar, small basketball for relay work, pole vault, Indian clubs and dumbbells.

BEER AS DUST ALLAYER.

Morristown, July 8.—The streets of Morristown have been treated with many expensive applications of oil and other materials, but none of them have measured up to Park place, which was treated Thursday to a coating of beer.

The novel application was brought about by an accident. A truck belonging to the Rockaway Valley Railroad broke down while the wagon was standing in front of one of the stores in Park place.

The body of the wagon turned upside down and cases of beer with which the wagon was loaded were shattered, the liquid spreading out over the street.

Mrs. Daniel T. VanBuren, of East Sixth street, is sojourning at Belmar.

July Clearance Sale

This July Clearance Sale is the Money-Saving Event of the Entire Year in its Bountiful and Practically Limitless Possibilities for Effecting the Most Worth-While Economies.

25c Sox for 15c—Plain and fancy lisle sox light and madras shades; were 25c; sale..15c

$1.00 Pongee Shirts 79c—White and natural pongee shirts with single cuffs; regularly $1.00; sale.....79c

50c Negligee Shirts 35c—About 35 dozen negligee shirts, all sizes, but mostly odds and ends in patterns, including a full line of black and white neat stripes; 14 to 17; sale 35c

59c "Oye" Underwear 47c—Athletic style, coat shirt, knee drawers; made of mercerized figured soisette, with blue trimming; regular 59c; sale....47c

Pure Linen Heavy Huck Towels 15c—You don't often buy a heavy all linen huck towel at 15c. We bought these 60 dozen several months ago, but they were just delivered to us; the manufacturer is swamped with orders on them, so good are they for the price. You will buy them by the dozen when you see them; on sale.....15c

4-4 Anchor Muslin, yard...10c

4-4 Hill Muslin, yard.....8c

4-4 Brown Muslin, yard.....6c
(Regular 7½c).

4-4 Special 10c Cambric, yd.8c

Women's Rep Suits, odds and ends, white, blue and tan, formerly sold up to $6.50; on sale $1.98

Children's Dresses Values Up to $1.98; on Sale 98c.
About 100 children's colored Lawn, Gingham and Percale Dresses, ages 6 to 14, and 2 to 5; these are stylish and of good materials, well made, not all sizes in every style, but plenty to choose from; on sale 98c

Misses' and Women's Wash Skirts Sold up to $2.25; on sale $1.
Included in this lot are white India Linon Skirts and tan, blue and pink suiting; all are made to fit right, and at this price they should not last long; about 65 skirts in all; on sale..$1.00

$5.98 and $6.98 Pure Linen Tailored Suits at $4.85.
The best styles of the season, all are pure linen, well tailored, with plain or sailor collars; natural and half bleached; on sale $4.85
(Alterations free).

$2.98 and $3.98 Wash Dresses at $1.98.
All this season's styles, and good styles too, made just as you like them made; some of percales with large sailor collars, and button down the front with large pearl buttons; others of figured lawns and ginghams, with low and high neck: it's a bargain you will like; on sale.....$1.98

$3.98 and $4.98 Wash Dresses at $2.98.
About 50 Wash Dresses in figured Lawns, Batistes, Ginghams and Percales, some of the best sellers of the season; choose while choosing is best; on sale.....$2.98

50c Otis Underwear 39c—Best known 50c balbriggan, but shirts only; on sale.....39c

Columbia Shirts, all clean, fresh patterns this season; all sizes 14 to 17; on sale.....79c

39c Tussah Silk 29c—10 shades in this popular silk for cool summer wear as well as for party Dresses.

35c Figured Seco Silk 25c—The styles are pretty, the saving worth while on such well known wash silks.

29c and 35c Wash Goods 19c—All this season's wash goods, embroidered dimities, tissues and satin striped lawns; reduced to almost half.

12½c and 15c Batistes 9c—Choose from about 40 pieces, they sold this season at 12½c and 15c; it's a good saving to buy.

25c Mercerized Pongee 19c—Several shades, but mostly in natural; that's the most wanted shade this season.

15c Ginghams at 11c—About 35 pieces dress ginghams, 32-inches and 27 inches wide; all standard make.

25 per cent Reduction on all Children's White Dresses.
You will appreciate this announcement most if you know our regular values; nothing is reserved; this reduction of one-fourth is on every child's white dress in the house; ages 6 to 14.

29c Striped Linons, yard...19c

25c French Ginghams, yd..19c

10c White Cross Bar Lawns, yard 7c

Store For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

This store is truly for the economically inclined. The goods we sell are of dependable quality, so you are assured of getting satisfactory service out of any article you buy---then again our prices are the very lowest possible---so you are assured of getting full value for every dollar you spend. Could the most frugal economist ask more than that?

Balance of summer goods including

Porch Screens, Screen Doors, Porch Chairs, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Swings

at the most interesting prices.

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases

Always the largest stock of well-made serviceable goods in these lines and a real saving in price too.

Shirley & Johnston
Babcock Building

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Total
New York	9	..	3	12	14	2	5	45
Brooklyn	7	..	8	6	5	1	7	34
Boston	1	..	3	5	2	11	5	27
Philadelphia	6	..	7	18	7	9	4	53
Chicago	3	12	..	10	..	6	0	32
Cincinnati	0	3	..	5	..	12	4	24
Pittsburg	2	8	..	13	6	10	6	27
St. Louis	3	3	..	4	3	13	9	35

AMERICAN
New York	8	..	8	13	9	..		341
Philadelphia	13	..	13	18	8	0		759
Boston	2	..	8	8	2	..		624
Washington	8	..	6	9	7	..		353
St. Louis	0	2	5	9	7	8		1159
Cleveland	9	6	4	8	11	1		1159
Chicago	2	6	..	17	1	1		523
Detroit	8	14	..	14	8	..		656

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	43	27	.614
New York	44	29	.603
Philadelphia	44	29	.603
St. Louis	41	31	.569
Pittsburg	40	31	.563
Cincinnati	31	39	.443
Brooklyn	27	44	.380
Boston	16	55	.222

Yesterday's Results.
New York, 5; Chicago, 0.
St. Louis, 9; Philadelphia, 4.
Cincinnati, 5; Boston, 4.
Brooklyn, 7; Pittsburg, 6 (12 innings).

Games Today.
Chicago at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
Cincinnati at Boston.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	49	23	.681
Philadelphia	48	24	.667
New York	37	33	.529
Chicago	35	32	.522
Boston	37	34	.521
Cleveland	35	41	.461
Washington	26	47	.356
St. Louis	19	52	.268

Yesterday's Results.
Chicago, 5; New York, 3.
Philadelphia, 7; Cleveland, 1.
Detroit, 6; Washington, 3.
Boston, 6; St. Louis, 1.

Games Today.
New York at Chicago.
Boston at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Washington at Detroit.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	48	24	.667
Baltimore	47	27	.635
Toronto	40	34	.541
Montreal	32	34	.485
Buffalo	31	34	.477
Jersey City	31	36	.463
Newark	25	41	.379
Providence	25	49	.338

Yesterday's Results.
Baltimore, 1; Newark, 0.
Jersey City, 4; Providence, 3 (11 innings).
Montreal, 8; Rochester, 6.
Toronto, 4; Buffalo 3 (10 innings; first game).
Buffalo, 9; Toronto, 8 (second game).

Games Today.
Baltimore at Newark.
Providence at Jersey City.
Montreal at Rochester (2 games)
Toronto at Buffalo.

Games Tomorrow.
Baltimore at Newark.
Providence at Jersey City.

CAPTAIN AL. FOSTER, OF THE ANGLER, IS DEAD.

New York, July 8.—Captain Al. Foster, skipper of the Angler, deep-sea fishing steamer, known to fishermen almost as well as Princess Bay, is dead. He passed away at his home, 667 East 163d street, Thursday.

Captain Al. and his three brothers have been taking parties deep-sea fishing for forty-six years. The captain knew every foot of harbor bottom between East Twenty-first street pier, whence he sailed daily in summer, three times a week in fall and spring and once weekly in winter, and the fishing banks. Sometimes, if the fish were shy he would go out fifty miles or more and he had an uncanny way of finding the schools and satisfying his passengers.

The Fosters prospered in their unique trade and several years ago launched the finest steamer ever built exclusively for that business She cost $250,000 and was christened the Al. Foster. Captain Al. commanded her until she was sold to the Klondike trade. She made the perilous trip through the Straits of Magellan safely.

"I'd rather a hundred times take my chances, calm or blow, out there in the open than on Broadway," he said to a friend one day. "I've been going now nigh on to forty-three years and the only thing we've ever run into was a good day's fishing. I'll take the open sea for mine. You can have Broadway."

QUEEN QUESTION NOW AGITATES ASBURY PARK.

Asbury Park, July 8.—There is much speculation as to who will be selected as the queen of the carnival this year. One of the commissioners favors the honor going to Newark, declaring that that city sends a large number of its pretty girls to this resort every year. The honor fell to a Newark girl several years ago, when the daughter of former Mayor Doremus was selected.

Buffalo is making a strong bid for the honor, and if a suitable subject can be chosen from that city she will find several friends on the carnival board. A member of the commission was asked the other day what were the qualifications for the choice of a queen. In reply he said:

"She must be fairly good-looking, she must have means enough to entertain her maids, she must be a happy-go-lucky girl, full of life and animation; she must be well liked, she must be unselfish—in fact, she must be an ideal girl."

The committee had not canvassed the hotels in order to find the "winner." This task will be started about a month from now. The lucky one is the envy of all the other girls at the seaside resort.

The Raising of Grapes for Wine.
It is when the Oporto Grape begins to shrink (begin to raisin as it is called) they lose part of the water by evaporation while sugar is formed thus producing less than half the quantity of juice but twice as rich in quality, which make the sweet, rich health giving Port Grape Wine, so highly noted as Speer's Port Grape Wine, produced at the Speer Vineyards, Passaic, N. J. These are the wines recommended by doctors for invalids, weakly persons and the aged.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

TALK! TALK! TALK!

But be sure you don't know what you are talking about. I saw so many of you to our sister's (Westfield) Carnival and notwithstanding that I know you know all about it. I will give you the same add that I had in their magazine. (Will tell you who is to go to Up-to-date later to see the lots). It was as follows:

WHOA! MULE.

Never turn your back on a mule, his grace will disgrace you if you do. If you do, in taking the car home be a gentleman, keep standing for both ladies and gentlemen. Turn your back on the motorman and face the conductor, you will be better able to face the public. Some people carry their hearts in their shoes to have it handy to kick with. Take my advice, never kick at a mule unless you look him square in the face. I want to look you square in the face when I tell you about my Real Estate business. I have been in it nearly twenty years, and do you know I have never seen a man or woman who did not try to tell me that they knew more about it than I do. It is a funny business. Everybody knows it. When I offer them a property to prove it to me they either go to their barber, baker, banker or lawyer to back them up. Of course, the lawyer has been supposed to study law for four years, that, of course, gives him a diploma in the Real Estate business. The banker in counting money, the thing I am after, learns the value of property from A to Z, but the barber has them all beat, he can look me in the face and talk to me, the rest can't. Whoa! mule.

I have the distinction of having three Oliver stenographers to keep up with my work. Where is that other fellow? And the only fellow on earth in my business who works on a plan. "My time is yours."

My address for this week is PlainWestfield, but call on me at 159 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J., or call 1907.

D. Foster Updike

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr.....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

LIBERAL INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

4% on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

3% on CHECKING ACCOUNTS of $500 or more.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Capital - - $150,000.00
Surplus and Profits - 280,000.00
(all earned)

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,
(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at
Putnam & De Graw's

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobacco.

Central R. R. News Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH
Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
M. MERSTRICH, Prop.
Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O Box 826 Telephone 19-F-41

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Home Vegetables.
Heinz and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.

Rev. John Eastlund, who preaches for the Swedish Lutheran church, this city, has resigned his position as professor of English at Upsala College, Kenilworth.

WHEN U NEED
—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

A Camping Necessity—The Caloric

WE SOLD AND SHIPPED FIVE CALORICS TO CAMPERS LAST WEEK

Your time is all your own, for pleasure, if you have a Caloric Fireless Cooker in your Camp Outfit.

Just put your food in the Caloric in the morning and when you come back to camp at night a fine hot, sumptuous dinner is ready to serve.

Now as an example of how easy it is to cook with a Caloric: One user has three boarders and commutes each day.

She prepares the food for dinner and puts it in the Caloric in the morning before she leaves.

At night the dinner is piping hot and thoroughly and well cooked.

See how easy it would be for you to go off hunting, fishing or tramping and not be bothered with the worry of getting meals ready when back at camp.

Let us show you a Caloric and tell you all about it.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

TALK OF KENDALL FOR STATE SCHOOL'S HEAD.

It is now practically certain that among the many persons whom Governor Wilson has considered for appointment to the position of Commissioner of Education, the names of all residents of this State have been eliminated.

When asked regarding the report that he had made a final selection Governor Wilson would only say that he would not be in a position to give any information until he had received definite reply from persons with whom he was consulting.

The attitude of the Governor has given rise to the belief that a tender of the position has been made to Calvin N. Kendall, city superintendent of schools of Indianapolis. It is known that the Governor had Mr. Kendall under consideration a short time ago when he was seeking information as to what the superintendent had accomplished in dealing with the school situation in Indianapolis. Kendall is attending an educational conference on the Pacific coast and this fact is said to explain his delay in giving a definite answer to the tender supposed to have been made by Governor Wilson.

Mr. Kendall has a wide reputation as an educator and is said to be a man of exceptional executive ability. That he is held in high regard by Governor Wilson is also known. The Governor hopes to be in a position to announce the appointment either before he starts for Kentucky next Monday, or upon his return the latter part of the week.

—Use Press want ads.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 8 In American History.

1758—General Abercrombie's attack on Fort Ticonderoga with 15,000 British repulsed with a loss of 2,000.

1778—French fleet arrived in Delaware bay to aid the Revolution.

1792—Congress voted to make Washington the seat of government.

1887—Ben Holliday, pioneer of the famous pony express, died at Portland, Ore.; born 1819.

1897—Senator Isham G. Harris, noted Tennesseean, died; born 1818.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:29, rises 4:33; moon sets 2:29 a. m.; moon at apogee, farthest from earth, 252,300 miles, at 10 p. m.

Plainfield, N. J., July 8, 1911.

COMMUTERS DON'T AGREE WITH UTILITIES BOARD.

The New Jersey State Commuters' Association takes issue with the State Board of Public Utility Commissioners, which body has declined to consider further the association's demand for relief from alleged extortionate increases in commutation rates. The utilities board holds that action should first come from the Interstate Commerce Commission and that the memorial submitted by the commuters' organization June 29 presented nothing new.

The commuters' association, in a statement issued yesterday and signed by President Howard Marshall and Secretary Ray M. Robinson, declares that conditions warrant action by the State board.

The statement, in part, is as follows:

"The board bases its refusal to act at once upon the ground that the memorial, presented by the commuters' association, did not state any new facts, which have arisen since the matter was referred to the Interstate Commerce Commission last summer, where it is now quietly reposing while the commuters are footing the bills. The truth is that the memorial presented two new points of the very greatest importance, which have arisen during the past four months.

"The first point is the decision of the freight rate cases by the Interstate Commerce Commission in February. This decision authoritatively declared that the railroads made more more money in the fiscal year the raise in commutation rates than they have ever made before in their history. In other words, while the railroads were making up their annual statements showing their greatest prosperity, their passenger agents were sitting up nights devising a schedule for the increase of commutation rates.

"The second new point was the new public utility law, which went into effect in May. Under the utility law of last year there was great doubt respecting the board's jurisdiction over these rates. The situation now presented is clear and the people in the commutation zone demand action upon the part of the State board. The issue is so simple and the facts have been so thoroughly analyzed that the refusal of the board to grant relief is difficult to explain. The Board of Public Utility Commissioners now has the power to end the extortion."

"The Mermaid."

The "Mermaid," the popular through express, via the New Jersey Central from Scranton to the North Jersey Coast resorts is now in service in both directions. The Mermaid which carries Pullman broiler parlor car will leave Plainfield at 2:11 p. m., until Sept. 6 inclusive. Returning, the Mermaid arrives Plainfield 2:23 p. m. 7 1 10oaw

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Week-End Specials

MEN'S SHIRTS 89c.
Instead of $1.25, soft shirts with collar attached and French cuffs, in white, plain colors and stripes; excellent value.

PALMER HAMMOCKS $3.98.
For the regular $5.00 ones; extra wide and extra long, with wide valance and lay back pillow; all the newest color combinations.

BAMBOO SCREENS 98c
Instead of $1.50; size 7x8 feet; made of the outside bark of the bamboo and stained a good shade of green.

LADIES' VESTS 3 FOR 25c.
Fine quality derby ribbed cotton vests, the sleeveless kind; worth 15c each.

PEROXIDE 17c.
a bottle; full pound size of this famous antiseptic preparation, about half what is usually asked for it.

WRITING PAPER 25c.
Two-quire box of fine linen lawn, note size with envelopes to match; usual price 39c.

LADIES' STOCKINGS 11c.
A special lot of fine gauze cotton stockings, fast black, with extra spliced heels and toes; would be good value at 18c.

RIBBONS 19c A YARD.
Another lot of those all silk ribbons that have been the talk of the town; values up to 39c a yard.

LADIES' NECKWEAR 18c.
A special lot of pretty Jabots made of fine white lawn and trimmed with lace and embroidery; 25c value.

LADIES' SKIRTS 98c.
Fine white linene wash skirts, the newest models; an excellent skirt for outing purposes; usually $1.25.

REFRIGERATORS $7.98
instead of $12.50; apartment style; holding 50 lbs of ice, with three shelves in provision compartment; a good serviceable hard wood refrigerator.

WASH DRESSES $4.98.
Presenting values up to $7; made of fine quality tissues in fancy stripes with Dutch neck and kimono sleeves; very prettily trimmed.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Consisting of heavy nickel plated soap dishes; paper holders and towel bars; Any one of the pieces worth $1 regularly.

MEN'S NECKWEAR 3 FOR 25c.
Washable four-in-hands, made of fine madras in white and colors; many of them worth a quarter.

WASH DRESSES 98c.
Just the kind for outing purposes; made of striped lawn, Dutch neck and kimono style sleeves; worth regular $1.50.

SILK STOCKINGS 50c.
a pair; excellent quality in white and tan colors; made with high spliced heels, double soles and garter tops; a rare bargain.

BROOMS AT 23c.
The kind you usually pay 35c for; extra quality; No. 6 size, with 3 rows of stitching.

SHIRT WAISTS 98c.
A special lot of fine lingerie waists; prettily trimmed with lace and embroidery; some with fancy allover; values up to $1.50.

CROQUET SETS 98c.
Full 8-ball hardwood sets; finished with two coats of varnish; the kind we sell regularly for $1.25.

BATH SPRAYS 69c.
instead of 98c; the Monarch shower bath spray, complete with faucet connection, rubber tube and aluminum spray.

CHILDREN'S PARASOLS 39c.
In pink, blue and red; Japanese styles with tinsel effects; were made to sell for 75c.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corperation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION
PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK
At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

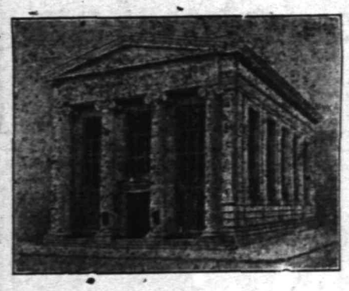
RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY



Assets $3,700,000.00

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

American Ice Cream
IN ALL FLAVORS.
ALSO
French Ice Cream
Most Delicious.

High Standard of Quality Thruout the Year.

DEMOLLI
Caterer, Confectioner, French Baker.
331
West Front St.
Telephone 257.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

EXCURSIONS.

First M. E. Church, Grace M. E. Church, Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, of Plainfield; Dunellen M. E. and Wilson Memorial Chapel.

ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
METHODIST
SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF PLAINFIELD AND DUNELLEN TO
ASBURY PARK and OCEAN GROVE
Thursday, July 13
Baggage car for baskets, Baby Carriages, Bicycles, etc.
Adults $1.25 Children 90c
Leave Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; and Plainfield, 8:15 a. m. Returning leave Ocean Grove 7:10, stopping at Plainfield, Grant avenue, Clinton avenue and Dunellen. 7 6 6

EDUCATIONAL.

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 7th, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprietor
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 344.

The Desire to Gain

a legitimate advantage for yourself should impel you to apply for Life Insurance in The Prudential. Life Insurance will strengthen your credit, help you to save money, accumulate a fund to support you in old age, relieve your mind of worry about your own and your family's future and help you in many other ways.

The Prudential

Every dollar paid for Life Insurance is another step toward independence.

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.
Capital $100,000.00

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO
R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Watch it for "Health Hints" and information about his work.
Treatments by appointment only

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD
736

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Bert Simpson, of Craig place, leaves on the Carmania, of the Cunard Line, Wednesday, July 12, for an eight weeks' trip abroad. He will visit London, Paris, Berlin, Munich and Vienna.

Epworth League services at Grace Methodist church will be discontinued until September. The order of services for the summer is as follows; Sunday-school at 9:45; preaching at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:45 p.m. Rec. C. C. Cain, pastor.

Netherwood Reformed church: Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m.; preaching at 11, subject, "Prosperity;" preaching at 7:45 p. m. subject, "The Highest Pleasure." During July and August the Christian Endeavor services will be omitted.

The Junior Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church has arranged for an ice cream festival to be held at the church, Grove street and Mercer avenue, Wednesday afternoon and evening, July 12. Ice cream, soft drinks, cake and candy will be on sale, The public is invited.

GOVERNOR DOCKED FOR THREE DAYS' ABSENCE.

Trenton, July 8.—When Governor Wilson received his salary check for June Thursday afternoon he discovered that he had again been docked for three days' service during which he was out of the State. The Governor was inclined to doubt whether the constitutional provision that the President of the Senate should be entitled to the amoluments of the office during the absence or disability of the Governor justified the comptroller's office in splitting the check. He had a talk with John Riker, of the State treasurer's office, who pointed out the section of the constitution applicable, and the Governor made no further objection.

The check for the three days' services has been drawn in favor of President Ernest R. Ackerman, who will undoubtedly indorse it and forward it to Governor Wilson, as he did in the case of the check he received for the month of May while Governor Wilson was absent on his Western trip. There is a feeling in some quarters here that the comptroller has been straining a point in insisting upon docking the Governor every time he is out of the State.

Deputy Comptroller Isaac N. Doughten denied that such was the case. He said the comptroller's warrants were simply drawn in accordance with the constitution and that no other course was open to that office. State Treasurer Daniel S. Voorhees said that his department had nothing to do with the division of the money, his powers being limited to drawing the checks as authorized by the warrant of the comptroller.

Edward Dooley's Funeral.

Funeral services for Edward Dooley were held this morning at his late residence on West Front street and were attended by a number of relatives and friends, among them being his fellow-employes at the P. S. C. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, the following, all employers of the P. S. C. acting as bearers; M. Caffery, J. Kane, C. Anderson, M. Carroll, D. Keily and N. Anderson.

K. of P. Officers Installed.

The officers-elect of Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., were installed last evening by District Deputy William Edgar ,of Neshanic, as follows: Chancellor Commander, John G. Bicknell; vice-chancellor, Ephraim Compton; master of work, Jeremiah Moore; prelate, Jeremiah Douglas; master at arms, John Nischwitz; inner guard, Peter Lund; outer guard, Peter Stram.

Funeral of Mrs. M. E. Everest.

The funeral services of Mrs. Mary Emma Everest, widow of Robert R. Everest, were held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the late home, on East Seventh street, and was attended by a large number of friends and neighbors. Rev. Elory G. Bowers, rector of St. Stephen's church, officiated, and the burial was in Hillside cemetery.

Will Open New Series.

The Union Building and Loan Association will open its seventy-second series at a meeting to be held Monday evening at the association's headquarters, Leifke & Laing's office on Park avenue.

Sunday at Lake Hopatcong.

Special excursion via New Jersey Central, next Sunday and every Sunday and Holiday. Round trip, $1.00. Leave Plainfield 9:50 a. m. 7 7 2f-s

J. L. Bennett, manager for J. A. Smith & Bro., grocers, left this afternoon, with rod and line, to spend his vacation along the Jersey coast.

WILSON'S REASONS

(Continued from page 1.)

"I have consulted the attorney-general with regard to the construction of this proviso. It seems to me to curtail, perhaps very seriously, the powers of the State Board of Health, conferred after long experience of public necessity by a series of carefully constructed statutes. This seems to me to be unwarranted and I feel, on account of this proviso that I must withhold my signature.."

Cool Wave Here.

The thermometer at 1:30 o'clock this afternoon registered 83 degrees. The mercury stood at 66 at 7 o'clock this morning. It is the coolest day in the last ten days.

Patience.

"But it seems to take all your patients a long time to get well, doctor?"

"Yes, but as soon as I began to get a larger practise I can afford to let my patients get well quicker."—Houston Post.

—Use Press want ads.

—A girl as born to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fisk yesterday.

—Jesse Tinker was the one lone prisoner to face Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning. Judge DeMeza suspended sentence. Tinker thanked His Honor and as he went through the gate he said, "I sure am a lucky man." He was arrested by Patrolman Sweeney for drunkenness.

OPENING OF NEW SERIES
THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
WILL OPEN ITS 72d SERIES ON Monday Evening, July 10
Applications for new shares and also for loans on bond and mortgage will be received. The total cost to a borrower is $10.42 on each $1,000 borrowed.
Loans are granted in the order in which they are received. We do not put up the money for you to bid on. Every borrower is treated alike.
Come in and talk the matter over with us. We will be glad to explain the plan in detail.
OFFICERS
E. M. LAING.....President
A. D. EDGAR.....Vice President
J. V. E. VANDERHOEF..Secretary
M. C. VAN ARSDALE...Treasurer
OFFICE—146 PARK AVE.
782

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

AMUSEMENTS.
BOYNTON BEACH
CHILDREN'S DAY
SATURDAYS IN JUNE
FREE RIDES ON MERRY-GO-ROUND
SWINGS AND SLIDE
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evening
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS
PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Emmet E. Devoy & Co., sketch, "The Little Goddess;" Three Juggling Bannons, Indian Club Jugglers; Anita Primrose, Character Singer; George Fredo, Musical Comedian.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Report of the Condition of
The State Trust Co.
AT PLAINFIELD, N. J.
at the close of business June 30, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and mortgages	$ 36,600.00
Stocks and bonds	47,537.50
Time loans on colaterals	59,620.00
Demand loans on collaterals	14,675.00
Loans to cities and towns	12,500.00
Notes and bills purchased	187,476.31
Overdrafts	13.16
Due from banks, etc	74,219.19
Banking-house, furniture and fixtures	7,896.60
Cash on hand	17,242.96
Checks and cash items	None
Other assets	583.71
	$458,364.43

LIABILITIES.

Capital stock paid in	$100,000.00
Surplus fund	43,533.41
Undivided profits (net)	1,142.07
Time deposits $ 72,853.69
Demand deposits 211,279.78
Certified checks 1,452.81
Treasurer's checks outstanding 2,274.59
Due to banks, etc 24,878.08
	312,738.95
Other liabilities	950.00
	$458,364.43

State of New Jersey, County of Union, ss.
Edward F. Feickert, vice-president, and Frederic Coriell, treasurer of the abovenamed company, being severally duly sworn, each for himself deposes and says that the foregoing statement is true, to the best of his knowledge and belief.
Signed, Edward F. Feickert, Vice-Pres.
Frederic Coriell, Treasurer.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this seventh day of July, A. D. 1911.
Daniel P. Skellenger,
Notary Public of N. J.
Correct—Attest:
Geo. S. Clay,
M. C. Van Arsdale,
A. W. Ransome,
Directors.

Advertised Mail Matter
E. H. Bird, P. M.

Agnus, Mr. E.	Jones, Mrs N
Bevapua, Al Sig A	Jackson, Miss G
Barras, Mr J L	Lovell, Mr R
Beatty, Mr John	Langdon, Miss B
Best, Miss E C	Maury, Miss Emily
Baron, Mr G E	McCay, Miss M A
Busk, Mr A	Monday, Mr Louis
Brown, Mr W H	Moberg, Mr C E
Brown, Mr V W	More, Mr Wm
Brown, Miss D B	Neill, S
Becker, Julius	Rottersaw, Mr M E
Calyapyer, Mr Sam	Randolph, Mr G W
Carlin, Geo C	Rethschuit, Mrs W
DeForest, Mrs J P	Roberts, Mrs D A
Evans, Miss E B	Sibley, Mr R P
Eldridge, Miss Jessie	Schut, Mr
Eloswith, May	(2)Sklarew, Mr J
Field, Mr Wm	Schipps, Miss E
Fielding, Mrs A	Shaewen, Miss L
Fiske, Mr P B	Thomas, Miss Julie
Field, Letia	(2)Tinsarmen, Mr H
Force, Mr C H	VanOrden, Mr D B
Givens, Mr Albert	Vanler, Miss M
Green, Mr & Mrs C	Vitelli-in-Ferrato Al
Gable, Miss H	Sig Angelo
Graham, Mrs S	Westervelt, Geo
Harris Press Co	Whalley, Mrs H
Hallowell, Mrs	Wilson, Maris
Hanson, Mr&Mrs G	Whitney, Rev. W R
Hall, Mr&Mrs L	Walsh, Mrs B V
Henft, L P

"Please say advertised."

HUDSON RIVER
MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 315 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

Camp Ram's Horn
Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.
Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine. Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.
THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME
is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.
You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.
Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
140 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 329-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3245-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1226.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2084-Gramercy.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

DIED.

MILLIGAN—At her residence, 418 John street, on Saturday, July 8, 1911, Louise A., daughter of Adam and the late Elizabeth Martin and wife of William W. Milligan, in her 28th year.

Funeral private.

MULCAHY—In this city, July 7, 1911, Mrs. Ellen C. Mulcahy, beloved wife of Thomas Mulcahy, in her 34th year.

Funeral from her late residence, 324 McDowell street, Monday, July 10, at 8:15 a. m. and from St. Mary's church at 9 a. m., where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Good, strong boy. Apply with reference Kolb's, 112 West Front street. 7 8 3

WANTED—Boy about 16, help about soda counter and make himself useful about store. Nagle's Pharmacy.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Plain cook. Apply 542 West Seventh street, evenings. 7 7 tf

GIRL wanted for general housework; must have references. Apply 516 Woodland avenue. 7 6 3

WANTED—Cook and waitress at 338 East Front street. 7 5 4

WANTED — Girl for general housework. Apply 322 Clinton avenue. 7 7 3

WANTED—At once competent second girl, temporary position. Call 531 West Seventh street. 7 8 3

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

WHITE girl, light housework, family of three; references required. 634 West Seventh street. 7 1 6

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz. First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M French. 171 North avenue 9 19 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 23 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724 7 1 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons. 197 North avenue

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Fine farm, 104 acres, good potato soil, 50 large fruit trees, shade views of river, excellent 11-room house, large barn, 3 wagon houses, 3 chicken houses, corn crib; all good shape; price $10,800. Also 75-acre farm; best of soil, high elevation, 125 fruit trees, good 9-room house, 2 barns, wagon house, 2 chicken houses, brooder house, 3 hog houses, corn crib, including all machinery and tools; price $8,400. Owners will trade for Plainfield income property. Call Sammis, 20 West Main street, Somerville, N. J. 7 8 5

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M C., care Press. 2 1 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms. 671 West Fourth street. 7 5 tf

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Wm Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

TO LET—5-room apartment. Inquire 90 Grandview avenue. 7 1 6

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—4 rooms on West Third street, near Clinton avenue. Inquire 433 Orchard place. 7 6 3

LOWER part of double house, part improvements; $15; four room flat, 421 Sycamore street; colored people; six room flat, $14; stable to let; very low. Chas. H. Hand, Watchung avenue. 7 7 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

30 FEET OF LAND TO LEASE FOR BILLBOARD OR LUNCH WAGON. WATCHUNG AVENUE, NEAR SECOND. CHARLES H. HAND. 7 1 6

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 7 6 tfeod

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—On July 4th, tan and black collie, white tip on tail. Return to 1220 East Front street and receive reward. 7 6 3

LOST—On Wednesday, pocketbook containing sum of money and trunk key. Owner took 7:25 train to New York and from there went to Fulton street subway station. Reward at this office. 7 7 3

LOST—On Friday an automobile crank. Please return to E. F. Feickert, State Trust Co.

LOST—Patent leather dash cover. Reward if left at Press office. 7 8 2

NOTICE—Fifty dollars reward will be paid for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of person or persons that have been destroying signs at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue, near Leland. 7 8 2

LOST—Pocketbook, last Saturday between Grant and Watchung avenues, on East Seventh street, containing money. Please return to 848 Richmond street and receive reward.

LOST—Gold signet ring, initials P. M. D. Reward at 42 Mountain avenue. 7 3 6

LOST—Monday afternoon at Plainfield Country Club, gold watch with fob attached. Liberal reward if returned to Wylie Brown, 1239 Watchung avenue. 7 6 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Washing to take home or go out. 610 West Fourth street. 7 7 2

GRADUATE nurse wishes care of invalid, lady preferred. Address S. J. H., care Press. 7 8 3

WANTED—Washing and ironing to do at home. Miss Trott, 306 Fillmore avenue. 7 8 2

GOOD laundress (white) would like to go out by the day or take wash home; reference. Address A. S., care Press. 7 8 3

WANTED—Dressmaking to do at home. Address B. M., care Press. 7 1 6

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W R Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 2 16 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FOR SALE—3 pure bred hound puppies, 5 weeks old; cheap. 17 Craig place. 7 1 6

HAY FOR SALE—6½ acres, standing; near town; cheap. 31 Brook avenue. 7 6 3

FAMILY ice box for sale; first class ice saver; in good condition; will sell cheap to quick buyer. Murray's auction room, 164 East Front street. 7 7 6

FOR SALE—Several chester white brood sows; also boar. Address box 116, New Market. 7 8 3

FOR SALE—16-foot oldtown canoe; also paddles. Box 137, New Market. 7 8 3

FOR SALE—A pony, harness and carriage. Inquire at 109 Summit avenue, Plainfield. N. J. 7 7 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

AUTO TIRE and tube vulcanizing, 129 North avenue, opposite depot; 'phone 151-Plainfield; good work; prompt service; prices reasonable. 6 2 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

AT MURRAY'S auction rooms you can find a large variety of books at our book stand from 5 to 10 cents each, by good authors. We have also goods arriving daily; any one can get a bargain if in need of anything. All kinds of goods bought and sold; also merchandise at Murray's, 164 East Front street, opposite the Woodhull & Martin building. 'Phone 666. 7 7 2

THE EXCHANGE, No. 226 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

TO LET—Pleasant furnished rooms. 175 East Front street. 7 8 2

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 302 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

FORTY YEARS in BASEBALL

A History of the Great National Game

By

CAPT. A. C. ANSON

Former Manager of the Chicago National League Team

"Then, by George, I'll exchange with you!" I declared. "If there's anything that gets on my nerves it's to be envied. I can't feel comfortable if I know I have something that somebody else wants. Yes, I'll exchange with you, Mark."

He tried to crawfish, but I wouldn't have it. I insisted that he should experience for himself the sort of conveyance that sorrel nag really was, although he protested that he couldn't think of robbing me of such a fine opportunity to display my horsemanship and all that. I really believe, though, he would have backed square out of it it hadn't been for the ladies. It didn't take them long to tumble to the situation, and they one and all put a veto on Mark's hesitation.

"I don't see how you can decline Captain Anson's kind offer," said Mother Spalding, drawing herself up like a queen.

"But I don't like to discommode him," Mark wriggled.

"Oh, the captain likes to be discommoded—sometimes," she said. "Doesn't he, Mrs. Anson?"

"He just loves it. He'd rather be discommoded than not—sometimes," my wife corroborated solemnly.

There was no help for it. Mark had put his foot in it sure enough and there was nothing to do but face the music. When breakfast was over I got into the park wagon and Baldwin mounted the sorrel, the tricky equine showing not a particle of interest in the change of riders, but seeming to be as tractable as a dray horse. It was a deceitful calm, however, for before we were fairly off that cross-eyed beast struck up a kind of hoochee-coochee business that ended in breaking the girth of the saddle and landing Baldwin in the roadway.

Another saddle was procured but no amount of chaffing could induce Mark to try it again. "Give me the good old park wagon every time," he said, and I agreed with him. Some one remembered that Mark Sullivan had boasted at one time that he was something of a bronco buster, and he was invited to try his art on the sorrel. He didn't seem overjoyed at the opportunity, but we wouldn't have it otherwise, and he finally consented to take his turn.

I know it sounds like a fake, but you have it straight from yours truly that from the minute Sullivan settled himself in that saddle to the time we turned up at Colorado Springs that blamed sorrel was a steady as a plough horse. Perhaps it was true, as Mrs. Williamson suggested, that he had found his affinity in Sullivan.

That was certainly a morning filled with trials and tribulations, but we finally got back to Colorado Springs with no bones broken. The railroad folks had promised us to hold the train an hour for our accommodation, but to our surprise word came right in the middle of the game that the train was in and that we would have to hustle to get it. One of the citizens told me it was the first time it had materialized according to schedule for a month.

It was just as well that he had to quit when we did, for we were putting up about as rocky a game of baseball as I ever played in. I guess the altitude must have had a lot to do with it. When we quit and started on a run for the train the score stood 16 to 9 in our favor. The crowd was disposed to resent our poor performance and I didn't blame it for jeering at us, as it did most unmistakably. I am very much afraid that the Colorado Springs folks didn't get a very lofty opinion of the round-the-world baseball tourists, but if they were any sorer than I was after my experience with that cross-eyed sorrel nag they were to be pitied.

On the last day of October and the first day of November we played two exhibition games at Salt Lake City. It rained torrents the first day and the game was called at the end of the fourth inning, with a score of 9 to 3 in favor of the All-Americas. Our mascot, the little darkey we had togged out so "splendiferously," didn't seem to be on his job that day nor on the day following, for although we were plastered from head to foot with the worst mud I ever struck, the game went against us, with a score of 10 to 3.

CHAPTER XXI.

I Make Good at Keeping My Word.

On the night of November 1 we boarded the train for San Francisco, and by the following morning we had entered the monotonous sagebrush country, a dreary waste walled in by mountains without verdure. Instead of telling you how we passed the time while crossing this arid region I am going to carry out a threat I made in a preceding chapter—to tell you something about how John K. Tener, recently elected governor of Pennsylvania, happened to be a member of the Chicago team.

After I had sold Clarkson to Boston I was on the keen lookout for a pitcher to take his place, and finally settled on big Mark Baldwin of Pittsburg, one of the jolliest and most companionable fellows in the business and at times a wonderful twirler, but uneven and easily rattled. All that season of 1887, whenever he had the opportunity—which was pretty often, for I found Baldwin excellent company—he went on sounding the praises of a Pittsburg friend who, he claimed, was the most phenomenal pitcher he ever saw. He said that this wonder's name was John K. Tener and that he worked at bookkeeping, pitching as an amateur whenever he had a holiday. I confess I didn't take much stock in the business, but Mark was so earnest and so persistent that I promised to look into the matter when I had occasion to visit Pittsburg.

After the sale of Clarkson to Boston it became absolutely necessary for me to scare up some promising pitching material and I recalled Mark Baldwin's friend. Shortly afterward I happened to be in Pittsburg—I don't remember that I went on that special business—and I tried to find Tener, but didn't succeed in finding him either at his home or at his place of business. On the day of my departure for home I missed my train, and, having a few hours on my hands, I proceeded to kill time by strolling about the suburbs.

Toward the end of the afternoon I ran across a game of ball played by amateur nines in a vacant patch somewhere on the outskirts of the city.

I have always been greatly interested in amateur ball, and I joined the bunch that had collected to see the game. It didn't take me two minutes to become deeply interested in the young fellow who was twirling the ball.

First of all, his unusual appearance arrested my attention. Tall and straight as an Indian, with arms that seemed to be longer even than his very long legs, he poised himself on the balls of his feet, raised his right hand high in the air and then went through with a series of evolutions that made me think of a war dance. Finally, after a dizzy whirl of the sphere grasped firmly with the two first fingers in the fashion afterward made famous by Amos Rusie, he let her go, and I realized right then and there that I, for one, couldn't have batted him without a lot of practice.

I don't mind telling you that although I stood there and never took my eyes off the twirler until the game was called, I didn't succeed in getting wise to his curve. When it was all over and the boys were putting on their coats I strolled over to the bunch and asked the young giant how he did it.

"How do I do what?" he laughed.

"Make that outcurve," I said.

"It's the easiest ever," he declared. "To make that outcurve, I grasp the ball firmly with my two first fingers. I make the ball curve with my thumb, which I bring up against the ball with a tight grip. Then I do a lot of stunts to fuddle the batter, and when I get ready to let her go I give a slight side motion to my hand, with a decided snap to the wrist. In that way you can get as much speed with a curve as with a straight ball. Don't you think so?"

I didn't express an opinion. What I did do was to ask him plump out how he would like to go to Chicago and play with the league team.

"First rate," he said. "But Captain Anson don't know what a good pitcher he hasn't got. I always could beat Mark Baldwin, and I hear he is doing big stunts out in Chicago. Perhaps I'll go out there some day and show the captain what I can do. Do you know him?"

"Slightly," I admitted. Then I added: "I know Anson well enough to offer you a position on the Chicago team. All you've got to do is to say 'Yes' or 'No' right now." He looked me over carefully from sole to crown and then, apparently satisfied that I had the goods, said: "Well, make it yes."

I wanted him to go right away with me that night, but he said he was a bookkeeper and couldn't leave his job without proper notice. We made the date for his appearance in Chicago, arranged about his salary and traveling expenses and then, as I was bidding him good evening, it occurred to me that it might be convenient to have his name. When he told me that he was John K. Tener I was so amused over the whole business that I turned the trick by letting him know that he had been negotiating with the captain and manager of the Chicago club.

At Suisun, about 30 miles from San Francisco, we received a telegram from E. J. Baldwin, better known as "Lucky Baldwin," welcoming us to the city and inviting us to be his guests at the big hotel of which he was the proprietor. Such a sample of Pacific coast hospitality put all of us in first class trim, and we made up our minds that we were going to have the time of our lives. Before we got to the Baldwin hotel I was notified to get into a dress suit as soon as possible, and as soon as we were assigned to our room I proceeded to do as directed. Getting into a dress suit in those days was one of the most strenuous jobs I ever undertook, and I confess that I still find it a very trying business. With Mrs. Anson's help, however, I managed to accomplish it, and then we went out to a very dainty spread, which was followed by a jolly theater party, and after that a little repast that "lingers in my memory still."

We were booked to remain two weeks in San Francisco and the moments fled only too swiftly. The day after our arrival, November 4, dawned bright and beautiful, but our festivities of the night before did not leave us in the same condition. When we assembled in the rotunda of the hotel to go out to the ball grounds our played-out appearance must have been discouraging to those who expected to see an exhibition of good ball that afternoon.

When we got to the grounds, more dead than alive for want of sleep, we found that a great crowd has assembled, about 11,000 people having bought admission tickets. Big bunches of cheering fans greeted us all along our route to the grounds, and when we reached the entrance the jam was so thick that we could not get in until a platoon of police had cleared the way. The practice work on both sides prior to the opening of the game was better than I had any reason to hope for, but when it came to the game itself—well, it is only stern necessity that makes me refer to it at all. Everything seemed to work against us, even our overanxiety to put up a first class game. Mark Baldwin pitched for us, and I never saw him do worse; he didn't seem to have any more control of the ball than if it had been a toy balloon. If Mark should see this it will be mighty easy for him to get back at me with the statement that the stone wall infield, of which I was a member, gave an exhibition of fielding that would have disgraced a team of schoolboys.

The score of that discreditable game —All-Americas 14, and Chicago 4—tells the story. That the crowd was disappointed was easy to see, but it didn't feel any worse about it than we did. Everybody was good natured over it, however, but it would have been a relief if somebody had started a row.

(To be continued next Saturday).

COMMUTERS HEAR BOARD POWERLESS.

In answer to a communication from the New State Commuters' Association asking that immediate action be taken to compel the railroads to restore the old commutation rates the State Board of Public Utilities Commissioners, through its secretary, has sent the following reply:

"I am instructed by the board to direct your attention to the fact that, as reported by it in its last annual report, all complaints referring to rates for travel between points in New Jersey and the city of New York were considered as relating to inter-state commerce, and not being within the jurisdiction of the board.

"These complaints were referred to the Inter-State Commerce Commission, which commission has not as yet reached a determination in the investigation initiated by it as the result of the action of this board.

"Your communication lays no facts before the board which were not before it at the time of its prior action. It would seem, therefore, that no new ground is taken that might be considered by the board as a reason for changing the present statue of this matter."

Elk Herds Gathering.

Atlantic City, July 7.—The vanguard of 100,000 Elks, who will attend the twenty-fifth annual reunion of the order here next week came Wednesday with Grand Exalted Ruler Herrmann, of Cincinnati, and other high officers. Herrmann and his party were met at the station by a reception committee, headed by Commodore Kuehnle, and, after a noisy reception, in which 1,000 persons joined, were escorted to the Hotel Strand, a non-license hostelry, which will be the headquarters of the grand lodge. The grand lodge will convene on Monday morning next on the Steel Pier.

Mrs. W. A. Burnett and daughter, of Sandford avenue, are visiting in Toronto, Can.

TO AILING WOMEN.

A Little Sound Advice Will Help Many a Sufferer in Plainfield.

No woman can be healthy and well if the kidneys are sick. Poisons that pass off in the secretions when the kidneys are well, are retained in the body when the kidneys are sick. Kidneys and bladder become inflamed and swollen and worse troubles quickly follow. This is often the true cause of bearing down pains, lameness, backache, etc. Uric poisoning also causes headaches, dizzy spells, languor, nervousness and rheumatic pain.

When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, a remedy that helps sick kidneys. You will get better as the kidneys get bette, and health will etun when the kidneys are well. Let a Plainfield woman tell you about Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mrs. Earnest Dorflinger, 400 Clinton avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I hold just as high an opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills today as I have for years. The cure they made in my case has been permanent and consequently I am glad to confirm my former testimonial." (Statement given January 19, 1911).

On August 28, 1905, Mrs. Dorflinger gave the following account of her experience with Doan's Kidney Pills. "The first symptom of kidney trouble in my case was a dull heavy pain in my back and head. This was followed by a tired, languid feeling and I knew that my kidneys were gradually giving out. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and getting a box at Randolph's Drug Store, I began their use. Before long my condition improved and I continued taking Doan's Kidney Pills until I was cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the head aches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS

at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

JOS. F. BURKE

718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R

Successor to Mrs. John Brown

General Contractor and Grader

Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned

Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Positively the only oderless Excavator in the City.

Estimates cheerfully given.

Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North avenue., 'Phone 394. Postoffice Box 718.

For prices address

FRANK BURKE, Manager.

825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

Of Interest To Housekeepers

You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Duer St ... Lincoln pl

TIMBO'S Stock for Smokers

Romeo and Juliets, La Carolinea, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merralls & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampe makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles.

133-135 North Avenue.

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement

Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to the City Treasurer and Regulating the Receipt and Disbursement of City Moneys.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The City Treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars to the inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of all the duties of his office, with such freehold security as the Common Council shall approve and direct, which bond shall be submitted to the Common Council for its approval, and, when so approved, shall be deposited with the City Clerk for safe keeping.

Sec. 2. The City Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to or in any way appertaining to the City, unless otherwise provided by law, and shall forthwith deposit the same in such bank or banks as the Common Council shall from time to time designate as the depositories of city moneys, in the name of "The Treasurer of the City of Plainfield."

Sec. 3. City moneys, except where otherwise provided by law, shall be disbursed only upon warrants drawn on the City Treasurer as follows:

1) Upon the "Library Fund" such warrants shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Public Library and Reading Room.

(2) Upon the appropriation for the Board of Health, such warrants shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary of said Board.

(3) In all other cases, such warrants shall be signed by the President of the Common Council and countersigned by the City Clerk, as Auditor.

Provision may be made by resolution for substitutionary signature and counter signature in case of absence of any or either of the officers named.

In all cases where claims must be submitted to the Mayor for approval or disapproval, the signatures and countersignatures, original or substitutionary, herein provided for, shall afford plenary evidence that the claim embraced in the warrant has either been approved by the Mayor, or, if disapproved by nim, has been ordered to be nevertheless paid. If a claim has been marked "disapproved" by the Mayor and the claim has been ordered to be nevertheless paid, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, that fact, and the date of such action, shall be noted on the claim.

Every warrant drawn on the "Library Fund" shall be accepted in writing by the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient to the credit of that fund in the designated depository in which by law it must be separately kept, and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that fund.

Every warrant drawn on the appropriation for the Board of Health shall be accepted in writing by the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient funds to the credit of that appropriation, and the City Treasurer shall, in writing, on said warrant, direct payment thereof by a bank, being one of the designated depositories of city moneys; and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that bank.

Upon every other warrant, if for a claim properly audited, the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient funds wherewith to pay the same, shall, in writing, on said warrant, direct payment thereof by a bank, being one of the designated depositories of city moneys; and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that bank.

In each case, such direction of payment shall be considered an acceptance of such warrant as a draft on the City Treasurer.

Sec. 4. The City Treasurer shall keep in a suitable book or books in such manner as directed by the Common Council, or its appropriate committee, the separate accounts of the several funds for which moneys shall be received or paid out by him, each under its proper head and title, so that the account of each of these funds shall show at all times the exact amount to the credit or debit of such fund. The Treasurer shall also keep a detailed record of all assessments made or authorized to be made by the Common Council, setting forth the date and purpose of each assessment, the name of persons assessed, the amount assessed against each, and the date of the payment of the same.

Sec. 5. Whenever the Common Council shall authorize money to be borrowed on the credit and in the name of the City in anticipation of the collection of taxes, the City Treasurer shall prepare and sign a note for the amount so authorized to be borrowed, payable at such time as shall be fixed by the Common Council, which note shall likewise be signed by the Mayor, and unless otherwise directed by the Common Council the City Treasurer shall cause such note to be discounted at one of the designated depositories of city moneys; the net proceeds thereof shall be credited to the account of the Treasurer of the City of Plainfield in such bank, and credited by the City Treasurer to the fund for which the money was borrowed. At the maturity of the note so discounted, the amount thereof shall be chargeable against said account.

Sec. 6. The City Treasurer shall render to the Common Council at each of its regular meetings a statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him from the date of his last preceding statement; and at the last meeting in each year he shall render a statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him during the current year, and he shall submit for inspection his books to the Mayor or Common Council or its appropriate committee, or any city officer the Common Council shall designate, whenever requested to do so.

Sec. 7. No claim or demand of any kind against the City, except as by law or this ordinance otherwise provided, shall be paid or directed to be paid by the City Treasurer, unless first regularly allowed and ordered paid by the Common Council, and a statement in writing to that effect duly signed by the City Clerk be filed with the City Treasurer. Upon receiving from the City Clerk said written statement of claims or demands allowed and ordered paid by the Common Council, the City Treasurer shall forthwith prepare warrants for the payment thereof, and have them properly signed as herein provided, and direct payment thereof by a designated depository of city moneys, as herein provided.

Sec. 8. Upon the warrants provided for in the last section being returned to City Treasurer after payment, the same shall be attached to the original claim. All paid warrants shall be filed by the City Treasurer, regularly numbered, and a detailed record of each shall be kept by him. The City Treasurer shall also require proper receipts for all checks or drafts issued by him, and shall file the same in regular order, and safely preserve as vouchers all such receipts as well as the claims and paid warrants hereinbefore first referred to, subject to the orders of the Common Council.

Section 9. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith, and particularly the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance relating to the City Treasurer and the payment of City Moneys," approved February 8, 1893, and amended by ordinance approved July 12, 1897, are hereby repealed; but no ordinance or part of ordinance theretofore existing shall be revived by such repeal.

Adopted by the Common Council June 26, 1911. Approved by the Mayor July 6, 1911.

GEORGE W. V. MOY, Mayor.

Attest: J. T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

7 8 2s

Advertisements

FOR

New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle, —and— Newark Evening News Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

In the Churches

Baptist.

First Baptist Church—Divine worship at 10:30 a. m., Rev. Dr. W. R. Matteson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., will preach; Bible School, Men's Bible conference class, 9:30; Young People's Society, 7 p. m.; 7:45, union service at First M. E. church.

Park Avenue—Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, pastor—11:00, preaching; 9:45, Bible school; 7:45, preaching.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00, prayer meeting; 10:30, preaching; 9:30, Sunday school; 6:30, vesper service, short sermon by the pastor.

Mt. Olive—M. W. Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday school; 7:30, preaching.

Ebenezer—Rev. G. E. Scruggs, pastor—11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday school.

Calvary—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching by the pastor;3:30, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Shiloh—Rev. Eward Roberts, pastor—preaching at 11:00 a. m., by Rev. J. E. Briggs, of Lincoln College, Pa.; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00 p. m., trial sermon by E. L. Mitchell.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—10:45, preaching by the pastor; 9:30, Sunday school; 6:45, C. E. Society 9:30, Sunday school; 7:45, union service at First M. E. church.

Netherwood Reformed church, Leland and Midway avenues—Pastor, Rev. Royal A. Stout—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:45, Sunday school; 7:00, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

German—Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor—10:45, preaching in German; no evening service.

Marconnier Chapel—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor—11:00, preaching by the Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, of Woodbridge; 7:00, C. E. Society meeting; 7:45, union services at First M. E. church.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, minister—10:30, morning worship; 9:30, Sunday school. Rev. Dr. Henry H. Stebbins, of Rochester, N. Y., will preach in the morning; no evening service during the summer.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching by the pastor.

Warren chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:45, Sunday school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:30, preaching by the pastor.

Bethel Chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.; Sunday school, 3:00; Rev. F. St. John Fitch will preach in the evening; communion service postponed to July 16.

Episcopal.

Grace Church—Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Rector—Services: 7:30 a. m., celebration of the Holy Communion; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer, litany and sermon. On the first Sunday of the month Holy Communion and sermon; 3 p. m., Sunday school; 4:30 p. m., evensong.

Church of the Heavenly Rest—Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday school; 11:00, matins and sermon (Holy Eucharist first Sunday in the month); 7:30 p. m., Evensong and sermon; services in charge of lay reader.

St. Stephen's—Rev. Elory G. Bowers, B. D., rector—7:30, Holy Communion; 9:45, matins and sermon.

Holy Cross Church—Rev. Elory G. Bowers will be in charge of the 11:00 o'clock services.

Grace Church Mission for Colored People—10:00 a. m., Sunday school; 8 p. m., evensong and address. Strangers are cordially invited.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor—10:30, preaching by Rev. C. L. Goodrich; 2:30, Sunday school; 7:30, union services with sermon by Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, of Woodbridge.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Church—Rev. C. S. Kemble, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; 7:15, Epworth League, led by the pastor; 8:00, evening service. If weather is oppressive evening services will be held on the lawn in front of Epworth House.

Grace M. E.—Rev. C. C. Cain, minister—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:30, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. Littleton Sturgess, pastor—11:00, a. m., preaching by the pastor; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching by the pastor.

Roman Catholics.

St. Mary's Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, morning worship, with sermon by Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson; 11:55, Sunday school.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, pastor—10:30, Sunday school; 4:30, young people's meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00 a. m.

Lutheran.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Rev. J. Duerschner, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue—9:45, Sunday school; 10:30, preaching in German by Rev. Dr. Charles Moldenke; 8:00, preaching in Swedish.

Swedish Lutheran—Rev. John Estlund, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue; evening service only.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock Building, Front street and Madison avenue—Service 11:00 a. m., lesson sermon, "Sacrament;" 10:00, Sunday school; reading open daily 2 to 5 p. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—Church closed until September.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Captain and Mrs. Hewitt officers in charge—11:00, Holiness meeting at the hall; 2:30, Sunday school and Bible class in hall; 6:30, Young People Legion meeting; 8:00, gospel service with special music.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms; 7:45, gospel talk by Hughes Fawcett, and special music.

Italian Mission—409 East Third street—Preaching by Theodore Boretty, Sundays at 10:30 a. m. in Italian, and song and prayer service Wednesday evenings at 8:00; Sunday school in English and Italian at 2:30.

West End Tabernacle—2:30 p. m., Sunday school; 7:00, C. E. meeting; 8:00 p. m., gospel service.

Wilson Memorial Chapel—10:45 a. m., preaching service.

Meeting room, 209 East Front street, near Watchung avenue—George Mackenzie will deliver an address each Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Bible students are invited to attend and bring their Bibles.

W. C. T. U.—4 p. m., gospel temperance service.

Gospel Tent—Church and East Front street—services are held in Swedish every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday at 8 p. m., and every Wednesday at 8 p. m. in English.

BOY FILLED WITH BEER THROWN INTO CREEK

Declaring that John Roland, Robert Brady, Allan Steele and George Mahan, about 16 years old, deliberately filled her son up with beer and then threw him in the waters of the Assanpink creek in an unconscious condition, from which waters he was rescued the Fourth of July, Mrs. Mary Wade testified before Judge Harris at Trenton yesterday.

The court adjourned the case for a day to make further investigtions. The boys all said that John Wade, 14 years old, the son, has drunk so heavy from beer bottles that he became unconscious and in that condition rolled into the waters of the creek. The mother sticks to her story. Probation Officer Edmonds had been put on the case and Judge Gnichtel wants to know where the beer came from which the boys illegally procured.

INSTRUCTORS NAMED FOR STATE SOLDIERS.

The War Department has issued a special order, dated June 30, in which Major Evan M. Johnson, Jr., of the Sixth United States Infantry is detailed under the provisions of an act of Congress, approved March 3, 1911, for duty as instructor with the National Guard of this State.

The Adjutant-General's Department is particularly well pleased with this detail because Major Johnson is of the Army War College and also a graduate of the Infantry and Cavalry Schools. Major Johnson is regarded as one of the best instructing officers in the army, and his services to the National Guard of this State will be of a character that will do a great amount of good.

In addition to this, the War Department has notified the Adjutant-General that Captain Edwin B. Winans, of the Fourth United States Cavalry, has been detailed as instructing officer for the two troops of cavalry, which are a part of the National Guard, of this State. Captain Winans will act as instructor not only for the National Guard of New Jersey, but also for that of Pennsylvania and Maryland. He graduated from West Point in 1887 and has a splendid record.

These officers will remain with the New Jersey National Guard for a period of two years, when others may be substituted.

HEAT HASTENS DEATH OF SHORT HILLS MAN.

Exteme heat of Wednesday caused the death of James Rodgers at his home, Oak Ridge road, Short Hills. He had been suffering from a nervous breakdown, which developed into brain fever, and the heat sent his temperature to 107.

Mr. Rodgers, who had lived in Short Hills since last October, had been with the publishing firm of Harper Brothers for thirty-six years. For the last fifteen years he had been the concern's advertising manager. He was a member of the Aldene Association, the Sphinx Club of New York, and was past grand regent of the Royal Arcanum of New Jersey.

Mr. Rodgers was born in New York fifty years ago. He leaves a widow and four children.

JERSEY CITY TO OPPOSE RULE BY COMMISSION.

Jersey City, July 7.—All of the executive committee members of the Hudson County Democratic Committee, representing the twelve wards of this city, assembled in the Davis Association club-rooms Wednesday night and unanimously agreed to begin an active campaign in support of Sheriff James J. Kelly's idea to dispose of the commission government plan at the special election to be held on July 18.

Good News.

"My dear, our landlord says he's going to raise our rent."

"Glad to hear he can do it. I can't"—Baltimore American.

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

"Well, Keith, the old man has never told me very much; he's pretty close-mouthed, except for swearing, but I've read his papers, and picked up a point or two. I reckon the daughter, Miss Hope, maybe never heard a word about it, but the boy—the one that was shot—must have stumbled onto the story and repeated it to Hawley. That's what set that fellow going. It seems Mrs. Waite's maiden name was Pierpont, and when she was seventeen years old she was married to the son of a rich North Carolina planter. The fellow was a drunken, dissolute, good-for-nothing. They had a daughter born—this Phyllis—and when the child was three years old her father, in a fit of drunken rage, ran away, and to spite his wife took the little girl with him. All efforts to trace them failed, and the mother finally secured a divorce and, two years later, married Willis Waite. Waite, of course, knew these facts, but probably they were never told the children. When the father of Mrs. Waite's first husband died, he left all his large property to his grandchild, providing she could be found and identified within a certain time, failing which the property was to be distributed among certain designated charities. Waite was named sole administrator. Well, the old man took as much interest in it as though it was his own girl, but made mighty little progress. He did discover that the father had taken the child to St. Louis and left here there with a woman named Raymond, but after the woman died the girl completely disappeared."

"Then Miss Maclaire is Hope Waite's half-sister?"

"That's the way it looks now."

"And Hawley merely happened to stumble on to the right party?"

"Sure; it's clear enough how that came about. The boy told him about the lost heiress his father was searching after, and showed him his sister's picture. 'Black Bart' instantly recognized her resemblance to Christie Maclaire, and thought he saw a good chance for some easy money. He needed the papers, however, to ascertain exactly the terms of the will, and what would be necessary for the identification. He never intended to go into court, but hoped to either get Waite out of the way, or else convince him that Christie was the girl, relying on her gratitude for his profits. When Waite played into his hands by coming to Carson City the chance was too good to be lost. I'm not sure he meant to kill him, but he did mean to have those papers at any cost. Probably you know the rest—the girl was easy, because she was so ignorant of her parentage, and nothing prevented Hawley from winning except that Waite got mad and decided to fight. That knocked over the whole thing."

They were outside now, and the first touch of the cool night air, the first glance up and down the noisy street, brought Keith to himself, his mind ready to grapple with the problem of Hope's disappearance. It seemed to him he had already looked everywhere, yet there was nothing to do except to continue the search, only more systematically. The sheriff assumed control—clear headed, and accustomed to that sort of thing—calling in Hickock and his deputies to assist, and fairly combing the town from one end to the other. Not a rat could have slipped unobserved through the net he dragged down that long street, or its intersecting alleys—but it was without result; nowhere was there found a trace of either the gambler or his companion.

They dug into saloons, bagnios, dance-halls, searching back rooms and questioning inmates; they routed out every occupant of the hotel, invaded boarding houses, and explored shacks and tents, indifferent to the protests of those disturbed—but without result. They found several who knew Hawley, others who had seen the two together passing by the lighted windows of the Trocadero, but beyond that—nothing. Convinced, at last, that the parties sought were not alive in Sheridan, and beginning to fear the worst, the searchers separated, and began spreading forth over the black surrounding prairie, and by the light of lanterns seeking any semblance of trail. There was no lack of volunteers for this work, but it was daylight before the slightest clue presented itself. Keith, with the sheriff and two or three others, had groped their way outward until, with the first flush of dawn, they found themselves at the opening of a small rocky ravine, near the foot of "Boots Hill." Peering down into its still shadowed depths, they discerned what appeared like a body lying there motionless. Keith sprang down beside it, and turned the rigid form over until the dead face was revealed in the wan light—it was that of the red moustached Scott. He staggered back at the recognition, barely able to ejaculate.

"Here, Sheriff! This is one of Hawley's men!"

The sheriff was bending instantly above the corpse, searching for the truth.

"You know the fellow?"

"Yes, his name was Scott."

"Well, he's been dead some hours, at least six I should say; shot just above the eye, and good Heavens! look here, Keith, at the size of this bullet wound; that's no man's gun in this country—no more than a '32' I'd say."

"Miss Waite had a small revolver. She must have shot the fellow. But why did they leave the body here to be discovered?"

The sheriff arose to his feet, prowling about in the brightening glow of the dawn.

"They were in a hurry to get away, and knew he wouldn't be found before morning. A six hours' start means a good deal. They did drag him back out of sight—look here. This was where the struggle took place, and here is where the man fell," tracing it out upon the ground. "The girl put up a stiff fight, too—see where they dragged her up the path. From the footprints there must have been half a dozen in the party. Get back out of the way, Sims, while I follow their trail."

It was plain enough, now they had daylight to assist them, and led around the edge of the hill. A hundred feet away they came to where horses had been standing, the trampled sod evidencing they must have been there for some considerable time. Keith and the sheriff circled out until they finally struck the trail of the party, which led forth southwest across the prairie.

"Seven horses, one being led light," said the former. "That was Scott's, probably."

"That's the whole story," replied the sheriff, staring off toward the bare horizon, "and the cusses have at least six hours the start with fresh horses." He turned around. "Well, boys, that takes 'em out of my bailiwick, I reckon. Some of the rest of you will have to run that gang down."

CHAPTER XXXII.

Fairbain and Christie.

Dr. Fairbain had originally joined the searching party, fully as eager as Keith himself to run down the renegade Hawley, but after an hour of resultless effort, his entire thought shifted to the woman they had left alone at the hotel. He could not, as yet, fully grasp the situation, but he remained loyal to the one overpowering truth that he loved Christie Maclaire. Fairbain's nature was rough, original, yet loyal to the core. He had lived all his life long in army camps, and upon the frontier, and his code of honor was extremely simple. It never once occurred to him that Christie's profession was not of the highest, or that her life and associations in any way unfitted her for the future. To his mind she was the one and only woman. His last memory of her, as the little party of men filed out of that room, haunted him until he finally dropped out of the search and drifted back toward the hotel.

It was a late hour, yet it was hardly likely the woman had retired. Her excitement, her interest in the pursuit, would surely prevent that; moreover, he was certain he saw a light still burning in her room, as he looked up from the black street below. Nevertheless he hesitated, uncertain of his reception. Bluff, emphatic, never afraid to face a man in his life, his heart now beat fiercely as he endeavored to muster the necessary courage. Far down the dark street some roysterer fired a shot, and sudden fear lest he might be sought after professionally sent the doctor hurriedly within, and up the stairs. He stood, just outside her door, quaking like a child, the perspiration beading his forehead, but a light streamed through the transom, and he could plainly hear movements within. At last, in a sudden spasm of courage, he knocked softly. Even in that noisy spot she heard instantly, opening the door without hesitation, and standing fully dressed within. She was no longer a discouraged, sobbing girl, but an aroused, intent woman, into whose pathetic, lonely life there had come a new hope. She appeared younger, fairer, with the light shimmering in her hair and her eyes smiling welcome.

"Oh, Doctor," and her hands were thrust out towards him, "I am glad you have come. Somehow, I thought you would, and I have wanted so to talk to some one—to you."

"To me! Do you really mean that, Miss Christie?"

"Yes, I really mean that, you great bear of a man," and the girl laughed lightly, dragging him into the room and closing the door. "Why, who else could I expect to come to-night? You were the only one really good to me. You—you acted as if you believed in me all the time—"

"I did, Christie; you bet I did," broke in the delighted doctor, every nerve tingling. "I'd 'a' cleaned out that whole gang if you'd only said so, but I reckon now it was better to let them tell all they knew. It was like a thunder storm clearing the atmosphere."

"Oh, it was, indeed! Now I know who I am—who I am! Isn't that simply glorious? Sit down, Doctor Fairbain, there in the big chair where I can see your face. I want to talk, talk, talk; I want to ask questions, a thousand questions; but it wouldn't do any good to ask them of you, would it? You don't know anything about my family, do you?"

"Not very much, I am afraid, only that you have got an almighty pretty half-sister," admitted the man, emphatically, "and old Waite possesses the vilest temper ever given a human being. He's no blood kin to you, though."

"No, but he is awfully good underneath, isn't he?"

"Got a heart of pure gold, old Waite. Why, I've seen him cry like a baby over one of his men that got hurt."

"Have you known him, then, for a long while?"

"Ever since the Spring of '61. I was brigaded with him all through the war, and had to cut a bullet or so out of his hide before it ended. If there was ever a fight, Willis Waite was sure to get his share. He could swear some then, but he's improved since, and I reckon now he could likely claim the championship."

"Did—did you know my mother also?" and Christie leaned forward, her eyes suddenly grown misty. "I haven't even the slightest memory of her."

The doctor's heart was tender, and he was swift to respond, reaching forth and grasping the hand nearest him. He had made love before, yet somehow this was different; he felt half afraid of this woman, and it was a new sensation altogether, and not unpleasant.

"I saw her often enough in those days, but not since. She was frequently in camp, a very sweet-faced woman; you have her eyes and hair, as I remember. Waite ought to have recognized you at first sight. By Heavens! that was what made me so infernally mad, the mulish obstinacy of the old fool. Your mother used to come to the hospital tent, too; one of the best nurses I ever saw. I thought she was a beauty then, but she's some older by this time," he paused regretfully. "You see, I'm no spring chicken, myself."

"You Know What I Mean—That I Love You."

Her eyes were upon his face, a slight flush showing in either cheek, and she made no effort to withdraw her imprisoned hand.

"You are just a nice age," with firm conviction. "Boys are tiresome, and I think a little gray in the hair is an improvement. Oh, you mustn't imagine I say this just to please you—I have always thought so, since—well, since I grew up. Besides, fleshy men generally look young, because they are so good natured, perhaps. How old are you, Doctor?"

"It isn't the gray hairs I mind, either," he admitted hesitatingly, "but I'm too darned bald-headed. Oh, I ain't so old, for I was only thirty-five when the war broke out. I was so thin then I could hardly cast a shadow. I've changed some since," casting his eyes admiringly downward, "and got quite a figure. I was forty-three last month."

"That isn't old; that's just right."

"I've been afraid you looked on me as being an old fogy!"

"I should say not," indignantly. "Why should you ever think that?"

"Well, there were so many young fellows hanging about."

"Who?"

"Oh, Keith, and Hawley, and that bunch of officers from the fort; you never had any time to give me."

She laughed again, her fingers tightening in their clasp on his hand.

"Why, how foolish; Hawley is older than you are, and I was only playing with Keith. Surely you must know that now. And as to the officers, they were just fun. You see, in my profession, one has to be awfully nice to everybody."

"But didn't you really care for Hawley?" he insisted, bluntly probing for facts.

"He—he interested me," admitted the girl, hesitatingly, her eyes darkening with sudden anger. "He lied and I believed him—I would have believed any one who came with such a story. Oh, Dr. Fairbain," and she clung to him now eagerly, "you cannot realize how hungry I have been for what he brought me. I wanted so to know the truth of my birth. Oh, I hated this life!" She flung her disengaged hand into the air, with a gesture expressive of disgust. "I was crazy to get away from it. That was what made the man look good to me—he—he promised so much. You will believe me, won't you? Oh, you must; I am going to make you. I am a singer in music halls; I was brought up to that life from a little girl, and of course, I know what you Western men think of us as a class. Hawley showed it in his whole manner toward me, and I resented it; just for that, deep down in my heart, I hated him. I know it now, now that I really understand his purpose; but some way, when I was with him he seemed to fascinate me, to make me do just as he willed. But you have never been that way; you—you have acted as though I was somebody—somebody nice, and not just a music-hall singer. Perhaps it's just your way, and maybe, deep down you don't think I'm any better than the other do, but—but I want you to think I am, and I am going to tell you the truth, and you must believe me—I am a good girl."

"Great God! of course you are," he blurted out. "Don't you suppose I know? That isn't what has been bothering me, lassie. Why, I'd 'a' fought any buck who'd 'a' sneered at you. What I wanted to know was, whether or not you really cared for any of those duffers. Can you tell me that, Christie?"

She lifted her eyes to his face, her lips parted.

"I can answer anything you ask."

"And you do not care for them?"

"No."

He drew his breath sharply, his round face rosy.

"Then you have got to listen to me, for I'm deadly in earnest. I'm an old, rough, bald-headed fool that don't know much about women—I never thought before I'd ever want to—but you can bet on one thing, I'm square. Anybody in this town will tell you I'm square. They'll tell you that whatever I says goes. I've never run around much with women; somehow I never exactly liked the kind I've come up against, and maybe they didn't feel any particular interest in me. I didn't cut much shine as a ladies' man, but, I reckon now, it's only because the right one hadn't happened along. She is here now, though, all right, and I knew it the very first time I set eyes on her. Oh, you roped and tied me all right the first throw. Maybe I did get you and that half-sister mixed up a bit, but just the same you were the one I really wanted. Hope's all right; she's a mighty fine girl, but you are the one for me, Christie. Could you—could you care for such a duffer as I am?"

Her lips were smiling and so were her eyes, but it was a pleading smile.

"I—I don't think it would be so very hard," she admitted, "not if you really wanted me to."

"You know what I mean—that I love you—wish you to be my wife?"

"I supposed that was it—that—that you wanted me."

"Yes, and—and you will love?"

Her head dropped slowly, so slowly he did not realize the significance of the action until her lips touched his hand.

"I do," she said; "you are the best man in the world."

Fairbain could not move, could not seem to realize what it all meant. The outcome had been so sudden, so surprising, that all power of expression deserted him. In bewilderment he lifted her face and looked into her eyes. Perhaps she realized—with the swift intuition of a clever woman—the man's perplexity, for instantly she led his mind to other things.

"But let us not talk of ourselves any more, tonight. There is so much I wish to know; so much that ought to be done." She sprang to her feet. "Why, it is almost shameful for us to stay here, selfishly happy, while others are in such trouble. Have they discovered Hope?"

"No; we scoured the whole town and found no trace. Now they are outside on the prairie, but there can be little chance of their picking up a trail before daylight."

"And Hawley?"

"He has vanished also; without doubt they are together. What do you suppose he can want of her? How do you imagine he ever got her to go with him? She isn't that sort of a girl."

She shook her head, shivering a little.

"He must have mistaken her for me—perhaps has not even yet discovered his mistake. But what it all means, or how he gained her consent to go with him, I cannot conceive."

She stood with hands clasped, staring out of the window.

"There is a little light showing already," she exclaimed, pointing. "See, yonder. Oh, I trust they will find her alive, and unhurt. That man, I believe, is capable of any crime. But couldn't you be of some help? Why should you remain here with me? I am in no danger."

"You really wish me to go, Christie?"

"Not that way—not that way," and she turned impulsively, with hands outstretched. "Of course I want you here with me, but I want you to help bring Hope back."

He drew her to him, supremely happy now, every feeling of embarrassment lost in complete certainty of possession.

"And I will," he said solemnly. "Wherever they may have gone I shall follow. I am going now, dear, and when I come back you'll be glad to see me?"

"Shall I?" her eyes uplifted to his own, and swimming in tears. "I will be the happiest girl in all the world, I reckon. Oh, what a night this has been! What a wonderful night! It has given me a name, a mother, and the man I love."

He kissed her, not in passion, but in simple tenderness, and as he turned away she sank upon her knees at the window, with head bowed upon the sill. At the door he paused and looked back, and she turned and smiled at him. Then he went out, and she knelt there silently, gazing forth into the dawn, her eyes blurred with tears—facing a new day, and a new life.

(To Be Continued.)

McCran Will Explain.

Passaic, July 7.—Assemblyman Thomas E. McCran, of Paterson, will speak at a meeting in Willard Hall, tonight. He will explain his reasons for voting against the Geran bill when it first came up in the Assembly. Herman B. Walker, Progressive Republican, challenged Mr. McCran to a debate on his stand on the Geran bill.

ELECTRICITY CHEAPER THAN STEAM

Besides its greater flexibility and convenience, Central Station Electric Power is, in most cases, really cheaper than steam drive.

This fact can be proved by the experiences of many men who have substituted electricity for steam.

One of those ready to so testisy is Samuel Furnival, of the Excelsior Baking Company, 3 Brunswick street, Jersey City.

Mr. Furnival used steam drive for years and was persuaded to change to Central Station Electric Power. After a year's trial he writes:

"I take great pleasure in recommending electric power over that of steam, in that it is cheaper, easier to handle and absolutely reliable."

"CHEAPER AND ABSOLUTELY RELIABLE"—That tells the story in a few words.

If you are using a steam drive we can give you something better for less money.

Let our representative tell you how.

PUBLIC SERVICE ELECTRIC CO.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Beulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 318 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STAATS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. B. Ruggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL;
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

For Sale or To Let
The Factory Building lately occupied by the Crescent Embossing Co.,
located at
546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.
Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.
Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.
Especially suitable for light manufacturing.
Can be seen only by appointment with
Fred C. Lounsbury
Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.
Tel. 1036-R
or
Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.
Tel. 310-J

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
141 NORTH AVENUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-1
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry. Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 213 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1910.

NEW YORK—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 3.40, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 3.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.25, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.25, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.25, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—8.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

Fanwood, New Jersey,
July 1st, 1911.

PUBLIC NOTICE

is hereby given that I, Charles Sheelen, Collector of the Borough of Fanwood, County of Union, and State of New Jersey, pursuant to the authority of the statutes in such cases made and provided, will, on the twenty-sixth day of July, 1911, at two o'clock in the afternoon of that day, in the Collector's Office in said taxing district, expose For Sale and sell the several tracts and parcels of land hereinafter specified, or any part or parts of the said land sufficient for the purpose on which the taxes for the year 1910 remain unpaid and in arrears, to such person or persons as will purchase the same for the shortest term, and pay the tax lein thereon, including interests and costs of sale.

The said sale is made under the provisions of an act of the Legislature entitled "An act for the assessment and collection of taxes," approved April 8th, 1903, and the acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

The said land, and the names of the persons against whom the said taxes have been assessed, and the amount of the same, are as follows:

Mrs. L. J. Ellis, house and lot, Forest Ave.	$80.51
Martin Rose, house and lot, Midway and Hunter Aves.	36.52
George Shay, house and lots, Terrill Road	22.41

Given under my hand this 1st day of July, 1911.

7 14s CHARLES SHEELEN, Collector.

ESTATE OF Margaret L. Marsh, deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executrix of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the nineteenth day of May, 1911, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

EDITH M. MARSH, Executrix.

CHARLES L. MOFFETT, Proctor.

5 20 9oaw-s Fees—$11.10

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT—Notice is hereby given that the final account of the subscriber, surviving executor of Sarah P. Potter, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of July next.

Dated June 22, 1911.

WILLIAM C. HUBBARD.

ASA F. RANDOLPH, Proctor.

Fees—$4.20. 6 24 5s

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

What a Motor Car Means to the Average Family

"So much has been said lately about extravagance in the purchase of motor cars—so much that is without foundation in fact—that it seems proper for someone to enlighten those who are still of the opinion that a motor car is purely a luxury," says Andrew C. Thompson, local dealer for the Chalmers Motor Company.

"I do not deny that any passenger car is a luxury in the sense that it is always a luxury to get where one wants to go swiftly, surely and with the utmost comfort. But a motor car is not an extravagance.

"I often wonder how many of the critics who have made the loudest tirades against the motor car have taken time to realize the many benefits which a car brings to the average family.

"Perhaps the greatest benefit which a motor car brings to any user is the open air recreation. We all know that we ought to go out of doors into the fresh air and sunshine, but most of us do not do it until we are ordered away by a physician unless we use a motor car. A car probably takes every member of the family into the open air more than any other agent one could name.

"Think of the benefit to the head of the family in going to and from business in a car. Think how he gets to the office each morning with the sparkle of the sunshine and fresh air in his blood and brains; how much keener he is for the problems which comfort him. Then, too, a motor car is a great saving in time to the business man. He can make his business calls in about one-third the time that is required by a street car or a horse and buggy. With a motor car he has always at his disposal a ready means of entertainment for customers and business associates. The car gives him more time away from his business, enables him to get out into the country and gives him the mental and physical exercise of driving. Among his business associates he gains in prestige; and the result of all of this air and exercise is a good appetite, better digestion, better humor and better health.

"The rest of the family benefit proportionately. A motor car enables the wife and daughter to make social calls and to entertain without interference with the usual household duties. For the son, a motor car has the educative value of understanding and caring for a wonderful piece of machinery. It means clean, open air recreation and decent entertainment in the company of other members of the family.

"The man with a motor car lives a fuller life than if he did not have one. And he gives fuller life to every member of his family. A motor car means experiences, more sensations. Its users do more things. They have wider interests, long life is not a question of years so much as it is of experiences and accomplishments. And yet motor cars are great factors in increasing the average span of any man's years because they promote health through outdoor life.

"None can deny that a motor car brings the benefits I have named. They are self-evident results. Therefore I cannot see how the purchase of an automobile can be called an extravagance. For after all, the man who has not a motor car is paying for one anyhow. He is paying for it in the time he loses that a car would save him, in the opportunities that get away, in the fresh air and recreation that a car would give, and which he cannot deny himself except at his peril.

"Whatever we really need we pay for whether we actually own it or not. One might get along without an overcoat in the winter but he would pay for one just the same. He would pay with discomfort and colds.

"The automobile has been developed to keep pace with the age that utilizes the telephone, telegraph, wireless, express trains, electric lights, trolley cars, adding machines newspapers, typewriters and all of the other wonderful machines of modern civilization. It certainly is no extravagance to keep abreast of the times, and the man who purchases a good motor car will invariably find it a good investment."

VEREIN AGAINST GERAN LAW.

The Geran election bill was discussed by the Fremont Verein, 1856, of Newark, in Selbold's Schuetzenhalle, Thursday night. Some members were of the opinion that the main purpose of the law was to make voting on the part of foreign-born citizens so beset with annoyances that many would remain away from the polls, and this they ought to do, several declared.

Others took the stand that to remain away from the polls would be nothing less than playing into the hands of those back of the new election measure behind which, they assert, there lurked the "specter of local prohibition," and if the voters didn't watch out their personal liberties would be fettered in a manner that would not be to their liking. No conclusion was reached other than that the Geran law is a bad one.

Skinflint—I have no money, but I will give you a little advice.

Begga—Well, if yer ain't got no money ye advice can't be very valuable—Christian Advocate.

BASEBALL.

Can Bound Brook stop Plainfield's winning streak? Well, none seems to think they can!

At last Ty Cobb failed to get a hit. Four times at bat with a 0 in the 1b. column was his fate in the game with the Senators yesterday.

When High Bridge released Blackwell they did not hear many protests. The big pitcher is all right at times but his south paw slants got away from him too much and consequently there are too many free passes under his reign on the mound

But just peel your optics on those Plainfield Elks. Look them over before purchasing elsewhere! You know that team from Brooklyn Lodge, No. 22, has some rep and has never been defeated before in its history. The conclusion to Thursday's experiment is that 885 has some classy bunch of ball tossers.

Thirty-one players were used in the Brooklyn-Pittsburg game yesterday and the Trolley Dodgers finally won out 7-6. There were pinch hitters and pinch hitters every few minutes and when these creatures weren't put in the game, then the lineup had to be changed because of players being benched on kicks.

Dave Driscoll is just about due for a hit. The famous first sacker of the Pets hasn't landed a safe drive for ages.

If Howard Craig bats for Westfield today like he did for the Elks Thursday, the Mt Ararat team will be a sure winner against Scotch Plains. Two singles and a home run in five innings were credited to Craig in the lodge game, in which there were some fast players.

DELEGATES CHEER NAME OF GOVERNOR WILSON.

Atantic City, July 8.—The Christian Endeavorers in convention here Thursday night cheered the name of Governor Woodrow Wilson when John T. Sproull, of Arlington, read a letter of greeting from him. "I have a message from the Governor of New Jersey," said Mr. Sproull. Immediately a cheer went up and the applause lasted fully a minute, and when Mr. Sproull completed the sentence and mentioned the name of Woodrow Wilson the applause broke out anew. Governor Wilson's greeting follows:

"It is with the most genuine regret that I find myself unable to be present at the international convention of the Society of Christian Endeavor.

"May I not, as the chief executive of the State, convey through you my warm and cordial greetings to the great convention, and may I not express my feeling of the greatest importance of the work carried on by the Society of Christian Endeavor?

"Its influence has been world-wide and profound and every man who values the deeper influence of Christianity must subscribe himself a friend. and admirer of your great organization."

DOCTOR STIRS DOVER'S BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Dover, July 8.—Because the schools' medical inspector has reported that numerous changes in the school buildings are necessary, the members of the Board of Education are in condition between rage and amusement. Dr. Emma C. Clark made the report at the meeting of the Board of Education Wednesday night. According to the report the health of the pupils required that the roofs of the buildings should be changed, while other improvements ranging from repairs to the boilers to noiseless blinds, were necessary according to board routine. These were matters considered in the province of the building committee. The inspector also recommended that a clinic for the treatment of eye, ear, mouth, throat trouble and dentistry be established.

The medical inspector during the past year attended to between ten and eleven hundred children and Wednesday night asked that an assistant inspector be appointed. No action was taken on the report.

The present corps of teachers was re-engaged for the ensuing year.

LADS ON FISHING TRIP FAIL TO RETURN HOME.

The Newark police have been asked to look for two boys who started on a fishing trip Wednesday and have not returned to their homes. Fear is held that they had an accident on the water and a general alarm has been sent out. The police are handicapped in their search by the fact that it is not known where the boys went fishing.

The missing lads are Michael Mzat, nineteen years old, of 19 Boyd street, and Frank Pilazalo, fifteen years old, of 27 Bedford street. Both left home early without telling their destination.

Boys in the neighborhood believe that the pair went to Newark Bay to fish for eels. As both lads had been out of work friends think they might have remained out over night to fish again today, especially on account of the hot weather.

Their failure to return home was reported to the police of the Fourth Precinct early yesterday morning. Both boys wore dark suits, soft stripped shirts, black shoes and stockings and caps.

POLICE BATTLE WITH BURGLAR

After making two attempts to enter houses in Nutley, a burglar with a revolver in either hand held at bay two policemen of that town Thursday night. The "crook" cornered, effected his escape by firing twelve shots at the bluecoats. Untouched, the latter returned the fire, but without hitting their mark.

The police, aided by the Passaic authorities, spread a net to catch the desperado. A suspect—a foreigner—was picked up early yesterday morning in Passaic, but he is not believed to be the man who did the shooting. The police, however, hope to prove that he is his pal, who ran in another direction when both men were seen to leave the rear of the home of J. D. De Witt, in Kingsland street.

The robber who drew the guns from each hip pocket, in true desperado fashion, wore a slouch hat and a red bandana. The Jameson brothers are confident they would recognize him, so close were they when the firing occurred. The moonlight gave them a view of his features.

Baseball Blow Kills Lad.

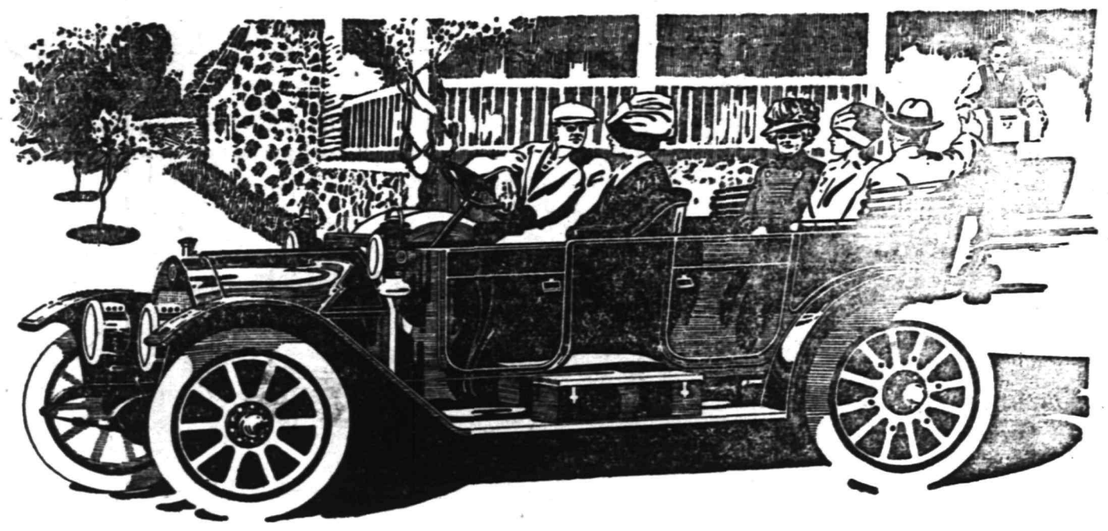
Guilford, Conn. July 8.—Baseball claimed a victim here late Thursday when twelve-year-old Chauncey Qilliner died suddenly, after becoming unconscious. The boy was hit on the head by a baseball during a game here some time ago and rendered unconscious. but he recovered and no ill effects were anticipated. Thursday he suddenly became unconscious, after complaining of pains in his head, and died in a short time.

"Well, Hawkins, old man," said Witherbee, "has your wife decided where she will spend the summer?"

"Yep," said Hawkins. "She's going abroad."

"So. And how about you?"

"Well, I don't know yet," sighed Hawkins. "I havent decided whether to stay in town or go into bankruptcy."—Harper's Weekly.



CHALMERS · MOTOR · CO Detroit, Mich. U.S.A.

This monogram on theradiator stands for all you can ask in a motor car.

Chalmers "Thirty-six" $1800

Long stroke motor—4¼x5¼
Chalmers self-starter
Four-speed transmission
Demountable rims
36-inch by 4-inch tires
Bosch dual ignition
Ventilated fore-doors
Solar gas lamps,oil lamps
Prest-O-Lite tank
Lamps black enameled

Chalmers Motor Cars for 1912

"30" Touring Car, 5-passenger, $1,500—Regular equipment; Magneto; gas and oil lamps; Prest-O-Lite tank; top; windshield; ventilated fore doors; horn,tools.

"30" Torpedo, 4-passenger, $1,500—Regular equipment; Same as "30" Touring Car.

"30"Torpedo Runabout, 2-passenger, $1,500—Regular equipment: Magneto; gas and oil lamps; Prest-O-Lite tank; top; windshield; tire irons; tools, etc.

"Thirty-six" Touring Car, 5-passenger, $1,800—Regular equipment: Chalmers self-starter; Continental demountable rims; Bosch dual ignition system; black enameled Solar gas lamps and oil lamps; Prest-O-Lite tank; 36x4 inch tires; four forward speed transmission; long stroke motor—4¼x5¼; ventilated fore-doors; tire irons; horn, tools, etc. Top and glass front, $100.

"Thirty-six" Torpedo, 4-passenger, $1,800—Equipment: Same as Touring Car.

"Thirty-six" Berlin Limousine, $3,250—Including full equipment.

"Thirty-six" Cab side Limousine, $3,000—Including Equipment.

"Forty" Touring Car, 7-passenger, $2,750—Regular equipment: Bosch dual ignition; black enameled Solar gas and oil lamps; Prest-O-Lite tank; auxiliary seats; ventilated fore-doors; top; windshield, 36x4 tires; tire irons, horn, tools.

"Forty" Torpedo, 4-passenger, $2,750—Regular equipment: Same as Touring Car.

"Forty" Detachable Pony Tonneau, 4-passenger, $2,750—Regular equipment: Same as "Forty" Touring Car.

Here are the motor car pace makers for 1912—the Chalmers "30," $1500—the Chalmers "Thirty-six," $1800. These cars win their way to your approval by sheer merit. They set new standards of motor car values.

When the Chalmers "30" was first announced four years ago, the words "astounding value" were used to describe it. It set a new standard.

Each season since, by better factory methods, by improvements and refinements, we have greatly increased the value of the car without increasing the price. Each year the verdict on Chalmers cars has been "best value at the price.

OUR ASTOUNDING VALUES.

And now for 1912 we say to you, the motor buying public, with perfect assurance, that this year more than ever before we offer you "astounding values."

The "30" remains the leader among $1500 cars. The new "Thirty-six" at $1800 represents a further development along the lines of greater size and increased power. The reliable, standardized, beautiful, "Forty" is continued for those requiring a car of unusual power and 7-passenger capacity.

"30" FULLY EQUIPPED $1500.

We ask you to remember these facts: The Chalmers "30' was the first genuine automobile to sell at a medium price. No car of equal value ever has sold for the same price or for less.

Remember that this is the car which was driven 208 miles a day for one hundred days in succession; that made the trip from Denver to Mexico City; that for two years won more contests in proportion to the number entered than any other car; that has never been defeated by a car of its price and power; that holds the world's light car speed record; that won the hardest Glidden Tour ever held.

Please remember further that this is the car with the most advanced design; the car that has been more widely copied than any other.

BUY A BEAUTIFUL CAR.

Remember this car has a grace of line and beauty of finish which the costliest cars do not excel; that it has given satisfactory service to 15,000 owners; that it is backed by the Chalmers guarantee.

Last year this car sold for $1750, equipped with magneto, gas lamps, top and winshield.

Think of it this year—refined and improved in every possible way, with thoroughly ventilated fore-door bodies, inside control, magneto, gas lamps, Prest-O-Lite tank, and including also Chalmers mohair top and automatic windshield—for $1500!

We think you will agree that "claims" are unnecessary in view of such value at such a price. The facts are eloquent and convincing.

NEW MODEL "THIRTY-SIX" $1800.

When we considered bringing out a new model, the Chalmers "Thirty-six," we instructed our engineers to build a four cylinder, five-passenger car that would leave absolutely nothing to be desired.

We said we would fix the price when the car was ready. We think that in the Chalmers "Thirty-six" we are offering a car that leaves nothing to be desired.

What more could you ask in a car than you are able to get in this one

More power, perhaps? You really could not use more than the splendid long stroke motor will develop. With large cylinders and long stroke (4¼x5¼ inch) the new motor is a great puller at high speed; a wonderful hill-climber; and will give you all the speed you want. Though called a 36 it actually develops 40 h. p.

FOUR-SPEED TRANSMISSION.

Greater flexibility? The four forward speed transmission—a feature until now found only on the highest priced makes—gives a flexibility of control hitherto unknown on medium priced cars.

Direct drive is on the fourth speed. A third speed is provided which will carry you over the hardest grades without loss of time. If a very steep hill is encountered you can still drop back to second, which is powerful enough for the steepest grade and yet much faster than first speed of an ordinary car.

Do you ask more room in the body? This body is as roomy as any five-passenger car built. It is a big body. If it were any bigger, it would become awkward and less comfortable.

More comfort? We honestly believe that it is not possible to buy a more comfortable car at any price. The big wheels and tires—36x4—the ample wheel base, sturdy frame, ¾-elliptic rear springs, tilted, luxuriously upholstered seats, afford the passengers the acme of riding comfort.

CHALMERS SELF-STARTER.

Greater convenience? The new Chalmers compressed air self-starter does away with the last of the original inconveniences of automobiling.

This starting device is built in the Chalmers factory. It is not an accessory added to the car, but an essential feature. With it there is no need of cranking. Any woman can now drive a Chalmers car. The compressed air of the self-starter can be used for inflating tires.

Convenience has been considered in little things, too. The control levers on both the fore-door and torpedo bodies are located inside the body.

A dash adjustment enables the driver to adjust the carburetor without leaving his seat.

CONSIDER THESE DETAILS.

As to details of finish, we ask you to compare the "Thirty-six" with any car selling up to $4,000.

Body fittings are of the luxurious type found on high priced cars. Black enamel finish instead of brass is used on metal parts, such as door handles, coat rail, hinges, lamps, etc. An option of nickel plating, at an extra cost of $50, is offered.

The ventilated dash is covered on the inside with leather. The tonneau floor is covered with cocoa mat. The front foot board and the running boards are covered with dark gray linoleum.

Other details of construction which show the care expended on little things are: The beautiful doors, two handles on each door, permitting opening from he inside; scuff plate on the fender where it joins the running board; large, completely equipped tool box on the running board; smooth finish of bonnet and fenders, all rivet heads being entirely concealed; improved Mercedes type honeycomb radiator such as you find on the high priced cars. Many other exclusive features you will note when you examine the car.

"THIRTY-SIX" ALREADY PROVED.

Do you ask greater reliability in a motor car? Probably no new model has even received more thorough testing before being offered to the public.

Months ago—in November, 1910—we completed the first three cars of the "Thirty-six" type.

One of these was sent to Uniontown, Pa., where for four months we kept it going day in and day out, up and down the celebrated Uniontown Hill and other Pennsylvania hills. Motorists know there is no severer hill-climbing test.

The second of these cars was sent to Florida, where, for weeks, it was driven through heavy sand in the hottest weather.

The third car, driven through the Middle West, averaged 200 miles a day for 8000 miles.

The motors for the new models were tested on the block, running 1500 revolutions per minute, 24 hours a day for weeks at a time.

It seems almost incredible, but it is the absolute truth, when we tell you that in all of our testing of this car and its motors we have never broken down a single motor, transmission, or other vital part.

We have tested not only one car but a number of them; we have tested not only one motor, but many; we have not driven a few hundred miles, but tens of thousands of miles.

And we have done all this so that we might be able to stand behind an absolute guarantee of all of the parts of this car for one year and a further guarantee of Chalmers service.

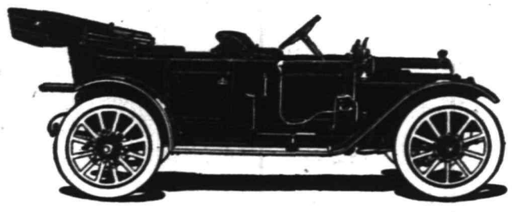
OUR CARS FULLY GUARANTEED

We guarantee Chalmers cars to be free from defects in material and parts. For one year from date of delivery we will replace free any defective part, if returned to our factory for inspection.

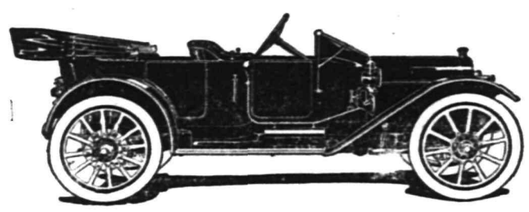
The parts of Chalmers cars are made from the best materials obtainable, and they are built, for the most part, in our own factory. Hence we are perfectly safe to guarantee them.

We really believe, whether you buy a Chalmers or not, it is worth your while to see the new cars.

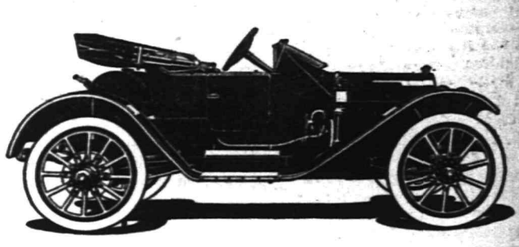
We invite you to come in and see the new models. Early deliveries are assured.



"30" Touring Car, 5-passenger, $1500
Including magento, Prest-O-Lite tank, gas lamps, oil lamps, Chalmers mohair top, automatic windshield, ventilated fore-doors, horn and tools.



"Thirty-six" Torpedo, 4-passenger, $1800
Including Chalmers self-starter; Continental demountable rims; Bosch dual ignition system; black enameled Solar gas lamps and oil lamps; Prest-O-Lite tank; 36x4 tires; four forward speed transmission; long stroke motor—4¼x5¼; ventilated fore-doors; tire irons; horn, tools, etc. Top and glass front, $100.



"30" Torpedo Roadster $1500.
Including magneto, Prest-O-Lite tank, five lamps, top, windshield, tools, tire brackets, etc.

Chalmers Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.

A.C. Thompson Auto Co.

413-421 Park Av.
Tel. 1510

The Most Up-to-date and Best Equipped Garage in New Jersey.

JULY TENTH.

1780—French army and fleet under Rochambeau reached America to fight for the colonists.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Overcast weather; probably local thunder showers tonight or Tuesday; not much change in temperature.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, JULY 10, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year

MAN IS SLAYED BY AUTOMOBILE

J. O. Wilson, Camden Lawyer, Driving Car, Crashes Into and Kills Charles Clifford, Colored Laborer.

While walking south on Park avenue near the Woodbrook Farm this morning Charles Clifford, colored, of Manning avenue, was hit and instantly killed by an automobile owned and driven by John O. Wilson, a lawyer, of Camden. With Mr. Wilson was his partner, Hartley F. Carr, who jumped from the car and was thrown on his head receiving several bad scalp wounds. With Clifford were two white men, W. J. Nelson, of West Third street and John M. Coon, of West Second street. Coon was also slightly injured and was attended by Dr. Lufburrow at police headquarters.

Carr was rushed to Muhlenberg Hospital by Wilson and was later placed under arrest. The lawyer returned to the scene of the accident where he waited for Chief Kiely who brought him to police headquarters. The accident occurred just over the city line and both Wilson and Carr were turned over to officers from Prosecutor Booream's office, of Middlesex county, this afternoon.

They were arraigned in the Middlesex court upon arrival at New Brunswick and were admitted to bail in the sum of $3,000 each. Arrangements were made with friends in Camden to arrive in New Brunswick during the day to qualify as bondsmen.

The three men were going to Samuel Johnson's farm where they had a job of sinking a well. They were walking in the middle of the road when Wilson first saw them, according to the story he told the police. He blew his horn, he stated, when 300 yards distant and again when he was 100 yards away. Nelson and Coon, the lawyer said, went to the right of the road and Clifford to the left. Looking around and seeing that his companions were on the other side of the road he started to join them and then started back. Mr. Wilson said that passing the hospital his speedometer read 27 miles and that he had not advanced either his spark or gas and was not using the exhilerator. Others say that his car was going at a terrific speed.

When Clifford dodged back the car hit him although Wilson ran the car off the road into the bushes in an effort to avoid the accident. Clifford's body was carried on the hood and guards of the car. The effort made to miss Clifford was what caused Coon's injuries.

The only eye witness to the accident was Henry Powell and he told the police the car was travelling very fast.

Nelson in telling his story of the accident said that he did not hear any horn and the first he knew of the car being on the road was when he heard a roaring swish as it shot past. The men, he said, were walking single file, he in the rear and Clifford leading with Coon between and probably four feet back of Clifford. He claimed that after passing him the car shot almost at right angles from the middle of the road, bowling over Coon and hitting Clifford squarely.

Nelson first helped Coon to his feet and then looked for Clifford. The car, he said, had stopped some distance off in the bushes and he ran to it. Clifford he found was dead with hardly a whole bone in his body and Carr lay some distance off unconscious from the blow on his head. Wilson he asserted had dismounted and after seeing that Clifford was dead went to Carr's assistance and secured aid to get him to the hospital.

At headquarters the Camden lawyer told the police that he and Carr spent yesterday with friends in Summit, after having filled a business engagement in this vicinity on Saturday. They left Summit at 7 o'clock this morning, he said, and were going to Camden via. Plainfield and New Brunswick. He has been a practising lawyer in Camden for twelve years. His partner is a slightly older man but neither is more than forty-five.

Clifford the victim, formerly kept a restaurant on Plainfield avenue. Of late he has been working as a laborer for various contractors. He was married and had a good reputation for being industrious, sober and trustworthy. The body was taken to Cole's undertaking establistment.

—First Baptist excursion July 27.

ASK $5,000 MORE FOR ADDITION TO SCHOOL

The Board of School Estimate met morning and passed a resolution to ask the Common Council for an additional $5,000 appropriation for the erection of the two wings to the High School building. This would make a total of $40,00 for the addition if the Council grants, as it is supposed it will, the extra amount to original appropriation.

The reason for asking this additional amount is because when the bids were received they were found to be far in excess of the amount estimated and appropriated. In order to have the wings properly heated and ventilated a new boiler is said to be needed. Then there are some changes in the gymnasium that amounted to considerable more than the sum set aside for the purpose. Rather than abandon these planned improvements while the building is being altered, it was decided to ask for the additional appropriation. The Council will pass on the board's resolution at the next regular meeting.

FOUR CONGREGATIONS HOLD UNION SERVICE

The second union service of the mid-summer season at the First M. E. church last night was largely attended, the edifice being well-filled with worshippers in spite of the excessively warm weather. The congregations joining in the service included the First Baptist, Trinity Reformed, First M. E. and First Presbyterian and each one was well represented. A change was made in the preacher, Rev. W. C. O'Donnell, of Woodbridge, taking the place of Rev. Dr. W. B. Matteson, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who found it impossible to remain here in the evening.

Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, offered the opening prayer, and Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, read the Scripture lesson. Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the home church, also assisted. The quartet coir, Miss Margaret Harrison, soprano; Miss Jessamine Burd, contralto; Aleck MacGowan, tenor and Raymond A. McGee, baritone, under the direction of Clifford A. Braider, organist, sang several selections, a feature being a duet by Miss Harrison and Miss Burd.

Rev. Mr. O'Donnell took his text from 1st. Cor. 16: 13: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong," to which he added later the words of the succeeding verse: "Let all your things be done with charity."

"While eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," said the preacher, "it is also the price of the soul itself. The words of the text 'my soul be on guard,' should be remembered. We should be firmly fixed in the faith and be attached to a good cause. Many a staunch oak withstands the sixty mile gale, but there are some trees uprooted because they are not firmly established.

"We should be manly. We should draw to ourselves those things with which the world is vibrating. We need more than the cathedral. We need catherdal manhood, personal integrity and culture to be the kind of men God designed us to be. We should be mighty factors in the world, not an nonenity, a force to be reckoned with. Paul had high ideals, clear vision and a large brain."

The preacher said that while the country had celebrated recently the 135th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, it should not forget the date, December 16, 1773, when a company of patriots gathered in Boston and resolved to stand by each other in defense of the country against the invasion of King George. He then briefly touched upon the incident of the "Boston Tea Party." In closing he paid deserving tribute to the "minute men" of the Revolution, declaring that all honor was due them. They dropped everything to serve their country. The preacher also praised Paul, emphasizing his strong faith, which he said should be emulated by everyone. In closing he urged all to be actuated by charity in life's work.

The union service next Sunday night will be held at Trinity Reformed church, when Rev. C. M. Gallup, of Providence, R. I., the First Baptist church supply for the day, will be the preacher.

Enjoyable Birthday Party.

Theodosia Vail, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Vail, was given a birthday party at her home, Saturday afternoon. There were about a dozen guests, all young folks, and the time was spent playing games, after which refreshments were served. The young celebrant received a number of useful gifts in honor of the occasion, as well as the best wishes of her friends present.

KIND HEARTED ONE GIVES $20 TO FUND

What we call a real Christian is the woman who while making her preparations for spending the summer in a cooler clime thought of the poor, unfortunate tots who must suffer in this sun-baked city. This real Christian drove up in front of The Daily Press office this morning and contributed four crisp 5 bills to the Baby Camp Fund with a request that her name not be published. Her handsome donation is credited to "Anonymous."

Received today:

Anonymous	$20.00
Previously acknowledged:
C. J. F.	$25.00
Woman's Christian Work Society
7th Day Baptist Church	5.00
From a Friend	5.00

HIS HIP BROKEN BY FALL FROM A WAGON

Ambrose Ryno, aged sixty-three years, of Dunellen, who is employed by Jesse R. Burdick, a sash and blind manufacturer, was removed to the hospital about 11 o'sclock this morning suffering with what is believed to a broken hip. Ryno was unloading sashes on East Second street, near fire headquarters, when the pile toppled over and he was thrown off the wagon, sustaining injuries. He was unable to walk and Acting Captain Joseph Clark, of the fire headquarters assisted him to the office of Dr. Albert Pittis, on East Front street.

In the meantime a van from the Hand Storage Company was pressed into service and Ryno was taken to the hospital. It is believed that the man's hip is broken and an X-ray examination will be made this afternoon.

SENATOR ACKERMAN KIND TO GOVERNOR.

It has just become known in this city that President of the Senate Ernest R. Ackerman has turned over to Governor Wilson the checks he received from the State Contoller's department for services as Acting Governor, Senator Ackerman followed the precedent established by President Johnson, of the Senate in 1900, who received the Governor's pay while Governor Voorhees was in Europe, but turned the check over to the Executive upon his return.

Although the Controller's department officially "docked" Governor Wilson for the period he was out of the State on his Western trip, Senator Ackerman's act gives him payment in full.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB TO HOLD MEETING TONIGHT.

The City Democratic Club will hold an important meeting tonight and a large attendance is desired. Among the other matters of importance will be the passing of resolutions indorsing the re-nomination of Assemblyman Hugh McLoughlin, the nominating of Assemblyman C. E. Brodhead for State Senator and George H. Schlotterer for sheriff.

Councilmen for the city will also be indorsed among them being J. J. Nash, first ward, Fred Eidress, councilman at large and Daniel C. Courain, for the third ward.

Slocum's Great Work.

"Strike Out Slocum" drove another spike into the title yesterday when pitching for McNulty Bros. he fanned 13 Cherokee Indians in the seven innings he occupied the mound. Previous to being put in the box he adorned right garden. In addition to fanning this number he walked none and allowed but 5 hits. Both the hits and passes were made before the got going good, having been called in from the field to the box. The game was won by the McNultys' 5 to 2.

A Wholesome Sentence.

Tony Cataro was arrested yesterday afternoon at the Netherwood Station on complaint of several young women who said that he had insulted them. Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning imposed a fine of $50 or ninety days in the county jail.

C. B. Haver Improving.

Christopher B. Haver, of High Bridge, who was severely injured in a premature celebration of the Fourth, last Monday night, is reported to be improving at the hospital. The physicians believe that his sight will be saved.

Not Thomas Doyle.

It was erroneously stated on Saturday that Thomas Doyle figured in a police court case. As Mr. Doyle who resides in West Sixth street, bears an excellent reputation this correction is made.

—First Baptist excursion July 27.

AUTO VICTIM DEAD

Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson Succumbs to Injuries Received in an Accident.

UNCONSCIOUS SINCE MISHAP.

Former Matron of Children's Home Thrown From Car Last Wednesday Night Passed Away This Morning.

Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson, who was matron of the Children's Home for twenty years, and who was injured last Wednesday night in an automobile accident at Copper Hill, near Flemington, died at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. Charles Hartpence at Ringoes, where she was taken after the accident. She did not regain consciousness. Dr. J. Hervey Buchanan, of Duer street, went to Ringoes, Saturday afternoon, but was unable to do anything beyond what the physicians there had already done.

Mrs. Hedrickson was a native of Somerville, and when her husband died twenty years ago, she took the position of matron of the Children's Home here. She was a woman of many estimable qualities and had endeared nerself to many people here.

At the time of the accident, Mrs. Hendrickson was out auto riding with Mrs. Hartpence, being on the way from Flemington to Ringoes. On the road the searchlight of an auto approaching from the opposite direction, blinded Mrs. Hartpence, and in turning off the road to avoid a collision ran into a pole. Mrs. Hendrickson jumped and in this way, it is believed, sustained a concussion of the brain.

The arrangements for the funeral have not been made as yet.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF H. F. BAUER YESTERDAY.

The funeral of H. F. Bauer, aged sixty-three years, who died at the Somerset Hospital, Somerville, on Wednesday night, was held at his late home in Somerville, on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. In the absence of Dr. Phansteihl, of the Second Reformed church, of Somerville, of which he was a member and of Dr E. G. Reed, of this city, his former pastor, the services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Church, of the M. E. church, who spoke highly of the deceased, saying that the life he had lived was a testimony to the friends left on earth. Several selections were rendered by Miss Jessamine Burd, of the M. E. choir of this city. Church, lodge, relatives and friends contributed to the numerous and handsome display of flowers.

Mr. Bauer had been treasurer and deacon of the Second Reformed church many years, treasurer of Court Somerset, I. O. F. and a past chancellor of Lodge of the Castle, No. 82, K. of P. He is survived by a widow and two sons, Howard E., of Cleveland, O., and William D., who is well known in this city, having married Miss Maud E. Van Dyke, of East Fifth street, this city.

William H. Manning.

William H. Manning, aged 66 years who for several years was employed at the American Steam Laundry on East Third street, as an engineer, died last night at his home, 521 East Third street. He had been in failing health since last December, when he was obliged to give up his position. Mr. Manning was a native of this city and always lived here. He was an attendant of the First Presbyterin church. The funeral will be held at the late home, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Hit by an Auto.

Mrs. Joseph Dodge, of Berckman street, was slightly injured by being hit by an automobile owned and driven by Harry Hicks, of East Second street, last night at East Second and Richmond streets. Hicks rushed the woman to her home in the car and called a doctor who after an examination said that there were no serious injuries. The accident was unavoidable and the car was not being driven at a high rate of speed when it occurred.

Clan Mackenzie.

At the regular meeting of Clan Mackenzie to be held tonight, visiting officers of the Royal Clan and a number of clansmen from other cities will be entertained. A number of candidates will be received and other business of importance transacted.

Open Air Meeting Saturday Night.

An open air meeting was held Saturday night at the corner of West Front street and Madison avenue under the auspices of the local Y. M. C. A. at 815. Rev. Dr. J. W. Weddell, of Lewisburg, Pa., and Rev. F. K. Mathiews were the speakers. Vincent Frazee played the cornet.

HOTTEST DAY YET TEMPERATURE 103

This is the hottest day Plainfield has experienced this summer, the official thermometer, according to 'Weather Prophet' John Neagle, registering 103 degrees at 1:30 o'clock. Yes, it is the hottest July day in ten years for not since 1901 has the mercury been above 102 degrees. While Mr. Neagle tells what is official, various residents swear that their thermometers showed 104 degrees in the shade at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

One week ago today the mercury stood at 102 in the official thermometer but it gradually declined until Friday when it dropped to 83 degrees. Then it began to soar again and yesterday it arose to 99 degrees.

YOUNGSTERS CROWD LOCAL PLAYGROUNDS

The attendance at the city playgrounds for Wednesday, Thursday Friday and Saturday of last week broke all records. Altogether 3,393 children were at the municipal playplaces during the morning and afternoons of these three days. Miss Ethel Skillman at the Irving school yard had the largest number of youngsters to take care of, the attendance at that place being 1,199. The numbers at the other yards were: Franklin, 887; Bryant, 740; St. Mary's 566. No accidents of any kind were reported.

The playground commission has asked for donations of old toys and dead tennis balls for the equipment of the yard. The toys will be used in the sand piles while the dead tennis balls will be utilized in playing catch. Any persons wishing to donate these articles may leave them with Herbert E. Parker, at the Y. M. C. A. building.

RECORDER DISMISSES ACTION AGAINST WEISS.

Recorder Charles M. Dolliver dismissed the case against Henry Weiss, of the borough, brought by the S. P. C. A. in the borough court this morning. Recorder declared that there was not sufficient evidence to warrant a verdict of guilty.

The action of Recorder Dolliver was justified by Colonel Dayton, of Newark, the president of the New Jersey S. P. S. A., in a letter to the borough magistrate. Mrs. S. G. Van Hoesen, of Fanwood, the local agent for the S. P. C. A. appeared against the defendant but she arrived in the court room just as Recorder Dolliver was reading the letter from Colonel Dayton and upon hearing the substance of the note she left. The charge upon which Mr. Weiss was brought to justice was preferred by Mrs. VanHoesen some time ago when she claimed that he had cruely treated his dog by killing is by shooting. The case has been postponed several times.

BOROUGH RECORDER SUSPENDS SENTENCE ON TWO DRUNKS

George Waldron of Pearl street, was arraigned before Recorder Chas. M. Dolliver in the borough court this morning for being helplessly drunk Saturday night. He was arrested by Marshal Eric Soule. Sentence was suspended with a warning.

John Higgins, of Stone street, took too much of the cheering cup Saturday night and consequently he was arrested and arraigned in the borough court this morning. The judge was lenient and suspended a sentence of sixty days in the Somerset county jail upon the offender.

REVILLE ELIGIBLE FOR FACTORY INSPECTOR.

In the lists of eligibles as factory inspectors returned by the Civil Service Commission, appear the names of Patrick J. Reville, of West Third street, this city, and former Assemblyman Augustus Schwartz, of Elizabeth. From these lists are to be selected by Commissioner Lewis T. Bryant, of the Department of Labor, seven inspectors. The appointments are to include four general inspectors, two inspectors especially equipped to deal with fire escapes and one for the installation of blower systems.

Want a Carrier of Mail.

Postmaster E. H. Bird has been advertising for bids for carrying the mail between the postoffice and the railroad station, the carrier who had the job, resigning the same. The bids will close with Mr. Bird next Monday, and it is expected that a carrier will be appointed soon afterward. There has always been more or less trouble keeping a man in this position, the men not being willing to work for the money received. This is largely due to the fact that the men bid too low for the job.

MRS. BETTIE FRANK AGED 80 YRS., DEAD

Mrs. Bettie Frank, aged 80 years, widow of Louis Frank, and mother of Mrs. Isaac Schwed, of Evergreen avenue, died last night at the home of the latter after a long illness. Mrs. Frank was a native of Germany, coming to this couhtry when a young woman. She had lived in New York since 1848 until five years ago, when she removed to this city, making her home with her daughter. She possessed a great many estimable qualities and had a large number of friends.

Surviving are three daughters and three sons. The daughters are Mrs. Isaac Schwed and Mrs. C. C. Goldsmith, of this city and Mrs. Isaac Lichtenstein, of Richmond, Va. The sons are Henry and Phillip Frank, of New York city, and Max Frank, of Detroit, Mich. The funeral will be held at the home of Mrs. Schwed, on Evergreen avenue, tomorrow noon at 12 o'clock, and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Solomon Foster, of Newark The burial will be in Cypress Hills cemetery, Brooklyn.

FIRST SERVICE AT NETHERWOOD HOME

The Netherwood Fresh Air Home was formally opened for the season yesterday afternoon with appropriate exercises. George A. Chapman presided and Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, pastor of the First M. E. church made the address, Special musical features in charge of Clifford A. Braider, included selections by the children's choir and bass solos by Raymond A. McGee.

In opening the service Mr. Chapman briefly reviewed the work the home has done and told of the plans for the future. With this latter in mind he made an appeal for subscriptions saying that $1,200 was needed to properly carry out the plans for this season. One twelfth of this amount was raised at the meeting. Rev. Dr. Anderson's address was brief and was along the lines of Mr. Chapman's remarks.

Rev. Mr. Anderson said in part, "Jesus Christ while on earth went about doing good and is doing it today through just such institutions as the Netherwood Fresh Air Home. It was He who said in as much as ye have done it unto the least of these My children, ye have done it unto Me. Christ shining by reflection is the light of the world and we are the reflectors. Another passage of scripture tells us that in speaking Christ said Follow Me which denotes that He wants us for His companions, to be His imitators."

The story of Gladstone's son was then told to show the trouble one can get into by imitating Young Gladstoe imitated Lord Beaconfield when such behavor was not tolerated, but it is well to imitate, especially when the one imitated has invited us to do so as Christ has. He closed with the quotation showing that He wants the boys that the world may be better and the girls for His pearls.

THEY SERENADED PASTOR AND HIS PRETTY BRIDE.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Allen, who were married June 29 at Wharton, N. Y., were given a lively serenade at the Baptist parsonage, South Plainfield, Friday, and during the festivities the bride and groom had an exciting time of it. A fire was built on the main street and made such a blaze, that the volunteer fire department had to be summoned to extinguish it. The fire laddies also turned the hose on the crowd to cool off its ardor.

There were more than one hundred serenaders in the party, equipped with brass drums and several cornets; also sleigh-bells. The bride and groom were carried from the porch of the parsonage, placed in a runabout, drawn by the serenaders, and given a ride around the village. On Saturday night the pastor entertained 100 villagers on his lawn.

Will Hold Open-Air Meeting.

The neighborhood open-air meeting which is being held Sunday evenings on Myrtle avenue, near Albert street, took place last night. The meeting is quite informal, so much so that it has been announced that men are not obliged to wear coats. Automobilists are invited to draw up to the curb and join in the service from their cars. Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church, gave a short talk on an outdoor subject last night being "The Rock Higher than Oneself."

John Walley Exiled.

John Callahan took the pledge for a year and John Walley who was arrested with Callahn for being drunk nd fighting, was banished from town by Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning.

YOUTH IS DYING; ANOTHER HELD

Joseph Hadley Found on Roadside With Bullet in Head and Linwood Hutchinson is Taken Into Custody.

Joseph Hadley, aged eighteen years, residing between New Market and Selton, is dying in Muhlenberg Hospital, where he was taken shortly after midnight, as the result of a bullet wound in the head which caused a compound fracture of the skull, and Linwood Hutchinson, aged fifteen years, an adopted son of Ralston Dunbar, who lives near the Hadley home, is locked up in the county jail at New Brunswick, awaiting the outcome of Hadley's injuries. Just how Hadley received his injuries is not definitely known. One probable version is that it was the result of an accident.

The story told by a neighbor is that Hutchinson had attended services at the Stelton Baptist church, early in the evening and on his way home near the farm of A. B. Summers, formerly of this city, met Hadley, who was riding his sister's bicycle and carrying a Winchester rifle. After exchanging a few words, Hadley is said to have remarked to his companion that he would put the wheel in the latter's yard and then they "would go down the road and shoot them dogs." What dogs were meant is not known.

While walking over to Dunbar's farm, where the wheel was to be left, it is said, that one of the leggings worn by Hadley became unfastened and he asked Hutchinson to hold his gun while he refastened it. After fixing the leggings, the gun was returned and it was then it is claimed that it went off accidently. Which one of the boys was responsible for the discharging it is not known.

The bullet entered Hadley's face along side the nose and he fell by the roadside. Hutchinson, according to the police, fled to his home and did not mention the incident to any member of the household until Prosecutor Booream and a county detective arived there early this morning to arrest him.

It was about 10 o'clock when Michael Moynihan, of Dunellen, in company with a young woman friend, in an auto passed along the Stelton road bound for Dunellen. Just at the bend in the road at the Port Reading railroad crosing the searchlights on his car revealed to him the body of a man alongside the road in a pool of blood. He stopped his car and returned to the spot and there found Hadley in an unconscious condition.

Mr. Moynihan hurried to Rose Lawn Farm, the home of Frederick Lauterbach, where he telephoned Dr. Thomas C. Platt, of Dunellen. After summoning the ambulance from Muhlenberg Hospital, Moynihan notified Prosecutor Booream at New Brunswick. Dr. Platt arrived within a short time in his automobile and gave the injured man temporary aid. He found a fracture of the skull.

Acting under instructions from the prosecutor, Mr. Moynihan took charge of the rifle and bicycle and then awaited the arrival of Mr. Booream and the detective. It was not long before it was learned that Hadley had been out with Hutchinson and the officials went to the Dunbar home and got the boy out of bed.

It is reported that he told the prosecutor the story as given here.

Hadley was recognized and identified by his brother George Hadley, who had been aroused by the neighborhood excitement, and he accompanied the victim in the ambulance to the hospital. This morning Prosecutor Booream, who was called to this city by an automobile accident in which a colored man was killed visited Hadley at the hospital. The latter had not regained consciousness and he was unable to get the victim's version of the accident.

Hutchinson, it is said, was formerly in a home for boys and was taken from there and adopted by Mr. Dunbar. Both Hutchinson and Hadley were employed on respective farms and so far as known were always the best of friends.

Schernberger Recovering.

George Schernberger, of Elizabethport, a laborer employed by the New Jersey Central, who was struck by an express train at the North Avenue station a week ago Saturday, is so much improved at the hospital that he will be able to return home in a few days. Schernberger suffered a fracture at the base of the scull and scalp wounds, and when received at the hospital, the physicians did not believe he could live.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

Attend Our Great Annual July Clearance Sale

Unprecedented Bargains Will Be the Order Commencing Today and Lasting All This Week.

50 S. H. Green Stamps Free to All Who Make a Purchase Amounting to $1.00 or More.

This is the Fifth anniversary of the installation of S. H. "Green Trading Stamps" in this store. During the past five years we have placed in the homes of our patrons thousands of dollars worth of ornaments, luxuries and utilities, without cost to them. We have done this as a means of advertising. We have thus shared our profits with patrons as a compliment for their trade and an inducement for them to pay us "Cash."

50 FREE STAMPS—THIS IS THE VALUABLE COUPON—50 STAMPS FREE

Present this coupon in our S. H. "Green Stamp" Premium parlor on third floor, where an attendant will mark it O. K. It will then entitle the holder to Fifty Free Stamps upon making a purchase of $1.00 or more and presenting the coupon at cashier's desk. These stamps will be in addition to those we will regularly give with the purchase—Void after July 15. "A. E. Force & Co." Press.

EMBROIDERIES.

35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c

10c embroideries for.....5c

20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for.....10c

25c nainsook, 36 inch wide, for 18c

20c white goods, checks and figures 10c

49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c

69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c

$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers.....89c

$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 75c

WASH GOODS.

9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c

12½c percales for 9c

10c printed lawns.....6c

25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for.....15c

50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c

15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c

$1.50 Rugs for 98c

$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.

Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF

$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50

$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c

$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for.....$2.98

$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for.....$7.50

$25.00 White Serge Suits for.....$15.00

$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50

Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.

$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.....$4.49

$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.....$2.98

50c Men's Fine Hose for.....25c

59c Men's Negligee Shirts for.....39c

25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for.....12½c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c

25c Huck Towels for.....15c

12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c

25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c

59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c

12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.

69c Cotton Diaper.....49c

12½c Pillow Cases.....9c

22c Table Oilcloth for....15c

$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c

$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.

15c Misses' Hose.....10c

15c Boys' Hose.....10c

CORSETS.

$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c

$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c

$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49

50c Ladies' Gloves.....25c

guests this week of Rev. and Mrs. Cornelius Vandermel, at their home at Fish Kill, N. Y.

Mrs. Theodore Faulks and children, of Newark, are spending the summer with Mrs. Faulks' mother, Mrs. John Ringleman, on West High street.

The Misses Harriet and Annette Robinson, of Kansas City, Mo., are guests of the Misses Helen and Edith Baumgart, on West Main street.

Mrs. M. J. Hickey and daughters, the Misses Jennie and Helen, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Illingworth, at New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Daniel Plower and children, of Brooklyn, are spending the summer with Mrs. Plower's aunt, Miss Julia Burns, in Wall street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Anton, of Yonkers, have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. George Anton, Sr., on Bartine street.

Miss Clara Buchanan, of Rocky Hill, left this week for Cape May, where she expects to spend July and August.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brightbill, of Newark, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Amerman, on Nevius street.

Miss Elizabeth Runge, of Middlebush, is visiting the Misses Elizabeth and Sarah Reed, at Rocky Hill.

Mrs. Hugh Gaston, of West Cliff street, is a guest this week of Mrs. George Dalrymple, in Elizabeth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tobin are at Templeton, Mass., where they expect to spend the summer.

Miss Rose Mulligan, of Waterbury, Conn., is visiting Miss Bessie Moran, in Somerset street.

Wallace Perrine, of Raritan, is spending a week with relatives at Mauch Chunk.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

The Borough Council holds a meeting tonight to take up the matter of the franchise of the New York Telephone company. This business was to have been brought up last week but on account of there being no quorum at the meeting, the matter was laid over until tonight. It is expected that there will be a long discussion on the franchise subject by the mayor and councilmen at tonight's meeting.

The fair, which Washington Camp, No. 98, Patriotic Order Sons of America, has been holding during the past week at Wayside Park, has been delightfully successful in every way. The fair will be brought to a close tonight.

Henry Wrage is making expensive repairs to his home which he purchased recently on North avenue. Among the alterations is a large veranda.

Dr. Thomas C. Platt has been riding in his new Packard automobile for the past week. He purchased the machine last Saturday.

Mrs. Estelle Aiken, of Main street, has removed from the borough to Greensboro, N. C., her old home.

Charles H. Dodwell, of Washington avenue, is out again after being on the sick list for a few days.

Miss Margaret Ryan has returned from a visit with friends and relatives in Brooklyn.

Miss May Apgar has been entertaining Miss Florence Cooley, of Flemington.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton and children, have returned from Fords, where they visited Mr. Hamilton's mother, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Norman entertained their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Winzel, on Sunday.

Mrs. Willroy Voorhees, of Asbury Park, has returned home after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Susan Manning.

Miss Marjorie Voorhees is spending her vacation with her grandmother, Mrs. Susan Manning.

Edward and Frank Shanafay, of Jersey City, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Charles Thornton.

Howard Norman has returned from a visit with his sister, Mrs. Louis Winzel, of South River.

Mr. and Mrs. George Sandher entertained Harry Geerman, of Brooklyn, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller have gone to White Haven, Pa., for a few weeks' vacation.

Aloyious Gallagin, of South Amboy, is visiting his cousin, James Thornton.

Alfonso Zurlo is the possessor of a new bicycle given him by his father.

Leo Shanafy, of Jersey City, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton.

Mrs. Melvin Schrope and children are visiting friends in Easton, Pa.

Joseph Harlow has taken a position as water boy on the L. V. R. R.

Willie Shields is visiting his aunt in Jersey City.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The Township Committee now appears satisfied that it is necessary to have a night patrolman on duty regularly. Since marshal George Rabig resigned his position in June, the town has ben without regular police protection at night. The result has been that the streets have been pretty noisy of late and complaints have been made as to growler parties, etc. The committee decided on Friday night to have a man regularly for the job and engaged Hugh

---

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 125 North Ave.
E. H. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbie & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....213 Watchung Ave.
Joe Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....857 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
A. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
W. A. Laing.....148 W. Front St.
A. D. Mailleson..Fourth and Liberty Sts
M. Setli.....111 Park Ave
Jones & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. B. Olmstead....331 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Darthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
J. Mottley..Cor. E 3rd & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

Dunellen.....A. Peters
New Market.....Corlell
Board Brook.....Union News Co
Somerville.....Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains.....Frank Ansor
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Ansor
Netherwood..... W. B. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOMERVILLE.

The funeral of Mrs. Louise Dumont Elmendorf, widow of Peter Dumont Elmendorf, was held at her home Friday. Rev. C. C. Silvester, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, officiating. Mrs. Elmendorf, who was eighty-seven years old, was a daughter of Nicholas Voorhees, and was born and always lived on the estate where she died on Wednesday. She was a sister of J. Fred Voorhees, a lawyer, of Somerville and Peter Voorhees. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Harriet Trux, of Syracuse. The estate was recently sold to James B. Duke, with the reservation that Mrs. Elmendorf should be permitted to occupy the house during her lifetime. It adjoins the large Duke estate.

Superintendent M. E. Driscoll has resigned the position with the Raritan Woolen Mills and will live hereafter a retired life in Somerville. Mr. Driscoll has been connected with the Raritan Woolen Mills for the past fifteen years.

Because the law prohibiting public drinking cups, the new Ford Memorial Fountain, which has just been erected in front of the courthouse at a cost of $12,000, will have to be changed.

Mrs. Noyes R. Thomas and children, Eugenia and Randall, of Jersey City, are visiting Mrs. Thomas' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul VanDervoort, near Burnt Mills.

The Misses Fannie and Katherine Van Zandt, of Blawenburg, have been

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

WHEN U NEED
—EITHER—
ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER
JUST PHONE 1040
and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.
PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

SHERIFF SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between The Prudential Insurance Company of America, complainant, and Thomas Weston and others defendants. Fi. fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office in the Court House, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, lying and being in the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE NINETEENTH DAY OF JULY, A. D. 1911,

Beginning at a point in the southerly line of Watchung avenue formerly Broadway, which is distant three hundred and ninety-four (394) feet westerly from the point of intersection of the westerly line of East Ninth street with said southerly line of Watchung avenue, which point is also in the westerly line of the property now or formerly of M. E. Squires, thence southerly along the westerly line of said Squires land one hundred and fifty (150) feet to a corner in line of land now owned by Robert H. Cook, formerly Rutter; thence running along his line westerly and parallel with Watchung avenue sixty-nine (69) feet to land of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian Church; thence northerly along land of said church and parallel with the first course one hundred and fifty (150) feet to the southerly line of Watchung avenue; thence easterly along Watchung avenue sixty-nine (69) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Being the same premises conveyed to Elizabeth S. Nolen by deed of Isaac S. Melbourn and wife, dated June 10, 1881, recorded in book 149 of Deeds for Union County, pages 70, etc.

ROBERT J. KIRKLAND, Sheriff.
EDWARD D. DUFFIELD, Sol'r.
6 19 5 EDJ&DP Adv. Fees $19.32.

SHERIFF'S SALE—Union County Common Pleas Court. Peter Breidt City Brewing Company, vs. Antonio Corono and Lui (Lugi) Curcio, defendant. Fi. fa. de bo. et ter. On Docketed Judgment.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the Sheriff's office in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all that certain lot, tract or parcel of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, situate, slying and being in the borough of Fanwood, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE TWELFTH DAY OF JULY, A. D. 1911,

Beginning at a point in the middle of La Grande Avenue being a corner of land of Jacob Paritz and John A. Benner; thence south 47 degrees, 25 minutes east, along said Benner's land two hundred and fifty (250) feet, more or less to a boundary line of Jacob Paritz; thence northeasterly along said boundary line fifty (50) feet; thence north 47 degrees, 25 minutes west, two hundred and forty (240) feet, more or less to the middle of said La Grande avenue; thence southwesterly along the middle of said La Grande Avenue fifty (50) feet more or less to the place of beginning.

ROBERT J. KIRKLAND, Sheriff.
JOHN J. STAMLER, Att'y.
6 12 5m. EDJ&DP Adv. Fees $12.56

ESTATE OF EUGENE WIGGER Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrott, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the thirteenth day of May, 1911, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

JAMES P. POWERS, Administrator.
Fees $11.10 5 15 9 osw m

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.
'PHONE 449-J.

Absolute Sense of Security In the Purchase of a Mathushek & Son Piano

The seeker of a piano may come to our ware-rooms, choose from a large collection of proved instruments, and he will find the very best of Pianos and the best of Player-Pianos.

He will find our terms the fairest and most liberal.

In other words, we are determined that our piano patrons shall enjoy an ABSOLUTE SENSE of SECURITY.

This means more than good intentions. It means that WE first of all must possess that sense of absolute security in building the PIANOS TO BE SOLD.

THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD
with many valuable improvements
FACTORY DIRECT TO BUYER MEANS A LARGE SAVING.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.
No. 310 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1365
SPECIAL NOTICE—High grade and artistic tuning and repairing Pianos and Player-Pianos by factory experts.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS
FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.
TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

July Clearance Sale

This July Clearance Sale is the Money-Saving Event of the Entire Year in its Bountiful and Practically Limitless Possibilities for Effecting the Most Worth-While Economies.

25c Sox for 15c—Plain and fancy lisle sox light and madras shades; were 25c; sale..15c

$1.00 Pongee Shirts 79c—White and natural pongee shirts with single cuffs; regularly $1.00; sale.....79c

50c Negligee Shirts 35c—About 35 dozen negligee shirts, all sizes, but mostly odds and ends in patterns, including a full line of black and white neat stripes; 14 to 17; sale 35c

59c "Oye" Underwear 47c—Athletic style, coat shirt, knee drawers; made of mercerized figured soisette, with blue trimming; regular 59c; sale....47c

Pure Linen Heavy Huck Towels 15c—You don't often buy a heavy all linen huck towel at 15c. We bought these 60 dozen several months ago, but they were just delivered to us; the manufacturer is swamped with orders on them, so good are they for the price. You will buy them by the dozen when you see them; on sale.....15c

4-4 Anchor Muslin, yard...10c

4-4 Hill Muslin, yard.....8c

4-4 Brown Muslin, yard.....6c
(Regular 7½c).

4-4 Special 10c Cambric, yd.8c

Women's Rep Suits, odds and ends, white, blue and tan, formerly sold up to $6.50; on sale $1.98

Children's Dresses Values Up to $1.98; on Sale 98c.

About 100 children's colored Lawn, Gingham and Percale Dresses, ages 6 to 14, and 2 to 5; these are stylish and of good materials, well made, not all sizes in every style, but plenty to choose from; on sale 98c

Misses' and Women's Wash Skirts Sold up to $2.25; on sale $1.

Included in this lot are white India Linon Skirts and tan, blue and pink suiting; all are made to fit right, and at this price they should not last long; about 65 skirts in all; on sale..$1.00

$5.98 and $6.98 Pure Linen Tailored Suits at $4.85.

The best styles of the season, all are pure linen, well tailored, with plain or sailor collars; natural and half bleached; on sale $4.85

(Alterations free).

$2.98 and $3.98 Wash Dresses at $1.98.

All this season's styles, and good styles too, made just as you like them made; some of percales with large sailor collars, and button down the front with large pearl buttons; others of figured lawns and ginghams, with low and high neck: it's a bargain you will like; on sale.....$1.98

$3.98 and $4.98 Wash Dresses at $2.98.

About 50 Wash Dresses in figured Lawns. Batistes, Ginghams and Percales, some of the best sellers of the season; choose while choosing is best; on sale.....$2.98

50c Otis Underwear 39c—Best known 50c balbriggan, but shirts only; on sale.....39c

Columbia Shirts, all clean, fresh patterns this season; all sizes 14 to 17; on sale....79c

39c Tussah Silk 29c—10 shades in this popular silk for cool summer wear as well as for party Dresses.

35c Figured Seco Silk 25c—The styles are pretty, the saving worth while on such well known wash silks.

29c and 35c Wash Goods 19c—All this season's wash goods, embroidered dimities, tissues and satin striped lawns; reduced to almost half.

12½c and 15c Batistes 9c—Choose from about 40 pieces, they sold this season at 12½c and 15c; it's a good saving to buy.

25c Mercerized Pongee 19c—Several shades, but mostly in natural; that's the most wanted shade this season.

15c Ginghams at 11c—About 35 pieces dress ginghams, 32-inches and 27 inches wide; all standard make.

25 per cent Reduction on all Children's White Dresses.

You will appreciate this announcement most if you know our regular values; nothing is reserved; this reduction of one-fourth is on every child's white dress in the house; ages 6 to 14.

29c Striped Linons, yard...19c

25c French Ginghams, yd..19c

10c White Cross Bar Lawns, yard 7c

Move For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Regarding Wills

Come in and talk it over.

If during your lifetime you do not arrange for the disposition of your property, either by will or by trust agreement, the State steps in and disposes of it according to the laws of descent.

To avoid such a disposition, which may not be in accordance with your wishes, it is well to arrange for the drawing of your will in advance.

Fidelity Trust Co.,

NEWARK, N. J.,

makes a specialty of acting as Executor and Trustee of estates and will give you the benefit of its wide experience on the subject.

When Fidelity is to be named as Executor, we attend to the drawing of your will.

This insures the distribution of your property just as you desire it.

Store closes Fridays at 6 p. m. Store closes Saturdays at 1 p. m. Others days at 5:30 p. m.

Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. Plaut & Co.

"BEE HIVE" New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..						5
Brooklyn	1	..						1
Boston	7	..						7
Philadelphia	2	..						2
Chicago	2	..						2
Cincinnati	11	..						11
Pittsburg	3	..						3
St. Louis	6	..						6
AMERICAN
New York	2	5						7
Philadelphia	9	9						18
Boston	5	9						14
Washington	5	7						12
St. Louis	7	3						10
Cleveland	4	1						5
Chicago	12	2						14
Detroit	7	6						13

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	45	29	.608
Chicago	43	28	.606
Philadelphia	44	30	.595
St. Louis	42	31	.575
Pittsburg	41	31	.569
Cincinnati	31	40	.427
Brooklyn	27	45	.375
Boston	17	56	.233

Yesterday's Results.

There were no games scheduled in the National League yesterday.

Saturday's Scores.

New York, 5; Chicago, 2.
Pittsburg, 3; Brooklyn, 1.
St. Louis, 6; Philadelphia, 2.
Cincinnati, 11; Boston, 7.

Games Today.

Chicago at New York.
Pittsburg at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Philadelphia.
Cincinnati at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	50	24	.676
Philadelphia	49	25	.662
Chicago	37	33	.529
New York	38	35	.521
Boston	38	35	.521
Cleveland	36	42	.462
Washington	37	48	.360
St. Louis	20	53	.274

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 5; Chicago, 2.
Cleveland, 1; Philadelphia, 0.
Washington, 7; Detroit, 6.
Boston, 9; St. Louis, 3.

Saturday's Scores.

Chicago, 5; New York, 2.
Chicago, 7; New York, 0.
Philadelphia, 9; Cleveland, 4.
Detroit, 7; Washington, 5.
St. Louis, 7; Boston, 5.

Games Today.

New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Cleveland.
Washington at Detroit.
Boston at St. Louis.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	49	25	.662
Baltimore	48	28	.632
Toronto	42	34	.553
Montreal	33	35	.485
Jersey City	32	37	.464
Buffalo	31	36	.462
Newark	26	42	.382
Providence	26	50	.342

Yesterday's Results.

Newark, 6; Baltimore, 0.
Jersey City, 7; Providence, 0.

Saturday's Scores.

Baltimore, 4; Newark, 2.
Providence, 5; Jersey City, 3.
Rochester, 9; Montreal, 0.
Montreal, 7; Rochester, 0.
Toronto, 6; Buffalo, 4.
Toronto, 10; Buffalo, 3.

Games Today.

Providence at Newark.
Baltimore at Jersey City.
Rochester at Buffalo.
Montreal at Toronto.

O'Loughlin, of Elizabeth, who will begin duty on the night of the 15th.

Roy Smalley, who has been detained at home for a week by illness, is improving and expects to return to his position within a day or two.

James Corrona, who has been taking a two weeks' vacation, has returned to his position with the Weiler-Moulton Co., of Plainfield.

Frederick Mills, who has been visiting friends in town, has returned to his home in New York.

The weekly meeting of the B. Y. P U. was held last night in the parlors of the church.

The Misses Barry have been entertaining friends from out of town over Sunday.

ENTERS HIS HUNDREDTH YEAR, CONTINUES WORK.

George Clinton Payne, of Newark, Saturday entered upon his hundredth year of life still hearty in spirits and body, and still hard at work. He did not have any particularly large celebration in honor of the occasion, because he's too busy.

Mr. Payne is descended from Revolutionary stock on both sides, and numbers among his ancestors Robert Treat Paine, one of the Massachusetts signers of the Declaration of Independence. Members of Mr. Payne's family were long-lived, but, Mr. Payne is the last of the old generation.

For a man of his age, Mr. Payne has a remarkably clear memory, and has exact command of dates and events of the past.

When asked how he stood the warm weather, Mr. Payne said that he preferred it to winter.

ELKS' NEW BUILDING READY.

New York, July 10.—The new home of New York Lodge, No. 1, B. P. O. E., is ready for occupancy of the members when they return from their convention at Atlantic City. This will be on July 17. The immense fourteen-story structure, which is considered the most palatial headquarters of any lodge of the B. P. O. E., was informally thrown open for inspection Saturday afternoon. The building without the furnishings cost $1,250,000.

The principal feature of the new building is the lodgeroom. It is larger than the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. The new home has at the disposal of visiting members 260 rooms with bath. There will be two roof gardens, each opening from the cafe, which extends the full width of the building. The structure occupies a plot 100 feet square. It is built mainly of granite, marble and limestone.

For Comfort in Church.

Asbury Park, July 10.—Rev. Lester G. Leggett, pastor of the First Congregational church, wants to see the members of his congregation comfortable at the services. Yesterday he invited the men to leave their coats at home and the women are requested to dispense with hats. He declares that to properly enjoy the religious services and the music, the hearers must be comfortable.

—John Gifford, the farmhand from Warrenville, who fractured his leg by falling off a wagon at the latter place recently, is slowly improving at the hospital.

Not Open Friday Night. Close at 1 p. m. Saturday.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

July Sale

The July Sale IDEA is almost as old as advertising itself. Almost every store has some kind of July Sale, although some sales are better than others.

We respect the July Sale as an institution and we believe it should be perpetuated, but we believe, also, that it is the duty of every LIVE STORE to see that the July Sale idea doesn't FALL INTO A RUT.

We are going to hold a July Sale, but it won't be like the usual run of such events. This year's July Sale at the Bamberger store will be conducted along broader lines than usual. It will be a big, HELPFUL event in which every member of the family and EVERY FAMILY can participate. It will be a new fashioned July Sale conducted on old fashioned integrity principles.

We have ever so many surprises in store for you and if you will watch our "ads" for the next three weeks you will have a better opinion of this store than ever.

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

NEWARK N.J.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)

217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

TIMBO'S
Stock for Smokers

Romeo and Juliets, La Carolinas, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merrails & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampa makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles.

133-135 North Avenue.

Central R. R. News Stands.

You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers. English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.

Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.

Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

THIS MEANS YOU

may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 10c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH

(Successor to Henry Liefke.)

BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY

201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728

Orders delivered at short notice

KODAKS

Complete line of Photo Supplies

Printing and Developing

AT DOANE'S

115 Park Ave.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles

KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS

P. O. Box 326. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS

110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S

LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."

94 Somerset St.

Telephone—781.

The Great July Sale Now In Progress

OFFERS UNQUESTIONABLY THE MOST PHENOMENAL BARGAINS OF THE ENTIRE YEAR.

Between our anxiety to lessen our stocks to the minimum prior to inventory and the dispersal of manufacturers and importers surplus stocks at radical concessions, we can nautrally offer our patrons wonderfully attractive bargains. Every department in the house feels the exhilerating force and impetus of this gigantic sale. It is titanic in its scope, comprehending thousands of dollars worth of the season's most desirable merchandise for both the person and the home.

Splendid values are also offered in:

Ribbons, Gloves, Handkerchiefs, Silks, Laces, Trunks and Bags, Dress Goods, Wash Goods, White Goods, Linings, Veilings, Umbrellas, Stationery, Fancy Art Work Materials, Men's Wear, Shoes, Small Leather Goods, Boys' Clothing, Hats and Caps, Embroideries, Trimmings, Upholstery Goods, Knit Wear, Corsets, Shoes, Waists, Parasols, Toilet Goods, Ladies' Neckwear, Millinery, Notions, Jewelry.

And these important trade events join in with the great July sale movement:

Sale of Hosiery for men, women and children.
Sale of French and domestic undermuslins.
July sale of new blankets (Reserved until next December).
Sale of sheets, pillow cases and bed spreads.

Our great July Sale of women's outer apparel, waists and allied lines will continue with reductions that range as far down as one-half and more.

Mail Orders Quickly and Carefully Filled.

Printed Lists of Sale Items in Detail Sent Upon Request.

711 TO 721 BROAD ST. NEWARK.

All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

A Camping Necessity—The Caloric

WE SOLD AND SHIPPED FIVE CALORICS TO CAMPERS LAST WEEK

Your time is all your own, for pleasure, if you have a Caloric Fireless Cooker in your Camp Outfit.

Just put your food in the Caloric in the morning and when you come back to camp at night a fine hot, sumptuous dinner is ready to serve.

Now as an example of how easy it is to cook with a Caloric:
One user has three boarders and commutes each day.
She prepares the food for dinner and puts it in the Caloric in the morning before she leaves.
At night the dinner is piping hot and thoroughly and well cooked.
See how easy it would be for you to go off hunting, fishing or tramping and not be bothered with the worry of getting meals ready when back at camp.
Let us show you a Caloric and tell you all about it.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

SISTERS BRIDES AT DOUBLE WEDDING.

A double wedding in which two sisters were the brides, took place Saturday morning at St. Peter's church, New Brunswick, Monsignor John A. O'Grady officiating. Miss Elizabeth Dunn was married to Claude H. Reed, of Rahway, and Miss Rose Dunn to William F. Horn, of New Brunswick. Miss Elizabeth was married first, the other couple acting as the attendants at this wedding. Upon this ceremony being performed the couples exchanged places and the second wedding was performed. Miss Elizabeth Dunn wore a white embroidered gown trimmed with baby Irish lace. A reception followed at the home of the brides' mother.

Miss Bernadette Duschesne, of Regent street, left Saturday for Gloversville, N. Y., where she will visit relatives for a month or more.

Ensign and Mrs. Hopkins, formerly of this city, but now of Boston, have returned, after visiting Captain and Mrs. S. A. Hewitt, of the Salvation Army.

—Philip Fatis, the Italian of East Fourth street, who was burned about the hands and thighs from matches which were ignited in his pocket by a bunch of keys, is much improved at the hospital and no serious consequences are expected.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.
Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).
Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 10 In American History.

1447—Date sometimes assigned for the birth at Genoa of Christopher Columbus, discoverer of America.

1780—French army and fleet under Rochambeau reached America to fight for the colonists.

1889—Julia Gardner Tyler, widow of President John Tyler, died; born 1820.

1890—President Harrison signed the bill for the admission of Wyoming into the Union.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:28, rises 4:35; moon sets 4 a. m.; moon farthest south and lowest; 8:09 a. m., eastern time. full moon in constellation Sagittarius; sun's declination, 22 degrees 14.5 minutes north of celestial equator.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 10, 1911.

PLAY FOR TWO CUPS AT PARK GOLF CLUB

The weekly competition for the President's and golf club cups, together with the women's competition, nine holes, were the only two events scheduled at the Park Golf Club, Saturday afternoon, but they attracted a large field and some excellent scores were returned. In the competition for the President's and golf club cups, there were four players tied for second place with a net score of 86. A. M. Morrell won first honors for the President's cup, while Dr. H. K. Carroll J. B. Betts were tie for first place for the scratch cup and A. M. Morrell drew the remaining points. The cards:

A. M. Morrell, 100, 21-79; Dr. H. K. Carroll, 93, 7-86; H. L. Moodey, 115, 29-86; J. V. Beekman, 107, 21-86; J. B. Betts, 93, 7-86; Harold Serrell, 107, 17-90; N. H. Morrison, 113, 22-91; C. B. Morse, 110, 15-95; Oliver B. Hill, 124, 20-104.

These cards were returned in the women's competition:

Miss Bess R. TenEyck, 63, 21-42; Miss Harriet Shreve, 65, 18-47; Miss May Shreve, 62, 14-48; Mrs. F. W. Jones, 58, 10-48; Miss Grace A. Ten Eyck, 59, 6-53; Mrs. William Powell, 84, 29-55.

Clarence Pullen, a seaman on the U. S. S. Washington, which is now in New York harbor, is spending his seven days' furlough at the home of his aunt, Mrs. P. C. Johnson, of Plainfield avenue.

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Warm Weather Needs

Men's Underwear

Cool comfortable summer underwear in all the popular makes. Balbriggans at 25c and 50c. B. V. D. at 50c. Porosknit at 50c.

Scrivens at 75c. A special lot of athletic shirts and knee drawers in cros bar nainsook, at 29c and 39c a garment.

Parasols

Every style, shape and color combination is represented in the splendid showing. Plain Pongee in black, white and colors. Tan color Pongee, with hemstitched borders in checks, plain colors and Persian effects, blue and white and black and white styles in checks, plaids, polka dots and rings. Some pretty striped taffeta styles, with fancy Persian borders. The prices range from .....98c to $5.00

Children's Parasols—In plain color taffeta, plain tan pongee with colored border; from. ..39c up to $1.25

Toilet Requisites

In this department you'll find everything of the best and the prices are most reasonable. Toilet Soaps, Perfumes, Toilet Water, Tooth Paste. Tooth Powder, Face Powder, Cold Cream, Talcum Powder and Peroxide. The following well known makers are represented: Colgate's, Mennen's, Vantine's, Roger & Gallet, Hudnut's, Packer's, Babcock's, Woodbury, Lyons, Allen's, Dagget & Ramsdell, Jurgens, Pears, etc., etc.

Fine Wash Fabrics in the July Sale

AT 8½c A YARD

fine printed lawns, in dots, figures, stripes and floral effects; worth 12½c.

AT 15c A YARD

"Flaxon," the queen of wash fabrics, very fine and sheer, a splendid variety of prety designs; regular 20c.

AT 19c A YARD

Imported Irish dimities, handsome goods that sold regularly for 29c.

AT 15c A YARD

40-inch fine figured lawns with border, and 32-inch extra quality silk finished mull with border; were 29c a yard.

AT 10½c A YARD

Fine quality batiste in an endless variety of web designs and printed cross bar dimities; worth 19c.

AT 15c A YARD.

Foulards in all the wanted colors, in dots and figures; some with border; 27 inches wide; were 19c a yard.

AT 8½c A YARD

Fine dress ginghams in checks, plaids and stripes; equal to what most stores charge 12½c for.

Women's Underwear

Fine derby ribbed vests in cotton, lisle and silk; plain and fancy trimmed at prices ranging from ...10c to $1.00

Ribbed Pants, Umbrella and tight knee styles at .....25c and 50c

Union Suits with umbrella and tight knee pants.....50c, 75c, $1.00

Handsome White Dresses

A lot of manufacturers' samples of beautiful white dresses; made of very fine quality batiste; high and low necks, kimono sleeves, beautifully trimmed with lace and embroidery; many in the lot worth up to $12.50; sale price $2.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

The Wayne Cedared Papered Wardrobes

"Sold exclusively in this city by us."

Are better than a cedar chest. They keep your clothes free from moths, dust and wrinkles. The "Wayne Wardrobe" is made of tough, durable paper, impregnated with the delicate aromatic odor of pure red cedar, an odor that is repugnant to the moth family. Yet that odor does not cling to the clothes, as is the case with tar or moth balls, and not only for storing clothes but used in the bedroom every day of the week, every week of the month and every month of the year.

"Wayne Wardrobes" are made in ten sizes and range in price from 50c to $1.50.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

PERSONAL.

Dr. P. B. Cregar, of Grant avenue is spending a few days at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Moore of West Fourth street, are sojourning at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Vail, of Norwood avenue, have been sojourning at Sea Girt.

Raymond D. Carver, of the borough, has returned from an extended stay in the south.

Mr. and Mrs. and William Clifton, of the West End, are spending the week at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim M. Vail, of East Sixth street, have been spending some time at Sea Girt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thorn, of East Scond street, are parents of a boy, born to them today.

Miss Myra Emmons, of Prospect avenue, has returned from a two weeks' visit in Bayville, Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ishmael Nash, of DeLacy avenue, are entertaining relatives from Brooklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. Lemuel Smith, of Somerset street entertained relatives from Prooklyn, over the week end.

The Misses Maizie and Katheryn Gray, of East Second street, are spending a week at Old Orchard, Me.

Miss Loretta Nolen, of Trenton, returned yesterday after a week's visit with the Misses Anna and Mary M. McCullough, of Steiner place.

Mrs. Louis Beekman, of the borough, who has been in the hospital under treatment, is improving slowly.

Mrs. J. E. Waldorf, of Crescent avenue, left yesterday for Chicago, where they will remain for the summer.

Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Goodrich and son, Carter, of West Seventh street will leave on the New Amsterdam on July 18 for a trip abroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thorn, and their son, of East Second street, are registered at the Kittatiny House, Delaware Water Gap. They will return to this city next week.

R. Morris Adkin, of this city, took his daughter, Frances, to White Plains, N. Y., today, where she will pay a visit. At the Associated Charities Building there she will be met by her cousin, Elizabeth Hort, aged about seven years, who is the daughter of Dr. Hastings H. Hort, of the Child Helping Department of the Russell Sage Foundation.

S. R. Walsh, of Greenwood Lake, N. Y., made a business trip to this city Friday, for Sheriff C. H. Ten Eyck, of Orange county. After transacting his business Mr. Walsh was shown about town by friends whom he regaled with stories of the splendid vacation opportunities his home offers and the mammouth catches made by visiting disciples of Isaac Walton.

—Use Press want ads.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The William N. Runyon Bible Class of the Park Avenue Baptist church visited the Eighth Avenue Rescue Mission, New York City, last night.

Under the auspices of the Junior Aid Society of the St. Peter's Lutheran church, an ice cream festival will be held at the church, Grove street and Mercer avenue, Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Services will be held at the Netherwood Fresh Air Camp, this evening at 8 o'clock. The leader will be Grove P. Hinman, of this city. There will be special music by the children's choir. The public is invited.

"Ransom and Restitution," was the subject of a free Bible lecture given in the Building Trades Council Hall, 204 West Front street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by J. Edgar Gray, under the auspices of the International Bible Students' Association.

Dr. J. W. Weddell, who is supplying this month at the Park Avenue Baptist church was one of the attendants at the great Endevaor convention at Atlantic City, and will speak Sunday night next on "The Spirit of Christian Endeavor." Some of the songs of the convention will be rendered. A welcome to all.

"Restitution of the things spoken by Holy Prophets," Acts 3;23, was the theme of J. Edgar Gray, of the Intrenational Bible Students' Association in Building Trades rooms yesterday The speaker told of the good things God has in store for all who love Him, I Cor. 2:9. Next Sunday the subject will be "Our Lord's Return; how it wil occur and what He will do."

Proctor's New Bill.

The new show announced for the first half of this week at Proctor's theatre, comprises many fine acts Harcourt, Babcock & Co., will present the dramatic sketch, "The Parting of the Ways;" the Yankee Comedy Four, a quartet of foolish-funny comedians, would make a brass monkey laugh; Sanns & Sanns, a duo of classy girls, who can sing and dance and Ward Baker, a wonderful chap in an entertaining way, with the best comedy and dramatic motion pictures. It is expected that the Coronation pictures will be shown this week.

Rise and Fall.

A boys was driving a donkey and cart which belonged to his widowed mother, when he was accosted by a snobbish young man, who, wishing young lady who accompanied him, said,

"Watch me take a rise out of this boy."

He shouted to the boy, "I say, do you think you mother would sell me that donkey?"

The boy took a good look at him and answered: "Do you think your mother could keep two?"

It was pleasing to see that the young lady smiled.—Ideas.

—Use Press want ads.

ABOUT SMART FOOTGEAR.

Perhaps the most startling thing in evening slippers at present, although it is no longer a novelty, is the red heel, to which French women seem to be greatly attached.

The quesion as to whether one is to wear or not wear the red heel need not, apparently, present many difficulties. Such a bit of color is so conspicuous that nearly every woman will have her opinion about it without taking time for much consideration and there are so many other attractive styles in footgear that those who decide against it will not feel that they have suffered any great loss.

The choice of heels is, however, somewhat complicated by the possibility of having them in some contrasting color less conspicuous than red. White heels on black slippers or any other combination of colors that is harmonious with one's gown may be worn.

Women who do not care for fantastic effects, but follow the safe and excellent plan of wearing slippers to match their gowns will generally be able to get what they want in the shops with having them made to order. Helen pink is likely to be a good deal in demand.

For slippers to be worn with many gowns, apart from black, nothing is more satisfactory than gold or silver. They harmonize with any color and, in these days of metallic trimmings, there is every chance of their often seeming to have been selected especially for the costumes they accompany.

THAT SMALL PORCH.

Paint the floor gray.

Spread a green matting rug.

Have plenty of linen-covered cushions.

Ferns wherever possible give a cool effect.

Hanging baskets will thrive if there is not too much sun.

They must be well watered twice a day.

A fern ball, if properly cared for, will make a fraceful mass of foliage.

Have a pot of blooming migonette, for it is said to drive the flies away.

Thus treated even a small porch will be an inviting place for relaxation.

MODERN NATURE LORE.

To write of the wonders of Nature
Is now the acceptable dodge;
To trace the Nannook's nomenclature,
And learn where the Lorises lodge.
To set forth the habits of rabbits,
To sum up the porcupine's spines,
To mention the uses of mooses and gooses,
And tell how the ocelot dines.
To teach us to know the gorilla,
And how to tell llamas from lambs
About what to chin the chinchilla,
And how best to entertain clams.
To post us on pigeons and widgeons,
And tell how to make beavers beave,
Or how to inveigle an eagle or beagle
His highest and best to achieve.
To state all the traits of the wombat;
To show why the goulon and vole
Are always engaged in a combat—
These stories I swallow down whole.
But still with two questions I wrangle,
And help will not come at my call;
Why an angleworm hasn't an angle,
And a mongoose is no goose at all!
—Carolyn Wells in Harper's Weekly.

"My son is thinking of becoming a physician."

"A practising physician?"

"What other kind is there?"

"The kind that writes wise articles for the magazines."—Louisville Courier.

Bilter (at servants' agency)—Have you got a cook who will go to the country?

Manager (calling out to girls in next room)—Is there anyone here who would like to spend a day in the country?—Life.

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R
Successor to
Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's. North avenue.. 'Phone 304.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel 1306-W

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in the loss of our beloved brother, Mr. Michael Crowley.

Signed, John Crowley and Family.

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO
R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Watch it for "Health Hints" and information about his work.
Treatments by appointment only

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION
PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK
At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit reference and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

BOATING AT SOUTH PLAINFIELD
736

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

EXCURSIONS.

New Jersey Central
THE MERMAID
To ASBURY PARK
and Other
North Jersey Coast Resorts
Through Vestibuled Express Pullman Buffet Parlor Cars and Coaches Scranton to Point Pleasant.
Close connection for New York
RUNS DAILY Except Sundays
IN BOTH DIRECTIONS
Until September 6, Inclusive
Leave Plainfield 2:11 p. m.
See ticket agts. for detailed schedule
6-26 7-3-10-17-24-31 8-7-10-14-21-28

UP THE HUDSON
POPULAR EXCURSION
TO
West Point and Newburg
Every Wednesday
June 28 to Sept. 13, incl.
VIA
NEW JERSEY CENTRAL AND HUDSON RIVER DAY LINE STEAMER
"ALBANY"
Round Trip Tickets 1.50
Direct connection between Train and Steamer at Pier 1, adjoining Passenger Station, Jersey City. Train leaves Plainfield 7:39 a. m.
6-30 7-3 10 12 17 19 24 26 31

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

Plainfield in . . . . The Olden Days.

Re-printed from The Weekly Constitutionalist

October, 23, 1873.

The annual meeting of the Union County Bible Society will be held in the Methodist church of this city on Tuesday next the 28th inst. The exercises will commence at 2 p. m. and 7½ p. m. The public are invited to attend and thus show their love for the id Bible and their desire to aid in all the efforts that are made to spread the knowlegde to the ends of the earth. Rev. Dr. Vincent, of this city, Rev. Dr. Sheldon ond others are expected to address the meeting.

October, 30, 1873.

Specie Payment—Messrs Pope Bros., our popular Dry Goods merchants are the first merchants in our city to resume, "Specie payment." They are now giving silver in change to their customers. At their establishment the ladies may depend on being suited with their purchases.

General Sherman has purchased five acres of land at Orange Mountain, N. J., and proposes erecting a handsome residence adjoining that of General McClellan.

November 6, 1873.

The "cottontails" are being rapidly thinned out in this section by the hunters. They are not as plentiful this season as usual. Quail and woodcock are also scarce.

Mr. Alonzo DeCamp, of oBund Brook, while out hunting near Chester, on Saturday last, had the good fortune to shoot a splendid specimen of silver gray fox. Reynard is now in the hands of our taxidermist friend Jacob VanWinkle.

Mr. Jacob Voehl has purchased the property on the corner of Somerset and Harmony streets, North Plainfield, known as the Barney Coleman property, seventy feet front, for $5,000, on which he proposes erecting a handsome three story brick building, 24x64 to be used by him as a bakery.

A fine observatory has been erected on the brow of the mountains back of the residence of John Taylor Johnston, Esq., from which a view may be obtained of the surrounding country for miles around.

November 20, 1873.

Mr. L. M. French, our young carriage manufacturer, has just completed a handsome omnibus for tarties in Elizabeth, which reflects credit upon his establishment and which is an evidence of the superior quality of work turned out by him from the fact that such an order

A passenger train on the Central Railroad ran into a flock of sheep, which was crossing the track at Finderne last Friday. One of the frightened innocents jumped on the pilot of the engine and remained there until the train arrived at Somerville, when the good natured engineer of the train placed it in the baggage car, but the shock had been to great for the lamb and in a few minutes gently it laid down and died.

November 27, 1873.

We acknowledge the receipt of a pheasant presented us by Mr. Alonzo DeCamp. "Lou" shot the "bird" on his brother "Righ's" farm at Chester. We are informed that there are plenty more of this kind of game there, but we advise Mr. DeCamp, Sr., to lookafter them a little when "Lou" again visits him. As far as we are concerned we will accept the birds(?) when presented to us, at all times and under all circumstances.

Evona—This delightfully situated little hamlet, between Plainfield and Dunellen, still continues to grow in spite of "hard times." We notice that several handsome houses are in course of erection there and also learn that others are contemplated. Mr. Daniel Manning has sold his house and lot on Clinton avenue, south of the depot, to New York parties. Mr. Manning proposes to commence the erection of another handsome French roof dwelling near by. Other buildings are also contemplated in the vicinity in the spring. Evona is a growing place and due creidt and praise should be accorded to the "founders" of the same, among whom are Messrs Jeremiah Manning, Jacob Kirkner, W. Fuller and Cook Bros.

Wanted—Three or four women wanted to assist and cut carpet rags. Steady employment the whole winter. Apply to George DeMeza, Somerset street.

Hon. Joseph W. Yates, who has for the past two weeks been sojourning in the State of Maine, has again arrived at his home in this city, looking and feeling much better for his trip.

Mr. S. C. Ryder, residing on Woodland avenue, had several turkeys and ducks killed by dogs on Sunday night week last.

ASBURY IS STIRRED BY COLORED PEOPLE.

Asbury Park, July 10.—That obstacles are in the way of erecting a group of bathing houses at Eighth avenue, where the negro population may bathe, seems to be the general impression today. It is understood that a movement is on foot to get out a temporary injunction from going ahead with the work.

The hotel-keepers and property-owners in the vicinity of Eighth avenue are averse to permitting the negroes to make their bathing headquarters there. It is said that they will make an effort to prove that real estate values will depreciate and that it will be detrimental to the best interests of the city to erect the group of fifty houses.

The decision of the beach commission has already aroused protest. The popular belief is that the negroes never did take advantage of the bathing privileges and that there never were more than a dozen bathing at one time even when they were permitted to use the Second avenue grounds.

Banished Heffernan.

Michael Heffernan, was arrested yesterday morning by Patrolman Sweeney after a tussle. Heffernan was given a suspended sentence by Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court last Thursday morning. This morning the court delivered a scathing lecture and banished Heffernan from town for a year.

Search for Fugitive.

The city police were asked last night to be on the lookout for Watson Phillips, colored, 40 years old, who yesterday afternoon shot and probably mortally wounded a companion in Rahway. When last seen Phillips was at Fanwood and headed this way, where it is said he has friends.

It's a Boy.

That smile of Armstrong Mulford's is due to the fact that he's a grandfather, a son having been born to Mr. and Mrs. William M. Streeton, of Woodland avenue, on Saturday. The chubby little fellow weighs nine pounds. Mrs. Streeton was formerly Miss Corine Mulford.

Mrs. Mulcahy's Funeral.

The funeral service of Mrs. Thos. Mulcahy was held this morning at St. Mary's church and was attended by a number of relatives and friends. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery. The pall bearers were John McCoy, Edward and John Strapp, Thomas Rowe, James Shannon and Patrick Flatley.

Watchung Firemen Defeated.

The Watchung Baseball Club defeated the Watchung firemen at Watchung Saturday afternoon in a one-sided game by the score of 14 to 3. According to "Mayor" Anderson this morning there were no riots after the gruelling contest.

Start From Silver Bay.

The Plainfield delegation at the Y. W. C. A. convention, which has been held for the past week at Silver Bay, Lake George, start from the lake this afternoon, returning to this city tomorrow. It is expected that a Silver Bay party will be held at the local association building next Monday night.

—Use Press want ads.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

Everything was reported in readiness for the start of the national elimination balloon race at Kansas City, Mo., today.

Two hundred and sixty-three horses were burned to death in a fire that destroyed the Dixon Transfer Company's stables, in Chicago.

King George visited the Roman Catholic college at Maynooth near Dublin; he was received by Cardinal Logue and Archbishop Walsh.

Maurice Hewlett's poetic play "Ariadne in Naxos," was produced in London by the Poet's Club; the autnor was warmly congratulated.

M. Fileaux, who flew from Paris to London with John B. Molsant, wrecked his Blerlot type aeroplane at Nassau Boulevard yesterday morning.

Two Italians were arrested in Buenos Ayres on suspicion of being anarchists; a search of their house showed it to be a regular bomb factory.

Officials of the Eureka County Bank, at Reno, Nev., were arrested on the charge of receiving deposits when the bank was known to be insolvent.

Friends of Borough President Gresser of Queens, believe the primaries this fall may have some bearing on his case, which is now before the Governor.

Two hundred and twenty-six Nobles of the Mystic Shrine from Galveston reached New York on the Mohawk, on their way to the annual meeting at Rochester.

Park Commissioner Stover, of New York, explained his inability to carry out the recommendations of the soil expert, for lack of money, the department being shorthanded.

Sister Madeline O'Brien, forty years directress of St. Joseph's Academy, Emmitsburg, Md., and one of the best known educators of women in this country, died at Emmitsburg.

The French Ambassador in Berlin, had a short conference with the German Foreign Minister on the subject of Morocco; an optimistic semi-official note announcing the conference was issued.

Two persons died from the heat in New York city, the highest temperature being 88 degrees and the average humidity 60; continued hot weather is predicted, with an increase of humidity.

John Bloom, superintendent of the Varuna apartments, New York, accused city detectives of taking the missing Stokes letters the night of the shooting, and the police investigation was renewed.

According to the report of Commissioner Tomkins of the Department of Docks and Ferries, of New York, the ferry receipts for 1910 showed an increase over those of 1909, while the expenditures decreased.

Postmaster General Hitchcock announced at Washington an increase in the salaries of rural free delivery carriers, to compensate them for the extra burden in case Congress approves his recommendations for a parcel post system.

The steamer Kershaw, of the Merchants' and Miners' Line, carrying freight and thirty-four passengers, from Boston to Baltimore, went ashore early yesterday on Shovelful Shoal Rip. The crew and passengers remained on board as the vessel is in no immediate danger.

RAHWAY NEGRO DYING OF A BULLET WOUND.

Percy Johnson, a negro, of Milton avenue, Rahway, was believed to be dying in the Elizabeth General Hospital today from the effects of a bullet wound in the left breast, near the heart. The police are looking for Watson Phillips, also a negro, living on the same street, who is charged with having done the shooting yesterday.

The two negroes quarreled last evening over some matter that nobody seems to know, and it is said that Phillips drew a revolver and fired point blank at Johnson, who fell mortally wounded.

Phillips fled to a little settlement called Picton, where trace of him was lost by the police.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME
is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.
You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.
Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
140 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 839-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-9
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence.
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 834-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094-Gramercy.

DIED.

FRANK—In this city, Sunday, July 9, 1911, Mrs. B. Frank.

Funeral services from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. I. Schwed, 1147 Evergreen avenue, on Tuesday, July 11, at 12 o'clock.

MANNING—On Sunday, July 9,1911, William H. Manning, aged 66 years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 521 East Third street,on Wednesday, July 12, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 10 2

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Plain cook. Apply 542 West Seventh street, evenings. 7 7 tf

WANTED — Girl for general housework. Apply 322 Clinton avenue. 7 7 3

WANTED—At once, white woman to wash and iron Mondays and Tuesdays. Apply 248 East Ninth street. 7 10 tf

WANTED—At once competent second girl, temporary position. Call 531 West Seventh street. 7 8 3

WANTED—Colored woman as laundress; plain work. E. H. Clevely, 179 North avenue. 7 10 3

IRISH washwoman for 3 days' work weekly. Write Red Top, Metuchen. 7 3 6

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Boy to work in drug store. Rowley's, 218 West Front street.

BOY wanted, must be able to take care horse. Cobb's, 146 East Fifth street. 7 10 3

WANTED—Thoroughly competent experienced bookkeeper to work on small set of books evenings. Address D., care of Press. 7 10 3

WANTED—Good, strong boy. Apply with, reference Kolb's, 112 West Front street. 7 8 3

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan, first mortgage. Louis A. Clement, lawyer, 211 North avenue. 7 3 6

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 2 16 tf

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 2 1 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms. 671 West Fourth street. 7 5 tf

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Andress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

LOWER part of double house, part improvements; $15; four room flat, 421 Sycamore street; colored people; six room flat, $14; stable to let; very low. Chas. H. Hand, Watchung avenue. 7 7 3

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 8 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—On Wednesday, pocketbook containing sum of money and trunk key. Owner took 7:25 train to New York and from there went to Fulton street subway station. Reward at this office. 7 7 3

LOST—Saturday evening, silver pocketbook, amythest top. Reward for return to Daily Press office.

LOST—A large maltese cat. If found please return to 1008 South avenue; reward.

LOST—Patent leather dash cover. Reward if left at Press office. 7 8 2

LOST—On main line trolley, between Plainfield and Westfield, pair of gold spectacles; reward if left at this office. 7 10 2

NOTICE—Fifty dollars reward will be paid for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of person or persons that have been destroying signs at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue, near Leland. 7 8 2

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

GRADUATE nurse wishes care of invalid, lady preferred. Address S. J. H., care Press. 7 8 3

WANTED—Washing and ironing to do at home. Miss Trott, 306 Filmore avenue. 7 8 2

GOOD laundress (white) would like to go out by the day or take wash home; reference. Address A. S., care Press. 7 8 3

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Fine farm, 104 acres, good potato soil, 50 large fruit trees, shade views of river, excellent 11-room house, large barn, 3 wagon houses, 3 chicken houses, corn crib; all good shape; price $10,800. Also 75-acre farm; best of soil, high elevation, 125 fruit trees, good 9-room house, 2 barns, wagon house, 2 chicken houses, brooder house, 3 hog houses, corn crib, including all machinery and tools; price $8,400. Owners will trade for Plainfield income property. Call Sammis, 20 West Main street, Somerville, N. J. 7 8 5

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724 7 1 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 23 tf

FAMILY ice box for sale; first class ice saver; in good condition; will sell cheap to quick buyer. Murray's auction room, 164 East Front street. 7 7 6

FOR SALE—Several chester white brood sows; also boar. Address box 116, New Market. 7 3 3

FOR SALE—16-foot oldtown canoe; also paddles. Box 137, New Market. 7 3 3

FOR SALE—Work horse. 8 Regent street. 7 10 3

RASPBERRIES for sale. Tel. 111-J. 7 10 3

FOR SALE—1 oak sideboard; extension table (6 ft.); oak chiffonier. Call morning 126 West Front street.

FOR SALE—A pony, harness and carriage. Inquire at 109 Summit avenue, Plainfield. N. J. 7 7 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that's all we ask 1 8 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 7 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 19 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

TO LET—Pleasant furnished rooms. 175 East Front street. 7 8 3

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth st. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 8 21 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

BACK TO HIS AUTOMOBILE

Senator Oliver's Experience in Discarding the Luxury Proves Very Far From Satisfactory.

No more will George T. Oliver, United States senator from Pennsylvania, endeavor to mix with the common people.

Senator Oliver's determination to return to the luxury of an automobile is due to his discovery that all men look alike to the motormen of street cars in Washington. Senator Oliver's auto had not come to take him home, and he stood in the street stamping his feet in the snow and impatiently waiting for a car. Presently one came bowling down the street at top speed. He commanded the motorman to stop by raising his hand, and, never dreaming that his senatorial mandate would be ignored, prepared to get aboard.

The car slowed down just sufficiently to deceive the senator, but the motorman was merely reducing speed a bit to get around a curve. Senator Oliver grasped the handle of the car, was promptly yanked off his feet, and the street was in a fair way of being swept of its snow by the immaculate clothing of the indignant senator when that individual came to the conclusion that he could not get aboard the car without inviting the legislature of Pennsylvania to name a successor to the late George T. Oliver. He released his hold on the handle, slid along the slippery pavement for a few feet, and delivered himself of a few choice remarks which would have shocked the parliamentary feeling of Vice-President Sherman.

"Do you know whom you passed?" a passenger asked the conductor.

"I suppose 'twas a senator, but his nickel don't look any bigger than any one else's when the car is late. This is one place where we can give the best of them the go-by, see."—Washington Times.

BIGGEST DAM IN THE WORLD

Reservoir to Cover 56.4 Square Miles and Hold 80,000,000,000 Cubic Feet of Water.

A dam larger than any now built or building in the world is to be constructed in connection with a mammoth irrigation enterprise which will soon be undertaken in the presidency of Madras, British India, known as the Cauvery reservoir project.

The project includes the construction of a huge masonry dam across the Cauvery river, for impounding the flood waters during the monsoon seasons, and the construction of a system of canals through large sections of the unirrigated deltaic region in order to distribute the flow.

There are now under irrigation in the Cauvery deltaic systems 1,003,000 acres, and the crop area will be increased by the new works about 473,000 acres.

The dam will be 6,352 feet in length and 202 feet from the lowest level of its foundations to the roadway on top and 206 feet to the top of its parapets. The height from the average level of the river bed to the roadway will be 173 feet, and the full level of the reservoir will be six feet less. In masonry it will contain 38,500,000 cubic feet.

The next three dams in size are the Assouan, in Egypt, with 19,000,000 cubic feet of masonry; the Croton in New York, 23,100,00, and the Olive Bridge dam in New York, 23,000,000.

It is estimated that 12 years will be required to complete the Cauvery dam, and that the cost, including the canals, $12,491,555. The area submerged by the impounded waters under the new project will be 54.6 square miles, and the effective capacity of the reservoir 80,000,000,000 cubic feet.

Londoners Foreigners in Scotland.

It came as a great shock to me to find that in Scotland the Londoner is regarded as a foreigner. I argued the point with my friends in Aberdeen, but all to no purpose. Nor was this the only shock I received. The people do not dress like Harry Lauder, and the corkscrew curls he affects is quite wrong. I experienced great difficulty in providing myself with a stick of the Lauder pattern, and then found that the best people do not carry them.

Also, they speak a strange language down there—one that does not resemble in the least the anaemic Scots tongue we heard in "What Every Woman Knows." This other is a broader, stronger, more formidable language altogether, as I realized when the guard on the train sat beside me and talked for twenty miles and I understood not a word.—London Graphic.

The Height of Accuracy.

C. D. Gibson was talking at his studio, in West Thirty-first street, about the historical accuracy of Alma Tadema's paintings.

"They do say," Mr. Gibson declared, "that Alma Tadema once painted a picture of an Assyrian bath wherein every bath towel was marked 'Nebuchadnezzar' in the corner in cuneiform characters."

Early Precedent.

The three witches were preparing their broth.

"You are funny people," said Macbeth, "to set up your kitchen out here on the blasted heath and prepare your supper in the rain."

"That's all right, Mac," replied the first witch. "We are suffragettes and don't believe in home cooking."

CHINESE COMPANY FINANCE

President Declares Himself Unworthy to Fill Position and Police Break Up Meeting.

Chinese company finance appears to differ from the English. At a shareholders' meeting of the Anhui railway and mining corporation the other day the hall was decorated with shrubs and emblems such as the dragon and phoenix.

The president's first announcement was that he proposed to elect another president, as he felt himself too stupid and incompetent to discharge his duties any longer—showing a distinct advance on the ordinary system, under which this proposal generally emanates from the shareholders.

A letter was then read from the vice-president to the effect that he was ill, but hoped the meeting would keep on sitting until he came. (Applause.)

What the financial position may be of the shares of the company we do not know, or the amount (if any) of the dividend, but both are probably low, as the meeting became disturbed and had to be brought to a close by a detachment of police and 30 soldiers.

(Note by our stock exchange expert. —Buy Chinese railways wherever obtainable; they appear to be honestly conducted.)—Black and White.

A PROPER PERSPECTIVE

An Italian Figures That Mankind, After All, Is Only a Wee Part of the World.

How little mankind signifies in the scheme of nature is shown by a rather morose calculation of the Italian Professor Zuccarini, who has figured out, among other things, that estimating the world's population as 1½ billion the whole human race at present living could stand comfortably shoulder to shoulder in an area of 500 square miles.

Taking the number of generations in the past 6,000 years as 200, the room taken up by them all on the above plan would only be half the size of Germany, or for the sake of comparison less than the area of the state of Colorado. To bury all the people on earth would need a graveyard little larger than that area.

If the dust left by each body be estimated at one-tenth cubic yard, which is a liberal estimate, it would cover only 40 square miles to a depth of about three feet. This certainly seems insignificant compared with the great coral reefs and other immense deposits built up by the shells of tiny infusoria.

Credit, Yes; Money, No.

James J. Hill does not like to give money to people who know little of business. The widow of a former friend came to him one day. She wanted a small loan with which to open a boarding house.

"Sorry, Mrs. Blank," said busy Mr. Hill, "but I can't let you have any money. Go and start your boarding house."

"But I can't without money, Mr. Hill. I must pay rent and buy furniture and many things."

"Nothing of the kind, Mrs. Blank," said Mr. Hill. "Go and get a good house; get a bill for six months' rent; furnish the house. Send bills to me. I'll pay 'em. Sorry I can't let you have any money. Good day, and good luck to you."—The Sunday Magazine.

Gave Overshoes as Alms.

Mayor William F. Connery of Lynn, Mass., came close to obeying the Scriptural injunction concerning charity to the very letter when he took off a pair of rubbers and gave them to an old man. The mayor was hurrying home for luncheon, when the old man asked him for 50 cents.

The mayor said: "I haven't it. What do you want it for?"

"I need a pair of rubbers," said the old man. The mayor saw that the man's shoes were full of holes.

"Here, take mine," said he, peeling off the footgear. They were an excellent fit, and the beggar departed loud in his praises.

Great Concrete Bridge.

There was recently opened for traffic at Aukland, New Zealand, a reinforced concrete bridge, which contains the largest masonry arch in existence. The structure consists of nine approach spans of from 43 to 81 feet, and a great central arch of 320 feet. The latter is hinged at the abutments and at the center.

It consists of two separate ribs, connected by cross struts, with a floor resting on slender columns built up from the ribs. Provision is made for a 24-foot roadway and two six-foot sidewalks.—Scientific American.

Matter of Breathing.

Teachers will be interested in the experiments of Dr. Noble, connected with the New York schools. He finds that many boys are vicious looking and bad because they do not breathe properly. One boy who scowled at his teacher and frequently played truant, after a course in breathing lessons became a bright, upright-looking boy and fond of school.

Much More Worth Inspecting.

"Johnny, you have been fighting. I can tell it by the look in your eye."

"Yes, mother, and you ought to see the look in the other boy's eye."—Stray Stories.

HAHNE & CO

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS ·

THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

Importance of Hahne & Co.'s Annual

JULY FURNITURE SALE

9 Days Already Gone

Consider the fact that we offer in this July movement every piece of furniture, with most trifling exceptions, in our gigantic stocks, at prices from 10 to 50 per cent. less than regular markings.

Consider, also, that all the furniture in this sale is identical in character with that which forms the basis of our great business—every stick of it dependable, trustworthy and beautiful.

Consider, again, the fact that stocks are up to their fullest assortment, and that there will be a wide variety of every kind of all-the-year-round furniture, and porch and lawn furniture of every description included in the sale.

One more important fact—you can buy any of this furniture on our Easy Payment Club Plan.

Price examples that will show you how the people profit by this sale.

These for the Bed Chamber

Dressers

Same as pictured here; all white enamel, smooth, glossy finish; base 36 inches long; has 2 large and 2 small drawers; wood knobs; French bevel mirror, size 20x24, in adjustable swinging frame; just the article for Summer furnishing; regular price $12.75, July Sale price

$11.00

Bedroom Chairs

Made of hard wook; square tapered legs; neat design of spindleback; open cane seat; frame and cane are neatly enameled; just as pictured here. Regular price $2.00, July Sale price

$1.50

Dressers

Same as pictured here; made of mahogany and birdseye maple, nicely finished; size of base 23x45; plate glass is of best quality beveled, size 24x30. Solid veneer backs on the base; dustproof drawers. Regular price $35.00,

July Sale price

$31

Chiffoniers

Same as shown in this cut; base has a fancy shape top and is 32 inches wide; contains 5 large drawers, all having locks, keys and wood knobs; nicely finished in white enamel; mirror is of best quality; size 16x20; swings in the standards. Regular price $12.50. July Sale price

$10.50

Rockers

Suitable for bedroom use; matching the chair; have square uprights in the base; strong runners; all parts of the wood, including open cane seat, are neatly white enameled; as illustrated. Regular price $3.50, July Sale price

$3.00

These Chiffoniers

Beautiful indeed, made of finely selected mahogany and birdseye maple; base is 22x35, contains four large and two small drawers; dustproof panels between every drawer; best imported French plate mirror, size 18x22; regular price $35.00, July Sale price,

$31

These for the Dining Room

Sideboards

As shown in this picture; all parts made of quartered oak; golden finish, polished; base is 22 in. deep and 4 ft. long; in the front has a slight swell in shape; has claw feet; mirror in the top of best quality French plate, size 14.40; shelf supported by neat, plain design. Regular price $35. July sale pr.

$29

Extension Tables

Same as this illustration; have a 44-inch top and extend to 6 feet, in quartered oak top and leaves; golden oak finish, polished; have a 10-inch upright pedestal, legs are 3 inches, with 4-inch claw and O. G. moulded rim. Regular price for this table $25.00. July Sale Price $16

China Closets

These beautiful closets are built of quartered oak, highly polished; in design just like illustration; mirror at top, reflecting mirrors in two upper panels; bent glass in each end; bent glass panel in door; 40 inches wide. Regular price $35, July Sale price

$27.00

Desk and Bookcases

Same as illustrated; familiar to most people as a secretary's desk; mahogany finish; stands 62 inches high, is 28 inches wide; there are two convenient drawers; French shaped legs; space at the top for books, has a drop writing lid and convenient arrangement inside, such as are usually found in writing desks; a well-built arttcle in every detail.

Regular price $17.00, July Sale price, at $12.50

(Writing Desks of every description marked down in our July Sale.)

Morris Chairs

Like the illustration; made of quartered oak, golden finish; has a strongly constructed base, fancy shape arms, turned spindles in the sides, carved on the front, back is easily adjusted to any desired position.

Cushions are of plain green and red, also fancy designs; all edges are neatly finished, nicely tufted and rounded corners.

Regular price $10.25, July Sale price, special at $8

(Reclining Chairs of every kind reduced in July Sale.)

$21 Couches $15

As shown in this picture, 6 feet 2 inches long and 30 inches wide; frame is of quartered oak, golden finish; end is slightly rounded, fluted ball foot, carved at head. It is nicely tufted and plaited on the sides, has a comfortable sloping head, steel open spring construction inside, and may be had in your choice of two coverings—chase leather, green and also red velour. Regular price $21.00, July Sale price $15

(Velour and Leather Couches of all kinds at great reductions.)

HAHNE & CO., Newark, N. J.

LUGGAGE "TOO EMOTIONAL"

Why the Drummer Had to Pay in Advance at a Hotel in Staunton, Va.

Representative Carter Glass of Lynchburg, Va., tells the following story and says that every word of it is true:

"I stopped off at Staunton one night not so very long ago and it was along about midnight when I alighted from the C. & O. train. With the exception of a couple of negroes and a big red-faced drummer I was the only passenger to get off. There wasn't any bus at the station and we—the drummer and I—had to hoof it to the hotel (there was only one). When we got there we woke up the night clerk who was also porter and bell-hop, and after I registered I stuck the pen back in the half potato on the desk. My newly made acquaintance, the drummer, had registered before me and was ragging with the night clerk.

"'I'll have to ask you to pay in advance,' remarked the clerk to the drummer.

"'Isn't my luggage good enough security?' replied the traveling man, who had never traveled in Virginia before.

"'I am afraid, old man, it is a little too emotional,' answered the clerk with a yawn.

"'Emotional?' questioned the tired guest.

"'Sure, emotional. It's easily moved,' explained the clerk.

"Well, that drummer had to pay his bill in advance. The clerk must have sized me up right away for an honest man, for my grip wasn't as big as this salesman's and I didn't have to settle until I was ready to check out the next morning."

LAKE LASTS FIVE MONTHS

During Rest of the Year the Balkan Peasants Raise Crops on Its Bed.

On the route from Gravosa, a Dalmatian port on the Adriatic, to Mostar, former capital of Herzegovina, is situated a lake of remarkable character and behavior—and of almost equally remarkable name. An English woman, Maude M. Holbach, writing of her travels through those two Balkan states lately annexed to the empire of Francis Joseph, Bosnia and Herzegovina, has thus described Lake Popovopolje:

For more than an hour we journeyed along the shores of a desolate mountain lake, shut in by barren mountains, which the guide book told us bears the unpronounceable name of Popovopolje, and is only a lake during five months of the year. It dries up in summer so completely that the ground can be cultivated. The inhabitants of its banks must have a similar experience to the dwellers in the villages along the Nile, who are accustomed to go about on dry land half the year and the other half by boat.

This lake puzzled us not a little when first we saw it, for the trees growing here and there out of the water plainly showed inundation; and on the other hand, the primitive little canoes here and there on its banks showed that the inundation, if such, was expected and prepared for.

The waters are said to escape in summer through underground courses, and in proof of this a special kind of fish is found in this lake which could not otherwise get there.—Youth's Companion.

Why Capitols Burn.

Pennsylvania has had a capitol burn. Only a few weeks ago the Missouri Capitol was burned, involving the destruction of a great mass of exteremely valuable historical material. A few years ago the Wisconsin Capitol was destroyed by fire, and there also were consumed historical records of the greatest interest. Now the New York Capitol has been fire-swept and the State Library, which included one of the most valuable historical collections in the country, has been destroyed. State capitols ought to be among the safest of structures. They are very expensive, and yet they seem to be rather subject to fires, and fires started therein burn with astonishing rapidity. We fear there is too much political contract work in them.—Philadelphia Record.

Missed Opportunity.

People who think it impossible to get something for nothing in New York are mistaken. An advertisement in a commercial paper a day or so ago announced the desire on the part of an oil company to give away several thousand five-gallon oil cans and the wooden cases containing them to any one who would take them away from the piers in New York and Brooklyn, where they are stored. Cynical New Yorkers were inclined to think it an April fool joke, but it was not.

Knew More Than All of Them.

The Lawyer—Are you acquainted with any of the men on the jury?

The Witness—Yes, sir; more than half of them.

The Lawyer—Are you willing to swear that you know more than half of them?

The Witness—Say, if it comes to that, I'm willing to swear that I know more than all of them put together.

Went for the Same Reason.

"What makes the crowd gather so over there?"

"Oh, vulgar curiosity. Let's go over.—From the Silent Partner.

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

CHAPTER XXXIII.

Following the Trail.

The withdrawal of the sheriff merely stimulated Keith to greater activity. It was clearly evident the fugitives were endeavoring with all rapidity possible to get beyond where the hand of law could reach them—their trail striking directly across the plains into the barren southwest was proof of this purpose. Yet it was scarcely likely they would proceed very far in that direction, as such a course would bring them straight into the heart of the Indian country, into greater danger than that from which they fled. Keith felt no doubt that Hawley intended making for Carson City, where he could securely hide the girl, and where he possessed friends to rally to his defence, even an influence over the officers of the law. The one thing which puzzled him most was the man's object in attempting so desperate a venture. Did he know his prisoner was Hope Waite? or did he still suppose he was running off with Christie Maclaire? Could some rumor of Waite's appeal to the courts have reached the gambler, frightened him, and caused him to attempt this desperate effort at escape? and did he bear Miss Maclaire with him, hoping to keep her safely concealed until he was better prepared to come out in open fight? If this was the actual state of affairs then it would account for much otherwise hard to explain. The actress would probably not have been missed, or, at least, seriously sought after, until she failed to appear at the theater the following evening. This delay would give the fugitives a start of twenty hours, or even more, and practically assure their safety. Besides, in the light of Waite's application to the sheriff for assistance, it was comparatively easy to conceive of a valid reason why Hawley should vanish, and desire, likewise, to take Miss Maclaire with him. But there was no apparent occasion for his forcible abduction of Hope. Of course, he might have done so from a suddenly aroused fit of anger at some discovery the girl had made, yet everything pointed rather to a deliberate plan. Both horses and men were certainly waiting there under orders, Hawley's adherents in charge, and every arrangement perfected in advance. Clearly enough the gambler had planned it all out before he ever went to the Trocadero—no doubt the completion of these final arrangements was what delayed his appearance at the hotel. If this was all true, then it must have been Christie, and not Hope, he purposed bearing away with him, and the latter was merely a victim of her masquerade.

What would result when the man discovered his mistake? Such a discovery could not be delayed long, although the girl was quick-witted, and would surely realize that her personal safety depended upon keeping up the deception to the last possible moment. Yet the discovery must finally occur, and there was no guessing what form Hawley's rage would assume when he found himself baffled, and all his plans for a fortune overturned. Keith fully realized Hope's peril, and his own helplessness to serve her in this emergency was agony. As they hurried back to the town, he briefly reviewed these conclusions with Waite and Fairbain, all alike agreeing there was nothing remaining for them to do except to take up the trail. The fugitives had already gained too great an advantage to be overhauled, but they might be traced to whatever point they were heading for. In spite of the start being so far to the west, Keith was firmly convinced that their destination would prove to be Carson City.

Keith Bent Over to Study the Tracks.

Procuring horses at the corral, their forces augmented by two volunteers—both men of experience—Keith, Waite, Fairbain and Neb departed without delay, not even pausing to eat but taking the necessary food with them. The sun had barely risen when they took up the trail, Keith, and a man named Bristoe, slightly in advance, their keen eyes marking every slight sign left for guidance across the bare plain. It was a comparatively easy trail to follow, leading directly into the southwest, the pony tracks cutting into the sod as though the reckless riders had bunched together, their horses trotting rapidly. Evidently no attempt had been made at concealment, and this served to convince the pursuers that Hawley still believed his captive to be Miss Maclaire, and that her disappearance would not be suspected until after nightfall. In that case the trail could not be discovered before the following morning, and with such a start, pursuit would be useless. Tireless, steadily, scarcely speaking except upon the business in hand, the pursuers pressed forward at an easy trot, Keith, in spite of intense anxiety, with the remembrance of old cavalry days to guide him, insisting upon sparing the horses as much as possible. This was to be a stern chase and a long one, and it was impossible to tell when they could procure remounts. The constant swerving of the trail westward seemed to shatter his earlier theory, and, brought him greater uneasiness. Finally he spoke of it to the old plainsman beside him.

"What do you suppose those fellows are heading so far west for, Ben? They are taking a big risk of running into hostiles."

"Oh, I don't know," returned the other gravely, lifting his eyes to the far-off sky line. "I reckon from the news thet come in last night from Hays, thar ain't no Injuns a rangin' thet way jist now. They're too blame busy out on the Arickaree. Maybe them fellers heerd the same story, an' thet's what makes 'em so bold."

"What story? I've heard nothing."

"Why, it's like this, Cap," drawling out the words, "leastways, thet's how it come inter Sheridan; 'Sandy' Forsythe an' his outfit, mostly plainsmen, started a while ago across Solomon River an' down Beaver Crick, headin' fer Fort Wallace. Over on the Arickaree, the whole damned Injun outfit jumped 'em. From all I heerd, thar must a bin nigh onto three thousan' o' the varmints, droppin' on 'em all at oncet, hell-bent-fer-election, with ol' Roman Nose a leadin' 'em. It was shore a good fight, fer the scouts got onto an island an' stopped the bucks. Two of the fellers got through to Wallace yist'day, an' a courier brought the news in ter Hays. The Injuns had them boys cooped up thar fer eight days before them fellers got out, an' I 'reckon it'll be two or three days more 'fore the nigger sogers they sent out ter help ever git thar. So thar won't be no Injuns 'long this route we're travelin', fer the whole kit an' caboodle are up thar yit after 'Sandy.'"

"And you suppose Hawley knew about this?"

"Why not, Cap? He was hangin' 'round till after ten o'clock las' night, an' it was all over town by then. 'Tain't likely he's got an outfit 'long with him thet's lost any Injuns. I don't know whar they're bound, no mor'n you do, but I reckon they're reasonably sure they've got a clar road."

They pulled up on the banks of a small stream to water their horses, and ate hastily. The trail led directly across, and with only the slightest possible delay they forded the shallow water, and mounted the opposite bank. A hundred yards farther on Bristoe reined up suddenly, pointing down at the trail.

"One hoss left the bunch here," he declared positively. Keith swung himself out of the saddle, and bent over to study the tracks. There was no doubting the evidence—a single horse—the only one shod in the bunch—with a rider on its back, judging from the deep imprint of the hoofs, had swerved sharply to the left of the main body, heading directly into the southeast. The plainsman ran forward for a hundred yards to assure himself the man had not circled back; at that point the animal had been spurred into a lope. Keith rejoined the others.

"Must have been about daylight they reached here," he said, picking up his dangling rein, and looking into the questioning faces about him. "The fellow that rode out yonder alone was heading straight toward Carson City. He is going for fresh horses, I figure it, and will rejoin the bunch some place down on the Arkansas. The others intend to keep farther west, where they won't be seen. What do you say, Ben?"

"Thet's the way it looms up ter me, Cap; most likely 'twas the boss himself."

"Well, whoever it was, the girl is still with the others, and their trail is the easiest to follow. We'll keep after them."

They pushed on hour after hour, as long as daylight lasted or they could perceive the faintest trace to follow. Already half-convinced that he knew the ultimate destination of the fugitives, Keith yet dare not venture on pressing forward during the night, thus possibly losing the trail and being compelled to retrace their steps. It was better to proceed slow and sure. Besides, judging from the condition of their own horses, the pursued would be compelled to halt somewhere to rest their stock also. Their trail even revealed the fact that they were traveling far less rapidly than at first, although evidently making every effort to cover the greatest possible distance before stopping. Just as the dusk shut in close about them they rode down into the valley of Shawnee Fork, and discovered signs of a recent camp at the edge of the stream. Here, apparently, judging from the camp-fire ashes, and the trampled grass along the Fork, the party must have halted for several hours. By lighting matches Keith and Bristoe discerned where some among them had laid down to sleep, and, through various signs, decided they must have again departed some five or six hours previous, one of their horses limping as if lame. The tired pursuers went into camp at the same spot, but without venturing to light any fire, merely snatching a cold bite, and dropping off to sleep with heads pillowed upon their saddles.

They were upon the trail again with the first dimness of the gray dawn, wading the waters of the Fork, and striking forth across the dull level of brown prairie and white alkali toward the Arkansas. They saw nothing all day moving in that wide vista about them, but rode steadily, scarcely exchanging a word, determined, grim, never swerving a yard from the faint trail. The pursued were moving slower, hampered, no doubt, by their lame horse, but were still well in advance. Moreover, the strain of the saddle was already beginning to tell severely on Waite, weakened somewhat by years, and the pursuers were compelled to halt oftener on his account. The end of the second day found them approaching the broken land bordering the Arkansas valley, and just before nightfall they picked up a lame horse, evidently discarded by the party ahead.

By this time Keith had reached a definite decision as to his course. If the fugitives received a fresh relay of horses down there somewhere, and crossed the Arkansas, he felt positively sure as to their destination. But it would be useless pushing on after them in the present shape of his party—their horses worn out, and Waite reeling giddily in the saddle. If Hawley's outfit crossed the upper ford, toward which they were evidently heading, and struck through the sand hills, then they were making for the refuge of that lone cabin on Salt Fork. Should this prove true, then it was probable the gambler had not even yet discovered the identity of Hope, for if he had, he would scarcely venture upon taking her there, knowing that Keith would naturally suspect the spot. But Keith would not be likely to personally take up the trail in search for Christie Maclaire. It must have been Hawley then who had left the party and ridden east, and up to that time he had not found out his mistake. Yet if he brought out the fresh animals the chances were that Hope's identity would be revealed. Bristoe, who had turned aside to examine the straying horse, came trotting up.

"Belonged to their outfit all right, Cap," he reported, "carries the double cross brand and that shebang is upon the Smokey; saddle galls still bleeding."

Waite was now suffering so acutely they were obliged to halt before gaining sight of the river, finding, fortunately, a water-hole fed by a spring. As soon as the sick man could be made comfortable, Keith gave to the others his conclusions, and listened to what they had to say. Bristoe favored clinging to the trail, even though they must travel slowly, but Fairbain insisted that Waite must be taken to some town where he could be given necessary care. Keith finally decided the matter.

"None can be more anxious to reach those fellows that I am," he declared, "but I know that country out south, and we'll never get through to the Salt Fork without fresh horses. Besides, as the doctor says, we've got to take care of Waite. If we find things as I expect we'll ride for Carson City, and re-outfit there. What's more, we won't lost much time—it's a shorter ride from there to the cabin than from here."

By morning the General was able to sit his saddle again, and leaving him with Neb to follow slowly, the others spurred forward, discovered an outlet through the bluff into the valley, and crossed the Santa Fe Trail. It was not easy to discover where those in advance had passed this point, but they found evidence of a late camp in a little grove of cottonwoods beside the river. There were traces of two trails leading to the spot, one being that of the same five horses they had been following so long, the other not so easily read, as it had been traversed in both directions, the different hoof marks obliterating each other. Bristoe, creeping about on hands and knees, studied the signs with the eyes of an Indian.

"You kin see the diff'rence yere whar the ground is soft, Cap," he said, pointing to some tracks plainer than the others. "This yere hoss had a rider, but the rest of 'em was led; thet's why they've bungled up ther trail so. An' it wa'n't ther same bunch thet went back east what come from thar—see thet split hoof! thar ain't no split hoof p'inting ther other way—but yere is the mark of the critter thet puts her foot down so fur outside thet we've been a trailin' from Sheridan, an' she's p'inting east, an' being led. Now, let's see whar the bunch went from yere with thet split hoof."

This was not so easily accomplished owing to the nature of the ground, but at last the searchers stumbled onto tracks close in under the bank, and one of these revealed the split hoof.

"That makes it clear, Ben," exclaimed Keith, decidedly, staring out across the river at the white sandhills. "They have kept on the edge of the water, making for the ford, which is yonder at the bend. They are out in the sand desert by this time riding for the Salt Fork. Whoever he was, the fellow brought them five horses, and the five old ones were taken east again on the trail. The girl is still with the party, and we'll go into Carson City and reoutfit."

(To Be Continued.)

TRY IT NOW

There is no better drink in this wide, wide world than pure beer.

But it must be pure, it must be brewed right and properly aged.

If you aren't acquainted with

Bartholomay

ROCHESTER

Beer or Ale

You don't know the most delightfully palatable and delicious of all good brews. And it never quarrels with the most delicate stomach. It is also a relish that keens the appetite. Phone your order to-day.

Distributed by

Henry Haurand

68 Somerset St.

'Phone 229

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1910

NEW YORK mails—Arrive—6.20, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 6.30 p. m. and midnight. Close—6.20, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 3.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.20, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.20, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—6.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 8.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

R. H. BIRD, P. M.

FLAGS! FLAGS!!

LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY

4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)

8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.

18 ft. ROPE with galvanized iron Pulley.

1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.

SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40

Phone 668-J

William H. Olmsted

331 Watchung Ave.

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.

407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement

Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

For Sale or To Let

The Factory Building lately occupied by the

Crescent Embossing Co., located at

546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.

Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.

Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.

Especially suitable for light manufacturing.

Can be seen only by appointment with

Fred C. Lounsbury

Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave. Tel. 1036-R

or

Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave. Tel. 310-J

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

'PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Advertisements

—FOR—

New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,

—and—

Newark Evening News Received at

The Daily Press

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

E. B. Maynard's

Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.

NORTH AVENUE

KIVANTINOS & JELLING

Successors to Alex. Lusardi.

Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.

211 W. Front St. Tel. 888-W

HENRY WIERENGA

Residence 'Phone 517-3.

Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.

PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating. Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Estimates Furnished. Jobbing a Specialty.

1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

JOHN WINZENRIED'S

Storage Wareshoue

816-818 WEST FRONT ST.

Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry. Furniture removed with care. Tel. 648-R. Residence 813 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,

Watchmakers and Jewelers, Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN

Old Company's Lehigh Coal

Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal $5.00 per ton.

929 South Avenue

Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE

Successor to Rheaume.

COAL

OFFICE AND YARD

674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,

Dealers in

LEHIGH VALLEY COAL

Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 818 W. Front St. Tel. 613-3.

GEORGE O. STILES

747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE

(Successor to C. H. Riggs & Co.)

Best Quality Lehigh Coal

Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons

BEST LEHIGH COAL;

Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W

Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.

BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH

COAL

'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR

LIKE TILE

The Sanitary Wall Covering.

WOOD KRUSTA

Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.

Interior Decoration a Specialty

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators,

145 North Avenue.

THE REASON

I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.

James C. Hansen

Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.

141 East Front St. Tel. Call 848

TERRY BROS.

Painters & Paperhangers

Formerly with Woolston & Buckle

PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.

Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS

Painters & Decorators

First Class Work Guaranteed.

408 East Fifth St.

Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN

PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER

85 SOMERSET ST.

opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

Of Interest To Housekeepers

You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Dunn St. cor. Lincoln Pl.

CHAS. KEIDERLING

FURNITURE PACKER.

Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.

Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

HOTELS.

GILBEY'S

Pure Wines and Liquors

Gilbey's world-famous Brands are the finest Imported Wines and Liquors obtainable, and every bottle is guaranteed as to its Purity, Quality and Genuineness.

In order to serve our guests with the very best that money can buy, we have imported a shipment of the Gilbey Brands from London.

ASK FOR THEM AT

THE QUEEN CITY HOTEL BAR

P. FLOERSH, Proprietor.

5 15 16 m th

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT

The QUEEN CITY HOTEL

All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.

P. FLOERSCH, Prop.

W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF

EAST FRONT STREET.

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms

G. J. WEINMAN

CAFE

213 Park Ave.. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON

NORTH AVENUE

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT

HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED

SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.26, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.45, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.16, 7.22, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.26, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.22, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.30, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.16, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.28 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—2.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.38 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—2.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (2.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

CHAS. E. VAIL

Jeweler and Optician

has RE-OPENED at his new location

236 Park Avenue

Opposite North Ave.

All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.

Eastman's Kodak Supplies

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS

CHOICE MEATS. GAME IN SEASON.

ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.

Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 88-A.

FURNITURE, OIL CLOTHS, STOVES, ETC.

LOUIS KADESH

23 Somerset Street

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Assets $3,700,000.00

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

'PETS' KEEP IT UP

Bound Brook Fails to Spoil Invincible Plainfield's Clean Record.

WESTFIELD MUCH SURPRISED.

Scotch Plains Wallops Mt. Ararat and Somerville Trounces High Bridge—No Change in Standing.

Despite the efforts of a padded team against them, Plainfield's Pets managed to keep a clean record in the Central New Jersey League Saturday afternoon and Bound Brook lost another game while they were doing it. The defeat of Westfield at the hands of Scotch Plains by a score of 8-2 was the surprise of Saturday's schedule. Mt. Ararat's combination was outclassed entirely from start to finish and consequently Scotch Plains moved up a peg in the league race.

Large crowds attended the games in each town, the interest in the Somerville-High Bridge match being of the keenest sort. Dissatisfaction over decisions by the umpires was expressed by the fans at Crescent Oval and at the Somerville grounds. Much of the trouble was caused by the resignation of Umpire Frank Cox who on account of his work at Rutgers College, is unable to attend the games.

None of the teams was overpadded with the exception of Bound Brook, which had several new minor league players on its lineup.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Plainfield	6	0	1,000
Somerville	4	2	.667
Scotch Plains	4	3	.571
Westfield	3	4	.428
High Bridge	2	5	.285
Bound Brook	1	6	.142

Saturday's Results.

Plainfield, 4; Bound Brook, 3.
Scotch Plains, 8; Westfield, 2.
Somerville, 5; High Bridge, 4.

Pets' Winning Streak.

Bound Brook's howling rooters came to Crescent Oval Saturday afternoon expecting to cheer their team to defeat the Pets for at least one game, but they went back to the wet village disappointed for Plainfield batted out a 4-3 victory. It was a nip and tuck struggle after the seventh inning and the twelve hundred fans were kept on edge until the last Bound Brook batter had been fanned in the ninth round with Powers sitting on third waiting for the necessary hit to tie the score.

"Red" Waller had the tailenders at his mercy until the seventh inning when, with two out, the umpire went up in the air and let Wiltse get a hit. A base on balls and two singles on top of this gave the visitors a trio of runs and likewise gave the Plainfielders a bit of worriment. Ortlieb twirled a steady game throughout, but he was unable to withstand the onslaughts of the bats of Driscoll's Darlings in the pinches.

On account of the resignation of Frank Cox as umpire in the league, Manager Doerflinger had engaged Clarence VanCleef, a substitute league umpire, to officiate yesterday. At the last minute, Mr. VanCleef telegraphed that he would be unable to attend he game, and after much persuasion, William O'Loughlin, of this city, consented to hold the indicator. Poor decisions for both sides were much in evidence although Mr. O'Loughlin did his best to give a square deal.

The league leaders started to whoop her up with a whoop la la in the first inning. Hartman sent a sizzler to center, stole second and beat it for the home plate when Ortlieb made a wild pitch. The Plainfield short stop reached the rubber ahead of the ball and scored the first run.

Two more tallies were chalked up to the locals' credit in the third round. Ortlieb did the Alfonso-Gaston act and presented Waller with a free trip to first. Cosgrove doubled to deep left, scoring "Red" and taking third on the throw home. After Hartman and Driscoll died on infield pops, Joe Harter sealed things up with a clean swat to center. In the sixth Harter was again the Hans Wagner of the day for he opened the inning by clouting the horsehide far above the left fielder's head and when the ball came back into sight, Harter was perched on third. The best that Martin and Eddie Stallings could do was to send easy grounders to the infielders but Bill Stallings came across with the necessary wallop, bringing Joe home on a clean single to left. This swat fest ended the Plainfield scoring for Ortlieb tightened up during the remainder of the game.

In the seventh Bound Brook's contingent nearly broke the bleachers when three runs were scored for their team. With two down Wiltse singled, coming home on Nolan's one base swat to center. Powers walked and Ortlieb stepped to the plate. The Bound Brook twirler was equal to the occasion and smashed a hot drive into centerfield, which scored Powers and Nolan. Waller then walked McLaughlin and Bound Brook fans again went wild but "Red" ended the merry-go-round by retiring Adler on an infield grounder.

Hartman put up a magnificent game at short, accepting ten chances without an error. His throwing and scooping of grounders were of the finished style while his bat was wielded strenuously. The Bound Brook short stop, McLaughlin, was not far behind Plainfield's star for he had six chances and no mishaps. Two thrilling running catches of line drives and two clean hits brought Joe Harter again into the limelight, but these are usual occurrences for him so there's no use of dwelling on the subject. The batting honors of the day fell to Nolan who swatted safely hree times out of four trips to the plate.

The individual scores in Plainfield's sixth straight victory were recorded as follows:

Plainfield.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Cosgrove, rf	3	1	1	0	0
Hartman, ss	3	1	1	4	6
Driscoll, 1b	4	0	0	11	0
Harter, cf	4	1	2	2	0
Martin, 2b	3	0	1	0	1
E. Stallings, lf	4	0	0	0	0
W. Stallings, 3b	3	0	1	0	1
Nelson, c	3	0	0	10	1
Waller, p	2	1	1	0	3
	29	4	7	27	12

Bound Brook.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
McLoughlin, ss	3	0	1	0	6
Adler, 2b	4	0	0	2	2
Meehan, lf-rf	4	0	1	1	0
Poole, c	4	0	0	3	1
Worthiley, 3b	4	0	0	2	0
Wiltse, 1b	4	1	1	13	0
Nolen, lf-cf	4	1	3	2	0
Powers, lf-cf	2	1	0	1	0
Bollinger, rf	1	0	0	0	0
Ortlieb, p	4	0	1	0	4
	34	3	7	24	13

Bound Brook ...0 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 0—3
Plainfield .....1 0 2 0 0 1 0 0 x—4

Errors—Ortlieb, Driscoll, Cosgrove. Earned runs—Bound Brook 2, Plainfield, 3. Two-base hits—Cosgrove, Martin, Waller, Meehan. Three-base hits—Harter. Base on balls—Off Waller, 2; off Ortlieb, 3. Struck out—By Waller, 9; by Ortlieb, 3. Left on bases—Bound Brook 7; Plainfield, 5. Wild pitches—Ortlieb. Passed balls—Nelson. First base on balls—Bound Brook, 2; Stolen bases—Hartman, Harter, W. Stallings. Sacrifice hits—Hartman, Poole. Time of game—1:45. Umpire—William O'Loughlin.

Lucky Somerville.

Somerville defeated High Bridge at the former place Saturday afternoon in their first clash in the Central New Jersey League. The score was 5-4, and tells the story of a game fraught with luck, the exact opposite to that for which High Bridge is reputed. And if any team in the league is to be designated as the luckiest, that title should be awarded to the County Seaters, who were outplayed afield and made to break even on the hit end. At times Clinton was hit freely, but had the needed moiety of effectiveness when holed. His support was like his delivery, unsteady and reliable by turns. Aside from the fifth Morris was steady as a church, in that he allowed the bunching of four bingles that yielded three tallies.

High Bridge's hard luck, which was still harder on Jack Torpey, began in the third when Jack's head was accidently cut open by Clinton's bat. The thump put Jack out of the game and Frank Bruggy, who had been released by High Bridge, and signed by Somerville a few hours before the game, was released by Somerville in order that High Bridge could re-sign him to catch. Prior to being released by Chet, Frank made the one sensational catch of the game. He sprang into the air and one handed smothered a drive by Johnny Walton that was singing on its way to safety. Wolff's home run and Gordon's triple were the only other stunts to bring forth any way near as much noise. Leid easily carried off the fielding honors accepting perfectly five hard chances.

Prior to being put out of the game Torpey had received a good hand from his home town fan-friends, although appearing in a High Bridge uniform. He got through with Somerville during the week and was immediately taken on by High Bridge, Titus being lost when Blackwell was let out.

The score:

Somerville.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Swanson, 3b	0	0	0	1	0
Gordon, lf	1	2	0	1	0
Wolf, cf	1	2	3	0	0
McDonald, 1b	0	0	9	1	0
Bruggey, 2b	0	0	2	0	1
Henderson, rf	0	1	0	0	0
McCaffrey, ss	0	0	1	5	1
Grimes, rf, 2b	2	2	0	4	2
McCarthy, c	0	0	12	0	1
Clinton, p	1	2	0	1	0
	5	9	27	13	5

High Bridge.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
J. Walton, 2b	0	1	1	2	0
C. Walton, 3b	1	1	1	4	0
E. Walton, ss	0	1	2	3	0
Torpey, c	0	0	1	1	0
Bruggy, c	0	1	0	3	0
Silva, 1b	1	0	12	0	0
Eph. Walton, cf	0	1	1	0	0
Leid, lf	0	2	5	0	0
Boyd, rf	1	1	0	0	0
Morris, p	1	1	1	1	0
	4	9	24	14	0

Somerville .....0 0 1 1 3 0 0 0 x—5
High Bridge ....0 1 0 0 1 0 2 0 0—4

Two-base hits—Gordon, Wolfe, Grimes, Clinton, Leid, Boyd. Three-base hit—Gordon. Home run—Wolf. Stolen bases—Clinton, Leid, J. Walton, Morris, McCarthy. Bases on balls—Off Clinton, 2. Struck out—By Clinton, 10; by Morris, 1. Passed ball—McCarthy. Wild pitch—Clinton. Umpire—Daller.

Westfield Surprised.

On the street corners in Westfield Saturday night, there was no display of fireworks, no spirited outburst of oratory from a modern Demosthenes upon the merits of the Westfield team but rather an uncanny gloom hung over the town. Friends passed each other without a word of greeting and had anyone asked the question: 'What is the matter with Westfield and why this obvious lack of good humor on the part of its citizens?" he would have been apprised of the fact that Westfield had suffered defeat at the hands of Scotch Plains, to the tune of 8-2.

The 'Plains got away to a running start by tallying one in the initial round. After J. Alberts had died, Keene to Poole, Gray lammed one to center and stole the midway station. He brought the 'Plains contingent to its feet when he purloined the third cushion and he cantered over the platter on McLaughlin's out at first.

Westfield garnered a run in the third round after two men were gone. Seery, who had strolled, previous to the outs, advanced to second on Keene's safe wallop to left. Streaser hit one to right-center and Seery tallied.

The 'Plains came back with three runs in the fourth, the fighting spirit which Joe Alberts has instilled into his team asserting itself. After MacLaughlin flied out to Rogers. Flannery reached first when Rhineacker foozled his grounder. H. Alberts' long fly to deep center should have been caught but both Streaser and Rogers, after chasing the pellet, stopped and allowed the sphere to drop between them and it went for a hit. Goodwill hit one over short and Flannery came home. Mullin hit a two-bagger to left scoring H. Alberts and Goodwill but was caught out at third trying to stretch his hit.

The "Thistles" added one more to their total in the fourth on a base on balls, two hits and a fielder's choice. Again in the eighth they brought two more runs across when with second and third sacks occupied, Foley laced out a one-sacker and H. Alberts and Goodwill scurried home like the proverbial prodigal son.

Westfield got its second run in the seventh spasm. Craig hit sharply to center and moved to second when Otto was presented with a pass. He reached the home station on Keene's wallop to left. Gray stopped the hostilities when he tagged out Otto, who was attempting to pilfer the third hassock.

The agrgegation from that little hamlet, (which by the way has always been on the map) garnered their eighth run in the closing inning. Gray walked and stole the keystone sack. MacLaughlin's hard slam to right shooed Gray over the platter.

The score:

Westfield.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
Craig, 3b	4	1	1	6	2
Otto, rf	3	0	0	0	0
Keene, 2b	5	0	2	3	1
Streaser, lf	5	0	1	2	1
Rogers, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Poole, 1b	4	0	2	8	0
White, p	4	0	2	0	1
Rhineacker, ss	2	0	0	0	6
Seery, c	3	1	0	7	2
	34	2	8	27	13

Scotch Plains.

	AB.	R.	H.	PO.	A.
J. Albert, 2b	5	0	1	1	2
Gray, 3b	2	3	1	2	2
Frentz, 1b	3	0	1	7	0
McLaughlin, p	5	0	2	0	1
Flannery, lf	5	1	0	3	0
H. Albert, c	5	2	2	5	2
Goodwill, cf	4	2	4	3	0
Mullin, ss	3	0	1	3	0
Foley, rf	4	0	1	3	0
	36	8	13	27	7

Score by innings and summary:
Westfield .....0 0 1 0 0 0 1 0 0—2
Scotch Plains ...1 0 0 3 1 0 0 2 1—8

Errors—White Rhineacker. Two-base hit—Mullin. Stolen bases—Gray (2), J. Albert, McLaughlin. Mullin, Poole. Struck out—By White, 7; by McLaughlin, 5. Bases on balls—Off McLaughlin, 5; off White, 4. Wild pitch—White. Hit by pitcher—Gray. Left on bases—Westfield, 11; Scotch Plains, 7. Time of game—1:45. Umpire—Degnon.

DUNELLEN CONTINUES ITS WINNING STREAK

Dunellen had an easy time with the Pheonix A. C., of New York city, on the Dunellen grounds Saturday afternoon and walked away with a 10-4 victory. The city team was unable to solve Frederickson's indrop while the Dunellen boys pounded Linderman's deliveries for a total of ten hits. Frederickson struck out fifteen of the opposing batsmen and garnered an opportune single himself.

Nash, playing second for Dunellen, slammed out one of the few home runs that have ever been made on the diamond in that peaceful borough. Elliott distinguished himself by puling a neat double play which was the means of getting Frederickson out of a tight hole. Bux put up the best game for the Phoenix team, making three hits and accepting six chances.

The score:

Dunellen.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Coyle, ss	1	0	1	2	1
Schott, lf	1	1	1	0	0
Barnes, 1b	2	2	7	0	0
Hand, c	0	0	15	1	0
Elliott, rf	3	2	2	1	0
Runyon, cf	0	1	0	0	0
Nash, 2b	2	2	1	0	0
Frederickson, p	1	1	0	1	0
Dodwell, 3b	0	1	0	0	0
	10	10	27	5	1

Phoenix A. C.

	R.	H.	PO.	A.	E.
Beux, 2b	1	3	3	3	0
Smith, ss	1	0	1	0	0
Voss, c	1	0	6	0	0
Breen, 1b	0	0	9	0	1
Schutlie, 3b	0	1	1	1	4
Linderman, p	0	1	1	1	0
Dowas, lf	0	0	1	0	0
Honsmer, cf	1	1	2	0	0
Donelly, rf	0	0	0	0	1
	4	6	24	5	6

Phoenix A. C...0 0 0 1 0 0 2 1 0— 4
Dunellen .....5 3 0 2 0 0 0 0 x—10

Home run—Nash. Struck out—By Frederickson, 15; by Linderman, 5. First base on balls—Off Frederickson, 4; off Linderman, 3. Double play—Elliott to Barnes. Umpire—Mr. Ruskin.

PARK AVE. CHURCH IS NOT BEATEN YET

The Park Avenue Baptist nine maintained its clean record in the Sunday School Baseball League Saturday afternoon, defeating the Trinity school team by the score of 5-1. The Monroe Avenue M. E. school won its first frome from the First Baptist team in a close game at the Clinton avenue grounds.

Saturday's Results.

Park Avenue, 5; Trinity, 1.
Monroe Ave., 13; 1st Baptist, 10.

STANDING OF THE TEAMS.

	W.	L.	PC.
Park Avenue	2	0	1,000
Monroe Avenue	1	0	1,000
Trinity	0	1	.000
First Baptist	0	2	.000

Monroe Ave, 13; 1st Baptist, 10.

Despite Trotter's efforts in the box, the First Baptist team went down to defeat before the Monroe Avenue M. E. nine on the Clinton ave. grounds Saturday afternoon. The Baptist's twirler struck out ten men but poor support by his teammates alowed the Methodist boys to score 15 runs. The Monroe Avenue players fielded their positions with a gingerly snap and kept steady in the pinches.

The teams lined up as follows:

Monroe Avenue—Gunzelman, l. f., Dorman, c., Hess, s. s., Beekman, 3b., A. Warrick, 2b., Brown, 1b., Vandale, p., Lude and Mulford, r. f., W. Warrick and Thompson, c. f.

First Baptist—Denton, r. f., Miller, 2b., Bailey, c., Morrison, s. s., Powlison, 1b., Manning, 3b., Trotter, p., Lohsen and Pearce, l. f., Zeifel, c. f.

Park Avenue, 5—Trinity, 1.

Inability to hit Hobson with men on bases was the cause of Trinity's defeat at the hands of the Park Avenue Baptist nine Saturday afternoon. The Reformed church had some heavy hitters on its lineup, bnt the Baptist pitcher kept the hits scattered. VanZandt twirled a good game but was hit when hits meant runs.

The lineups were:

Trinity—VanZandt, p; Doeringer, c; Vail, 2b; Haberle, lf; Kirch, ss; Morrison, 1b; Hann, 3b; Schenck, cf; Reinninger, rf.

Park Avenue Baptist—Wilson, c; Hobson, p; Rickett, ss; Kling, 2b; Mills, 1b; Thompson, 3b; Dorman, rf; Tice, lf; Kline, c.

PLAY THREE ROUNDS FOR A TENNIS TITLE

Three rounds were played in the open championship tennis tournament for the city and borough on the Plainfield Country Club courts on Saturday. A large number of entrants were on the courts during the afternoon and some fast matches were witnessed by the enthusiastic spectators.

H. T. Eaton and W. B. Craigin, Jr., and A. M. Collens and D. W. Mulford reached the semi-final round, which will be played off Saturday, July 15. The winners of these two matches will then play for the championship title and the cup.

The results in the first three rounds follow:

Preliminary round—D. S. Strong defeated W. A. Drake, 6-3,6-1; A. D. Beers defeated W. L. Righter, 6-0 6-2; C. E. Lipscomb won from T. W. Carpenter, 6-0, 8-6; Harry Eddy defeated J. C. Martin, 6-1,6-2; C. A King defeated Edward Stevenson, 6-3, 6-4; L. H. Hibbard defeated Lawrence Mead, 6-2, 8-6; H. T. Eaton defeated Ralph Schoonmaker, 6-3, 6-2; W. B. Craigin, Jr., won from Will Schoonmaker by default; Arthur Lovell defeated Theodore Gavett 6-3, 3-6, 6-3; A. M. Collens won from Percy Brown by default.

First Round—H. J. Cochran defeated F. M. Letson, 6-2, 6-0; H. L. deForest defeated D. S. Strong, 6-3, 6-4; A. D. Beers defeated C. E. Lipscomb, 6-0, 6-1; Harry Eddy defeated C A. King, 6-1, 6-0; H. T. Eaton defeated L. H. Hibbard, 6-1, 6-4; W. B. Craigin, Jr., defeated Arthur Lovell by default; A. M. Collens defeated S W. Merrihew, 6-8, 9-7, 6-2; D. W. Mulford defeated Monroe H. Long, 6-4, 7-5.

Second Round—H. J. Cochran defeated H. L. deForest, 6-1, 6-3; A. D. Beers defeated Harry Eddy, 6-2, 6-3.

BIRDIE HANDICAP AT P.C.C. GOLF COURSE

The members of the Plainfield Country Club on Saturday engaged in a competition, something new to golfers here, and it attracted more than thirty entries. The event was called a "birdie handicap." Each player took his match play handicap and every hole made in bogie counted one point, every one in par two points and every one below par counted three points. The play was for both classes and it afforded much pleasure for all the participants.

Dudley H. Barrows and E. T. Wilson were tie for first place, each scoring 25 points. The cards giving the handicap and points scored follow:

Dudley H. Barrows, 3—25; E. T. Wilson, 8—25; Julius E. Erickson, 8—24; H. D. Hibbard, 5—23; W. T Kaufman, 9—23; W. G. Cooke, 20—23; D. H. Rowland, 11—21; R. S. Rowland, 5—21; Frank O. Reinhart, 5—19; R. B. Corey, 18—19.

The clubhouse was also a strong attraction during the afternoon and evening and more than sixty dinners were served in the evening, while many remained to enjoy the cooling breezes.

THE WEST END JUNIORS TOOK 11-INNING GAME.

The West End Juniors defeated the Wayside Park club at Wayside Park Saturday afternoon in a hot 11-inning game by the score of 8-5. Dixon won the game in the eleventh round with a two base swat with two men on the sacks. Squires pitched a great game for the West Enders, striking out thirteen men. Jaeger backed him up like a veteran, and kept his team steady throughout the whole game.

The lineups:

West End Juniors—Dolen, 3b; A. Jaeger, c; T. Jaeger, ss; Dixon, 2b; Renze, lf; McCarty, 1b; Wunderlick, cf; Miles, rf; Squires, p.

Wayside Park—Gage, 1b; Townley, p; Schotting, lf; Sharkey, 3b; Grisley, 2b; Cather, c; Fitzgerald, rf; Nugent, cf; Angleman, ss.

Miss Edna Willis and L. M. Willis, of South avenue, are sojourning in the Catskills.

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.
Capital $100,000.00

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

TALK! TALK! TALK!

But be sure you don't know what you are talking about. I saw so many of you to our sister's (Westfield) Carnival and notwithstanding that I know you know all about it. I will give you the same add that I had in their magazine. (Will tell you who is to go to Up-to-date later to see the lots). It was as follows:

WHOA! MULE.

Never turn your back on a mule, his grace will disgrace you if you do. If you do, in taking the car home be a gentleman, keep standing for both ladies and gentlemen. Turn your back on the motorman and face the conductor, you will be better able to face the public. Some people carry their hearts in their shoes to have it handy to kick with. Take my advice, never kick at a mule unless you look him square in the face. I want to look you square in the face when I tell you about my Real Estate business. I have been in it nearly twenty years, and do you know I have never seen a man or woman who did not try to tell me that they knew more about it than I do. It is a funny business. Everybody knows it. When I offer them a property to prove it to me they either go to their barber, baker, banker or lawyer to back them up. Of course, the lawyer has been supposed to study law for four years, that, of course, gives him a diploma in the Real Estate business. The banker in counting money, the thing I am after, learns the value of property from A to Z, but the barber has them all beat, he can look me in the face and talk to me, the rest can't. Whoa! mule.

I have the distinction of having three Oliver stenographers to keep up with my work. Where is that other fellow? And the only fellow on earth in my business who works on a plan. "My time is yours."

My address for this week is PlainWestfield, but call on me at 159 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J., or call 1907.

D. Foster Updike

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr. .....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate ..... Agents wanted.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.

AMUSEMENTS.

KEEP COOL—Go To BOYNTON BEACH
THE COOLEST PLACE IN NEW JERSEY
CHILDREN'S DAYS EVERY THURSDAY
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE
TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Harcourt, Babcock & Co., sketch, "The Parting of the Ways;" Yankee Comedy Four, Rich and Rare Comedians; Sanns & Sanns, Singers and Dancers; Ward Baker, Monologuist.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Camp Ram's Horn
Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.
Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.
THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

OPENING OF NEW SERIES
THE UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION
WILL OPEN ITS 72d SERIES ON Monday Evening, July 10

Applications for new shares and also or loans on bond and mortgage will be received. The total cost to a borrower is $10.42 on each $1,000 borrowed.

Loans are granted in the order in which they are received. We do not put up the money for you to bid on. Every borrower is treated alike.

Come in and talk the matter over with us. We will be glad to explain the plan in detail.

OFFICERS
E. M. LAING.....President
A. D. EDGAR .....Vice President
J. V. E. VANDERHOEF..Secretary
M. C. VAN ARSDALE...Treasurer
OFFICE—146 PARK AVE.
782

JULY ELEVENTH.

1767—John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, born at Braintree, Mass.; died 1848.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair except probably local thunder showers tonight or Wednesday; not quite so warm tomorrow Maximum, 103; minimum, 70.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, JULY 11, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

TELL OF WILSON'S FATAL AUTO RIDE

Police Hear Stories of Lawyer's Alleged Speeding Which Resulted in Killing of Colored Man on Park Ave.

The killing of Charles Clifford, of Manning avenue, just over the city line on Park avenue yesterday morning by an automobile owned and driven by John O. Wilson, a lawyer, of Camden, was the end of a swift ride from Summit which is reported to have included many close calls for a number of rigs and pedestrians. Among those who escaped was Street Commissioner John Y. Barrett, of the borough, who was nearly run down on Somerset street. Several teamsters have reported to the police that they were obliged to give a wide berth to the racing car on the roads it used in crossing into the valley and through Watchung.

The speed at which it was traveling when Clifford was hit, the police say, will probably never be known. There is a confliction in the stories told by Wilson and those who witnessed the accident as to the speed. Wilson admits driving twenty-seven miles an hour when passing Muhlenberg Hospital, which is seven miles more than the law allows, but those who saw him prior to the accident say that he was driving at a speed nearer fifty miles than thirty.

An autopsy was performed on the victim at Cole's undertaking establishment last night by Doctors Lufburrow and Sheppard, of this city; County Physician Carrol and Coroner Hubbard, of Middlesex county. It disclosed that death was caused by a lung punctured by several broken ribs, other internal injuries and brain concussion. There will not be any inquest and the funeral service will be held tomorrow morning at Clifford's late home on Manning avenue. Rev. G. W. Bailey will be the officiating minister and interment will be made in the North Plainfield cemetery.

After being taken to New Brunswick yesterday by Prosecutor Booream of Middlesex county, and his detectives, Wilson and his partner, Hartley F. Carr, who was riding in the machine with him at the time of the accident occurred, were arraigned before Judge Daly and bail was fixed at $3,000 for each. The charge against Wilson is manslaughter. The Maryland Casuality Co., furnished the security. Senator Silzer has been retained by Wilson and Carr.

It is said that the presence of the lawyers in this vicinity was owing to the discharge of Wilson from a sanatorium in Summit where he had been for six months suffering from a nervous breakdown. His partner came up to accompany him home.

CARPENTER ARRESTED FOR STRIKING TINNER.

Peter Johnson, a carpenter, and Harry Cohen, a tinner, had a mix up in the new house upon which they were working for Isaac Goldberg, on Liberty street, yesterday, and this morning Johnson was arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court on a charge of assault perferred by Cohen. In order to have witnesses appear the case was put over until next Tuesday morning.

According to the story as told the police Cohen's fire pot had set fire to the wooden flooring recently put down by Johnson and when the latter called Cohen's attention to it, words followed that led to the fire pot being thrown out and the owner after it. Then Johnson went back and put out the flames which by that time had burned a hole through the floor.

Planning Junior Excursion.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. excursion committee had a meeting last night to complete arrangements for the annual excursion to Willow Grove on July 29. The prospects are good for an enjoyable trip with an abundance of attractions at Willow Grove. The excursion will be under the auspices of Franklin, Somerset, Benevolent and Plainfield Councils, Jr. O. U. A. M. Train will leave here at 8:30 and returning will leave Willow Grove at 10 o'clock at night.

Trolleymen's Outing.

The employes of the P. S. C. and their families in this city will be taken to Boynton Beach in an open trolley car this evening as the guests of Division Superintendent George Luhr. The car will leave the stand at 7 o'clock.

SCHOOLS' EXPENSE

City Fathers Pass on Two Readings Ordinance for $74,000 for Current Year.

MORE FOR P. H. S. ADDITION.

Contingent Fund Fixed at $24,000—Loan for Fire Department Purposes—City Treasurer Ordered to Pay Claims.

The greater part of the adjourned meeting of the Common Council last night was devoted to passing upon the appropriation for school purposes for the coming year, the Board of School Estimate having certified that it would need $74,000 for that purpose. This matter came up in a resolution offered by Mr. Buxton, and adopted, and on his motion this was put in as a supplement to an ordinance and adopted on two readings and ordered advertised.

Mr. Buxton also reported on the action of the Board of School Eesimate yesterday in passing a resolution for an additional $5,000 in connection with the improvements to be made at the High School, where it is propesed to erect two new wings. He desired to obtain some legal advice regarding the power of the Council in this matter, and for that reason arranged to hold another meeting next Monday night, when he hopes to have everything in readiness to take action.

Another resolution offered by Mr. Buxton and adopted, fixed $24,000 as the amount for the contingent fund for the coming year, that being not in excess of 10 per cent. of the whole amount to be raised by taxation. Mr. Buxton explained that the city had been put to considerable expense recently, especially in printing the new building code at an expense of about $1,600. Other expenses would be incurred, Mr. Buxton said, that would make the appropriation of $24,000 necessary.

This sum will be added to the tax budget and collected the same as other tax money. In accordance with another resolution by Mr. Buxton and adopted, the city treasurer was authorized to borrow $4,000 for fire department purposes, a note for five months to be executed, and in addition Mr. Buxton offered a resolution authorizing the borowing of $3,000 for sewer extension purposes.

The communications from City Treasurer W. F. Arnold relative to the payment of certain claims were read and a resolution offered by Mr. Buxton and adopted, authorized Mr. Arnold to pay such claims which had not been either approved or disapproved by the Mayor, but where he had signed the warrants.

HURT IN COLLISION SHE ASKS DAMAGES

Suit was brought today in the Union county circuit court by Mrs. Kate D. Clark, of Scotch Plains, against Chauncey D. Smith, of Westfield, to recover $5,000 damages as a result of injuries received by her when his car struck a carriage in which she was riding on Christmas Day.

The accident happened on Jerusalem road near Jersualem hill and Mrs. Clark, it is alleged, was thrown thirty feet when Smith's car, which he was driving, approached from the rear and struck the carriage sending the latter vehicle over a fence. At the time Smith, with a party of friends was returning from the Westfield golf club and it is alleged he did not blow his horn. Mrs. Clark was confined to her bed for three months having sustained injuries at her right knee and hip.

Robert Newton Crane represents Mrs. Clark. Paul Q. Oliver, of Westfield, is Smith's counsel. Smith is a son of the late Assemblyman Smith.

Borough School Board Pays Bills.

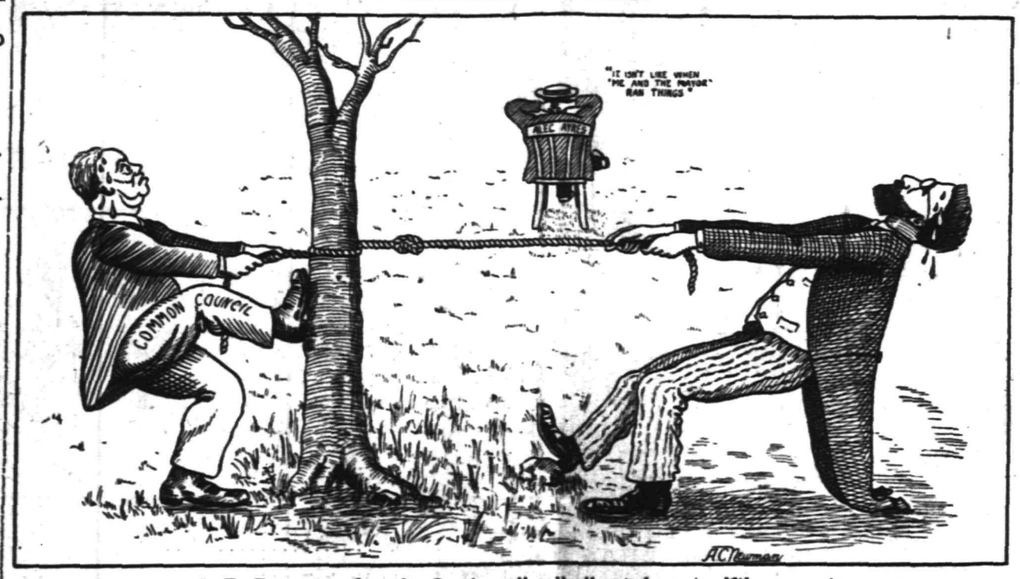
The ordering of bills paid to the amount of $400 and the ordering of repairs to the school buildings were the principal matters of business before the North Plainfield Board of Education at its adjourned meeting in the Somerset street school last night. The committee on buildings was instructed to go ahead with the necessary repairs to the schools for the coming fall session.

Violated Health Ordinance.

John Hogan, of Duer street, was brought before Recorder Dolliver in the borough court this morning on complaint of Health Officer Louis Oliff, of North Plainfield. The charge against Hogan was that of throwing dead fish on the borough dump near Jefferson avenue. Sentence was suspended.

—Use Press Want Ads

CITY FATHERS TURN DOWN MAYOR'S 4TH APPOINTMENT FOR OVERSEER



The name of Dr. J. F. Berg, appointed by Mayor G. W. V. Moy as overseer of the poor, was returned by Mr. Montgomery, as chairman of the alms committee at the meeting of the Common Council last night. He said that he had hoped that the Mayor would withdraw Dr. Berg's name as had been suggested to him, and he regretted that fact. He then moved that the appointment be confirmed. On the roll call all voted no except Mr. Buxton, who voted in the affirmative. Afterward he requested that he be allowed to change his vote to no, which was granted on vote of the Council. This is the fourth appointment for overseer of the poor made by Mayor Moy and each one has been turned down.

Alexander D. Ayres, the present incumbent, is now completing his twelfth successive year as overseer-of-the-poor, and the Common Council has taken the position that unless some one shown to be more competant than he is named for the position there will be no change. The appointments made to fill his office by Mayor Moy, all of whom have been turned down by the city fathers, are those of Rev. St. John Fitch, Joseph Sattells, N. W. French and Dr. Berg.

THREE PATROLMEN TO FILL VACANCIES

All conventionality was discarded at the adjourned meeting of the Common Council last night when the members appeared coatless with shirt sleeves rolled up. Palm leaf and electric fans were numerous. Among the more important matters passed upon last night was the appointment by Mayor G. W. V. Moy of three men as special patrolmen to do regular duty. The successful candidates are George Muir, Peter Dooley and Charles B. Wicht. They were confirmed and will be put to work at once. Mr. Wicht was a former member of the force, but resigned to take a position on a farm.

City Judge William G. DeMeza presented his quarterly report which was as follows: Number of cases considered, 311; number fined, 62; number committed to the county jail, 22; sentence suspended, 177; non-support cases, 2; cases dismissed, 22; number of cases not tried, 9; on probation, 1; other cases, 3; held for the grand jury, 13. The sum of $458 was collected in fines and the expenses amounted to $34.65. The balance was turned over to the city treasurer.

The Public Service Corporation, in answer to a letter from City Clerk J. T. MacMurray, which he was directed to write, informed the members why an electric light had been removed from a point between Darrow and Spooner avenues, to Darrow avenue and West Seventh street. According to the company the light was changed at the suggestion of Councilman F. L. Montgomery, who thought it would be a good thing. It was stated that another light had since been located on West Seventh street. Councilman Clay raised the point of inquiry a week ago, but no information was forthcoming as to why the light was changed, hence the letter to the P. S. C.

Councilman Herbert Buxton, by request, presented a printed letter showing the numerous changes made in the State law regarding the appointment of overseers of the poor and defining their duties, which has already been published. The matter was referred to the alms committee.

On motion of Councilman Duncan W. Taylor, the amendment to the building code was adopted on third reading, and he also presented the bond of Den. J. Galbraith covering all possible damage and protecting the city in the removal of a building from Plainfield avenue to Sherman avenue. This was filed.

Mrs. Hendrickson's Funeral.

The funeral services of Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson, who died at the home of Mrs. Charles Hartpence in Ringoes, yesterday, the result of an automobile accident, will be held at Grace M. E. church, the borough, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. C. C. Cain, the pastor, will be in charge. Mrs. Hendrickson was for twenty years matron of the Children's Home here, and in view of the fact that she has many friends in this city, it was decided to hold the funeral services here.

Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Cain, of Park place, will leave on July 31 for Panther Lake, Sussex county, where they will spend a month at the summer home of Mr. Cain's father, Rev. Albert Cain.

FOREST FIRE TALK

State Forester Gaskill Tells How to Fight Blaze In Lumber Lands.

HIS LECTURE ILLUSTRATED.

North Plainfield Township Improvement Society Hears an Instructive Lecture on a Most Timely Topic.

Alfred Gaskill, New Jersey State Forester, gave an illustrated lecture before the North Plainfield Township Improvement society in the association's hall at Watchung last night. He spoke about the proper methods for developing timber land and preventing and fighting forest fires. A large number of the citizens of the township were present, the meeting being presided over by "Mayor" William deLaR Anderson, of Watchung.

In prefacing his remarks, the state forester pointed out that the principal timber tracts in New Jersey are to be found in the northern part of the state, especially in the vicinity of North Plainfield township. Mr. Gaskill stated that with the proper care there was a great opportunity for a lumber industry in Washington Valley and in the Watchung mountains.

Speaking generally, Mr. Gaskill declared that the owners of lumber lands were the only people who could have their cake while they ate it provided they used the proper methods in caring for their tract. Without prodigality and with a conservative outlook for the future there will always be a supply of lumber.

The forester told of two methods by which trees could be cut and yet maintain the further growth of the forest. The first of these processes was to cut so as to properly thin out the forest as the trees matured and needed more room. When the space is entirely empty, new trees can be planted. The second method is the one which is used extensively in Germany, where the trees are cut clean for entire strips and then another growth springs up from the old stumps.

In speaking of forest fires, Mr. Gaskill showed by pictures and figures the enormous amount of money lost in this state each year through woodland blazes. The majority of trouble from forest fires in this vicinity, according to the lecturer, results from the burning of underbrush rather than from the destruction of entire trees by flames. These fires in the underbrush kill off the young growth of the trees and in this way cause more destruction than the great conflagrations. Such underbrush fires are much more dangerous in the summer and fall when the vegetation is dry than in the spring of the year. The heat from such a fire in the fall is sufficient to ruin the embryo trees but in the spring the moisture in the ground prevents such a high degree of temperature.

Mr. Gaskill also gave directions for the fighting of forest fires declaring that "back-firing" was a dangerous method and should be used only in cases of extreme necessity. The most practical way to fight a fire in a forest, which the government forest-

(Continued on page 4.)

RURAL CARRIER'S PAY SLIGHTLY RAISED HERE

The order for the disbursement of $4,000,000 by Postmaster General Hitchcock, as increases in the salaries of rural mail carriers, will not have as far a reaching an effect with the rural carriers here as elsewhere, but it will materially increase their yearly pay. The most that the order will raise any rural carrier's salary is $100 a year. The reason that the local carriers will not get any more than this amount is because none of the routes is what is known in the postal department as "regular" or twenty-five mile routes. The longest distance from the local office is twenty-two miles. The pay on this route is $860. The others pay $810 and all of the carriers will share proportionately in the disbursements of the $4,000,000.

On June 30 last there were 41,562 rural carriers, and their aggregate salaries for the fiscal year just ended was about $35,793,000. The rural delivery system was $1,000 a year, with proportionate increases from 83 carriers at a cost of $14,840 for the fiscal year 1897 to 35,666 carriers at a cost of $24,201,520 for the fiscal year 1906. A large growth has also occurred in the last five years, the cost of the service having increased about $10,000 000.

When the system was first established carriers were paid only $200 a year. The next year the maximum annual pay was increased to $300 and in the following year to $400. In 1900 the maximum compensation was made $500 and in 1902 $600. In 1904 a further increase to $720 a year was granted, and finally in 1907 the maximum pay was advanced to $900. The maximum of $1,000 to be paid in the current year is thus just five times the salary at which the system was started, fifteen years ago.

An important consideration that induced Mr. Hitchcock to authorize the expenditure of the $4,000,000 was his desire to give the rural carriers ample compensation to cover any additional burden to be placed on them by the establishment of the parcels post system he has recommended for the rural routes. Now that the men are to receive such an increase he feels that congress should lose no time to authorize the carrying of parcels. He points out that a parcels post system on rural routes can be conducted without any extra expense to the government other than the $4,000,000 salary increase, which, in his judgment, will be more than offset by the parcels post revenues.

Mrs. William Wilson.

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Jennie Wilson, colored, wife of William Wilson, died last night at her home on Cottage place. She was forty years old and had been a resident of this city a number of years. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at half 1:30 o'clock from the parlors of Cole's undertaking establishment, 200 West Second street, and interment will be made in Somerville. Rev. G. W. Bailey will be the officiating minister.

—Iced tea and coffee will help to make life worth living these days and don't forget that Neuman Bros. carry the finest brands of tea and coffee.

DEFENDS COUNCIL

Dilts in Hot Debate at Democratic Club Opposes Commission Government.

ASSEMBLYMAN FAVORS PLAN.

Brodhead and Ellis Advocate Woodrow Wilson Idea for Plainfield —Committee Appointed to Name Candidates

The Plainfield Democratic Club held a red hot meeting last night, just as heated as the weather conditions would permit. The cause was a sizzling discussion, several hours in length, on the proposed commission form of government. Owing to the large nature of the debate and the small percentage of the club's membership being present, a resolution was passed to have another meeting, after giving due notice to all members, the session to be given over entirely to commission government discussion.

Another resolution passed was one empowering the chair to appoint a committee to select candidates for all offices, State and municipal, to be nominated at the fall primaries, the names of the candidates to be submitted to the club at the next regular meeting for discussion in which the public will be invited to join.

LeRoy J. Ellis, president of the club, Assemblyman Calvin E. Brodhead, J. V. F. Dilts and a number of others were the ones entering into the debate and making it active. Mr. Ellis and Mr. Brodhead spoke in favor of the proposed form of government, the latter being particularly strong in his remarks in favor of it. He cited the effect commission government has had already in Paterson, where, he said, it is giving universal satisfaction. Mr. Ellis was heartily in favor of the passage of a resolution indorsing it for this city, but the resolution to have the matter further discussed before going on record was passed instead.

Mr. Dilts just as emphatically went on record as being opposed to the Democratic Club of Plainfield taking up the question of government by commission at this time and at length reviewed the progress made without it. He held up the members of the council as men above reproach and said in an answer to a query with which he was interrupted that while it worked all right in Paterson and would probably work all right in other cities in the State the conditions here were different and under that form of government it would be impossible to secure commissioners of the same calibre as the men now in the Council. He challenged Assemblyman Brodhead to make a comparison between Paterson and Plainfield, considering the personnel of the councilmen and the conditions in each city to disprove his assertion.

All of the other speakers' remarks were favorable to government by commission.

MISS LAURA LAING, AGED 54 YRS., DEAD

Miss Laura V. Laing, aged 54 years, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Laing, former well known residents of this city, died yesterday at her home, Little Falls, Essex county, following a serious illness of ten days with a complication of disease. She had been in poor health for sometime.

Miss Laing was born in this city, but had been away from Plainfield for a number of years. She was a member of the DeKalb Avenue M. E. church, Brooklyn, and a regular attendant of the M. E. church at Little Falls. She was a sincere and devoted Christian and bore her suffering with patience.

The funeral services will be held at the late home tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and wil be in charge of Rev. F. L. Rounds, pastor of the M. E. church, of Little Falls. The burial will be in the family plot in the M. E. cemetery on Plainfield avenue Thursday morning. Miss Laing is survived by two brothers, Addison L. Laing, of Brooklyn, and William T. Laing, of Little Falls.

Welcome Relief from Heat.

After the intense heat wave of the past week everyone will welcome the opportunity to go to Asbury Park on Thursday with the Methodist Sunday-schools, of this city, the Methodists of Dunellen and Wilson Memorial chapel. A dip in the ocean and cooling sea breezes will revive you as nothing else will just now.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kriney, of Mariners place, left yesterday to spend two months in Albany.

DIES OF WOUND; COMPANION HELD

Young Hadley Succumbs In Hospital and Linwood Hutchinson In County Jail Must Answer Homicide Charge.

Joseph Hadley, the eighteen year old boy who was shot rather mysteriously near his home at Stelton, Sunday night, while in the company of Linwood Hutchinson, aged sixteen years, the adopted son of Ralston Dunbar, died at Muhlenberg Hospital about 9 o'clock last night, without having regained consciousness. The Middlesex county authorities were notified at once.

The body of the Hadley boy was removed to Cole's undertaking establishment on West Second street, where an autopsy was performed by Dr. C. B. Lufburrow, under the direction of County Physician Edgar S. Carroll, of Middlesex. Yesterday it was reported that the bullet which entered the boy's face was at the base of the brain. The autopsy showed it to be located in the left hemisphere of the brain, and there was no possibility of removing it with safety prior to the victim's death. Undertaker Walter G. Runyon, of Dunellen, took charge of the body, and after consultation with the family will make arrangements for the funeral.

Linwood Hutchinson, who was arrested early yesterday morning at his home, is now being held in the county jail, New Brunswick, for the action of the Grand Judy on a charge of homicide. This case as well as that of John O. Wilson and Harvey F. Carr, of Camden, who are held responsible for the death of Charles Clifford, on Park avenue, yesterday morning will be considered by the Grand Jury within the next two weeks.

Prosecutor Theodore B. Booream, of New Brunswick, in conversation with a reporter for The Daily Press today, said that he cannot as an official assume that the shooting which caused Hadley's death was an accident or even that of manslaughter. He has no other alternative except to hold Hutchinson on a charge of homicide.

Further inquiry today revealed the fact that the Hadley family is not inclined to hold the Hutchinson boy responsible for the fatality, being more disposed to look upon it as an accident. The Hutchinson boy has an excellent reputation and during the past eight years he has lived with Ralston Dunbar, who took him out of a home in New York, he has conducted himself in an exemplary manner. The boy now feels deep regret over the death of Hadley, but still insists that his fingers did not touch the trigger when he handed the gun back to Hadley.

The Hutchinson boy can secure his release from jail on habeas corpus proceedings, but thus far no one has interceded in his behalf in this respect. Prosecutor Booream said today that under present conditions the case is not a bailable one. Under habeas corpus proceedings the evidence would be taken and reviewed by the court and if found not sufficient to hold the prisoner he might get his release.

Among those present when the autopsy was performed on Hadley were County Physician Edgar S. Carroll and Coroner Hubbard, of New Brunswick; Dr. C. B. Lufburrow, Dr. A. G. Sheppard and Dr. P. J. Zeglio The last named physician attended the Hadley boy in the hospital

Hutchinson's story as told to a reporter at the jail in New Brunswick follows:

"I went to the First Baptist church at New Market on my bicycle. As I was on my way home I met Hadley on his sister's bicycle, carrying a gun. We had always been chums, and I stopped to talk with him.

He said he had been riding a motorcycle and Lauterbach's dog bothered him, and he was going to shoot it, and wanted me to go with him.

"We went along to Lauterbach's but the dog didn't come out. We waited, and then he handed the gun to me, asking if I wanted to try a shot. I had never had a gun of any kind in my hands before. I took it and held it, but did not try to shoot. Hadley stooped down to fix his trouser clip, and when he got up I handed him the rifle, with the barrel toward him. I do not know whether it was cocked or not. My hand was six inches above the trigger when I handed it.

(Continued on page 4.)

A. E. FORCE & CO.

Attend Our Great Annual July Clearance Sale

Unprecedented Bargains Will Be the Order Commencing Today and Lasting All This Week.

50 S&H Green Stamps Free to All Who Make a Purchase Amounting to $1.00 or More.

This is the Fifth anniversary of the installation of S&H "Green Trading Stamps" in this store. During the past five years we have placed in the homes of our patrons thousands of dollars worth of ornaments, luxuries and utilities, without cost to them. We have done this as a means of advertising. We have thus shared our profits with patrons as a compliment for their trade and an inducement for them to pay us "Cash."

50 FREE STAMPS—THIS IS THE VALUABLE COUPON—50 STAMPS FREE
Present this coupon in our S&H "Green Stamp" Premium parlor on third floor, where an attendant will mark it O. K. It will then entitle the holder to Fifty Free Stamps upon making a purchase of $1.00 or more and presenting the coupon at cashier's desk. These stamps will be in addition to those we will regularly give with the purchase—Void after July 15. "A. E. Force & Co." Press.

EMBROIDERIES.

35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c

10c embroideries for.......5c

20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for......10c

25c nainsook, 36 inch wide. for 18c

20c white goods, checks and figures 10c

49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c

69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c

$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers.......89c

$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 75c

WASH GOODS.

9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c

12½c percales for 9c

10c and 12c printed lawns..7c

25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for......15c

50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c

15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c

$1.50 Rugs for 98c

$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.

Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF

$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50

$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c

$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for..............$2.98

$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for.......$7.50

$25.00 White Serge Suits for...........$15.00

$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50

Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.

$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.......$4.49
$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for........$2.98
50c Men's Fine Hose for..............25c
59c Men's Negligee Shirts for..........39c
25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for..........12½c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c

25c Huck Towels for.....15c

12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c

25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c

59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c

12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.

69c Cotton Diaper........49c

12½c Pillow Cases........9c

22c Table Oilcloth for....15c

$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c

$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.

15c Misses' Hose.........10c

15c Boys' Hose..........10c

CORSETS.

$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c
$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c
$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49
50c Ladies' Gloves.......25c

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse,
The City Market, 125 North Ave.
R. A. Clevely..............157 North Ave.
Thabo & Co...........316 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns..........312 Watchung Ave.
Jos Moledesky.......247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co............R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr...............411 Park Ave.
F. A. Laing...........149 W. Front St.
L. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts
[illegible]..............111 Park Ave
[illegible] & Stahl..........113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....331 Watchung Ave
[illegible] Garthwaite Cor 4th & Watchung
[illegible] Cor E 3rd & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN

Dunellen ....A. Peters
New Market........................ Coriell
Bound Brook..........Union News Co.
Somerville..................Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. F. Witthe, A. E. Snyder
Westfield..........................L. Glasser
Scotch Plains ....Frank Anson
South Plainfield..................Hamilton
Fanwood.......................Frank Anson
Netherwood.................W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Mayor Sandford ordered the blue laws enforced in the borough Sunday and consequently there was some kicking on the part of those who had been reaping bountiful harvests on the Sabbath. Councilmen Todd and Bogardus made a round of the village ordering every store closed. Vincent Tooze, who conducts a barber shop on North avenue, when told to shut up his business for the day, replied that he had a perfect right to keep open as long as any other stores were doing business. The councilmen gave him five minutes to lock the doors of his place and stop his work. Tozze reluctantly consented.

The closing of the stores in the village Sunday was the result of trouble, which occurred last summer when Paul Ratti refused to pay his share for the sprinkling of North avenue. At that time Mayor Sandford enforce the blue laws but recently the borough authorities have been rather dilatory in demanding Sunday closing. Now that the hot weather has come again and candy and ice cream parlors are always crowded on the Sabbath, Mayor Sandford decided that Dunellen should have an absolutely clean Sunday.

Ambrose Ryno, who sustained a broken hip while unloading sashes on East Second street, Plainfield, yesterday, is reported to be resting comfortably in Muhlenberg Hospital where he was taken immediately after his fall from the wagon.

From the result of last Saturday's game with the Phoenix A. C., it seems that the local boys can't be beat. They haven't lost a game in three weeks and they've been up against some hard propositions too.

Russell Runyon is there with the stick work as usual. The former captain of the Plainfield High School team landed a hit Saturday.

SOMERVILLE.

Rev. Dr. George H. Payson, of New Brunswick, preached in the Second Reformed church Sunday, in the absence of the pastor, who is traveling in Europe. In the First Reformed church the pulpit was filled by Rev. Clifford Case, of Poughkeepsie. Mr. Case is a son of Philip Case, of Somerville, and a brother of Judge Case.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hardy and daughter, of Brooklyn, are visiting Mrs. Hardy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Kugler, north of Somerville.

Mrs. Sarah Cook and daughter Miss Margaret, of Brooklyn, have taken one of the Weaver cottages at Millstone for the summer months.

Charles Wilcox and family, of New York city, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilcox, on South Bridge street.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dalley, of New York, are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Dalley, on Wall street.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster and daughter, of Perth Amboy, are guests of Mrs. Foster's father, Dennis Wyckoff, at East Millstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrington and children, of New York, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brien, Jr., north of Somerville.

Mrs. Charles Van Nest has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. W. J. Brennan, of Pittsburg, Pa., for three weeks.

Miss Madelyn B. McWilliams, of Raritan, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mulligan, at Waterbury, Conn.

Mrs. Newell and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of Brooklyn, are guests of Mrs. William C. Newell, at Green Knoll.

Mrs. Charles Hummer and daughter, of Panama, have been guests of Mrs. James Hummer, at East Millstone.

Miss Hoff, of Millstone, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Charles Opie, at Harlingen.

Mr. and Mrs. James Van Doren, of Bound Brook, are guests of Mrs. Cassie Garretson, at Millstone.

Miss Edith Hill, of Neshanic, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Edgar, in Somerville.

Mrs. Augustus Venderveer, of West High street, is at the Delaware Water Gap.

Miss Margaret Van Doren, of East Millstone, is at a summer school in Cape May.

Alonzo H. Dayton, cashier of the Second National Bank, is on his vacation.

James H. Masker and Mrs. Masker, of Mercer street, are at Atlantic City.

Phillip Cahill and Joseph Hickey have returned from Norwalk, Conn.

Hamilton Wolf, of Philadelphia, is a guest of relatives at Frankfort.

Mrs. Joseph Navath and children, of Raritan, are at Coney Island.

Senator Joseph S. Frelinghuysen and family are at Spring Lake.

Miss Caroline Gilmore is visiting relatives at Glen Gardner.

Miss Anna V. N. Garretson, of Green Knoll, is in Maine.

Mrs. Lucinda Covert, of Harlingen, is in Trenton.

Wilbus R. Veghte is at Asbury Park.

Extra Thick Best Quality
JAR RUBBERS
WE CLOSE AT NOON SATURDAYS
J. W. GAVETT
West Front Street.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

BROKAW'S CREAMERY.
No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.
TEL 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

McCULLOUGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place, North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

WHEN U NEED
—EITHER—
ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER
JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS
FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by
H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.
TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,
(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE
Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well-stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.
Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

King George gave a state banquet in Dublin and held a Chapter of the Order of St. Patrick.

The Poltava, 23,000 tons, a Russian battleship of the Dreadnought type, was launched.

President Taft and his yachting party of Senators returned to Washington after a two day's cruise.

Governor Dix, at Albany, sent a message to the Legislature urging the passage of the Harte inheritance tax bills.

Frank A. Hooker, justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan, died of heart failure in the railroad station at Auburn, N. Y.

President Taft sent to the Senate the nomination of Samuel W. Backus to be Commissioner of Immigration at San Francisco.

The second heat wave reached a maxium of 95, killing several persons in the metropolitan district and causing much suffering.

The North Atlantic steamship lines resumed conferences in London, with a view to establishing a pool in their third class traffic.

The German aviation circuit, a 1,200-mile race, was finished at Berlin, Koenig, Vollmueller and Buechner being the first three.

Congress.—Senate: The Cummins and Simmons amendments to the reciprocity bill were defeated. The House was not in session.

A dispatch from San Francisco stated that all but two of the passengers of the wrecked steamer Santa Rosa had been accounted for.

Three persons were drowned in a collision between the steamer John Mitchell and William H. Mack, on Lake Superior; the Mitchell was sunk.

Russia informed Germany the she is in complete agreement with the French point of view on the subject of Morocco; pourparlers are progressing.

The seven balloons entered in the national elimination race started from Kansas City, Mo.; the Kansas City was the first to get away, at 5:10 o'clock.

General Theodore A. Bingham resigned his place as chief engineer of the Bureau of Highways, of New York, because, he said, he couldn't accomplish anything.

The Interborough company is expected to decline finally the city's subway terms today after J. P. Morgan, Jr., has explained the company's financial objections to the terms.

Mayor Gaynor, in a letter, said he did not believe there were seven "ideal citizens" in the city of New York, who would accept places on the new Board of Education without pay.

The Public Service Commission will order the traction companies to restore transfers at 151 points throughout New York city, it was announced, the rule to take effect August 15.

The Venezuelan government ordered the gunboat Margarita to Maracaibo, and preparations were made to concentrate troops at any point at which ex-President Castro might be reported.

Four policemen were suspended by Commissioner Waldo, of New York, who asked the District Attorney to investigate the disappearance of the Stokes letters; it is thought likely the case against his assailants would be dropped.

H. N. Atwood and Charles K. Hamilton left Atlantic City in the morning, intending to fly to Washington; they arrived within eight miles of Baltimore, where the weather conditions compelled them to descend; three ineffectual attempts to resume the journey were made.

NEGRO MAY SELL PATENT.

Trenton, July 11.—After hearing argument yesterday, Judge Rellstab, in the United States Circuit Court, denied an application of Harry F. Barnetts for an order temporarily restraining William S. Smith, a colored preacher ,of Jersey City, from transferring his rights in a patented railway switch contrivance. Smith was the inventor and owner of the patent.

Barnetts claimed that Smith had agreed to assign his interest to Barnetts in consideration of his forming a company, in which Smith was to be a part owner, for the exploitation of the patent. Smith admitted having conferred with Barnetts, but denied making the agreement claimed.

Old Fireman Heat Victim.

Elizabeth, July 11.—A victim of the heat wave, Matthew Decker, a veteran volunteer fireman of Elizabeth, who for many years was a member of Rolla Engine Company and the Exempt Firemen's Association of this city, died Sunday evening at the hospital here. He was about fifty-seven years old, a native of Elizabeth and married. Decker was a butcher by trade. The body was removed to the morgue.

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Bras Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

Toilet Tissue Paper, 1,000 sheets to the roll; regular 5c value; sale, roll.....3c
(Limit 6 rolls).

Never Pay Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Ramonie Batiste, good selection of light or dark styles; regular 12½c; clearance sale, yard 9c

In Planning This July Clearance Sale Our Aim Was to Make It the Greatest Money-Saving Event of the Year

And that we've succeeded in our ambition and even exceeded the high mark we aimed at was amply demonstrated by the enthusiastic buying of the past few days.

Shoppers who came merely to compare prices were immediately convinced that this is the real bonafide money saving stock clearing event of the entire year. The goods are so fresh, so new, so perfect, so thoroughly in accord with present modes and fashions that many wondered why we should reduce the price so recklessly when the season is only half over.

ANOTHER LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES, ABOUT 100; VALUES UP TO $1.98; JULY SALE 98c

This is manufacturers clean up time; they cut up all surplus stocks of piece goods and make them up into the best selling styles for clearance sale; in this way they close out their stocks and the retailer procures good, desirable bargains to offer the public; this second lot of 100 dresses is different from the first lot; the styles are all good, the values run from $1.69 to $2.25; sizes 2 to 5 and 6 to 14. every size in the lot but not in every style; July sale.....98c

A SECOND LOT OF MISSES' DRESSES, VALUES UP TO $3.98; JULY SALE..$1.98

Did you see the first lot last week? They sold completely out by Saturday morning and those who waited for this second lot will be delighted with this assortment; the styles are pretty, materials that give satisfaction; about 8 styles in all; some in several colors, giving you about 65 dresses to choose from; values are up to $3.98 easily; July sale.....$1.98

(Sizes 15, 16 and 18 for misses and small women).

BOYS' WASH SUITS—CLEAN UP OF A LEADING MAKE; VALUES UP TO $2.98—JULY SALE $1.19

This is the best bargain in good wash suits we have even seen; we closed out from a well known manufacturer his entire sample line, consisting of about 350 boys' colored wash suits, and divided them in our two stores; the 150 for this store are in and assorted in piles by sizes to make choosing easy; not one suit in the lot is worth les than $1.75 and from that up to $2.98. So we certainly feel justified in saying that it's the best bargain we have ever seen in boys' wash suits; ages 2 to 7; July sale $1.19

GOOD NEWS FOR MEN.

PLAIN AND FANCY SOISETTE SHIRTS, $1.25 QUALITY; JULY SALE 89c

About 10 dozen men's soisette shirts in plain and stripes. We closed out one-fourth off, and place on sale in the same way; the make is the well known Wellington Brand, with double cuffs; soisette is the coolest summer shirt, and deserves its popularity; sizes 14 to 17; $1.25 quality; July sale 89c.

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..	2					7
Brooklyn	1	..	2	6				9
Boston	7	..	6	4				17
Philadelphia	2	..	4	2				8
Chicago	2	..	3	2				7
Cincinnati	11	..	2	2				15
Pittsburg	3	..	2	2				7
St. Louis	6	..	2	2				10
AMERICAN
New York	2	5	5					12
Philadelphia	9	6	..					15
Boston	5	9	8					22
Washington	5	7	5					17
St. Louis	7	3	5					15
Cleveland	4	1	..					5
Chicago	12	2	2					16
Detroit	7	6	4					17

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	44	28	.611
New York	45	30	.600
Philadelphia	45	30	.600
Pittsburg	42	31	.575
St. Louis	42	32	.568
Cincinnati	31	41	.431
Brooklyn	27	46	.370
Boston	18	56	.243

Yesterday's Results.

Chicago, 3; New York, 2 (10 innings).
Pittsburg, 2; Brooklyn, 0.
Philadelphia, 4; St. Louis, 2.
Boston, 6; Cincinnati, 2.

Games Today.

Pittsburg at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	51	24	.680
Philadelphia	49	25	.662
New York	39	35	.527
Boston	39	35	.527
Chicago	37	34	.521
Cleveland	36	42	.462
Washington	37	49	.430
St. Louis	20	54	.270

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 5; Chicago, 2 (11 innings).
Detroit, 4; Washington, 3.
Boston, 8; St. Louis, 5.

Games Today.

New York at St. Louis.
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	50	25	.667
Baltimore	48	29	.623
Toronto	43	24	.558
Montreal	33	36	.478
Jersey City	33	37	.471
Buffalo	31	37	.456
Newark	27	42	.391
Providence	26	51	.338

Yesterday's Results.

Newark 4; Providence, 3.
Jersey City, 2; Baltimore, 1.
Rochester, 4; Buffalo, 2 (10 innings).
Toronto, 11; Montreal, 0 (7 innings; rain).

Games Today.

Providence at Newark.
Baltimore at Jersey City.
Buffalo at Rochester (2 games).
Montreal at Toronto.

With the St. Louis Cardinals making a strong fight for the National League pennant, Cincinnati fans are grumbling because Bresnahan has three former Reds on his team. Huggins, Oakes and Mowrey were let out by the unfortunate Clark Griffith at a time when they appeared to be of little use. Bresnahan has infused the trio with new life and ginger, so that they are playing championship ball. The success of the Cardinals is ascribed to the fact that Bresnahan has been working four pitchers for all they are worth. Sallee, Harmon, Golden and Steele, used in rotation, have developed effectiveness that few believed they possessed. These methods have been employed by the managers of many winning teams and prove that Bresnahan knows what he is about. The late Stanley Robison and his brother, Frank De Haas Robison, struggled for many years to build up a money-making ball club. If they were alive today they would rejoice in the fact that Bresnahan has turned the St. Louis club into a proverbial mint. It is said that the profits for the present campaign will reach the $100,000 mark, a record for the National League in the Mound City.

STONED THE LOVERS.

Stones were weapons used in an attack Sunday night on Miss Faith Kane, a maid employed by W. H. Ebeling, of 17 Walnut Crescent, Montclair, and her escort, Charles Lee, of New York.

The attack occurred in Glen Ridge while the couple were out for a stroll. Three men are said to have been the assailants, who, it is declared, were prompted to commit the deed by jealousy. Miss Kane and Lee were both treated for their injuries at the Mountainside Hospital. The former is ill at Mr. Ebeling's. Lee returned to New York.

JERSEY SHERIFFS TO FIGHT.

Against Court Assumption of Right to Set the Sheriff Aside.

Trenton, July 11.—Many of the sheriffs of New Jersey have notified Sheriff E. L. Johnson, of Atlantic county, that they will aid him in any steps he may take to resist the order made recently by Supreme Court Justice Samuel Kalisch, divesting him of the jury drawing prerogative, and naming two elisors to select a special Grand Jury for an inquiry into the alleged election frauds of last fall.

The question of the court's power cannot come up till the Grand Jury about to be drawn by the court's elisors shall have presented bills. Then the right of the Grand Jury to find bills may be contested by those accused. Meanwhile, however, the election methods that have prevailed in South Jersey for more than a quarter of a century will have been exposed.

The sheriffs say that they are constitutional officers; that their functions are fixed by law, and that no power but the Legislature can rearrange or abridge their prerogatives. Justice Kalisch is said to admit that there is no statutory law to justify his interference with the sheriff in Atlantic county and to base his action on the common law and the necessity of removing all obstructions to the course of justice.

The sheriffs are taking counsel in the hope of finding a legal proceeding that will enable them to prevent the court's elisors from drawing a panel of grand jurors.

CHILD ACCIDENTALLY KILLS SELF WITH GUN.

Trenton, July 11.—The accidental explosion of a thirty-eight-caliber revolver Sunday ended the life of James Guardano, nine years old, of 612 South Clinton avenue, the bullet penetrating his heart and killing him almost instantly.

It was while preparing to go out with his mother and stepfather to spend the afternoon that he came upon the weapon. He went upstairs shortly before noon to change his clothing, and while rummaging about in a bureau in the front room in search of a pair of stockings, it is supposed, found the revolver.

His stepfather, Joseph Famiano, and his mother, together with two boarders, Joseph Bandina and Dominic Fraccia, were sitting on the front step of their home. They heard a report from upstairs, and Famiano rushed up to his room.

He saw little James lying on the floor near the bureau with a blood stain on his shirt over his heart and the huge revolver lying at his side. Just as he reached the youngster's side he gave a short gasp and died.

Dog Saves Drowning Man.

Richfield, July 11.—Samuel Biterle was saved from drowning Saturday afternoon by his Great Dane dog. Biterle was swimming in the canal when he was suddenly seized with cramps. As he was sinking he cried, "Help, Nero!" and the animal sprang into the water and swam toward him. As Biterle came to the surface Nero caught him by the arm and pulled him ashore. Mean time several persons approached and they succeeded in reviving the unconscious man.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

We Close Saturdays at 12:30 Until After Labor Day

OUR REFRIGERATOR STORY
The famous White Mountain Refrigerators, with its cold dry air circulation and its pure white stone lined chamber is the cleanest, simplest and best refrigerator for the preservation of perishable foods. Built of solid oak, with rounding corners.
$34.50 to $52.25

GOOD REFRIGERATORS
With oak cases, enamel or galvanized iron lined provision chambers, well made and finished.
$10.50 to $32.50

BABY CARRIAGES
We are offering this week a line of Baby Carriages at cut prices. Wood bodies and imitation leather hoods.
$7.75 to $15.00

POWLISON & JONES
149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

YOUR HOME
can be built or bought on money borrowed from Home Building and Loan Association.
Many people own their property who otherwise could never have had it.
Interest at favorable rates, with principal easily repaid in small monthly payments.
Apply to Home Building and Loan Association or Arthur E. Crone, Secretary.
tu-th

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at Putnam & De Graw's

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt Deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—781.

A. & P. Pure Food Bulletin, July 10 to 15, Inclusive.

100 STAMPS FREE
WITH THE FOLLOWING:

½-lb GOLDEN KEY or THEA-NECTAR TEA.....30c
1 lb PLAZA COFFEE.....30c
½-lb A. & P. BAKING POWDER.....25c
1 JAR JAM.....15c
Total $1.00

BIG BARGAINS BRING BUSINESS

WHOLE MILK CHEESE, lb.....13c
PURE LARD, lb.....10c
JAPAN RICE, lb.....5c
NATIONAL BISCUIT CRACKERS, all 10c pkgs. 8c; 5c pkgs. 4c
MARSHALL'S KIPPERED HERRING, 2 cans.....25c
PACIFIC TOILET PAPER, 7 rolls.....25c
CAMPBELL'S SOUPS, 3 cans.....25c
EL PRIMERO ASPARAGUS, a can.....26c
CAMPBELL'S SOUPS, 3 cans.....25c
1776 WASHING POWDER, a pkg.....3c
SAFETY MATCHES, 1 dozen boxes.....5c
GRAPE JUICE, A. & P. pints.....20c
SEEDED RAISINS, 3 pkgs.....25c
EVAPORATED APRICOTS, a lb.....16c
EVAPORATED PEACHES, a lb.....10c
A. & P. PEAS, a can.....14c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS AND COFFEES.

10 with 1 lb Sultana, 25c.
20 with 1 lb 8 O'clock, 25c.
20 with 1 lb Plaza, 30c.
30 with 1 lb El Ryad, 35c.
30 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 35c
40 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 40c
60 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 50c
75 Stamps with 1 lb Tea at 60c

New Laid Eggs, dozen . . 25c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH GROCERIES.

20 Stamps with 3 pkgs. A. & P. CORN STARCH, each.....7c

10 STAMPS FREE

10 Stamps with 1 can SULTANA SPICE.....10c
10 Stamps with ½-lb A. & P. PREMIUM CHOCOLATE.....16c
10 Stamps with 1 bottle A. & P. KETCHUP.....18c
10 Stamps with 2 cakes A. & P. SCOURING SOAP.....5c
10 Stamps with 1 bottle AMMONIA.....10c
10 Stamps with 1 box SHAKER SALT.....10c
10 Stamps with 1 can LENTILS.....10c
10 Stamps with 1 can "2 IN 1" (KILLS BUGS).....10c

ARE YOU GOING TO THE SEASHORE?
Our Stores at Asbury Park, Long Branch and Atlantic City will supply your wants.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO.
137 W. Front Street
Telephone 117
350 Stores in the U. S.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 11 In American History.

1767—John Quincy Adams, sixth president of the United States, born at Braintree, Mass.; died 1848.

1804—Alexander Hamilton killed in a duel by Aaron Burr; born 1757.

1884—Nomination at Chicago of Cleveland and Hendricks, which brought into power the first Democratic administration in twenty-four years.

1898—Bombardment of Santiago concluded; last gun of the campaign fired.

1909—Professor Simon Newcomb, noted astronomer, mathematician and traveler, died in Washington; born 1835.

1910—Henry Dexter, art patron and philanthropist, died; born 1812.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:28, rises 4:35; moon rises 8:26 p. m.; 1:10 a. m., moon in conjunction with Uranus, passing from west to east of the planet.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 11. 1911.

FOREST FIRE TALK

(Continued from page 1.)

ers have yet discovered, is to divide the tract into sections by means of paths. At every mile, a clear space of sixty feet should be cut through the forest, at every quarter mile a thirty foot space should be cleared and at every eight mile, a path should be made. These openings not only are useful for fire fighting but they serve as highways through the forest, which can then be used as a public park.

Lantern slides of several ideal forests in Germany and the principal tracts of timber land in this vicinity were thrown on the screens. Among the pictures were several views of the great forest fires in Canada and Maine.

Mr. Gaskill complimented Edward Canning, the Watchung firewarden for his successful work in preventing fires in this vicinity. He stated that the United States' forestry commission had appropriated $1,000 for the prevention of forest fires in New Jersey. Accordingly the state forester declared that the Watchung mountains would be vigilantly patrolled from now until after the hunting season and that any careless hunters would be severely dealt with.

Yea Bo Excursion.

The Yea Bo Social Club will enjoy a trolley ride to Boynton Beach tonight.

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Warm Weather Needs

Men's Underwear

Cool comfortable summer underwear in all the popular makes. Balbriggans at 25c and 50c. B. V. D. at 50c. Porosknit at 50c.

Serivens at 75c. A special lot of athletic shirts and knee drawers in cros bar nainsook, at 29c and 39c a garment.

Parasols

Every style, shape and color combination is represented in the splendid showing. Plain Pongee in black, white and colors. Tan color Pongee, with hemstitched borders in checks, plain colors and Persian effects, blue and white and black and white styles in checks, plaids, polka dots and rings. Some pretty striped taffeta styles, with fancy Persian borders. The prices range from .....98c to $5.00

Children's Parasols—In plain color taffeta, plain tan pongee with colored border; from. ..39c up to $1.25

Toilet Requisites

In this department you'll find everything of the best and the prices are most reasonable. Toilet Soaps, Perfumes, Toilet Water, Tooth Paste. Tooth Powder, Face Powder, Cold Cream, Talcum Powder and Peroxide. The following well known makers are represented: Colgate's, Mennen's, Vantine's, Roger & Gallet, Hudnut's, Packer's, Babcock's, Woodbury, Lyons, Allen's, Dagget & Ramsdell, Jurgens, Pears, etc., etc.

Fine Wash Fabrics in the July Sale

AT 8½c A YARD

fine printed lawns, in dots, figures, stripes and floral effects; worth 12½c.

AT 15c A YARD

"Flaxon," the queen of wash fabrics, very fine and sheer, a splendid variety of prety designs; regular 20c.

AT 19c A YARD

Imported Irish dimities, handsome goods that sold regularly for 29c.

AT 15c A YARD

40-inch fine figured lawns with border, and 32-inch extra quality silk finished mull with border; were 29c a yard.

AT 10½c A YARD

Fine quality batiste in an endless variety of web designs and printed cross bar dimities; worth 19c.

AT 15c A YARD.

Foulards in all the wanted colors, in dots and figures; some with border; 27 inches wide; were 19c a yard.

AT 8½c A YARD

Fine dress ginghams in checks, plaids and stripes; equal to what most stores charge 12½c for.

Women's Underwear

Fine derby ribbed vests in cotton, lisle and silk; plain and fancy trimmed at prices ranging from ...10c to $1.00

Ribbed Pants, Umbrella and tight knee styles at .....25c and 50c

Union Suits with umbrella and tight knee pants.....50c, 75c, $1.00

Handsome White Dresses

A lot of manufacturers' samples of beautiful white dresses; made of very fine quality batiste; high and low necks, kimono sleeves, beautifully trimmed with lace and embroidery; many in the lot worth up to $12.50; sale price $2.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

The Wayne Cedared Papered Wardrobes

"Sold exclusively in this city by us."

Are better than a cedar chest. They keep your clothes free from moths, dust and wrinkles. The "Wayne Wardrobe" is made of tough, durable paper, impregnated with the delicate aromatic odor of pure red cedar, an odor that is repugnant to the moth family. Yet that odor does not cling to the clothes, as is the case with tar or moth balls, and not only for storing clothes but used in the bedroom every day of the week, every week of the month and every month of the year.

"Wayne Wardrobes" are made in ten sizes and range in price from 50c to $1.50.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

DIES OF WOUND

(Continued from page 1.)

"Just as I passed it, is went off, and Hadley fell down. I was so terrified that I hurried away home, and stayed there until the detective came after me."

Hutchinson told the story in an honest, straightforward way, and has not deviated in the material parts in all the times he has told it. His running away after the shooting is the only circumstance that might be called suspicious, but his explanation of that is plausible for a boy of his age.

Y. W. C. A Girls Return.

The delegates of the local Y. W. C. A. at the association convention at Silver Bay, Lake George, returned to this city this morning under the leadership of Miss Edith Hanaford. Everyone had a most delightful time at the conference and enjoyed the cool nights which prevailed in that region. A Silver Bay party will be held at the association building next Monday night when the delegates will do their Silver Bay "stunt."

Hurt at Station.

While playing last evening around the North Avenue Station until the train came in bringing him his newspaper bundles, Roy Neighbor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Neighbor, of Manning avenue, ran against an iron railing cutting his scalp and rendering him unconscious. He was hurried to Dr. Pittis' office where is was necessary to take several stitches to close the wound. The lad is reported as resting easy today.

Jack Doscher Sold.

Jack Doscher, the former manager of the New Brunswick team, who was recently reinstated by the National Commission, has been sold by Cincinnati to Jersey City, of the Eastern League. The old twirler and manager will start work at once with the "Skeeters."

To Paddle Own Canoe.

William G. Smith resigned his position as salesman with M. C. VanArsdale, last Saturday and it is understood that he contemplates starting in business for himself in the near future. It is also understood that several well known business men will be identified with him, among them being John H. Cose.

Mrs. Rhoda Noel.

Mrs. Rhoda Noel died last night at her home on Netherwood avenue, after an illness of several weeks. Arrangements for the funeral were to have been made late this afternoon upon the arrival of her son and will be announced tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spicer, of Central avenue, are spending two weeks at Alfred Station, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. White and children, of Willow avenue, are sojourning at Ocean Grove.

TOWNSHIP VS. ROGERS ON AN ANNEXATION

When William Henry Rogers, of Washingtonville, is able to come down the Dugway Hill without getting his collar wilted, there will be a hot debate in North Plainfield township. The reason for this exchange of wordy thoughts is the statement by Mr. Rogers, who by the way is an understudy of William Jeffery, since he is president of the Warren Township Circles on the Square, that Warren and North Plainfield townships should be annexed to one another for their future life.

But "Mayor" William deLaR Anderson, of Watchung, together with the dog catcher and constable of that "city," thinks otherwise and they have challenged the Power of Warren to a linguistic conflict. The fight of words was to have been held at the North Plainfield Township Improvement society's auditorium last night but Mr. Rogers was unable to appear on account of the wilted condition of his collar which was the result of a hot walk down the Dugway Hill. When he found that his linen was not presentable, he returned to his home to await a cooler night.

The citizens of Watchung are waiting for the debate with anxious anxiety while it is reported that their opponents from Warren are waiting with fearful fright. William H. will hold the floor alone against the citizens of Watchung but Mayor' Anderson will be supported by such dignitaries as Justice and Dog Catcher George T. Hughes, Health Officer Francis Ellsworth Bodin, Dr. Richard Moldenke, and Captain Edward Canning, of the fourth precinct, Watchung police.

Negro A-Chicken Hunting.

New Providence, July 11.—Two men in a wagon drove up to Daniel Webster's chicken coop, Sunday night at 11 o'clock. Mr. Webster heard them and went out to see what they were after. They drove away in a hurry then. One of them was a negro. At 1 o'clock in the morning and again at 4 o'clock, Mr. Webster was aroused by some one in his chicken coop. He went out each time and discovered a negro after his fowls. Webster gave chase, but couldn't catch the negro.

An Afternoon at the Shore.

A fine opportunity to spend the half holiday at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove is afforded by the special excursion to those famous resorts on Saturday, July 15, via New Jersey Central. Round trip costs only $1.25, children half fare. Special train leaves Plainfield 1:04 p. m. Returning leaves Asbury Park at 11:00 p. m. 7 11 3

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Pope and son, James L. Pope, Jr., of Grant avenue, are stopping at "The Shoreham," Asbury Park.

LITERARY.

In the July number of "Success Magazine," Inis H. Weed's article, "The Cattleman today," shows the evolution of the cowpuncher into a business man with a national organization. Rheta Childe Dorr checks up Ella Flagg Young's accomplishments in an article, "The Woman Who Teaches Chicago." Dr. Alexander Lambert's paper, "The Relation of Alcohol to Disease," is an authoritative contribution upon this important subject.

Scribner's Magazine for July contains a paper by James Ford Rhodes, the eminent historian, which reviews with remarkable lucidity the almost forgotten causes and effects of "The Railroad Riots of 1877." This was almost an industrial revolution and the strikers were finally subdued by the power of the National Government, the militia having utterly failed. Mr. Rhoades shows that the abuses of railroad management and the iniquities of a rate war were really at thebottom of this revolution of the wage-earners. General Funston's account of the fighting around "Caloocan and Its Trenches" is as vigorous as anything that he has written. His picturesque language, combined with his personal qualities as a fighter, makes his Philippine experiences as romantic as fiction.

At the time when the Portsmouth Conference rose, the Japanese navy "took stock" and found under its flag: Nine battleships of the total tonage of 119,876; nine armored cruisers of 81,709 tons; light cruisers and coast-defense ships, forty-six in number, of 126,120 tons; twenty-two destroyers of 7,554 tons; seventy-three torpedo boats of 6,544 tons—altogethe ,r159 ships with an aggregate tonnoge of 372,712. At the beginning of the Russian war the Japanese navy was composed of six battleships, of the total tonnage of 84,652; eight armored cruisers, of 73,983 tons; forty-four cruisers and coast-defense ships, of 111,470 tons; nineteen destroyers of 6,519 tons, and eighty torpedo boats of 7,119 tons.—Review of Reviews.

How a young Northerner in a motor-car fared forth into Virginia and laid siege to the heart of a girl reared under all the canons of the old regime is delightfully told by Emerson Hough in a story entitled "The Decline and Fall of Dixie," which leads the fiction in the Red Book Magazine for July.

Lovers of outdoor life and every man and woman interested in wholesome living, will find much that is timely and readable in the July number of Physical Culture. Upton Sinclair has contributed to this issue some noteworthy statements on "Making Real Men of Our Boys," and Bernarr Macfadden, Physical Culture's editor, discusses in an inte esting manner some remarkable results that have been attained by his readers in treating typhoid fever, diphtheria and other malignant diseases without the use of drugs.

Geologists are claiming that the greatest under-ground river in the world flows from the Rocky Mountains underneath New Mexico and Texas, emptying itself in the Gulf of Mexico. This river is thought to be in places several miles wide, and it is believed that it feeds rivers that flow upon the surface. The artesian well belt of Texas is pointed to as the uplifting of the water from this river, often from 800 feet below.—The Christian Herald.

The first authentic story of the Italian Camorra dealing in an orderly and dramatic fashion with the detection of the crimes of the terrible secret organization, is begun by Walter Littlefield in the July Metropolitan. The first installment which describes the murders that led up to the present trial of the Camorrists makes a narrative of unusual interest.

Mr. Herbert W. Fisher in the World's Work fo July, gives a very uncomfortable simile as an illustration of the suplus quantities of food we consume. Two generations ago a Dutch physician, out walking with his child, called the lad's attention to a passing hay load as big as a masterdon. "There, my son," said he, "is the equivalent of what one man eats in a year in excess of what he needs."

The sensation of a friend returning from a trip or dropping his suitcase for a chat between trains comes with the National Magazine, for the editor keeps "on the move." This month it is Alabama, first in the alphabetical roll-call of states, and first in natural charm. The editer and his party covered every county in Alabama, and have made a breezy, home-folks' story, concisely setting forth the wonderful recent developments in this historical old state.

Funeral of Mrs. Bettie Frank.

The funeral services of Mrs. Bettie Frank, widow of Louis Frank, and mother of Mrs. Isaac Schwed, were held at the home of the latter on Evergreen avenue, today at 12 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Solomon Foster, of Newark, officiated, and the burial was in Cypress Hills cemetery, Brooklyn.

Thermometer at 98.

There was only a slight relief today from the second heat wave that is now prevailing. At 2 o'clock this afternoon the temperature as announced officially by John Neagle was 98 degrees. The weather forcast is probable thunder storms tonight with much cooler weather tomorrow.

Miss Nora Cary, of Marion avenue, is sojourning at Esmont, Va.

Miss M. L. Hotchkiss, of Crescent avenue, is stopping at the Irving House, Dalton, Mass.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION
PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK
At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

ORGANIZED 1864
THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD
A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City
Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

THIS SPACE BELONGS TO
R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Watch it for "Health Hints" and information about his work.
Treatments by appointment only

—Use Press want ads.

EXCURSIONS.
First M. E. Church, Grace M. E. Church, Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, of Plainfield; Dunellen M. E. and Wilson Memorial Chapel.
ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
METHODIST
SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF PLAINFIELD AND DUNELLEN TO
ASBURY PARK and OCEAN GROVE
Thursday, July 13
Baggage car for baskets, Baby Carriages, Bicycles, etc.
Adults $1.25 Children 90c
Leave Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; and Plainfield, 8:15 a. m. Returning leave Ocean Grove 7:10, stopping at Plainfield, Grant avenue, Clinton avenue and Dunellen. 7 6 6

EDUCATIONAL.
Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 28, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprietor
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 344

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

R. ISKRAUT, D. V. M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Arrangements are being made for a picnic to be held Tuesday August 15, for the benefit of Sacred Heart church.

John McDonough has returned to New York, after visiting his mother, Mrs. James Gallagher.

Mrs. James Wilson and son, of Jersey City, are visiting her sister, Mrs. P. F. Kaine.

James Pickering has gone to Scranton, Pa., to visit friends.

Frank E. Faulks is enjoying t two weeks' vacation.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

Supervising Principal S. Dana Townsend is enjoying part of his summer vacation, enjoying yachting life along the New Jersey and New England coast.

Thomas Dobbins, of Newark, was the gest over Sunday of his mother, Mrs. Robert Walpole.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Sterns have returned from a visit with friends in Westfield.

Frank Lee is enjoying a week with relatives at Philadelphia.

SHAVE AND SHAMPOO, $1.75.

Atlantic City, July 11.—Close to the record price for a shave, hair cut and shampoo was demanded of S. W. Wheeler, a delegate to the Christian Endeavor convention, and as a result Samuel Schultz, who conducts a barber shop at South Carolina and Pacific avenues, is under bail of $25 to appear before Recorder Keffer.

Wheeler alleges that after he had been persuaded by Schultz to submit to a shampoo a bill of $1.75 was presented him, Schultz stating that the cost would be much greater were it not for the fact that Wheeler was a Christian Endeavor delegate. He paid the bill under protest and later appeared before Recorder Keffer and made a complaint.

The arrest of Schultz, the first under the new city ordinance concerning the regulation of barber shop prices, it is believed, will have the effect of curbing the rapacity of this class of offenders during the balance of the season.

HEALTH BILLS SIGNED.

Trenton, July 11.—Governor Wilson yesterday signed Senate bills 93 and 152. Senate 93 was introduced principally to correct a defect in a law requiring physicians to make immediate reports to the Senate board of all contagious diseases existing on dairy premises. Besides correcting the defective title the new law provides that when a contagious disease is discovered in any member of the family who is employed upon a dairy premises this fact must also be reported to the State board. Senate 152 requires physicians to report all cases of contagious diseases to local boards of health and compelling registrars, assessors and other officials who are charged with that duty to report them to the State Board of Health. The bill provides a fee of 10 cents for each report so made. The fee was inserted in the law for the purpose of encouraging more prompt reports.

LIVE WIRE KILLS TWO GIRLS.

They Stepped on it on Way to Church Festival at Carlton Hill.

While on their way to a festival in the Carlton Hill Presbyterian church near Rutherford last night Malcolm Barclay, nine years old, and Janet Park, eleven years old, both girls, stepped on a live fallen wire and were instantly killed.

A sister of Malcolm Barclay and another girl named Davis were badly burned about the hands and face by the wire. They were attended by a physician and will recover. All live in Carlton Hill.

HELD IN MOLTEN METAL.

Workman Terribly Burned and Alleged Assailant in Court.

Ricardo Zafreti was in the Police court at Trentan yesterday accused of assault and battery upon Cologne Zode, a fellow-workman. Zoda's son, George, charged that the prisoner beat his father into unconsciousness and then held him against a mass of molten iron in a mold until he was terribly roasted.

Zoda is now in a Trenton hosiptal and may not recover. Judge Harris held Zafreti to await further developments.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

—The best hot weather beverage is iced tea and coffee and Neuman Bros. sell high grade tea and coffee which make an ideal drink.

DOG FINDS PLUNDER BURIED IN HAYSTACK.

Spot, a bulldog belonging to Martin C. Mack, of Brookdale, was the cause of Mr. Mack finding silverware and jewelry in a haystack in the rear of his home. A week ago Mr. Mack found Spot pulling the hay away from the stack. Being unable to make him stop he chained the animal. Since then every chance the dog got he would run for the stack and pull at the hay.

Mr. Mack's son took Spot out for exercise yesterday but had not gone far before the dog ran for the haystack. The lad reported Spot's behavior and Mr. Mack investigated. He used a pitchfork and in the middle of the stack found a large suit case containing silverware and jewelry worth several hundred dollars. Constable Hiram V. Lavendosky was called. He remembered that a burglar had entered the home of Robert McDowd, of Richfield. Mrs. McDowd identified the goods. A watch will be kept for the return of the thief.

OUST RAHWAY SOLON.

Rahway, July 11.—The seat of William E. Martin, senior representative from the Fourth Ward, was declared vacant by council Saturday night. Martin's name was ordered stricken from the roll. Martin was elected in November, 1909, for a two years' term to represent the Fourth Ward. In November, 1910, he moved with his family from the Fourth to the Third Ward. Though several attempts have been made to have him resign, or his seat declared vacant, Martin continued to hold the place, claiming that he rented two rooms in his mother's house, which allowed him to hold the position, though at the same time he resided with his family in another ward. One of the points in the city attorney's opinion was that "a man could not rent rooms for voting purposes." The vote to declare his seat vacant stood 5 to 4.

Council took up and passed the railroad track elevation ordinance on its second and last reading. This is practically the same ordinance which Mayor William Howard vetoed.

TRIED TO MOB DOG WARDEN.

Rahway, July 11.—The dislike of a number of dog owners for "Tiny" Tyndall, local dog warden, resulted in a demonstration Saturday night against Tyndall, when he entered a local moving picture theatre. Before the affair ended it had become a near-riot and Tyndall had disappeared.

When Tyndall entered the theatre a storm of hisses greeted him. Finally he left the theatre, a number following him. As Tyndall reached the street a colored youth was hit and knocked through a plate glass window. It is said Tyndall hit the youth. At the sight of blood the crowd charged the dog warden. He drew a revolver and stood off the crowd, then turned and ran. The crowd chased him, but he outdistanced his pursuers.

ELIZABETH PAIR ELOPE.

Lebanon, Pa., July 11.—Coming here on a visit, Guy R. Frye and Miss Anna C. Weaver, both of Elizabeth, N. J., were unexpectedly wedded Saturday evening by Rev. C. D. Huber, pastor of the First United Evangelical church.

While chatting with relatives and friends at the home of Frye's brother, Isaac, the young people, who were sweethearts, were twitted about marriage, and young Frye expressed his entire "willingness to be married here and now." Miss Weaver also declared her willingness so the license was procured and the ceremony performed.

The young pair will return to Elizabeth to seek paternal forgiveness.

—Use Press want Ads

Y. M. C. A. ORCHESTRA HAS A NEW LEADER

George Goldsmith Daland, of Elizabeth, has been engaged as director of the Y. M. C. A. orchestra for the coming season. He will succeed Martin A. Korff, who retires from the leadership after nine years of faithful and efficient service.

Mr. Daland is a musician and conductor of high attainments. He studied under Dudley Buck, Francis Fischer Powers, William Shakespeare and Edward Mollenhauer after which he became organist and instructor of music in the Ithaca Conservatory. He has been organist and choirmaster of prominent churches in Brooklyn, Washington and Philadelphia. Since going to Elizabeth, he has organized and directed a successful orchestra in the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. This orchestra numbered in its membership the best players in the city and vicinity and its final concert, with a program including compositions by Greig, Dvorak, Ambroise Thomas, Schubert and Beethoven, was the musical event of the year.

Under Mr. Daland's leadership, the weekly rehearsals of the local orchestra will begin on Monday evening, September 25. All the men players of Plainfield and vicinity are invited to meet him at Y. M. C. A. Hall on that evening. Mr. Daland has expressed his willingness to receive those players who lack experience and training in a preparatory orchestra which will meet for instruction and rehearsal on the same evening as the main orchestra but at an earlier hour.

JERSEY'S PAINTERS CONVENE AT ASBURY.

The seventh annual convention of the Master Painters' Association of New Jersey opened this afternoon in the Ocean Hotel at Asbury Park. A number from this city are present and there will be a large delegation from here at tomorrow's sessions. The regular local delegates are Thos. Osmun and John Jensen.

Nearly all of the master painters will be in attendance tomorrow when there will be special lectures by experts including Professor Ladd, of North Dakota, who is the father of the present food law. He will address the convention on the subject of "Paint Tests." A. W. Nelson, of Brooklyn, will lecture on "Decorating the Modern Sky Scraper." M. R. Hasselmann, of New York, will talk on "Modern Stenciling," and there will be other addresses and papers read of particular interest to the painting and decorating trade.

Mrs. Frank R. Smith and daughter, Dorothy, of East Second street, are sojourning at Crescent Beach, Mattapoisette, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Edell and daughter, of West Fifth street, are stopping at Nassau Hall, Asbury Park, enjoying sea breezes.

HUDSON RIVER MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 315 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.
502 Watchung Avenue.
Little boys' suits and little girl's dresses made to order; also orders taken for hemming. Initial work a specialty. Tea served from 3 to 5 p. m.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME
is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.
You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.
Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 8 p. m.
Telephone 529-J.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence.
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40, Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3245-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 834-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094-Gramercy.

DIED.

LAING—At Little Falls, N. J., Laura V., daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John L. Laing.

Funeral services at the home of her brother, William G. Laing, at Little Falls, N. J., Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Burial Thursday morning in the Methodist cemetery, Plainfield, N. J.

MANNING—On Sunday, July 9, 1911, William H. Manning, aged 66 years.

Funeral services at his late residence, 521 East Third street, on Wednesday, July 12, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. 10 2

LAWTON—On Monday, July 10, 1911, Elousie R., widow of Robert J. Lawton, aged 76 years.

Funeral services at the residence of her niece, Mrs. E. D. Murphy, 22 Watchung avenue, on Tuesday, July 11, at 8 p. m. Interment at Shippensburg, Pa.

WILSON—On Monday, July 10, 1911, Jennie, wife of William Wilson, age 40 years.

Services from Cole's undertaking rooms, 200 West Second street, Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Interment at Somerville, N. J.

CLIFFORD—Suddenly on Monday, July 10, 1911, Charles Clifford in his 43rd year.

Funeral from his late residence, 96 Manning avenue, Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment in the North Plainfield cemetery.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.
L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply Woodland corner Hyland avenues. 7 11 3

WANTED—A thoroughly competent child's nurse, white, to go to country. Apply at once, 46 Myrtle avenue. 7 11 2

WANTED—At once, white woman to wash and iron Mondays and Tuesdays. Apply 248 East Ninth street. 7 10 tf

WANTED—Neat, competent white girl to assist with baby. 40 Albert street. 7 11 tf

WANTED—First class cook. Apply 716 Carlton avenue. 7 11 3

WANTED—Colored woman as laundress; plain work. E. H. Clevely, 179 North avenue. 7 10 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

BOY wanted, must be able to take care horse. Cobb's, 146 East Fifth street. 7 10 3

WANTED—Thoroughly competent experienced bookkeeper to work on small set of books evenings. Address D., care of Press. 7 10 3

WANTED—Good, strong boy. Apply with reference Kolb's, 112 West Front street. 7 8 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wishes position with private family; careful driver; make own repairs; strictly sober; willing, obliging; best references. Address W. R., care Press. 7 11 3

YOUNG man colored, 29 years old, desires position of any kind; references. Cabell, 635 West Third street. 7 11 3

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 3 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue 9 19 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—65 Westervelt avenue, April 1. Address W. R. Crary, Liberty, N. Y. 2 16 tf

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Miss Andress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

TO LET—Lower floor, 4 rooms; $11; West Third below Clinton avenue. Owner 17 Craig place. 7 11 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms, 671 West Fourth street. Apply 968 West Fifth street. 7 11 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 7 6 tfeod

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—From an automobile on East Front, at 8 p. m., July 10, Malacca cane with silver head. Suitable reward will be paid for return of same to 123 West Seventh street.

LOST—A large maltese cat. If found please return to 1008 South avenue; reward.

LOST—Saturday night, silver mesh bag; initials C. M. G.. Reward if returned to this office. 7 11 2

LOST—On main line trolley, between Plainfield and Westfield, pair of gold spectacles; reward if left at this office. 7 10 2

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

GRADUATE nurse wishes care of invalid, lady preferred. Address S. J. H., care Press. 7 8 3

YOUNG woman as first class laundress; understands all fine work. 198 Grove street.

POLISH girl wants position at general housework. 621 South Second street. 7 11 3

GOOD colored girl just from South wants situation; general housework. 217 Plainfield avenue. 7 11 3

GOOD laundress (white) would like to go out by the day or take wash home; reference. Address A. S., care Press. 7 8 3

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Fine farm, 104 acres, good potato soil, 50 large fruit trees, shade views of river, excellent 11-room house, large barn, 3 wagon houses, 3 chicken houses, corn crib; all good shape; price $10,800. Also 75-acre farm; best of soil, high elevation, 125 fruit trees, good 9-room house, 2 barns, wagon house, 2 chicken houses, brooder house, 3 hog houses, corn crib, including all machinery and tools; price $8,400. Owners will trade for Plainfield income property. Call Sammis, 20 West Main street, Somerville, N. J. 7 8 5

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press 3 21 tf

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

GOOD sound horse wanted. Salvation Army, East Fourth street. 7 5 6

FOR EXCHANGE.

HOUSE and lot, central location, rented; will sell or exchange for free and clear lots. Address Owner, M. C., care Press. 3 1 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FAMILY ice box for sale; first class ice saver; in good condition; will sell cheap to quick buyer. Murray's auction room, 164 East Front street. 7 7 6

BICYCLE for sale; gent's chainless; nearly new. Dilts, 95 Jackson avenue, N. P. 7 11 3

FOR SALE—Several chester white brood sows; also boar. Address box 116, New Market. 7 8 3

FOR SALE—Work horse. 8 Regent street. 7 10 3

FOR SALE—Two-cylinder motorcycle; 121 Madison avenue; first class condition; price reasonable. 7 11 3

GOOD toned piano cheap; bargain in fine automobile. John Manley, broker, 321 Park avenue. 7 11 6

RASPBERRIES for sale. Tel. 111-J. 7 10 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latouretta, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

TO LET—Pleasant furnished rooms. 175 East Front street. 7 8 3

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth st. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

GREAT WASTE IN AMERICA

Fortune Could Be Made Each Year From Car Oil and Corncobs Wasted.

Of the list of materials most grossly wasted in America each year car oil and corncobs are quite near the head of the column. It is estimated that there are 10,249,462 car wheels in the United States, counting those on the freight and passenger cars and the locomotives. These require 30 gallons of oil a year each, on an average, making the grand total of 307,483,860 gallons used to keep running the wheels in this important branch of commerce.

To soak up this vast amount of oil 51,247,310 pounds of cotton waste are used. In a demonstration of what goes to waste in this manner, 60 pounds of oily refuse was subjected to pressure and over seven gallons of good oil was collected. An average of eight gallons of oil squeezed from each 100 pounds of waste means a total value of $1,366,595 in a year, which is decidedly worth saving.

Discarded corncobs are another neglected source of wealth. These can be converted into wood blocks in many forms, the most valuable of which are lumber, railroad ties and the basis of many kinds of furniture. The corn crop of last year produced approximately 1,650,000,000 bushels of cobs. These pressed into board would yield many million feet of lumber; into tie they would make enough in number to supply several thousand miles of railroad.

IS SECRET OF EVERGLADES

Once a Volcano Top, the Place Is Now Remarkable for Its Fertility.

One of the strange facts about the Everglades region of Florida is that it is really a decayed mountain top. The crest is formed of massive limestone, usually covered by a mantle of sand. In this formation are numberless potholes, which vary in size from a few feet to thousands of acres; also countless lakes of fresh water, springs and frequent subterranean streams and pools.

A few miles north of Cape Sable is an outcrop of limestone which projects to Lake Okeechobee. In this outcrop is an extensive shallow basin extending 130 miles north and south and about 70 miles east and west, while the altitude of its rim is 12 feet above mean level low tide in Biscayne bay and a little less above the Gulf of Mexico.

As a result of the weather and flowing water the rim has been worn into fantastic shapes. The depth of the basin varies from one foot at the rim to twelve feet in places, but generally the rock floor is from a depth of one to six feet. And there is the secret of the fertility of the Everglades. Above the entire rock floor rises a layer of muck, formed of an alluvial deposit and of decayed vegetable matter. This deposit varies from a few inches to several feet in thickness. The water covering this deposit comes from springs that in turn have their source in the lake.—D. A. Willey, in Cassier's Magazine.

Quick Traveling.

Every one in eastern Oregon calls State Senator Bowerman "Jay," and thinks that when it comes to trying a hard fought criminal case there is none better. Not long ago the late candidate for governor defended a participant in a shooting scrape at Fossil and a material point in the case hinged upon the testimony of an aged Tennesseean.

"Where were you when this shot was fired?" queried counsel for the defense.

"I were about ten feet behint the feller what got shot."

"And were you there when the marshal arrived?"

"No, sah; I wa'n't nowhere nigh the place."

"You must have traveled pretty fast," suggested Mr. Bowerman.

The witness projected his goatee over the rail of the witness stand and in a confidential tone of voice said:

"Well, Jay, I'll tell ye; I made jest three tracks between Knox's livery barn and the cotehouse."—Portland Oregonian.

Wild Turkey in Virginia.

In King George county, Virginia, wild turkeys have been unusually plentiful. In a number of instances they joined flocks of domestic turkeys in barnyards. On the premises of Chapman Price, Belle Isle, a wild turkey joined the flock of fowls in the yard and when Price walked toward it the fowl became entangled in a wire fence and was caught.

Alexander Pott, one of the best shots in King George county, frightened some wild fowls away from his flock of turkeys and succeeded in shooting one as it flew away in the direction of the woods.

An Admirer of Mary Queen of Scots.

Theodore Napier, who for eight years has brought a wreath from Edinburgh to lay on the site of Mary Queen of Scots's execution at Fotheringay, near Peterborough, attended for the same purpose yesterday in full Highland attire.

On this occasion, however, he was refused admission to the castle site by the occupier of the farm of which it forms part. Mr. Napier left the wreath on an adjacent hedge, and will abandon the pilgrimage unless the prohibition is withdrawn.—London Evening Standard.

CALMEST MAN IN WORLD

News That He Has Inherited Big Fortune Does Not Change McCluskey.

A few days ago the calmest man in the world arrived here, says the New York correspondent of the Cincinnati Times-Star. He is John McCluskey, who, for his sixty years has been a farm laborer in Scotland. Some months ago his brother James died in this city, and left a large fortune of several thousand dollars to the brother he had not seen since they bade each other goodby in the heather, 40 years ago. Andrew Wilson, an attorney of this city, was named as the administrator. It was his duty to find the lucky brother. "He was slicing turnips for the sheep on his employer's farm, up among the mist clad hills of Scotland," said Mr. Wilson, "when I found him. I had traced his life from the old farm on which he was born step by step through the 40 years of ill-paid and often most unpleasant labor before I approached him. It was not difficult for he had held but a few positions in all those years. Every one in the countryside knew him.

"'Are you John McCluskey?' I asked.

"'I am,' said he without taking his eyes from the turnips and the knife.

"'Your brother James is dead in New York,' said I.

"'Aweel, aweel, all men must e'en die,' said John McCluskey, slicing away.

"'He left you a great fortune,' said I. 'I want you to come to the house with me so that I can establish your identity and arrange for you to enter into possession of the estate.'

"'I'll talk to ye at sax o'clock, young mon,' said he. 'I'll be busy till then. Thay fortune will keep, but thay turnips will not.'"

DISEASE SPREAD BY INSECTS

House Fly, Mosquito and Bedbug Are Chief Sources of Contagion.

A Texas physician has demonstrated that smallpox, admittedly a filth disease, is communicated only by the bite of the bedbug. That yellow fever and malaria are communicable noly by bite of an infected mosquito is also an established fact. The typhoid scourge has its inception in the filth that is distributed by the common house fly. Rats scatter the bubonic plague, and tuberculosis is contracted generally through breathing the germs that are carried in dust. With these facts known it would seem an easy task to reduce or eliminate the hazard to life that is found in these dread diseases. Mosquitoes may be eliminated by proper drainage of stagnant pools or by oiling the surface of such pools. They do not breed in considerable numbers save in dead water. Those that are not eliminated by precautionary measures may be shut out of the homes by proper screening. House flies breed in trash and garbage. Destruction of these breeding places will to a large extent do away with the fly. Those that are left can be shut out of the homes by proper screening. With knowledge of the facts concerning the origin of disease the people are able to make plans for their safety. Concerted effort is necessary, however, and the civic pride of every community should be enlisted in warfare against known dangers such as are found in the presence of flies and mosquitoes.

Lace Waistcoats.

A lace manufacturer at New Sawley, near Derby, is making lace-trimmed waistcoats for men. He is using light dress net over tinted cloth backgrounds. A black net over a dark purple cloth, for morning wear, and a white net over pale green cloth, for evening wear, are two of the combinations. The effect is said to be both rich and artistic.

A Nottingham lace manufacturer, interviewed as to the prospect of lace waistcoats finding favor with the public, said that while the trade would naturally welcome any innovation which would tend to create a demand for lace net, men's taste in dress would require a good deal of educating up to the new garments. The sentiment against the ornamentation of clothing was strong in the masculine mind.—London Daily Mail.

How Pennsylvania Boy Caught Carp.

It isn't safe for the carp in the West Branch to take a nap. Clarence Shaffer, a ten-year-old boy of Muncy Dam, caught a 20-pound German carp recently by a unique method.

Clarence said that he was walking along the shore when he happened to see the big fish "sitting near the bank asleep." He waded out to the fish and putting both arms around it threw it to the bank, he says, and it "never woke up until it hit." After it did "wake up," though, he had a tussle, but finally got it back in the field and then took it home.—Pennsylvania Record.

The Latter-Day Style.

Humpty Dumpty sat on a wall, and in due order got the great fall which was to foist him into the public eye.

But it was now another generation—a generation of conveniences. Accordingly, an ambulance dashed up.

"Operate on him!" directed the surgeon briefly.

And after that, of course, all the king's oxen and all the king's men were more than ever powerless to put Humpty Dumpty together again.—Puck.

The Business you can get to-day by wire may be gone by the time that letter gets there to-morrow.

"Day Letters" should be on your selling force.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY

COAL DEALERS

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug Store, 113 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEIN
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. E. Rugg & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.22, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.43, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.24, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.28 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.42 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.25 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 2.24, 5.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.39, 8.45, 9.02, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.
6 25 11

FURNITURE, OIL CLOTHS, STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR
and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms.

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement
Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

For Sale or To Let
The Factory Building lately occupied by the Crescent Embossing Co.,
located at
546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.
Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.
Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.
Especially suitable for light manufacturing.
Can be seen only by appointment with
Fred C. Lounsbury
Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.
Tel. 1036-R
or
Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.
Tel. 310-J

YOUR DULL Headaches
Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.
All work guaranteed.
FREE EXAMINATION BY
Stiles & Co.
PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS
at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.
Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 764-R.
NORTH AVENUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-3.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
316-318 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 313 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

OVER 65 YEARS' EXPERIENCE
PATENTS
TRADE MARKS DESIGNS
COPYRIGHTS &c.
Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HANDBOOK on Patents sent free. Oldest agency for securing patents. Patents taken through Munn & Co. receive special notice, without charge, in the Scientific American.
A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $3 a year; four months, $1. Sold by all newsdealers.
MUNN & Co. 361 Broadway, New York
Branch Office, 625 F St., Washington, D. C.

Of Interest To Housekeepers
You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.
Prompt, Free Deliveries.
W. W. DUNN
THE PARK GROCER
Dunn St. Lincoln Pl.

IF there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 82-A.

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-M
Successor to Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's North avenue 'Phone 204.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

Central R. R. of New Jersey Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Royal Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
M. MERSTRICH, Prop.
Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.
'PHONE 449-J.

MERELY OBEYING ORDERS

Policemen of Mexico City Take Every Instruction in a Literal Sense.

Mexico City is possibly the best policed metropolis in the world, but its officers, while vigilant, take every instruction given them in a literal sense. They will arrest anybody or anything that violates a city ordinance.

A short time ago, says a New Yorker, who recently spent some time in that city, there was a collision between two automobiles, one of the machines being so badly damaged that it had to be left at the place where the accident occurred. The persons occupying the machine were promptly bundled into the auto which was able to proceed and the entire party went to the police station.

But that did not excuse the broken car. It was formally arrested on the spot and an officer detailed to see that it did not get up and limp back to its garage. By some chance the broken automobile was forgotten for two days, at the end of which time the police captain discovered that he was shy one gendarme. Investigation discovered the gendarme asleep in the machine, where he had camped out ever since charged with its care. And it is very cold up on this Mexican plateau at night, as Mexico City is more than a mile above sea level.

SHIPS THAT KICK LIKE MULE

Serious Consequences Sometimes Ensue to the Man at Steering Wheel.

When sailors join a ship almost the first question asked by each one as he takes the wheel for the first time is: "Does she kick?"

Kicking, as it is called by seamen, is due to the action of the water under the lee of the rudder, when the vessel's stern, which has for the moment been borne skyward on the crest of a wave, falls back again into the trough with such terrific force as to make her tremble fore and aft, and perhaps wrench the wheel from the grasp of the steersman.

Sometimes it happens that he is taken unawares, and being unable to let go in time he is flung right over the wheel to the other side of the deck, often receiving serious injuries. Sometimes a man will be pitched right overboard into the sea, and a recent case is known of a man who received a blow under the chin from one of the spokes and died a few days later from the effects.

In some of the worst types of kicking straps are used regularly in nearly all weather, and many sailors refuse to go to sea in ships which are known to be confirmed kickers.

A Kentucky Forest Monarch.

When the War of the Revolution was being fought there stood on the farm owned by Pleman Harris a red oak which had attained the age of 34 years. For 136 years following, or until last week, to be exact, this same tree was monarch of the forest in Simpson county. Measuring five feet in diameter at the base when felled and worked into wood it yielded ten cords. It was necessary to use dynamite in the process, half a stick being exploded in each cut of eight feet.

The destruction of this mammoth oak, unquestionably the last of its kind in southern, if not in all Kentucky, removes doubtless the oldest tree in Simpson county, and at the same time serves to remind the people that the forests in this section are disappearing as did Poor Lo, the original possessor, and unless some action looking toward conservation is speedily set in motion there will not be timber enough left in southern Kentucky to stock a hoe.—Franklin Favorite.

Tamed a Wild Swan.

A mild male Russian swan (the largest and handsomest species of the wild goose tribe) flew into a Los Angeles park three winters ago. After much cajoling I have trained him so that he will answer to the name I christened him, and when I call "Billy" he will run to me and will follow me like a dog.

I do much of my literary work in this park and Billy sits beside me and searches my various pockets for popcorn or crackers, and his disappointment is pathetic if perchance I meet him empty handed or rather empty pocketed. It was fully a year before Billy would allow me to approach within ten yards of him, but by degrees I have succeeded in winning his confidence and he now affords endless amusement to my friends and myself.—Strand.

Would Prevent Blindness.

San Francisco club women have organized a society for the prevention of blindness. The subject has been interesting women in all parts of the country, and an active campaign may be expected another year by those who have the good of the community at heart and would teach that much blindness is due to careless ignorance.

The Changing Times.

Little Aiche is the name of the little daughter of the Turkish ambassador in Washington, whose wife, Mme. Zia, is an American woman. The little girl will soon see life from a different standpoint than that of Turkish children generally, former members of the embassy having been veiled Moslem women. The child is a great favorite in Washington.

KEITH
OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

CHAPTER XXXIV.

Again at the Cabin.

They were two weary days reaching Carson City, traveling along the open trail yet meeting with no one, not even a mail coach passing them. Evidently the Indians were so troublesome as to interrupt all traffic with Santa Fe and the more western forts. The slowness of their progress was on account of the General, whose condition became worse in spite of Fairbain's assiduous attentions. With no medicine the doctor could do but little to relieve the sufferings of the older man, although he declared that his illness was not a serious one, and would yield quickly to proper medical treatment. They constructed a rude travois from limbs of the cottonwood, and securely strapped him thereon, one man leading the horse, while the doctor tramped behind.

Keith, fretting more and more over this necessary delay, and now obsessed with the thought that Hawley must have rejoined his party on the Arkansas and gone south with them, finally broke away from the others and rode ahead, to gather together the necessary horses and supplies in advance of their arrival. He could not drive from his mind the remembrance of the gambler's attempted familiarity with Hope, when he had her, as he then supposed, safe in his power once before in that lonely cabin on the Salt Fork. Now, angry with baffled ambition, and a victim of her trickery, there was no guessing to what extremes the desperado might resort. The possibilities of such a situation made the slightest delay in rescue an agony almost unbearable. Reaching Carson City, and perfectly reckless as to his own safety there from arrest, the plainsman lost no time in perfecting arrangements for pushing forward. Horses and provisions were procured, and he very fortunately discovered in town two cowboys belonging to the "Bar X" outfit, their work there accomplished and about ready to return to the ranch on the Canadian, who gladly allied themselves with his party, looking forward to the possibilities of a fight with keen anticipation. Keith was more than ever delighted with adding these to his outfit, when, on the final arrival of the others, the extra man brought from Sheridan announced that he had had enough, and was going to remain there. No efforts made revealed any knowledge of Hawley's presence in Carson City; either he had not been there, or else his friends were very carefully concealing the fact. The utter absence of any trace, however, led Keith to believe that the gambler had gone elsewhere—probably to Fort Larned—for his new outfit, and this belief left him more fully convinced than ever of the fellow's efforts to conceal his trail.

The party escorting Waite reached the town in the evening, and in the following gray dawn the adventurers forded the river, and mounted on fresh horses and fully equipped, headed forth into the sand hills. The little company now consisted of Keith, Fairbain, who, in spite of his rotundity of form had proven himself hard and fit, Neb, having charge of the single pack-horse, the scout Bristoe, and the two cowboys of the "Bar X," rough, wiry fellow, accustomed to exposure and peril. It was emphatically a fighting outfit, and to be trusted in emergency.

They followed the cattle trail south toward the Salt Fork, as this course would afford them a camp at the only water-hole in all that wide desert lying between. With this certainty of water, they ventured to press their animals to swifter pace, although the sand made traveling heavy, and the trail itself was scarcely discernible. It was a hard, wearisome ride, hour after hour through the same dull, dreary landscape of desolation, the hot, remorseless sun beating down upon them, reflecting up into their blistered faces from the hot surface of sand. There was scarcely a breath of air, and the bodies of men and horses were bathed in perspiration. Not a cloud hung in the blue sky; no wing of a bird broke the monotony of distance, no living animal crept across the blazing surface of the desert. Occasionally a distant mirage attracted the eye, making the dead reality even more horrible by its semblance to water, yet never tempting them to stray aside. After the first mile conversation ceased, the men riding grimly, silently forward, intent only on covering all the distance possible. Late that night they camped at the waterhole, sleeping as best they could, scourged by the chill wind which swept over them and lashed grit into exposed faces. With the first gray of dawn they swung stiffened forms into the saddles and rode on, straight as the crow flies, for the Salt Fork. They attained that stream at sundown, gray with sand dust, their faces streaked from perspiration, feeling as though the sun rays had burned their brains, with horses fairly reeling under them.

According to Keith's calculation this cattle-ford must be fully ten miles below where the cabin sought was situated; two hours' rest, with water and food, would put both horses and men again in condition, and the traveling was easier along the bank of the Fork. With this in mind, cinches were loosened, the animals turned out to graze, and the men, snatching a hasty bite, flung themselves wearily on the ground.

All but Fairbain were asleep when Keith aroused them once more, a little before nine, unable in his impatience to brook longer delay. Within ten minutes horses were saddled, weapons looked to carefully, and the little party began their advance through the darkness, moving cautiously over the uneven ground, assisted greatly by the bright desert stars gleaming down upon them from the cloudless sky overhead. The distance proved somewhat less than had been anticipated, and Keith's watch was not yet at eleven, when his eyes revealed the fact that they had reached the near vicinity of the lonely island on which the cabin stood. Reining in his horse sharply, he swung to the ground, the others instantly following his example, realizing they had reached the end of the route. Hands instinctively loosened revolvers in readiness for action, the younger of the "Bar X" men whistling softly in an effort to appear unconcerned. Keith, with a gesture, gathered them more closely about him.

"If Hawley is here himself," he said quietly, watching their faces in the starlight, "he will certainly have a guard set, and there may be one anyhow. We can't afford to take chances, for there will be five men, at least, on the island, and possibly several more. If they are looking for trouble they will naturally expect it to come from the north—consequently we'll make our attack from the opposite direction, and creep in on them under the shadow of the corral. The first thing I want to do is to locate Miss Waite so she will be in no danger of getting hurt in the melee. You boys hold your fire until I let loose or give the word. Now, Doctor, I want you and Neb to creep up this bank until you are directly opposite the cabin—he'll know the spot—and lie there out of sight until we begin the shooting. Then both sail in as fast as you can. I'll take Bristoe and you two "Bar X" men along with me, and when we turn loose with our shooting irons you can all reckon the fight is on. Any of you got questions to ask?"

The Four Crossed the Stream, Wading to Their Waists in the Water.

No one said anything, the silence accented by the desert wind howling mournfully in the branches of near-by cottonwood.

"All right then, boys, don't get excited and go off half cocked; be easy on your trigger fingers. Come along, you fellows who are traveling with me."

The four crossed the stream, wading to their waists in the water, their horses left bunched on the south bank, and finally crawled out into a bunch of mesquite. As they crept along through the darkness, whatever doubts Keith might have previously felt regarding the presence on the island of the party sought were dissipated by the unmistakable noise made by numerous horses in the corral. Slowly, testing each step as they advanced, so no sound should betray them, the four men reached the shelter of the stockade. The older of the "Bar X" men lifted himself by his hands, and peered cautiously over.

"Eight hosses in thar," he announced soberly; then turned to Keith. "Say, Jack, what do you figure this shebang to be, anyhow? You don't reckon it's old Sanchez's outfit, do yer?"

"Likely as not, Joe, though I never saw him around here."

Joe filled his cheek with tobacco, staring about through the darkness.

"Well, if that ol' cuss is yere now we'uns is sure in fer a fight," he commented positively.

They rounded the corral fence on hands and knees, crawled into a bunch of bushes somewhat to the rear of the silent, desolate-appearing cabin, and lay down flat behind a pile of saddles, from which position they could plainly discern the rear door. There was no movement, no evidence anywhere that a living soul was about the place. Keith could barely distinguish that it was Bristoe lying next to him.

"Had their camp over there in the corner of the corral when I was here before," he said in a whisper. "Where do you suppose they can be now?"

The wary scout lifted his head, sniffing into the darkness like a pointer dog.

"West o' ther cabin thar, out o' ther wind, most likely. I smell tobacco."

Even as the words left his lips a man came sauntering slowly around the eastern corner, his outlines barely visible, but the red glow of a pipe bowl showing plainly. He stopped, directly facing them, yawning sleepily, and then turned the other corner. Another moment and they distinctly heard a voice:

"Hustle up thar now, Manuel, an' turn out; it's your watch; wake up, dam yer—maybe that'll bring yet ter life."

The remedy applied to the sleeper must have been efficacious, as, an instant later, another figure slouched into view, the new arrival rubbing his eyes with one hand, the other clutching a short-barrelled gun. From the high peak of his hat it was evident this new guard was a Mexican. He walked to the corner, glanced along the east side wall toward the front of the cabin, and then, apparently satisfied the coast was clear, started toward the stream, shuffling along within a foot of where Keith lay flat on the ground. A moment later the men heard him splashing softly in the water, and Keith rolled over, his lips at Bristoe's ear.

"Slip down there, Ben," he whispered, "and quiet that fellow. I'll find out how many are on the west side. Do the job without any noise."

He waited until the scout had disappeared like a snake, not even a rustling leaf telling of his passage, and then silently crept forward himself, yet with less caution, until he was able to peer about the corner of the cabin and dimly distinguish the blanketed forms of several men lying close in against the side wall. They rested so nearly together it was difficult to separate them in that darkness, stars giving the only light, but he finally determined their number at five. Five; the Mexican would make six, and there would surely be another guard posted out in the front—seven. But there were eight horses down there in the corral. Then the eighth man—Hawley, without doubt—must be in the cabin. At the thought Keith's teeth clinched, and he had to struggle to control his passion. But no; that would never do; he must discover first exactly where the girl was located; after that they would attend to the curs. Before creeping back to the others, he made quick examination along the rear of the cabin, but could find no visible point of weakness. He tried to recall from memory the nature of the lock on that back door, but could remember nothing except an ordinary wooden latch. If he could insert a knife into the crack that might very easily be dislodged. He drew his hunting knife for the attempt, and, first glancing about, perceived a man creeping toward him. It proved to be Bristoe.

"Fixed the greaser all right, cap, and I reckon he'll be quiet for an hour or two. Look whar he slashed me; struck a pack o' playin' keerds, er I'd a got my ticket." The front of his blouse was cut wide open, and Keith thought he perceived a stain of blood.

"Pricked you as it was, didn't he?"

"Opened the skin. Thought the cuss had given up, an' got careless. What's 'round to the west?"

Keith's lips closed, his hand shutting hard on the knife.

"Five, and another out in front; that leaves the eighth man inside. Bring our fellows up closer, and post them where they can cover those fellows asleep, while I make an effort at breaking in here."

Bristoe crawled back like a snail, and confident the others would do their part, Keith thrust his knife blade deep into the narrow crack and began probing after the latch. In spite of all caution this effort caused a slight noise, and suddenly he started back at the sound of a woman's voice:

"What do you want? I am armed, and will fire through the door if you do not go away!"

His heart leaping with exultation, Keith put his lips close to the crack.

"Hope," he exclaimed as loudly as he dared. "This is Keith; open the door."

He could hear a little smothered cry break from her lips, and then the sound of a bar being hastily removed. An instant, and the door opened silently, just wide enough to permit her slender figure to slip through. She grasped him with her hands, turning his face to the light of the stars, and he could feel her form tremble.

"Oh, I knew you would come! I knew you would come!" she sobbed, the words barely audible.

The man's lips set firmly, yet he held her close to him, begging her not to break down now.

"It's all right, little girl," he said pleadingly, "we've got you safe, but there is a fight to be attended to. Come with me; I must ask you a question or two."

He drew her back into the fringe of bushes, placing her safely behind the stack of saddles. She was not crying any more, just clinging to him, as though she could never again bear to let him go.

"Oh, Jack, it is so good just to feel you near again."

"Yes, dear," soothingly, "and it is good to hear you say Jack, but tell me one thing—is any one else in the cabin? Is Hawley here?"

"No, no! He left us early the first morning. I haven't either seen or heard of him since. The men have left me alone since we got here; have had the cabin all to myself until tonight. I have not suffered, only mentally—from dread of what they intended doing with me—until tonight. Three men rode in here just before sundown—two Mexicans and an Indian. One of them was an awful looking old man, with a scar on his cheek, and a face that made me shudder. He didn't see me, but I saw him through the window, and he had such strange eyes. All the men acted as though they were afraid of him, and I heard him say he didn't care what Hawley's orders were, he was going to sleep inside; if the girl didn't like it she could take the other room. I didn't know what to do—oh, I was so afraid of him; but what he said gave me an idea, and I went into the back room, and put up a bar across the door. When he came in he tried the door; then he spoke through it, but I never answered; and finally he lay down and went to sleep. I sat there in the dark so long, and when I heard you—I—I thought it must be some of the others."

He stroked her hair, whispering words of encouragement.

"That is all done with now, Hope, and we'll have those fellows at our mercy in another half-hour. But I must go now to the boys; lie here behind these saddles, and don't move until I come for you. I can trust you to remain right here?"

"Yes." He was bending over, and her eyes were upon his face. Suddenly, obeying an irresistible impulse, he clasped her to him, and their lips met.

"Sweetheart," he whispered softly.

He could not hear her answer, but her arms were about his neck.

CHAPTER XXXV.

The Cabin Taken.

His heart beating with new happiness, yet conscious of the stern duty still confronting him, Keith joined the others, giving them, in a whisper, a hurried account of Hope's release from the cabin, and of what she had to report.

"It's old Juan Sanchez in the front room, boys," he added soberly, "and there is ten thousand dollars reward out for him, dead or alive."

Joe of the "Bar X" drew in his breath sharply.

"It'll sure be dead then," he muttered, "that cuss will never be got no other way."

They went at it in the grim silent manner of the West, wasting little time, feeling no mercy. One by one the unconscious sleepers were aroused, each waking to find a steel barrel pressing against his forehead, and to hear a stern voice say ominously, "Not a move, Johnny; yes, that's a gun; now get up quietly, and step out here." Resistance was useless, and the five, rendered weaponless, were herded back toward the corral. They all belonged to Hawley's outfit; one, a black-whiskered surly brute Bristoe remembered having seen in Sheridan. There was no time to deal with them then, and a "Bar X" man was placed on guard, with orders to shoot at the slightest suspicious movement.

The Indian, then, would be guarding the front of the house, and Sanchez sleeping inside. Well, the former could be left alone; his chance of escape would be small enough with Fairbain and Neb on the opposite bank. Old Sanchez was the villain they wanted—dead or alive. With this in view, and anxious to make a quick job of it, the three entered the back room, and, revolvers in hand, groped their way across to the connecting door. As Hope had described, this had been securely fastened by a stout wooden bar. Bristoe forced it from the sockets, not without some slight noise, and Keith, crouching down at one side, lifted the latch.

"Keep down low, boys," he cautioned, "where he can't hit you."

With one quick push he flung the door wide open, and a red flash lit the room. There were two sharp reports, the bullets crashing into the wall behind them, the sudden blaze of flame revealing the front door open, and with it the black outline of a man's figure. Two of the men fired in instant response, leaping recklessly forward, but were as quickly left behind in the darkness, the outer door slammed in their faces. Outside there was a snarl of rage, another shot, a fierce curse in Spanish; then Keith flung the door wide open, and leaped down the step. As he did so he did so he struck a body and fell forward, his revolver knocked from his hand. Rising to his knees, the dim light of the stars revealed a man already half across the stream. Suddenly two sparks of fire leaped forth from the blackness of the opposite bank; the man flung up his hand, staggered, then went stumbling up the stream, knee deep in water. He made a dozen yards, reeling as though drunk, and fell forward, face down across a spit of sand. Keith stared out at the black, motionless shape, felt along the ground for his lost gun, and arose to his feet. Bristoe had turned over the dead body at the foot of the steps, and was peering down into the upturned face.

"It's the Indian," he said grimly, "Sanchez must 'a' mistook him fer one of us, and shot the poor devil."

And Sanchez himself is out yonder on that sand-pit," and Keith pointed; then lifted his voice to make it carry across the stream. "Come on over, Doctor, you and Neb. We've got the gang. Bring that body out there along with you."

The "Bar X" man waded out to help, and the three together laid the dead Mexican outlaw on the bank, beside the Indian he had shot down in his effort to escape. Keith stood for a moment bending low to look curiously into the dead face—wrinkled, scarred, still featuring cruelty, the thin lips drawn back in a snarl. What scenes of horror those eyes had gazed upon during fifty years of crime; what suffering of men, women, children; what deeds of rapine; what examples of merciless hate. Juan Sanchez!—the very sound of the name made the blood run cold. "Dead or alive!" Well, they had him at last—dead; and the plainsman shuddered, as he turned away.

(To Be Continued.)

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS

THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

THE BIG SALE FOR MEN IS ON

MEN'S FOUR-PLY COLLARS

QUARTER SIZES 50c A HALF DOZEN QUARTER SIZES

Mind you, they are all 4-ply, and the material, workmanship and laundry finish are equal to what you would find in any 15c collar on the market.

The eyelets are surrounded with buttonhole stitch, making the collar move easily around the shank of the button—a feature appreciated by every man.

All the most up-to-date shapes, turn-down and standing, are included in this lot, and the best feature about these collars is that they may be had in quarter sizes.

We will not sell less than six collars to a customer at this special price of 6 for 50c. (Main Floor).

MEN'S $1 AND $1.50 SHIRTS 69c

Just the sort of shirt you want for torrid weather wear—soft shirts of pongee and genuine soisette, with collars atached or with neckband so that you may wear separate collars if you like; in tan, white and gray—solid colors; shirts that the maker called imperfect because of slight factory faults which will be hard to find, and which will not affect the wear in the least; yet because of it we will be able to sell this lot of 50 dozen $1 and $1.50 shirts for only 69c

25c Suspenders 19c—These are the kind of suspender that policemen and firemen wear—the kind that will stand the hardest service; made of heavy cushion webbing, with patent castoff; suspenders that regularly sell at 25c; to go tomorrow at.....19c

50c Neckwear 15c—1,800 Silk Scarfs, made of silks usually employed in high-grade neckwear; kinds that sell for 50c; pretty patterns and plain colors; made into open-end four-in-hand styles; a large variety; take your pick of these ties, tomorrow.....15c

A Dress of Anderson Gingham Made to Your Order for $2.75

By arrangement with Messrs. Anderson & Co., famed the wide, wide world over for their unrivaled ginghams, we have perfected plans for the making of several hundred gowns from their celebrated ginghams and zephrys, at a cost to you for the making and trimming of only $2.75. Come Tuesday or Wednesday.

You have only to purchase the celebrated Anderson ginghams from our stock and we do the rest for this insignificant sum—$2.75.

We will sell you on this occasion—

Anderson's 32-inch Domestic Ginghams for only 15c

Anderson's Imported Zephyrs for only 29c

Only five to six yards of th these required for a dress.

We give you the privilege of choosing from six new and beautiful models, all of them having the latest touches that fashion has approved—models that have only appeared and are planned for August wear; each a distinctly original design, just such as most women will want one or more of—they're fine for morning wear at the summering places.

Each gown will be individually measured and separately put together on adjustable model dress forms. You should see the clever New York dresmakers at work upon them; they give you a class of cut, design and finish for which New York women are accustomed to paying $10 to $18—this is the service we are going to give you at $2.75.

Dresses will be ready in ten days.

Such an offer as this is only possible in the dullest season before the dressmakers go on vacation, and it should be understood that we will accept only as many orders as can be completed by July 29th, after which we will have to decline them.

A grand new lot of Anderson's Ginghams in striking shapes, choice checks, pretty plaids and pleasing plain colors, just received from Messrs. Anderson for this occasion.

GOOD FORTUNE FOR HOME SHOPPERS

40c RAMIE ALL LINEN FOR 18c

This is all pure Irish Linen—every thread of it, and in that bold stylish crash weave now so scarce even at regular prices, right here in your own home store, at less than half its real worth—a bargain so rare that we repeat the statements.

All pure linen Ramie crash weave, worth 40c a yard, reduced to 18c.

White Ramie, Blue Ramie, Wistaria Ramie, Pink Ramie, Lavender Ramie, Old Rose Ramie, Champagne Ramie, Natural Tan Ramie, Mint Green Ramie.

400 Rolls Mill Ends FLOOR OILCLOTHS

To Go in the July Sale in Connection with Discontinued Patterns.

This will be a notable sale of floor oilcloths, since it is based on immense purchases of mill ends and discontinued patterns—the best grades of floor oilcloths in most attractive patterns and colorings.

There has been no similar sale in Newark.

Mill Ends in three qualities; perfect goods, many pieces of the same design, enabling you to cover a room of almost any size; kinds that we regularly retail at 30c, 35c and 45c the sq. yard; special priced at.....19c

Discontinued Patterns—all widths; 1 yard 1½ yards, 2 yards and 2½ yards wide; cut from full rolls to your order to fit any size room you wish; grades that we regularly retail at 35c to 45c the square yard, to be offered on this occasion at only 24c

We advise you to bring room measurements with you.

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1910

NEW YORK—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 2.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

H. H. BIRD, P. M.

A Camping Necessity—The Caloric

WE SOLD AND SHIPPED FIVE CALORICS TO CAMPERS LAST WEEK

Your time is all your own, for pleasure, if you have a Caloric Fireless Cooker in your Camp Outfit.

Just put your food in the Caloric in the morning and when you come back to camp at night a fine hot, sumptuous dinner is ready to serve.

Now as an example of how easy it is to cook with a Caloric: One user has three boarders and commutes each day.

She prepares the food for dinner and puts it in the Caloric in the morning before she leaves.

At night the dinner is piping hot and thoroughly and well cooked.

See how easy it would be for you to go off hunting, fishing or tramping and not be bothered with the worry of getting meals ready when back at camp.

Let us show you a Caloric and tell you all about it.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

Advertise in The Daily Press

"No Gains Without Pains"—

Spanish Proverb

Even if it is necessary for you to give up a few pleasures to carry a Prudential policy for your own or your family's protection, it will be worth the effort. You know the help that life insurance has been to others. Secure its help for yourself and your family.

The Prudential

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

Assets $3,700,000.00

These Disagreeable Days

emphasize the need of comfortable footwear.

We have every summer necessity as well as the more extreme designs in Low Shoes and Oxfords that are not obtainable elsewhere.

Prices here are always as low and in many cases less than other shoe stores ask.

White Ducks and Tan Leather are very much sought after just now---and they're here.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE
127 EAST FRONT ST.

BASEBALL.

It's still a clean record anyway!

Bound Brook rooters complained of an unfair deal from the umpire Saturday. If anyone will stop to count the poor decisions for each team, he will find that they easily balance one another.

Christy Mathewson, the premier pitcher of the Giants for several years, is beginning to take a back seat this season. Rube Marquard, the $11,000 beauty, leads "Big Six" in the percentage of games won. The one time erratic southpaw has an average of .818, while Matty's figures are only .722.

There isn't much doubt that "Red" Waller is twirling par excellence in the Central New Jersey League. The Sandy-Haired box artist has held down every team thus far without apparently exerting himself let alone twirling two games in the heat on July 4.

Scotch Plains has the cheapest team in the Central League and for the money it is playing the best ball. The way in which the 'Plainers hung it on to Westfield Saturday afternoon made the Mt. Ararat combination crawl back into its shell.

Morris, the new High Bridge pitcher, made a big hit with the fans at Somerville Saturday. He hails from New York city, having played for several years on the McNulty Brothers' team. Although High Bridge lost its game Saturday, Morris was not to blame for he held the Somerville sluggers to nine hits and didn't give a single free pass.

When Bound Brook hired Meehan as a star left fielder they rather "got stung." He was responsible for two two baggers from the bats of the Pets as he misjudged easy flies. He retaliated, however, with a two sacker himself.

Nolan bids fair to be the leading batter of the Central organization if he keeps up his present pace. The lanky fielder of the Bound Brook club has been clouting two and three safeties every game.

The Peerless Matty was defeated again yesterday when Richie pitched the Cubs to victory against the Giants 3-2. This gives the Chicago team a tight hold on the top position for at least a few days.

Park Avenue Baptists have made a good start for the Sunday-school championship by taking both of their games. The First Baptist team, which is being backed up and run by Dr. Norman Probasco's Bible class, seems to be slow in striking its pace but this bunch will be heard from before the season is over for there are some speedy players in the First Baptist school.

The Trinity Reformed and First Baptist nines are scheduled to cross bats on the Oval Saturday afternoon, while Park Avenue and Monroe Avenue will play on the Clinton avenue grounds.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED YET WITH TELEPHONE CO.

No agreement was reached between the borough of Dunellen and the New York telephone company at the meeting of the Dunellen council last night. The question of the franchise of the telephone company through Dunellen will be brought up again at the August meeting of the council.

Routine business was transacted at last night's meeting, which was an adjourned session from last week. The resignation of Charles Wyhuskey as day marshal was accepted and James Benson was appointed to fill the vacant position.

Mrs. Elousie R. Lawton.

Mrs. Elousie R. Lawton, widow of Robert J. Lawton, aged 76 years, died last night at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. D. Murphy, 22 Watchung avenue, after a long illness. Funeral services will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the late residence and the burial will be at Shippensburg, Pa.

NETHERWOOD TROLLEY CAR BLOCKS CROSSING.

The attention of Patrolman Sweeney was called to the position of a Netherwood trolley car at Front street and Park avenue last evening by Erwin Neighbor who had been obliged to walk around the car in order to cross the street. The fender of the car, it is alleged, was directly across the cross walk. The policeman took the names and numbers of the crew and reported the matter to headquarters.

This morning the matter was taken up with Division Superintendent George Washington Luhr and an inspector was stationed at the crossing to see that all cars are stopped on the eastern side while the motorman goes ahead to turn the switch. On all busy days a man is stationed at the switch to avoid this delay, but generally there is not sufficient traffic at this point to warrant the extra man the trolley people claim.

In the course of a few weeks another switch will be installed at the intersection of the Somerset and West Front street tracks which will do away with the necessity of turning the switch at this point, and all cars can proceed as soon as passengers have alighted and boarded.

Paying off Mortgage.

Routine business was transacted last night at the meeting of the North Plainfield Township Improvement Society after the lecture by Alfred Gaskill. W. de la R. Anderson, president of the society, reported that the interest had been paid on the first mortgage on the society's hall, which is held by Hipolyte Texier and that $350 had been paid on the principle. The Indian show netted $135. The election of trustees and a member of the board of managers was held over.

Mrs. Ella Peavey.

Mrs. Ella Peavey, aged 28 years, wife of Henry Peavey, died last night at her home, 722 West Third street. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abram B. Neff. The announcement of the funeral will be made later.

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By FRED HUNTER.

First Baseman Pittsburg Pirates, and Who Is Considered One of the Greatest Finds of the Season in Baseball.

Since I broke out of the bushes I have seen a lot of great plays and much finished work. Wagner and Clarke and Leach have shown me a lot of wonderful feats, but I never have seen anything that compares with a play I saw long before I broke out. The play was made by a fellow whose name I have forgotten, but they called him "Dutch," and he was a left fielder. It was made over at South Salem, Ohio, which consists mostly of a cemetery, Neeley's band and a couple of churches. Also several people live there and they have an academy. I was playing around Chillicothe as a kid aud we had a team that thought it couldn't be beaten, so when we were challenged to come over to South Salem and play we thought it would be soft to trim up those farmers and offered to play them, winner take ninety per cent. of the gate receipts. The receipts at best would be about twenty dollars, but we wanted to cover expenses, which were three dollars for the rent of a team and wagon, and nine meals at twenty-five cents. We never expected to be beaten, but we got up against it. Those fellows had made their own bats out of wagon tongues; they were five feet long, and the way they hit was frightful. The grounds were out east of the village; there was the corner of an orchard in left field and a grove of sugar trees in right. It was the corner tree of the orchard that brought the greatest play I ever saw.

This big fellow, Dutch, in left was a wonder. He knocked down our infielders with his hits, and lifted one clear over the orchard. When we came to the ninth inning the score was ten to nine in favor of South Salem, but we had last bats and expected to win out as our strongest hitter—which was me—was coming to bat in that inning. Maybe the rest of our team didn't feel as sure as I did, but in those days if I failed to get a triple I was disappointed, and I conceded that I was the best hitter in the world.

FRED HUNTER.

There was one man out and a runner on second when I came to bat, so I felt cock sure we had the game won. I hit the first ball pitched high up and far away to left; and as I saw it was going into that apple tree at the corner, I felt that the ninety per cent. and the game both belonged to us. But I didn't calculate on Dutch. That big fellow came sprinting across after the ball and when he saw it was going into the tree he didn't even hesitate. He took a running jump, grabbed one of the lower limbs with both hands, pulled himself up, turned over, and as he sat on the limb of the tree he caught that ball.

The runner who had been on second base had started home as hard as he could when I hit the ball, and when Dutch caught it he was across the plate. Dutch dropped backwards as the ball hit his hands, hooked his calves around the limb, turned over, lighted on his feet and threw to second, completing the double play that beat us out of that game. I had to pony up sixty cents out of my own pocket to add to the ten per cent. we got in order to meet expenses, and the team fired me as manager.

Now, anyone who can beat that for a great play has got to go some.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

Not Wanted.

"Now this arrangement of springs, said the demonstrator, "is such that whatever the inequalities of the road, you never feel the slightest jar in riding. There is no jolt to this car."

"Then I don't want it," replied the fat man. "I want a car that will jolt, jar, pounce, bounce and jostle me until my waist-line reappears. I want to escape that corporation tax the supreme court has just decided to be constitutional."—Harper's Weekly.

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.
Capital $100,000.00

TRAIN LEAPS VIADUCT. 20 DEAD AND 70 HURT

The Federal Express, running from Boston to Washington, on the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, was derailed on a bridge over a viaduct at Bridgeport about 4 o'clock this morning and six of the eight coaches followed the engine into the street forty feet below killing more than a score and injuring more than seventy passengers of whom many will die. The cause of the wreck is said to have been an open switch. The train was running at a tremendous speed in order to make up a lost hour in its schedule running time.

Fire started in the wreckage immediately, but was put out by the Bridgeport firemen before it had reached the wounded. Among the dead are the engineer, fireman, conductor and nearly all of the others of the train crew. In the first day coach was Roger Bresnahan and his St. Louis National baseball team, all of whom escaped injury and took an active part in the work of rescue. There were more than 200 aboard the train including fifty babies when the accident occurred, most of them being from either Philadelphia or Washington and points south.

PERSONAL.

Miss Delia Miller, of the Ritz store, who has been on an extended vacation has returned to her position.

Mrs. E. Lindsay, of Madison avenue, will leave Thursday for an extended visit with her son, John Mehlenbeck, of Raritan.

Miss Katharine Slade, of New York, but formerly of this city, who has been visiting Mrs. John Judson, of John street, has returned.

Miss Ophelia Judson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Judson, of John street, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. Hultz, of Montgoomery, N. Y.

Mrs. M. C. Barkalew and daughter, Marguerite, of Duer street, left yesterday for Little Neck, L. I., to visit Mrs. Barkalew's brother and sister.

William H. Abbott, Mrs. S. F. Randolph, and Mrs. C. D. Manning, of this city, and Miss Mary Bass, of Kansas, spent the week end at Asbury Park.

C. D. Manning, Richard F. Randolph and Charles Randolph, of this city, and Harry Crisbin, of Bridgeton, are cruising by motor boat this week in lower Delaware Bay, spending the time fishing for blue fish.

The Misses Kate Sloyan and Annie O'Gorman, of this city, sailed Saturday on the "Celtic" of the White Star line for Ireland. Passage for the trip was secured through Mulford Estil's agency on Park avenue.

Jacob Voehl, of Grove street, together with his son-in-law, John F. Kulp, and two granddaughters, Mrs. Atley Austin and Miss Frances A. Kulp, have returned to the borough after a three weeks' sojourn at Monticello, Sullivan county, New York.

Kittie May Cain, the five-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Cain, of Park place, who has been ill in the hospital for a number of weeks with typhoid fever, has about recovered and expects to return home on Saturday. On Sunday she will be five years old and the parents are quite anxious that she be home at that time.

HIGHLAND GUARD IDEA FOR SCOTTISH CLANS.

Clan Mackenzie, Order Scottish Clans, at its meeting, last night, received an official visitation from Royal Treasurer David King, and Royal Deputy John Pentland, of Jersey City. The local clan proposes to send an amendment to the convention of the Royal Clan, to be held in Boston, changing the age limit from 45 to 50 years.

There is now a scheme to organize a New Jersey Scottish Highland Guard and Clan Mackenzie will probably identify itself with the movement. It is proposed to have the guard uniformed, each clan wearing its own tartan. There will be a State band made up from among the membership of the guard. After business last night ice ceram and cake were served.

The installation of the officers of Plainfield Council, No. 293, Jr. O. U. A. M., was postponed last night to Monday night, July 17, because some of the officers are out of the city. The work will be performed by Past Councilor E. Gibson Smith.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

TALK! TALK! TALK!

But be sure you don't know what you are talking about. I saw so many of you to our sister's (Westfield) Carnival and notwithstanding that I know you know all about it. I will give you the same add that I had in their magazine. (Will tell you who is to go to Up-to-date later to see the lots). It was as follows:

WHOA! MULE.

Never turn your back on a mule, his grace will disgrace you if you do. If you do, in taking the car home be a gentleman, keep standing for both ladies and gentlemen. Turn your back on the motorman and face the conductor, you will be better able to face the public. Some people carry their hearts in their shoes to have it handy to kick with. Take my advice, never kick at a mule unless you look him square in the face. I want to look you square in the face when I tell you about my Real Estate business. I have been in it nearly twenty years, and do you know I have never seen a man or woman who did not try to tell me that they knew more about it than I do. It is a funny business. Everybody knows it. When I offer them a property to prove it to me they either go to their barber, baker, banker or lawyer to back them up. Of course, the lawyer has been supposed to study law for four years, that, of course, gives him a diploma in the Real Estate business. The banker in counting money, the thing I am after, learns the value of property from A to Z, but the barber has them all beat, he can look me in the face and talk to me, the rest can't. Whoa! mule.

I have the distinction of having three Oliver stenographers to keep up with my work. Where is that other fellow? And the only fellow on earth in my business who works on a plan. "My time is yours."

My address for this week is PlainWestfield, but call on me at 159 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J., or call 1907.

D. Foster Updike

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr.....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

LIBERAL INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

4% on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

3% on CHECKING ACCOUNTS of $500 or more.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Capital - - $150,000.00
Surplus and Profits - 280,000.00
(all earned)

DOCKSTADER MINSTRELS HERE SATURDAY, AUG. 5.

Lew Dockstader and his Great Minstrels will be the first attraction for the coming season in the Plainfield theatre, Saturday, August 5, matinee and night. This season's production will, it is claimed, out shine all previous efforts in minstrelsy, far surpassing anything produced heretofore in the history of burnt cork. The name of Dockstader stands always for something new and original in minstrelsy, and the many lovers of this form of amusement can rest assured that they will not be disappointed in this season's lavish offering. This stupendous aggregation of minstrel stars will be headed by the inimitable Lew Dockstader, Neil O'Brien, after an absence of tow years will again be seen with the show. "Bob" Albright, Eddie Cassady, "Happy" Naulty, Harry Wardell and three score of others well known funmakers will assist in the festivities.

FOUND AGED INVALID ON BLAZING LOUNGE.

Elizabeth, July 11.—Hearing the cries of a woman at midnight, Desk Sergeant John Kirkman, at police headquarters, ran across the street to the home of Mrs. Jane Donnelly, an invalid. He found the woman on a couch, which was afire. Lifting Mrs. Donnelly from the lounge, the policeman then beat out the flames.

The woman was slightly burned and is suffering from the shock. She had lighted a match to see what time it was and in that way set fire to the couch.

—There is no better diet during these warm days than fresh vegetables. Neuman Bros. can supply you with the best the market affords. They will have a large display tomorrow.

One of the most practical articles for the household is a new paint brush. Keep three different sizes on hand—one small round bristle brush for cleaning articles or window pane corners where the scrub brush generally falls; another large brush, two inches long and one inch thick, round of hair, for cleaning hats—goes in all the small spaces between the flowers or feathers and gets all the dust out. And one small flat brush, one and one-half inches wide, for greasing the bread and cake tins. Three such brushes can be bought for about 30 cents.

AMUSEMENTS.

KEEP COOL—Go To BOYNTON BEACH

THE COOLEST PLACE IN NEW JERSEY

CHILDREN'S DAYS EVERY THURSDAY

HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S

VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE
TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Harcourt, Babcock & Co., sketch, "The Parting of the Ways;" Yankee Comedy Four, Rich and Rare Comedians; Sanns & Sanns, Singers and Dancers; Ward Baker, Monologuist.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Camp Ram's Horn

Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.

Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.

THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

JULY TWELFTH.

1798—The notorious alien and sedition laws signed by President John Adams.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Thursday; cooler tonight.
Maximum, 99; minimum, 70.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year

BAILS HUTCHINSON

Youth Who Was With Hadley, Victim of Shooting Accident, is Released.

HABEAS CORPUS PROCEEDINGS.

Dead Boy's Funeral Tomorrow Morning at New Market Home—Hadley's Brother Furnishes Hutchinson's Bail.

Linwood Hutchinson, the fifteen-year-old adopted son of Ralston Dunbar, of Stelton, who was in the company of Joseph Earl Hadley, also of Stelton, when he was fatally shot Sunday night, was released from the county jail at New Brunswick, today, by Judge Daly in $2,000 bail on a writ of habeas corpus. The bail bond was furnished by Edward F. Hadley, brother of the dead boy. Hutchinson, in the company of friends, left at once for his home on the Dunbar farm.

The boys' release was secured by his counsel, State Senator George S. Silzer, who obtained the writ of habeas corpus. Hutchinson was then taken before Judge Daly. Prosecutor Theodore B. Booraem was present and presented such evidence of the shooting affair as he had been able to gather. A number of other witnesses were examined, including George Hadley, brother of the dead boy, who informed the court that at the request of his mother, he had come to New Brunswick to use his influence in securing the release of Hutchinson. He said that the Hadley family did not believe the prisoner was responsible for the fatality.

After hearing the evidence, Judge Daly decided to release Hutchinson in $2,000 bail and Edward F. Hadley promptly offered to furnish the security. It was accepted by the court and within a few minutes Hutchinson had his freedom for which he was thankful.

The funeral of Joseph Earl Hadley, who was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hadley, will be held at the home of the parents at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Rev. George H. Gardner, pastor of the New Market Baptist church, will officiate, and the pall-bearers will be the brothers of the dead boy. The burial will be at Stelton.

MRS. CODDINGTON DIES IN EIGHTY-FIRST YEAR

Mrs. Christina Coddington, one of the oldest residents of Warrenville, died at her home in Warrenville yesterday after a lingering illness. The dead woman was in her eighty-first year, having lived on the farm where she died for the past fifty years. Funeral services will be held from the Mt. Bethel church tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Coddington was the widow of the late Benjamin Coddington and is well known in this vicinity, where she has many relatives and friends. Surviving the dead woman are five sons and four daughters; Filmore and Marrietta Coddington, of Warrenville, Silas Coddington, of Grove street, James Coddington, of Perth Amboy, Martin Coddington, of Westfield, Lewis Coddington ,of Newark, Mrs. Eliza Stites, of West Third street, Mrs. Jennie Hull, of Newark and Mrs. Katherine Moore, of Kingston.

The dead woman was the grandmother of thirty-eight and great grandmother of twelve.

OCERCOME BY HEAT HORSE BLOCKS TROLLEY.

A horse belonging to Stonewall Jackson and hitched to an ice wagon caused a block in the trolley schedule and much excitement in the borough when it fell down on the car tracks on Somerset street last night near the Somerset school building, overcome by the heat. The animal prevented the trolley cars from passing for some time and this attracted a large crowd.

Several of the borough "huskies" dragged the prostrated beast into an adjoining field. A hose was brought from the fire house and together with ice and water the animal was revived after several hours of patient work. He was able to walk about and eat grass this morning as well as usual.

Install Officers.

The following officers-elect of the Philathea Bible class, of the Temple Baptist church, were installed last night as folows: President, Mrs. William LaRue; vice-president, Mrs. Charles Brewin; secretary, Mrs. Charles Smith; assistant secretary, Mrs. H. Jager; treasurer, Mrs. E. P. Jones; financial secretary, Mrs. Edward Baker, Sr.; teacher, U. B. Crane; assistant teacher, Mrs. Mellick; press reporter, Mrs. C. Pope.

STATE TO SUE DOCTOR FOR LAW'S VIOLATION

The State Board of Health has requested the attorney general to institute a suit against Dr. William J. Nelson, of New Market, for failure to make a proper return of the birth of a child, Dr. Nelson being in attendance. The child was born September 14 last, and under the law Dr. Nelson was required to make the return within five days. This, it is alleged, he failed to do.

At the board's request two suits have been instituted by the attorney general in the District Court of New Brunswick to recover penalties of $50 each from undertakers alleged to have buried dead human bodies without first obtaining a permit. The defendants are T. F. Burke, a funeral director, of Perth Amboy, and A. S. Cole, Son & Co., of Cranbury.

Two other funeral directors against whom suits are to be brought are R. R. Mount & Son, of Red Bank, and John Carmody, of Trenton. It is charged that Carmody failed to exchange a certificate of death for a burial permit, while Mount & Son buried a body without any permit whatever.

MRS. RANSOM'S DEATH HASTENED BY HEAT

Mrs. Elizabeth Ransom, aged seventy-four, widow of William K. Ronsom, died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Correja, 937 West Seventh street. In April last she recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia, but was taken ill about ten days ago with complications. The intense heat of the past week affected her to such an extent that it served to hasten the end.

Mrs. Ransom was born in New York city and had been a resident of this city ten years, living until recently with another daughter, Mrs. Georgia Ransom-Allen, of Westervelt. Recently, Mrs. Correja removed to West Seventh street, and Mrs. Ransom went to live with her for a time. It was while there that she was taken ill and died. She is survived by two doughters, Mrs. John Correja and Mrs. Georgia Ransom-Allen. Mrs. Ransom was a member of the Willett Street M. E. church, New York city.

The funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. Coreja, Friday Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate. The burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

CARR'S CONDITION BECOMES ALARMING

Word was received this morning by Senator Silzer, of New Brunswick, who has ben retained by John O. Wilson and Harvey F. Carr, of Camden the men whose automobile killed Charles Clifford, on Park avenue, Monday morning, that Mr. Carr is in a serious condition. He was riding with Wilson at the time of the accident and was thrown out on his head. After being released in $3,000 by Judge Daly, the same afternoon the accident occurred, both men went to their homes in Camden, where the injured man was treated by his family physician. He was advised to take a rest and went to Atlantic City for an indefinite stay.

During last night Carr's condition became alarming and a physician was called, who, after a thorough examintion, said that Mr. Carr's skull is fractured and inflamation had set in. He is in a serious condition and is under the constant care of a doctor.

John Coon, of West Second street, who was with Clifford and was also injured, is reported to be rapidly recovering.

The funeral service for Charles Clifford, colored, the victim of the accident, was held this morning at his late home on Manning avenue and was largely attended. Rev. G. W. Bailey was the officiating minister and interment was made in the North Plainfield cemetery, the pall bearers being James Harris, Alonzo Hill, Hill, James Rogers, Moses Cary, Jr., John Cary and Charles Harkins.

Leaders are Appointed.

The Wednesday evening prayer-meeting services at the First Baptist church will be under the direction of the deacons, who have appointed leaders for each meeting as follows: July 12, F. S. Thompson; July 19, Samuel P. Case; July 26, James L. Manning; August 2, George H. Batchelor; August 9, George F. Brown; August 16, Frank W. Jones; August 23, E. L. Bonney; August 30 Reuben Knox.

ASSESS Y. M. C. A.

State Board Dismisses Local Institution's Appeal on Levy Made by Plainfield Board.

BUILDING IS NOT EXEMPT.

As the Auditorium is Rented for Other Purposes Which Makes Association Liable to Taxation There can be No Aid.

On the ground that the Y. M. C. A. building in Plainfield is not exclusively used for charitable purposes, the State Board of Equalization of Taxes has affirmed the assessment levied by the local authorities, and dismissed the appeal filed by the association. In dismissing the appeal of the Y. M. C. A. the Board says:

"This is an appeal from an assessment for the year 1910 on the land and building of the Young Men's Christian Association of Plainfield. The appellant asks that the assessments be cancelled on the ground that the property assessed is exempt from taxation. The question to be decided is whether the building owned by the petitioner was on May 20, 1910, 'used exclusively for purposes considered charitable under the common law.' If it was, then by virtue of section three, paragraph four of teh general tax act, the building and the land whereon it is erected and which may be necessary for the fair enjoyment thereof, are exempt from taxation.

"The evidence shows that the Young Men's Christian Association of Plainfield carries on the gerenal work of such associations, and in addition extends some of its benefits to boys and young men who are not members, and who contribute nothing toward its maintenance. The building of the association contains an auditorium which is used for entertainments, meetings and other various purposes of the association, and which is sometimes rented to outsiders. The first floor of the building is occupied by two stores, for which the association receives rental of about one hundred dollars a month. The income, however, as well as that derived from all other sources, is used exclusively in carrying on the work of the association.

"In the case of Trustees of the Young Men's Christian Association vs. Paterson, 61 N. J. L., 420 the Supreme Court held that the buildings of the association were not used exclusively for charitable purposes. The facts disclosed in that case were similar to those evidenced at the hearing of the appeal under review with the important difference in the latter case, part of the building is regularly rented and is used by the tenants for business purposes entirely distinct from those of the association. The general tax act imposes a double test to determine eligibility to exemption from taxation of this class of property. The building must not only be used for charitable purposes, but it must be used exclusively for either test. The ruling of the Supreme Court before cited precludes this board from finding that the purposes of the association the charitable within the meaning of the tax act.

"It is true there has been a change in the verbiage of the exemption provisions since it was applied in the Paterson case. As it stood at that time the clause exempted 'all buildings used exclusively for charitable purposes.' For these words the following language was substituted in the tax act of 1903 (sec. 3. p. 4) 'All buildings used exclusively for purposes considered charitable under common law." It may be that the legislature intended by this change in phraseology to enlarge the class of charities entitled to exemption, but it will be noticed that the word 'exclusively' was retained so that whatever may have been the legislatures purpose in reframing this exempting clause it was careful not to do away with the test of exclusive use.

"The building in question manifestly is not exclusively used for charitable purposes, and therefore the appeal must be dismissed and the assessment affirmed."

Col. Edwards Made the Complaint.

Mrs. Stephen G. Van Hoesen, the local agent for the S. P. C. A. did not make the complaint against Henry Weiss for cruel treatment of a dog several days ago. The complaint, which was made by Colonel Edward Edwards, of Newark, the superintendent of the state society, was withdrawn by him. The case was dismissed by Recorder Charles M. Dolliver.

Methodist Excursion Tomorrow.

The annual excursion of the local Methodist Sunday-school, the Dunellen Methodist church and Wilson Memorial chapel, to Asbury Park, will be held tomorrow with the usual attractive features.

—First Baptist church excursion July 27. •••

WON'T YOU CONTRIBUTE TO A WORTHY CAUSE?

Arrangements have been made by the King's Daughters of this city to have their camp for babies on Johnson's drive formally opened on Monday, July 17. Mrs. Bird has been engaged as matron. The fund, which is being raised by this paper for this camp, has $55, but a large amount is needed to carry on the work. Remember that it is a worthy cause and that hundreds of poor, thin little babies are restored to health through the care which they receive at the camp. Subscriptions may be sent to this office at any time and they will be forwarded to the King's Daughters' Society and acknowledged in these columns.

P. H. S. NATATORIUM

Board of Education Plans For Swimming Pool in the Addition to Structure.

A FEATURE OF CURRICULUM.

Every Pupil in the Highest Grade to Be Taught the Art—Structure's Equipment to Be Most Up-to-date in the State.

It was announced by the Plainfield Board of Education this morning that a modern well equipped swimming pool will be installed in the Plainfield High School building when the new wings to that structure are completed. With this innovation the local high school will be the best fitted school building in the state and will be the only one which has a natatorium under its roof.

The money for the proposed pool was included in the $35,000 appropriation for the new wings on the building made by the Board of School Estimate. Plans for the swimming place have been drawn along with the designs for the proposed additions, and now that the money has been appropriated, a P. H. S. swimming pool is a thing of reality. The cost of installing the natatorium will be about $800.

The proposed natatorium is to be located in the basement under the east wing, which is on the side of the building nearest Park avenue. It will be twenty-eight feet long and twenty feet in width, being constructed entirely of tile. The maxium depth of the water in the pool will be eight feet at one end, and the minimum depth will be about five feet at the other end. This will give an opportunity for fancy diving as well as for learning to swim. On account of the class rooms above, the natatorium will be lighted by clusters of electric lights from the ceiling.

According to the plans, there will be an open along space each side of the pool so that a platform of tile can be built around the water. Diving boards and rubber mats, together with other appropriate apparatus will be installed as soon as the place is ready for use. On account of the building of this pool, the shower baths, which have heretofore been located behind the school gymnasium will be moved nearer the swimming tank. It is also expected that a new locker room will be built near the natatorium to accomodate those who use the pool as well as to relieve the crowding of the other locker rooms.

It is the intention of the Board of Education that the pool be used by both boys and girls giving everyone an opportunity to acquire the swimming art. A schedule for the use of the pool will be made out when the tank is completed. It is expected that swimming instructors will be engaged to give lessons to the high school pupils.

An entrance to the pool room will be made on the Park avenue side of the building so that the school athletes will not be obliged to enter through the regular doors when returning from the Parker athletic field. Whether the general public will be allowed to use the natatorium or not has not been decided as yet by the Board of Education. The side door entrance, however, is intended also for use in the summer time, when the whole building is not open.

With the addition of a swimming tank, the Plainfield High School will be the best equipped school building for athletics in the state. Besides the pool, the building will then contain a large gymnasium, shower baths and locker rooms. The school also has the use of the Parker athletic field by special permision for the track, football and baseball teams.

No New Shoe Store.

William G. Smith, of VanArsdale's shoe store, states that there is no truth in the report that he proposes to start in the shoe business for himself. Mr. Smith will return to his position at VanArsdale's on Saturday.

NEW HEAD OF ELKS

Sullivan Defeats Moreland For Grand Exalted Rulership of the Order.

MONSTER PARADE TOMORROW.

Bunch of Local "Hello Bill" People Attending National Convention at Atlantic City—Meet Next Year at Portland, Ore.

Automobiles loaded with Elks, bound for the grand lodge convention at Atlantic City were passing through this city all day yesterday. Late yesterday afternoon several local parties started for the scene of the gathering and at intervals from sundown until early this morning parties of jolly members kept leaving here and passing through town. In addition to those going by auto, every train making connections either at Philadelphia or Elizabethport are carrying number of "Hello Bills." There is a general desire to be on hond tomorrow when the parade, the feature of all Elks conventions, wil be held. The parade is scheduled to start tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Colonel John P. Sullivan, of New Orleans, was elected grand exalted ruler yesterday, defeating Arthur C. Moreland, of New York, who was placed in nomination by former City Judge William N. Runyon, and Charles A. Rasbury, of Dallas, Texas. The vote was as follows: Sullivan, 814; Rasbury, 547; Moreand, 233.

Moreland, who is known to and loved by all Elks, because of the work he has done for the order, and who has gained fame as an orator, although he is blind, was given the substantial vote he received as an evidence of the regard in which he is held. The result makes both him and Rasbury potential candidates for next year in Portland, Ore., that place having been selected unanimously for the next convention.

The fact that Sullivan'es majority was only 12, although he defeated Rasbury by 267 votes, is because the rule of the order requires that the successful candidate must have more votes than all his opponents combined.

These other officers were elected:

Grand esteemed leading knight—L. M. Lively, of Tallahassee, Fla., present esteemed loyal knight, with 831 votes, defeated George Addington, of Albany, N. Y., with 628 votes.

Grand esteemed loyal knight—F. A. King, of Providence, R. I., with 899 votes, defeated C. R. Wright, of Philadelphia, with 498.

Grand esteemed lecturing knight—F. B. Kingsley, of Kansas City, Kan., was elected without opposition.

Grand secretary—Fred C. Robinson, of Dubuque, Ia., with 1043 votes, defeated David McArron, of Port Huron, Mich., with 497.

Grand treasurer—E. D. Leach, present incumbent, of New York city, with 1000 votes defeated C. D. Locke, of Rogers, Ark., with 369 votes, and D. L. Watson, of Terre Haute, Ind., with 173 votes.

Grand tiler—P. H. Shields, of Clarksburg, W. Va., present incumbent, was elected without opposition.

Grand inner guard—L. P. Leveroni, of Keene, N. H., with 1144 votes, defeated T. T. Welch, Long Branch, present incumbent, with 313 votes.

The following are among those who left yesterday and today:

E. D. Cutting, William Hudson, H. A. Todd, Joseph P. Burd, Thomas Hanna, James and Adam Blair, Henry Nischwitz, Frank Denelan, Jasper Cadmus, Melford Giles, A. E. Force, Harvey Schmeyer, E. Clarke Searing, H. Brandt, William Doud, J. V. Todd, S. P. T. Wilbur, C. E. Teel, Stephen Schleif, Joseph A. Lane, George Forgerson, Walter Apgar, Wm. Mazzocco, Andrew D. Jennings William Townley, John Prindle, V. W. Nash, Jr., Edward Bennett, Marcus Hoyt Harry N. Blimm, Robert and William Craig, Arthur Van Arsdale, William G. Smith, Herbert Buxton, W. A. Coddington N. B. Smalley, Julius Williams, Frank H. Smith, Howard Woolston, Andrew McCardell, Arthur Smith, Captain W. C. Smith, George J. Finger, Leon Harris, Philip Jahn, Dr. Elmer Giddes, Dr. Stephen Aldrich, Meredith Dryden, Charles A. Wood, Lewis A. Bellis, Richard A. Bellis.

Those who left earlier in the week or last Saturday included Past Exalted Ruler Joseph Noonan, who is the delegate from Plainfield Lodge, No. 885; A. D. Findlay, George O. Stevens, E. C. Westcott, Edward Stuerwald, John Cose, William N. Runyon, William Fiering and Thos. Timbo.

—There is no better diet during these warm days than fresh vegetables. Neuman Bros. can supply you with the best the market affords. They will have a large display tomorrow.

—First Baptist church excursion July 27. •••

MRS. PHEBE SPRAGUE AGED 81 YRS., DEAD

Mrs. Phebe M. Sprague, aged 81 years, widow of William E. Sprague, and mother of Mrs. Frederic W. Butler, of East Ninth street, died suddenly last night at her home an Sprague avenue. She had been ill about a week and the intense heat, together with complications, hastened the end. Mrs. Sprague was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stelle, of Park avenue, who were old residents here, and she spent her early life in this city, where she was born. After her marriage she removed to Brooklyn, where she resided until fifteen years ago, when she returned to Plainfield. Her husband died about ten years ago.

Mrs. Sprague was an attendant at the First Baptist church. She possessed a great many estimable qualities and was beloved by all who knew her. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Frederic W. Butler. The funeral service will be held at the late home, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Rev. Franklin K. Mathiews, pastor of the Baptist church, Scotch Plains, will officiate. The burial will be in Evergreen cemetery, this city.

ANOTHER DELEGATION TO WAWAYANDA CAMP

The second delegation of Plainfield boys to the Y. M. C. A. state camp at Lake Wawayanda leaves this city for two weeks of outdoor life tomorrow morning. Fourteen boys, under the leadership of Irwin Leland, of Westervelt avenue, are scheduled to represent this city at the camp for the next two weeks. The first delegation which has been at the "tented city" for the past fortnight and which was expected to return this morning, has decided to remain at the camp for another two weeks. A letter from C. W. Bingaman, boys' secretary of the local association, states that the Plainfield boys are having such a good time at the camp that none wants to come home.

Those who go to the camp tomorrow are Frank Dunning, Jr., John Hammann, Henry Hammann, Harold Denlinger, Harold Tomlinson, Walter Bell Richard Pennock, Donald Hylan, Holmes Clawson, Craig Blair, David Fitch, Clarence Krausse, William Peacock, Raymond Manley and Irwin Leland. The first section is made up of the following—Floyd Knoll, Joseph Sattelis, Harold McDowell, Arthur Stout, James Herrman, Robert Noyer, Paul Manning, Irving Manley, Benjamin Cooley, Addison Newkirk and William Wootton.

HOLD COLORED MAN AS A 'PEEPING TOM'

A telephone message to Captain Frederickson at police headquarters at midnight last night bore the information that a man was peeping in the windows of several houses in the vicinity of Madison avenue and West Second street. Patrolman Kelley was dispatched to the scene and he found Henry Thompson, colored, of Madison avenue, loitering in the neighborhood. The policeman took Thompson to the house occupied by Daniel Guinee from where the complaint had been sent and Mrs. Guinee said that Thompson resembled the man she had seen. It was so dark that she was unable to make a positive identification.

When arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning, Thompson said that he had been spending the night at cards with several friends and was on his way home when arrested. He was remanded for further examination tomorrow morning when his friends will be in court to either confirm or deny his story.

Numerous complaints have been received by the police about a "Peeping Tom," who has been annoying the residents of West Second street and Madison avenue locality during the warm weather when many of them are using the downstairs rooms as sleeping apartments. When arrested Thompson had neither coat nor hat and wore dark trousers, a white shirt and a pair of soft house slippers.

Will Omit Tonight's Service.

On account of the oppressive heat spell, the mid-week prayer meeting at the Congregational church will be omitted this evening. There are many members of the church out of the city, and this fact, together with the unusual weather conditions, led Rev. C. L. Goodrich, the pastor, to omit tonight's service.

—Use Press want ads.

—First Baptist church excursion July 27. •••

ESTATE TO DOCTOR

Miss Ellen Ware's Will, in Favor of Dr. Endicott, Admitted to Probate.

HEIR'S CAVEAT WITHDRAWN.

Plainfield Woman Left $30,000 to Her Physician Who is Vested With Discretionary Powers Distributing the Estate.

The caveat filed against probating the will of Mrs. Ella Sharpe Ware, of Third place, whose death occurred about six weeks ago, was withdrawn in Surrogate Parrott's court in Elizabeth this morning by counsel for Mrs. Elsie Case, a cousin to whom $300 had been bequeathed. The estate is valued approximately at $30,000. Dr. George W. Endicott, of Park avenue, is named as executor with discretionary powers. Asa F. Randolph and Dr. Endicott's brother, Judge Allan Endicott, of Atlantic City, are counsel for the estate. The instrument was admitted to probate.

The will stipulates that the estate intact shall go to the physician and he is to do with it as he chooses after several amounts are paid to certain people Mrs. Ware mentioned in her will. Among these was Mrs. Case. To her the sum of $300 is given. Other bequests are mentioned in the document, but according to the memorandum, Dr. Endicott is empowered to use his discretion as to the disbursement of the estate.

Mrs. Case's counsel, it is alleged, induced her to file a cavet against the probate of the will and after going through the regular course the case was called for a hearing before Surrogate Parrott this morning. Mr. Randolph was ready with a motion to have the caveat dismissed but it was not necessary for him to make it as counsel for Mrs. Case asked to be permitted to withdraw the same.

ENDORSE BRODHEAD FOR STATE SENATOR

The Elizabeth Democratic Club at a largely attended meeting, last night, unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing Assemblyman Calvin E. Brodhead for State Senator; Assemblyman Hugh J. McLoughlin for a renomination and George Schlotterer for sheriff of Union county. The resolutions carry with them words of praise for the faithful and conscientious services performed by the above named men. Mr. Schlotterer has been a member of the Elizabeth Council for over ten years and during that time served on the most important committees. He is also president of the Elizabeth Democratic Club for several years.

After the business of the evening was transacted, the members enjoyed a musical program, furnished by talent from Proctor's theatre, Elizabeth, and refreshments were served. Short addresses were also made by Henry L. Finkel, secretary of The Kenilworth Democratic Club, and Frank J. Shattle, of this city, who spoke of the work of the Plainfield Democratic Club.

FIREMEN SAVE LIVES OF MANY AT ELIZABETH.

Fire discovered shortly after midnight in a three-story tenement on Ripley place, in a congested part of Elizabeth, imprisoned seven families on the second and third floors, who were rescued only after heroic work on the part of firemen and private citizens.

The families on the first floor escaped without much trouble. Deputy Chief Mahoney, Captains D. P. Sullivan and Clark and firemen Jarvis and Hough; James L. Butler, of the Board of Education, together with Thomas Martin Kelly and Tros. Coughlin comprised the rescue brigade. The fire loss will aggregate thousands of dollars.

Thermometer at 88.

It's the humidity and not the heat which causes all the trouble today in Plainfield. The thermometer's mercury dropped last night but the humidity continued intense and many passed a sleepless night in consequence. At 2 o'clock this afternoon, the mercury officially stood at 88 degrees but most people would be willing to swear that it was at 100. The forecast is 'fair and cooler.'

Missionary Will Speak.

Mrs. Rababaugh, a returned missionary from Turkey, will speak at the mid-week prayer-meeting in Vincent chapel of the First M. E. church, tonight, and her young daughter will sing several hymns in the Turkish language. The public is invited to hear these talented people.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

THE GREAT JULY CLEARANCE SALE

BRING THE CROWDS TO THE "WHITE STORE"

Thursday and Friday you can make a purchase of $1.00 or more and present your checks at cashier's desk without a coupon and you will get your 50 Stamps in connection with those you get with your regular purchase.

Now is the Time and this the Opportunity to Fill Your Books Quickly.

This offer of 50 Stamps with the purchase of $1 or more is the most liberal offer we've ever presented in connection with the extraordinary low prices on all classes of summer merchandise

This is the Fifth anniversary of the installation of S.&H. "Green Trading Stamps" in this store. During the past five years we have placed in the homes of our patrons thousands of dollars worth of ornaments, luxuries and utilities, without cost to them. We have done this as a means of advertising. We have thus shared our profits with patrons as a compliment for their trade and an inducement for them to pay us "Cash."

EMBROIDERIES.

35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c
10c embroideries for....5c
20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for....10c
25c nainsook, 36 inch wide, for 18c
20c white goods, checks and figures 10c
49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c
69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c
$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers....89c
$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 73c

CORSETS.

$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c
$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c
$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49
50c Ladies' Gloves....25c

WASH GOODS.

9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c
12½c percales for 9c
10c and 12c printed lawns..7c
25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for....15c
50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c
15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c
$1.50 Rugs for 98c
$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.

Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF

$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50
$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c
$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for....$2.98
$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for....$7.50
$25.00 White Serge Suits for....$15.00
$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50
Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.

$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for....$4.49
$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for....$2.98
50c Men's Fine Hose for....25c
59c Men's Negligee Shirts for....39c
25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for....12½c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.

15c Misses' Hose....10c
15c Boys' Hose....10c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c
25c Huck Towels for....15c
12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c
25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c
59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c
12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.
69c Cotton Diaper....49c
12½c Pillow Cases....9c
22c Table Oilcloth for....15c
$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c
$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

OUT ON THE VERANDA WITH BARTHOLOMAY FOR A COMPANION

¶ Here's good advice—always drink good old

Bartholomay
ROCHESTER
Beer or Ale

It's been supreme in quality for over half a century. Its supremacy to-day is a matter of common knowledge. Brewed of pure hops and barley malt. It quenches thirst and delights the palate. It is a great appetizer.

DISTRIBUTED BY
Henry Haurand
68 Somerset St.
'Phone 229

camp for Y. M. C. A. boys at Lake Wawayanda, where he will enjoy outdoor life for two weeks.

Washington Camp, No. 98, P. O. S. of A., will hold an important meeting at the lodge rooms tomorrow night.

The prayer meeting in the Presbyterian church tonight will be led by the pastor, Rev. Ernest Brown.

SOMERVILLE.

A dozen town officials left on Saturday last for ten days' fishing at Charlston Lake, Canada. The party chartered a special car, which was in charge of Edward S. Thomas. In the party are Mayor Charles C. Kenyon, Joseph Barras, William P. Snyder, William E. Maxwell, A. B. Cline, John A. Maxwell, Dr. Thomas H. Flynn, Herman Morsbrugger, Charles J. Smith, Philip Cron, C. Stewart Hoffan and Carlton P. Hoagland.

Misses Isabelle and Elizabeth Parmalee, of Patterson, are spending a month's vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hendrickson, near Belle Mead.

Misses Myra Nevius, Belle Holcomb and Laura Hoagland and Mr. and Mrs. James H. Masker are attending the Christian Endeavor convention at Atlantic City.

Mrs. August Bechtold, of Harlingen, has been spending a week in New York with her sister, Mrs. Matthews. She returned yesterday.

George Nevius, of East High street, and Robert T. Messler, of West Main street, are camping in the Adirondacks.

Miss Leona Randolph, of Newark, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooper, at East Millstone.

Master James Griggs is a guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Rhinehart, at Catasauqua, Pa.

Mrs. Cassie Garretson, of Millstone, has as a guest her sister, Miss Mary Voorhees, of Bound Brook.

Mrs. Charles Hummer, of Panama, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cooper, at East Milstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cain, of Belle Mead, have been spending two weeks at Asbury Park.

Miss Alma Howard, of Newark, is visiting Miss Elizabeth Welsh, at East Millstone.

The Misses Parry, of New York, are guests of Mrs. A. Blanten, at Green Knoll.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Ackerman, of East High street, are visiting near Easton, Pa.

Mrs. Spear, of Millstone, is entertaining her daughter, Miss Helen, of Passaic.

D. H. Amerman is spending a month at Atlantic City.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse,
The City Market, 125 North Ave
R. H. Clevely....157 North Ave.
Timbe & Co....216 Watchung Ave
W. C. Burns....213 Watchung Ave.
Jos. Molodesky....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co....R. R. Station
F. C. Field, Jr....411 Park Ave.
S. A. Laing....148 W. Front St
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts
M. Betti....111 Park Ave
Dobois & Stahl....113 Somerset St
W. H. Olmstead....331 Watchung Ave
F. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
J. Mottley..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen....H. Peters
New Market....Coriel
Bound Brook....Union News Co
Somerville....Jacob Gener
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains....Frank Anson
South Plainfield....Hamilton
Fanwood....Frank Anson
Netherwood....W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

James Benson will be the borough marshal during the day hereafter. The resignation of Carles Wyhusky was received and accepted by the borough council at its meeting Monday night and the new appointment was made immediately. Mr. Benson hal served as marshal in Dunellen for some time but had not been on the force since last fall. Mr. Wyhusky will go to Cranford to take up his residence with his son.

The excursion of the local Methodist Sunday-school is scheduled for tomorrow. The train leaves the Dunellen station for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove shortly after 8:00 and will start from the shore at about 7:00 tomorrow night. A large crowd is expected to go on this outing, which is the second one from Dunellen this year.

The postponement of the discussion of the franchise for the New York Telephone company by the Dunellen council at its adjourned meeting Monday night will mean that no settlement will be reached in the matter before the regular meeting of that body next month.

The funeral of Joseph Earl Hadley, of New Market, who was fatally shot near his home Sunday night and who died Monday night in Muhlenberg Hospital, will be held from his father's residence in New Market tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Richard Pennock, of Dunellen avenue, leaves tomorrow for the state

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

This store is truly for the economically inclined. The goods we sell are of dependable quality, so you are assured of getting satisfactory service out of any article you buy---then again our prices are the very lowest possible---so you are assured of getting full value for every dollar you spend. Could the most frugal economist ask more than that?

Balance of summer goods including

Porch Screens, Screen Doors, Porch Chairs, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Swings

at the most interesting prices.

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases

Always the largest stock of well-made serviceable goods in these lines and a real saving in price too.

Shirley & Johnston
Babcock Building

WHEN U NEED —EITHER—

ICE / COAL / WOOD / LUMBER — JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.
TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,
(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE
Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.
Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the following Ordinance has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Council to adopt the same.

GEORGE B. WEAN.
City Clerk pro tem.
Plainfield, N. J., July 10, 1911.

A Supplement to an Ordinance Entitled "An Ordinance for the Assessment of Taxes for the Year 1911," Approved Ma 3, 1911.

WHEREAS, The Board of School Estimate of this school district, that is to say, the school district comprising the City of Plainfield, has fixed upon and determined the amount of money necessary to be appropriated for the use of the public schools in such district for the ensuing school year, exclusive of the amount apportioned to it by the County Superintendent of Schools, to wit, the sum of Seventy-Four Thousand Dollars ($74,000), and has made two certificates of said amount signed by all the members of said Board, one of which certificates has been delivered to the Board of Education of said school district, and the other to the Common Council of said city:

The inhabitants of the city of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That pursuant to the Act of the Legislature of the State of New Jersey, entitled "An Act to establish a thorough and efficient system of free public schools, and to provide for the maintenance, support and management thereof," approved October 19th, 1903, and Acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto, the sum of Seventy-Four Thousand Dollars ($74,000) be and the same is hereby appropriated for the purpose aforesaid as other appropriations are made by the Common Council, and that said amount shall be assessed, levied and collected for the year nineteen hundred and eleven in the same manner as money appropriated for other purposes in this city are required to be assessed, levied and collected.

FLAGS! FLAGS!!
LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY

4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)
8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.
18 ft. ROPE wiih galvanized iron Pulley.
1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.

SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40

Phone 668-J
William H. Olmsted
331 Watchung Ave.

Of Interest To Housekeepers

You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.
Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN
THE PARK GROCER
Duer St. Lincoln Pl

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Bras Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 258 E. Front St.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

E. W. Brown, president of the National Railways of Mexico, said affairs in Mexico were rapidly becoming normal and that the railroads were operating about as usual.

President Taft will lay all the facts regarding the Controller Bay affair before Congress, and members of the Cabinet, by his direction, began the preparation of statements.

Charles G. Gates arrived at the bedside of his father, John W. Gates, who is critically ill in Paris; the malady, it was said, would reach its crisis within forty-eight hours.

General Bingham was made consulting engineer of the Department of Bridges, in New York, at $7,500 a year, an advance of $1,500 in salary over that of the place he resigned.

A dispatch from Bay City, Mich., stated that Alpena was burning, the town of Oscoda had been destroyed and that Cheboygan and three other towns were in danger from forest fires.

Twelve persons were killed and nearly fifty injured by the Federal Express, from Washington to Boston, jumping from the tracks and crashing down an embankment in Bridgeport, Conn.

A captain of carabineers, amid shrieks of execration on the part of the alleged Camorrists, told the court at Viterbo exactly how the organization worked in the way of blackmail and usury.

Negotiations were stated to be progressing between Great Britain and Japan to modify the treaty between them in so far as it may oblige either to fight a nation with which a treaty of arbitration has been concluded.

Harry N. Atwood and Charles K. Hamilton, aviators, in the flight from Boston to Washington, flew from Stemmer's Run to College Park, Md.; it was stated they would not resume their trip for three or four days.

The Georgia Legislature cast 127 votes for Governor Hoke Smith for United States Senator to succeed the late Senator Clay; the two houses voted separately; a vote of 115 is necessary to elect on joint ballot.

Congress.—Senate: Passage of the reciprocity bill was prevented by Senator Bailey, who held the floor for Senator La Follette to speak; Senator Sutherland spoke against the Arizona constitution. The House was not in session.

King George in Dublin opened the P. F. Collier (American) Memorial Dispensary for Prevention of Tuberculosis; he reviewed troops in

Toilet Tissue Paper, 1,000 sheets to the roll; regular 5c value; sale, roll.....3c
(Limit 6 rolls).

Where For Your Money Is—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Ramonie Batiste, good selection of light or dark styles; regular 12½c; clearance sale, yard 9c

In Planning This July Clearance Sale Our Aim Was to Make It the Greatest Money-Saving Event of the Year

And that we've succeeded in our ambition and even exceedcd the high mark we aimed at was amply demonstrated by the enthusiastic buying of the past few days.

Shoppers who came merely to compare prices were immediately convinced that this is the real bonafide money saving stock clearing event of the entire year. The goods are so fresh, so new, so perfect, so thoroughly in accord with present modes and fashions that many wondered why we should reduce the price so recklessly when the season is only half over.

ANOTHER LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES, ABOUT 100; VALUES UP TO $1.98; JULY SALE 98c

This is manufacturers clean up time; they cut up all surplus stocks of piece goods and make them up into the best selling styles for clearance sale; in this way they close out their stocks and the retailer procures good, desirable bargains to offer the public; this second lot of 100 dresses is different from the first lot; the styles are all good, the values run from $1.69 to $2.25; sizes 2 to 5 and 6 to 14. every size in the lot but not in every style; July sale.....98c

A SECOND LOT OF MISSES' DRESSES, VALUES UP TO $3.98; JULY SALE..$1.98

Did you see the first lot last week? They sold completely out by Saturday morning and those who waited for this second lot will be delighted with this assortment; the styles are pretty, materials that give satisfaction; about 8 styles in all; some in several colors, giving you about 65 dresses to choose from; values are up to $3.98 easily; July sale.....$1.98

(Sizes 15, 16 and 18 for misses and small women).

BOYS' WASH SUITS—CLEAN UP OF A LEADING MAKE; VALUES UP TO $2.98—JULY SALE $1.19

This is the best bargain in good wash suits we have even seen; we closed out from a well known manufacturer his entire sample line, consisting of about 350 boys' colored wash suits, and divided them in our two stores; the 150 for this store are in and assorted in piles by sizes to make choosing easy; not one suit in the lot is worth les than $1.75 and from that up to $2.98. So we certainly feel justified in saying that it's the best bargain we have ever seen in boys' wash suits; ages 2 to 7; July sale $1.19

GOOD NEWS FOR MEN. PLAIN AND FANCY SOISETTE SHIRTS, $1.25 QUALITY; JULY SALE 89c

About 10 dozen men's soisette shirts in plain and stripes. We closed out one-fourth off, and place on sale in the same way; the make is the well known Wellington Brand, with double cuffs; soisette is the coolest summer shirt, and deserves its popularity; sizes 14 to 17; $1.25 quality; July sale 89c.

A Guaranty of Title to real estate to be a real GUARANTY must have back of it an institution with the financial strength to make the guarantee good in case it becomes necessary.

Otherwise it amounts to little more than a very careful search of title.

In a recent real estate operation where the guaranty of title involved a very large sum

Fidelity Trust Co.,
Newark, N. J.,

was selected because of this very reason.

Resources, ... $27,500,000
Capital, Surplus and Undivided Profits, ... 9,750,000

"COME IN AND TALK IT OVER."

Store closes Fridays at 6 p. m. Store closes Saturdays at 1 p. m. Others days at 5:30 p. m.
Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. S. Plaut & Co.
"BEE HIVE." New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK

A July Blanket Sale
IS AN IMPORTANT FEATURE IN OUR GREAT JULY TRADE MOVEMENT

Including white, gray, plaid and suitable for camping, porch and general house use, etc.

Think of buying new blankets at an average saving of one-fourth! Do you know of a wiser way of saving money? You'll need them in a few weeks; make the most of the opportunity. These July sales are brought about by our method of buying—the placing of large contracts by us with the most prominent mills in America when their season is ordinarily dull and when they are glad to keep their mills busy with new orders. And because we take the goods at once instead of having the mills carry them until cold weather is the reason we hold this annual sale and can sell beautiful new goods at such great price reductions.

We do not ask you to take them now if you don't want to—you can pay a reasonable deposit and we will hold them for you until Fall, when you want them.

Reg. $2.90 wool finished blankets, white and gray size 66x80; special pair $1.69
Reg. $3.25 Blackstone white blankets, size 66x80, silk binding, special, pair $2.65
Reg. $3.00 Fifth Avenue white wool blankets, size 60x80, special a pair $2.25
Reg. $3.75 Grand Union white wool blankets, 72x80, spec. pr..$3.00
Reg. $5 Endicott white wool blankets, size 70x80, spec. pr....$3.98
Reg. $4.50 Manhattan white wool blankets, size 60x80, spec. pr. $3.39
Reg. $5.50 Manhattan white wool blankets, size 70x80, spec. pr. $4.39
Reg. $5.50 Plaza white wool blankets, size 76x86, spec. pr....$4.50
Reg. $6 Coronet white wool blankets, size 76x84, spec. pr.....$4.89
Reg. $6.00 Victoria white wool blankets, size 70x80, spec. pr...$5.00
Reg. $7.50 Oriental white wool blankets, size 76x86, spec. pr...$5.50
Reg. $8.00 Franconia white wool blankets, size 76x84, spec. pr..$6.25
Reg. $7.50 Savoy white wool blankets, size 72x80, spec. pr....$5.75
Reg. $8.75 Majestic California white wool blankets, spec. pr....$8.75
Reg. $10.00 Imperial California white wool blankets, 72x84, pr. $7.75
Reg. $8.50 Vendome California white wool blankets, 60x84, spec. pair $6.98
Reg. $13.50 Vendome California white wool blankets, 80x90, special pair $10.00
Reg. $2.59 Raleigh gray wool blankets, single bed size, spec. pr. $2.39
Reg. $3.50 Raleigh gray wool blankets, full bed size, spec. pr..$2.89
Reg. $4.50 De Sota gray wool blankets, size 60x80, spec. pr....$3.25
Reg. $5.00 De Sota gray wool blankets, size 70x80, spec. pr....$3.98
Reg. $6.00 Logan gray wool blankets, size 70x80, spec. pr....$4.75
Reg. $6.50 Geisha high grade plaid wool blankets, 70x80, pr..$5.25
Reg. $3 Goshen heavy weight camping blankets, size 60x80, pr..$2.69
Reg. $9 to $22.50 novelty and high grade blankets in profusion; special at .....$6.98 to $18.50

Mail Orders Quickly and Carefully Filled.
Printed Lists of Sale Items in Detail Sent Upon Request.

711 TO 721 BROAD ST., NEWARK.

All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs.	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..	2	4				11
Brooklyn	1	..	0	2				3
Boston	7	..	6	..				13
Philadelphia	2	..	1	12				15
Chicago	2	..	3	6				11
Cincinnati	11	..	2	6				19
Pittsburg	3	..	2	13				18
St. Louis	6	..	2	..				8
AMERICAN
New York	2	5	5	6				20
Philadelphia	9	0	..	8				17
Boston	5	9	8	6				28
Washington	5	7	3	1				16
St. Louis	7	3	5	3				18
Cleveland	4	1	..	2				7
Chicago	12	2	2	8				24
Detroit	7	6	4	14				31

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	45	28	.618
Philadelphia	46	30	.605
New York	45	31	.592
Pittsburg	43	31	.581
St. Louis	42	32	.568
Cincinnati	31	42	.425
Brooklyn	27	47	.365
Boston	18	56	.243

Yesterday's Results.
Pittsburg, 13; New York, 4.
Chicago, 6; Brooklyn, 2.
Philadelphia, 12; Cincinnati, 6.
St. Louis at Boston, postponed.

Games Today.
Pittsburg at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	52	24	.684
Philadelphia	49	26	.653
New York	40	35	.533
Boston	40	36	.526
Chicago	38	35	.521
Cleveland	37	42	.468
Washington	37	50	.425
St. Louis	20	55	.267

Yesterday's Results.
New York, 8; St. Louis, 3.
Detroit, 14; Philadelphia, 8.
Cleveland, 2; Washington, 1.
Chicago, 4; Boston, 0 (first game)
Boston, 6; Chicago, 4 (second game).

Games Today.
New York at St. Louis.
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	51	26	.662
Baltimore	49	29	.628
Toronto	43	34	.558
Montreal	33	36	.478
Jersey City	33	38	.465
Buffalo	32	38	.457
Newark	28	42	.400
Providence	26	52	.333

Yesterday's Results.
Newark, 6; Providence, 5.
Rochester, 7; Buffalo, 0 (first game).
Buffalo, 10; Rochester, 3 (second game).
Baltimore, 3; Jersey City, 2.
Montreal at Toronto, wet grounds.

Games Today.
Providence at Newark.
Baltimore at Jersey City.
Buffalo at Rochester (2 games).
Montreal at Toronto.

Somebody asked Pitcher Alexander of the Philadelphia Nationals the other day to explain the secret of his wonderful success this year, and this was his sensible reply:

"I study the weakness of a batsman and try to place the ball where he can't hit it. There isn't much difference between the major and the minors except that you receive better fielding support in fast company, and that always encourages a pitcher.

"I haven't tried to experiment with any mysterious shoot, and never will. I rely on my side-arm curve a great deal when in tight places, and continually change my pace. I've been playing professional ball only three years and the thought that some day I'd be in the National League never entered my mind until I was bought from Syracuse. I never abuse my health, keep in good trim and like to pitch whenever called upon.

"I don't believe in a pitcher trying to master too many curves. All I have is a side-arm, an overhand inshoot and a hop to my fast ball. By controlling them as well as possible and keeping cool I've succeeded better than I ever dreamed I would."

Phoenix Park, attended a garden party at the Civeregal Lodge and in the evening held a court.

Mayor Gaynor suggested that the Interborough question in the subway matter be allowed to "sweat itself out" during the summer, arousing the opposition of the Controller, the President of the Board of Aldermen and of Borough President McAneny.

District Attorney Whitman, of New York, joined in the effort to trace the missing Stokes letters, and it was said that the girls who shot Stokes would be allowed to testify before the grand jury, to which they were held; four detectives concerned were suspended.

It was denied in Washington, Berlin and Paris that the United States had made representation to Germany regarding the latter's activity in Morocco; a debate on the Morocco situation in the Chamber of Deputies was postponed sine die on the government's motion by 476 votes to 77.

MILLBURN ASKS STATE TO PURIFY ITS WATER.

That the wells and waters of the Summit Water company were contaminated and may still contain the bacteria colus communus, was the gist of a report to the Millburn Board of Health Monday night by Dr. Wellington Campbell and Engineer Edmund Halsey, who were commissioned to investigate for the committee at its last meeting.

Dr. Campbell reported that upon a visit to the wells he and Mr. Halsey had found a source of contamination though Dr. Campbell was Monday night of the opinion that it had been removed when he again visited the wells. The board decided to ask the State Board of Health to act.

TEACHER SUES BOARD MEMBER FOR SLANDER.

Morristown, July 12.—Alleging defamation of her character, Miss Lucy G. Hulbert, teacher of the Washington Valley School in Morris Township, has instituted a suit against Willis G. Arnold, a member of the Township Board of Education, for $20,000 damages.

Miss Hulbert has engaged Elmer King as counsel. The case is listed for the October term of the Supreme Court.

According to the statement of Miss Hulbert, Mr. Arnold told untrue stories about her to members of the Township Board of Education and to residents of Washington Valley.

FLY IN EAR KILLS BOY.

Union Hill, July 12.—Succumbing to inflammation of the brain, caused by a fly which crept into his ear, Thomas F. Halloran, five years old, of 344 Park avenue, Union Hill, died Monday. The child complained a week ago of a buzzing in his head and said that something had crawled into his ear.

On July 4, when it was apparent that the child was in a serious condition, Dr. George Good was summoned. He called in Dr. F. C. Farr, of Hoboken, and the surgeons performed an operation, with the result that a large house fly was found lodged against the tympanum.

High Wall Around Reformatory.

Rahway, July 12.—A concrete wall thirty feet high and proportionately thick is under construction to enclose the reformatory. It will take about a year, all told, to complete the work and place the gates.

Absolute Sense of Security In the Purchase of a Mathushek & Son Piano

The seeker of a piano may come to our ware-rooms, choose from a large collection of proved instruments, and he will find the very best of Pianos and the best of Player-Pianos.

He will find our terms the fairest and most liberal.

In other words, we are determined that our piano patrons shall enjoy an ABSOLUTE SENSE of SECURITY.

This means more than good intentions. It means that WE first of all must possess that sense of absolute security in building the PIANOS TO BE SOLD.

THE BEST PIANOS IN THE WORLD
with many valuable improvements
FACTORY DIRECT TO BUYER MEANS A LARGE SAVING.

Mathushek & Son Piano Co.
No. 310 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1365

SPECIAL NOTICE—High grade and artistic tuning and repairing Pianos and Player-Pianos by factory experts.

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

STATE OF NEW JERSEY
DEPARTMENT OF STATE

Certificate of Dissolution.

To all to whom these presents may come, Greeting:

WHEREAS, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the AMERICAN INDIES COMPANY, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated at No. 110 East Front street, in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, State of New Jersey (Henry G. Runkle being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of "An act concerning corporations (Revision of 1896)," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, S. D. DICKINSON, Secretary of State of the State of New Jersey, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the twenty-third day of June, 1911, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereto set my hand and affixed my official seal, at Trenton this Twenty-third day of June, A. D. one thousand nine hundred and eleven.

(SEAL)

S. D. DICKINSON,
Secretary of State.
Fee—$15.96

6 28 5w

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 16, 1910

NEW YORK mails. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—4.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 3.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 8.30 to 10.30 a. m.
Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

W. H. BIRD, P. M.

The Official Board of the First M. E. church will meet after the prayer meeting in Vincent chapel tonight.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 231

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office. Rowley's Drug store, 813 W. Front St. Tel. 613-J.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. E. Suggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 433 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL;
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

McCULLOJGH'S STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

BUY A LISK

THE WASH BOILER THAT IS GUARANTEED FOREVER.

Against rust.

Think of it—absolutely no chance of your finest clothes getting rust stained from the boiler.

There is not a better wash boiler made than the LISK and we doubt if you could buy one as good at any price.

The heavy copper bottom is joined to the sides by extra strong seams.

OUR GUARANTEE.

We will replace at once and without a question any Lisk Wash Boiler we sell which ever shows signs of a rust spot.

ALUMINUM—The Ideal Kitchen Ware

There is no more sanitary and cleanly ware for cooking than Aluminum. And—

It's very low price puts it within the reach of all.

Come in and see the countless articles of Aluminum Ware we have in stock.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

Advertise in The Daily Press

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 12 In American History.

1798—The notorious alien and sedition laws signed by President John Adams.

1849—Dolly Madison (nee Dorothy Payne), widow of President Madison, noted for her beauty and accomplishments, died; born 1772.

1888—Vincent Colyer, noted artist, died; born 1825.

1908—Abaldia elected president of the republic of Panama.

1910—Kate Tannatt Woods, author, died; born 1840.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.)

Sun sets 7:27, rises 4:36; moon rises 8:56 p. m.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 12, 1911.

KHAKI UNIFORMS.

Newark's police commissioners, in compliance with a request, have permitted the motorcycle men to wear khaki uniforms during the summer. The action is a most sensible one and should be copied in Plainfield. It is not only absurd but actually cruel to compel the members of the police force to wear their heavy blue uniforms during the heated season. Khaki suits would make the policemen a hundred fold more comfortable and would give them a better appearance during these trying days. The cost to the city of fitting out the small force in a neat khaki would be but a trifle and would prove a blessing to those who in the discharge of their duties are compelled to cover their beats under a blazing sun. We suggest to the Patrolmen's Association that it petition the city fathers for a more appropriate uniform at this time.

Proctor's Fine Show.

Proctor's show this week is a fine one and will help you to forget the heat. There is a quartet of pretty summer girls who really can sing and dance. Alison Skipworth & Co., present a dramatic sketch of stage life entitled "The Woman Who Lived." Joe Coveny, a fine story-teller from little old New York, has a great lot of talk. Proctor's theatre is cool and it is the ideal place to go these hot days.

Butcher Shops to Close.

All butcher shops in the city will close tomorrow at noon and on all other Thursdays during July and August to give the employes a half holiday. This is in eonformity with an agreement reached last year and it is likely that other stores will adopt the same plan during August.

Headquarters for

Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

Warm Weather Needs

Men's Underwear

Cool comfortable summer underwear in all the popular makes. Balbriggans at 25c and 50c. B. V. D. at 50c. Porosknit at 50c.

Scrivens at 75c. A special lot of athletic shirts and knee drawers in cros bar nainsook, at 29c and 39c a garment.

Parasols

Every style, shape and color combination is represented in the splendid showing. Plain Pongee in black, white and colors. Tan color Pongee, with hemstitched borders in checks, plain colors and Persian effects, blue and white and black and white styles in checks, plaids, polka dots and rings. Some pretty striped taffeta styles, with fancy Persian borders. The prices range from .....98c to $5.00

Children's Parasols—In plain color taffeta, plain tan pongee with colored border; from. ..39c up to $1.25

Toilet Requisites

In this department you'll find everything of the best and the prices are most reasonable. Toilet Soaps, Perfumes, Toilet Water, Tooth Paste. Tooth Powder, Face Powder, Cold Cream, Talcum Powder and Peroxide. The following well known makers are represented: Colgate's, Mennen's, Vantine's, Roger & Gallet, Hudnut's, Packer's, Babcock's, Woodbury, Lyons, Allen's, Dagget & Ramsdell, Jurgens, Pears, etc., etc.

Fine Wash Fabrics in the July Sale

AT 8½c A YARD

fine printed lawns, in dots, figures, stripes and floral effects; worth 12½c.

AT 15c A YARD

"Flaxon," the queen of wash fabrics, very fine and sheer, a splendid variety of prety designs; regular 20c.

AT 19c A YARD

Imported Irish dimities, handsome goods that sold regularly for 29c.

AT 15c A YARD

40-inch fine figured lawns with border, and 32-inch extra quality silk finished mull with border; were 29c a yard.

AT 10½c A YARD

Fine quality batiste in an endless variety of web designs and printed cross bar dimities; worth 19c.

AT 15c A YARD.

Foulards in all the wanted colors, in dots and figures; some with border; 27 inches wide; were 19c a yard.

AT 8½c A YARD

Fine dress ginghams in checks, plaids and stripes; equal to what most stores charge 12½c for.

Women's Underwear

Fine derby ribbed vests in cotton, lisle and silk; plain and fancy trimmed at prices ranging from ...10c to $1.00

Ribbed Pants, Umbrella and tight knee styles at .....25c and 50c

Union Suits with umbrella and tight knee pants.....50c, 75c, $1.00

Handsome White Dresses

A lot of manufacturers' samples of beautiful white dresses; made of very fine quality batiste; high and low necks, kimono sleeves, beautifully trimmed with lace and embroidery; many in the lot worth up to $12.50; sale price $2.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

The Wayne Cedared Papered Wardrobes

"Sold exclusively in this city by us."

Are better than a cedar chest. They keep your clothes free from moths, dust and wrinkles. The "Wayne Wardrobe" is made of tough, durable paper, impregnated with the delicate aromatic odor of pure red cedar, an odor that is repugnant to the moth family. Yet that odor does not cling to the clothes, as is the case with tar or moth balls, and not only for storing clothes but used in the bedroom every day of the week, every week of the month and every month of the year.

"Wayne Wardrobes" are made in ten sizes and range in price from 50c to $1.50.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

BLANKETS and CURTAINS

LEFT TO BE

CLEANED

WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT

125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY

410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

REPORT OF THE CONDITION

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

At the Close of Business June 7th, 1911.

RESOURCES.

Bonds and Mortgages	$ 571,300.00
Other Bonds	452,030.00
Demand Loans	1,000.00
Banking House	32,000.00
Cash in Banks	79,357.05
Cash on Hand	2,785.33
Interest Due and Accrued	9,290.96
	$1,147,763.34

LIABILITIES.

Amout Due Depositors	$1,054,494.10
Average Interest Due Depositors	16,815.00
Average Expenses	128.10
Surplus	76,326.14
	$1,147,763.34

PERSONAL.

Frank Allen, of Mercer avenue, has sailed for Europe, to be absent several weks.

Miss Stella Jones, of Brooklyn, who has been visiting friends here, has returned home.

E. H. Booth and family, of Central avenue, are registered at Lake Minnewaska, New York.

Miss Katharine Farley, of New York, is visiting Mrs. John Hammon, of East Second street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Staats, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a visit with friends here.

Harold S. Robins, of East Second street, has returned from a ten days' vacation at Schroon Lake, New York.

Miss Elizabeth Nash, of the Valley road, has returned after a two weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Connecticut.

Miss Alan McCormick, formerly of this city but now of Washington, D. C., is spending two weeks in town visiting friends.

E. Clarke Searing, of Park avenue, left this afternoon for Atlantic City. He wi'l register at the Marlborough-Blenheim.

Rev. Mr. Tomkinson and wife, from Harrisburg, Pa., are stopping at the home of their son, C. C. Tomkinson, of Grove street.

Mrs. William E. Dunn and son, Alvin, of Norwood avenue, are visiting Richard Betz, formerly of this city and now of Cairo, N. Y.

Miss Louise Gould, of Plainfield avenue, a trained nurse, left last night for her home in London, Ont., where she will remain until fall.

Mrs. D. M. Van Vliet and her daughter, Miss Barbara Van Vliet, of Washington avenue, have gone to Magnolia, Mass., for a short stay.

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Hubbard and daughter, of Central avenue, left today for Rochester, Vermont, where they will remain until August 1.

Mrs. Josie Culp and daughter, Miss Margaret Culp, of Gettysburg, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Culp's son, K. M. Culp, at the Grace Farm, Somerville.

Mrs. David Angerbauer and daughters, Marion and Margaret, of East Third street, are visiting friends in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Struthers, of Leland avenue, returned yesterday from the Catskills, where they spent the past ten days. They report that the heat where they were stopping was about as intense as it has been in Plainfield.

Kittie May Cain, the five-year-old daughter of Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Cain, of Park place, who has been ill with typhoid fever at the hospital, returned to her home this morning, having completely recovered. On Sunday she will observe her fifth birthday anniversary.

Edward Bellis, of Jenkentown, Pa., formerly of the borough, last night entertained Edwin H. Bennett, William Doud and William G. Smith, of this city, while they were on their way to Atlantic City to attend the Elks' convention. This morning Mr. Bellis accompanied the local boys to the shore.

Women's Comforts

During the heated season the dust nuisance is most annoying. Quantities of dust lodge in coiffures and it is quite difficult to remove it except by a perfectly thorough shampooing, such as may be had at Mme. Brunelly's hair dressing parlor. Massage treatments are also given. A skilled manicurist is always in attendance.

Coiffures are made to order, of natural, wavy human hair, and matched so perfectly that it is impossible to detect the difference.

MME. BRUNELLY

Massuese, Manicurist, Hair Dresser

228 W. Front St. In the Sebring Building

THINGS TO KNOW.

Keep achies in bottles. It saves opening many boxes to find a particular kind.

When cleaning house use plenty of turpentine in the scrub water. It means certain death to moths.

A great many blemishes on wall paper may be removed with a rubber on a lead pencil.

To remove fly specks from varnished surfaces, use equal parts of water and skim milk, warmed.

Place a box of lime in the closet in which pams, preserves, etc., are stored away. It will prevent mold gathering on the fruit.

Discolored china baking dishes can be made as clean as new by rubbing them with whiting.

Sporting Blood.

Just as we got down to suspenders and the fourth collar, with an electric fan working overtime at either elbow, the sporting editor shows us a letter from the champion ice skater of Lake George, who desires to arrange some races. We never priced a pair of skates, but for sport's sake we'd be willing to take him on.—New York World.

MUSTS FOR STOUT WOMEN.

She must:
Keep an erect carriage.
Keep trim and neat.
Be dainty in her table manners.
Keep her elbow off the table.
Be light in her walk.
Appear dignified.
Keep away from excitement.
Control her temper.
Wear cool appearing colors.
Buy no overornamented headgear.
Not hesitate to laugh.
Eat sparingly.
Wear long corsets.
Buy shoes of stout leather, dull preferred.
Comb her hair slightly loose at sides; above, not waddle.

A Hint.

The Bounder—I say, old man, I wish you'd make a point of being in this evening. I—ah, want to see you about marrying one of your firls.

The Major—With pleasure. Which do you want, the cook or the housemaid.—what?—London Opinion.

Lost His Balance.

Redd—Who's your friend?

Greene—Oh, he's the fellow who does the wirelbalancing act in the show.

"Did you ever see him lose his equilibrium on the wire?"

"Yes, today. He was trying to telephone and 'Central' told him the line was bury."—Exchange.

—Advertise in The Daily Press. It pays.

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eye sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS at 107 East Front Street. Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 5 p. m.

R. Morris Adkins

MASSEUR and HYDROPATH

Treatment by appointment only.

'Phone, Plainfield 150

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.

VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST

Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.

HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY

Office: HEDDEN LIVERY, 118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.

DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.

OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.

Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

Chiffon Wraps.

The wraps of colored chiffon draped gracefully into long, pointed sleeves, reflect varying shades as they fall in double folds. The wide border of such wraps is invariably either white or black.

Unknown.

"I say, old boy, lend me an X."

"Would if I could, dear chap, but there's an algebraic difficulty in the way."

"What is it?"

"An X with me is an unknown quantity."—The Pathfinder.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

John S. Lewis

Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given

Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J

Announcement!

ALBERTO BUCCINI

347 Fifth Ave., New York City

Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order

Hoagland's Express

to call for your BAGGAGE

Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

EXCURSIONS.

First M. E. Church, Grace M. E. Church, Monroe Avenue M. E. Church, of Plainfield; Dunellen M. E. and Wilson Memorial Chapel.

ANNUAL EXCURSION of the METHODIST

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF PLAINFIELD AND DUNELLEN TO

ASBURY PARK and OCEAN GROVE

Thursday, July 13

Baggage car for baskets, Baby Carriages, Bicycles, etc.

Adults $1.25 Children 90c

Leave Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; and Plainfield, 8:15 a. m. Returning leave Ocean Grove 7:10, stopping at Plainfield, Grant avenue, Clinton avenue and Dunellen. 7 6 6

UP THE HUDSON

POPULAR EXCURSION TO

West Point and Newburg

Every Wednesday

June 28 to Sept. 13, Incl.

VIA

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL AND HUDSON RIVER DAY LINE STEAMER "ALBANY"

Round Trip Tickets 1.50

Direct connection between Train and Steamer at Pier 1, adjoining Passenger Station, Jersey City. Train leaves Plainfield 7:59 a. m.

6-30 7-5 10 12 17 19 24 26 31

Saturday HALF HOLIDAY EXCURSION TO

ASBURY PARK And OCEAN GROVE

July 15th Round Trip $1.25 Children Half Fare

VIA

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

Special Train leaves

PLAINFIELD 1.04 P. M.

Returning leaves Asbury Park 11:00 P. M.

7 12 3

POPULAR OUTINGS... VIA

New Jersey Central

LAKE HOPATCONG

EVERY SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY

ROUND TRIP $1.00 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:50 a.m.

Mauch Chunk GLEN ONOKO THE SWITCHBACK

NEXT SUNDAY, JULY 16th

ROUND TRIP $1.50 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:18 a. m.

Children HALF FARE Each Outing

7 12 2 wf

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The young people of the Baptist church have decided to hold picnics every other Friday night, during July and August, along the banks of Green brook, on the Johnston farm. The on held Friday night of last week was well attended and proved to be an enjoyable affair.

Plans are completed for the "Big Eight" excursion which is ta be held on Tuesday, July 18. The excursion includes the several Sunday-schools from here besides the Willow Grove and Westfield schools.

William H. Lake is making a number of improvements about his property on Bartle avenue. A new porch has been placed in front and at the side of the house and other improvements made.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Meyer and son, Albert, leave tomorrow morning for an extended visit with relatives and friends in Germany.

The weekly proyer and praise meeting of the Baptist church will be held tonight in the church parlors.

Mrs. Edwin Howe, of New York, has been visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Westcott.

William Deegan is visiting relatives in New York for a week.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

Miss Kitty Dolan, of Jersey City, has returned home after spending two weeks visiting her aunt, Mrs. Charles Thornton.

John Assip and family, of Brooklyn, are occupying their new home on Plainfield avenue, near the Delafield farm.

Harry Winter, who is employed on a farm in Canada, is visiting his family here.

Miss Kitty Wilson, of Jersey City, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Samuel Shields.

MOTORCYCLIST BADLY HURT IN AN ACCIDENT

While riding a motorcycle, David Werntz, of Millstone, crashed into a horse being driven by Mr. Merrill, of Bound Brook, near that place last night, about 9 o'clock and is in the Somerset Hospital, Somerville, suffering from bruises, contusions and several broken ribs. His condition, while serious, is not thought to be critical. The horse was killed.

With Mr. Merrill at the time was his wife, both of whom are aged people. They are the parents of C. J. Merrill, clerk of the State Board of Health. The couple were thrown out, receiving many bruises, but were able to go to the home of their son.

Wrentz was on his way home when the accident occurred. He is employed at Somerville and rides his motorcycle to and from his home daily. Mr. and Mrs. Merrill were taking a pleasure drive.

Mrs. Jennie Henness.

Mrs. Jennie Henness, widow of Frederick Henness, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles V. Kronimus, 234 Murray street, Elizabeth. The funeral will be private and the burial will be in Hillside cemetery, this city.

Mrs. William Wilson's Funeral.

The funeral service for Mrs. William Wilson, colored, of Cottage place, was held this afternoon at Cole's undertaking establishment. Rev. G. W. Bailey was the officiating minister and interment was made in Somerville.

James Stigreaves Cox.

James Stigreaves Cox, aged seven years, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward V. Cox, formerly of this city, died at the home of the parents, 531 Madison avenue, New York, yesterday from meningitis. The funeral will be private.

Mrs. Noel's Funeral.

The funeral services for Mrs. hoda Noel, whose death occurred Monday night, will be held at her late residence on Netherwood avenue tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Sunday at Lake Hopatcong.

Special excursion via New Jersey Central, next Sunday and every Sunday and holiday. Round trip $1.00. Leave Plainfield 9:50 a. m. 7 12 2wf

—Iced tea and coffee will help to make life worth living these days and don't forget that Neuman Bros. carry the finest brands of tea and coffee.

GRAND JURY PROBES EXCISE BOARD GRAFT

The Union County Grand Jury was recalled today, when it began an investigation into the affairs of the Elizabeth Excise Commission. Suit for $25,000 damages has already been started by Excise Commissioner Thomas Y. Bye, against John J Stamler, a lawyer of Elizabeth, for a graft allegation story. Bye accuses Stamler of stating that he, Bye, collected funds from saloon-keepers and was showing favortism to them. The charges followed a fight at an excise board meeting at which Bye struck Stamler.

The following day Stamler elaborated on the charges and Bye vigorously denied his guilt and declared his intention of bringing suit. He has retained Alan Strong, of New Brunswick, with P. H. Gilhooly, of Elizabeth as his counsel. The grand jury convened this morning and at once took up the excise case, it is said, but nothing definite can be learned as yet regarding the matter.

FUNERAL SERVICE OF CHRISTOPHER WAGNER

The funeral services of Christopher Wagner, aged 94 years, father of Frank Wagner, the North avenue newsdealer, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of his son, Fred Wagner, at Camden. Mr. Wagner died late Monday night at his home, Grenloch, Camden county, from the infirmities of old age. His wife, who is 84 years old, is very ill with creeping paralysis and her death is expected at any minute.

Mr. Wagner was a native of France and came to this country when about twenty year of age. He served with distinction in the Civil War, originally being a member of the Third New Jersey Cavalry. He enlisted three times during the war, continuing his service as each term of enlistment ended. He was a member of Post No. 73, G. A. R., of Camden.

Mr. Wagner was one of the pioneer shoe dealers of Camden. Three years ago he retired and went to live with his daughter, Mrs. Sarah Opfer, on a farm at Grenloch, at which place he died. Mr. Wagner is survived by a wife, three sons, Frank Wagner, of this city; John Wagner, who is superintendent of the State Guard armory at Camden and Fred Wagner, who is sergeant of police in Camden; also three daughters, Mrs. Mary Godfrey, of Orange; Mrs. Sarah Opfer and Mrs. Dorothy Baseman, both of Grenloch, Camden county.

An Afternoon at the Shore.

A fine opportunity to spend the half holiday at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove is afforded by the special excursion to those famous resorts on Saturday, July 15, via New Jersey Central. Round trip costs only $1.25, children half fare. Special train leaves Plainfield 1:04 p. m. Returning leaves Asbury Park at 11:00 p. m. 7 11 3

Funeral of Mrs. E. R. Lawton.

The funeral services of Mrs. Elousie R. Lawton, widow of Robert J. Lawton, aged seventy-six years, were held at the home of her niece, Mrs. E. D. Murphy, 22 Watchung avenue, at 8 o'clock last night. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. The burial will take place today at Shippensburg, Pa., former home of Mrs. Lawton.

Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Groendyke, of Mercer avenue, are enjoying the breezes of Quoque, L. I., where they are stopping with friends.

EDUCATION APPROVES THE BINET SCHEME

The misplacement of children in schools, getting them too high or too low for their mental capacity, is responsible for much of the truancy and incorrigibility, according to Henry H. Goddard, of the School for Feeble-Minded, Vineland, a speaker at one of the section meetings of the National Education Association Monday.

The speaker said that studies at the Vineland institution have shown that sixty-five per cent. of feble-mindedness is hereditary. The speaker discussed particularly the Binet measuring scale for intelligence, which has received official sanction by the New Jersey Legislature.

This system was explained by Dr. M. P. E. Groszmann, in the borough schools several months ago. Regarding it Mr. Goddard said:

"The Binet scale is a method of marvelous accuracy and of great practical value, and can be applied to help solve some of our problems and make our school system more efficient.

"We are beginning to recognize that many of our difficulties in inborn capacity rather than inborn wickedness. It is therefore necessary to have some method of measuring that inborn capacity.

"The research department of the New Jersey Training School for Feeble-Minded Children has carried out a systematic testing of an entire school population of 2,000 children, using this method. The results amount to almost a mathematical proof of the accuracy of the Binet method. It shows that there are four per cent. of children who are precocious or better in mentality than the average child, seventy-eight per cent. are normal, fifteen per cent, are backward and three per cent are feeble-minded. This ratio probably holds almost universally.

"We should have schools or special classes for these precocious children, in order that the natural advantage with which they are born should not be lost, and that they should not learn bad ways and bad habits from being in classes that go so much slower than they are able to go. The fifteen per cent. that are merely backward should be in special classes, too, that they may be coached and helped along and enabled to get through as much of the school work as is absolutely necessary to moke them useful. The three per cent. that are feeble-minded should be in colonies or institutions where they are cared for and enabled to be happy and partially useful as long as they live, but if this is impossible, they must be cared for in special classes in public schools, where they are not asked to learn reading, writing and arithmetic, but are taught to do those things with their hands which they can do and the doing of which makes them happy. They must never marry, because the studies at the Vinland institution have shown that sixty-five per cent, of feeble-mindedness is hereditary. Therefore, if these children grow up and marry, they simply perpetuate the race of feeble-minded persons."

CONDUCTOR BADLY HURT.

High Bridge, July 12.—While adjusting a brake at the local station Monday night, Samuel Crook, conductor of the High Bridge Branch Railroad, was thrown from the train and severely injured. While no bones were broken, Mr. Crook was badly cut, bruised and suffered from the shock. Dr. William C. Alpaugh dressed his injuries and continued with him to Hoffmans, en route to Mr. Crook's home at Rockaway. Mr. Crook has been in the employ of the Central Railroad Company for many years and since the opening of the High Bridge Railroad in the seventies has conducted a passenger train..

Well Digger Hurt by Cave-in.

Newton, July 12.—Through the caving in of a well, which he was digging at the summer camp of the Newark branch of the Y. M. C. A., at Quick Pond, George Randall, a well-digger, of this place, was injured. He was struck on the side by a rock while at work in the bottom. Several ribs were fractured, one piercing the lung. His condition is not considered serious. Randall was working under the direction of Robert Van Stone. To remove some large rocks, blasting had been resorted to, which, it is thought, loosened the earth.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME
is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.
You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.
Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.
NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
149 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD. NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Telephone 329-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. 'Phone 3245-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1228. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

DIED.

SPRAGUE—On Tuesday, July 11, 1911, Phebe M., wife of the late William E. Sprague, and mother of Mrs. F. W. Butler, aged 81 years.

Services at her late residence, Sprague avenue, on Friday, July 14, at 3 p. m. 7 12 2

RANSOM—On Tuesday, July 11, 1911, Elizabeth, wife of the late William K. Ransom, in her 74th year.

Services at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Correja, 937 West Seventh street, on Friday, July 14, at 4 p. m. 7 12 2

HENNESS—On Tuesday, July 11, 1911, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles V. Kronimus, 234 Murray street, Elizabeth, N. J., Jennie, widow of Frederick Henness.

Funeral private. Interment at Hillside cemetery, Plainfield, N. J.

HADLEY—At Muhlenberg Hospital, July 10, 1911. Joseph Earl Hadley, aged 17 years, 9 months.

Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services from his late home on Thursday, July 13, 1911, at 10:00 a. m.

COX—July 11, 1911, at 531 Madison avenue, New York, of meningitis, James Sitgreaves, aged 7 years, eldest son of Julia Bulkley and Edward V. Cox.

Funeral private. 7 12 2

NOEL—On Monday evening, July 10, 1911, Mrs Rhoda Noel.

Services from her late residence, 229 Netherwood avenue, Thursday afternoon, July 13, at 3 o'clock.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094-Gramercy.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply Woodland corner Hyland avenues. 7 11 3

WANTED—Girl for general work; must be good plain cook. 441 West Front street.

WANTED—A thoroughly competent child's nurse, white, to go to country. Apply at once, 46 Myrtle avenue. 7 11 2

WANTED—First class cook. Apply 716 Carlton avenue. 7 11 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

BOY wanted, must be able to take care horse. Cobb's, 146 East Fifth street. 7 10 3

WANTED—Thoroughly competent experienced bookkeeper to work on small set of books evenings. Address D., care of Press. 7 10 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wishes position with private family; careful driver; make own repairs; strictly sober; willing, obliging; best references. Address W. R., care Press. 7 11 3

YOUNG man, 20, desires position at anything; driving preferred. Address H. G., Press. 7 12 2

YOUNG man colored, 29 years old, desires position of any kind; references. Cabell, 635 West Third street. 7 11 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants position at general housework. 621 South Second street. 7 11 3

EXPERIENCED laundress wants washing to take home. Call 152 North avenue. 7 12 3

GOOD colored girl just from South wants situation; general housework. 217 Plainfield avenue. 7 11 3

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 3 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1734. 7 1 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Saturday night, silver mesh bag; initials C. M. G.. Reward if returned to this office. 7 11 2

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire from Andress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

TO LET—Lower floor, 4 rooms; $11; West Third below Clinton avenue. Owner 17 Craig place. 7 11 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms, 671 West Fourth street. Apply 968 West Fifth street. 7 11 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 5 27 tf

TO LET—Six room house; $14; west end. Inquire 66 Duer street. 7 12 tf

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 8 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

FOR SALE—Good built house, all improvements; good size lot; easy terms. Address Renwanz, Daily Press. 7 12 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 30 percent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Muiford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 6 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FAMILY ice box for sale; first class ice saver; in good condition; will sell cheap to quick buyer. Murray's auction room, 164 East Front street. 7 7 3

BICYCLE for sale; gent's chainless; nearly new. Dilts, 95 Jackson avenue, N. P. 7 11 3

FOR SALE—Work horse. 3 Regent street. 7 10 3

FOR SALE—Two-cylinder motorcycle; 121 Madison avenue; first class condition; price reasonable. 7 11 3

GOOD toned piano cheap; bargain in fine automobile. John Manley, broker, 321 Park avenue. 7 11 3

THOROUGHBRED Great Dane dog (female); 9 months old. 528 West Third street. 7 12 3

AT MURRAY'S Auction and Brokerage Rooms, 164 East Front street, if you are looking for anything in the household furnishing line or merchandise of any kind your wants can be furnished at a very low cost. You can find most anything imaginable among his large stock of goods, and goods are coming in every day and we are compelled to sacrifice prices. Stair carpets and rugs, etc. 10 and 15-cent books now selling at 5 cents each. We have sold over one hundred and fifty books last week and just received a new lot of two hundred; over two thousand to select from. We buy and sell everything in clean and fair condition, either for cash or commission. Murray's, 164 East Front street, opposite the Woodhull & Martin building. 'Phone 666. 7 12 2

RASPBERRIES for sale. Tel. 111-J. 7 10 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans, Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

CONTRACTS taken for all whitewashing jobs of any description. Frank Delia, 670 South Second street. 7 12 3

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 3 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 335 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 8 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Fine farm, 104 acres, good potato soil, 50 large fruit trees, shade views of river, excellent 11-room house, large barn, 3 wagon houses, 3 chicken houses, corn crib; all good shape; price $10,800. Also 75-acre farm; best of soil, high elevation, 125 fruit trees, good 9-room house, 2 barns, wagon house, 2 chicken houses, brooder house, 3 hog houses, corn crib, including all machinery and tools; price $8,400. Owners will trade for Plainfield income property. Call Sammis, 20 West Main street, Somerville, N. J. 7 3 5

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW

AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By BILLY HAMILTON.

Former Center Fielder for Boston, and One of the Greatest Players in the History of the National League.

The greatest base runner and one of the greatest batters the game ever has known, now scouting for the Boston Red Sox, is Herman Long, the "Flying Dutchman." He was to my mind the greatest shortstop, with the possible exception of Hughie Jennings, who ever played the game. Long seemed to possess the gift of second sight and it appeared to me as if he knew, even before a ball was pitched, just where it was going to be hit. How he knew no one ever understood, and I don't think he knew himself why he started in the right direction just as the pitcher began to wind up. But he did so and it was this fact that enabled him to make what I consider the greatest play ever made on a baseball field.

BILLY HAMILTON.

The play came in one of the games of the final series between Boston and Baltimore, two grand teams that were fighting for the championship. The result depended on the series, and everyone was fighting hard for the advantage. I think it was in the eighth inning that Baltimore got two men on bases with two out, and Boston was leading by one run. A hit meant at least a tied score, the best way it could be figured, and the Boston infield was on edge, scrapping, fighting, each man urging the others to greater efforts. I have forgotten who was at bat, but my recollection is that it was Joe Kelley. Kid Nichols, than whom no greater pitcher ever stepped into a box, was studying the batter hard, and he winged a fast high ball inside the plate and high. I believe that every man on the Boston club, except Long, expected that the ball would be hit either to right field, right center or center. It didn't seem possible the ball would be pulled toward left. Long, however, was in motion as Nichols pitched and toward third base on a dead run. The ball was hit on a sharp line drive. The third baseman leaped, stuck up his hands and the ball passed a foot over them. To the astonishment of everyone, players and spectators alike, Long was sprinting as hard as he could about twenty feet back of third base and, as the ball began to come down, he took a flying twisting leap through the air, stuck out both hands and caught it.

Long was like a cat on his feet. In spite of his wonderful leaping catch he came down with his feet under him and pivoting, like a flash he fired the ball down to second base, completed the double play, and saved Boston. The victory eventually resulted in the pennant for Boston.

I have seen baseball for more than twenty-five years and never before or since did I see a shortstop catch a line hit after it passed over the head of the third baseman. How Long managed to reach the ball, and get both hands on it, is hard to explain unless by his gift of second sight that enabled him to know where the ball was going before it was hit.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

Hadn't Seen 'Em Since.

The young lady was painting—sunset, red, with blue streaks and green dots.

The old rustic—at a respectful distance—was watching.

"Ah," said the female artist, looking up suddenly, and pretending she hadn't known he was there all the time, "perhaps to you, too, nature has opened her sky pictures page by page? Have you seen the lambent flame of dawn leaping across the livid east; the red-stained, sulphurous islets floating in the lakes of fire in the west; the ragged clouds at midnight, black as a raven's wing, blotting out the shuddering moon?"

"No, mum," replied the rustic, shortly; "not since I give up drink."—London Tit-Bits.

The Grocer Telephones

"I'M sorry, Mrs. Blank, but we are just out of that; sold the last this morning. Must have it to-day? All right, we'll get it for you.

"Central, give me long distance."

The grocer gets the wholesaler in a neighboring city, orders the goods, satisfies his customer, and protects his trade.

Ordering by mail in such a case would be out of the question.

It is the Bell Telephone Local and Long Distance Service that makes such accommodation possible.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

Every Bell Telephone is the Centre of the System

Not Open Friday Night. Close at 1 p. m. Saturday.

BAMBERGER'S

THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE

MARKET & HALSEY STS.

SAMPLE BEDS

Our big sale of sacrifice beds and bedding continues to interest hundreds of people. Justsee how we have cut our prices:

IRON BEDS.

$17.50 sample iron beds, for this sale $10.00
$15.00 sample iron beds, for this sale $7.98
$14.25 sample iron beds, for this sale $7.25
$13.50 sample iron beds, for this sale $8.00
$12.75 sample iron beds, for this sale $8.00
$12.00 sample iron beds, for this sale $7.00
$10.50 sample iron beds, for this sale $6.00
$9.00 iron beds, for this sale
$9.00 sample iron beds, for this sale $5.50
$8.25 sample iron beds, for this sale $4.50
$7.00 sample iron beds, for this sale $4.25
$4.75 sample iron beds for this sale $3.00
$4.00 sample iron beds, for this sale $3.00

MATTRESSES.

$3.00 soft top mattresses, for this sale $2.50
$4.00 soft top and bottom mattresses at $3.25
$5.00 Victor combination mattresses for $3.75
$7.00 Anchor combination mattresses for $4.95
$9.00 cotton felt mattresees, this sale at $7.50
$11.00 cotton felt mattresses, this sale at $8.50
$12.50 "Elbeco" felt mattresses this sale $9.00
$17.00 hair and felt mattresses, this sale $12.00
$16.50 black hair mattresses, for this sale $14.50
$18.50 black hair mattresses, for this sale $15.50

COUCH BEDS.

$7.50 couch beds, during this sale, special $4.95
$8.50 couch beds, during this sale, special $6.25
$10.00 couch beds, during this sale, special $7.50
$12.50 couch beds, during this sale, special $9.95
$15.00 couch beds, during this sale, special $11.50
$18.00 couch beds, during this sale, special $14.50

BRASS BEDS.

$60.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $38.00
$55.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $32.00
$52.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $30.00
$54.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $27.00
$40.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $20.00
$37.50 sample brass beds, for this sale $18.00
$35.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $19.00
$30.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $18.00
$33.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $20.00
$26.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $13.50
$25.00 sample brass beds, for this sale $12.50
$22.50 sample brass beds, for this sale $11.75

ALL STEEL SPRINGS.

$2.10 all steel springs, this sale, special $1.70
$2.75 all steel springs, this sale, special $1.98
$3.50 all steel springs, this sale, special $2.75
$4.00 all steel springs, this sale, special $3.25
$4.50 all steel springs, this sale, special $3.75
$5.00 all steel springs, this sale, special $4.00
$6.00 all steel springs, this sale, special $4.75
$7.50 all steel springs, this sale, special $6.00
$8.00 all steel springs, this sale, special $6.75
$10.00 all stee springs, this sale, special $7.75

FEATHER PILLOWS.

Regular 75c feather bed pillows, special 65c
Regular $1.00 feather bed pillows, special 80c
Regular $1.50 feather bed pillows, special $1.15
Regular $2.50 feather bed pillows, special $1.75
Regular $3.50 feather bed pillows, special $2.50
Regular $4.50 feather bed pillows, special $3.50

L. BAMBERGER & CO.

NEWARK N.J.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75

119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON

I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.

James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gettfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.52, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58. Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 3.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.29, 8.45, 9.02, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m. 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.45, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.28, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.
6 25 11

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R
Successor to Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at J. T. Vail's, North avenue. 'Phone 204.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

For Sale or To Let

The Factory Building lately occupied by the Crescent Embossing Co.,
located at
546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.
Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.
Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.
Especially suitable for light manufacturing.
Can be seen only by appointment with
Fred C. Lounsbury
Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.
Tel. 1036-R
or
Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.
Tel. 310-J

IF there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 82-A.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
NORTH AVENUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-3.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 82.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 646-R. Residence 213 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

CRYING FOR HELP.

Lots of It in Plainfield But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys cry for help.

Not an organ in the whole body so delicately constructed.

Not one so important to health.

The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous.

Backache is one of the first indications of kidney trouble.

It is the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Doan's Kidney Pills are what is wanted.

Are just what overworked kidneys need.

They strengthen and invigorate the kidneys; help them to do their work.

Read the proof from a Plainfield citizen.

Thomas Haskard, 927 South Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I never hesitate to endorse Doan's Kidney Pills, for my experience with them has shown me their merits. Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Randolph's Drug store, relieved me time and time again when I have been suffering from kidney trouble and I owe a great deal to them. You may continue to publish my former testimonial."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Central R. R. News Stands.

You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—781.

SOME GOOD THINGS TO EAT

Novel Combination of Fresh Mushrooms With Sausages—Delicious Egg Dish.

"Have you ever tried broiled sausages with mushrooms?" asks a correspondent of the Epicure.

"As a matter of fact the sausages are not broiled at all, but the smallest of breakfast sausages are laid in a sizzling hot frying pan and cooked brown on one side, then turned and taken out to drain on paper when sufficiently cooked.

"Some fresh mushrooms that have been peeled are then set cooking in the sausage fat, and are served with the sausages on slices of toast which have been buttered. For a change add a few slices of bacon to the dish of sausages before cooking the mushrooms.

"A certain egg dish that was invented in a Latin quarter studio in Paris is delicious. Butter some little earthen dishes such as are used for shirred eggs and break one or two eggs into each. Sprinkle with salt and pepper, grate on a liberal quantity of dry Gruyere cheese, add some bits of butter, pour over cream to cover and bake in a hot oven until the eggs are set.

"For another dish: Put a sweet Mexican pepper on Pimento morrones—the tinned variety—in the bottom of a custard cup or earthen egg cup, break in a fresh egg, add salt, pepper and butter, and bake until the egg is sufficiently cooked. Serve with fingers of crisp buttered toast."

COULD TELL HIS LUCKY DAYS

Man Who Creates Sensation at Monte Carlo Talks of His Good Fortune.

"Will Darnborough," said a Bloomington man, "is the sensation of the Riviera. He has been winning at Monte Carlo at the rate of thirty or forty thousand a day.

"Will told me last month, at the Cercle de la Mediterranee in Nice, that he attributed his good fortune to the fact that he could always tell his lucky days.

"He said with a laugh that the first turn of the wheel told him everything. In its startling revelations the wheel, he said, suggested the young earl who fell in love with the pretty Monte Carol chambermaid.

"The young earl found a Monte Carlo chambermaid so irresistible that he proposed to her and was, of course, accepted. So one night he took her motoring, and in the course of the ride he produced a bottle of champagne.

"'I'll open it,' said the pretty chambermaid. 'Oh, let me open it.'

"And while the car sped along the Corniche in the moonlight she unfastened the foil and wire and twisted out the huge cork so deftly that not a drop of the champagne escaped.

"But the young earl pushed rudely from him the pretty, smiling chambermaid.

"'You have deceived me,' he muttered, hoarsely, 'I am not your first love.'"

Chrysanthemum Marvels.

The great autumn shows of chrysanthemums at Dangozaka, near Tokio, offer many wonders to their crowds of visitors.

You will see the flowers in long ranks, each plant a facsimile of the next beside it, with exactly the same number of blooms on each. And not merely that; the top bloom will be fully opened, and so make one of a perfectly level line of fully opened blooms; the next will be nearly opened, and again one of a similar row; the flowers of the third row are open to a less degree; and so they decrease to the feet of the plants, where a row of close green buds extends so that the whole long rank presents a constantly repeated scale of all the beauties of the opening flower from bud to fullest bloom. And the marvel does not stop even here, for not only the blossoms but the leaves are matched in number and situation. In other places instead of straight lines the plants are disposed fan fashion or in the shape of an umbrella.

More Widows Than Widowers.

The proportion of remarriages shows an almost continuous decrease, says the registrar-general in his report on the births, deaths and marriages in England and Wales during 1909.

The number of widows, he states, is always much greater than that of widowers, because in the first place men marry later in life than women; secondly, because the duration of male life is shorter than that of female life, and thirdly, because the proportion of widows who remarry is much lower than the proportion of widowers who remarry.

Marriages of persons described as divorced have steadily increased and in the year 1900 were the highest on record.

Sings Hymns to Her Chickens.

A woman living near here never says "Chicky, chicky, chick" when she wishes to feed her chickens. When she goes to the hennery with feed she sings a church hymn, such as "Rock of Ages" or "Holy Bible, Book Divine; Precious Treasure, Thou Art Mine!" and the "biddies" make a bee line rush toward her from all parts of the yard.

The chickens recognize her voice, and will not rush to any other person with the same speed, even if the same hymns are sung.—Clay City correspondence Indianapolis News.

KEITH
OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

Taking Fairbain with him and nastily reviewing late occurrences to him, Keith crossed over to the corral, realizing that their work—his work—was not wholly done until Hawley had been located. With this quest in mind he strode straight to the black-bearded giant who had guarded Hope from Sheridan.

"What is your name?" he asked sharply.

The man looked up scowling.

"Hatchett," he answered gruffly.

"Well, Hatchett, I am going to ask you a question or two, and advise you to reply just about as straight as you know how. I am in no mood to-night for any foolishness. Where is 'Black Bart' Hawley?"

Rising to His Knees, he Saw a Man Already Half Across the Stream.

"How in hell should I know?"

"You do know, just the same. Perhaps not to an inch, or a mile, but you know near enough where he is, and where he has been since you left Sheridan."

"If I do, I'm damned if I'll tell you."

"No? Well now, Hatchett, listen to me," and Keith's voice had in it the click of a steel trap. "You'll either answer, and answer straight, or we'll hang you to that cottonwood in about five minutes. If you want a chance for your miserable life you answer me. We have our way of treating your kind out in this country. Sit up, you brute! Now where did Hawley go after he left you?"

"To Fort Larned."

"After those fresh horses?"

"Yes."

"He didn't bring them to you; I know that. Where has he been since?"

"Topeky and Leavenworth,"

"How do you know?"

"He writ me a note the boss herder brought."

"Hand it over."

Keith took the dirty slip of paper the man reluctantly extracted from his belt, and Fairbain lit matches while he ran his eyes hastily over the lines. As he ended he crushed the paper between his fingers, and walked away to the end of the corral. He wanted to be alone, to think, to decide definitely upon what he ought to do. Hawley, according to the schedule just read, must have left Larned alone early the day before; this night he would be camped at the water-hole; with daybreak he expected to resume his lonely journey across the desert to the Salt Fork. For years Keith had lived a primitive life, and in some ways his thought had grown primitive. His code of honor was that of the border, tinged by that of the South before the war. The antagonism existing between him and this gambler was personal, private, deadly—not an affair for any others—outsiders—to meddle with. He could wait here, and permit Hawley to be made captive; could watch him ride unsuspectingly into the power of these armed men, and then turn him over to the law to be dealt with. The very thought nauseated him. That would be a coward's act, leaving a stain never to be eradicated. No, he must meet this as became a man, and now, now before Hope so much as dreamed of his purpose—aye, and before he spoke another word of love to Hope. He wheeled about fully decided on his course, his duty, and met Fairbain face to face.

"Jack," the latter said earnestly, "I read the note over your shoulder, and of course I know what you mean to do. A Southern gentleman could not choose otherwise. But I've come here to beg you to let me have the chance."

"You?" surprised and curious. "What greater claim on that fellow's life have you than I?"

The pudgy hands of the doctor grasped the plainsman's shoulders.

"It's for Christie," he explained brokenly. "She was the one he tried to run away with. You—you know how I feel."

"Sure, I know," shaking the other off, yet not roughly. "But it happened to be Miss Waite he took, and so this is my job, Fairbain. Besides, I've got another score to settle with him."

He wasted little time upon preparations—a few brief words of instruction to Bristoe; a request to the doctor not to leave Hope alone; the extracting of a promise from the two "Bar X" men to return to Larned with the prisoners. Then he roped the best horse in the corral, saddled and bridled him, and went into the cabin. She had a light burning, and met him at the door.

"I thought you would never come, but they told me you were unhurt."

"Not a scratch, little girl; we have been a lucky bunch. But I have had a great deal to look after. Now I shall be obliged to ride ahead as far as the water-hole, and let you come on with the others a little later, after you get breakfast. You can spare me a few hours, can't you?"

His tone was full of good humor, and his lips smiling, yet somehow she felt her heart sink, an inexplicable fear finding expression in her eyes.

"But—but why do you need to go? Couldn't some of the others?"

"There is a reason which I will explain later," he said, more gravely. "Surely you can trust me, Hope, and feel that I am only doing what it seems absolutely necessary for me to do?" He bent down and kissed her. "It will be only for a few hours, and no cause for worry. Good-bye now, until we meet to-night at the water-hole."

The east was gray with coming daylight as he rode splashing across the stream and up the opposite bank. She watched him, rubbing the blinding mist from her eyes, until horse and man became a mere dark speck, finally fading away completely into the dull plain of the desert.

CHAPTER XXXVI.

The Duel in the Desert.

Keith rode straight forward into the sandy desolation, spurring his horse into a swift trot. After one glance backward as they clambered up the steep bank, a glance which revealed Hope's slender form in the cabin door, his eyes never turned again that way. He had a man's stern work to do out yonder, and his purpose could not be swerved, his firmness of hand and keenness of eye affected, by any thought of her. His lips compressed, his fingers gripping the rein, he drove all regretful memory from his mind, until every nerve within him throbbed in unison with his present purpose. He was right; he knew he was right. It was not hate, not even revenge, which had set him forth, leaving love behind, but honor—the honor of the South, and of the frontier, of his ancestry and his training—honor that drove him now to meet Hawley face to face, man to man, to settle the feud between them for all time. And he rode smiling, gladly, as to a tryst, now that he was at last alone, free in the desert.

The hours passed, the sun rising higher in the blazing blue of the sky; the horse, wearied by the constant pull of the sand, had long since slowed down to a walk; the last dim blur of the cottonwoods along the Fork had disappeared; and the rider swayed in the saddle, the dead lifelessness of sky and desert dulling his brain. Yet he had not forgotten his errand—rousing constantly from lethargy to sweep his shaded eyes about the rounded horizon, keenly marking the slightest shadow across the sands, taking advantage of every drift to give him wider viewpoint, rising in his stirrups to scan the leagues of desolation ahead. Twice he drew his revolver from out its sheath, tested it, and slipped in a fresh cartridge, returning the weapon more lightly to its place, the flap of the holster turned back and held open by his leg. The sun beat upon him like a ball of fire, the hot sand flinging the blaze back into his face. He pushed back the upper part of his shirt and drank a swallow of tepid water from a canteen strapped behind the saddle. His eyes ached with the glare, until he saw fantastic red and yellow shapes dancing dizzily before him. The weariness of the long night pressed upon his eye-balls; he felt the strain of the past hours, the lack of food, the need of rest. His head nodded, and he brought himself to life again with a jerk and a muttered word, staring out into the dim, formless distance. Lord, if there was only something moving; something he could concentrate his attention upon; something to rest the straining eyes!

But there was nothing, absolutely nothing—just that seemingly endless stretch of sand, circled by the blazing sky, the wind sweeping its surface soundless and hot, as though from the pits of hell; no stir, no motion, no movement of anything animate or inanimate to break the awful monotony. Death! it was death everywhere! his aching eyes rested on nothing but what was typical of death. Even the heat waves seemed fantastic, grotesque, assuming spectral forms, as though ghosts beckoned and danced in the haze, luring him on to become one of themselves. Keith was not a dreamer, nor one to yield easily to such brain fancies, but the mad delirium of loneliness gripped him, and he had to struggle back to sanity, beating his hands upon his breast to stir anew the sluggish circulation of his blood, and talking to the horse in strange feverishness.

With every step of advance the brooding silence seemed more profound, more deathlike. He got to marking the sand ridges, the slight variations giving play to the brain. Way off to the left was the mirage of a lake, apparently so real that he had to battle with himself to keep from turning aside. He dropped forward in the saddle, his head hanging low, so blinded by the incessant sun glare he could no longer bear the glitter of that horrible ocean of sand. It was noon now—noon, and he had been riding steadily seven hours. The thought brought his blurred eyes again to the horizon. Where could he be, the man he sought in the heart of this solitude? Surely he should be here by now, if he had left the water-hole at dawn. Could he have gone the longer route, south to the Fork? The possibility of such a thing seared through him like a hot iron, driving the dullness from his brain, the lethargy from his limbs. God! no! Fate could never play such a scurvy trick as that! The man must have been delayed; had failed to leave camp early—somewhere ahead, yonder where the blue haze marked the union of sand and sky, he was surely coming, riding half dead, and drooping in the saddle.

Again Keith rose in his stirrups, rubbing the mist out of his eyes that he might see clearer, and stared ahead. What was that away out yonder? a shadow? a spot dancing before his tortured vision? or a moving, living something which he actually saw? He could not tell, he could not be sure, yet he straightened up expectantly, shading his eyes, and never losing sight of the object. It moved, grew larger, darker, more real—yet how it crawled, crawled, crawled toward him. It seemed as if the vague, shapeless thing would never take form, never stand out revealed against the sky so he could determine the truth. He had forgotten all else—the silent desert, the blazing sun, the burning wind—all his soul concentrated on that speck yonder. Suddenly it disappeared—a swale in the sand probably—and, when it rose into view again, he uttered a cry of joy—it was a horse and rider!

Little by little they drew nearer one another, two black specks in that vast ocean of sand, the only moving, living things under the brazen circle of the sky. Keith was ready now, his eyes bright, the cocked revolver gripped hard in his hand. The space between them narrowed, and Hawley saw him, caught a glimpse of the face under the broad hat brim, the burning eyes surveying him. With an oath he stopped his horse, dragging at his gun, surprised, dazed, yet instantly understanding. Keith also halted, and across the intervening desert the eyes of the two men met in grim defiance. The latter wet his dry lips, and spoke shortly:

"I reckon you know what this means, Hawley, and why I am here. We're Southerners both of us, and we settle our own personal affairs. You've got to fight me now, man to man."

The gambler glanced about him, and down at his horse. If he thought of flight it was useless. His lip curled with contempt.

"Damn your talking, Keith," he returned savagely. "Let's have it over with," and spurred his horse. The gun of the other came up.

"Wait!" and Hawley paused, dragging at his rein. "One of us most likely is going to die here; perhaps both. But if either survives he'll need a horse to get out of this alive. Dismount; I'll do the same; step away so the horses are out of range, and then we'll fight it out—is that square?"

Without a word, his eyes gleaming with cunning hatred, the gambler swung down from his saddle onto the sand, his horse interposed between him and the other. Keith did the same, his eyes peering across the back of his animal.

"Now," he said steadily, "when I count three drive your horse aside, and let go—are you ready?"

"Damn you—yes!"

"Then look out—one! two! three!"

The plainsman struck his horse with the quirt in his left hand and sprang swiftly aside so as to clear the flank of the animal, his shooting arm flung out. There was a flash of flame cross Hawley's saddle, a sharp report, and Keith reeled backward, dropping to his knees, one hand clutching at the sand. Again Hawley fired, but the horse, startled by the double report, leaped aside, and the ball went wild. Keith wheeled about, steadying himself with his outstretched hand, and let drive, pressing the trigger, until, through the haze over his eyes, he saw Hawley go stumbling down, shooting wildly as he fell. The man never moved, and Keith endeavored to get up, his gun still held ready, the smoke circling about them. He had been shot treacherously, as a cowardly cur might shoot, and he could not clear his mind of the thought that this last act hid treachery also. But he could not raise himself, could not stand; red and black shadows danced before his eyes; he believed he saw the arm of the other move. Like a snake he crept forward, holding himself up with one hand, his head dizzily reeling, but his gun held steadily on that black, shapeless object lying on the sand. Then the revolver hand began to quiver, to shake, to make odd circles; he couldn't see; it was all black, all nothingness. Suddenly he went down face first into the sand.

They both lay motionless, the thirsty sand drinking in their life blood, Hawley huddled upon his left side, his hat still shading the glazing eyes, Keith lying flat, his face in the crook of an arm whose hand still gripped a revolver. There was a grim smile on his lips, as if, as he pitched forward, he knew that, after he had been shot to death, he had gotten his man. The riderless horses gazed at the two figures, and drifted away, slowly, fearfully, still held in mute subjection to their dead masters by dangling reins. The sun blazed down from directly overhead, the heat waves rising and falling, the dead, desolate desert stretching to the sky. An hour, two passed. The horses were now a hundred yards away, nose to nose; all else was changeless. Then into the far northern sky there rose a black speck, growing larger and larger; others came from the east and west, beating the air with widely outspread wings, great beaks stretched forward. Out from their nests of foulness the desert scavengers were coming for their spoil.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

At the Water-Hole.

Up from the far, dim southwest they rode slowly, silently, wearied, still by the exertions of the past night, and burned by the fierce rays of the desert sun. No wind of sufficient force had blown since Keith passed that way, and they could easily follow the hoof prints of his horse across the sand waste. Bristoe was ahead, hat brim drawn low, scanning the horizon line unceasingly. Somewhere out in the midst of that mystery was hidden tragedy, and he dreaded the knowledge of its truth. Behind him Fairbain and Hope rode together, their lips long since grown silent, the man ever glancing uneasily aside at her, the girl drooping slightly in the saddle, with pale face and heavy eyes. Five prisoners, lashed together, the binding rope fastened to the pommels of the two "Bar X" men's saddles, were bunched together, and behind all came Neb, his black face glistening in the heat.

Suddenly Bristoe drew rein, and rose to the full length in the stirrups, shading his eyes from the sun's glare, as he stared ahead. Two motionless black spots were visible—yet were they motionless? or was it the heat waves which seemed to yield them movement? He drove in his spurs, driving his startled horse to the summit of a low sand ridge, and again halted, gazing intently forward. He was not mistaken—they were horses. Knowing instantly what it meant—those riderless animals drifting derelict in the heart of the desert—his throat dry with fear, the scout wheeled, and spurred back to his party, quickly resolving on a course of action. Hawley and Keith had met; both had fallen, either dead or wounded. A moment's delay now might cost a life; he would need Fairbain, but he must keep the girl back, if possible. But could he? She straightened up in the saddle as he came spurring toward them; her eyes wide open, one hand clutching at her throat.

"Doctor," he called as soon as he was near enough, his horse circling, "thar is somethin' showin' out yonder I'd like ter take a look at, an' I reckon you better go 'long. The nigger kin com' up ahead yere with Miss Waite."

She struck her horse, and he plunged forward, bringing her face to face with Bristoe.

"What is it? Tell me, what is it?"

"Nothin' but a loose hoss, Miss."

"A horse! here on the desert?" looking about, her eyes dark with horror. "But how could that be? Could—could it be Captain Keith's?"

Bristoe cast an appealing glance at Fairbain, mopping his face vigorously, not knowing what to say, and the other attempted to turn the tide.

"Not likely—not likely at all—no reason why it should be—probably just a stray horse—you stay back here, Miss Hope—Ben and I will find out, and let you know."

"No, I'm going," she cried, stifling a sob in her throat. "It would kill me to wait here."

(To Be Continued.)

HAHNE & CO.

IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS ·

THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

HO, FOR TUB SILKS! PRICES CUT AS NEVER BEFORE

This is the final price reduction of the Sumer season—there will be no better offerings of tub silks than these, for there are no better ones sold at our regular prices—none that are more pleasing when put into delightful summer dresses.

$1 Striped Tub Silks—Extra heavy; 32 inches wide; white grounds with neat stripes of blue, lavender and black; nice for either dresses or shirts; colors absolutely fast; to go in this offering at only 69c

79c striped Wash Silks—36 inches wide; strictly all silk; white grounds with neat stripes, for dresses, waists, or men's shirts; advertised by many stores as worth $1 regularly; sold by us at 79c; in this sale at....59c

49c Striped Tub Silks—All silk, strong, washable; neat colored stripes on white grounds; most desirable for summer dresses or waists; very excellent 49c quality; will be offered all this week at 29c

HANDKERCHIEFS AT HALE

Women's all linen handkerchiefs with embroidered corners; fine 25c values at 12½c.
Women's lawn handkerchiefs with embroidered corners; value 10c each, at 5c.
Men's all linen hemstitched handkerchiefs—fine quality; 25c kinds at 12½c.

ALL KINDS OF CABINETS

PLAYER, CYLINDER, DISC AND MUSIC.

Every kind of cabinet for the musically inclined—cabinets to hold various player records, cylinders for phonographs, discs for talking machines and for sheet music. See them in grand array in our Furniture Store, Third Floor.

During our July Sale prices are from 20 to 30 per cent. less than at music stores and agencies.

MUSIC CABINETS

Made of mahogany and nicely finished; French shape legs; stands 42 inches high, 18 inches wide and 15 inches deep; has double doors and both open in the one movement; inlaid stripes around the edge of front. Inside are 6 sliding trays with brass pulls; regular price $18.00; July sale price.....$12.50

BAR HARBOR CHAIRS $5

Our Bar Harbor Chairs are the best of their kind, the grade of willow used being heavier and thicker and much stronger than that used in imitations of this chair.

The chairs are larger, thus more willow is used in their construction; the facing or roll around the front and back are broad and heavy, and the woven apron around the sides give them increased stability.

The back is three feet high; the finish natural.

Cushions for these chairs, in splendid variery, with appropriate covers for Summer use; twill denims in plain green, red and brown and fancy figured cloth. They are thick, bordered and filled with cotton felt. The cushions are well worth $1.50 each.

Our price for these chairs complete, with your choice of cushion, during the July Sale, will be $5

ROCKERS—A strongly built chair; flat, comfortable, broad arms; flat slats in the back; finished in the natural color, also green; a very popular style that we sell hundreds of; priced low at $2.50; in the July Sale at.....$1.75

FLOOR OILCLOTHS

To Go in the July Sale in Connection with Discontinued Patterns.

This will be a notable sale of floor oilcloths, since it is based on immense purchases of mill ends and discontinued patterns—the best grades of floor oilcloths in most attractive patterns and colorings.

There has been no similar sale in Newark.

Mill Ends in three qualities; perfect goods, many pieces of the same design, enabling you to cover a room of almost any size; kinds that we regularly retail at 30c, 35c and 45c the sq. yard; special priced at.....19c

Discontinued Patterns—all widths; 1 yard 1¼ yards, 2 yards and 2½ yards wide; cut from full rolls to your order to fit any size room you wish; grades that we regularly retail at 35c to 45c the square yard, to be offered on this occasion at only 24c

We advise you to bring room measurements with you.

Upholstery Fabrics

Upholstery Fabrics, Damasks, Tapestries and Armures, in an immense variety of the most beautiful designs and exquisite color effects; various lengths up to twenty-five yards; all strictly perfect, taken from our regular stocks; patterns that we cannot duplicate.

Regular Prices $2, $3, $5, $6.50 and $10.
Special prices, $1.25, $2, $3.50, $4 and $5.

Upholstering & Repairing

NOW IS THE TIME TO HAVE IT DONE.

In connection with our offer to sell upholstery fabrics cheaply, we will upholster parlor suits or single pieces at specially low prices, the offer being open until the end of the month. We promise the best service our skilled workman can give you.

Simply call up 3460 Market, or send us a card, and our representative will call and give you an estimate on any repairs or reupholstery you may desire.

Upholstery Section, Third Floor.

FURNITURE ON THE CLUB PLAN.

SALE of PICTURES

A FINE TIME TO BUY THEM.

Pictures help immensely in brightening up the home, and, when you can buy them so cheaply, they can be used generously.

Here is a lot of Odd Studies of every kind and Sample Pictures in colors, white and black, in frames of oak, mahogany, antiquie and gilt; values $1.98 to $9.98; special priced at 98c to $4.98.

All our Oil Paintings are offered at a discount of 20 per cent.

Large Hand-Colored Photogravures—mounted in handsome Roman gold frames, matted with margin showing title; regularly $18; special priced $9.95

Our immense collection of $5 Pictures—some that have been reduced from $6.98 to $7.50 in the lot, are all to go at.....$3.98

Our Popular $2.50 Pictures, embracing a wide range of subjects, most of them very large sizes; to be sold this week at.....$1.89

The Wonderful Pictures that we feature at $1, which are in most cases worth double, many of them being very large, most of them colored effects, in gilt frames, will be sold at only 87c

Pictures sold on the Club Plan if desired.

Hahne & Co. Broad, New & Halsey Sts., Newark, N. J.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.

M. MERSTRICH, Prop.

Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

Go to John Lopresti's

405 WATCHUNG AVENUE

Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes. All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos.

'PHONE 440-J.

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

WHERE TO CARRY VALUABLES.

Nowadays, when so many women are traveling the question of a safe and convenient way to carry money, papers, etc., is a problem. The pocket here described is one used by a woman who has been crossed the continent ten times, and who has been obroad several times.

In it she has carried thousands of dollars, and always safely and conveniently. At her recommendation, I, too, tried the pockets, and now would not be without them in any petticoat that I own, for not only are they convnient for traveling, but also when about the city and you want your hand free, says a writer in the Washington Herald.

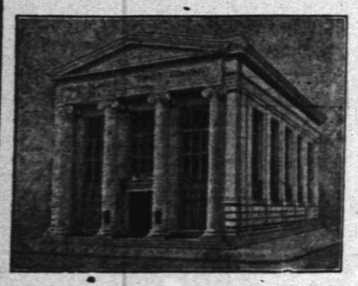
The pocket, which is cut in any size you like, is made of good strong cambric and is sewen to the petticoat about six inches from the band. In this way the pocket is always in your lap when you sit down, and you can occasionally put your hand there to see if the contents are safe.

For an ordinary pocket cut a strip of cambric siv inches wide by twelve inches long. Turn up the botton, envelope washion, and put a hem on the top. The hem is to stay the buttonholes. The top is cut pointed, or simply turn the edges to pointed shape, which makes it stronger.

On the first turn make three buttonholes and one the flap. Sew the pocket up at the edges to form an envelope like bag, and then stitch firmly on the petticoat on three sides, not only on the edges, but across the centre where the flap comes under the buttonhole hem.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY



Assets $3,700,000.00

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

BASEBALL.

John McGraw's confidence in the Giants remains unshaken. "We have the fastest team on the bases," said the little manager, " and no club can hit any better. It is not that which I am banking on, however. I am basing my confidence largely on the fact that we have not been forced to overwork Matty in order to keep near the top. Raymond had been a disappointment to me and I am not counting on him at all. Crandall, Marquard, Ames and Wiltse have shown enough form to enable me to save Matty. When the race gets hotter, along about the first of August, watch Matty go in there and work his head off. He's going to make a wonderful finish."

It's Bound Brook again for the Plainfield team Saturday afternoon, only this time the game is at Bound Brook.

Now as the heat wave rolls in again, we wonder "who will stop them Cubs."

The Giants had somewhat of a setback yesterday when the Pirates trimmed them 13-4. Honus Wagner's bat was largely responsible for the large score for the big Dutchman pounded out four hits out of five trips to the plate.

On account of the wreck of the Federal Express yesterday morning, the game between the Boston and St. Louis National League clubs was called off. The Cardinals were on the wrecked train and although none of them was injured, the management thought it best for them to rest a day after their hard work in effecting rescues at the scene of the disaster.

Plainfield's Pets have an outfield that is hard to beat anywhere in this section of the state. Eddie Stallings in left garden is always there on the flies and on the bases he's a second Ty Cobb. Joe Harter's work in center field has made him the idol of the fans. Those two running catches of hot drives by him in Saturday's game prove conclusively that he is one of the best outfielders in the organization. His batting speaks for itself but it might be edded that Joe can always be relied upon for a safe clout when needed. Right field is safely guarded by the fleet footed Cosgrove, who covers a lot of ground with his speedy legs although his wielding of the willow is not as sure as it might be.

A new umpire has been added to the Central League staff and he will begin his duties immediately. The new official is DeWitt VanCleef, who has been an official handler of the indicator in many of the big college games this year. In every case he has he has given satisfaction, now the question is, can he make good with fandom in this vicinity.

Tim Jordan, once the pride of Brooklyn but now the initial sacker of the Toronto Eastern League club, will be the first man in that organization to get a hundred safe hits this season. Jordan has ninety-nine clouts to his credit now and at his present rate he will be past the century mark before another day dawns.

—The best hot weather beverage is iced tea and coffee and Neuman Bros. sell high grade tea and coffee which make an ideal drink.

Mrs. John Fischbach and granddaughters, Christina and Ray, of West New York, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Angerbauer, of East Third street, are visiting relatives in Trenton.

Y.M.C.A. TO WITHDRAW FROM AMATEUR UNION

Rumors that the Athletic League of North America, in which is included the many branches of the Young Men's Christian Association hereabouts, had decided to break away from the Amateur Athletic Union and terminate the existing alliance was confirmed yesterday by James E. Sullivan, secretary-treasurer of the A. A. U.

In a communication to those most interested in the various associations of the Union throughout the United States Mr. Sullivan had the following to say:

"On and after July 17 A. L. N. A. registration will not be recognized by the A. A. U. of the United States, and all athletes that desire to compete from Y. M. C. A.'s in open sports must obtain registration from the registration committee of the association of the A. A. U. in whose territory they reside.

A Young Men's Christian Association branch that is not a member of your association cannot hold an open athletic meeting, as it has heretofore, unless it applies to your association for sanction and pays the regular fee.

"After July 17 you must treat each Young Men's Christian Association branch as an athletic club. They can have their athletic activities among themselves; that is, each branch can have athletic contests among its own members without making them ineligible for open Amateur Athletic Union competition, unless they accept the entry in basket ball, swimming, track and field, or some other club sport of an athlete that has been disqualified by the A. A. U. A disqualified athlete cannot compete in club members' games, according to the A. A. U. rules. If he does, he disqualifies all that compete with him while he is under suspension. If two branches of the Y. M. C. A. should hold a meeting in any sports over which the A. A. U. claims jurisdiction without obtaining sanction from your association, and without each individual man being registered, the competitors would disqualify themselves, and you could not allow them to compete with registered athletes in games sanctioned by the A. A. U. through the different Association Registration Committees.

Any branch of the Y. M. C. A., on July 17, which does not hold individual membership in the A. A. U. and whose athletes are not registered with the A. A. U., cannot claim protection from the A. A. U. and its athletes can join any club holding membership in the A. A. U. by notifying the chairman of the registration committee of the association in whose territory they reside.

"Bear in mind in dealing with this problem that if a Y. M. C. A. that now has membership in an association of the A. A. U. desires to continue that membership it cannot take part in sports with any other Y. M. C. A. unless such competitions are sanctioned and all men registered in the A. A. U. In other words, the Y. M. C. A. branch that desires to continue its membership in an association of the A. A. U. must confine its athletic activities to such branches as are members of the A. A. U. or who will obtain sanctions for their games and register their competing athletes. Otherwise they cannot continue membership in the A. A. U."

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.

Capital $100,000.00

ENGLISHMEN DEFEAT AMERICANS ON TRACK

Oxford and Cambridge Universities defeated Harvard and Yale in a dual track meet in England yesterday, winning out by one event. The American college men were much affected by the climatic conditions, the long distance runners being especially handicapped. The results of the various events follows:

Hammer Throw—Won by George E. Putnam, Oxford, with 151 feet 5 inches; C. C. Childs, Yale, second, with 140 feet 7 inches; T. E. Cable, Harvard, third, with 137 feet 10 inches.

Running High Jump—Won by Wooster Canfield, Yale, with 5 feet 11⅜ inches; Albert D. Barker, Harvard, second, with 5 feet 10⅜ inches; H. A. Dubois, Cambridge, third, with 5 feet 8⅜ inches.

Half-Mile Run—Won by B. M. Preble, Harvard; G. L. R. Anderson, Oxford, second; H. L. Jacques, Jr., Harvard, third. Time—1:57 1-5.

100-Yard Dash—Won by Duncan MacMillan, Cambridge; F. A. Reilly, Yale, second; D. D. Thatcher, Yale, third. Time—0:10 1-5.

Running Broad Jump—Won by R. T. Holden, Yale, with 22 feet 9¼ inches; J. R. Kilpatrick, Yale, second, with 21 feet 9½ inches; M. J. Susskind, Cambridge, third, with 21 feet 5 inches.

Two-Mile Run—Won by E. Gowan Taylor, Oxford; C. H. Porter, Oxford, second; Paul R. Withington, Harvard, third. Time—9:29 1-5.

Quarter-Mile Run—Won by F. G. Black, Cambridge; Duncan MacMillan, Cambridge, second; John H. Stewart, Jr., Yale, third. Time—0:49 4-5.

One-Mile Run—Won by P. J. Baker, Cambridge; W. C. Moore, Oxford, second; H. P. Lawless, Harvard, third. Time—4:27 3-5.

120-Yard High Hurdles—Won by George A. Chisholm, Yale; J. B. Cummings, Harvard, second; P. R. O'Rourke Phillips, Cambridge, third. Time—0:15 2-5.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Communion services were held at the First M. E. church, Sunday morning, when the right hand of fellowship was given to a large class of probationers.

The trustees of the First Baptist church will hold its quarterly meeting tomorrow evening. Monday evening the deacons held an official session. The regular church business meeting will be held July 26.

The members of the official board of the First M. E. church Sunday-school did not meet last night as announced, owing to the intense heat. There is nothing special to come up at this time, but if there is a special meeting will be called.

During the months of July and August the young people's societies connected with the First Baptist, First Presbyterian, Trinity Reformed and First M. E. churches, will hold union services Sunday evening previous to the regular preaching services.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

TALK! TALK! TALK!

But be sure you don't know what you are talking about. I saw so many of you to our sister's (Westfield) Carnival and notwithstanding that I know you know all about it. I will give you the same add that I had in their magazine. (Will tell you who is to go to Up-to-date later to see the lots). It was as follows:

WHOA! MULE.

Never turn your back on a mule, his grace will disgrace you if you do. If you do, in taking the car home be a gentleman, keep standing for both ladies and gentlemen. Turn your back on the motorman and face the conductor, you will be better able to face the public. Some people carry their hearts in their shoes to have it handy to kick with. Take my advice, never kick at a mule unless you look him square in the face. I want to look you square in the face when I tell you about my Real Estate business. I have been in it nearly twenty years, and do you know I have never seen a man or woman who did not try to tell me that they knew more about it than I do. It is a funny business. Everybody knows it. When I offer them a property to prove it to me they either go to their barber, baker, banker or lawyer to back them up. Of course, the lawyer has been supposed to study law for four years, that, of course, gives him a diploma in the Real Estate business. The banker in counting money, the thing I am after, learns the value of property from A to Z, but the barber has them all beat, he can look me in the face and talk to me, the rest can't. Whoa! mule.

I have the distinction of having three Oliver stenographers to keep up with my work. Where is that other fellow? And the only fellow on earth in my business who works on a plan. "My time is yours."

My address for this week is PlainWestfield, but call on me at 159 North Ave., Plainfield, N. J., or call 1907.

D. Foster Updike

Cut this out and send to Lot Department.
Let Mr. .....
Address .....
Go to Uptodate. Agents wanted.

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.

SAY KENDALL WILL GET $10,000 BERTH

Indianapolis, July 12.—It is understood here among the friends of Calvin N. Kendall that he has been proffered by Governor Wilson of New Jersey and has accepted the place as Commissioner of Education of the eastern State.

Mr. Kendall is now in the East, and it is said he has been in conference with Governor Wilson on the subject, with the result that the announcement of his appointment will soon be made.

Mr. Kendall is the city superintendent of the Indianapolis schools, and is a noted educator. He has just returned from the meeting of the National Educational Association, which met on the Pacific coast.

The position of Commissioner of Education was created by a law introduced at the last session of the Legislature by Senator Frelinghuysen. The place pays a salary of $10,000 per year, and carries with it great power. The Commissioner is supposed to confer with the State Board of Education, recently appointed by the Governor.

FIRE AT STATE FARM DOES $30,000 DAMAGE

Crossed electric wires, it is believed, set fire to the horse barn at the college farm of the New Jersey experiment station at New Brunswick yesterday morning, and that building with the cow barn adjoining it, and a brooder were completely destroyed, entailing a loss of $30,000, all insured.

The fire was discovered by Professor J. Volney Lewis as he was entering the grounds. He saw the flames playing around the top of the building just where the wires enter. He gave the alarm, and the farm hands and students who are working on the farm during the summer rushed to the building, saving the live stock.

About one hundred tons of alfalfa and other fodder were destroyed. Professor F. C. Minkler and several New Brunswick firemen were overcome fighting the flames. The fire may result in the field day plans for August 2 being changed.

AMUSEMENTS.

KEEP COOL—Go To BOYNTON BEACH

THE COOLEST PLACE IN NEW JERSEY

CHILDREN'S DAYS EVERY THURSDAY

HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings

FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S

VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Harcourt, Babcock & Co., sketch, "The Parting of the Ways;" Yankee Comedy Four, Rich and Rare Comedians; Sanns & Sanns, Singers and Dancers; Ward Baker, Monologuist.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Camp Ram's Horn

Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.

Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.

THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

Scheuer's Bargains

FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Scheuer's Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour, 24½ Bag 75c; per Barrel - - - $5.90

Large Ripe Watermelons each 35c	Kirkman's Borax Washing Powder 20c size, 4-lb pkg. 16c	Borden's Malted Milk 45c size a bottle 38c	Franco-American Soups Individual size, a can 10c	Borden's Peerless Evaporated Milk 10c size, 3 cans 23c	Scheuer's Bitter Chocolate for Cooking 16c size, a cake 12c
Schimmell' Salad Dressing large bottle 10c	Italian Olive Oil Trial size Bottle 10c size, a bottle 8c	Franklin Mills Entire Wheat Flour 25c size, 5-lb pkg. 21c	Anti-Dust Sweeping Compound 25c size, a package 21c	Windo-Klene For Cleaning Glass 10c size, a can 5c	Swift's Borax Soap Finest Quality Ten 5c cakes 39c
Jello Jelly Powder 3 10c packages 25c	Pineapple Chunks 15c size a can 12c	Cook's Flaked Rice 12c size a package 10c	Old Grist Mill Malt Coffee 25c size, a package 18c	Marshall's Kippered Herring 15c size, 2 cans 25c	H. O. Presto 10c size a package 8c

WASHINGTON ROCK CO GINGER ALE SARSAPARILLA, ROOT BEER OR BIRCH BEER, per doz. quart bottles...80c

G. Washington Prepared Coffee 35c kind, a can 30c	Hecker's Cream Oatmeal 10c size, 3 packages 25c	National Biscuit Co. Uneeda Biscuits a package 4c	Pure Italian Olive Oil worth 85c; quart can 75c	10 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Pork and Beans 10c	15 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Pork and Beans 15c
10 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Spaghetti 10c	15 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Spaghetti 15c	Mustard Sardine 10c size 3 cans for 25c	Jersey Potatoes 6-quart pony basket 43c	10 Stamps with 2 bunches Beets 10c	10 Stamps with 2 cans Jiffy Hand Cleanser 10c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Baking Powder 45c	100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Premium Teas 60c	70 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Tea 50c	30 Stamps with 1 lb Oolong, Mixed or English Breakfast 35c	20 Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java 32c	10 Stamps with 1 lb Coffee 23c

DRAKES POUND CAKE, RAISIN CAKE, MARBLE CAKE, FRUIT CAKE, a lb 18c

10 S&H STAMPS WITH

Large Bottle Blue.....10c
1 Box Ball Blue 10c
1 box Royal Talcum Powder.....10c
1 box Royal Tooth Powder.....10c
1 Package Macaroni 10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla.....15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish.....10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline 10c
1 Package Parlor Matches.....12c
Large Bottle Ammonia 10c
7-lb Bag Salt 10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish.....10c

20 S&H STAMPS WITH

3-lb box Gloss Starch.....20c
3 Large Rolls Toilet Paper.....25c
Large Bottle Witch Hazel.....25c
Large Bottle Harris Ammonia.....25c
Quart Bottle Welch's Grape Juice....45c
Large bot. Slick Shine Fur. Polish....25c
Large box Silver Star Stove Polish...15c
½-gallon Bottle Cider Vinegar.....20c
1 lb Premium Java Coffee.....27c

IN OUR VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT.

New Potatoes, 6-qt. pony basket.....43c
Yellow Onions, 6-qt. pony basket.....47c
Fresh Green Beans, a quart.....5c
Fresh Sweet Peas, ½ peck.....30c
Fresh Wax Beans, a quart.....5c
Jersey Beets, a bunch.....5c
Watermelons, each 35c
Fresh Carrots, 3 bunches.....10c
Large Head Lettuce 8c

CRACKERS AND BISCUITS.

Ivin's Spiee Wafers, a lb.....12c
Fig Bars, a lb.....10c
H. & P. Breakfast Biscuits, 2 pkgs...25c
Frou-Frou-wafer, lb.....45c
Lemon Cake, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Ginger Snaps, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nic Nacs, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs.....25c
Nabisco Sugar Wafers, pkg.....9c
Filigree Fingers, pkg.....9c
Five O'clock Teas or Social Teas, pkg.9c

IMPORTED AND DOMESTIC CHEESE.

Best Imported Swiss Cheese, a lb....34c
Best Imported Roquefort Cheese, lb..40c
German Camembert Cheese, tin.....35c
Muenster Cheese, a lb.....24c
Best Limburger Cheese, lb.....20c
Philadelphia Cream Cheese, each....10c
Neufchatel Cream Cheese, each.....5c
Pimento Cream Cheese, jar.....15c
Pim-Oliv Cream Cheese, jar.....15c

SUMMER DRINKS.

Doles Pineapple Juice, bottle.....25c
Duffy's Apple Juice, bottle.....15c
Imported Raspberry Syrup, bottle....30c
Strawberry Syrup, bottle.....25c
Rose's Lime Juice, bottle 20c
Orangeade Syrup, bottle 25c
Grape Juice, ½-pint bottle.....10c
Hire's Root Beer Extract, bottle.....15c
Gold Medal Root Beer Extract, bot..10c

JULY THIRTEENTH.

1735—Stephen Hopkins, "signer" for Rhode Island, died in Providence; born 1707.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Friday; slightly lower temperature tonight. Maximum, 92; minimum, 68.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THUSDAY, JULY 13, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

ELKS' BIG PARADE

15,000 Antlered Host in Order's Demonstration at Atlantic City Today.

SEASHORE RESORT JAMMED.

Surprised Last Night by Endeavorers Who Paraded the Board Walk Singing Gospel Hymns When Clock Pointed at 11.

The great lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks this afternoon is repaying the hospitality shown the thousands of visiting members during the past several days that the grand lodge sessions were being held in Atlantic City, by giving one of the most brilliant and spectacular parades in the history of the order's conventions. It started from Atlantic and New Hampshire avenues, moved over Atlantic to Annapolis avenue on the north side, countermarched on the south side and thence to Pacific avenue and dismissed.

Chief Marshal Nicholson said this afternoon that according to the latest figures there was more than 15,000 men in line. He also made public this list of lodges and the divisions to which they were assigned. There were ten divisions in all and fifty-eight lodges. In the first division were Atlantic City lodge, with 225 members, and New York with 950.

Second division — Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Baltimore, St. Louis, Boston and Pittsburg.

Third division—Harrisburg, Indianapolis, Newark, N. J., Brooklyn, Buffalo and Kansas City.

Fourth division—New Orleans, Paterson, N. J.; Columbus, O.; Hoboken, N. J.; Newport, R. I.; Trenton, N. J.

Fifth division — Wilkes-Barre, Lynn, Mass.; Allentown, Asbury Park, N. J.; Lancaster, Orange, N. J.; Mc-Keesport.

Sixth division—Portland, Ore.; Williamsport, Johnstown, Jersey City, N. J., South Bend, Ind.; Sunbury.

Seventh division—Elizabeth, N. J.; Camden, N. J.; Wilmington, Del.; New Brunswick, N. J.; Niagara Falls, Winston, N. C.

Eighth division—White Plains, N. Y.; Millville, N. J.; Salisbury, N. C.; Bronx, N. Y.; Long Branch, N. J.; Queensboro, N. Y.

Ninth division—Bristol, Pa.; Burlington, N. J.; Rahway, N. J.; Belleville N. J.; High Point, N. Y.; Red Bank, N. J.

Tenth division—California and Colorado lodges.

Tens of thousands of Elks poured into the convention city yesterday from all points in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and New York to see the parade today, swelling the already huge crowd that had been at the shore since several days before the convention opened. Last night the boardwalk was a sea of humanity. The roller chair parade was the largest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. At an early hour it was impossible to get a chair as all had been gobbled up and the occupants retained their seats until late last night. At 11 o'clock 2,000 Endeavorers paraded down the board walk singing their battle hymns while bewildered "Hello Bills" scattered right and left.

It was evidently an inspiration for early this morning a herd of the routed "Hello Boys" got together, attired themselves in bathing suits and wearing nifty little red caps, corraled a band, made the musicians don bathing suits also, and started a parade on the beach. Other bathers caught the spirit of the thing, and in less than no time more than a thousand of them, men and women, were joyously marching up and down the white sand to the music of the band. And this was only one of a hundred startling stunts pulled off during the day.

A big feature of yesterday morning's session of the Grand Lodge was a series of speeches by Colonel John P. Sullivan, of New Orleans newly elected grand exalted ruler, and the three candidates he defeated—C. A. Rasbury, of Dallas, Tex., Arthur C. Moreland, of New York, and W. H. Ticknor, of Buffalo. These speeches were all bubbling with harmony and the fraternal spirit, and demonstrated anew the fact that no matter how hard Elks may fight among themselves, once the contest is over they are brothers again.

Colonel Sullivan declared that his aim during his administration would be the good of the order and preservation of harmony. The defeated candidates all pledged their support to the incoming administration.

Because of the fact that a lack of sufficient votes resulted in no election for grand trustee Tuesday, a second election as held yesterday. There were four candidates, C. L. Applegate, of Salt Lake City; Thomas A. McNulty, of Baltimore, present in-

(Continued on page 6.)

BOATING STOPPED

Chancery Court Restrains the Smith's From Using South Plainfield Pond.

WATER COMPANY SUCCEEDS.

No Right Shown by Defendants Who Are Restrained From Their Practise—Vice Chancellor Howell's Opinion.

In the Court of Chancery at Newark yesterday Vice Chancellor Howell granted a motion for a preliminary injunction restraining Justice of the Peace William E. Smith and his son, Philip Smith, both of South Plainfield, from causing boating on the South Plainfield pond. Father and son hire boats to parties and the Middlesex Water company, which obtains a supply from that body of water, objected to the practise.

The claim was made by the Smiths that they held license from abutting property owners, while the water company set up title to the land beneath the water. The proceeding in Chancery are the result of a conflict between the water company and the Smiths which came to a climax when the boat owners with guns are alleged to have driven away a force of men employed by the water company who were attempting to stop the use of boats on the pond.

Frank Bergen, president and counsel of the Middlesex Water company, applied in chancery for an injunction. The Smiths were represented by William A. Coddington, of this city. Vice Chancellor Howell's opinion granting the injunction follows:

"The complainant's rights in the body of water in question are determined by the cases of Cobb vs. Davenport, 3 Vr. 365, 4 Vr. 223, nd Albright vs. Courtright, 35 Vr. 330. If the complainant has title to the lands under water the defendants and the public generally can acquire no rights therein by the acts which they and the other affiants allege that they have done by the answering affidavits. The rules of law relating to deposits of standing water are different from those which relate to water running in streams through the lands of adjoining proprietors. The defendants do not claim any title whatever to either the water or the lands theerunder; they allege a leave and license to approach the waters of the pond from the lands of a riparian owner, with the right to moor boats and to use boats and to hire the same for use over the whole surface of the pond. So far as their rights may depend upon the ownership of the licensor at the point at which they approach the pond, I may say that it is entirely clear from the affidavits that the licensors right does not come to the edge of the water. Whether it does or not, under the authority of the cases cited neither the licensor nor the licensee would have any right to propel boats over the lands of the complainants; at most, from the affidavits taken altogether, the licensor can have nothing more than a mere right of approach to the edge of the water; hence he could give no license to the defendants to navigate boats either for business or pleasure over the complainant's property.

"The title claimed by the defendants on behalf of their licensors is not distinctly and sufficiently set out. To deafet a suit in equity by pleading title the defendants must show that there is a real dispute over the title and not one that is merely fancied or illusory. In my opinion the defendants have failed to set up any such title, and an injunction should therefore go to prevent them from using boats on the waters covering the complainant's land."

ALLEGED 'PEEPING TOM' DISCHARGED BY COURT.

Henry Thompson, colored, of Madison avenue, who was arrested Tuesday night suspected of being the "Peeping Tom," who has been annoying residents in the vicinity of West Second street and Madison avenue, was discharged in the city court this morning by Judge William G. DeMeza for lack of sufficient evidence. Thompson's friends, with whom he said he had spent the time just previous to his arrest appeared in his behalf, as did his employer former sheriff B. Frank Coriell.

A number of complaints have been made to the police about a man who has been peeping through the screens in the open windows on the lower floors which have been used as sleeping apartments by many people during the warm weather. A sharp lookout is being kept for the offender and if caught he will receive little mercy at the hands of the court, Judge DeMeza said this morning.

—Tea and coffee for iced drinks, the popular summer beverage, can be found at Neuman Bros. The quality of the tea and coffee is par excellent.

REST FOR CLERGY

Where the Plainfield Ministers Spend Their Summer Vacations.

MANY AWAY FOR AUGUST.

Some go to the Mountains and Others to the Shore, While Still Others Enjoy a Brief Sojourn Abroad.

Many of the pastors of the local churches are either enjoying their summer vacation or are planning to be out of the city during August, but unlike other seasons arrangements have been made whereby there will be a number in town more or less of the time to give their services to those who need them. Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, who recently returned from a two weeks' visit with his mother at Grand Rapids, Mich., came home last night from Atlantic City, where he attended several sessions of the Christian Endeavor convention. He plans to spend the last two weeks of his vacation the latter part of August at Grand Rapids, Mich.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Chambliss, who closed his pastorate at the First Baptist church on July 1, will spend the summer either at the seashore or mountains. Rev. C. L. Goodrich, of the Congregational church, accompanied by his wife and son, will leave July 18 for Europe, where they will remain until Setpember. Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor of Warren chapel, and Mrs. McKelvey will spend the month of August in Pike county, Pa., during which time Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor of Hope chapel, will be at home. Mr. Greene is spending July at Lake George, N. Y.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First M. E. church, has not definitely settled his plans, but he will be away during August, probably dividing his time between seashore and mountains. Rev. C. S. Kemble, of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, expects to spend the month of August at Ocean Grove, as usual, while Rev. C. C. Cain, of Grace M. E. church, with his family, will spend August at Panther Lake, Sussex county.

Rev. Evarts C. Conover, of the Temple Baptist church, and his family will spend the greater part of August at Asbury Park. Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will remain on the Pacific Coast until fall. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, of the First Presbyterian church, has not decided upon his plans as yet, but he and Mrs. Herring will be out of the city during August. Rev. Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Zelie are in Maine for the summer.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, rector of Grace church, with Mrs. Stevenson, is at Sabbathday Lake, Maine, and will probably be away until the latter part of August. Rev. C. H. Mallery, recor of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, is in Bermuda, while Rev. Elory G. Bowers, rector of St. Stephen's church, is still in town. He is serving Holy Cross as well as his own church during the summer season. He plans to take a few days off at a time instead of being out of town for any length of time. Rev. B. M. Bogan, pastor of St. Mary's church, and his assistants, Father Hogan and Sciolla, alternate in taking vacation, spending the time on rest. The list of supplies for all the churches are not complete yet and will not be announced before the latter part of July.

Pope Property Sold.

Former Senator Jacob Welch, of German Valley, has purchased the F. A. Pope residential property at Park avenue and East Fifth street, for his son-in-law, who is now a resident of Harrisburg. The latter is a dentist and he will take possesion of the property August 1. The deal was made by the agency of Charles H. Lyman. The property was owned by F. L. C. Martin, who originally had plans for erecting a large and modern garage at that corner.

Rev. Mr. Conover to Speak.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Temple Baptist church will have charge of the meeting at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, and Rev. Evarts C. Conover, the pastor of the church, will lead the meeting and make an address. There will be special music by the children's choir under the leadership of Clifford A. Braider.

Mrs. Albert Zerega and family have moved from 926 Park avenue, where they have resided during the past ten years, to their new residence at 447 West Seventh street, southeast corner of Division. The property was purchased from Henry E. Butler a few months ago. Some improvements and alterations have been made to the premises.

—Look for Updike's advertisement. ***

THIRTEEN NO HOODOO FOR HENRY C. MEYER

Henry C. Meyer, of Scotch Plains, accompanied by his wife and son, Albert, left New York today on the Adriatic and will spend thirteen weeks visiting relatives in Germany. They leave on the thirteenth of the month and their stateroom in the first class cabins of the Adriatic is numbered 513. Their return voyage will mark the thirteenth time that Mr. Meyer crossed the ocean.

When Mr. Meyer originally came to this country he arrived in New York on a thirteenth of May. His daughter, Mrs. Alexander Muir, of Newark, was born on a June thirteenth and her husband was born on a May thirteenth.

BORO'S CHIEF MARSHAL CARES NOT FOR VOTE

Recorder Charles M. Dolliver made the intent of the borough ordinance regarding the licensing of dogs quite plain to William Tyler this morning in the North Plainfield police court by fining him $2 for neglecting to have his canine duly registered and tagged. Tyler, who is a colored man, living on Warren street, had been warned several times about having his dog licensed but took no heed to the advice.

Last night Chief Marshal George Weiss found that the dog had not been listed on the borough canine social register and so he told Tyler to appear in court. The colored man started to explain to the chief that he should not arrest him for his vote had helped to place the chief in office. The officer of the law replied that he was appointed and that he would take the offender with him rather than have him "C. O. D." in the morning. Tyler was able to secure bail so that he was not obliged to spend the night behind the bars. the night behind the bars.

In the court this morning, Recorder told the culprit that he must obey the law and that the dog must be licensed. The offender paid the fine and went out to find the canine, which he claimed had disappeared.

TEN DOLLARS MORE FOR THE BABY CAMP

Among those who never fail to respond to the annual appeal made by this paper for the Baby Camp fund is John W. Murray, Sr. It was not, therefore, surprising to find in the mail this morning his check for $10. His contribution swells the fund to $65.

Those who are enjoying the summer at the shore or in the mountains can do 'a world of good,' by making a donation to this most worthy charity. In many a home, where personal comforts are unknown, are there little tots who must suffer during these trying days when the temperature and the humidity make life miserable. In many instances, the mother of such babes must toil over the wash-tub somewhere to earn a dollar for the support of her family. Her heart is sick because she has not the means to make her baby comfortable during the heated season.

Up on Johnston's drive, nestled in the Watchung mountain, hard-by Plainfield is a baby camp conducted by the City Union of The King's Daughters. There this poor woman's babe can well be cared for if only the more fortunate people in the community would contribute their mites toward the support of that splendid charity. Funds are low and money is actually needed to keep the camp running day by day. Won't you help?

Contributions will be received by The Daily Press, promptly transmitted to the camp authorities and at the same time acknowledged in these columns. Remember the words of the Master.

Received today:

John W. Murray	$10.00
Previously acknowledged:
C. J. F.	$25.00
Anonymous	$20.00
Woman's Christian Work Society 7th Day Baptist Church.	5.00
From a Friend	5.00

Did You Get One?

Dr. A. H. Dundon, of Somerset street, has been flooding the incoming foreign mail with postal cards from Vienna where he is entered as a student in the University for special study and research work on stomach diseases. He reports having had a splendid trip and is well pleased with the continental cities he passed through in reaching Vienna where he will be located for about two months.

—Updike's ad is worth reading. ***

PUPILS KEPT BUSY

Over a Hundred Deficient Pupils Working Hard in Free Summer School.

ATTENDANCE RECORD IS GOOD.

Back Work is Being Reviewed and Advanced Subjects Are Taken Up—Five Teachers Carrying on the Work.

Of the one hundred and fifty pupils who failed to pass their studies in the city high and grammar schools this year, one hundred and ten are toiling through heat and cool breezes in the public summer school trying to catch up with their studies. The extra session school, which was started upon the recommendation of Dr. Henry M. Maxson, superintendent of the city schools, rather as an experiment and which has been running since Monday, has proved so far to be most successful.

The fact that the deficient pupils are not required to attend the sessions in the school makes the task of carrying on the work a difficult one for it places the pupil on his own will power. The attendance thus far at the school has been most remarkable for nearly every pupil that has enrolled has been in his place and working hard every day. Those who are enjoying the benefits of this extra free tutorship, however, seem to realize what an opportunity is being given them by the city, which is placed at an expense of several hundred dollars on account of their neglect during the winter.

Tuition in the school is absolutely free for pupils of the Plainfield public schools, who live in this city. For all outsiders a charge of $6 is made for the entire course. Forty are enrolled in the high school department, seventy in the grammar grades and twelve from out of town. Sessions are held in the Whittier school building every morning from 8 until 11:30, these being continued for six weeks. Each pupil is allowed to take two subjects, which he might have flunked during the past year and will be allowed to take some advance work in these if he should choose. Several of the deficient ones have taken a great interest in their work and are studying beyond their required subjects.

The summer school is in charge of Mrs. Sarah L. Wardner, who is well known by every one in this city as an efficient teacher and educator. Assisting her in the grammar department are Miss Anne Rafferty, a graduate of the city high school in '06, and Mrs. George Davis, also of this city, Milton St. John, of New York University and a graduate of the Plainfield High School, class of '06, and Miss Ruth Bullock, a Wellesley alumna, are teaching the high school subjects.

English, Latin, algebra, history, French, plane and solid geometry and physical geography are the subjects being taught in the high school department. The courses for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades are being carefully reviewed by the grammar pupils. It is the intention of the Board of Education to keep the school open for six weeks but a pupil may drop out at any time. After three weeks examinations will be given, upon the passing of which a deficient pupil will be allowed to go on with his class without conditions. For those who fail to pass the first set of tests, a second examination will be given at the end of the six weeks.

Winners in Proverb Contest.

The New York Tribune today announced the winners in its proverb contest, conducted some weeks ago, and among those who will receive prizes are the following from this city: Miss G. L. Chamberlain, Westervelt avenue; H. S. Beebe East Sixth street; Clarence L. Murphy, East Second street; Mary O'Connor, Fairview avenue; H. F. Avery, Watchung avenue; Mrs. E. S. Grover, Albert street; E. R. Thompson, Putnam avenue; William Holmes, Arlington avenue; Ella L. Lounsbury, Plainavenue.

Missionary's Talk.

Mrs. Rababaugh, a returned missionary from Turkey, spoke at the mid-week prayer meeting in Vincent chapel of the First M. E. church last night. She was accompanied by her daughter Miss Ruth Rababaugh, who sang a solo and accompanied her mother in two duets. Owing to the warm weather the attendance was not as large as expected.

—While adjusting an electric fan in his store on Park avenue yesterday, George W. Pope, in some way had his thumb drawn into the whirling blades and lacerated. One of the blades struck it on the end splitting the nail and flesh half way to the joint, but not injuring the bone. It will be some weeks before the member is healed.

VICTIM'S FUNERAL

Great Crowd of Mourners at Obsequies of Joseph Hadley, Who Died of Wounds.

BROTHERS AS PALL BEARERS

Linwood Hutchinson, Who was With Young Hadley at Time of Accident, Released From Jail, Attends Services.

The funeral services of Joseph Earl Hadley, the eighteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Hadley, of Stelton, whose death at Muhlenberg Hospital on Monday night resulted from a mysterious shooting on Sunday night, was held at the home of the parents at 10 o'clock this morning. There was an unusually large gathering of relatives and friends, the Hadley home not being large enough to accomodate all who wished to attend.

The nature of the boy's death aroused the sympathy of the entire neighborhood for miles about and attracted everyone in that section to the obsequies. Included among the mourners was Linwood Hutchinson, the fifteen-year-old adopted son of Ralston Dunbar, who was in Hadley's company when he received the fatal shot, he having secured his release from the county jail in New Brunswick, yesterday.

Rev. George H. Gardner, pastor of of the Baptist church at New Market, conducted the services, reading appropriate Scripture selections, offering prayer and making an address full of sympathy for the bereaved family and friends. He called attention in an impressive way to the sudden taking off of young Hadley, and urged everyone of the large assemblage to be in readiness for death.

There was a large and beautiful display of floral tributes from relatives and friends, the mass of flowers completely hiding the bier. It was an impressive token of respect and esteem.

The burial was in the cemetery at South Plainfield, and an unusual sight was the fact that six brothers of the dead boy served as pall bearers. They were Benjamin F., Edward D., Thomas Z., William L., George C. and John R. Hadley. Besides the parents and the above named brothers there also survives five sisters, Mrs. Lewis C. Weiss, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Evan Lewis, of Cleveland, O.; Mrs. A. J. Williams, of Baker City, Oregon; Miss Addie M. Hadley, of Cleveland, O., and Miss Iva B. Hadley, who lives at home. All the sisters except Mrs. A. J. Williams were present. She was unable to attend owing to the great distance she lives from home. Among the other relatives present were two cousins, George T. Robinson, of Johnstown, P., and Arthur Davis, of Pittsburg, Pa.

As stated in The Daily Press of yesterday, the Hadley family do not blame Linwood Hutchinson for the sad affair. They believe that it was an accident in which young Hadley was alone responsible. This fact was further emphasized yesterday when Benjamin F. Hadley, a brother of the dead boy furnished the bail bond for the release of Hutchinson from the county jail; also the fact that another brother was sent to New Brunswick by his mother with the request to use his influence to get the young prisoner out of jail.

While the case will be considered by the Grand Jury of Middlesex county when it convenes within the next two weeks, there is an impression that no action will be taken against the Hutchinson boy as it seems to be a generally accepted fact that the death of Hadley was purely an accident. This belief is further substantiated by the fact that the Hadleys do not want to press any charge against Hutchinson.

SECOND EXCURSION TO THE SHORE.

The annual Sunday-school excursion of the First, Grace, Monroe Avenue and the Dunellen M. E. churches to Asbury Park took place today. There were two sections of thirteen coaches each as they left the North Avenue Station and nearly all of the cars were well filled. It was the usual happy crowd which packed the station platforms this morning and all were congratulating themselves on the ideal weather conditions which augured well for a good time at the shore.

Firemen's Delegates.

At a meeting of the Plainfield Firemen's Relief Association last night the following were selected as delegates to the annual convention of the State Association to be held at Atlantic City the second week in September: Captain William Addis, Victor Lorton and E. E. Vail.

—Read Updike's advertisement. ***

MR. BROWN DEAD

Newspaperman Passes Away in Bermuda in His Seventy-Sixth Year.

LONG A RESIDENT HERE.

For Thirty-five Years Judson Brown Was Connected with the New York Herald and Since 1908 Had Been in Retirement.

Judson A. Brown, formerly of Plainfield, who was connected with the business department of the New York Herald as cashier and later as treasurer, for thirty-four years, died at St. George's Bermuda, early yesterday morning of heart disease at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. Brown had been suffering of heart trouble the last six months. He went to Bermuda more than two weeks ago with his niece, Miss Marie Richert, and seemed to be improving soon after his arrival. His son Carl S. Brown, a lawyer, received a letter from his father a few days ago. Mr. Brown had a vigorous constitution and rarely was ill during his long life.

His service for the Herald began in 1874, when he assumed the duties of cashier and continued in that capacity until the New York Herald company was formed in 1899, when he became its treasurer. He retired from active service for the Herald on a goodly pension in July, 1908.

Mr. Brown mrried Miss Emma Stedman, daughter of Mr. Buckley Stedman, of Cleveland, in 1858. They had two sons and two daughters, of whom one son, Carl S. Brown, and one daughter, Miss Grace T. Brown, survive. Mrs. Brown died in 1905. During the civil war Mr. Brown hd a brief service in one of the Ohio volunteer regiments.

A striking characteristic of Mr. Brown was his intense fondness for children. Sometimes on his vacations he went to Henderson Harbor, on Lake Ontario. He would invariably take with him two large boxes, one filled with oranges and the other with toys. Immediately after his arrival he would engage the finest rig in the place to take his around the country. Then he would distribute the oranges and toys among the children. He was so fond of oranges in his own boyhood that he decided to be an orange giver all of his life.

Before his retirement from active service for the Herald Mr. Brown hd his residence for many years on Grove street, corner of Lincoln place, in North Plainfield, but since then he lived at No. 198 South Seventh street, Newark. His body will arrive in New York from Bermuda on Monday and will be buried at Ashtabula.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF WILLIAM H. MANNING.

The funeral services of William H. Manning, who died on Sunday, were held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the late residence on East Third street. Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Manning was an attendant, officiated. There was a large attendance of friends and neighbors, including employes from the American Steam Laundry, where Mr. Manning was employed as an engineer for many years.

The burial was in Hillside cemetery, and the pall bearers were William Harper, James Walsh, George Staats, Charles Keller, Robert Burns and Arthur Campbell.

WATER SITUATION ALARMING.

Belmar, July 13.—The water situation at this place is so alarming that the council has been appealed to for relief. There is plenty of water in the artesian wells which furnish the supply but the strainers at the bottom of them are so small and get clogged so often that they do not allow for giving one-half of what should be a normal flow.

The council Tuesday night gave a contract for new strainers and it is expected that when these are installed further trouble will be obviated. A new well is being bored and this will probably be completed in a short time.

Salvation Army Meeting.

The local corps of the Salvation Army will hold two special meetings at Wayside Park, opposite the Dunellen car barns, tomorrow evening. Staff Captain George Anderson from the headquarters in New York, and one of the army's most successful officers, will be the speaker. A profitable time is assured as the staff captain never fails to interest and help his audience. On Sunday evening another service will be held at the Park. Rev. C. J. Greenwood, of the Westfield Baptist church, will be the speaker. Good music and singing will be features of both services and a cordial invitation is extended to all.

—Use Press Want Ads.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

THE GREAT JULY CLEARANCE SALE

BRING THE CROWDS TO THE "WHITE STORE"

Thursday and Friday you can make a purchase of $1.00 or more and present your checks at cashier's desk without a coupon and you will get your 50 Stamps in connection with those you get with your regular purchase.

Now is the Time and this the Opportunity to Fill Your Books Quickly.

This offer of 50 Stamps with the purchase of $1 or more is the most liberal offer we've ever presented in connection with the extraordinary low prices on all classes of summer merchandise

This is the Fifth anniversary of the installation of S. H. "Green Trading Stamps" in this store. During the past five years we have placed in the homes of our patrons thousands of dollars worth of ornaments, luxuries and utilities, without cost to them. We have done this as a means of advertising. We have thus shared our profits with patrons as a compliment for their trade and an inducement for them to pay us "Cash."

EMBROIDERIES.

35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c
10c embroideries for.....5c
20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for.....10c
25c nainsook, 36 inch wide. for 18c
20c white goods, checks and figures 10c
49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c
69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c
$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers.....89c
$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 75c

CORSETS.

$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c
$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c
$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49
50c Ladies' Gloves.....25c

WASH GOODS.

9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c
12½c percales for 9c
10c and 12c printed lawns..7c
25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for.....15c
50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c
15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c
$1.50 Rugs for 98c
$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.

Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF

$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50
$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c

$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for.....$2.98
$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for.....$7.50
$25.00 White Serge Suits for.....$15.00
$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50
Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.

$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.....$4.49
$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.....$2.98
50c Men's Fine Hose for.....25c
59c Men's Negligee Shirts for.....39c
25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for.....12½c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.

15c Misses' Hose.....10c
15c Boys' Hose.....10c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c
25c Huck Towels for....15c
12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c
25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c
59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c
12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.
69c Cotton Diaper.....49c
12½c Pillow Cases.....9c
22c Table Oilcloth for....15c
$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c
$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

We Close Saturdays at 12:30 Until After Labor Day

OUR REFRIGERATOR STORY

The famous White Mountain Refrigerators, with its cold dry air circulation and its pure white stone lined chamber is the cleanest, simplest and best refrigerator for the preservation of perishable foods. Built of solid oak, with rounding corners.

$34.50 to $52.25

GOOD REFRIGERATORS

With oak cases, enamel or galvanized iron lined provision chambers, well made and finished.

$10.50 to $32.50

BABY CARRIAGES

We are offering this week a line of Baby Carriages at cut prices. Wood bodies and imitation leather hoods.

$7.75 to $15.00

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)

217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOMERVILLE.

At the annual meeting of the Board of Health the following were elected: President, Dr. A. L. Stillwell; secretary, William R. Sutphen; inspector, George Totten. Inspector Totten reported contagious diseases for the year as follows: Scarlet fever, 3; typhoid fever, 3 deaths; 12 cases; diphtheria, 11; tuberculosis, 8 deaths, 10 cases.

Rev. Dr. William H. DeHart, who has been pastor of the Third Reformed church for twenty-three years, has asked to be released from active work, his resignation to take effect September 1. Dr. DeHart has not been in good health for several months.

John Schaub, of Raritan, whose son John Schaub, Jr., was rescued from drowning when he fell in the canal a few weeks ago, has given to Russell Coleman, who pulled him out of the water an engraved watch.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Somerset County Hospital netted $36 at their recent lawn fete held at the residence of Elmer Richards, on South Bridge street.

Mrs. Carlton P. Hoagland, of West Cliff street, and Master Stewart Hoagland, are guests of Mrs. Hoagland's sister, the Misses Stewart, in East Orange.

Miss Mary Griggs has returned from Silver Bay, and is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Griggs, on Division street.

Miss Bessie Hoffman, who has been visiting relatives on Loomis street, has returned to her home in Brooklyn.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis McConoughy, of East High street, are at Silver Bay, on Lake George.

David Kline has returned from a visit to his son, Philip Kline, at Denver, Col.

Helen M. Burnt has returned from East Orange, where she spent a week.

Garwood Messler, of West Main street, is visiting relatives in Yonkers.

Miss Addie Coddington, of North Grove street, is at Atlantic City.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A large crowd of Dunellenites went on the Methodist Sunday-school excursion this morning for Asbury Park and Ocean Grove. The train was made up of two sections, leaving this place shortly after 8 o'clock. Reports from the shore state that the weather there today has been ideal with a cool breeze blowing off the ocean. It is expected that the excursionists will return to the borough about 9:30 tonight. The local school will be accompanied in its trip by the schools of the First M. E., Grace M. E., Monroe Avenue M. E. churches, of Plainfield, and of the Wilson Memorial chapel, of Watchung.

The funeral services of Joseph Earl Hadley, the young man who was accidently shot Sunday night near New Market, were held this morning from the residence of his father, Benjamin Hadley, at New Market at 10 o'clock. Rev. G. H. Gardiner, pastor of the Baptist church of New Market, officiated. The brothers of the dead boy acted as pall bearers, interment being made at Stelton.

Tonight will be a memorial one in the history of the Washington Camp, No. 98, P. O. S. of A., for the local lodge will have with it tonight State President Reese. Delegates are expected from Somerville, Bound Brook, South Plainfield, Plainfield, New Brunswick, Metuchen and Raritan.

Installation of officers was held at the William G. Holton Council, No. 55, Jr. O. U. A. M., Tuesday night in the lodge rooms. Routine business was transacted and a general good time was enjoyed.

Captain and Mrs. Benjamin Cole, of Washington avenue, have been spending a few days at Ocean Grove.

Rev. Ernest Brown led the prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church last night.

Feet Tired— So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well, No Matter What Ails Them.

TIZ acts at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof.

It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad-smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too.

"For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of my friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used." A. F. Dreutzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Powders and other fot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—your feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, bunions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or it will be sent you direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 5.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.02, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.42, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLEE, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1910

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 2.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.30, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—8.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—8.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

W. H. BIRD, P. M.

Of Interest To Housekeepers

You will be interested to see what Values you get in the Fine, Fresh Vegetables and Fruits you purchase of us.

Prompt, Free Deliveries.

W. W. DUNN

THE PARK GROCER

Duer St. Lincoln Pl

NOTICE OF ORDER TO LIMIT CREDITORS.

Somerset County Surrogate's Court.

Estate of William H. Burridge, Deceased. Notice is hereby given, that on the twenty-third day of May, A. D. 1911, on the application of the undersigned, as Executrix of the Estate of William H. Burridge, deceased; an order was made by the Surrogate's Court, requiring the creditors of the said William H. Burridge, deceased, to bring in their debts, demands and claims against the said decedent, under oath or affirmation, and present the same to the subscriber within nine months from the date of said order; and in default thereof any such creditor shall be forever barred of his or her action therefor against the subscriber.

FANNY LUCY HOOLEY, Executrix.

Fee $14.80 5 25 9th Plainfield, N. J.

RISKING THEIR LIVES TO CHEAT THE OCEAN

Twenty-eight years a life guard is the record along the New Jersey coast of Elisha Tilton, of West Belmar, who is stationed at the Fourth avenue bathing group in Asbury Park. For nineteen years "Lige" was located at Ross' grounds in Ocean Grove, but for nine years he has been in Asbury Park. He has seen the coast built up from a "barren sand waste," as Founder Bradley frequently says, to a settlement of large hotels, business houses and magnificent cottages.

How many rescues Mr. Tilton has made he is not prepared to say, but his friends say they run into the hundreds. He is modest, withal, and it was only by persistent questioning that a reporter was able to glean anything about his record. "Lige" could have the captaincy of the life guards at the Fourth avenue group, but he prefers to be just a plain life saver, with no other rank or handle to his name.

There is no braver set of life guards along the coast than those at Asbury Park. They know no fear and take all kinds of risks in the discharge of their duties. How well they do their work is attested by the fact that in twenty-seven years there have been only three drownings in the surf this place. At only one of these casualties was a life guard on duty.

Naturally the life savers at the respective groups think their own grounds are the best, and they take pride in keeping them in order. Essex county is well represented at the Seventh avenue group at Asbury Park. The regular life guards there are William Hughes, of Easton, Pa., who is the captain, and who has been on the beach three years; Arthur Bruen, of Newark, who boasts of the fact that he learned to swim in the Morris canal; Wallace Maxfield, of Bloomfield, a brother of Theodore J. Maxfield, the horseman. During the week end another guard is on duty, and he is Milton Shoenthal, a son of Surrogate Shoenthal, who is spending the summer at 503 First avenue. They are all sturdy, well-built fellows, who are as brown as the proverbial berry.

The heaviest bathing at Asbury Park is done at Fourth avenue, where five guards are on duty. The captain there is Walter Githens, who has been saving lives professionally for eight years; Charles Biggane, of Jersey City, who is serving his first year on the Asbury Park beach but who for three years was on the Ocean Grove front; Clinton Martin, also of Jersey City; Tilton, who is the veteran of the lot, and "Jack" Smith, of Asbury Park.

Last week alone these guards pulled thirty-five bathers from the surf. Not all were in grave danger, but they had gone beyond the life lines and found the assistance of the guards necessary for their safety. It is estimated that last season alone nearly 500 persons were taken from the sea.

"Sometimes we find a bather is fooling us," said Githens to a reporter the other day. "Then we feel like walloping him. He evidently considers it smart to pretend to be drowning and then when we go to his rescue to give us the laugh. Often I have to restrain my feelings on fools, who are to be classed in the same division as the fellow who rocks the boat. There ought to be a law that would make such antics punishable by a fine or term in jail."

Down at the Casino bathing grounds at Asbury Park three life guards are on duty. They are Chas. Dunning, of Ocean Grove, who is rounding out two years on the Asbury beach; Frank Kelly, of Newark, who has been saving lives for twenty years, and Lewis Lyne, of Jersey City, who is a graduate of Buchnell College, and who is a member of the Sigma Chi fraternity.

Toilet Tissue Paper, 1,000 sheets to the roll; regular 5c value; sale, roll............3c (Limit 6 rolls).

More For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Ramonie Batiste, good selection of light or dark styles; regular 12½c; clearance sale, yard 9c

In Planning This July Clearance Sale Our Aim Was to Make It the Greatest Money-Saving Event of the Year

And that we've succeeded in our ambition and even exceeded the high mark we aimed at was amply demonstrated by the enthusiastic buying of the past few days.

Shoppers who came merely to compare prices were immediately convinced that this is the real bonafide money saving stock clearing event of the entire year. The goods are so fresh, so new, so perfect, so thoroughly in accord with present modes and fashions that many wondered why we should reduce the price so recklessly when the season is only half over.

ANOTHER LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES, ABOUT 100; VALUES UP TO $1.98; JULY SALE 98c

This is manufacturers clean up time; they cut up all surplus stocks of piece goods and make them up into the best selling styles for clearance sale; in this way they close out their stocks and the retailer procures good, desirable bargains to offer the public; this second lot of 100 dresses is different from the first lot; the styles are all good, the values run from $1.69 to $2.25; sizes 2 to 5 and 6 to 14. every size in the lot but not in every style; July sale.....98c

A SECOND LOT OF MISSES' DRESSES, VALUES UP TO $3.98; JULY SALE..$1.98

Did you see the first lot last week? They sold completely out by Saturday morning and those who waited for this second lot will be delighted with this assortment; the styles are pretty, materials that give satisfaction; about 8 styles in all; some in several colors, giving you about 65 dresses to choose from; values are up to $3.98 easily; July sale........$1.98

(Sizes 15, 16 and 18 for misses and small women).

BOYS' WASH SUITS—CLEAN UP OF A LEADING MAKE; VALUES UP TO $2.98 —JULY SALE $1.19

This is the best bargain in good wash suits we have even seen; we closed out from a well known manufacturer his entire sample line, consisting of about 350 boys' colored wash suits, and divided them in our two stores; the 150 for this store are in and assorted in piles by sizes to make choosing easy; not one suit in the lot is worth les than $1.75 and from that up to $2.98. So we certainly feel justified in saying that it's the best bargain we have ever seen in boys' wash suits; ages 2 to 7; July sale $1.19

GOOD NEWS FOR MEN. PLAIN AND FANCY SOISETTE SHIRTS, $1.25 QUALITY; JULY SALE 89c

About 10 dozen men's soisette shirts in plain and stripes. We closed out one-fourth off, and place on sale in the same way; the make is the well known Wellington Brand, with double cuffs; soisette is the coolest summer shirt, and deserves its popularity; sizes 14 to 17; $1.25 quality; July sale 89c.

CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. and has been made under his personal supervision since its infancy. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhœa and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of

Chas. H. Fletcher.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY.

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..	2	4	4			15
Brooklyn	1	..	0	2	5			8
Boston	7	..	6	..	12			25
Philadelphia	2	..	4	12	4			22
Chicago	2	..	3	6	3			14
Cincinnati	11	..	2	6	6			25
Pittsburg	3	..	2	13	3			21
St. Louis	6	..	2	..	19			27
AMERICAN
New York	2	5	5	8	12			32
Philadelphia	9	0	..	8	0			17
Boston	5	9	8	6	4			22
Washington	5	7	3	1	3			19
St. Louis	7	3	5	3	2			20
Cleveland	4	1	..	2	4			11
Chicago	12	2	2	8	8			32
Detroit	7	6	4	14	9			40

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Chicago	45	29	.608
New York	46	31	.597
Philadelphia	46	31	.597
Pittsburg	43	32	.573
St. Louis	43	32	.573
Cincinnati	32	42	.432
Brooklyn	28	47	.373
Boston	18	57	.240

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 4; Pittsburg, 3.
Brooklyn, 5; Chicago, 3.
St. Louis, 13; Boston, 6.
St. Louis, 6; Boston, 6 (10 in'gs).
Cincinnati, 6; Philadelphia, 4.

Games Today.

Pittsburg at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	53	24	.688
Philadelphia	49	27	.645
New York	41	35	.539
Chicago	40	35	.533
Boston	40	38	.513
Cleveland	38	42	.475
Washington	37	51	.420
St. Louis	20	56	.264

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 12; St. Louis, 2.
Detroit, 9; Philadelphia, 0.
Chicago, 6; Boston, 3 (1st game).
Chicago, 2; Boston, 1 (2nd game)
Cleveland, 4; Washington, 3.

Games Today.

New York at St. Louis.
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	52	26	.667
Baltimore	50	29	.633
Toronto	44	35	.557
Montreal	34	37	.479
Jersey City	33	39	.458
Buffalo	32	39	.451
Newark	28	43	.394
Providence	27	52	.342

Yesterday's Results.

Providence, 4; Newark, 3.
Baltimore, 4; Jersey City, 0.
Rochester, 8; Buffalo, 3.
Toronto, 5; Montreal, 2 (1st game).
Montreal, 7; Toronto, 5 (second game).

Games Today.

Newark at Baltimore.
Buffalo at Rochester.
Montreal at Toronto.

Hans Wagner and Dots Miller made successive home runs off Rube Marquard in the sixth inning of the game between the Giants and the Pirates at the Polo Grounds yesterday. Wagner drove Clarke in ahead of him, while Miller only counted himself. These three runs were all that the Pittsburg team got.

Ty Cobb, in the game between the Detroits and the Athletics yesterday, after being passed in the first innings, stole second, third and home on the next three balls pitched.

NEW CUPS FOR BABIES.

Asbury Park, July 13.—Several cups have been added recently to the list of prizes for the twenty-first annual baby parade, August 31. The prizes are on exhibition in the window of the Carnival Commission and Publicity Bureau

In honor of Governor Wilson, who will view the parade, the badges of the reception committee will be of orange and black ribbon, the Princeton colors. This idea was conceived my Colonel John W. Aymar, president of the Carnival Commission.

The entry list thus far is not very heavy, but it is believed that by the end of the week mothers in large numbers will begin registering their children. If enthusiasm counts for anything, the indications are that the baby parade of 1911 will be one of the most magnificent spectacles ever witnessed in this part of the country.

S. S. Swackhamer will be the special speaker at the services to be held at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home tonight. Tomorrow night the services will be under the direction of workers of the Temple Baptist church.

HITS METHODS OF UNION MEN

Asbury Park, July 13.—How to treat labor unions and their good and bad features were pointed out yesterday morning in an address before the New Jersey State Association of Master Painters and Decorators by the secretary, Charles Greenhalgh, of Paterson. Mr. Greenhalgh's paper was entitled "Inconsistencies of Labor Unions and the Need of a Uniform Agreement." Mr. Greenhalgh said in part:

"Let unions make a demand for an increase of wages," said Mr. Greenhalgh, "and there is a flocking to the meetings of the local associations; in fact, I believe that a good many local associations have become extinct for the lack of labor troubles. On the other hand, had it not been for labor unions many of our local associations would never have sprung into existence.

"To the master painter the labor question is one of the greatest issues of our business relations and must be dealt with.

"My object in presenting these thoughts is not to stir up trouble. To rail at the labor unions and show an obstinate front; to decline even to consider the question is foolishness. Combinations, whether in the form of labor organizations, business enterprises or master painters' organizations, have come to stay, and we as employers must consider the question.

"If organization is good for the journeyman it must be good for the employer. It behooves us to consider as a body of employers that important question of labor. I shall make no attempt to coerce anybody, but to point out some of the glaring inconsistencies of the labor organization of our own trade.

"One of the greatest inconsistencies of labor organizations is the retaining within their ranks of men who take work by lump or contract, and by this means directly break one of, if not the greatest, object that they are banded together to obtain —the standard wage.

"How can a workman be working for a standard wage who takes his work contract or sub-contract? Then, again, he is not fair to his fellow union man in that it gives him the opportunity to work for less than the standard wage and thereby work injury to union men and their employers.

"Another glaring inconsistency of the painters' labor organization is the refusal to grade men, demanding that all men be paid alike regardless of his ability. There is not an employer here who does not know that you can, at least in a shop employing twelve men, divide them into at least three grades. Yet the 'fair' policy of the painters' union demand that all men shall receive the same rate per hour.

"The demand of unions to compel us to employ none but members of their organization and their refusal to accede to our request that they work for none but members of the Master Painters' organization are other glaring inconsistencies.

Somerset Council, No. 104, Jr. O. U. A. M., will meet tomorrow evening and consider some special business.

NOT OPEN EVENINGS DURING SUMMER.

STRAUS'S

RELIABLE MERCHANDISE AT LOWEST PRICES

685-687 BROAD ST., 21 W. PARK ST. NEWARK, N.J.

CLEARANCE SALE

Sale of Linen, Reps, Etc.

Long Coats at 98c, 1.50, 1.98, 4.98, 9.98

Choose Any of Our Better Colored Dresses at - - - 4.98

FORMER PRICES $5.98, $6.98, $7.98.

ALL SIZES FOR WOMEN AND MISSES.

This is not a special purchase or an odd lot—just choose from our regular stock any colored dress which has been selling at $5.98 and over, and it is yours at $4.98. In the assortment you will find dresses of PURE LINEN, GINGHAMS, LAWNS.

Special—White Lingerie and White Linens, which have been selling at $5.98 and $6.98, have also been put in the lot.

DRESS GOODS AND SILKS.

DERBY SUITING—45 inches wide, mannish effects, in checks and stripes; just the goods for mountain or seashore wear; regular value 49c; very special at 29c

SILK BARGAIN—18-inch washable summer silks in neat checks and stripes, regular 50c value; very special at 35c

STAMPED CORSET COVERS—Fine quality nainsook, neat eyele and solid embroidery designs; regular 18c and 25c; special, ea..15c

PEARL BUTTONS—16 to 24 line; regular 5c special, a doz. 3½c

SANITOL TOOTH PASTE—reg. 19c, special, pkg........12½c

The David Straus Co.

683-687 Broad St. 21 W. Park St.

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 281

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug store, 811 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. E. Ruggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

Store closes Fridays at 6 p. m. Store closes Saturdays at 1 p. m. Others days at 5:30 p. m.

Telephone 5500—Market—Five Five Hundred.

L. S. Plaut & Co.

"BEE HIVE." New Jersey's Shopping Centre NEWARK

Great July Sale of Boys' and Young Men's Clothing

When you buy L. S. Plaut & Co. garments under price bear in mind these facts—you buy garments that at the original price represent more intrinsic worth than any other ready-for-service garments. They embody to a higher degree fineness of tailoring, correctness of style and exclusiveness of fine fabric, than is to be found in the majority of ready-for-service cloths in town.

BOYS' REGULAR $3.00 AND $4.00 CLOTH SUITS.

If your boy has enough clothes for the present don't hesitate, but buy them for the early fall wear. Among the greatest values in all wool high grade clothing that we have ever offered. Russian suits, blouse suits and double breasted suits; in ages 3 to 16 years; fabrics include all wool cheviots and cassimeres; neat shades of grays, tans and browns and mixtures. Regular $3.00 and $4.00 suits, July sale special at $2.00

BOYS REGULAR $4.98 NOBBY SUITS.

Our Power of Endurance Suits—The material are all wool cassimeres and cheviots; neat grays and tan mixtures; plain double breasted and plaited Norfolk models; extremely well tailored and perfect fitting; sizes 7 to 18 years. Regular $4.98 suits; July sale, special at $3.29

OUR REG. $7.00, 8.00 AND $10 BOYS' CUSTOM FITTING SUITS.

Knickerbocker suits, plain double-breasted and Norfolk models; exclusive fine colorings; exceptional fabrics, worsteds and cassimeres; all coats mohair lined; knickers cut extremely full; peg fashion; sizes to 18 years; July sale special $4.98

REG. $3, $4 & $5 GRADES BOYS' LIGHT WEIGHT REEFERS.

Early fall and spring weight; fine for little fellows; to be worn over wash suits; broken lines; not al sizes of each style, but all sizes in the ot; 3 to 10 years; grays and tans, mixtures, black and white checks and blue serge; July sale special....................$2.50

Young Men's Suits Reduced

Our entire line of young men's suits, including blue serges and fancy mixtures, strictly young men's models that are up to the minute in fashion, two and three piece suits; fabrics are all wool cassimeres, worsteds and cheviots; all coats mohair lined, perfect fitting in every detail and the product of highest class young men's clothing manufacturers, including Sam Peck and Class A makes; sizes 32 to 38.

Former Prices $12.75, $15.00 and $16.50; reduced to $9.95.
Former Prices $18.00 and $20.00; special at $13.50.

Mail Orders Quickly and Carefully Filled.
Printed Lists of Sale Items in Detail Sent Upon Request.

711 TO 721 BROAD ST.; NEWARK.

All Plainfield-Elizabeth Trolley Cars pass our door. Wagon delivery to Plainfield and vicinity daily. No Branch Stores.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50

$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75

119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 13 In American History.

1785—Stephen Hopkins, "signer" for Rhode Island, died in Providence; born 1707.

1890—John Charles Fremont, explorer, soldier and presidential candidate in 1856, died; born 1813.

1909—Louis Loeb, noted artist and illustrator, died at Canterbury, N. H.; born 1866.

1910—Daniel Folger Bigelow, noted artist, died; born 1823.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.)
Sun sets 7:27, rises 4:37; moon rises 9:26 p. m.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 13, 1911.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT IS SCORED IN SENATE.

Washington, July 13.—Ridicule for the initiative, referendum and recall was voiced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Sutherland, Republican, Utah.

"Within the last few years," he said, "the United States has become the field of operation for an amiable band of insurgent soothsayers indulging in cabalistic utterances respecting the initiative, referendum and recall and sundry other ingenious devices for realizing the millenium by the simple method of voting it out of its present state of incumbation.

"The so-called popular government propaganda has for its ostensible object the broadening and strengthening of power in the hands of the people but its tendency is to emasculate and ultimately destroy representative government.

"Legislatures are to be swallowed up in the initiative and referendum; courts obliterated by the recall; political parties juggled out of existence by the direct primary and upon their ruins will rise the recently organized progressive league—which by the way just now seems to be progressing after the manner of a woman getting off a car, with its back to the front."

Sutherland declared that "spineless executive and legislative officials" would result from the initiative, referendum and recall. He made a particularly bitter denunciation of the recall of the judiciary.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF DUKE OF GLOUCESTER.

Gloucester City, July 13.—The funeral of William J. Thompson, who died in Belfast, Ireland, will be held tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock from the residence, Burlington and Monmouth streets. Solemn high mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's Catholic church at 10 o'clock. The body arrived in New York yesterday on the steamship Oceanic and was met by the one-time Democratic leaders two sons, John and Leon A. Thompson, and Thomas J. Foley.

City Council, county and local Democratic organizations, State Democratic leaders and members of Camden Lodge No. 293, B. P. O. E.; Camden Aerie, F. O. E.; Society of Friendly Sons of St. Patrick and Fellowship Club will attend the services.

The death of Mr. Thompson leaves the Democratic leadership in the city and county vacant. Among those mentioned to succeed him are Dr. John J. Haley, Councilman Edward J. O'Hara, John F. Zimmer, Charles A. McElhone and John M. Klostermann. In the county those mentioned for leadership are William C. French, a lawyer; former Judge Howard Carrow, County Chairman William Davis, William Boyle, Frank McAdams and Gottlieb C. Mick.

Headquarters for Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

Warm Weather Needs

Men's Underwear

Cool comfortable summer underwear in all the popular makes. Balbriggans at 25c and 50c. B. V. D. at 50c. Porosknit at 50c.

Scrivens at 75c. A special lot of athletic shirts and knee drawers in cros bar nainsook, at 29c and 39c a garment.

Parasols

Every style, shape and color combination is represented in the splendid showing. Plain Pongee in black, white and colors. Tan color Pongee, with hemstitched borders in checks, plain colors and Persian effects, blue and white and black and white styles in checks, plaids, polka dots and rings. Some pretty striped taffeta styles, with fancy Persian borders. The prices range from .....98c to $5.00

Children's Parasols—In plain color taffeta, plain tan pongee with colored border; from. ..39c up to $1.25

Toilet Requisites

In this department you'll find everything of the best and the prices are most reasonable. Toilet Soaps, Perfumes, Toilet Water, Tooth Paste. Tooth Powder, Face Powder, Cold Cream, Talcum Powder and Peroxide. The following well known makers are represented: Colgate's, Mennen's, Vantine's, Roger & Gallet, Hudnut's, Packer's, Babcock's, Woodbury, Lyons, Allen's, Dagget & Ramsdell, Jurgens, Pears, etc., etc.

Fine Wash Fabrics in the July Sale

AT 8½c A YARD

fine printed lawns, in dots, figures, stripes and floral effects; worth 12½c.

AT 15c A YARD

"Flaxon," the queen of wash fabrics, very fine and sheer, a splendid variety of prety designs; regular 20c.

AT 19c A YARD

Imported Irish dimities, handsome goods that sold regularly for 29c.

AT 15c A YARD

40-inch fine figured lawns with border, and 32-inch extra quality silk finished mull with border; were 29c a yard.

AT 10½c A YARD

Fine quality batiste in an endless variety of web designs and printed cross bar dimities; worth 19c.

AT 15c A YARD.

Foulards in all the wanted colors, in dots and figures; some with border; 27 inches wide; were 19c a yard.

AT 8½c A YARD

Fine dress ginghams in checks, plaids and stripes; equal to what most stores charge 12½c for.

Women's Underwear

Fine derby ribbed vests in cotton, lisle and silk; plain and fancy trimmed at prices ranging from ...10c to $1.00

Ribbed Pants, Umbrella and tight knee styles at .....25c and 50c

Union Suits with umbrella and tight knee pants.....50c, 75c, $1.00

Handsome White Dresses

A lot of manufacturers' samples of beautiful white dresses; made of very fine quality batiste; high and low necks, kimono sleeves, beautifully trimmed with lace and embroidery; many in the lot worth up to $12.50; sale price $2.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

The Wayne Cedared Papered Wardrobes

"Sold exclusively in this city by us."

Are better than a cedar chest. They keep your clothes free from moths, dust and wrinkles. The "Wayne Wardrobe" is made of tough, durable paper, impregnated with the delicate aromatic odor of pure red cedar, an odor that is repugnant to the moth family. Yet that odor does not cling to the clothes, as is the case with tar or moth balls, and not only for storing clothes but used in the bedroom every day of the week, every week of the month and every month of the year.

"Wayne Wardrobes" are made in ten sizes and range in price from 50c to $1.50.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S
CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

YOUR HOME

can be built or bought on money borrowed from Home Building and Loan Association.

Many people own their property who otherwise could never have had it.

Interest at favorable rates, with principal easily repaid in small monthly payments.

Apply to Home Building and Loan Association or Arthur E. Crone, Secretary.

tu-th

SAYS HE'S CHARLIE ROSS.

Farm Hand Sent to Asylum Has Right Marks.

Bangor, Me., July 13.—In the Eastern Maine Hospital here is "Charlie Ross," who has just been committed by the town authorities of Milo. The man was working as a farm hand in Sebec, when he became violent, flourished a revolver, it is said, and was generally considered dangerous.

The man is apparently a monomaniac on the subject of the long missing Charlie Ross, whom he claims to be. He shows a strawberry mark on his chest, a wart under his ear and a peculiar formation of one of his finger nails, which he claims ought to prove his identity. His pockets were full of notes and clippings about the kidnapping of Charlie Ross and many written notes about the doings of the "Black Hand," which he says spirited him away in 1874.

TORPEDO WOUNDS BOYS.

Drop Piece of Stone on It Then Need Doctor.

Bernard Clossey, Russell Crane and Leo Moore, each 13 years old, of 47 Washburn street, Jersey City, were burned about their legs and hands yesterday when a railroad torpedo they found and were playing with, at Washburn street and Baldwin avenue, exploded. The torpedo is the kind used on railroads to signal the passing trains. The boys were playing with it and dropped a heavy piece of stone on it to see the effect. It exploded with a loud report that was followed by the Clossey, Crane and Moore boys hopping about and crying with pain.

Dr. E. J. G. Valentine was passing in his automobile when the accident occurred. He helped the boys to their home and dressed their wounds, which are not serious.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

King George left Dublin for Holyhead after a visit of five days to the Irish capital.

Emma Eames, prima donna, and Emilio de Gogorza, baritone, were married in Paris.

John W. Gates' condition improved slightly; five physicians in Paris were in attendance upon him.

Safe breakers escaped with diamonds valued at $30,000 taken from a New York East Side shop.

It was estimated that 300 lives were lost in the Northern Ontario forest fires which started on Tuesday.

It was officially stated in Caracus that a thorough search had failed to reveal the landing of Castro or any of his supporters.

A young Naval officer about to be court martialed disappeared from his ship, leaving a note saying he intended to drown himself.

United Wireless received the attention of Justice Cohalan, who rectified by a nunc pro tunc entry technical errors in the New York receivership.

Troubles in Hayti were reported more serious and the American consul at Cape Haytien feared he might have to ask for the protection of an American warship.

Borough President McAneny replied to statements made by General Bingham on the occasion of the latter's resignation as chief engineer of the Bureau of Highways.

Borough President McAneny figured that the Interborough's latest Subway offer would mean a guarantee to the company of 9 per cent. on its total investment, and opposed it.

Secretary Fisher, of the Interior Department, testified before the House committee investigating the Controller Bay affair; the committee refused to call Miss Abbott at present.

There were nearly two score deaths from heat in the metropolitan district, the humidity making the lower temperature oppressive, but gradual relief was predicted by the Weather Bureau.

Captain Farbroni continued his expose of the methods of the Camorra; he was denounced by one prisoner, whose mouth another prisoner attempted to stop with his hand; this resulted in blows.

France asked Spain to explain the reasons for the arrest of two Frenchmen in Morocco; the French press suspended its attacks on Germany in the Morocco dispute and showed itself disposed to find fault with Spain's role in the matter.

It was estimated that the shortage of James Pettit, who was drowned in Chicago on Saturday, would reach $1,200,000; it was stated that he used the credit of F. H. Peavy & Co., to speculate in wheat and oats and lost by nearly all of his recent deals.

Judge Bordwell at Los Angeles, denied motions to quash the indictments against John J. and James B. McNamara, charged with nineteen murders in connection with the destruction of the plant of "The Los Angeles Times;" both entered pleas of not guilty.

Congress.—Senate: The Bailey free list amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill was defeated, and Mr. Bailey offered the wool tariff revision bill as an amendment to be considered tomorrow. House: A heavy tax on the dowries of American brides in international marriage was suggested by Mr. Kahn, of California.

BUY A LISK

THE WASH BOILER THAT IS GUARANTEED FOREVER.

Against rust.

Think of it—absolutely no chance of your finest clothes getting rust stained from the boiler.

There is not a better wash boiler made than the LISK and we doubt if you could buy one as good at any price.

The heavy copper bottom is joined to the sides by extra strong seams.

OUR GUARANTEE.

We will replace at once and without a question any Lisk Wash Boiler we sell which ever shows signs of a rust spot.

ALUMINUM—The Ideal Kitchen Ware

There is no more sanitary and cleanly ware for cooking than Aluminum. And—

It's very low price puts it within the reach of all.

Come in and see the countless articles of Aluminum Ware we have in stock.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at
Putnam & De Graw's

PUBLICITY BUREAU UP TO STORE AND HOTEL MEN.

Asbury Park, July 13.—Unless the business men and hotel keepers subscribe liberally toward maintaining the publicity bureau, it seems likely that important institution will bediscontinued next year. This was the sense of the City Council Monday night. It was contended that the expenses of the bureau should not be included in the tax budget, that in other resorts these departments of information were maintained principally by hotelkeepers, and that the same rule should apply here.

The argument was precipated by a request from Publicity Director Denegar that the Council allow him $300 to pay the expenses of Pryor's Band, which will accompany the local lodge of Elks to Atlantic City Thursday. The request was refused although Mr. Denegar pointed out the advertising that Asbury Park would receive if the request was granted.

Proposals For Bridge

Sealed proposals will be received by the Joint Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, and the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Somerset, N. J., at 2:30 p. m., on Thursday, July 27, 1911, at the Park Club House, Washington avenue, North Plainfield, New Jersey, for the following described work.

Re-inforced Concrete Arch Bridge, over Green Brook at Washington avenue, between City of Plainfield and Borough of North Plainfield, N. J.

Plans and specifications for the work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer of Somerset county at Somerville, N. J., and at the office of the County Engineer of Union County, at Elizabeth, N. J.

The right is reserved by the Joint Committee to reject any or all bids, as may be deemed best for the interests of Union and Somerset Counties.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for the sum of $500, made payable to the County Collectors of Union and Somerset County, as stated in the specifications.

JOSHUA DOUGHTY, Jr.,
County Engineer, Somerset County.
JACOB L. BAUER,
County Engineer, Union County.
7 13 12

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.

OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.

Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

John S. Lewis

Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given

Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

Announcement!
ALBERTO BUCCINI
347 Fifth Ave., New York City

Respectfully announces that he is now ready to offer to the Plainfield public his new artistic ideas and the execution of work for the interior decorations of residences. He has just completed the decorations of Mr. R. A. Meeker's residence, at Belvidere avenue, Plainfield, to the full satisfaction of the owner. Mr. Buccini had also decorated many high class residences in New York City and New Jersey and is ready to submit references and credentials on request. Any resident contemplating to make his home more beautiful will do well to communicate or call at Buccini's Studios to inspect the kind of work that he produces. He would appreciate the privilege of estimating on any work that may be desired.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order

Hoagland's Express

to call for your BAGGAGE

Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

EXCURSIONS.

ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
First Presbyterian, Congregational and Park Avenue Baptist Sunday Schools to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove
THURSDAY, JULY 20

Tickets—adults, $1.25; children, 90c. Train leaves Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; Plainfield, 8:15. Return, leave Asbury Park 6:30. 7 13 6

Saturday HALF HOLIDAY EXCURSION TO
ASBURY PARK And OCEAN GROVE
July 15th Round Trip $1.25 Children Half Fare
VIA
NEW JERSEY CENTRAL
Special Train leaves
PLAINFIELD 1.04 P. M.
Returning leaves Asbury Park 11:00 P. M.
7 12 3

POPULAR EXCURSION TO ATLANTIC CITY
VIA
New Jersey Central
WEDNESDAY, JULY 19
ROUND TRIP $2.50 Children $1.25

Train leaves Plainfield 7:46 a. m.
7 13 3 th-s-m

EDUCATIONAL.

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 28, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprieto
Woodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 34

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL

AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c

CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM

DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?

T. S. Armstrong

THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

Wagner & Moorhouse, The City Market, 125 North Ave.
E. M. Clevely.....157 North Ave.
Timbo & Co.....216 Watchung Ave.
W. C. Burns.....312 Watchung Ave.
Mrs. Moledesky.....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson.....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co.....R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr.....411 Park Ave.
M. A. Laing.....149 W. Front St.
A. D. Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
K. Betti.....111 Park Ave.
Dibble & Stahl.....113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....331 Watchung Ave.
E. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
S. Mottley..Cor. Pl. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

Dunellen.....R. Peters
New Market.....Corlell
Bound Brook.....Union News Co.
Somerville.....Jacob Gemert
Westfield....C. F. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Roselle.....L. Glasser
North Plains.....Frank Anson
South Plainfield.....Hamilton
Fanwood.....Frank Anson
Netherwood..... W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The young people of St. Mary's church Stony Hill, held a picnic and dance last night on the grounds near the church. The affair was well attended and was both a social as well as financial success.

Mrs. Franklin K. Mathiews' class of the Baptist Sunday-school enjoyed a day's outing yesterday picnicing in Washington valley near the Fullerton farm.

The Misses Helen and Margaret Henderson have returned from a weeks' stay, enjoying the cooling breezes at Sea Bright.

Rev. and Mrs. C. B. Livingston are spending several weeks with Mrs. Livingston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abram Wade.

Thomas J. Nicholl left Saturday for Europe. He will spend several weeks in England.

ELKS' BIG PARADE

(Continued from page 1.)

cumbent; S. V. Perrott, of Indianapolis, and C. H. Ward, of Pasadena, Cal. After the first ballot, yesterday morning, Perrott and Ward withdrew leaving the contest between Applegate and McNulty. Applegate won out with 510 votes to McNulty's 360.

The matter of the Elks home was taken up at the morning session. The lodge voted to build a new home at a cost of $250,000, rather than to repair the present one at Bedford City. This action as in line with the recommendation of the committee. The lodge gave the board of trustees binding instructions to build the home at Bedford City, thus eliminating the proposition to locate it at Albuquerque, N. M. The home will be built by an assessment of 50 cents on each of the 400,000 members of the order.

The grand lodge authorized the appointment of a commission, which will have charge of building the home. It was given full power to act, and will proceed with the preparation of plans at once. The commission is to consist of August Herrmann, of Cincinnati, retiring grand exalted ruler; Colonel John P. Sullivan, incoming grand exalted ruler; the grand trustees, C. L. Applegate, of Salt Lake City; Alfred T. Holley, of Hackensack, N. J.; Thomas B. Mills, of Superior, Wis.; Perry A. Clay, of Denver, Col.; and Charles A. Schmidt, of Wheeling, W. Va. In addition there are to be three members named by Colonel Sullivan.

The competitive drill among various Elk teams, which was to have taken place at the inlet ball park this morning for a prize of $500, was won by the Newport, R. I., team without competition. No other teams appeared, but the work of the Newport team was so fine that it would have taken a mighty good team to beat it, experts say.

An Afternoon at the Shore.

A fine opportunity to spend the half holiday at Asbury Park and Ocean Grove is afforded by the special excursion to those famous resorts on Saturday, July 15, via New Jersey Central. Round trip costs only $1.25, children half fare. Special train leaves Plainfield 1:04 p. m. Returning leaves Asbury Park at 11:00 p. m. 7 11 3

Skeeters Cause Trouble.

Caldwell, July 13.—An utomobile carryign a party of four women and two men from Ringwood, near Greenwood Lake, was stuck in the mud Tuesday night near the Big Piece Meadows in Caldwell township. Mosuitoes compelled them to adondon the machine. It was hauled out of the mud yesterday by a yoke of oxen. The lamps, cushions and other fixtures had been stolen in the night.

—Use Press want ads.

BLOCKS ROAD TO ROB AUTOIST.

Placing in the road a barricade of boxes and logs, a masked negro held up and robbed an automobile in a lonely part of Cononial avenue, Union, Tuesday night. Charles Lever, of 131 Murray street, Elizabeth, was the victim of the hold-up. Constable Michael Murphy and Charles Van Houten searched the countryside until 2 o'clock in an unsuccessful attempt to find the robber.

According to Lever, he noticed the obstructions in the road. As he brought his machine to a stop the negro sprang out from the side of the road and covered him with a revolver. He compelled Lever with threats of death to give up his money, about seven dollars and a diamond ring.

After the fellow had satisfied himself that he had all of Lever's valuables, he told Lever to go on threatening to kill him if he made any outcry or sent any policemen after him. Lever made all speed to police headquarters in Elizabeth, where he reported the robbery. The Elizabeth police turned the case over to Constable Van Houten, of Union.

Lever told the police that though the negro's face was covered he would recognize the highwayman if he heard his voice.

The only clue the constable got was to ascertain that the negro had been seen sitting by the side of the road at 10 o'clock, an hour before the hold-up. The negro took some strawberry crates from a nearby field to block up the road.

He selected a favorable spot for his crime for there are no houses or lights near and, though the road is well traveled by autos during the early evening it is comparatively deserted at a later hour.

ICE RIOTS IN PITTSBURG.

Police Add to Suffering by Closing Public Parks.

Pittsburg, July 13.—In the face of the ice famine and the most terrific heat wave in twenty-five years, the poor of this city are forbidden the use of the parks for sleeping purposes. The police have made nightly raids in the smaller breathing spots throughout the city, refusing to digress from the old standing rule unless it is officially altered.

Rioting has been imminent on a number of occasions but scores have been bundled into patrol wagons and taken to station houses. One magistrate brought down upon himself bitter public criticism by fining a number of men, who because theye were unemployed had been arrested for seeking relief in one of the parks beyond the tenement section of the city.

Ice peddlers continue to fleece the poor to the point where it is impossible to buy ice, the supply of which becomes more scant every twenty-four hours. As high as $25 a ton has been offered the big ice companies here for quantities of from ten to twenty-five tons, but it cannot be supplied. Rains have brought relief and Pittsburg today experienced cooler weather for the first time since July 1 when the heat wave began.

ELIZABETH PLANT RE-OPENS; MEN RETURN.

Elizabeth, July 13.—The Ball & Wood Company, which recently closed down its plant because of financial difficulties, re-opened Monday morning by permission of the receiver, J. Kearney Rice, of New Brunswick, who has been appointed to look after the affairs of the concern until a final adjustment of their trouble is reached. Some two-thirds of the employes were put to work, and it is understood that the balance of the men will come back as fast as they can be reached. It is not known just how long the present activity will continue.

$1.50 Mauch Chunk Excursion.

Next Sunday, July 16, via New Jersey Central. Leave Plainfield 9:18 a. m. 7 13 2th-s

PLAINFIELD GIRLS HAD A GREAT TIME

Although the temperature at Lake George was the highest during the past week that it has been there for forty years, the Plainfield Y. W. C. A. girls, who attended the convention of the association at Silver Bay reported this morning that they had had the "time of their lives." The last member of the local delegation to return, Miss Amy Tapping, secretary of the local association, got home this morning, the others having arrived home two days ago.

On account of the heat at Silver Bay nearly all of the services were held out of doors, either on the steamboat pier or in the cool shade of the trees on the hill. The Plainfield delegation entered in all the activities of the gathering, especially in the tennis tournament. Nearly all of the local young women were enrolled in the preliminary round and Miss Margaret Hawkins was the runner up in the finals, being defeated by one of the champion players of the Philadelphia Cricket Club.

The Plainfield association "stunt," that of a red cross society, was received with great applause by the audience. The local representatives were gowned as nurses and applied first aid to the injured to one of their number, who acted the part of a disabled victim of a trolley wreck. All of the "stunts" were performed in the evenings on account of the heat, the affair lasting for two hours.

A feature of the Plainfield delegation's stay at the Lake was a trip to Paradise Bay in company with the delegations from Newark and Providence, R. I. The local girls roomed in the hotel, choosing this place rather than the cottage, which was considerably warmer than the large building.

Several prominent members of the association attended the convention, among them being Miss Stephenson, corresponding secretary for the Y. W. C. A. international committee, Mrs. Tottingham, chairman of the international committee, and Miss Ethel Hunter, national secretary for India, all of whom are residents of England. The principal speaker at the conference was Rev. Henry Emerson Fosdick, of Montclair, who delivered two appropriate speeches.

The Plainfield delegation was made up of the Misses, Margaret McCutcheon, Amy Tapping, Edith Hanaford, officers of the loca l association and the following members: the Misses Alice Archer, Laura Dent, Mertie Fedderman, Clara Hallard, Margaret Hawkins, Mildren McAuliffe and Carrie Quipp.

WE ARRANGE LOANS

to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.

HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Telephone 820-J.

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Treatment by appointment only.
'Phone, Plainfield 150

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME

is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.

You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.

Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

HUDSON RIVER MILITARY ACADEMY
SUMMER CAMP FOR BOYS
AT PIERMONT-ON-HUDSON
Opens July 6th.
Fishing, boating, bathing and horseback-riding. Swimming taught to all. Instruction in academic subjects if desired. Boys are at all times under the careful supervision of competent directors.
Plainfield representative,
JOHN B. COTTRELL,
Tel. 1570-w 315 West Sixth St.
6 13 tf tu th s

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank all the friends and neighbors who so kindly offered their help and sympathy in my late bereavement.

MRS. WM. MANNING.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 834-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 23d St. Tel. 3004-Gramercy.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1220.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 215.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

DIED.

SPRAGUE—On Tuesday, July 11, 1911, Phebe M., wife of the late William E. Sprague, and mother of Mrs. F. W. Butler, aged 81 years.

Services at her late residence, Sprague avenue, on Friday, July 14, at 3 p. m. 7 12 2

RANSOM—On Tuesday, July 11, 1911, Elizabeth, wife of the late William K. Ransom, in her 74th year.

Services at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Correja, 937 West Seventh street, on Friday, July 14, at 4 p. m. 7 12 2

COX—July 11, 1911, at 531 Madison avenue, New York, of meningitis, James Sitgreaves, aged 7 years, eldest son of Julia Bulkley and Edward V. Cox.

Funeral private. 7 12 2

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

Classified Advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Girl for general housework. Apply Woodland corner Hyland avenues. 7 11 3

WANTED—Girl or woman to wash dishes. 146 North avenue.

WANTED—First class cook. Apply 716 Carlton avenue. 7 11 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

CHAUFFEUR wishes position with private family; careful driver; make own repairs; strictly sober; willing, obliging: best references. Address W. R., care Press. 7 11 3

YOUNG man, 20, desires position at anything; driving preferred. Address H. G., Press. 7 12 2

YOUNG man colored, 29 years old, desires position of any kind; references. Cabell, 635 West Third street.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

POLISH girl wants position at general housework. 621 South Second street. 7 11 5

GIRL wants position, general housework. 206 Duer street.

EXPERIENCED laundress wants washing to take home. Call 152 North avenue. 7 12 3

GOOD colored girl just from South wants situation; general housework. 217 Plainfield avenue. 7 11 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

BOYS.

ONE SHARE OF TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS I shall give to every boy who sell to ten of his friends a standard five-cent article each week this summer. In ADDITION to the big prize A REGULAR INCOME is assured. I'll tell you how. Make a list of the ten names and addresses. Bring it with you. You needn't miss ball game or fishing trip. Bring your parents if you choose. Come early. J. C. Field, 411 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

WANTED—Young man typewriter and office manager; light work; give references as to character in replying. Address W. S. T., care Press. 7 13 2

WANTED—Reliable man, single, one who understands care of horse, cow and vegetable garden. Apply with reference, Frank H. Lewin, Plainfield avenue, near Hunt Club. 7 13 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons. 197 North avenue. tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

COUPLE would like three furnished rooms for light housekeeping; terms reasonable. Address H. W., 413 Park avenue. 7 13 2

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

TO LET—Lower floor, 4 rooms; $11; West Third below Clinton avenue. Owner 17 Craig place. 7 11 tf

APARTMENT to rent, 6 rooms and bath; all light rooms; centrally located; $16 per month. Inquire 317 West Front street. 7 13 2

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

TO LET—Houses, part improvements; $12; all improvements $20. Inquire 1092 Arlington avenue. 7 13 1mo

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms, 671 West Fourth street. Apply 968 West Fifth street. 7 11 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 5 27 tf

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 7 6 tfeod

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

FOR SALE—Good built house, all improvements; good size lot; easy terms. Address Renwanz, Daily Press. 7 12 tf

GREATEST real estate bargain offered in Plainfield; nine houses for ten thousand five hundred dollars; only two thousand dollars cash required; balance on mortgage at five per cent; monthly rental one hundred and eight dollars; over 20 per cent. for money invested after all expenses paid. J. T. Vail. 5 24 tf

FOR SALE—12-room house, good location; churches and schools nearby; neighborhood O. K. Address Reasonable, care Press. 7 13 2

HOUSE—8 rooms, improvements, lot 50x195; price $3,450; easy terms. Would exchange for lot. Address G. A. F., Dunellen, N. J. 7 13 6

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz. First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent. in sums to suit, on good mortgages. Elston M. French, 171 North avenue 9 19 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

BICYCLE for sale; gent's chainless; nearly new. Dilts, 95 Jackson avenue, N. P. 7 11 3

FOR SALE—Two-cylinder motorcycle; 121 Madison avenue; first class condition; price reasonable. 7 11 3

GOOD toned piano cheap; bargain in fine automobile. John Manley, broker, 321 Park avenue. 7 11 6

THOROUGHBRED Great Dane dog (female); 9 months old. 538 West Third street. 7 12 3

FOR SALE—Two good work or delivery horses; cheap for cash; also good cow. Valley Farm, Clinton avenue, south of Lehigh tracks. 7 13 3

AT MURRAY'S Auction and Brokerage Rooms, 164 East Front street, if you are looking for anything in the household furnishing line or merchandise of any kind your wants can be furnished at a very low cost. You can find most anything imaginable among his large stock of goods, and goods are coming in every day and we are compelled to sacrifice prices. Stair carpets and rugs, etc. 10 and 15-cent books now selling at 5 cents each. We have sold over one hundred and fifty books last week and just received a new lot of two hundred; over two thousand to select from. We buy and sell everything in clean and fair condition, either for cash or commission. Murray's, 164 East Front street, opposite the Woodhull & Martin building. 'Phone 666. 7 12 2

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c Apply at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

CONTRACTS taken for all whitewashing jobs of any description. Frank Delia, 670 South Second street. 7 12 3

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 2 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 3 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 tf

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 3 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE—Fine farm, 104 acres, good potato soil, 50 large fruit trees, shade views of river, excellent 11-room house, large barn, 3 wagon houses, 3 chicken houses, corn crib; all good shape; price $10,800. Also 75-acre farm; best of soil, high elevation, 125 fruit trees, good 9-room house, 2 barns, wagon house, 2 chicken houses, brooder house, 3 hog houses, corn crib, including all machinery and tools; price $8,400. Owners will trade for Plainfield income property. Call Sammis, 20 West Main street, Somerville, N. J. 7 8 5

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Pony cart and harness. Address C. H., care The Daily Press. 7 13 tf

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By BILL BURNS.

Pitcher Philadelphia Nationals, Who Is One of the "Freak" Pitchers of Baseball, and When Right One of the Greatest.

The greatest play I ever saw was made by a center fielder named Weyth, down in Texas. He never broke out into fast company, but if he had he would have made a reputation for himself for nerve and quick thinking.

The play was made in a game between two cow outfits down in our part of the country, and as I had been pitching around that section of the state I was not allowed to pitch, they claiming that I was a professional. No one else would admit it at that time, but they made the claim and would only let me umpire the game.

It was one of the hardest games I ever saw; there wasn't much baseball in it, as about half the players wore their "chaps" and kept on their spurs—those big Spanish wheel affairs—and when they came to the ninth inning the score was 22 to 20 in favor of the Circle Bar outfit bunch. It had been rather a peaceful game, only two shooting scrapes coming off, and no one was hurt, but the excitement was growing every minute. In the last of the ninth the Upside Down Moon team had last bats, and with two runs to the bad and two out they had two men on bases and were raving for some more hits to win out the game. Three runs an inning didn't count for much in that game, although the ball wasn't cork cored. A strike-out was good for two bases half the time, but when the batter hit a short fly just back of second base it looked too easy. The short stop and the second baseman both went after the ball, paying no attention to each other, and they rammed together head on and knocked each other down. The ball was falling between them while they were sitting up, cussing each other and reaching for their guns, each blaming the other. Both were dead shots and it looked as if there would be some slaughtering going on in about a minute. Just then Weyth pulled off his great play. When the second baseman and the shortstop hit together he had been sprinting in to be near in case the ball was muffed, and as he saw what had happened, he came forward at top speed. And he could run some, too—he used to run down jack rabbits to keep in training—and as he came he was running so fast that the wheels on his spurs were humming like electric fans, they were revolving so rapidly. He went between the shortstop and second baseman just as they opened fire on each other, and he was going so rapidly that the wind deflected the bullets and both missed just as he caught the ball. The runner on third base saw the catch and started for home as Weyth lost his balance. Then the funniest part of the play came. Weyth started to fall, but couldn't. The wheels on his spurs were revolving so fast that they rowseled the ground, and Weyth went through the pitcher's box riding on the wheels; and tilted backward and balancing himself that way, just as if tilting back on roller skates, he rolled to the plate just in time to touch out the runner. Those wheels didn't stop spinning until they carried Weyth against the stand and under it. He was a modest fellow, anyhow, and he often remarked afterwards that he was glad to escape the cheering and applause that followed.

BILL BURNS.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

Another Way.

"Why do you wish to go on the stage?" inquired the manager.

"I want to get a millionaire husband."

"Well, the stage is overcrowded just now. Be a trained nurse."

Similar Sensations.

"Meet any icebergs on your way across?"

"No; but several of us tried to flirt wtih a Boston girl who was on board."

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Prayer Meeting Topic For the Week Beginning July 16, 1911.

Topic.—Our debts. What are they? How to pay them.—Rom. xiii, 7-10. Edited by Rev. Sherman H. Doyle, D. D.

In the preceding part of this thirteenth chapter of Romans the Apostle Paul emphasizes the duty of submission to all who are in places of authority and the importance of obeying civil laws. From this particular phase of obligation he turns to the general subject of duties or debts when he says, "Render, therefore, to all their dues," or debts. This exhortation may therefore suggest to us the consideration of the subject of our debts and their payment.

1. Our debts to God. The first and greatest obligations of life are due unto God, and to Him before all others our debts should be paid. The poet Cowper refers to Lord Dartmouth as "one that wears a coronet and prays." At a public levee when the king was present it is said that when Dartmouth appeared an attendant nobleman said, "Dartmouth has been at prayer today." "Yes, and, please your majesty," said Lord Dartmouth, "I thought it right first to pay my duty to God and then to my king." "Well said, Dartmouth," replied the king, "and like yourself." Our debts to God should always be paid first. To Him we owe fear, faith, trust, praise, adoration, gratitude, obedience and love for all the temporal and spiritual blessings of life and especially for the gift of His only begotten Son, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. And this greatest of debts to God is to be paid by our acceptance of Christ as our personal Saviour and Redeemer. We best pay God by the grateful acceptance of His free gifts for the purpose for which they are intended by Him. "What shall I render unto the Lord for all His benefits toward me? I will take the cup of salvation and call upon the name of the Lord."

2. Our debts to the state. Every man owes duties to the government under which he lives and which assures to him the well being of himself and all that depend upon him, so far as life and property are concerned, and the enjoyment of certain rights and privileges, to the extent that human power can assure these things. As American citizens we are greatly indebted to the state. Under our form of government we possess civil and religious liberty and enjoy other great blessings and privileges. We should therefore cheerfully perform all our obligations to the government. The laws should be obeyed. Taxes should be paid. He is a poor citizen who demands protection for his property and then tries to evade the payment of taxes upon it. Our hearts may flutter as we first sight the flag on our return from foreign shores, but if by trickery we escape the payment of customs duties we are smugglers and robbers. "Stealing is always stealing," whether from the individual or the state.

3. Our debts to our fellow men. The apostle exhorts us to "owe no man anything" but love. "Be in no man's books. If he be an individual with whom you are dealing pay when you buy, or, if it be the government, pay when the tax is due." If you cannot pay as you go don't go. Nothing is easier than the formation of the habit of going into debt, and nothing is harder than the paying of debts. "Keep out of debt. Avoid it as you would war, pestilence and famine. Hate it with perfect hatred. Dig potatoes, break stones, peddle tinware, do anything that is honest and useful rather than run in debt. Debt is the hardest of all taskmasters, the most cruel of all oppressors. It is a millstone about the neck. As you value comfort, quiet and independence keep out of debt." Pay also the debt of Christian love. "Owe no man anything but to love one another, for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law. * * * Love worketh no ill to his neighbor."

BIBLE READINGS.

Ex. xx, 12; Ps. xxxiv, 1-9; lciii, 1-5; cxvi, 12-19; Eccl. v, 4; Matt. vi, 12; xvii, 24-27; xxii, 15-22; John xv, 8-14; Rom. i, 13-16; xii, 9, 10; Eph. v, 28.

Older Than Methuselah.

If, as a poet has said, "we should count life by heart throbs," then surely those of us who have lived during the last thirty years are older than Methuselah, for never before did hearts beat with so quick a pulse and never was human progress marked by such mighty leaps and bounds as during that same period.

Among al the mighty movements that have made it illustrious nothing has been more memorable and phenomenal than the rise and progress of Christian Endeavor. There were those who made light of it at the beginning, as did Tobiah of the work of Nehemiah when he sneeringly said, "Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stone wall." The foxes have howled about it, and the devil himself has roared against it, but after thirty years of testing it stands today as solid as Gibraltar. And let us hope and pray and believe that the splendid results that have been garnered in these thirty years shall be but as "a handful of corn," which thirty years hence shall "shake like Lebanon."—Rev. D. S. Henson, D. D., LL. D.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because I never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end.
James C. Hansen
Decorator, Paper Hanger & Painter
Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c., &c.
141 East Front St. Tel. Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR
and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

HOTELS.

GILBEY'S
Pure Wines and Liquors
Gilbey's world-famous Brands are the finest Imported Wines and Liquors obtainable, and every bottle is guaranteed as to its Purity, Quality and Genuineness.
In order to serve our guests with the very best that money can buy, we have imported a shipment of the Gilbey Brands from London.
ASK FOR THEM AT
THE QUEEN CITY HOTEL BAR
P. FLOERSH, Proprietor.
5 15 16 m th

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Getttried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R
Successor to Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only odorless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue., 'Phone 194.
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

McCULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL.
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

For Sale or To Let
The Factory Building lately occupied by the Crescent Embossing Co.,
located at
546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.
Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.
Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.
Especially suitable for light manufacturing.
Can be seen only by appointment with
Fred C. Lounsbury
Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.
Tel. 1036-R
or
Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.
Tel. 310-J

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 88-A.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
NORTH AVENUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-3.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 640-R. Residence 313 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers, Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY.

In the matter of the Petition of the United States of America for the appointment of Commissioners to fix the compensation, &c., to be paid to Charles E. Vail, et als., trustees, &c., for their lands, etc. | On Petition, &c. Application for Payment of Award of Commissioners. Order.

To Matthais A. Brown, Sarah Ann Brown, his wife, their respective heirs, devisees and personal representatives, the heirs, devisees and personal representatives of George R. Pound, deceased, and of Henry R. Shotwell, deceased; the successors in office, heirs, devisees and personal representatives of Hugh Townsend, Elijah Shotwell, Smith Webster and Samuel L. Pound, "Trustees of the Friends School Society at Plainfield, in the County of Essex and State of New Jersey," and to the unknown owners of property in the Petition in the above entitled cause, described.

Application having been made by petition to this Court by Charles E. Vail and others, Trustees, for payment to them of the compensation and award made by J. Fred MacDonald, William A. Woodruff and Frank H. Smith, Commissioners heretofore appointed in the above entitled matter:

IT IS, on this twenty-sixth day of June, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Eleven, ordered that you and each of you appear before this Court at the Postoffice building in the city of Trenton, on the fifth day of September, Nineteen Hundred and Eleven, at 10:30 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any you have, why the compensation and award heretofore made in said matter should not be paid to the petitioners Charles E. Vail, William D. Williams, Clarence B. Vail and Ephraim M. Vail, Trustees of the Monthly Meeting of the Society of Friends for Rahway and Plainfield, as in the petition by them filed herein, prayed for, or such other relief be granted as may be deemed equitable and just.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be published in The Daily Press, a newspaper published at Plainfield, in the State of New Jersey, once a week for five weeks.

JOHN RELLSTAB, Judge.

A True Copy.
GEORGE T. CRANMER, Clerk. 6 29 5oaw

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement
Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Central R. R. News Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
M. MERSTRICH, Prop.
Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 5c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Rova Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you. Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice.

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—781.

RELIGIOUS THOUGHT.

Gems Gleaned From the Teachings of All Denominations.

Be diplomatic and avoid contention and thus glorify God and disappoint the devil.—Rev. Nelson M. Mayall, Free Will Baptist, Fishing Creek, Pa.

When Love's Meaning Is Learned.

Many of us learn what love means only when the objects of our affection are taken from us.—Rev. Dr. Frank Crane, Congregationalist, Worcester, Mass.

The World's Hope.

The kingdom of God is the world's hope, and its only hope. It is the center from which are emanating the influences that make life worth living.—Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, Presbyterian, New York.

Duty of Christians.

It is the Christian's duty to train himself, to educate brain, hand, eye and tongue to be skillful at something. In this busy world we have no right to be idlers or to be useless.—Rev. I. J. Van Ness, Episcopalian, Nashville, Tenn.

To Accomplish Reconciliation.

Reconciliation with God is not brought about by mere lip repentance or by any other outward means, but by a thorough searching of the heart and by the renovating of man's disposition and will.—Rev. A. Guttmacher, Hebrew, Baltimore.

An Index of Civilization.

The treatment of woman is the index of civilization. Where she is respected and treated with courtesy in girlhood, with fidelity in wifehood and with reverence in motherhood there civilization reaches its highest expression.—Rev. J. L. Levy, Hebrew, Pittsburg.

Our Cloudy Skies.

The soul that trusteth in Christ knows what it is to be with him under cloudy as well as clear skies. Clouds come in the way of duty and in the way of development and in the way of destiny. But they are ever bright clouds.—Rev. B. G. Newton, Congregationalist, Pittsburg.

Devotion and Trust.

The man who prays earnestly, trusts in God and loves him will manifest that love by devotion to his fellow men, and conversely the man who consecrates himself to his brother men will find the inspiration and motive for this service in the love of God.—Bishop Talbot, Episcopalian, Washington.

Where to Lose Worry.

Five minutes spent in spiritual communion with God before the day's work is begun is worth more for peace and happiness than hours spent in tugging and toiling over the problems of the day. Don't forget it, the place to lose worry is "at the feet of Jesus."—Rev. Dr. Len G. Broughton, Baptist, Atlanta, Ga.

Gratitude.

Gratitude! It measures the distance between the devil and the angel. Gratitude! It is the aroma a flower gives back to heaven for shine and shower. Gratitude to God for giving you your chance supreme—show it by giving your life in loving consecration to God, the Giver of all.—Rev. Dr. S. Edward Young, Presbyterian, Pittsburg.

Function of a Church.

The vital matter is that each human life should have a noble and beautiful ideal to organize and give it direction. In a sense all things are subject to the laws of evolution, but not all evolution is progress. But man's true life is progressive. It has meaning so far as it realizes ideals, and to clarify, to cherish and sustain ideals that are noble and beautiful, this and this only is the function of a church.—Rev. Dr. G. R. Dodson, Unitarian, St. Louis.

Influence of Motherhood.

There is no greater thing today in the world of righteousness than the influence of a Christian mother. There is no such thing as a great man into whose life a mother's influence has not entered. There has never been such a thing as a great nation which was not backed by good mothers. All the great nations of antiquity exalted the greatness of motherhood. A godly mother's influence does not end when the children go out from the home, but it is even greater in maturity than in earlier life.—Rev. Dr. Frank W. Sneed, Presbyterian, Pittsburg.

Moral Courage.

What we need supremely today is moral courage. Thousands of young men and women would be saved from moral ruin if they were only brave enough to be true to themselves and to the real convictions of their hearts. If we know that gambling, intemperance, sensuality, are dragging us down the first step to victory is to fling compromise and all excuses aside and speak out frankly to our friends. If we think a thing is wrong let us boldly say so, and then there will come to us the larger courage to go on and win a greater victory.—Rev. William M. Grosvenor, Episcopalian, New York.

Forgetfulness.

In this age of activity there are too many who are inclined to forget those heroes who laid down their lives for this country, and of our many national faults that of forgetfulness perhaps stands out above any. Men and women appear to have become absorbed in commercial life and social aspirations, with the result that proper tribute is not yielded where it belongs. How many are there who have forgotten the great service which General Grant extended to his country, for instance, and who fail to remember heroes like Alexander Hamilton, General Phil Sheridan and others who gave material aid to their country during the revolutionary and civil wars? These heroes as well as the country's great statesmen should be kept constantly in the public mind and should ever be accorded substantial recognition.—Rev. James S. Stone, Episcopalian, Chicago.

STRENGTH OF SPIDER'S WEB

Single Thread Supports Weight Seventy-Four Times Weight of Spider Himself.

The strength of the spider, and of the materials it employes, is something almost incomprehensible, when the size of the insect and the thickness of his thread are taken into account. Recent experiments have shown that a single thread of a web made by a spider which weighed 54 milligrams supported endwise a weight of four grams, or 74 times the weight of the spider itself.

When, therefore, a spider spins a web to let himself down from the ceiling, or from the branch of a tree, and we see him descending without perceiving his thread at all, we may be perfectly sure that he is not only in no danger of falling, but that he could carry 73 other spiders down with him on his invisible rope. Knowing this fact with reference to a single thread, we need not be surprised that the threads of a web, interwoven and reinforced one by another, have a very considerable strength, and are able to hold bees and wasps, themselves very powerful in proportion to their size, and to bend without breaking under a weight of dew or rain.

TO READ COIN INSCRIPTIONS

Numismatist Shows Test That Seldom Fails to Reveal Dates on Worn Coins.

Lying on the table in front of a numismatist was an old copper coin. It had experienced hard usage.

"Can you read the date and the inscription?" inquired the collector.

The visitor inspected the specimen, but, although he had the aid of a magnifying glass, he confessed that the words and figures were illegible.

"Let me assist you," the collector remarked. Going to the kitchen range he thrust an ordinary coal shovel into the fire and permitted it to remain there until red hot. Withdrawing it, he dropped the coin on the utensil, and it speedily became as red hot as the shovel itself. Immediately the date, 1794, shone brightly in glowing figures on the obverse side of the coin, and similar treatment revealed the words United States of America—one cent—on the reverse. This test, according to the numismatist, seldom fails with any coin, even when the inscriptions have been worn so perfectly smooth that they are invisible to the naked eye.

Costumes of Fish Skins.

Among the most wonderful garments worn at the present day are the curious fish skin dresses of the wealthy women of the Gold tribe, living along the Amur river, East Siberia. Though they can neither read nor write these people are producing astonishing ornaments, designs and embroidery work.

The dress is composed of several layers of fish skin, the undermost representing the skin of the garment proper, the uppermost showing the ornaments in their cut-out forms. Between these two layers is inserted a middle layer, which serves as a background, throwing out distinctly all parts of the ornaments. The pieces of fish skin forming the ornaments are generally colored blue. The front and back of the dress is adorned with these cut-out pieces of fish skin sewed with fish skin thread.—Christian Herald.

Business Methods in the Home.

There is some discussion going on in England, according to the London Daily Mirror, as to whether a man should not manage the house. A woman, say those in favor of the plan, is never trained in business methods, and when she has served apprenticeship in business, before marriage even, it was in a subordinate position where she had merely to take orders and carry them out mechanically. A man is trained in managing subordinates and systematizing work, no matter what his calling may have been.

The alternative is that women should receive training in business methods and system.

Buzzard Freed of Trap.

After a chase of three hours, Abram Layton and his son captured one of the largest buzzards ever seen in this section. Attached to the bird's leg was a steel trap and an iron chain three feet long. The buzzard was so emaciated that it could hardly fly with its burden, which it had evidently carried for months, as the wound made by the snapping of the steel trap had entirely healed.

The bird did not show fight, but seemed glad to get rid of its burden, and it looked so pitiful that Mr. Layton had compassion on it and set it free.—Clayton Correspondence Philadelphia Record.

Expected It.

The crazy vehicle went bumping over the uneven pavement.

"This is enough to drive a man to drink," groaned the passenger inside.

"Yessir," said the cabdriver. "Most of the fellers that hires it think it's good enough for that. Any p'ticular place you was wishin' to stop at right now, sir?"

Earning Her Way.

"I am working my way through college."

"Brave girl! How do you earn money?"

"Well, father gives me $10 for every singing lesson I don't take."

KEITH OF THE BORDER

A TALE OF THE PLAINS

By RANDALL PARRISH

Author of "MY LADY OF THE SOUTH," "WHEN WILDERNESS WAS KING," etc.

Illustrations by DEARBORN MELVILL.

(Copyright, A. C. McClurg & Co., 1910.)

She was off before either might raise hand or voice in protest, and they could only urge their horses in effort to overtake her, the three racing forward fetlock deep in sand. Mounted upon a swifter animal Fairbain forged ahead; he could see the two horses now plainly, their heads uplifted, their reins dangling. Without perceiving more he knew already what was waiting there on the sand, and swore fiercely, spurring his horse mercilessly, forgetful of all else, even the girl, in his intense desire to reach and touch the bodies. He had begged to do this himself, to be privileged to seek this man Hawley, to kill him—but now he was the physician, with no other thought except a hope to save. Before his horse had even stopped he flung himself from the saddle, ran forward and dropped on his knees beside Keith, bending his ear to the chest, grasping the wrist in his fingers. As the others approached, he glanced up, no conception now of aught save his own professional work.

The Eyes of the Two Met in Defiance.

"Water, Bristoe," he exclaimed sharply. "Dash some brandy in it. Quick now. There, that's it; hold his head up—higher. Yes, you do it, Miss Hope: here, Ben, take this, and pry his teeth open—well, he got a swallow anyhow. Hold him just as he is—can you stand it? I've got to find where he was hit."

"Yes—yes," she answered, "don't—don't mind me."

He tore open the woolen shirt, soaked with blood already hardening, felt within with skilled fingers, his eyes keen, his lips muttering unconsciously.

"Quarter of an inch—quarter of an inch too high—scraped the lung—Lord, if I can only get it out—got to do it now—can't wait—here, Bristoe, that leather case on my saddle—run, damn you—we'll save him yet, girl—there, drop his head in your lap—yes, cry if you want to—only hold still—open the case, will you—down here, where I can reach it—now water—all our canteens—Hope, tear me off a strip of your under-skirt—what am I going to do?—extract the ball—got to do it—blood poison in this sun."

She ripped her skirt, handing it to him without a word; then dropped her white face in her hands, bending, with closed eyes, over the whiter face resting on her lap, her lips trembling with the one prayer, "Oh, God! Oh, God!" How long he was at it, or what he did, she scarcely knew—she heard the splash of water; caught the flash of the sun on the probe; felt the half conscious shudder of the wounded man, whose head was in her lap, the deft, quick movements of Fairbain, and then—

"That's it—I've got it—missed the lung by a hair—damn me I'm proud of that job—you're a good girl."

She looked at him, scarce able to see, her eyes blinded with tears.

"Will—will he live? Oh, tell me!"

"Live! Why shouldn't he?—nothing but a hole to close up—nature'll do that, with a bit of nursing—here, now don't you keel over—give me the rest of that skirt."

He bandaged the wound, then glanced about suddenly.

"How's the other fellow?"

"Dead," returned Bristoe, "shot through the heart."

"Thought so—have seen Keith shoot before—I wonder how the cuss ever managed to get him."

As he arose to his feet, his red face glistening with perspiration, and began strapping his leather case, the others rode up, and Bristoe, explaining the situation, set the men to making preparations for pushing on to the water-hole. Blankets were swung between ponies, and the bodies of the dead and wounded deposited therein, firm hands on the bridles. Hope rode close beside Keith, struggling to keep back the tears, as she watched him lying motionless, unconscious, scarcely breathing. So, under the early glow of the desert stars, they came to the water-hole, and halted.

The wounded man opened his eyes, and looked about him unable to comprehend. At first all was dark, silent; then he saw the stars overhead, and a breath of air fanned the near-by fire, the ruddy glow of flame flashing across his face. He heard voices faintly, and thus, little by little, consciousness asserted itself and memory struggled back into his bewildered brain. The desert—the lonely leagues of sand—his fingers gripped as if they felt the stock of a gun—yet that was all over—he was not there—but he was somewhere—and alive, alive. It hurt him to move, to breathe even, and after one effort to turn over, he lay perfectly still, staring up into the black arch of sky, endeavoring to think, to understand—where was he? How had he come there? Was Hawley alive also? A face bent over him, the features faintly visible in the flash of firelight. His dull eyes lit up in sudden recollection.

"Doc! is that you?"

"Sure, old man," the pudgy fingers feeling his pulse, the gray eyes twinkling. "Narrow squeak you had—going to pull through all right, though—no sign of fever."

"Where am I?"

"At the water-hole; sling you in a blanket, and get you into Larned tomorrow."

There was a moment's silence, Keith finding it hard to speak.

"Hawley—?" he whispered at last.

"Oh, don't worry; you got him all right. Say," his voice sobering, "maybe it was just as well you took that job. If it had been me I would have been in bad."

The wounded man's eyes questioned.

"It's a bad mix-up, Keith. Waite never told us all of it. I reckon he didn't want her to know, and she never shall, if I can help it. I've been looking over some papers in his pocket—he'd likely been after them this trip—and his name ain't Hawley. He's Bartlett Gale, Christie's father."

Keith could not seem to grasp the thought, his eyes half-closed.

"Her—her father?" he questioned, weakly. "Do you suppose he knew?"

"No; not at first, anyhow; not at Sheridan. He was too interested in his scheme to even suspicion he had actually stumbled onto the real girl. I think he just found out."

A coyote howled somewhere in the darkness, a melancholy chorus joining in the with long-drawn cadence. A shadow swept into the radius of dancing firelight.

"Is he conscious, Doctor?"

Fairbain drew back silently, and she dropped on her knees at Keith's side, bending low to look into his face.

"Hope—Hope."

"Yes, dear, and you are going to live now—live for me."

He found her hand, and held it, clasped within his own, his eyes wide open.

"I have never told you," he said, softly, "how much I love you."

She bent lower until her cheek touched his.

"No, Jack, but you may now."

THE END.

TOP FLOOR BURNED; ALDERMAN IN CLASH.

New Brunswick, July 13.—Fire yesterday morning destroyed the top floor of the Snyder building in Neilson street, occupied by the store of William M. Van Doren, on the first floor, with living apartments on the upper two. The entire building was flooded with water. The fire started in the apartments occupied by M. Reinberg. Miss Jennie Shipper, a servant, discovering the blaze, became hysterical. She was rescued with difficulty.

A defective flue in the chimney is thought to have started the fire. The other apartments were occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cowan and family, who moved there last May, and Mrs. Abraham Bears and sisters. They lost many of their possessions.

Alderman Charles A. Oliver was ordered out of the fire lines by one of the fire patrol. He at once summoned Police Chief Michael O'Connell, and will probably make charges.

BRADLEY WILL PAY FOR WATER FOUNTAIN USES.

Asbury Park, July 13.—Founder Bradley sent a communication Tuesday to Mayor Appleby. Following is the self-explanatory text:

"I have the local papers. The dispute between the city and the Beach Commission, as to who should supply the memorial fountain with water, on Ocean avenue, erected by a widow, is highly discreditable to Asbury Park. Turn on the water and charge the cost to my account for July.

JAMES A. BRADLEY."

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE

Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts Also confectionery cigars and tobaccos.

Phone 448-J

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.

Furniture, Trunks, Pictures China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 358 E. Front St.

I. GOLDBERG.
Tel. 1512-L. 510 Watchung Ave.
EXPERT LADIES' TAILOR.

Perfect fitting and good workmanship guaranteed.

Special prices on Linen Suits for this season. 5 10 tf m-w

HAHNE & CO.
IMPORTERS · NEWARK'S STORE BEAUTIFUL BROAD, NEW AND HALSEY STREETS · RETAILERS ·
THE MOST INDUSTRIOUS STORE IN NEWARK—THE CITY OF INDUSTRY.

Women's Dresses Deeply Cut

Women can now buy the finer washable dresses of Bordered Batiste, Novelty Lawn, Gingham, Dotted Muslin, Linen and Chambray very much under price, and they may choose from man pretty styles in a full range of sizes for small, medium, large and extra large women. Needless to attempt a description of the various styles here—the prices will surely tempt you to come and see them. Values $3 to $12. Special priced $1.98, $2.98, $3.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

Fine White Lingerie All-over Embroidery Dresses—a full range of sizes; rich lace yokes; full trimmed with Valenciennes laces; skirts with deep hem; values $5.50 to $11; special priced ..... $2.98 to $4.98

Finer Dresses reduced to half and less. Fine Silk Dresses also deeply cut in price.

White Linen Dress Skirts—gored models; loose panels front and back of semi-plaited styles; all sizes; value $2.50, at..... $1.29

Girls' Tub Dresses

Pretty Little Dresses for Girls of 6 to 14 years; of fine Chambrays, Linens, Ginghams and Linenes; low neck, short sleeve styles; full kilted skirts; values $1.98 to $2.98; special priced 98c, $1.29 and $1.98.

Misses' and Junior's Washable Dresses—most up-to-date models made of high-grades linenes, ginghams, lingerie, all-over embroidery, bordered lawn, embroidered batiste and linens; solid colors and novelty effects; many prety styles; worth $3 to $10; to be offered Friday and Saturday at $1.98, $2.49, $3.98, $4.98 and $5.98.

Middy Blouses of Linene, white or neat collaro f self material or serge, with or without braid trimmings; extra special value for..... 98c

More $1.50 Waists at 59c

Those fine Embroidered Lingerie Waists at 59c are selling rapidly, and if it were not that we had so many other good waist bargains on tables round about they ouwld undoubtedly have all found new owners before we could publish the second advertisement. We hope, however, to have a goodly variety of styles and sizes for tomorrow's buyers, and we want all who can to participate in this very good offer.

High or low neck styles, trimmed with Valenciennes lace insertions and crochet buttons; beautifully embroidered in various dainty colors; truly $1.50 waists that you may have at 59c

Fine White Lingerie, Voile and Marquisette Waists; high or low neck styles; with or without sailor collars; values $1.98 to $4; priced at ..... 98c and $1.49

Handsome Jap Silk Waists; round or square yokes; heavy lace yoke front and back; very special at..... $1.98 and $2.98

100 Dozen Dollar Shirts 55c

BEAUTIFUL SOFT PONGEES—MEN WILL LIKE 'EM.

Here goes for another big shirt sale for men—a manufacturer's overstock; bought by us away under price; shirts that we were glad to get and that you will be proud to wear; soft shirts of pongees in tan, cream, and gray; made in coat styles with French cuffs; with or without collars; every shirt as perfect as perfect can be; sizes from 14 to 17; identical with those selling in the regular way at $1; pick one or as many shirts as you like at the alluring price of 55c.

Six 4-ply Collars for 50c—big sale ends Saturday.

OF COURSE WE COMMEND

An American Sewing Machine

YOU CAN BUY ONE ON THE CLUB PLAN.

The American Machine is built of oak with well finished castings in drop head style; with five drawers, with brass trimmings; ball bearing throughout; high arm and bed ornamented with hand-colored design; nickeled face plate; new thread releaser; automatic bobbin winder; self-threading shuttle; self-setting needle; double action feed—an excellent family sewing machine that will give splendid service; fully guaranteed for ten years and sold at the low price of $15; priced for Friday only..... $12

All Aboard!

GOING ON THE TRAIN OR BOAT?

SUIT CASES, BAGS AND TRUNKS ARE READY.

Rattan Suit Cases are becoming more popular every day because of their light weight and cleanliness. These are made of basswood frames with leather corners, straps all around brass lock; 24-inch size, regularly $5; take them tomorrow and Saturday at..... $3.50

Sheepskin Suit Cases—most substantial sort; steel frames; leather corners; 24-inch and 26-inch sizes; regularly $3.50; priced..... $2.25

Sole Leather Suit Cases—kind that will last a lifetime; stel frames; large leather corners; 3-oz. stock; fitted with shirt pocket; 24-inch and 26-inch sizes; regularly $5.50 and $6; either kind, tomorrow, at..... $4.25

English Club Bags—high cut; leather lined; hand-sewed outside edges— sizes 16, 17 and 18-inch; regularly $7.50, $8 and $8.50; special $5

Dress Trunks—Basswood box, every part riveted thruout; fiber bound;. cloth lined; three trays; two heavy sole leather straps around trunk; sizes 36, 38 and 40-inch; regularly $15, $16 and $17; special $10.50

Canvas Covered Trunks—sheet-iron bottom; cloth lined, one deep tray for hats; three slats on bottom; sizes 28-inch and 36-inch; regularly $6 to $8; special prices $5.50 and $5.85

Innovation Wardrobe Trunks, made of 3-ply veneer; every part riveted; for men or women; height 46 inches; made to carry six or ten complete garments; the most remarkable of trunks; regularly sold at $35; special priced..... $28.50

Men's Suits

SEPARATE TROUSERS, FANCY WAISTCOATS

30 Per Cent. Off

If you want to get a good suit for little money the opportunity is still open to you, for we are offering you choice from a stock of widely varied cloths and as widely diversified in character at prices cut fully 30 per cent from regular low markings.

Thus you can come here and buy a suit regularly marked $20, deduct $6, and pay us only $14, or you may select a suit regularly marked $10, deduct your 30 per cent. or $3, and pay us only $7.

This makes it easy for you to figure the exact savings, and when you consider that our regular prices are so decidedly fair you will realize that your savings are positive.

Boys' Woolen Suits—Double and single breasted styles ith knickerbockers, 3 to 18 year sizes, are also being sold at 30 per cent. off.

Hahne & Co. Broad, New & Halsey Sts., Newark, N. J.

WHERE GOLD ACCUMULATES

Russia Passes All Other Countries in Hoarding Up the Precious Metal.

In ten years Russia has added $210,000,000 to its stock of gold, raising the total in the treasury to $704,000,000. Even France has been passed in the contest of accumulation; in ten years the Bank of France has increased its supply of the metal by $229,000,000, raising the total to $678,000,000. One year ago Russia held less than France, but in the interval the former has gained $66,000,000, while the latter has lost $63,000,000. It may be learned with some surprise that Italy ranks third as an accumulator of gold since 1900, its stock having risen from $77,000,000 to $194,000,000, a gain of $117,000,000. Germany has gained only a little over $5,000,000, while the Bank of England's increase has averaged only $3,000,000 per annum, or less than $33,000,000 in all. Its gold supply today stands just under $200,000,000, which is exceeded not only by Russia and France, but by Austro-Hungary, and is only $5,000,000 above Germany's, and $7,000,000 above Italy's stock, while, of course, it is little more than half the amount held by the New York clearing house banks alone, to say nothing of the billion odd dollars that is retained in the United States treasury. Twenty years ago France held only $263,000,000, Germany $138,000,000. England $113,000,000 and Austria-Hungary the insignificant total of $22,000,00, against $227,000,000 today. At home, the New York clearing house banks and the treasury department have added $782,841,275 to their holdings in ten years.

HOW TO WIN POPULARITY

Surest Method Is to Be Interested in The People One Meets.

One of the surest methods of winning popularity is to be interested in the people one meets. Not a lip interest merely, but a deep, actual interest that takes one out of one's self and one's narrow circle and for the moment places one in the midst of another's sorrow or joy and lets one see life from her standpoint.

A girl who can listen sympathetically and with the real interest to the details of another girl's wardrobe and the list of her admirers has the germ of universal popularity already developed.

It may seem a trivial and tiresome matter and she may feel conscious all the time that she has far more interesting things to tell, but, whether or not she realizes it, she is laying the foundation stone of friendship. Hearts, after all, are very much alike, and each one has the craving for sympathy securely planted in its depth.

But nothing irritates one more and turns one from another's personality so quickly as the simulated and insincere interest which, eventually, is always detected. The girl who says with deep emotion and with the soft pedal stop of apparent sympathy turned on, "My dear, how dreadful!" to the confidences of a sickening heart, and then hastens to break in with some frivolous fact about herself or her social engagements, is not apt to win much affection, and certainly not any lasting love.

Meerschaum Getting Scarce.

The valuable material from which meerschaum pipes are made is continually getting scarcer and the large industry which has flourished in Vienna, Budapest, Nuremberg, Paris and in the Thuringian town of Ruhla seems endangered. The manufacture of meerschaum pipes is much more important than is generally supposed. The town of Ruhla alone has been exporting in round figures pipes to the value of about $1,500,000 annually. The finest grade of meerschaum is found near Eski-Schehr, in Anatolia, Asia Minor, in a hollow, which in early days was a lake, in which the meerschaum was precipitated. Meerschaum is also found in other places, including Thebes, Egypt, the Bosnian Mountains in the neighborhood of Grubschitz, and Nuendorff in Moravia and in some sections of Spain and Portugal.

She Learned Something.

One thing about the professor's lecture at the village hall, on "The Wonders of the Human Body," seemed to Mrs. Goppinger to be not quite clear, and after her return home she was still pondering upon it.

"I understood everything he told us about the nerves and the way they act, and all that," she said, "and how we couldn't get along without them, but I just could not understand why he called that part of the brain where the nerves all center the Sarah Bellamy. Was Sarah Bellamy the name of the woman doctor or surgeon who discovered it? I can't seem to find anything about her in the dictionary."—Youth's Companion.

Broke 62,458 Bottles.

On the morning of April 18, 1906, the cellar of Paul Masson, a wine merchant of San Jose, Cal., contained a stock of 125,000 bottles, all neatly arranged.

Then came the earthquake, and when the proprietor was able to enter his cellar again he found that 62,458 bottles, by actual count, were broken and the remainder thrown about in the wildest confusion. It is curious, with such a large number of bottles, that the quake should have come within a few dozen of demolishing an exact half of the stock.—Wide World Magazine.

WHERE ARE THE TIPPETS?

Once All Boys Wore Them, Now They Are Seldom Seen, Says Oldsby.

"Why," said Mr. Oldsby, "why, I'd like to know, don't boys wear tippets any more? When I was a boy every boy wore a knitted woolen tippet. Some of these were white, some of them were red, some of them were of mixed colors. Some were finished with fringe of the same material on the ends, more of them had on each end a tassel made of the wool; the fringe used to get ragged with wear and rough handling or one or both of the tassels on a tasselled tippet was sure soon to get torn off.

"Many of these tippets that the boys wore were knitted at home by their mothers; many of them were bought in store; every dry goods store kept tippets, you could always see a line of them hanging up in the store; and in those days every boy wore one. They would take a turn or two of their tippet around their neck and then make one loose tie in it, not a knot, and let the ends hang down from front or back. See a lot of boys in winter going to or from school or but sliding down hill or skating and you'd see around the necks of these boys as many tippets.

"But where are the tippets now, and why did the boys stop wearing them? Boys are not any hardier now than they used to be, are they? Or did they come to think that tippets looked girlish, sissified?"

SURE TEST OF GOOD MAN

One Who Will Stop to Let Boys Hitch Their Sleds to His Wagon.

We say he is a good man who will stop and let the boys hitch their sleds to his wagon. We saw one the other day. A big smile that seemed to warm the air around broke from his face as he waited for the boys to hitch on. The clatter they made and their happy voices were as music to his soul.

Then he drove on, looking back to see that all was going well. He remembered he was a boy once, and how much delight there was in hitching on and being pulled. At times he would laugh outright. He forgot the $72 he had in his pocket the proceeds of two swine that he had hauled in. His heart was on bigger things—making others happy. And he thought of his own boy back at home, how he would enjoy being with those boys, and he wished he was.

And so he rode on, smiling and looking back, and occasionally hitting the horses to make the sleds jerk, and hear the boys shout their happiest, when they held on the tighter or dropped off in the snow and raced again to get a tighter grip. There is a scene that beats a banquet or an inauguration out of all reckoning, and there is in that wagon an old man who is one of the princes of mankind.—Ohio State Journal.

London's Overhead Fog.

The partial fogs in which certain portions of London have been submerged during the last week or two culminated yesterday in a black pall, which covered the metropolis and the suburbs for a radius of from six to seven miles. It was of the variety known as the "overheated fog," blotting out the light of the sun, but bringing none of the unpleasant consequences associated with the London "particular." The air near the ground was fairly clear, even when day was turned into night. As is usual in such circumstances, the canopy of fog was of varying density. Though there was a dead calm as far as the tops of the highest trees, currents of air higher carried the smoke pall, now in one direction, now in another. To this reason were due the curious effects produced of twilight suddenly merging into complete darkness, which was exchanged half an hour or so later for a piebald dawn.—London Chronicle.

Connecticut Farmers Against Rabbit.

Most assuredly the proposed protection of rabbits by imposing a limit upon catches and by lessening the opening season will not be approved by farmers and fruit growers. Under present limitations rabbits have multiplied until they have become almost a plague.

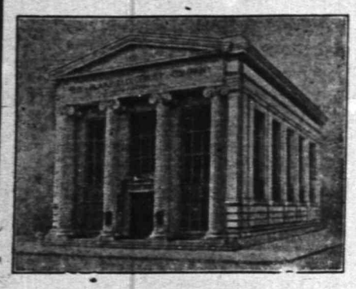
Their principal offense is the girdling of fruit trees, to which they are strongly addicted even when the ground is not snow-covered. So far as known they serve no useful purpose except as food; their pelts are next to valueless, bringing only a cent each and "slow sale" even at that price. Farmers bring the additional charge that rabbit hunters tear down and do not reconstruct their fences, and this complaint is founded upon facts.—Bridgeport Farmer.

Six Carloads of Chickens.

Thirty thousand chickens passed through western cities recently from Nebraska to San Francisco. The fowls were sidetracked at various points and were viewed by many people. The shipment was made by J. G. Gaeschlin, who owns a number of poultry houses in different parts of Nebraska. It consisted of six carloads, every car carrying approximately five thousand fowls.

Each car had a keeper, who gave the birds constant attention and saw that they were properly fed and watered. The trip is usually made in eight days, but in this instance it took fifteen days on account of snow.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY



Assets $3,700,000.00

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

FUNERAL SERVICE OF MRS. HENDRICKSON

Funeral service for Mrs. Sarah Hendrickson, who for twenty years was matron of the Children's Home in this city, was held at Grace M. E. church, of which she was a charter member, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and there was present a large gathering of friends, including the officers, directors and children from the Children's Home; also relatives and friends from Newark, Somerville, Ringoes and other places.

There was a large display of flowers surrounding the casket, comprising many large pieces from the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace church, the Children's Home and others, showing marked esteem to one who was beloved by all who knew her. During the service a quartet comprising Miss Grace Carroll, Miss S. Etta Raybert, William J. Tallamy and William Holmes, sang "Nearer My God to Thee," "My Jesus as Thou Wilt," and "Lead Kindly Light."

The service was conducted by Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of the church, who read appropriate Scripture selections and then used Mrs. Hendrickson's life as the basis for further remarks. He referred to the beautiful Chrisian life of the departed, of her Christlikeness, of her devotion to children, whom she loved so fondly; also speaking words of comfort and consolation to the bereaved ones. Mr. Cain said that under such circumstances is was difficult to say "Thy Will Be Done," but he presented many thoughts which he said would make it easier for the bereaved ones to know that all was for the best.

Mr. Cain recalled the freedom which Mrs. Hendrickson secured when she gave up her position at the Children's Home, and then the fact that she was stricken down so suddenly while enjoying herself. He pictured her death as being a liberation from the life to one of higher service. The burial took place in the family plot at Somerville, where Mrs. Hendrickson resided before coming to Plainfield.

BASEBALL.

Scotch Plains will be a cooler place for the fans hereafter for the management of the 'Plains club has contracted for covered grandstands. These new additions will be ready for the game with Somerville on the 'Plains diamond Saturday afternoon.

At alst our question has been answered. Yesterday we asked, "Who will stop them Cubs," and yesterday the Superbas turned the trick with a 5-3 victory over the boys from the Windy City.

Lewis Slocum, of this city, will twirl for the McNulty Brothers' nine Sunday afternoon, when that team lines up against the New York Fire laddies. Seamon will do the back stop work for Slocum.

Ty Cobb didn't get a hit yesterday in the game with the Athletics but the speedy right fielder made three runs and stole four bases. His batting average was not injured very much, however, for the great Ty was only recorded as being at the bat once.

Sherwood Magee, the star outfielder of the Philadelphia Nationals, was indefinitely suspended by President Thomas J. Lynch for assaulting Umpire John Finneran Monday. Magee was also fined $200.

Jack Doescher, who is well known to the fandom of this city, did the twirling for the Jersey City team yesterday and was hit hard by Baltimore. Jersey City lost the game, 3-2.

Brit Martin's work at second base is not quite in keeping with the speed of the rest of the team. Brit is swating the ball at the big end of the percentage column and his sticking almost balances his slow fielding.

Bound Brook did not get stung when they engaged McLoughlin for last Saturday's game. The youngster put up a great article of ball at short stop, accepting six chances without a mishap. He had lots of speed but the best part of his work was his hard snap throw to first, which caused more than on hopeful batter to die out in disgust.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

WOODROW WILSON CONDEMNS RUSSIA

Governor Woodrow Wilson has sent the following letter to Herman Bernstein regarding his statement that Russia is violating her treaty obligations toward the United States and that the Russian Ministry of the Interior has been hoodwinking the State Department in Washington for years in regard to the passport question:

State of New Jersey.
Executive Department.

I do not see how there can be any divergence of feeling among patriotic Americans concerning the situation in Russia with regard to the religious discriminations made by the Russian government. I haven't had time to give the matter any detail consideration. The principle involved admits of no argument. Cordially and sincerely yours.

WOODROW WILSON.

ASBURY PARK AGAIN SEEKS SUNDAY TRAINS

In an attempt to break through the rule of the New York and Long Branch Railroad that no trains stop at Asbury Park on Sundays, a rule which was established in 1877 in deference to the religious spirit at Ocean Grove, both places having a joint station, Frank J. Appleby, mayor of Asbury Park, together with the clerk and city solicitor, have petitioned the public utility commission to investigate and order trains stopped at the resort.

That the Ocean Grove people will fight such a move is predetermined, because a stop at the main station in Asbury Park Sundays means a stop in Ocean Grove, something which Ocean Grove people have been anxious to avoid ever since the resort was opened for religious worship.

The petitioners show that Asbury Park was but a small place with a permanent population of 3,000 in 1877, whereas the permanent population now is upward of 10,000, and there is a summer colony there of upwards of 25,000.

BRYAN'S FAVORITES FOR THE PRESIDENCY

Expressly declaring that he is not prepared to decide for himself the question of relative availability of Democrats for the presidential nomination, Mr. Bryan, in a Commoner editorial, at Lincoln, Nebraska, lists those whom he deems fitted for the honor. The name of Harmon is conspicuously absent.

No one, he says,. questions the availability of Folk, Wilson or Clarke and he adds these as men Democracy might well honor: Governor Plaisted, of Maine; Senator Kern, of Indiana; Senator Newlands, of Nevada; Senator Chamberlain, Oregon! Senator Owen, of Oklahoma; ex-Governor Thomas, of Colorado; ex-Senator Patterson, of Colorado; ex-Governor Adams, of Colorado; George Fred Williams, of Massachusetts; ex-Governor Higgins, of Rhode Island; ex-Governor Glenn, of North Carolina; ex-Governor Tyler, of Virginia; ex-Governor McMillin, of Tennessee; ex-Senator Turner, of Washington; Senator Gore, of Oklahoma; ex-Governor Campbell, of Texas; Congressman Randell, of Texas; ex-Governor Comerx, of Alabama; ex-Governor McCreary, of Kentucky; ex-Governor Brentham, of Kentucky; Henry Watterson, of Kentucky; Congressman Rainey, of Illinois; Mayor Gaynor, of New York, Mayor Harrison, Chicago, and ex-Mayor Dunne, of Chicago.

These tickets are suggested: Governor Smith, of Georgia, and Governor Burke, of North Dakota; Marshall, of Indiana, and Dix, of New York, or Dix and Marshall; Senator Culberson, of Texas, and O'Gorman, of New York; Shafroth, of Colorado, and Foss, of Massachusetts; James, of Kentucky, and Osborne, of Wyoming; James and Brandels, of Massachusetts; Judge Clarke, of North Carolina, and Senator Pomerne, of Ohio.

P. I. Minton, of East Fifth street, has returned from a visit with relatives at Red Bank.

BIG C.E. CONVENTION COMES TO A CLOSE

The International Christian Endeavor Society convention which has been in progress at Atlantic City for the past week, closed last night with a final address to the gathering by President Francis E. Clark on the million-dollar pier. Yesterday was one of pledges, resolutions and plans. Scores of young men and women who had been stirred by the week of religious fervor, speaking for the thousands they represented at home, promised to do great things for the union the coming year.

The fight for a saloonless nation seemed to be uppermost in the minds of the Endeavorers and the plan for an "increase campaign" to extend the membership was taken up with vigor. In his closing words President Clark commended the standard of the cross to the Endeavorers and told them that no banner, no matter how beautiful, by no task, however great can be worth while unless it bears the impress of the symbol of Christianity. The meeting closed with the large chorus singing "God be with you till we meet again; by His council guide, uphold you."

There were many fine addresses during the closing day of the great gathering and all were inspired by the words of cheer and encouragement. There was also a great deal of pleasure in the announcement of the result of the "increase campaign," showing 10,345 new societies and 1,000,000 new members. The California Union has undertaken the task of inning that State for Christ, and has sent out a call for 1,000 men and women to offer themselves for this work. Throughout the world there is marked evidence of greater activity on the part of the society.

NATATORUIM OPEN NIGTHS AT ASBURY

Plans have been made to again permit the late commuters to take a night bath at Asbury Park. This pleasure will be afforded next week when the new natatorium tank will be opened. Heat-stricken New Yorkers, who have been forced to cool off in the restrictions of a bath room, heard the announcement last night with marked signs of enthusiasm and yesterday morning there was a steady stream of wives and daughters at the bathing offices to reserve bath rooms for the season.

The tank will be kept open nightly until 10 o'clock. Tired commuters may be driven directly to the bathing pavilion, have a cool plunge and have their change of clothing sent to them.

Funeral of Miss Laing.

The funeral services of Miss Laura V. Laing, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Lewis Laing, were held at the late residence in Little Falls, Essex county, at 8 o'clock last night, and were in charge of Rev. F. L. Rounds, pastor of the M. E. church, where Miss Laing was an attendant. She retained her membership up to the time of her death in the DeKalb Avenue M. E. church, Brooklyn. The burial took place in the Methodist cemetery, this city, today.

Festival at Lutheran Church.

The Junior Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church held a successful ice cream and cake festival at the church yesterday afernoon and evening. The affair, which was in charge of the young boys of the society, was for the benefit of the church fund. There was a large attendance and a considerable sum was realized.

Loses Auto License by Lending It.

Charged with having loaned his number to Pennsylvania motorists, the registration and license of V. McFadden, of Camden, was revoked yesterday by State Motor Vehicle Commissioner J. B. R. Smith. The registration and license of Charles Lachner, of Irvington, was recalled for running over a boy in Newark.

Central Lodge, Nr. 48, A. O. U. W. will entertain Raritan Lodge, No. 6, of New Brunswick, this evening, when a return series of quoit pitching games will take place.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

GETS SEVEN YEARS FOR AN ATTEMPTED ASSAULT

Following his recent conviction, the first in Union county in which the fingerprint system of identification played a part in the decision of the jury, Vincenzio de Geralamo, recently found guilty of an attempted assault upon Mlle. Eugenie Giulanette, a French governess in the employ of W. F. Adams, in Summit, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Atwater, in the Court of Quarter Sessions, at Elizabeth, to a term of seven years in State's prison.

James A. Walsh, attorney for de Geralamo, took out a writ of error, and bail pending the outcome of the writ was placed at $4,000 by Judge Atwater, following a argument between Mr. Walsh and Assistant Prosecutor W. L. Hetfield, Jr. The former wanted Judge Atwater to fix bonds at $2,000.

Thomas A. Parrish, who was recently found guilty of retailing beer on a bottler's license which he held in Orange, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200. Parrish, according to estimony brought out at his trial recently, thought to evade the law by having the beer delivered by a regularly incorporated express company. All the officers of the concern, however, were members of Parish's immediate family and he himself was president and rode on the wagon when the deliveries were being mde.

Mr. Walsh also represented Parish and asked that the court show leniency in imposing sentence. He said that Parrish had no intention of breaking the law.

Mrs. Angelina Alonzo and Mrs. Annie Sepinni, indicted by the May Grand Jury on a charge of breaking, entering and larceny, in this city, were placed on probation for two years. Assistant Prosecutor W. L. Hetfield, Jr., recommended that the court show leniency, as he believed that the women had not intended to steal, and that they had always born excellent reputations. They had pleaded non vult to the indictments.

Antonio Cepinni retracted his plea of not guilty to a charge of perjury, for which he was indicted by the May Grand Jury, and substituted a plea of non vult.

On motion of Mr. Hetfield, Jr., sentence on Antony Patrick, a downtown saloonkeeper, recently found guilty of conducting a disorderly house, was postponed until July 26.

THREATEN TO LYNCH KIDNAPPER OF GIRL

Lynch law is threatened at Bayonne where several score of men and women yesterday actively renewed the search for 13-year-old Josie Lenard, who disappeared from her home at 58 East Twenty-second street, Bayonne, a month ago. The men do not disguise their intention of dealing summarily with the man or men who are believed to have kidnaped the girl, and the several suspects under arrest at police headquarters are closely guarded pending a hearing before Recorder Mars.

Seldom has Bayonne been so wrought up. Little Josie was the idol of the Polish settlement. She was the brightest scholar in the Sunday-school class at Mt. Carmel Polish Catholic church, Bayonne, and the sisters of the school are heartbroken over her misfortune. Every day the litnay is recited by the 1,200 children attending the school and a candle is kept lighted before the altar of the Virgin for Josie's return.

The girl but recently made her first communion. On the first Sunday of June she kissed her mother goodby and set out for church, one block away. She never returned. The large St. Bernard dog which had accompanied her on all occasions came back to the house alone.

DESERTER ESCAPES FROM RAHWAY'S JAIL

George W. Travis, of 2025 Pulaski street, Baltimore, a deserter from the United States Battleship Delaware, was arrested Tuesday night by Detective John Rothlin, of the Pennsylvania Railroad force, at Rahway, and was locked up at the police headquarters in Rahway, to await orders from the government at to where he should be sent. Yesterday when brought from the sleeping quarters in the basement, while Desk Sergeant Jacob Remer's back was turned, Travis ran to the back window and leaped to the ground, a distance of some eighteen feet, waded across the river and made his escape.

Travis was with the battleship Delaware in England during the coronation ceremonies and, getting intoxicated, it is alleged, failed to show up when the Delaware left English waters. He went to the American consul, who paid his passage back on the steamship St. Louis. He says that he was on his way to Baltimore when arrested by Detective Rothlin.

—When you want the choicest fresh vegetables patronize Neuman Bros. They will have a large and fine display for tomorrow's trade.

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.
Capital $100,000.00

BIG FISH DAY AT ROTH & CO.'S

FRIDAY, JULY 14

Fresh Caught Bluefish, Friday only, per lb - - - - - 8c

Fresh Caught Sea Bass, very choice 7c lb Very Fancy Porgies

Fancy Flounders, lb - - - 6c

Fresh Caught Weakfish 8c lb Fancy Butterfish

Fresh Caught Halibut, lb) - 12½c

Soft Shell Crabs Boston Mackerel
Very choice today

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

Haw hee! haw hee! haw hee! hee haw! I wish some of you howlers would hee haw, instead of howl, then get a pair of big ears. You would look so perfectly natural.

INCREASING.

On account of the extreme heat sending people from the City to the country, or my way. I have been compelled to add two more New York men to my Plainfield office and open up an office in New York.

A GOOD THING.

I admit I have made some miscalculations for this week, but that is on account of one of my barkers backing without cause, that is where a lawyer is a good thing. I can attend to my own business now. My other two backers had better look wise, too.

YOUR BUSINESS.

I can not see how Updike, without wearing a plug hat or an automobile to deceive the public can run such a business. But

CREDITORS PLEASE RISE.

I have a contract signed to be completed next Tuesday, 18th, after which I will be able to look you all square in the face.

MY TIME IS YOURS

D. Foster Updike

159 NORTH AVE. 'PHONE 1907

LIBERAL INTEREST PAID ON DEPOSITS

4% on SAVINGS ACCOUNTS

3% on CHECKING ACCOUNTS of $500 or more.

CITY NATIONAL BANK

Capital - - $150,000.00
Surplus and Profits - 280,000.00
(all earned)

PERSONAL.

Miss Minnie Lake, of West Front street, is spending a few days with relatives at Copper Hill.

Mrs. William Fisher, of Flemington, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. VanWinkle, of Sandford avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Rowland, of Stelle avenue, left yesterday for Point Pleasant, where they will remain for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. George VanNest and son, Ormond, of Mariners place, have arranged to spend several weks in a bungalow at Fairhaven.

The Misses Lucile and Margaret Ewart, of Fairview avenue, left this morning for Columbus, Ohio, from whence they will make a tour of the Great Lakes and the West.

James R. Blair, Adam C. Blair, Henry Nischwitz and Richard L. Bellis, of this city, left yesterday in an automobile for Atlantic City, to attend the convention of Elks.

Ida Randolph Smalley and her sister, Miss Pearl Randolph, of East Front street, are at Albany, N. Y., for a week and after leaving there will spend some time at Lake George.

Elizabeth's Troubles.

The Public Utilities Commission at Trenton, Tuesday listened to arguments by brief in the case of the Ceneral Railroad Company against the city of Elizabeth in the matter of the reduction of the speed of trains to six miles per hour while passing through the city and the elimination of grade crossing, on the Perth Amboy and Elizabethport branch. No decision was handed down by the commission, and it was intimated that it would take probably a month or six weeks before anything definite would be done.

Grocery Bulletin FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Fancy New Potatoes, pony basket	39c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 3 cans (tall)	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 6 cans (small)	25c
Hecker's Flour, per bag	85c
Pillsbury Flour, per bag	85c
Gold Medal Flour, per bag	85c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	80c
Family Flour, per bag	70c
Best Lard, 2 lbs	25c
Compound Lard, per lb	10c
Extra Fancy Head Rice, 3 lbs	25c
Old Dutch Cleanser, 3 cans	25c
Granulated Sugar, 5 lbs	29c
Karo Syrup, 3 cans	25c
Curtice Bros. Jams, per jar	15c
Kirkman's Soap, 10 bars	45c
Babbitt Soap, 10 bars	40c
Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 bars	45c
Breakfast Blend Coffee, per lb	25c
A Good Tea, per lb	25c
Hecker's Oats, 3 packages	25c
California Peaches, per can	15c
Florida Grape Fruit, 4 for	25c

We Give the S.H. Trading Stamps.

Fred. H. Firstbrook
116 W. Front St.
'Phone 1754

KEEP COOL—Go To BOYNTON BEACH
THE COOLEST PLACE IN NEW JERSEY
CHILDREN'S DAYS EVERY THURSDAY
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Allison Skipworth & Co., sketch, "The Woman Who Lived;" Valentine & Bell, Novelty Cyclists; The Four Summer Girls, Singing and Dancing; Joe Coveny, the Long Story Teller.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

Camp Ram's Horn

Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.

Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.

THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor,
Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

Potates Sarah.

Peel the raw potatoes, and with a very sharp knife cut them into the form of crockscrews, exactly as you would peel the skin off an apple. Fry in very hot fat, drain and season with salt and pepper, a little lemon juice and minced parsley.

JULY FOURTEENTH.

1818—General Nathaniel Lyon, civil war hero, born; killed at Wilson's Creek, Mo., 1861.

THE DAILY PRESS.

THE WEATHER.

Showers this afternoon and tonight; Saturday fair, moderate temperature.
Maximum, 91; minimum, 66.

Established May 10, 1887. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, JULY 14, 1911. Two Cents a Copy—$6 a Year.

5,000 ELKS PARADE

Great Demonstration of 'Best People on Earth' at Atlantic City.

SOME STRIKING COSTUMES.

Prize Winners Announced — 75,000 People, Mostly Wives and Families of Elks Witness the Big Pageant.

"Hello Bill" did himself proud yesterday at Atlantic City. The big parade of the Elks, which is always the crowning feature of each anual reunion was a huge success.

Including the bands, there were about 5,000 marchers in line. The parade covered three miles on Atlantic avenue, was viewed by a crowd estimated to number 75,000 and took one hour and forty minutes to pass the reviewing stand.

The prize winners are as follows:

Lodge having the largest number of men in line, aggregate milage considered, first prize, $250, Portland, Oregon, where the next convention it to be held; second, $100, New Orleans, of which Colonel John P. Sullivan, new grand exalted ruler, is a member; third, $50, St. Louis.

Lodge having the most beautiful banner, Philadelphia Lodge No. 2, $100. The banner was really a gorgeous affair, but many thought that the Philadelphians, who were garbed as Quakers, a la William Penn, and had thirty women in Quaker dress with them, were entitled to a prize on this account.

Lodge making the best appearance in uniform, first $250, St. Louis; second, $150, Elizabeth, N. J.; third, $100 Cincinnati, lodge of which retiring Grand Exalted Ruler August Herrmann is a member.

Lodge coming greatest distance, first, $150, Portland, Oregon; second, $50, New Orleans.

Lodge having the largest number of ladies in line, aggregate milage considered, first. $200, Portland, Oregon; second, $100, Cincinnati; third $50, Syracuse.

Lodge having the most attractive float first, $200, Orange, N. J.,; second, $100, Newport R. I.; third, $50, Portland, Oregon.

The Cincinnati lodge attired gorgeously as golf players, a tribute to President Taft, whose home is in that city; the Buffalo lodge, whose members were dressed as cowboys, even down to the dandy gun peeping from natty holsters; Boston, with a score of marchiers equipped as airships; Newport, R.I., with a float carrying a fifty-foot miniature battleship, perfect as to details; Elizabeth, N. J., with its band of Scottish Highlanders, and the living reproduction of "The Spirit of '76." by the White Plains, N. Y., lodge, all won great applause. But, of course, the judges cannot award any more prizes than those listed.

The reviewing stand was at Tennessee and Atlantic avenues, and there the parade was reviewed by Retiring Grand Exalted Ruler August Herrmann, Col. John P. Sullivan, his successor, and all the officers of the Grand Lodge. The end of the earth was represented in the parade. Elks coming all the way from Manila and San Juan, as well as the Pacific coast. One of the most impressive features of the parade occurred when the famous glee club of Columbus, O., lodge stopped in front of the reviewing stand and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," thousands of spectators uncovered their heads and then cheered as the club resumed its march.

Grand Esquire James R. Nicholson, of Springfield, Mass., was chief marshal of the parade and his chief aides were William J. Storck, of Atlantic City. Among their aides was Recorder of Deeds, William S. Vare, and he was cheered when he passed the reviewing stand.

The sturdy spirit of William Penn was manifest in the marching lines of Philadelphia Lodge No. 2. Seventy-two men, dressed in the Quaker garm of their city's founder, swung into line behind their band. In advance of the long column of sombre gray figures, marching with rhythmic motion, were three standard-bearers, one of them carrying the stars and stripes, the other bearing emblems of the Philadelphia lodge.

Atlantic City Lodge, No. 276, held the post of honor in the parade, acting as escort to Chief Marshal James R Nicholson. There were 200 men in line, wearing a uniform consisting of complete white flannel suits, white caps with purple bands and purple neckties. There were ten auto floats, loaded with a bevy of pretty women —wives or relations of the lodge members. The women were dressed in pure white and carried parasols of white and purple. The floats were arranged in tiers and the showing was impressive.

Harrisburg Lodge, No. 12 did itself proud in the parade. It muster-

(Continued on page 5.)

TROTTING AND PACING AT THE DRIVING PARK

Four trotting and pacing races with a large list of entries will be the events at the matinee given by the Plainfield Driving and Riding Association tomorrow afternoon at the Driving Park. The list of entries includes Aaron B, Strongheart, Ricard, Powder Boy, Review Bells and many other well known trotters and pacers. The racing will start at 2 o'clock. Admission free.

The complete list of entries is as follows:

2:16 Class—Aaron B, Strongheart, Ricard Powder Boy, Review Bells.

2:21 Class—Dr. Standel, Greenmore, Prince Maston, Peggy, Ben Webster, The Minister.

2:37 Class—Midnight Herr, Margart M., chestnut mare owned by Mr. Bornman.

2:50 Class—Bridget Ciarol, Asia, Floyd B.

TROLLEY CARS CRASH; NO SERIOUS DAMAGE

An eastbound car on the Netherwood line bumped in the rear of a main line car standing at East Fifth street and Franklin place Wednesday night, and gave the dozen passengers in the Netherwood car a severe shakeup, and one woman, who refused to give her name, but who lives in the vicinity of Franklin place, was pitched forward, striking her forehead on the window frame of the car.

Wesley Dunn attached to No. 4 engine house, who was a passenger on the car, assisted her from the car and she was then able to walk home. No one else was injured, neither were the cars damaged. The Netherwood car was in charge of Conductor Moore, and the motorman is said to have been a new man. It is reported that he has since been laid off.

In explaining the accident it was said that the main line car was standing at Fifth street and Franklin place to allow a passenger to alight, when the local trolley came along at a lively pace and owing to slippery tracks the motorman was unable to apply the breaks quick enough to prevent a collision.

As Netherwood line cars generally have the appearance of wrecks, it would have been difficult to determine whether any damage, were it possible, was done to the car.

GOES TO HER REWARD AT AGE OF 94 YEARS

Mrs. Mary Randolph-Harrington, one of the oldest residents of this city died today at the residence of Thomas S. Randolph, on Central avenue, in the ninety-fifth year of her age. Mrs. Harrington was born at New Brooklyn, on December 2, 1816, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitz Randolph, of that place.

She was married to Jubal Harrington, who died many years ago. Mrs. Harrington had always lived in this vicinity. She was a member of the Seventh-Day Baptist church from girlhood and always took a lively interest in the affairs of the church. She was sister of Mrs. Rudolph M. Titsworth.

Among those surviving are three cousins, Mrs. Jane L. Dunham, Mrs. J. Frank Hubbard and David L. Randolph, of this city, and Arthur L. Titsworth, of this city, a nephew. The notice of funeral will be given later.

MRS. HENNESS' BODY INTERRED AT HILLSIDE.

Mrs. Jennie Henness, formerly of this city, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kronimus, in Elizabeth, Tuesday night, was buried in Hillside cemetery today, the funeral service having been held at the home of the daughter last night. Mrs. Henness had been ill for sometime and the recent heat wave hastened her end.

Mrs. Henness was fifty-nine years old, and was well-known here. She was a granddaughter og Gen. James Armstrong, of the English army, and was also related to the Armstrongs, of England, maunfacturer of firearms. She resided here a number of years. Five years ago she removed to Elizabeth. Three daughters survive, the Misses Lillian and Emily Etmer and Mrs. Charles V. Kronimus, of Elizabeth.

—The Bread that stood the test of the hot weather; uniform, sanitary and good. O-X-O. ***

—Watch for Neuman Bros. great display of fresh vebetables tomorrow. It will include everything that one could possibly wish for and the best obtainable.

EXTRA TESTS TO FILL ELECTION BOARD JOBS

In addition to the regular examinations in the several counties for positions as election officers under the new Geran law, the New Jersey Civil Service Commission has arranged for two additional examinations. One of these, for candidates from the northern section of the State, will be held at Pohlman's hall, Jersey City, Monday, July 24. The other, for candidates from the southern part of the State, will be held at Camden, July 27.

The commission has discovered that as a result of the examinations already held, many election districts will be left without a full complement of election officers, thus necessitating numerous appointments by the court. The two additional examinations will be open only to candidates who have already been nominated, but who have not taken any of the pervious examinations. It is hoped by the commission that in this way most of the threatened vacancies may be filled.

TOWNSHIP COMMITTEE HOLD A BUSY MEETING

At the meeting of the North Plainfield township committee yesterday afternoon, the offer of the Improvement Society of that place to rent offices for the township committee, collector and justice of the peace, to the township for $100 a year was accepted after a heated discussion. Several of the members of the ruling body of the township considered that this price was too much. But Mayor Anderson pointed out that light, heat and janitor service were included in this offer so that the deal was closed.

Ordinances pertaining to the government of the township were passed through their first and second readings. Justice of the Peace Geo. T Hughes was appointed to be township judge to try all cases of violation of township ordinances.

The report of George Mobus, the clerk, showed that many dogs in the township had not been licensed. The police were instructed by the committee to investigate and summon any delinquent by next week to court.

John Mobus, overseer of the poor, reported that he had succeeded in relieving the community of the support of two families. Routine business was transacted and several bills were ordered paid.

Mrs. Rhoda Noel's Funeral.

The funeral service for Mrs. Rhoda Noel was held yesterday afternoon at her late residence on Netherwood avenue and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. Rev. Royal A. Stout, pastor of the Netherwood Reformed church, officiated and interment was made in Hillside cemetery. A number of floral tributes manifested the esteem in which the departed was held by her extensive acquaintance and the grief her going has caused. The pallbearers were Jacob Voehl, Jr., John King, William Banks, George Perrine, John VanNess and John Staats.

Building Code Changes.

The councilmanic fire and building committee has under consideration suggestions for making a further amendment to the new building code, whereby it will not be compulsory for those living outside of the fire limits to construct their garages strictly of fireproof material. It is argued that in the outlaying districts it is not absolutely necessary to construct the buildings of such materials, at a great expense, and the committee will probably make some minor changes in the code to relieve the situation.

Polish Dancers at Proctor's.

The Polish dancers appearing at Proctor's theatre this week are about the best of all similar acts seen at this popular playhouse. They appear in native costume and their dancing is truly wonderful. Alison Skipworth & Co. present an excellent dramatic sketch of stage life, entitled "The Woman Who Lived," telling a powerful story of life. Valentine & Bell, in a clever novelty bicycle act, are unusually good. Joe Coveny, the tall tale bearer, is there with plenty of good jokes.

William T. Loizeaux.

William T. Loizeaux, aged 12 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Daniel Loizeaux, of 442 West Sixth street, died last night. The funeral service will be held at the home of the parents, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Marion Rudd, the housekeeper at Muhlenberg Hospital, accompanied by her daughter, has gone away on her vacation.

R. H. DEPEW WEDS

Miss Margaret Manning Drayton His Bride at Grace Church Chantry.

THEIR HONEYMOON ABROAD.

He is President of the State Trust Company and is Active in Civic Affairs—His Bride is Prominent in Society.

Mrs. Margaret Manning Drayton, of 982 Hillside avenue, and Richard Henry Depew, of 1019 Hillside avenue, were quietly married this afternoon at Grace church chantry, Broadway and Tenth street, New York. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Melville Knox Bailey, one of the curates. Only a few relatives and intimate friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Depew will leave New York tomorrow on the Amerika of the Hamburg-American line to spend their honeymoon in Europe. They will return during the latter part of September.

Mr. Depew is president of the State Trust Company, of this city, and is also president of the Plainfield Protective Association, a civic organization. Until recently he was president of the People's Lobby of New Jersey. He has always taken an active interest in political affairs. Under the firm name of Abram See & Depew, he conducts what is one of the largest insurance businesses in New York. His bride is prominent here in social affairs.

WOODHOUSE HELPS BABY CAMP'S FUND

Robert C. Woodhouse agent for the DeTamble car, made a sale this morning and straightway he hied himself to The Daily Press office. "One good turn deserves another," said the auto agent as he produced a crisp five dollar bill with a request that it be added to the Baby Camp fund. His contribution brings the total up to $70.00.

If you have not given your mite already this summer to this deserving charity, your opportunity is presented. Send your check to The Daily Press—it will be promptly acknowledge in these columns and just as promptly transmitted to the Baby Camp committee, where it will be gladly welcomed as there is dire need for ready cash to meet current expenses.

Received today:

Robert C. Woodhouse, ...	$5.00
Previously acknowledged:
C. J. F.....	$25.00
Anonymous	$20.00
John W. Murray	$10.00
Woman's Christian Work Society 7th Day Baptist Church.	5.00
From a Friend	5.00

LIGHTNING STUNNED A POLISH LABORER

Charles Market, aged about 40 years, a Polish laborer, was severely stunned by a flash of lightning while crossing a vacant field between Front street and Lehigh ave., South Plainfield, at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The man was knocked down by the effects of the shock and when picked up by some neighbors was in a semi-conscious condition. The lower part of his body appeared to be paralyzed and he was unable to walk.

Market was carried to the porch of Charles H. Thornton's hotel, and the ambulance from this city was summoned to remove the man to Muhlenberg Hospital. Before he was taken from South Plainfield Market fully regained consciousness and his general condition did not seem to be so serious.

The victim was employed by Milton Mendil, of Holly Park, and was engaged with a large gang of men cutting a new street through a tract of land near Park avenue. It was while returning to work that the man was stricken. He is unmarried.

REFUSE CARNEGIE'S GIFT.

Pensacola Turns Down $25,000, Saying It Is "Tainted."

Pensacola, Fla., July 14.—The city Council Wednesday night refused to appropriate money for the maintenance of a Carnegie public library. The philanthropist has offered $25,000 if Pensacola would raise one-tenth of that amount.

The people turned down the proposition several weeks ago on a referendum vote. The argument was advanced that Carnegie's money was "tainted."

CONCRETE STRUCTURES AT THE RUTGERS FARM

Modern concrete buildings are to take the places of the wooden structures at the Rutgers College farm, which was destroyed by fire Tuesday. This statement was made yesterday by Dr. Jacob G. Lipman, the acting director of agriculture in this State. The fire caused a loss of $25,000 in buildings, cattle and feed.

The concrete structures will be built separately so that repetition of Tuesday's disastrous fire will be impossible. The money for the new buildings will come from the insurance carried on the old structures and new appropriations, which will be asked for from the State legislature.

On account of the fire, the annual farmers' field day which was to have been held at the college farm, August 2, will take place probably on the estate of State Senator Frelinghuysen, at Raritan. Prof. F. C. Minkler, the superintendent of the farm, who was overcome by heat, at the fire Tuesday, is much improved today.

NO ICE FAMINE HERE LOCAL DEALERS SAY

While many cities in New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania are in danger of an ice famine with every rise in temperature and while riots and struggles for the frozen water have taken place in several places during the recent hot spell, the residents of Plainfield may rest comfortable, assured that no such dangers threaten this city. At no time during the last heat wave was there a chance of ice shortage here for the icemen were working day and night to supply the wants of the many.

According to the officers of the Plainfield Ice and Supply Company there is no danger of a famine in this city because the supply is large enough for the demand. The artificial ice plant on Madison avenue is capable of turning out fifty tons a day, while there is an abundant supply of the natural product stored in the Watchung Lake houses. The company was obliged to use this winter ice only during one week of the hot weather and then it was sold only to wholesale users. The artificial ice is sold entirely for domestic purposes when the heat was so intense.

Despite the fact that nearly one hundred and fifty tone of ice were supplied by this company on the hottest days and the capacity of the artificial plant was only fifty tons, no thoughts of a shortage were given on account of the abundance of the natural ice.

Boy's Arm Broken.

Charles Kenney, aged thirteen years, of New York, who is staying at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, yesterday where he will receive treatment for a broken arm. The accident happened in New York some months ago and the boy's arm was set at a New York hospital. Since coming to Plainfield some trouble developed and an examination showed that the arm is not set straight. Today local physicians will make an X-ray examination and it is possible that the arm may have to be broken again and reset.

Going to Nova Scotia.

Freeholder and Mrs. J. Hervey Doane and daughter, Miss May Doane, of East Seventh street, will leave Monday for their summer home at Barrington, Nova Scotia. They will make the trip by boat, going by the way of Boston and Yarmouth. They will be away until the latter part of August. Mr. Doane has not been feeling well of late and he hopes that the change will be beneficial.

Held a Lawn Festival.

Under the auspices of the choir boys of ethel chapel and the direction of Charles VanHorn, organist and choirmaster, a lawn festival was held at the chapel, last night. The grounds were attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns and bunting. Ice cream, cake and lemonade were sold, and everything was disposed of during the evening. The proceeds will be used for choir purposes.

Crack Pool Players to Meet.

Joe Concannon, of Perth Amboy, said to be one of the best pool players in this State, will meet Robert Naylon, the local crack player, at the pool parlors of Amos B. Stites, 19 Somerset street, tonight. Mr. Concannon will play 200 and Mr. Naylon 150. All interested are invited to witness the match.

College Head to Preach.

Rev. Dr. R. M. Stevens, President of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah, will occupy the pulpit at Hope chapel on Sunday.

DRIVING PONY CART STRUCK BY BICYCLIST

While at Asbury Park with the Methodists' excursion yesterday Clarence Skiff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Skiff, of West Seventh street, had a narrow escape from injury while enjoying one of the pleasures of the resort. He was riding through the town in a pony cart hired on the beach. At Kingsley street he was run into by Frank Brown, of Asbury Park, riding a bicycle, and both boys were spilled into the street. The bicycle and cart were both damaged and the pony taking fright, kicked itself free from the demolished cart and ran away.

Bystanders picked the lads up. After recovering from their fright and ascertaining that neither had been injured, the youths caught the pony and took it back to the owner. Several witnesses accompanied young Skiff to explain the accident.

HORSE SALE ENDED IN THE POLICE COURT

A horse sale case, which has concerned the city police for sometime and which will require still more investigation before a satisfactory solution is reached, was explained by Chief Kiely at police headquarters this morning. The tangle grew out of the alleged hiring of a black horse to Joe Cisco by Amanda Wolff, of Bradford place. Wolff hired the horse to Cisco early in June and on July 6 is is alleged, the latter sold it for $18 to Herman Mintz, of West Third street. Next day Mintz sold it to David Meyerowitz, of New Brunswick, for $25.

Wolff learned of the sale to Mintz but did not know that he had sold the horse to Meyerowitz and told the police to arrest Cisco. When this request was being complied with it was learned that with the $18 he had received for the horse, Cisco had decamped. When Mintz bought the horse it was in good faith and he said that Wolff knew of the sale at the time it was made. Wolff disclaimed all knowledge of the sale until some days later and was at police headquarters this morning claiming ownership of the horse from Meyerowitz, who is now looking to Mintz for a return of the sale price which Mintz the real complainant against Cisco who the police are still looking for.

MISS CHANDOR WEDS GEORGE DICKENSON

Announcements have been received by friends here and elsewhere of the marriage of Miss Alice M. Chandor, daughter of Mrs. A. A. Chandor, formerly of East Ninth street, this city, and George Dickenson, of Irvington-on-th-Hudson. The marriage took place at Jersey City on Saturday last and was a quiet affair, only the necessary witnesses being present. The bride was formerly well known here, being prominent in local society affairs. The family removed from this city to New York about five years ago.

Mr. Dickenson, the groom, it is said, is a cousin of the bride and also a divorced man, and for this reason some little difficulty was experienced in getting married. The couple finally went to Jersey City, where the ceremony was performed. Mr. Dickenson is known here, where he frequently visited the Chandors at their home on East Ninth street. He is engaged in business in New York, where he and his bride will reside.

CHILDREN STARTED FIRE CAUSING MUCH ANXIETY.

What might have been a disastrous fire was started by some children playing in the yard of Jacob Sklarew on Duer street yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock. The prompt arrival of the borough fire department prevented the destruction of the Sklarew property, and several neighboring houses from being totally destroyed.

The children built a bon fire beneath the porch of Mr. Sklarew's house and the flames soon caught the lattice work on the veranda. A telephone message was sent to the borough fire headquarters and then someone pulled box 152. The firemen quickly put out the blaze with a hose from the chemical wagon. The damage will amount to about $50.

—Use Press want ads.

—Neuman Bros. will have for tomorrow's trade a large assortment of delicious canteloupes and choice peaches, the finest in the market. Prices reasonable.

ITALIANS ORGANIZE

The American Civic Club Has Its Headquarters on East Third Street.

ALBERT COLLETA IS PRESIDENT

Evening Classes for Study of English Language a Feature—Twenty-five Sign the Charter Roll.

An important step toward the advancement of Italian citizenship was taken last night when an Italian American Civic Club, the only one of its kind in the State, was started in this city. The new organization will occupy a well equipped clubhouse on East Third street, where the meeting was held last night, at which over a hundred Italians were present.

The primary object of the club is to establish a school for training in American citizenship, to develop the Italian young men of this city and vicinity, intellectually, socially and morally. The clubhouse is intended for a social center where the young sons of Sunny Italy can gather and spend their time in a proper and profitable manner.

Twenty-five members were enrolled on the charter list with Albert Coletta as president of the society. Edward Yanotta was elected treasurer and E. Venga, secretary. The clubhouse is to be fitted up with a reading room, in which there will be all the latest periodicals, magazines and newspapers, rooms for religious and educational classes and a room for commodious baths.

Three evening classes are to be held during the week for the study of the English language, which will be taught by Theodore Boretty, the leader of the First Presbyterian church Italian mission. In addition to the educational classes there will be Bible classes and religious services on Sundays. The officers of the organization are now at work in order to start an employment bureau for Italians and it is expected that this feature of the club will be inaugurated within the next fortnight.

Herbert E. Parker, secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. made a speech during the evening in which he pointed out three ways in which the club could accomplish its purpose. The first of these should be to give an opportunity to the young Italian men of the city to spend their leisure time properly and thus fit them better for their work. By the correct methods, the club should kindle the fires of a ture and lofty patriotism in every member of the organization, this being the second way which Mr. Parker emphasized and through this a true citizenship should be attained. The third method, as pointed out by the speaker, was to remove racial prejudice, which could only be done by creating good citizenship among the Italians and proving it to the residents of the city.

A striking contrast between the living conditions of Italians and Americans was pictured to the audience by Theodore Boretty, who addressed his countrymen in their native tongue. His speech was based on the three principles of the society and he declared that these three ideals, if followed out, would greatly improve the conditions of the Italians in this city. Mr. Boretty said that the club should awaken the Italians out of their lethargy into a consciousness of their civic opportunities and obligations. He urged the members to be true to the triple aim of the organization and in pointing to the pictures of Columbus, Dante, Cavour, Mazzini, Garibaldi, the five greatest Italians, and George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, the two heroes of American history, which hung on the wall, he emplored his fellow countrymen to let the lives of these noble characters inspire them to begin a new era.

F. A. Duttenhofer, chairman of the Italian mission committee of the First Presbyterian church, and Albert Coletta, president of the new club, also gave short talks in which they extolled the aims of the organization and its opportunities.

Following the speeches, a musical program of mandolin, guitar and vocal selections was enjoyed after which refreshments were served. The committee in charge of the social exercises was composed entirely of the young Italians.

Annual Union Excursion.

The annual excursion of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, which is a union outing, will be held at Bellwood Park, Thursday, August 10. the churches uniting include St. James, Thirteenth Avenue Presbyterian, S. John's M. E., and Pennington Street M. E. churches, of Newark; Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, this city; St. Thomas, of Westfield; St. Mark's, of Cranford, together with churches from Rahway, Elizabeth and New Brunswick. The trip will be made from here to Bound Brook by trolley, starting at 9 o'clock.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

THE GREAT JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Important for Saturday's Business

In this JULY CLEARANCE SALE there is to be offered hundreds of special values in all departments that space will not permit us to quote. Don't fail to look through the various stocks in the store and save money.

SHEET MUSIC SPECIAL—All the popular Sheet Music for 10c copy; values up to 23c

EMBROIDERIES.
35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c
10c embroideries for....5c
20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for....10c
25c nainsook, 36 inch wide, for 18c
20c white goods, checks and figures 10c
49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c
69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c
$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers....89c
$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 75c

CORSETS.
$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c
$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c
$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49
50c Ladies' Gloves....25c

WASH GOODS.
9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c
12½c percales for 9c
10c and 12c printed lawns..7c
25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for....15c
50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c
15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c
$1.50 Rugs for 98c
$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.
Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.
35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF
$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50
$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c
$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for....$2.98
$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for....$7.50
$25.00 White Serge Suits for....$15.00
$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50
Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.
$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for....$4.49
$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for....$2.98
50c Men's Fine Hose for....25c
59c Men's Negligee Shirts for....39c
25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for....12½c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.
25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.
15c Misses' Hose....10c
15c Boys' Hose....10c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c
25c Huck Towels for....15c
12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c
25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c
59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c
12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.
69c Cotton Diaper....49c
12½c Pillow Cases....9c
22c Table Oilcloth for....15c
$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c
$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

Grocery Bulletin
FOR FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Fancy New Potatoes, pony basket	39c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 3 cans (tall)	25c
Peerless Evaporated Milk, 6 cans (small)	25c
Hecker's Flour, per bag	85c
Pillsbury Flour, per bag	85c
Gold Medal Flour, per bag	85c
Ceresota Flour, per bag	80c
Family Flour, per bag	70c
Best Lard, 2 lbs	25c
Compound Lard, per lb	10c
Extra Fancy Head Rice, 3 lbs	25c
Old Dutch Cleanser, 3 cans	25c
Granulated Sugar, 5 lbs	29c
Karo Syrup, 3 cans	25c
Curtice Bros. Jams, per jar	15c
Kirkman's Soap, 10 bars	45c
Babbitt Soap, 10 bars	40c
Fels Naphtha Soap, 10 bars	45c
Breakfast Blend Coffee, per lb	25c
A Good Tea, per lb	25c
Hecker's Oats, 3 packages	25c
California Peaches, per can	15c
Florida Grape Fruit, 4 for	25c

We Give the S.&H. Trading Stamps.

Fred. H. Firstbrook
116 W. Front St.
'Phone 1754

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

The captain of a lighter saved his two children from drowning in New York.

The condition of John W. Gates, who is ill in Paris, was said to be unchanged.

Thirty Maderists and five federal soldiers were reported killed in a fight at Puebla, Mexico.

Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of War, arrived at Colon, to inspect the Panama Canal.

Civil guards in Saragoss, Spain, fired upon strikers, killing five persons and wounding many others.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art, of New York, announced many important acquisitions both by purchase and gift.

Mayor Gaynor joined with other city officials in refusing to accept Interborough demands for a 9 per cent. guarantee.

Edward, the oldest son of King George, was invested as the Prince of Wales, in Carnarvon Castle, Carnarvon, Wales.

Ice dealers, in alarm at the police and District Attorney's investigation of their methods, in New York, made a large addition to their supply.

A memorial tablet to William Penn was unveiled in the Church of All Hallows, London, the ceremony being followed by a banquet in Stafford House.

The House of Lords concluded the report stage of the veto bill, and the measure is expected to go to the House of Commons with the amendments unmodified.

Subpoenas were served on former officials of the closed Union Bank, in New York, for the State Banking Department's inquiry which begins on Monday.

An automobile owned by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burneee was run down by a trolley car and two persons were killed and three badly injured in New York.

W. E. D. Stokes's assailants will venture into vaudeville; the detectives suspended because of the missing letters were placed on trial at New York Police Headquarters.

Congress.—Senate: Senators La Follette and Bristow attacked the Canadian reciprocity agreement and President Taft's course in connection with it. The House was not in session.

The chief clerk at Quarantine testified that records had not been kept of disbursements of $250,000, that a defalcation had not been reported, and that certain records had disappeared.

Evelyn Arthur See, founder of the "Absolute Life" cult, was convicted of abducting Mildred Bridges, seventeen years old, and a member of the cult, bya Chicago jury after an hour's deliberation.

Governor Deneen, of Illinois, testifying before the Lorimer investigating committee of the Senate, contradicted the testimony of Edward Hines, who said that President Taft favored the election of Lorimer.

Three revenue officers and twenty-one officers and employes of butterine manufacturers were arrested in Chicago, charged with conspiracy to defraud the government out of the butterine tax; the government is said to have lost thousands of dollars by the alleged frauds.

A dispatch from Minneapolis stated that the entire assets of F. N. Peavey & Co., approximating $4,700,000 had been temporarily turned over to the Minneapolis Trust Company to secure the indebtedness of the F. H. Peavey Company, and that it was believed all the creditors would get full value of their obligations.

BUT ONE PASSES STATE EXAM.

The only candidate who successfully passed the civil service examinations for the position of game warden in Union county was Andrew E. Larney, of Irvington. He will be certified to the Fish and Game Commission as eligible for the place.

Mr. Larney resides at 62 Park avenue, Irvington, and is a member of the Democratic County Committee from the First Ward, that town. He is also secretary of the Democratic Ceneral Committee of Irvington.

Commission Govt. Advocates Busy.

Rahway, July 14.—Special emissaries visited the various churches at prayer service Wednesday night and also the various brotherhoods of the city asking members and others if they favored a commission form of government in Rahway. All who said they did were invited to attend a meeting to be held in the Lyric Theatre, Cherry street, next Monday night, where prominent speakers will be present. This is the outgrowth of a meeting held at Herald Square last Monday evening when leading steps were taken toward organization and which will undoubtedly be completed at the coming session. Printed slips have been circulated by one of Rahway's papers during the past three months intended for the use of all who favorevd the new movement. It is expected that a large attendance will be present.

—Use Press want ads.

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and Agents. 10c a week.

CITY.
Wagner & Moorhouse,
The City Market, 125 North Ave.
[illegible] Clevely....157 North Ave.
[illegible] & Co....216 Watchung Ave.
[illegible] Burns....212 Watchung Ave.
[illegible] Moledesky....247 West Front St.
Mrs. M. Jenson....657 West Fourth St.
Union News Co....R. R. Station
J. C. Field, Jr....411 Park Ave.
[illegible] Laing....149 W. Front St.
[illegible] Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
[illegible]....111 Park Ave.
[illegible] & Stahl....112 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead....331 Watchung Ave.
[illegible] Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
[illegible]..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.
Dunellen....R. Peters
New Market....Coriell
Bound Brook....Union News Co.
Somerville....Jacob Genert
Westfield....[illegible] Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield....L. Glasser
Scotch Plains....Frank Anson
South Plainfield....Hamilton
Fanwood....Frank Anson
Netherwood....W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

A large number of the members of Washington Camp, No. 98 and several of the other camps of the P. O. S. of A. attended the meeting in the local lodge rooms last night. State President Rees, of the order, was present and made an enthusiastic addres. Delegates from Raritan, New Brunswick, Plainfield, South Plainfield, Metuchen and Perth Amboy attended the meeting. Refreshments were served after the speechs.

A movement is on foot to have the stores of the borough close Wednesday afternoons during July and August. Since the shops are forced to shut on Sunday, it is doubtful whether the project will pass the majority of the merchants. In case that such a measure is adopted, the Dunellen storekeepers would be able to have a good half holiday during the week as Saturday afternoon is usually their busiest time.

Richard Pennock, of the borough, and fourteen boys from the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. left Plainfield early yesterday morning for Lake Wawayanda, where they will spend some time at the Y. M. C. A. state camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall, of New Market, who were recently married, have returned to New Market after their honeymoon. Mr. Hall is station agent for the Lehigh Valley railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. George Firstbrook, of Westfield, are visiting this week at the home of Captain and Mrs. Benjamin Cole, of Washington avenue.

Miss Sarah Cole leaves tomorrow for Ocean Grove, where she will spend a few days with her parents.

Harry Dodwell has returned to his work at the Pond Tool Company plant after a short vacation.

SOMERVILLE.

The young girls of the Red Cross Society cleared $18.65 by their recent sale of home-made cake and candy on the lawn of the Second Reformed church. The proceeds have been turned over to the treasurer of the Somerset County Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Case and daughter Alletta are guests of Mr. Case's mother, Mr. James U. Case, at Lake Hopatcong.

Jacques Vanderbeek has resigned as street supervisor and Jacob Klotz has been appointed temporarily in his place.

Misses Leona and Emma Mason and Luther Mason, of North Grove street, have returned from the Catskills.

C. R. Vanderveer and family have gone to Asbury Park, where they expect to spend the summer.

Miss Mary Griggs is spending a week with some college friends at Glen Summit, Pa.

J. Ross Lake and Jacob H. Gernort are spending a week traveling through Connecticut.

Dr. B. F. Seaman and family, accompanied by Roy Anderson, have gone to Matteawan.

Miss Minnie E. Coddington, of North Grove street, is staying at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Henry Reimers, of East Main street, is spending a month at Asbury Park.

Walter Barnes is on a two weeks' vacation at Camp Onaway, Lake Hopatcong.

Mrs. George A. West and Miss Ella West are spending a week at Oean Grove.

Lawrence O'Donnell and family are at Atlantic City.

Raymer Veghte has sailed for Havana.

BRADLEY DEMOLISHES A CARNIVAL FLOAT.

Asbury Park, July 14.—The carnival commission is indignant at the action of Founder James A. Bradley, whose workmen Wednesday demolished a float which hed been built along Deal Lake for the accommodation of those who attended the moonlight carnival on the lake Tuesday night. The float cost the commission $180 and it is a total wreck.

The float was built in front of the athletic grounds, which are owned by Mr. Bradley. Permission for its erection was given the carnival commission by E. A. Harvey, the manager of the athletic grounds. The members of the commission did not think it necessary to see Mr. Bradley in the matter, believing that the permission obtained from Mr. Harvey was all that was necessary. Mr. Bradley, however, took a different view of the case.

He ordered his foreman to take a gang of men to the shores of Deal Lake and demolish the float. When members of the carnival commission heard of this action they protested, but in vain, and all they could do was to stand idly by and see the work of demolition go on. They were even refused the wreckage, it is said.

Mr. Harvey disclaims all responsibility for Mr. Bradley's action.

ADMIRAL COMLY PUT ON RETIRED LIST.

Washington, July 14.—Rear-Admiral Samuel P. Comly, a native of New Jersey, who has been commandant of the Philadelphia Navy Yard and president of the general court-martial board there, was placed on the naval retired list for the maximum age of sixty-two years yesterday.

Admiral Comly entered the Naval Academy from New Jersey in 1867. On leaving the academy he was on the Juniata, which cruised the Northern waters in search of the Polaris. The expedition was out more than a year, officers and crew suffering heavily from cold and hunger. During the Spanish-American War he was navigator of the battleship Indiana, which figured in the naval fighting in Cuban waters.

Upon being promoted to captain he commanded the battleship Alabama, on which he made the tour of the world with the battleship fleet. He was then promoted to rear-admiral in October, 1900, shortly after which he was given a division in the fleet. He was promoted to the command of the second squadron, from which he was detached at his own request last October. Since then he has been on duty at Philadelphia.

PUBLIC SERVICE WON'T PAVE; TOWN RETALIATES.

"We can't do it this year," said General Edwin W. Hine Wednesday night to Councilman Alfred B. Anderson, of Kearny, when referring to a request from the Kearny Town Council, that the Public Service Railway co-operate immediately in the paving of Kearny avenue and Elm street. The upshot of the refusal was the passage of a resolution by the council demanding that the trolley company carry out the provisions of its franchise by repairing Kearny avenue its entire width, from Midland avenue to Belleville turnpike and the roadway between and eighteen inches outside of the tracks from Midland avenue to the Fourth street railroad bridge.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.
TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

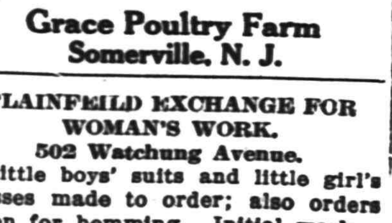
FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

KOLB'S SATURDAY SPECIALS

COCOANUT KISSES, lb....18c
AFTER LUNCH MINTS, lb....18c
MOLASSES KISSES, lb....18c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box....25c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box....25c

We carry all the leading kinds of Ice Cream, Water Ices and Sundaes. Our new Ice Cream Parlor, which was recently completed, is the coolest place in town. Ice Cream orders in any quantity always receive our prompt attention. Give us a trial and convince yourself.

KOLB'S, 112 WEST FRONT ST.

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.


Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173,
Scotch Plains, N. J

O-X-O BREAD
Is Sold in 72 Plainfield Grocery Stores. Get One and Know the Reason.

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

PLAINFEILD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.
502 Watchung Avenue.
Little boys' suits and little girl's dresses made to order; also orders taken for hemming. Initial work a specialty. Tea served from 3 to 5 p. m.

Toilet Tissue Paper, 1,000 sheets to the roll; regular 5c value; sale, roll............3c (Limit 6 rolls).

More For Your Money at—

Tepper's

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Ramonie Batiste, good selection of light or dark styles; regular 12½c; clearance sale, yard 9c

In Planning This July Clearance Sale Our Aim Was to Make It the Greatest Money-Saving Event of the Year

And that we've succeeded in our ambition and even exceeded the high mark we aimed at was amply demonstrated by the enthusiastic buying of the past few days.

Shoppers who came merely to compare prices were immediately convinced that this is the real bonafide money saving stock clearing event of the entire year. The goods are so fresh, so new, so perfect, so thoroughly in accord with present modes and fashions that many wondered why we should reduce the price so recklessly when the season is only half over.

ANOTHER LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES, ABOUT 100; VALUES UP TO $1.98; JULY SALE 98c

This is manufacturers clean up time; they cut up all surplus stocks of piece goods and make them up into the best selling styles for clearance sale; in this way they close out their stocks and the retailer procures good, desirable bargains to offer the public; this second lot of 100 dresses is different from the first lot; the styles are all good, the values run from $1.69 to $2.25; sizes 2 to 5 and 6 to 14. every size in the lot but not in every style; July sale.....98c

A SECOND LOT OF MISSES' DRESSES, VALUES UP TO $3.98; JULY SALE..$1.98

Did you see the first lot last week? They sold completely out by Saturday morning and those who waited for this second lot will be delighted with this assortment; the styles are pretty, materials that give satisfaction; about 8 styles in all; some in several colors, giving you about 65 dresses to choose from; values are up to $3.98 easily; July sale........$1.98

(Sizes 15, 16 and 18 for misses and small women).

BOYS' WASH SUITS—CLEAN UP OF A LEADING MAKE; VALUES UP TO $2.98 —JULY SALE $1.19

This is the best bargain in good wash suits we have even seen; we closed out from a well known manufacturer his entire sample line, consisting of about 350 boys' colored wash suits, and divided them in our two stores; the 150 for this store are in and assorted in piles by sizes to make choosing easy; not one suit in the lot is worth les than $1.75 and from that up to $2.98. So we certainly feel justified in saying that it's the best bargain we have ever seen in boys' wash suits; ages 2 to 7; July sale $1.19

GOOD NEWS FOR MEN. PLAIN AND FANCY SOISETTE SHIRTS, $1.25 QUALITY; JULY SALE 89c

About 10 dozen men's soisette shirts in plain and stripes. We closed out one-fourth off, and place on sale in the same way; the make is the well known Wellington Brand, with double cuffs; soisette is the coolest summer shirt, and deserves its popularity; sizes 14 to 17; $1.25 quality; July sale 89c.

KENDALL STATE SCHOOLS HEAD

Trenton, July 14.—Announcement was made at the executive department yesterday that Calvin Noyes Kendall, Superintendent of Schools of Indianapolis, had accepted the position for Commissioner of Education of New Jersey, recently tendered him by Governor Wilson. Mr. Kendall was in Trenton last Monday and at the time virtually assured the Governor that he would accept the position. Formal announcement of the fact, however, was withheld until the receipt of Mr. Kendall's final decision.

As commissioner of education Mr. Kendall will succeed Charles J. Baxter, formerly State superintendent of public instruction, as the virtual head of the publis school system of this State. The position was created under one of the Frelinghuysen acts of last winter and the salary is $10,000 a year.

Before deciding to name Mr. Kendall it is known that Governor Wilson considered a number of persons who he thought might be available for the position. It is also known that several of those under consideration were asked whether they would accept the position in the event of its being formally tendered to them. In securing the services of Mr. Kendall, Governor Wilson believes that he has selected a man fully equipped by training and experience for the important post he is soon to fill.

Calvin Noyes Kendall was born in Augusta, N. Y., February 8, 1858. He is the son of Leonard J. and Sarah M. Kendall. He received from Hamilton College the A. B. and LL. D. degrees and the honorory degree A. M. from Yale and University of Michigan. On June 30, 1891, he married Miss Alla P. Field, of Jackson, Mich.

For three years he taught in private schools in the West. In 1885-6 he was principal of the Jackson High School, was the superintendent of schools there in 1886-90 and head of the schools in Saginaw, Mich, 1890-2.

After spending three years in business he became superintendent of schools in New Haven, Conn, 1895-1900.

Mr. Kendall was lecturer in the summer school of the University of Chicago in 1909; president of the Connecticut Council of Education, 1897-8, of Connecticut Sate Teachers' Association 1899-1900, and of Southern Indiana Teachers' Association 1904-5.

Mr. Kendall was also a member of the commission of three appointed by the United States commissioner of education to investigate and report upon the Baltimore schools during the spring of this year.

Mr. Kendall was recently offered the superintendency of schools at Washington, Louisville and Rochester, but declined in each instance.

Fishing Note.

Weakfish are bitting better this season than ever before at Keyport. Reports from Gross' tell of a party in one boat getting 113 in the forenoon Wednesday and two others landing sixty-three and twenty-four each.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

Not Open Friday Night. Close at 1 p. m. Saturday.

BAMBERGER'S
THE ALWAYS BUSY STORE
MARKET & HALSEY STS.

Women's and Misses' Dollar Oxford Sale

The big dollar sale is a distinct success. We knew it would be when we first told the story of this wonderful purchase. We realized how good these shoes were, and we knew that you would not be long finding out about this sale. We have devoted much extra floor space to this event, and we have had to increase our salesforce also. If you need low shoes this is your chance! Oxfords, pumps and Gibson ties of gun-metal calf, patent colt, Russia calf, tan kid and black suede. Also girls' and children's low shoes of patent colt, black velvet, gun-metal calf and white canvas. Clean, new, up-to-date goods of reliable make. Arranged according to size on special tables in silk section:

1.00

L. BAMBERGER & CO.
NEWARK N.J.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 281

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office: Rowley's Drug store, 313 W. Front st. Tel. 61J-1.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 West Front St.

R. L. CLINE
Successor to R. Ruggs & Co.)
Best Quality Lehigh Coal
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067-W. 123 Duer St.

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

The Greatest Title Plant in New Jersey

not only in business, but in the character and extent of the information pertaining to real estate all over the State, and the comprehensive and important character of the records. These distinguish the Title Department of the

Fidelity Trust Co.,
Newark, N. J.,

and make it possible to give a service in the searching and GUARANTEEING of titles throughout New Jersey, which would be impossible without these resources.

Every purchaser of Real Estate in New Jersey should protect himself by a

Fidelity Guaranty of Title

The cost is not high, but the protection is absolute.

"COME IN AND TALK IT OVER."

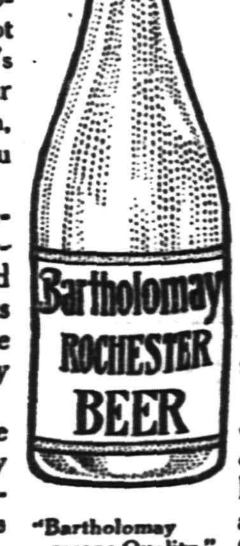
Many Physicians Prescribe BARTHOLOMAY Rochester BEER

Clever physicians know that in order to benefit the weak and ailing, Beer must be properly aged.

Not one drop of beer ever leaves the Bartholomay Brewery that is not aged perfectly. That's why it never upsets your stomach—it's the green, unripe beer that makes you bilious.

Bartholomay Rochester Beer is a good beverage for you. The malted barley that goes into it is a digested food. The fine hops are admittedly a splendid tonic.

Physicians who have visited the Bartholomay Brewery are the most persistent advertisers of its famous products.



"Bartholomay means Quality."

They know Bartholomay Rochester Beer is brewed of highest quality hops and malt, under the most spotless methods of cleanliness, and that it is a tonic beverage that promotes health.

Bartholomay Rochester Beer is the right beer for your home. It is delightfully palatable and refreshing, and it's just as easy to get as the wrong kind.

When physicians prescribe it for the sick, it surely cannot do harm to the healthy.

You can have a dozen or a case of bottles delivered right to your door. Phone or mail your order and it will be promptly filled.

DISTRIBUTED BY

HENRY HAURAND,
68 Somerset St. 'Phone 229

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

Haw hee! haw hee! haw hee! hee haw! I wish some of you howlers would hee haw, instead of howl, then get a pair of big ears. You would look so perfectly natural.

INCREASING.

On account of the extreme heat sending people from the City to the country, or my way. I have been compelled to add two more New York men to my Plainfield office and open up an office in New York.

A GOOD THING.

I admit I have made some miscalculations for this week, but that is on account of one of my barkers backing without cause, that is where a lawyer is a good thing. I can attend to my own business now. My other two backers had better look wise, too.

YOUR BUSINESS.

I can not see how Updike, without wearing a plug hat or an automobile to deceive the public can run such a business. But

CREDITORS PLEASE RISE.

I have a contract signed to be completed next Tuesday, 18th, after which I will be able to look you all square in the face.

MY TIME IS YOURS

D. Foster Updike
159 NORTH AVE. 'PHONE 1907

GO TO
GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S
for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.
104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

STRAW HAT SALE—$2 HATS now $1.50
$3 HATS now $2.50 $5 and $6 PANAMAS $3.75
119 Park Ave. J. R. Blair

SPORTS
News and Notes

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..	2	4	4	9		24
Brooklyn	1	..	0	2	5	6		14
Boston	7	..	6	..	12	6		31
Philadelphia	2	..	4	12	4	1		23
Chicago	2	..	3	6	3	5		19
Cincinnati	11	..	2	6	6	0		25
Pittsburg	3	..	2	13	3	4		25
St. Louis	6	..	2	..	19	8		35
AMERICAN
New York	2	5	5	8	12	1		33
Philadelphia	9	0	..	8	0	7		24
Boston	5	9	8	6	4	2		34
Washington	5	7	3	1	3	5		24
St. Louis	7	3	5	3	2	0		20
Cleveland	4	1	..	2	4	7		18
Chicago	12	2	2	8	8	1		33
Detroit	7	6	4	14	9	8		48

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
New York	47	31	.603
Philadelphia	47	31	.603
Chicago	45	30	.600
St. Louis	44	32	.579
Pittsburg	43	33	.566
Cincinnati	32	43	.427
Brooklyn	29	47	.382
Boston	18	58	.237

Yesterday's Results.

New York, 9; Pittsburg, 4.
St. Louis, 8; Boston, 6.
Philadelphia, 1; Cincinnati, 0.
Brooklyn, 6; Chicago, 5.

Games Today.

Pittsburg at New York.
Chicago at Brooklyn.
St. Louis at Boston.
Cincinnati at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	54	24	.692
Philadelphia	49	28	.636
New York	41	36	.532
Chicago	40	36	.520
Boston	41	38	.519
Cleveland	39	42	.481
Washington	37	52	.416
St. Louis	20	51	.273

Yesterday's Results.

St. Louis, 6; New York, 1.
Boston, 2; Chicago, 1.
Detroit, 8; Philadelphia, 7.
Cleveland, 7; Washington, 5.

Games Today.

New York at St. Louis.
Boston at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Detroit.
Washington at Cleveland.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	52	27	.658
Baltimore	51	29	.638
Toronto	45	35	.563
Montreal	34	38	.472
Jersey City	33	39	.458
Buffalo	33	39	.458
Newark	28	44	.389
Providence	27	52	.342

Yesterday's Results.

Baltimore, 5; Newark, 0.
Buffalo, 5; Rochester, 1.
Toronto, 10; Montreal, 7.

Games Today.

Newark at Baltimore.
Rochester at Buffalo.
Toronto at Montreal.

The absolute control of the Boston baseball club of the National League is to pass into the hands of William Hepburn Russell, president of that organization. Announcement to this effect was made in the Superior Court in Boston yesterday when the litigation between President Russell and L. C. Page, of Boston, a minor stockholder, was called for adjudication. Counsel for both parties to the suit stated that Mr. Page, the club's vice-president, had agreed to sell all of his holdings of stock to President Russell.

Giants got after that first ball of Lefty Leifield's with a vengeance. Devore and Doyle each hit the initial offering in the first round and made the circuit, and Big Chief Meyers repeated the trick in the fifth.

That National League race is certainly a marvel. Five clubs are getting closer as the season progresses, there being only three games between the Pirates, in fifth place and the Giants and Phillies, in the lead.

The Athletics are getting an awful slam in Detroit, and the Tigers are rapidly assuming a safe lead in the American League race.

Brooklyn did another kindly act yesterday for the Giants when they handed the Cubs a wallop. The trick was turned by a remarkable rally, the Superbas coming through on the pole when they were all but distanced.

Calf on a Rampage.

Flemington, July 14.—John Q. Adams, a farmer, living near Flemington, lead a large calf to the meat market of Charles A. Henzler Wednesday. The animal, after gaining its liberty, dashed into Mr. Henzler's market and plunged through a large plate glass window. The calf ran up Main street and later was caught about a mile west of the town.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.

105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES

Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 14 In American History.

1818—General Nathaniel Lyon, civil war hero, born; killed at Wilson's Creek, Mo., 1861.

1828—Jervis McEntee, landscape artist, born; died 1891.

1853—The Crystal Palace exhibition opened in New York city.

1897—General John F. Farnsworth, noted Federal veteran, died.

1910—Aloys Wirsching, inventor of stock ticker, died; born 1832.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.) Sun sets 7:26, rises 4:38; moon rises 9:52 p. m.; 4 p. m., planet Neptune in conjunction with the sun, passing from east to west of that body, out of the evening into the morning sky.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 14, 1911.

VETERINARIES MEET AT NEW BRUNSWICK

The Veterinary Medical Association of New Jersey opened a two days' meeting at New Brunswick yesterday in the chemical building of Rutgers College. About fifty delegates were in attendance. The sessions were to have been held at the college farm, but this plan was changed because of the fire at the farm this week. The president, Dr. Thomas B. Rogers, of Woodbury, welcomed the doctors. The principal business of yesterday was the election of delegates to the American Medical and Veterinary Association convention to be held at Toronto on August 22. President Rogers and Drs. Gray, Laubach and Barr were chosen.

The program yesterday afternoon included the discussion of the following papers: "Rabies," Dr. McLaughlin, New York; "The S. P. C. A. and the Veterinarian," Mrs. Rachel A. Lynch, of Lakewood; "Milk," Professor C. J. Marshall, Philadelphia; "Spavin," Dr. James McDonough, of Montclair. A clinic was held today.

The officers of the association are: President, Dr. Thomas B. Rogers, of Woodbury; vice-presidents, Dr. Henry Vander Roest, of Newark; Dr. Charles Madge, of Haddonfield; trustee, Dr. Thomas R. Smith, of Jersey City; secretary, Dr. William Herbert Lowe, of Paterson. The committee in charge of the meeting consists of Dr. E. L. Loblein, of New Brunswick; Dr. L. P. Kirby, of Hopewell; Dr. Bassett Kirby, of Woodbury; Dr. T. Earl Budd, of Orange; Dr. James McDonough, of Montclair.

Headquarters for

Gibson's

RYE.

E. C. Westcott, Agent.

115 East Front Street.

"Great Saturday Specials"

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.
MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS AT 45c.
Made of best quality madras, with attached cuffs; equal to what you'd pay 75c for elsewhere.

SUIT CASES AT $1.00.
Light weight fibre dress suit cases 24 inch size; leather bound and brass trimmed; a big bargain.

ENAMELED WARE 19c.
A special lot of double coated grey enameled ware, consisting of Preserving Kettles, Saucepans, Double Boilers, Tea and Coffee Pots, Dish Pans, etc. Would be good value for 50c each.

CURTAIN DRAPERY.
All the short ends of fine quality scrim, single and double face, in a great variety of designs; values up to 30c a yard; for.....12½c

CARPET DEPARTMENT.
Kurdistan Brussels Rugs, size 9x12; regular $12, for.....$8.00

Axminster Rugs, size 3x5; regular $3.50, for.....$2.50

Moire Window Shades, size 3x6, regular 50c, for 29c

WASH GOODS 10c A YARD PRESENTING VALUES UP TO 25c.
Short lengths from the July Clearing Sale; consisting of Batiste, Lawns, Foulards. Flaxon, Egyptian Tissues, Imported Dimities, Dress Ginghams, Organdies and Pongees. The season's greatest wash goods event.

SATURDAY SALE OF FRAMED PICTURES 98c WORTH UP TO $2.50.
Consisting of Fruits, Game, Landscapes, etc., in handsome polished 2½-inch wood frames; sizes 12x24 and 16x20; now on exhibtion in the window.

HOSIERY SPECIALS.
Ladies' Stockings, fine guaze lisle with high spliced heels and double soles; as good as most stores charge 3 for $1.00; Saturday special..21c

Ladies Stockings, fine gauze cotton; full seamless; absolutely fast black; worth 19c a pair; Saturday 11c.

SWINGS, MOWERS, CROQUET
at greatly reduced prices.
$3.98 and $5.98 Swings now $2.98 and $3.98.
Mowers worth up to $4.50 now $2.98
Croquet, worth reg. $1.50, now $1.15

CHILDREN'S ROMPERS.
Made of extra good quality gingham and well made; about all sizes and colors; 75c values; Saturday 48c

SKIRTS AND GOWNS $1.00.
A lot of handsome white Petticoats and Gowns, that have been used for samples and are slightly mussed; worth up to $3.25.

BIG SALE OF BEAUTIFUL SHIRT WAISTS. 59c EACH; WORTH $1.00.
Made of fine white lawn, with fancy hemstitched Dutch collars and turn over cuffs; the very newest in shirtwaists.

SHIRT WAISTS 48c.
A lot of odds and ends of high class waists, made of good material and neatly trimmed with lace and embroidery, but slightly mussed from handling; values to $1.25.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Bath sprays, Hanging Soap Dishes, Soap Stands, Towel Bars and Towel Arms, all heavy nickel plated on brass; worth to buy regular $1.00.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

REUNITED AFTER 46 YEARS.

Brothers Who Fought on Opposite Sides in Civil War Meet in Jersey.

Fairmount, July 14.—For the first time in forty-six years two brothers met here yesterday. Both had fought in opposite armies in the Civil War and both are among the few survivors living to tell the tale of the wreck of the New Era, off the coast of what is now Asbury Park, in 1854 when 300 lives were lost. The reunion took place at the home of Charles Glazer, a prominent resident of the place, and he met his brother, Theodore Glazer, of Petersburg, Va.

The brothers are both in the neighborhood of eightly years old, went to sea in early life, and eventually shipped on the New Era. As the old ship went to pieces in one of the worst wrecks that ever occurred along the coast of North America, the two brothers lashed themselves to the mast and after being buffeted about for twenty-four hours they were rescued by a party in a small boat. From them was obtained the harrowing details of the wreck.

A short time later the brothers settled at Petersburg, Va., but the climate of that section did not agree with Charles, who returned North settling in this town in which he has since made his home. Two years more and the country was aroused by the call of volunteers. Theodore went to the front as a member of Branch's Petersburg Battery, a part of the Army of Northern Virginia, of which Gen. Robert E. Lee was commander.

Charles enlisted with the First New Jersey Cavalry, a part of the Army of the Potomac. In all the battles in which Branch's Battery took part they were opposed by the Army of the Potomac.

While on guard duty along the Rappahannock River, Charles learned from a rebel soldier that a Theodore Glazer was serving in Branch's Battery, which was encamped nearby. Describing his brother Charles, after exchanging some coffee for tobacco with the rebel, he gave him a message to bear to his brother. The rebel bringing the message was shot and as he lay upon his cot, Theodore, who happened to be on duty closeby, was summoned and to him the injured rebel gave the message. It was the only communication exchanged between the brothers during the long conflict.

Soon after his release from a federal prison at the close of the war Theodore visited his brother but since that time he had never seen him.

Sunday at Lake Hopatcong.

Special excursion via New Jersey Central, next Sunday and every Sunday and holiday. Round trip $1.00. Leave Plainfield 9:50 a. m. 7 12 2wf —Neuman Bros. sell the highest grade teas and coffees, which make ideal iced drinks for warm weather.

CHARLES H. BURRILL DEAD IN BROOKLYN

Charles H. Burrill, one of the few negro printers and publishers in the United States, who was a son-in-law of the late Albro Lyons, who will be remembered by the older residents as the sexton of the First Baptist church for many years, died on Wednesday at his home, 203 Halsey street, Brooklyn. Mr. Burrill was born in Providence, R. I., in 1843, and claimed descent on one side from one of the Indian squaws who sold the Providence Plantations to Roger Williams. Her name was Patience Prophet.

At the age of fifteen years, Burrill was apprentice to A. Crawford Greene & Sons, printers, and remained with that firm for twenty-two years, becoming assistant foreman. He was later connected with the publication of various periodicals. At one time he was a first lieutenant in the Rhode Island militia. His wife and son survive.

NOENNICK SURRENDERS; RELEASED IN $300 BAIL.

Accused of assaulting Charles Tietz, of Dog Corner, Ernest L. Noennich, his neighbor, surrendered himself through his counsel, Robert Newton Crane, to Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning and was released in $300 to await the action of the Union county Grand Jury. James B. Guttridge, of South avenue, furnished the bond.

The alleged assault took place June 14 and since that time Noennich has been a fugitive from justice. The cause of the quarrel was the use of a epithet applied to Noennich's mother by Tietz, and after admitting having used it he was given a beating. A warrant was issued by Judge Toucey, of Westfield, next day on complaint of Tietz but in a case of this kind the nearest justice can accept bail.

Marital Trouble.

John Duffy, of South Second street, who was arrested yesterday on complaint of his wife, was given a suspended sentence by Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning. Mrs. Duffy was in court and when asked what disposal she wished made of her husband said that all she asked of him was that he should leave her alone. Judge DeMeza placed Duffy on probation for an indefinite time with the understanding that he is to pay her $3 a week and if he behaves himself he is to rejoin her. He assented to this arrangement gladly.

Hope Chapel Excursion.

Hope chapel's annual excursion to Asbury Park will be held on Saturday, August 12. It promises to be a record-breaker.

—Use Press want ads.

JOURNALISTIC OPINIONS.

School Swimming Pools.

The Plainfield Board of Education has decided to install a swimming pool at its High School, for the use of all the school children of the city. This is a notable example of the progressive, common sense idea that is rapidly gaining hold in educational matters. This modern idea is to make the school attractive to the pupil. Ignorant ages have made it a sort of prison, a bugbear to the childish mind, with the natural result that pupils were only too eager to terminate their education on the slightest excuse. The colleges, with their gymnasiums, athletics and other things near to the youth, have never experienced the troubles of the public schools in this respect, and it follows that when the schools adopt college methods, they will have college success in holding their pupils—New runswick Home News.

Wished Him Bon Voyage.

A surprise party was tendered last night to Thomas Hendry at his home in West Fourth street on the eve of his departure for Scotland. Mr. Hendry leaves tomorrow on the Cedric for a sojourn abroad for the benefit of his health. Most of his vacation will be spent at his old home at Johnson, Scotland. Thirty of his friends called last night to wish him a good time and a speedy restoration to health. Vocal and instrumental music were enjoyed and refreshments were served. Mr. Hendry has been connected with the Pond Tool works for twenty-one years and is unusually popular.

Commission Stops Work.

Fren Endress, who has been erecting a three-story building on Madison avenue, in the rear of the Jackson building, which he owns, has been notified by the tenement house commissioner that because he has not allowed a space of thirty-five feet between the new structure and the Jackson building, he cannot proceed with the work. The commissioner considered the new building as a part of the Jackson building. Mr. Endress is now trying to adjust matter so that the work may proceed.

To Attend Reunion in Ireland.

Miss Bessie O'Shea, of West Second street, leaves New York on the Cedric on Saturday, July 22, for Europe. She will spend six weeks visiting friends and relatives in Ireland and will incidently attend the annual reunion of the O'Shea family, one of the proudest and oldest in the County Kerry.

Central Lodge Entertains.

Central Lodge, No. 48, A. O. U. W., entertained the members of Raritan Lodge, No. 6, of New Brunswick, last evening and after the business of the evening the workmen enjoyed several games of quoits. Before the visitors departed refreshments were served.

AMUSEMENTS.

KEEP COOL—Go To BOYNTON BEACH
THE COOLEST PLACE IN NEW JERSEY
CHILDREN'S DAYS EVERY THURSDAY
HOPS Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday Evenings
FREE DANCING AFTERNOONS

PROCTOR'S
VAUDEVILLE THEATRE.
THE COOLEST RESORT IN TOWN
ENTIRE CHANGE MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
THE BEST REFINED VAUDEVILLE TODAY'S PROGRAM.
Allison Skipworth & Co., sketch, "The Woman Who Lived;" Valentine & Bell, Novelty Cyclists; The Four Summer Girls, Singing and Dancing; Joe Coveny, the Long Story Teller.
Prices—10c-15c; Boxes, 25c.

N. J. AUTOISTS MUST HAVE PENNA. LICENSES.

Morrisville, Pa., July 14.—Automobilists from New Jersey will find that the Pennsylvania authorities are on the job it they attempt to go across the river with a Jersey license on their car. Heretofore the Jerseymen were allowed time in this State without a Pennsylvania license, but since the Jersey authorities have discontined these relations with Pennsylvania, this State has decided to do likewise with New Jersey.

These automobilists will not even be allowed to come to Mossisville and the three constables have been notified to be on the lookout. Heretofore Jersey automobilists who have Pennsylvania licenses have failed to use them when coming only as far as Morrisville, but even this will not be allowed hereafter.

Schernberger Goes Home.

George Schernberger, of Elizabethport, an employe of the New Jersey Central, who two weeks ago was struck by an express train at the North Avenue Station, receiving a severe scalp wound, has recovered and yesterday he returned to his home. At the time of the accident, Schernberger was thought to be injured so badly that physicians doubted his recovery.

Scratching Pimple Fatal.

Camden, July 14.—Scratching a pimple on her chin, Emma C. Hague twenty-one years. old, of 621 Pine street, caused blood poisoning several days ago, and she died Wednesday, meningitis having followed the poison. She was unconscious for some time before she died.

Weren't Any.

He—I shouldn't marry unless the woman was my exact opposite.

She—You'll never find so perfect a being as that!—London Opinion.

—Press Want Ads. pay.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State. Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK'S STORAGE VAULTS

are especially equipped for Trunks, Boxes and Silver Chests of all sizes.

They are of massive masonry and lined throughout with heavy steel.

Charges moderate, either per month or per year.

SATISFACTION
If You Purchase the
MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO
Liberal Credit—Call and Make Your Terms.

Some Used Pianos taken in Exchange for the Always Reliable Mathushek & Son.

PIANO BARGAINS
$65, $75, $90, $100, $125

Pianos from rent, good as new, 20 per cent. discount off former price. Some Used
PLAYER PIANOS

SPECIAL BARGAINS
During the Months of July and August.

MATHUSHEK & SON PIANO CO.
310 WEST FRONT ST.
Tel. 1365
Renting, Tuning & Repairing.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order

Hoagland's Express

to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY, 118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

EXCURSIONS.

ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
First Presbyterian, Congregational and Park Avenue Baptist Sunday Schools to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove
THURSDAY, JULY 20
Tickets—adults, $1.25; children, 90c. Train leaves Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; Plainfield, 8:15. Return, leave Asbury Park 6:30. 7 14 6

POPULAR OUTINGS... VIA
New Jersey Central
LAKE HOPATCONG
EVERY SUNDAY AND HOLIDAY
ROUND TRIP $1.00 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:50 a.m.

Mauch Chunk GLEN ONOKO THE SWITCHBACK
NEXT SUNDAY, JULY 16th
ROUND TRIP $1.50 Train Leaves Plainfield 9:28 a. m.
Children HALF FARE Each Outing
7 12 2 wf

Saturday HALF HOLIDAY EXCURSION TO
ASBURY PARK And OCEAN GROVE
July 15th Round Trip $1.25 Children Half Fare
VIA
NEW JERSEY CENTRAL
Special Train leaves
PLAINFIELD 1.04 P. M.
Returning leaves Asbury Park 11:00 P. M.
7 12 3

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Treatment by appointment only.
'Phone, Plainfield 150

Camp Ram's Horn
Halsey Island, Lake Hopatcong.
Just the place for a young man to thoroughly enjoy his vacation at a moderate cost. Excellent cusine, Boating and Bathing. Write for terms.
THOMAS M. MUIR, Proprietor, Box 188, Lake Hopatcong.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL
AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c
CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM
DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?
T. S. Armstrong
THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

John Stinemetz has sold his farm near New Market to Bernard Roddy, of Perth Amboy. The farm was formerly owned by John Powers.

Mrs. M. Newell and daughter, have returned from Brooklyn, after visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Duffey, of Lehigh avenue.

Frank Miller, who has been visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and White Haven, Pa., has returned.

Mrs. William Hamilton has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. P. J. McDonough, of Plainfield.

Mrs. Edward Alexander has been called to Easton, Pa., by the critical illness of her mother.

Mrs. Melvin Schrope has returned from Easton, Pa., where she has been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, of Newark, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Reilly.

Miss Anna Hamilton is visiting her aunt, Mrs. P. J. McDonough, at Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thornton are entertaining friends from Philadelphia.

The Kaine apartments will be ready for occupancy next week.

Miss Nora McDonough, of Plainfield, is visiting friends here.

Mrs. Frank Zurlo is visiting friends in New York city.

Mrs. William Ledden is entertaining out of town friends.

'PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

The work of covering the bleachers on the ball ground, Thorp's field, was completed yesterday and the fans can now enjoy the game with some degree of comfort.

The Boy Scouts team defeated Handwith, yesterday afternoon on the Handwith diamond by the score 5-4. It took eleven innings to decide the contest.

GeorgeFrentz and family removed yesterday from the Fuch's flat on Park avenue, to the Meyer's cottage, on Westfield avenue.

Miss Harriet M. Squiers is spending part of her summer vacation in Maine.

Frank Lee has returned from a visit with relatives in Philadelphia.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. G. Meade and family, of East Front street, leaves for Europe tomorrow.

Mrs. E. M. VanBuren and family, of Central avenue, are at Avon, N.J. for the summer.

Miss Gladys Marsh, of Maple avenue, is spending the week end with relatives in Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Peck, of West Front street, have returned from a sojourn at Asbury Park.

Mrs. B. J. Shreve, of Grove street, left yesterday for Island Heights, on the New Jersey shore.

Mr. and Mrs. August Klienick, of Watchung avenue, are stopping at Seabright for the season.

Miss Edith Hanaford, of East Sixth street, left today for Boston, where she will spend several weeks.

The family of James C. Peck, of Myrtle avenue, are registered among the guests at Lake Minnewaska, N. Y.

Mrs. C. C. Tomkinson and children, Master Hoyt and Miss Frances, are visiting Mrs. Tomkinson's parents, in Harrisburg, Pa.

Alfred W. Duxbury and sister, Mrs. Leonard and her daughter, Miss Leonard, of Franklin place, are registered at the Ontio, Ogunquit, Me., for several weeks.

E. H. Ladd, Jr., and family, of Stelle avenue, leaves on the Lapland of the Red Star line tomorrow for Antwerp, and from there will visit other points on the continent.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shotwell and Mrs. Freeman Shotwell and daughter, Edith, of Fairview avenue, will stop at "The Maryland," Asbury Park for two weeks beginnings Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. George P. Mellick and daughter, Miss Edith Mellick, of East Seventh street, who are enjoying a trip in their Chalmers-Detroit car, were registered at the Grand Union Hotel, Saratoga, N. Y., Wednesday night.

S. Clinton Crane, of the law firm of Crane & Baer, New York, son of U. B. Crane, of West Second street, is spending the month at Asbury Park. The postals he has been sending his brother, Robert Newton Crane, about the large catches of fish makes the latter long to join in the sport.

'DAMN THE ICE TRUST,' SAYS NEWARK PRIEST

Newark, July 14.—The Rev. Louis Shreve Osborne, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, caused a sensation yesterday by using the word "damn" very forcibly over his signature in a communication accompanying a subscription to a free ice fund in this city. In the communication he says:

"I have been taught that damn is a good sound scriptural word, not, however, to be used unadvisedly or lightly, but reverently, discreetly and in the fear of God, and so I say advisedly and soberly, damn the ice trust and the milk trust and the farmers and everybody and everything that is making this hot weather an excuse for boosting the price on ice and milk."

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

A large new sign anouncing the name of the pastor, Rev. Evarts C. Conover, together with the hours of services, etc., has been placed on the Temple Baptist church on East Third street.

Rev. Evarts C. Conover, pastor of the Temple Baptist church, has inaugurated a short children's service which is held every Sunday morning just prior to the regular preaching service, when he gives an interesting talk. In this way the children are getting in the habit of attending church service.

At the gospel tent, Church and East Front street, Scandinavian Bible lectures are conducted every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock, by Evangelist A. O. Lund, of New York city, and every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock by Evangelist W. G. Kneeland, of Jersey City, will lecture in English. Bible questions are answered. The public is invited.

Geralamo to go to Trenton.

John B. Walsh, of Summit, counsel for Vincinzio Geralamo, who was sentenced to seven years in State Prison for assaulting a governess in Summit, obtained a writ of error in the Union county court for his client, but when Judge E. S. Atwater increased the bail from $3,000 to $4,000, the convicted man's friends refused to go any further. Unless the prisoner is successful in getting the $4,000 bail today, he will be taken to Trenton to begin serving time.

Funeral of Mrs. Coddington.

The funeral services of Mrs. Christina Coddington, of Mt. Bethel, who died at that place Tuesday, were held from the Mt. Bethel church yesterday afternoon. A large number of the friends and relatives of the aged woman were present, among them being many of her thirty-eight grandchildren and twelve great grandchildren. Rev. George Hauser, of Warrenville, officiated. The pall bearers were the sons of the dead woman and interment was made in the Mt. Bethel cemetery.

Improvementers Improving.

The North Plainfield Township Improvement Society is making extensive alterations to its hall in Watchung. The building is being wired for electric lights from top to bottom and the township rooms are being extended and enlarged. Bids are being received by the committee for concrete steps to the building and the grading and improvement of the lawn.

Mrs. Bogle's Entertainment.

Mrs. Frank Houston Bogle will give an evening with James Whitcomb Riley, Joe Lincoln and other favorites in the parlors of Truell Hall, on Monday evening, to which the public is invited.

5,000 ELKS PARADE

(Continued from page 1.)

ed sixty-four men who marched as one, the purple bands on the sleeves of their gray coats and their purple neckties forming a streak of color across the street. A purple penant bearing the coat-of-arms of the state floated over the delegation, and the soft gray felt hats and canes which completed the costume gave added touches of unity to the swinging line.

Following the Harrisburg contingent came the Newark, N. J., delegates. Every one of the forty-eight Elks who marched under the banner of Lodge No. 21 carried an American flag. All wore gray suits and purple bands on their hats.

The Camden Elks created a furore when they came swaggering along wearing tan suits with tan shoes and purple neckties for the sake of contrast. A concession to the weather was made in their neckwear and every man wore a soft linen collar. All carried canes and a few bore bunches of wild flowers. They were in charge of Albert Austermuhl and J. S. Smith.

The Orange, N. J., Lodge, No. 135 float was one of the most gorgeous in the procession. Sixteen women in classic garb were posed gracefully on an immense moving structure that was drawn by six gray horses with trappings of purple and silver. Palms edged the float, and between these and the corinthian columns that surrounded the white draped figures of the women the whole assumed an esthetic appearance. The float was followed by members of the lodge in automobiles.

New York Lodge, No. 1, followed directly after Atlantic City, with 240 men in line. The uniform was white linen trousers, blue serge coast, white straw hats, with red and blue bands. One section of forty-eight men carried outstretched a huge American flag, and every man in line had a cane with a purple pennon on the end.

Chicago Lodge, No. 4, had fifty men in line but they were all big fellows and made a splendid appearance. They wore long white coats, white trousers, high white hats, white shoes.

Elizabeth, N. J., Lodge, No. 298, offered a novelty in the shape of a hand, members of which were dressed as Scottish Highlanders. There were twenty-eight members who marched in the form of a cross and 128 in line all told. The members wore white duck suits, high white hats and white shoes.

Patterson, N. J., Lodge, No. 60, was preceded by half a dozen standard bearers, small boys, dressed in white, who carried a pennant that reached halfway across the street, bearing the words, "The Silk City of America." Passaic joined in with her sister city in the parade and together the two lodges sent fifty-one representatives to take part in the parade.

Fifty gray raincoats and fifty umbrellas of various sizes and many hues told that Hoboken, N. J., Lodge No. 74, was heaving into sight. The umbrellas bobbed at different angles and a score of small pale pink sunshades held over scarlet visages gave a bizarre appearance to this jaunty group of Elks.

Trenton Lodge, No. 105, came along the avenue with 140 delegates marching in martial order, shoulder to shoulder. Each man wore a dark-blue serge suit, white shoes, purple nekstie and sleeveband and each carried a white umbrella.

It seemed as if a breeth of cool air struck Atlantic avenue when the delegation from Asbury Park, Lodge, No. 128, came strutting along, fifty-two of them, looking as cool as cucumbers. They were all coatless and were attired in white trousers, white shirts, white shoes and carried white sunshades. The only color noted in their costume was that given by their purple socks.

Wilkes-Barre's delegation headed by Henry Jordan, exalted ruler of Lodge No. 109, presented a natty appearance in blue suits, with purple bands on their straw hats. The Sunbury, P., contingent carried purple and white umbrellas and the Burlington, N. J. Elks of Lodge No. 996, had the number of their lodge marked in big figures on every one of the fifty-seven white sunshades they bore past the reviewing stand.

Jersey City Lodge, No. 211, had eighty-five men in line. The members wore black suits, white shoes, straw hats with purple bands, and purple neckties. Two little boys in white held the strings of the lodge banner.

New Brunswick, N. J., Lodge, No. 324, had twenty-five men in line. The uniform consisted of a soft gray hat with purple band, blue serge coat, white trousers and shoes, tan gloves and carried canes.

Belleville, N. J., Lodge made a good showing with twenty-five men in line dressed in white duck suits, white duck caps and purple trimmings.

LOCAL BOY WON QUOIT MATCH AT Y. M. C. A. CAMP.

Joseph Sattels, of East Sixth street who is at Camp Wawayanda with the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. delegation; gained a distinguished honor this week by winning the quoit championship of the camp for the second consecutive year. The Plainfield boy won the tournament against some of the best quoit tossers in the associations of the State and carried off the honors against heavy odds for he had few supporters in the rooting section on account of the comparatively small number of local boys at the camp.

Second place in the high jump went to Harold McDowell, of this city, and the largest pickerel of the season was pulled out of the lake by Arthur Ferris, a leader in the Plainfield delegation. Among the visitors at the camp last Saturday, which was visitors' day was Frank Stout, of Putnam avenue, whose son is one of the campers.

—Neuman Bros. store is headquarters for the best butter. The firm handles only one grade, the choicest and the prices are always right.

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME

is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.

You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.

Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

A. M. RUNYON & SON, UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40.
Office open day and night.
Office of Hillside Cemetery.
New York office—50 Great Jones St.
Tel. call 2345-Spring.
New York Embalmers License—1228.
New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 815.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants.
Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St.
Opposite First Baptist Church

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.
HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.
HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Telephone 820-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents, $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 19 E. 22d St. Tel. 3094-Gramercy.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion, one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line), double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads. should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

WANTED—Girl for general work, must be good plain cook. 441 West Front street.

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED laundress wants washing to take home. Call 152 North avenue. 7 12 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Young man typewriter and office manager; light work; give references as to character in replying. Address W. S. T., care Press. 7 13 2

WANTED—At Fanwood. N. J., man to work on lawn and garden. Apply King, next door to the Homestead, Saturday morning; car fare paid.

WANTED—Reliable man, single, one who understands care of horse, cow and vegetable garden. Apply with reference, Frank H. Lewin, Plainfield avenue, near Hunt Club. 7 13 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Pair gold eye glasses. Reward at Daily Press office. 7 14 3

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire [illegible] Andress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

TO LET—Lower floor, 4 rooms; $11; West Third below Clinton avenue. Owner 17 Craig place. 7 11 tf

TO LET—Two apartments, 6 and 7 rooms; all modern improvements; Woodland Ave., 8 minutes from station. Call at new buildings, near Putnam Ave. 10 25 tf eod

APARTMENT to rent, 6 rooms and bath; all light rooms; centrally located; $16 per month. Inquire 317 West Front street. 7 13 2

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

TO LET—Houses, part improvements; $12; all improvements $20. Inquire 1092 Arlington avenue. 7 13 1mo

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms, 671 West Fourth street. Apply 968 West Fifth street. 7 11 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; not water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

FOR SALE—Good built house, all improvements; good size lot; easy terms. Address Renwanz, Daily Press. 7 12 tf

FOR SALE—12-room house, good location; churches and schools nearby; neighborhood O. K. Address Reasonable, care Press. 7 13 2

HOUSE—8 rooms, improvements, lot 50x195; price $3,450; easy terms. Would exchange for lot. Address G. A. F., Dunellen, N. J. 7 13 6

CHOICE LOT for sale—Berkley Ave., Netherwood; 95 ft. front by about 235 deep. R. I. Richardson, Westfield, N. J. Phone 66-J. 10 8 tf eod

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 3 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 9 19 tf

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms, centrally located. Address W. E. care of Press. 3 21 tf

COUPLE would like three furnished rooms for light housekeeping; terms reasonable. Address H. W., 413 Park avenue. 7 13 2

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Pony cart and harness. Address C. H., care The Daily Press. 7 13 tf

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

BICYCLE for sale; gent's chainless; nearly new. Dilts, 95 Jackson avenue, N. P. 7 11 3

FOR SALE—Two-cylinder motorcycle; 121 Madison avenue; first class condition; price reasonable. 7 11 3

FOR SALE—Pair of spotted ponies, 14 hands high, also wagon and harness; very fine rig; have been driven by lady. Inquire Blair's stable, 114 West Sixth street. 7 14 3

DELIVERY WAGON FOR SALE
Inquire H. C. Roe,
130 Halsey Street,
Newark, N. J.

FOR SALE—Overland Runabout, 1911 model 45, 25 H. P.; extra large shoes, top, speedometer, Presto light, full equipment, demonstration by appointment; price $500. William Jeffery, 134 Park Avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 7 14 6

FOR SALE—Crabb Pipe Organ in first class condition with pedal base, foot and lever pump; sweet tone; good for parlor or chapel; $150 to quick purchaser; cash or liberal terms can be arranged. Mathushek & Son Piano Co., 310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 7 14 3

GOOD toned piano cheap; bargain in fine automobile. John Manley, broker, 321 Park avenue. 7 11 6

THOROUGHBRED Great Dane dog (female); 9 months old. 533 West Third street. 7 13 3

FOR SALE—Two good work or delivery horses; cheap for cash; also good cow. Valley Farm, Clinton avenue, south of Lehigh tracks. 7 13 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

CONTRACTS taken for all whitewashing jobs of any description. Frank Delia, 670 South Second street. 7 12 3

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 3 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask. 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 5 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer, sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates: Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 202 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 2 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

The GREATEST PLAY I EVER SAW AS TOLD TO Hugh S. Fullerton

By WILBUR GOODE.

Central Figure in the Recent Sensational Trade Between Chicago and Boston National League Clubs.

Of course I haven't been in fast company long enough to tell much about great plays, maybe not long enough to pretend to judge which are really great. But I saw one in Baltimore last season which I believe was the greatest ever—at least the greatest I ever witnessed.

The play was made on the Rochester grounds and by Jimmy Slagle. The fans in the big circuit know Slagle perhaps better than I do and they have seen him make some wonderful plays—but perhaps never one under such circumstances. The play came during the early part of the season when we were fighting to keep up close to the lead and to hold Rochester down a bit. Slagle was playing great ball for us. You all know how fast the Rabbit was—and still is. Well, he was playing center and the game was close and exciting. There was a lot of work for our outfield, as the Rochester bunch kept slamming away at our pitcher and mostly hitting long flies to the outfield.

The character of the grounds themselves must be taken into consideration. The grounds are rather strangely laid out. The diamond and outfield are cut down to a perfect level, and to make the outfield level part of a hillside was scraped down, leaving a terrace around the field, which in some spots is six feet higher than the field itself.

Late in the game, with one out, it looked as if Rochester was going to win, although we had a run to the good and were fighting hard to hold them back. They got runners on first and second before anyone was out, and Slagle came tearing forward and scooped a low line hit, holding the runners on their bases. That made things look a little more comfortable until the next batter raised the ball high and far to left center.

WILBUR GOODE.

Slagle had been playing deep, expecting a long fly, or at least to prevent a long hit from going through and beating us right there. The ball went high and on the line. There was a row of carriages and autos on the terrace. The runners held their bases an instant, saw that the ball was going far up on top of the terrace, and believing no one could reach it, they both started for the plate.

Slagle went scooting out as fast as he could tear. He leaped, put one foot against the side of the embankment and leaped again, shooting himself upward and landing on top of the terrace. The ball was going over and straight at a big red automobile. I remember the women in the machine screeched and dodged. Just then Slagle came bounding up onto the terrace, leaped again, stuck up both hands and grabbed that ball. The roar of the crowd warned the runners and they turned back. Slagle ran to the edge of the bank, shot the ball in, and although the runner got back to first, the one returning to second was doubled and the game was saved.

(Copyright, 1911, by W. G. Chapman.)

Pens and Their History.

Confucius used a hairbrush for a pen, and his ancestors for thousands of years before his time. The reed came into use for writing in the marshy countries of the Orient. It was hollow and, cut in short lengths with sharpened ends, it was some improvement on the hair pen. The value of the quill was discovered at an early date in the history of civilization, and its use spread from the east over Europe and then to the new world. Before the day of the metal pen England annually was importing more than 25,000,000 quills for pens.

For One Sane Day.

"You are in favor of a safe and sane Fourth of July?"

"Yes," replied Mr. Growcher. "We ought to have that kind of a day at least once a year."

EARTH WEARS DUST BLANKET

Increases Temperature in Daytime and Checks Fall of Temperature at Night.

When the air is very thick and hazy it may contain floating dust particles to the number of from 10,000 to 20,000 in every cubic centimeter, while a cubic centimeter of very clear air may contain only from a dozen to a few hundred particles.

An English observer's data indicates that there is a relation between the quantity of dust and the temperature of the air. A great amount of dust, it is thought, increases the temperature in the daytime and checks the fall of temperature at night.

The reason is that the presence of dust serves as an obstruction to the free radiation of heat through the air. The sunbeams pass through very pure, clear air without lending much heat to it, and at night the heat received by the ground during the day readily escapes through the same air; but if the atmosphere is heavily laden with dust, the sun's rays are partially arrested by the particles which, becoming heated, in turn warm the air, and in like manner heat radiated from the earth at night is retained in the hazy layers of air in contact with its surface.

Without its atmosphere, which serves as a coverlet to protect it against the fearful cold of space, the surface of the earth would be frozen like that of the airless moon. But the data gathered by reliable observers show that the atmospheric blanket wrapped around our planet varies in its power to retain heat in proportion to the amount of dust particles that it contains.—Harper's Weekly.

WHERE ART WAS AT FAULT

House Maid Has Trouble With Picture of Leaning Tower of Pisa.

Among the engravings that adorned the walls of a Toledo woman's home was one big one of the leaning tower of Pisa. One morning, shortly after the advent of a new maid, the mistress of the house noticed that the picture of the tower hung crooked. She straightened it and said nothing of the matter to the new servant, who had evidently shifted it while dusting. The next day the picture was again crooked; the same thing happened the next day and the next. Finally, one morning, chancing to be in the room where the picture was, the mistress said to the maid as she dusted:

"Mary, you've hung that picture of the tower crooked. Just look at it!"

"That's what I say, mum," returned the domestic, "look at it! The only way I can git that blamed tower to hang straight is to hang the picture crooked."—Lippincott's.

Unredeemed Paris Pledge.

An incident not without pathos occurred toward the end of last week at a sale of unredeemed pledges at the Mont de Piete. There were sold by auction a child's drinking cup, plate, spoon and knife and fork. Fifty-one years ago these souvenirs were deposited in the Paris municipal pawnshop. Every year since the interest has been paid regularly and the right of redemption secured, but the family never seem to have possessed the necessary 15 or 20 francs to resume possession.

Evidently the poor people are either dead or have become more needy. Two years ago the interest ceased to be paid, but the department, to their credit, abstained from selling these "lares and penates." Several letters were addressed at the last known residence and to other places where the pawners have lived, but they have come back marked "Inconnu." The sands of the glass have run out and the objects so carefully guarded for half a century have been sold.

Austrian State Coach.

The emperor Austria owns the most beautiful state coach in existence. Its proportions are perfect and the finish of the moldings and carvings are exquisite. It was built in 1696, and is shaped with all the curves which distinguish Louis Quatorve furniture, straight lines being carefully avoided.

The panels are adorned with nymphs in the style of Rubens. Indeed, the custodian informs those privileged to view the coach that they are the work of Rubens. If Peter the painter had not died 56 years before the coach was built his statement would be believed. It is a more comfortable conveyance, too, than the British state coach, being hung upon well balanced springs.

Fastening Battery Wires.

There are two ways of doing almost everything, and this is especially true of fastening battery and coil terminal wires. One way is wrong, and the other is to twist the bare end of the wire around the terminal as the hands of the clock move, and then tighten up the nut. The reason for this is because the screw-thread is right-handed, therefore the tendency of the tightening nut will be to twist the wire around the terminal tighter than it was. Should the wire be twisted the other way, the nut would tend to untwist it and it would slip under the nut and very likely get a very poor hold.

Overcrowded.

"There's no doubt," remarked a shopkeeper, "there are too many humbugs and swindlers in this town."

"That is so," agreed his companion; "you and I must leave it!"

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

AGENTS FOR
LIKE TILE
The Sanitary Wall Covering.
WOOD KRUSTA
Aorochrome Washable Wall Decoration.
Interior Decoration a Specialty
Woolston & Buckle
Painters and Decorators,
145 North Avenue.

THE REASON
I have the confidence of the public is because never take a contract at a figure too low to enable me to do the work properly and give permanent satisfaction to the customer. It may cost you a little more in the beginning, but a great deal less in the end
James C. Hansen
Decorator Paper Hanger & Painter Dealer in Wall Paper, Paints, Oils, Glass, &c. &c
141 East Front st Tel Call 846

TERRY BROS.
Painters & Paperhangers
Formerly with Woolston & Buckle
PAPERHANGING A SPECIALTY.
Tels. 64J—1715W 10 Linden Ave.

JOHNSON BROTHERS
Painters & Decorators
First Class Work Guaranteed.
408 East Fifth St.
Formerly 312 East Third St.

M. WARREN
PAINTER, DECORATOR
and PAPERHANGER
85 SOMERSET ST.
opp. Sangermund Hall. Tel. con.

HOTELS.

WHEN IN PLAINFIELD, N. J., STOP AT
The QUEEN CITY HOTEL
All Newly Furnished. A la Carte Service Unsurpassed.
P. FLOERSCH, Prop.
W. M. FLOERSCH, Mgr.

HOTEL WALDORF
EAST FRONT STREET.
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
Gottfried Kruger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining-Rooms

G. J. WEINMAN
CAFE
213 Park Ave.. Tel. 1527

HOTEL KENSINGTON
NORTH AVENUE
UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
HOUSE THOROUGHFY RENOVATED
SUNDAY DINNER From 12:30 to 2 P.M. 50c

FLAGS! FLAGS!!
LARGEST ASSORTMENT OF FLAGS IN THE CITY
4x6 ft. FLAG (fast colors.)
8 ft. POLE, varnished, with gilded Speer.
18 ft. ROPE with galvanized iron Pulley.
1 Galvanized iron FLAG-POLE HOLDER.
SPECIAL, ALL COMPLETE . $1.40
Phone 668-J
William H. Olmsted
331 Watchung Ave.

JOS. F. BURKE
718 Monroe Ave. Tel. 145-R
Successor to Mrs. John Brown
General Contractor and Grader
Cesspools and Vaults Cleaned
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Positively the only oderless Excavator in the City.
Estimates cheerfully given.
Leave orders at
J. T. Vail's, North avenue., 'Phone 194
Postoffice Box 718.
For prices address
FRANK BURKE, Manager.
825 W. Third St. Tel. 1306-W

McCULLOUGH'S
STEAM MILL
21 Steiner place. North Plainfield, N. J.
R. H. McCULLOUGH, Prop.
Sash, Blinds, Doors, Mouldings, Scroll Sawing, Turning, etc.
Estimates cheerfully furnished.

For Sale or To Let
The Factory Building lately occupied by the Crescent Embossing Co.,
located at
546 West Second Street, near Plainfield Avenue.
Size 66x96 ft.; three Stories and Basement. Over 20,000 square feet Floor Space.
Power Elevator, Steam Heat, Electricity and Gas for light and power; all modern conveniences.
Especially suitable for light manufacturing.
Can be seen only by appointment with
Fred C. Lounsbury
Care Lenox Manufacturing Co., 102 Madison Ave.
Tel. 1036-R
or
Residence, 129 Plainfield Ave.
Tel. 310-J

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.
Plainfield Auto Tire Co.
407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

SMALLEY BROS.
147 North Avenue.
BUTCHERS
CHOICE MEATS.
GAME IN SEASON.
ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.
Orders called for and delivered.
Telephone 88-A.

Advertisements
—FOR—
New York Herald, World, Times, Sun, Journal, Telegram, American, Brooklyn Eagle,
—and—
Newark Evening News
Received at
The Daily Press
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

E. B. Maynard's
Tonsorial Parlors. Electrical Massage for face and hair. First-class work. Children's Hair Cutting a Specialty. Tel. No. 754-R.
NORTH AVENUE.

KIVANTINOS & JELLING
Successors to Alex. Lusardi.
Foreign and Domestic Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc.
211 W. Front St. Tel. 886-W

HENRY WIERENGA
Residence 'Phone 517-J.
Furniture, Freight, Baggage, Express and Jigger.
PIANO MOVING A SPECIALTY

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting, Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hodge's Pharmacy.
Y. M. C. A. Building.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Estimates Furnished.
Jobbing a Specialty.
1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

JOHN WINZENRIED'S
Storage Wareshoue
816-818 WEST FRONT ST.
Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry.
Furniture removed with care.
Tel. 648-R. Residence 213 Lee place.

L. Moraller & Son,
Watchmakers and Jewelers,
Watches, Clocks and Jewelry.
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave., Plainfield, N.J.

New Jersey Central
TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.
For New York—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.55, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 2.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.
For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.27 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.
For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.
For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m., 5.43 p. m.
For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—2.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 2.48, 4.40, 5.52, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 3.24, 8.13 p. m.
For Lakewood and Atlantic City—2.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.34 a. m., 2.01 p. m.
For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night
For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.
*Except Mauch Chunk.
W. G. BESLEE, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.
6 25 11

CHAS. E. VAIL
Jeweler and Optician
has RE-OPENED at his new location
236 Park Avenue
Opposite North Ave.
All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.
Eastman's Kodak Supplies

Fresh Tomatoes, Peas, Lettuce and all the Fresh Vegetables and Fruits of the season — High in Quality but Low in Price. You can telephone your order with the assurance of prompt, careful delivery.
W. W. DUNN
THE PARK GROCER
Duer St. Liberty pl

WALKS
We Construct Them
Trap Rock, Cement
Experience
R. G. BUSH
Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Central R. R. of N. J. News Stands.
You can get it at the C. R. R. News Stands, both depots. Plainfield Daily Press and Elizabeth Journal on sale at both stands. Philadelphia Morning, Evening and Sunday Papers. Largest assortment of Magazines and Weekly Papers in the city. Back numbers procured. Brooklyn Papers, English Publications. Daily and Sunday Papers delivered. Orders left at stand receive prompt attention. Open Sundays.

THIS MEANS YOU
may save, in addition to getting superior wares, from 5c to 15c on purchases by selecting the Royal Talcum, Tooth and Foot Powders, Royal Shaving Sticks and Royal Shaving Soap Powder, Royal Silver Polish and Royal Face Powder, in twenty leading stores of Plainfield. Samples of Royal Tooth Powder and Royal Violet Talcum of dealers on request. Royal products will not disappoint you Allen Pharmacal Co., Plainfield, N. J.

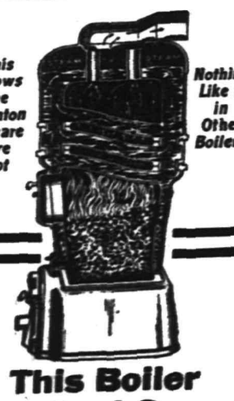
JOHN WIRTH
(Successor to Henry Liefke.)
BAKERY AND CONFECTIONERY
201-203 West Front St. Tel. 728
Orders delivered at short notice.

KODAKS
Complete line of Photo Supplies
Printing and Developing
AT DOANE'S
115 Park Ave.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles
KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.
Prompt Deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,
INSURANCE AGENTS
110 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

FRANK NEIDIG'S
LINCOLN MEAT MARKET
Fine Meats, Vegetables, Oysters and Heinz's "57."
94 Somerset St.
Telephone—781.



This Boiler Is a Coal Saver

Why? Because it is a BOYNTON and has the BOYNTON square fire pot, which increases fire surface about 25% over other boilers of like diameter.

The BOYNTON "square pot" is the greatest improvement yet devised in heating systems. It is square at the corners, hence clears free of cinders and ash each time the grate is turned. That means a live fire, always, and plenty of draft. See your dealer about the

BOYNTON
"Square Pot"
BOILER PATENTED

BOYNTON heaters—both hot water and hot air—are the best. They give perfect combustion and hence greatest heat efficiency with least fuel consumption. Put a "BOYNTON" in your home—it will save you money.

BOYNTON FURNACE COMPANY
37th St., Near Broadway, New York

Arrival and Departure of Mails.

Plainfield Postoffice.

June 15, 1911.

NEW YORK mails. Arrive—6.20, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 1.30, 2.30, 5.00, 5.30, 8.30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 6.00, 7.10, 7.45, 9.00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8.40, 10.00 a. m., 12.30, 3.15, and 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00 a. m., 12.35, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6.20, 8.00, 8.40, 11.45 a. m., 12.30, 2.30, 7.00 p. m. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 12.35, 2.00, 3.50, 6.50, 9.00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12.10, 3.50, 7.10 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11.30 a. m., 1.30, 5.00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 12.35, 3.50, 6.50 and 9 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA, West of Easton. Close—6.30 a. m., 1.30, 7.45 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—6.00, 8.40, a. m., 1.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.00 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—6.00, 8.40 a. m., 7.30, 2.30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6.30, 8.00, 9.00, 10.30 a. m., 12.10, 2.00, 3.50, 5.30, 6.00, 9.00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1.00, 6.45 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m., 5.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1.00 p. m. Close—9.00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6.15 p. m.

E. R. BIRD, P. M.

Proposals For Bridge

Sealed proposals will be received by the Joint Committee of the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Union, and the Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Somerset, N. J., at 10:30 a. m. on Thursday, July 27, 1911, at the Park Club House, Washington avenue, North Plainfield, New Jersey, for the following described work.

Re-inforced Concrete Arch Bridge, over Green Brook at Washington avenue, between City of Plainfield and Borough of North Plainfield, N. J.

Plans and specifications for the work may be examined at the office of the County Engineer of Somerset county at Somerville, N. J., and at the office of the County Engineer of Union County, at Elizabeth, N. J.

The right is reserved by the Joint Committee to reject any or all bids, as may be deemed best for the interests of Union and Somerset Counties.

Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for the sum of $500, made payable to the County Collectors of Union and Somerset County, as stated in the specifications.

JOSHUA DOUGHTY, Jr., County Engineer, Somerset County.
JACOB L. BAUER, County Engineer, Union County.
7 13 12

Go to John Lopresti's
405 WATCHUNG AVENUE
Pure olive oil, macaroni in all shapes All kinds of fancy fruits and a large assortment of strictly fresh nuts. Also confectionery, cigars and tobaccos
'Phone 449-J

CHAS. KEIDERLING
FURNITURE PACKER.
Furniture, Trunks, Pictures, China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.
Tel. 559-J 958 E. Front St.

PLAINFIELD WINDOW CLEANING CO.
M. MERSTRICH, Prop.
Stores, Offices, Private Residences, New Buildings Cleansed, Scrubbed and Oiled. Office, 145 East Front Street. Tel 864-J.

CURIOUS PHASE OF IDIOCY

Man Will Lie in Bed and Shiver Rather Than Get Up for Extra Wraps.

Perhaps a man never realizes so surely what a fool he is as when he wakes up on a cold night with the feeling that there is not enough covering on the bed. While he is perfectly aware that he is shivering, all his powers of action seem to have deserted him. He will no doubt draw his knees up close to his chin, but that is about all he will do to relieve his suffering.

All this time, strange to say, his mind is just as capable of thinking as if he were not in a half daze. He realizes fully that in his wardrobe, within a few feet of him, are enough extra wraps to laugh the cold to scorn and make him the happiest man in the world. Yet he will huddle himself into a cramped position, and lie awake to hear his teeth chatter rather than get out of bed and walk a few feet. All this time he recognizes the fact that he is a fool, and though he inwardly curses himself for his timidity, some strange spell seems to be cast over him that prevents his doing what he should do. There he shivers until sleep comes to his aid. In the morning he will vow never again to be such a coward, though he knows in his heart that when the thing occurs again he will be just as big a fool as before.

FACTS ABOUT THE SHAMROCK

Is an Entirely Different Plant in Various Sections of the Emerald Isle.

A rose by any other name would be as sweet, and the fact that the shamrock of old Ireland is an entirely different plant in various sections of the Emerald isle in no wise affects the romance that attaches to the name The plant generally exported from Ireland under that name is one of the hop clovers, Trifolium minus. It is a mistake to think that this plant will grow only in Ireland. It will grow and thrive in any temperate climate when properly cultivated. In fact, there is no plant known as shamrock which is peculiar to Ireland. White clover, for instance, known in various sections of Ireland as shamrock, grows in the United States in great abundance. Black medic and wood sorrel are designated as shamrock in certain localities. The wood sorrel may, in fact, be the shamrock of song and story. Ordinary red clover is sometimes called shamrock in the United States.

But, after all, a pretty sentiment should not be interfered with by botanical experts—what matters their Latin names, so long as the three-leafed bit of green grew near the cottage of the fathers in the ould country?

The Sisters.

"What a dainty little person Miss Blookings is!" exclaimed a very young man at an East end reception one Monday afternoon.

"Yes," agreed his companion, laconically.

"Such a lithe, perfect figure! And those beautiful little hands! Surely no manicurist could produce an effect like that; it must come from nature aided by rest."

"I guess so."

"But here's something I've always noticed. See that gaunt awkward girl standing beside her? Girls always get some ugly person to show them off by contrast. Look at the big red hands of the second one. Ain't it fierce? Who's that fright, anyhow?"

"That's Miss Blooking's older sister. She washes and irons Miss Blooking's party gowns for her.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Enemies of Matrimony.

Wedlock seems to be in a bad way in the mountains of the Dauphine. The confirmed bachelors of the country have decided to meet every month and toast celibacy. Invitations are sent out with the information. "Good feeding, good drinking, much laughter, much dancing.

An added insult to matrimony is that the invitations have been sent to all spinsters who have "put on St. Katherine's cap;" that is to say, who are over 25, and are therefore presumed to be on the high road to old maidenhood. The confirmed bachelors announce their intention of eating, drinking, laughing and dancing with the old maids every month. But their very hardihood may be their undoing.

How He Ate the Hay.

There are still some mighty eaters left. Not long ago a Berlin market porter undertook, for a wager, to put away at one sitting six mutton chops, 12 eggs, a goose, a duck, six pounds of potatoes and 22 pounds of hay. Difficulties were anticipated with the last course, and large sums were laid against the accomplishment of the feat. The ingenious porter solved the difficulty by calling for a cigarette after he had finished the duck. He then set light to the hay, pounded the ashes up with the potatoes, and swallowed the lot. After a heated discussion the referee declared him the winner.

Too Practical an Argument.

"Who was it," shouted the suffragist leader, "who was it that did most to elevate woman?"

"Why, the man who invented those high French heels," said a voice in her audience.

Then the meeting adjourned.

WOMAN'S WAY THE SUREST

Gets Quick Action Where Man Would Have Argued for Half an Hour.

A writer in the New York Globe tells of a young woman who, he believes, is not inferior to any man in the management of the affairs of life. She bought a small farm, and was busy overseeing the work on it.

The other day she ordered a telephone installed, and the company's workmen started in. Presently the "boss" called her out to the lawn.

"We can't run the wire in without damaging that tree," he said, pointing to a fine old elm near the piazza. "It can't be done."

"Very well," replied the young woman smiling, "then you needn't put in the phone." and she re-entered the house.

"Did the electricians go away?" asked the correspondent, who assuredly believes that a man should think twice before insisting upon his boasted mental superiority to the other sex.

"No, sir. They put in the phone—and without harming the tree."

"A man, now," he concludes, "would have argued a half hour over the matter."

EXTRA ALLOWANCE FOR KIDS

Wise Housekeeper Lays Down Safe Rule for the Entertainment of Children.

They just had received a telephone message that Mr. and Mrs. Rankin were over in town with little Bennie, and would drop in for luncheon if it would be convenient, and they had said of course it would be. Then they hastily examined the contents of the larder.

"We seem to be rather low on chocolate," announced Jessica, "but probably there is enough if we are careful. We can give Bennie a little cup."

"Don't ever think it," warned mother, hastily. "Pick out the biggest cup for Bennie and be prepared to refill it a few times. You and I will take little cup or none, but don't ever think a child—especially a growing boy—isn't going to want the most of everything. If you make such a mistake you are likely to come face to face with the most terrible embarrassments. A much safer rule is to allow double, at least, for each child."

Country With Only One Bank.

There are no public banking institutions in the Dominican republic, and but one private bank with agencies in the more important towns which buys and sells drafts, makes loans, and is the repository of the government funds.

Buying and selling drafts is an important course of revenue to this bank and also to many private individuals.

Money is easily placed at almost any time at one and one-half per cent. a month, and sometimes at two and two and one-half per cent., with first class real estate or personal security. Long time loans of large amounts are placed at 12 per cent. per annum. Municipalities, borrowing money for improvements and other purposes, pay one per cent. a month.

There are very few depositors in the local bank. Most of the well-to-do people, both among the merchants and farmers, never think of depositing their money, but have small private safes or secrete their hoardings in some other manner.—Moody's Magazine.

Housekeeping and Business.

Mothers should remember that when their daughters become wives they must know values, not only the values of food and clothing, but the values of time and of patience, of perseverance and of forbearance. Unless they have been taught these, how are they to make success in life? How can they help the man whose future lies to a certain extent in their hands, to make that future worth while? In housekeeping there is just as much business method required as in the management of a large corporation. So many things to see to, a certain amount of money to manage, so many results to get at by the end of each year.

Birds Killed in Migration.

According to advices from the Caucasus millions of singing birds which every winter used to find a warm retreat on the southern slopes of the forest clad mountains of the Caucasus have suddenly been surprised by the intense cold and severe snowstorms while they were on their way from the north.

The slides of the mighty mountains, the highest in Europe, and the shores of the Black sea are now strewn with small corpses of singing birds, especially bullfinches, goldfinches, robin redbreasts, fly-catchers and other birds which in the summer mostly visit these shores.

How Birds Keep Warm.

The high temperature of birds enables them to resist cold more effectively than they could otherwise do. Whereas blood heat in man is 98.4 degrees Fahrenheit it is 107 degrees in the domestic fowl and more in some other birds.

Nevertheless they feel the cold cruelly, as you may see any frosty night if you visit an ivy creeper clad wall with a lantern; the sparrows nestle together in a closely packed mass, and if there be a chimney you may be sure the birds will have chosen its exterior as their roosting place for the sake of such warmth as it may give

Scheuer's Bargains

FOR THURSDAY, FRIDAY and SATURDAY

Scheuer's Best XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour, 24½ Bag 75c; per Barrel - - - $5.90

Large Ripe Watermelons each 30c	Kirkman's Borax Washing Powder 20c size, 4-lb pkg. 16c	Borden's Malted Milk 45c size a bottle 38c	Franco-American Soups Individual size, a can 10c	Borden's Peerless Evaporated Milk 10c size, 3 cans 23c	Scheuer's Bitter Chocolate for Cooking 16c size, a cake 12c
Schimmell' Salad Dressing large bottle 10c	Italian Olive Oil Trial size Bottle 10c size, a bottle 8c	Franklin Mills Entire Wheat Flour 25c size, 5-lb pkg. 21c	Anti-Dust Sweeping Compound 25c size, a package 21c	Windo-Klene For Cleaning Glass 10c size, a can 5c	Swift's Borax Soap Finest Quality Ten 5c cakes 39c
Jello Jelly Powder 3 10c packages 25c	Pineapple Chunks 15c size a can 12c	Cook's Flaked Rice 12c size a package 10c	Old Grist Mill Malt Coffee 25c size, a package 18c	Marshall's Kippered Herring 15c size, 2 cans 25c	H. O. Presto 10c size a package 8c

WASHINGTON ROCK CO GINGER ALE SARSAPARILLA, ROOT BEER OR BIRCH BEER, per doz. quart bottles...80c

G. Washington Prepared Coffee 35c kind, a can 30c	Hecker's Cream Oatmeal 10c size, 3 packages 25c	National Biscuit Co. Uneeda Biscuits a package 4c	Pure Italian Olive Oil worth 85c; quart can 75c	10 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Pork and Beans 10c	15 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Pork and Beans 15c
10 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Spaghetti 10c	15 Stamps with 1 can Franco-American Spaghetti 15c	Mustard Sardine 10c size 3 cans for 25c	Jersey Potatoes 6-quart pony basket 43c	10 Stamps with 2 bunches Beets 10c	10 Stamps with 2 cans Jiffy Hand Cleanser 10c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Baking Powder 45c	100 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Premium Teas 60c	70 Stamps with 1 lb Scheuer's Tea 50c	30 Stamps with 1 lb Oolong, Mixed or English Breakfast 35c	20 Stamps with 1 lb Best Mocha and Java 32c	10 Stamps with 1 lb Coffee 23c

DRAKES POUND CAKE, RAISIN CAKE, MARBLE CAKE, FRUIT CAKE, a lb.....18c

10 STAMPS WITH

Large Bottle Blue	10c
1 Box Ball Blue	10c
1 box Royal Talcum Powder	10c
1 box Royal Tooth Powder	10c
1 Package Macaroni	10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla	15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish	10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline	10c
1 Package Parlor Matches	12c
Large Bottle Ammonia	10c
7-lb Bag Salt	10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish	10c

20 STAMPS WITH

3-lb box Gloss Starch	20c
3 Large Rolls Toilet Paper	25c
Large Bottle Witch Hazel	25c
Large Bottle Harris Ammonia	25c
Quart Bottle Welch's Grape Juice	45c
Large bot. Slick Shine Fur. Polish	25c
Large box Silver Star Stove Polish	15c
½-gallon Bottle Cider Vinegar	20c
1 lb Premium Java Coffee	27c

IN OUR VEGETABLE DEPARTMENT.

New Potatoes, 6-qt. pony basket	43c
Yellow Onions, 6-qt. pony basket	47c
Fresh Green Beans, a quart	5c
Fresh Sweet Peas, ½ peck	25c
Fresh Wax Beans, a quart	5c
Jersey Beets, a bunch	5c
Watermelons, each	30c
Fresh Carrots, 3 bunches	10c
Large Head Lettuce	8c

CRACKERS AND BISCUITS.

Ivin's Spice Wafers, a lb	12c
Fig Bars, a lb	10c
H. & P. Breakfast Biscuits, 2 pkgs	25c
Frou-Frou-wafer, lb	45c
Lemon Cake, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs	25c
Ginger Snaps, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs	25c
Nic Nacs, a lb, 7c; 4 lbs	25c
Nabisco Sugar Wafers, pkg	9c
Filigree Fingers, pkg	9c
Five O'clock Teas or Social Teas, pkg	9c

SPECIALS IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT

Fancy Milk Fed Roasting Chickens, lb	22c
Fresh Killed Fowls, a lb	20c
Choice Young Fowls, a lb	18c
Prime Legs Spring Lamb, lb	18c
Prime Legs Young Mutton, lb	16c
Boneless Rib Roast, per lb	18c
Cooked Corn Beef, a lb	35c
Prime Chuck Roast, a lb	12½c
Prime Chuck Steaks, a lb	12½c
Fresh Chopped Beef, a lb	12½c
Boneless Salt Pork, a lb	14c
Finest Sugar Cured Hams, a lb	18c
Boneless Sugar Cured Bacon, a lb (By the strip)	18c
Fine Summer Bologna, a lb	20c

WHEN U NEED

—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.

222 Madison Ave.

BROKAW'S CREAMERY.

No need to complain of getting poor butter or cream—go to Brokaw's and get his own make, which is always fresh and good. Our specialties are Fresh-made Butter, both salted and unsalted, Rich Milk and Cream, positively Fresh Eggs and everything in the dairy line. The only place in the city where these goods are made on the spot. Call and see our plant and witness the process.

TEL 293-W 186 E. FRONT STREET

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,

(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)

217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

BUY A LISK

THE WASH BOILER THAT IS GUARANTEED FOREVER.

Against rust.

Think of it—absolutely no chance of your finest clothes getting rust stained from the boiler.

There is not a better wash boiler made than the LISK and we doubt if you could buy one as good at any price.

The heavy copper bottom is joined to the sides by extra strong seams.

OUR GUARANTEE.

We will replace at once and without a question any Lisk Wash Boiler we sell which ever shows signs of a rust spot.

ALUMINUM—The Ideal Kitchen Ware

There is no more sanitary and cleanly ware for cooking than Aluminum. And—

It's very low price puts it within the reach of all.

Come in and see the countless articles of Aluminum Ware we have in stock.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

Extra Thick Best Quality

JAR RUBBERS

WE CLOSE AT NOON SATURDAYS

J. W. GAVETT

West Front Street.

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00

A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

WHAT THE PUBLIC WANTS

Popular Taste Is Not Always for the Best in Books, Plays or Anecdotes.

"It is a regrettable fact," said a speaker at a Republican banquet in Fort Wayne, "that the most popular men are not necessarily the best men, the most popular books are not the best books, and the most popular plays are not the best plays.

"Even in anecdotes," continued the speaker, "the public taste is bad. I'll tell you the kind of anecdote the public wants.

"A Bostonian was showing his two little girls through the poets' corner in Westminster abbey. Bessie, the older of the two little girls, carried a rose in her hand. When they came to the marble effigy of Longfellow, Bessie rose on tiptoe and reverently placed her rose in a fold of the poet's marble drapery.

"As the Bostonian departed he missed his golden-haired younger daughter. Turning back, he saw her still lingering before Longfellow's bust. Then as he regarded her, she drew herself up on her tiny toes and placed something that glittered beside her sister's red rose. And, smiling happily, she ran to her father.

"'What were you doing, dear one?' the Bostonian asked.

"'Bessie had a rose and I hadn't nuffing,' said the little golden haired darling, 'so I bit off one of my curls and gave Mr. Longfellow that,'"

HE WAS REAL DIPLOMATIST

Man Discovers Sure Way to Get Wife to Mend His Clothes.

As Mr. Compton looked down at his waistcoat he discovered that it lacked a button. "And I asked my wife to sew it on more firmly, last night," he said to his commuter neighbor in the train. "I don't see how she forgot it."

"Don't ever ask her to mend anything," said his friend. "I learned a better way before I'd been married a year. When I want anything mended, say a shirt, for instance, I take it under my arm, all mussed up, and open the closet door, and sing out to my wife, 'Where's the rag-bag, Peggy?'

"'What do you want of the rag-bag?' she'll ask me.

"'Oh, I thought I'd throw this away,' I tell her, and squeese it a little tighter under my arm.

"'Let me see what you have there,' she'll say, and I'll mutter something about 'worn-out old thing!' while I hand it over to her.

"'Why, James Holland!' she'll say, when she's spread it out and looked it over in a hurry. 'I am surprised at you! This is perfectly good. It doesn't need a single thing except—' And then and there she sits down to mend it, looking as if I'd made her a present."—Youth's Companion.

Where Fisherman's "Catgut" Is Made.

Probably but a small percentage of the fishermen who use flies strung with fine transparent "catgut" are aware that the almost unbreakable substance that holds the hooks against the fiercest struggles of the struck fish comes from silk worms.

The principal center of the manufacture of this kind of catgut is the island of Procida, in the Bay of Naples, but most of the silk worms employed are raised near Terre Annunziata, at the foot of Vesuvius. The caterpillars are killed just as they are about to begin the spinning of cocoons, the silk glands are removed and subjected to a process of pickling, which is a secret of the trade, and afterward the threads are carefully drawn out by skilled workers, mostly women. The length of the thread varies from a foot to nearly 20 inches.—Scientific American.

Need of Ideals.

Mankind always needs ideals which loom so large in the sight of men that they cannot fail to see them clearly. More than ever is thus true of today, for the turmoil and the hurry of modern life raise a great dust which oftentimes hides the skies. Enthusiasm, dreams, hopes are to be encouraged, and belong to youth, which ever renews itself in warm hearts, although reason is needed to cool and guide them. The fact that we believe that our ideal is beautiful and holy is not ground for forcing it on our mates. To win success a man must not be a pure idealist, else in practical things he will fail, but he must have ideals, and he must obey them.—Atlantic.

Day on Which Women Rule.

Candlemas day is not celebrated in Holland much more than in England, but its place is taken by a festival unknown in this country, says the London Globe. Slipper day in the Netherlands is the one day in the year in which the Dutch woman claims superiority over her husband.

On that day she rules him to her heart's content, and he generally obeys good humoredly enough. That is, unless she is one of those ladies not unknown in Holland or in any other county who aspire to complete rule over their unhappy partners throughout the year.

Queer Guy.

Willis—Bumpus is one of the oddest men I ever saw.

Gillis—How so?

Willis—Why, when a fellow borrows a quarter and doesn't pay it back Bumpus finally admits that it is the quarter he cares about, and not the principle of the thing.—Puck.

WOMAN'S ARTISTIC REBUKE

Makes Good on Declaration That France Could Create Beautiful Thing Out of Nothing.

Mme. Von Konig was a young woman of French origin who, ten years before the Franco-Prussian war, had married a German army officer. Her heart was torn during the struggle, and, though her aid went to her husband, her tears were shed for France. At a dinner party some one had the bad taste to speak of "conquered France."

"France may be conquered," said Mme. Von Konig, "but she still retains her ability to create a beautiful thing out of nothing."

The next day one of the gentlemen present sent her a single white hair, asking her what France could make out of that. She sent it to a great French jeweler, and told him of her challenge. Presently there came back to her a device in gold and enamel. On a bed of sabres stood the Prussian black eagle, holding in its mouth the single white hair. Attached to one end of the hair were the arms of Alsace, in delicate, tiny gold workmanship, at the other, the arms of Lorraine. Underneath was engrossed: "Alsace and Lorraine; you hold them by a hair."

BRAN BATH IS SOOTHING

High Strung Nervous Woman Will Find Them Beneficial as Well as Cheap.

Besides softening and whitening the warm bran bath is soothing to nerves.

These can be taken so easily and cheaply at home that the highly strung woman should experiment with them.

Get a peck of bran at a feed store. It is much cheaper than buying it in prepared bags or getting bran mixtures at a drug store.

Make a number of cheesecloth bags about 12 inches square. Leave a small opening at one corner to hold a funnel neck and fill with bran until the bag is half full.

Run a tub quarter full of hot water and put the bag in it several minutes before it is to be used. After soaking squeese well until the water is brown and bubbling.

Do not stay too long in this bath and rest for 15 minutes afterward. In cases of extreme nervousness the rest is followed by a brisk rubbing with cocoa butter.

Foolhardy Snake Keeper.

The only fatal case of snake bite on record in the London Zoological gardens was directly due to the foolishness of the victim. He was in charge of the snakes, and coming in one morning with some friends began to boast of his power over the creatures and the extent to which they would submit to be played with by one whom they knew. This led to practical experiments, the overconfident keeper taking an Indian cobra from its comfortable sleeping place, and declaring he was a snake charmer proceeded to swing it about his head and play other tricks with it.

A native snake charmer would have known there was no more certain way to rouse the snake's temper than this, for the race abhors rough handling or sudden movement of any sort. The result of the exploit was that the keeper was bitten on the nose. He was hurried off to the hospital, but died in a few hours.

The Dak Bungalow.

The Dak bungalow of India is a blessed institution for the weary Dak, as the natives call the traveler. He finds these little shelters dotted over many of the out-of-the-way parts of the country, generally not more than one long day's march apart. They mean warmth when one has been chilled to the bone by biting winds, or shelter from the driving rain and hail storms, the latter so common in northern India that planters insure their crops against them, and so violent that both men and cattle are often killed by them. The bungalows usually consist of two bedrooms and a dining room, with rough outside buildings providing a kitchen and sheds for horses and coolies. After our life in the untrodden forests of South America it was camping de luxe.—Harper's Magazine.

Why the Horse Rolls.

Horses are fond of rolling on the ground, and no animal more thoroughly shakes itself than they do. After a roll they give themselves a shake or two to remove anything adhering to the coat. The habit is of much service to horses living in open plains.

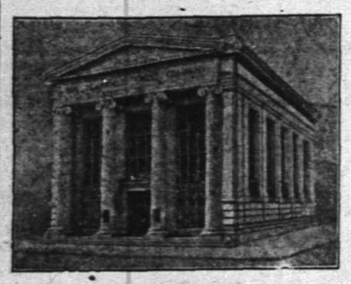
On being turned loose at the end of a journey an Arab horse rolls in the sand, which acts as blotting paper, absorbing exudations from the body. A shake removes the sand, and the coat soon dries. Cavalrymen in hot climates sometimes put sand on their horses as the simplest and quickest way of drying them.

Even More Tiresome.

"Is there anybody quite as irritating," said a doctor, "as my partner, who invariably comes round after something happens and says, 'I told you so'?"

"Yes," replied his friend. "An uncle of mine is quite as tiresome. He never says 'I told you so' in so few words, but always remarks, in a tone of mournful triumph, 'And yet I was wholly unable to make any of you perceive, although it was perfectly clear to my mind, that such would be the inevitable result.'"

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY



Assets $3,700,000.00

The Plainfield Trust Company is not only the largest financial institution in Plainfield but is the largest trust company in New Jersey between Elizabeth and Camden.

To the Company's sound banking methods and conservative policy are due its remarkable growth and present strong financial condition and its facilities are offered to all those who require efficient banking service.

FREEHOLDING PLAINFIELD N.J.

Levy Bros' TWO STORES

115 West Front St., Plainfield, N. J.

JULY BARGAIN EVENT

OUR EIGHTH

BIG MIDSUMMER SALE

The Most Remarkable Bargain Attractions We Have Ever Offered.

Begins Saturday Morning, July 15, at 9 o'Clock

Sale will Continue 2 Weeks, Ending Saturday, July 29

R. & G. CORSETS.

Not a corset in this lot worth less than $1.00; mostly short and medium lengths..39c

Hundreds of fine Lawn and Percale Waists at 39c
Ladies' 15c Summer Vest.....9c
Figured Dress Lawns, yard.....4c
White Hemstitched Handkerchiefs 3 for..5c
15c White Persian Lawn, yard.....7½c
Ladies' and Children's 15c Stockings, pr...9c
Buster Brown 25c Stockings, pr.....19c
45-inch Table Oil Cloth, 22c kind, yard...15c
Ladies' 25c Gloves, pair.....15c
Men's 25c Socks 19c
Men's 15c Japanette Handkerchiefs.....7½c
Ladies' 25c Lissue Handkerchiefs.....19c
Hemmend Napkins ,each.....4c
Ladies' Nainsook Gowns.....49c
350 Ladies' Gowns, worth from $1.25 to $2 98c
Ladies' 25c muslin drawers 19c
50c Drawers 39c
Children's Skirts, lace trimmed, from 4 to 10 years 25c
Lawn Kimonos 10c
$1.39 to $2.00 Waists.....98c
A lot of Ladies' $1.00 and $1.25 Waists...79c
Men's $1.00 Union Suits, odds and ends..49c
Men's 25c Underwear.....19c
Embroidery, assorted widths, value 15c and 18c; yard 10c
Killarney Linnen, per yard.....12½c
25c White Madras 18c
Men's 59c Shirts 35c

HOUSE DRESSES HALF PRICE.

We made a grand clean up of several hundred of the popular "La Mode" House Dresses including about 200 sample dresses which go on sale at about half price. These are the best fiting house dresses on the market.

One lot fine percale, two piece dresses, regular price $1.48; for this sale 79c

Sample Dresses, worth up to $3.00, at 98c, $1.25 and $1.48.

Boys' 50c Negligee Shirts.....25c
Mennen's 19c Talcum Powder.....10c
19c and 25c Wash Belts.....10c
25c White Aprons 18c
50c Aprons, large Mother Hubbard style, Amoskeag Gingham 39c
Boys' Blouses 19c
10c Laces at yard.....5c
36-inch Damask Table Square.....25c
Good Huck Towels 5c
Children's Rompers .....25c and 49c
Lawn Dressing Sacques, Shirred at Waist, stitched edge 18c
15c Pillow Cases 11c
35c Changeable color Dress Linens, yard..19c
Long Lawn and Crepe Kimonos 49c, 98c, $1.49
Ladies' Hand Bags, $1.50 value.....79c
Hair Barrettes, values 10c to 25c, each....3c
Ladies' Muslin Short Skirts.....29c
25c and 35c Corset Covers.....19c
$1.00 Umbrellas, with mission handles....79c
Bleached Sheets, 72x90 .....39c
Lace trimmed Brassiere 23c
Russia Crash Toweling, per yard.....9c

These Disagreeable Days

emphasize the need of comfortable footwear.

We have every summer necessity as well as the more extreme designs in Low Shoes and Oxfords that are not obtainable elsewhere.

Prices here are always as low and in many cases less than other shoe stores ask.

White Ducks and Tan Leather are very much sought after just now---and they're here.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE

127 EAST FRONT ST.

RUNAWAY FREIGHT CAR.

Crashes Into Jersey City Street—Many Narrow Escapes.

Jersey City, July 14.—A runaway box car crashed into the high board fence around the Pennsylvania freight yard at the north side of Exchange place yesterday morning, carrying away about thirty feet of the fence, breaking the plate glass windows of the Adams Express Company office and came near killing Patrick McCue, of 84 Fleet street. McCue's escape from death was really miraculous.

He was standing in front of the Adams Express office. The crash came so suddenly that he had no time to get away, yet instinctively he dodged. A big slab of board just missed his head and went crashing through a window. A piece of the heavy glass flew toward him as he dodged and cut through his derby as clearly as if it had been cut with an axe. The hat was carried to the gutter, but McCue's head was not even scratched.

LEADER MATTHEWS NOT TO SEEK RE-ELECTION.

High Bridge, July 14.—Surprise was occasioned in political circles here yesterday by the announcement of Assemblyman John J. Matthews that he would not be a candidate for re-election this year.

Mr. Matthews has served three terms in the lower branch of the Legislature, and was the leader in the Democratic majority in the recent session.

It was generally regarded as certain that Leader Matthews would be among the candidates at the coming primaries. During the last session he was displeased by the attitude of the newspapers with relation to his stand on bills favored by Governor Wilson.

Claiming that he was grossly misrepresented, Mr. Matthews threatened to resign the House leadership early in the session. He remained neutral in all matters involving Governor Wilson's supports and the Democratic organization.

RECORDER FITZGIBBONS IS AFTER SUNDAY WORKERS

Hampton, July 14.—Recorder Fitzgibbons, of Hampton Borough, summoned 19 'John Doe' teamsters, fifty "John Doe" helpers and two "John Doe" foremen to appear before him this morning to answer a charge of working on the Christian Sabbath. The men are employed in building the new macadam road between Clinton and Lebanon.

It is said the recorder visited the road Sunday and saw the men at work and caused their arest.

—Use Press Want Ads.

ONE DEAD, 6 HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Cape May, July 14.—Mrs. Morgan J. Goldsmith, the wife of a teacher in Washington Irving High School, New York, was instantly killed and her husband, John H. Judge, and members of the families of each man were injured yesterday afternoon when the auto in which they were riding, near Swainton, was overturned in the effort of the driver to avoid running down two boy bicyclists.

The automobile party, which left the summer home of Mr. Judge, a New York lawyer, on West Fleming avenue, Holly Beach, comprised Mr. and Mrs. Goldsmith, their two children, Morgan J., Jr., and Helen; Mrs. Judge, her son Victor and the chauffeur. They were going to Atlantic City to attend the convention of the Elks there.

While on the State road near Swainton, not far from Cape May, the auto swung around a curve at a good pace and the chauffeur saw two boys on bicycles approaching rapidly. The boys became confused and to avoid running them down the chauffeur turned the machine into the ditch. The machine turned half over on its side and all the occupants were thrown violently to the ground some distance away from the tonneau.

Everyone of the party except Mrs. Goldsmith arose more or less bruised and wrenched, but when they examined Mrs. Goldsmith they found that she was unconscious and not breathing. A telephone message was sent from the nearest house and in response to the call for help Dr. Cohen and Dr. Beveridge, of Wildwood, hurried to the spot where the accident had occurred. They discovered that Mrs. Goldsmith was dead, her neck having been broken by the fall from the machine. Her body was removed to the Judge cottage at Holly Beach, whence it will be shipped to New York tomorrow.

Of the others Mr. Goldsmith is the most seriously injured. He is suffering from shock and possible internal injuries. Dr. Beveridge is attending him. Mr. Goldsmith is the brother of Mrs. Judge.

CIGARETTE BLAMED FOR AUTO ACCIDENT

A cigarette was responsible for an automobile accident yesterday afternoon on Speedwell avenue, Morristown, in which Buckley Evans, son of Dr. Britton D. Evans of the State Hospital, Morris Plains; Gustav Stickley, son of Editor Stickley, of the Craftsman, and Louis Thebaud, son of Edward A. Thebaud, of Mendham, were injured.

The three young men were speeding along the avenue when a cigarette, Thebaud was smoking, dropped from his lips and set fire to his coat. Without stopping the machine, young Thebaud took his hands from the steering wheel and attempted to beat out the fire. In an instant the car swerved from the road and ran into the gutter, along the roadside striking a tree. Evans and Stickley were thrown into the gutter, while Thebaud was pinned in the machine. Evans' head was cut open and his front teeth knocked out.

Stickley sustained several deep gashes in his legs and his face was bruised. Thebaud's leg was sprained. The machine was wrecked.

Evans and Stickley were taken to the State Hospital, where their injuries were looked after by the asylum doctors. It is said neither is seriously injured. Thebaud went home in another automobile.

POPE ISSUES ENCYCLICAL.

Abolishes Obligation to Hear Mass on Certain Days.

Rome, July 14.—The pope, in view of increased cost of living, has issued an encyclical to Catholics with a view to help the working and salaried classes.

The pope has decided to abolish the obligation to hear mass on the days of St. Joseph and St. John the Baptist and Corpus Domini, which henceforth will be solemnized on the nearest Sunday. Catholics must continue to attend mass on Sundays, Christmas, New Years, Twelfth Day, Ascension Day, Assumption Day, All Saints' Day, Feast of the Conception of St. Peter and St. Paul. If any such feast shall fall on a fasting day the pope will dispense Catholics from fasting.

LOVING CUP FOR DUNN.

Down Town Democratic Club Has a Big Night.

William J. Dunn, founder of the Elizabeth Downtown Democratic Club, at a meeting of the association last night was presented with a silver loving cup by President James E. Louden.

John J. Collins received the unanimous indorsement of the club for sheriff of Union county and James J. Manning for State Senator. Attorney Charles E. Cook, of Asbury Park, and State Senator George E. Silzer, who were to have spoken at the meeting, sent letters of regret.

Miss Mildred Everett, a pupil nurse at the hospital, is enjoying her vacation.

IDLE MONEY

For the deposit of funds pending permanent investment we commend our checking department where they will earn 3% interest.

For an investment of a permanent character that will require no looking after, we suggest an account in our Special Department subject to 4% interest. If a higher rate is desired we offer gilt edge mortgages on Plainfield property netting from 5 to 6%.

We suggest an interview.

THE STATE TRUST CO.

Capital $100,000.00

BASEBALL.

Another shift of umpires has been made in the Central League. DeWitt VanCleef, who was to have officiated in the Plainfield-Bound Brook game tomorrow, will not appear as he was obliged to resign his position with the league on account of other work. James Collum, of New York city, has been engaged for the rest of the season, starting tomorrow. Collum comes with a good reputation as a square official.

And now we wonder as we go galloping to press what kick Bound Brook will have after tomorrow's game. Their objecting to Umpire O'Loughlin's decisions last Saturday was absolutely absurd as both teams received equal benefits from Billy's near sightedness. If anything the Pets really had more to kick about.

Surprises are bound to happen, but that Brooklyn-Chicago series certainly would make the proverbial Sampson get out his old dull razor and shave. The Trolley Dodgers were good enough to give the Cubs an awful shock and carry them back to third place.

Otto Frederickson has resigned from the Dunellen team and will twirl for the Scotch Plains aggregation on Sundays. The Netherwood southpaw will undoubtedly make his bow in the Central League ere long for Joe Alberts has signed him to be benched on Saturdays. This will mean that the youngster will be held in reserve for Warry McLaughlin. Frederickson is as steady as a clock and has a deliciously flavored set of curves, which he serves with a speed sauce with lots of pepper in it.

Tim Jordan, the first sacker for the Toronto Maple Leafs, was the first man in the Eastern League this season to register one hundred safe wallops.

Jack Peacock, of this city, at one time a member of the Princeton University baseball squad, will do the twirling for Dunellen for the remainder of the season. Peacock is a well known box artists and can deliver the goods in any amateur company around these parts.

The Pets will have their regular lineup in the game with Bound Brook tomorrow.

Dunellen has a hard match scheduled for tomorrow afternoon on the Dunellen groundz when Cranford will try again to go away with a victory. The Cranford boys have a real rep although Dunellen has alureadv defeated them once this season, having won from Somerville of the Central League, Morristown and Caldwell.

Ramsberger will be on third for Dunellen tomorrow and it is expected that the fans of that place will give the old corner baseman a hearty welcome when he appears in a Dunellen uniform for the first time this year.

Rube Marquard increased his value to $11,000.50 when he twirled the Giants to vicoory for the sixth successive time Wednesday. His victims then were the Pirates.

Up to July 5, Ty Cobb had poled out an average with the stick of .444. Joe Jackson, of the Cleveland team, is the nearest batter to him with a mark of .383.

Don't forget to leave tomorrow afternoon open for the exercise of your baseball spirit. The game is at Bound Brook, you know, where they have a good team and a cosmopolitan set of fans.

TO DIVE FROM ATWOOD AEROPLANE INTO OCEAN.

Atlantic City, July 14.—The feat of diving from an aeroplane into the ocean is to be attempted here Tuesday next by Joseph M. Callahan, crack swimmer of the New York Athletic Club.

Callahan arrived Wednesday and is registered from the Hotel Dunlop. He entered the surf late in the afternoon and from life guards and others familiar with the depth of the water off the resort he gained the requisite knowlegde of how far out he must go before diving from a great height in safety.

Harry N. Atwood is expected to return from Washington within a few days to complete the repairs on the aeroplane in which he and Charles K. Hamilton plunged into the surf last week. It is from this machine that Callahan proposes to make his dive into the ocean.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

Great Lamb Sale at ROTH & CO.'S Saturday, July 15

300 LBS. GENUINE LAMB

Hindquarters of Genuine Lamb, 15½c lb

Choice Rib Lamb Chops, lb . . . 16c

Forequarters of Genuine Lamb, 8½c lb

Breast of Lamb, Neck of Lamb, Lamb Stew, 6c lb

Sugar Cured U. S. Inspected Small Smoked Calas., 11c lb

SPECIAL IN OUR POULTRY DEPT. Fricassee Chickens, Soup Chickens, 13½c lb

Choice Phila. Boneless Bacon, by strip, 16½c lb

Very Fancy Fresh Killed Broilers, Fryers and Small Roasting Chickens, 21c lb

Celebrated Cottage Hams, no bone, no waste, all meat, 17c lb

BEST NATIVE BEEF Chuck Roast, Pot Roast, Oven Roast, 12½c lb

Best Bologna in town, including Frankfurters and Pressed Hams, 12½c lb

Best Creamery Butter, 31c lb

Butter, lb . . . 24c

2,000 PRINCELY SHIRTS

37c

Regular values up to $1.00.

All sizes in Men's and Boys'

The finest fabrics, such that are used in dollar shirts, in all patterns and colors. This is the lowest price ever quoted for shirts of this famous make Every shirt fresh and new—just from the maker.

SALE STARTS SATURDAY MORNING

Come early as the entire lot will be snapped up before night.

THE OUTLET

140 WEST FRONT ST.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

JULY FIFTEENTH.

1776—"Mad Anthony" Wayne's force captured Stony Point, on the Hudson.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Established May 10, 1887.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, JULY 15, 1911.

Two Cents a Copy—$5 a Year.

THE WEATHER.

Generally fair; except probably local thunder showers tonight or Sunday.
Maximum, 80; minmum, 59.

SUPPORT OF WIFE

Richard T. Hone, Who Abandoned Her, Ordered Again to Pay $5 a Week.

HE HAD FLED JURISDICTION.

Caught in New York and Brought Back—Had Been Living Here Previously With Another Woman.

Another chapter in the marital troubles of Richard T. Hone and his wife was chronicled yesterday afternoon in the city court before Judge William G. DeMeza and resulted in Hone being placed under $300 bonds to pay his wife $5 per week for one year. The complaint was brought by Overseer of the Poor Alexander Ayers. J. Henry Crane represented Mrs. Hone; Winfield S. Angleman, the city, and W. R. Wilson, of Elizabeth, was counsel for Hone. C. F. Fulmer qualified as bondsman.

This is the second time that it has been necessary to have a non-support action brought against the defendant and the second time he has been bonded. The first time was in October, 1909, after he had been located in this city by his wife, whom he had deserted in Pottstown, Pa., some time previous. He was living with another woman on Park avenue at that time and although opportunity for reconciliation was presented, he refused and William N. Runyon, then the city judge, placed Hone under bonds to make weekly payments towards the support of his wife. In the bond was an agreement that at is expiration it was to be renewed and there was an understanding to that effect between Hone and the court.

Instead of renewing the bond, Hone fled and after some months was located in New York. He was extradited and until June 28, was a prisoner in the county jail at Elizabeth. Habeas corpus proceedings won him his freedom. Mr. Ayers was apprised of these proceedings and he had Hone apprehended in order that he might be compelled to support his wife. Counsel on both sides consumed considerable time in argument inasmuch as Hone is not now a resident of this city and has not been for more than nine months. been for more than nine months. Judge DeMeza supported the contention made by Mr. Crane and Mr. Angleman which in effect was that Hone was a resident of this city and had deserted his wife and as no proof had been submitted that a reconciliation had taken place, desertion continues.

Former City Judge William N. Runyon was called to prove the records in the first trial. Dr. Fulburrow gave testimony of Mrs. Hone's condition. She is 48 years old and not strong enough to work in a factory as she is now obliged to do. He also stated that the nature of her trouble is such that it may be several years before there is a permanent imrpovement. When Hone was on the stand he said that he earned $12 per week. His former employer, Clarence Schultizer, was called and testified that he paid Hone $15 per week.

Judge DeMeza carefully reviewed the evidence, critically and concisely analyzing the facts as presented, like one to the manner born, thereby winning the congratulations of fellow lawyers and the spectators on his fairness of the opinion.

REV. J. Y. BROEK WILL SPEAK AT FRESH AIR HOME.

Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, will speak at the meeting to be held at the Netherwood Fresh Air Home tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, and Charles P. Titsworth will be the soloist. Under the direction of Clifford A. Braider, the singing by the Children's Choir will be a feature of the services, to which the public is invited. Services will be held every evening next week with the exception of Wednesday.

Last night the Christian Endeavor Society of the Temple Baptist church was in charge of the services, and the pastor, Rev. Evarts C. Conover, made a fifteen minute address. The Children's Choir sang and the Endeavorers also took part in the service much to the pleasure of both the children and mothers at the Home.

To Visit Brother.

Mrs. Robert Jahn, of Scotch Plains, left yesterday for Oshkosh, Wis., to visit her brother, Emil Hammerley, whom she has not seen for thirty-two years. Mrs. Jahn will make an indefinite stay.

Mrs. William A. Millard, of East Second street, mother of Ernest A. Millard, of the postoffice staff, has been detained at home several weeks with a severe form of stomach trouble.

GIVEN HER CHOICE OF WOODBRIDGE OR JAIL

Ella Ross and Richard Kea, colored, of Arlington avenue, were arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning, charger with neglecting the former's children. The charge was preferred by Miss Holly, of the Charity Organization Society. After some questoining by the court, Ella Ross said that she is married but not living with her husband. Kea is also married and is not living with his wife.

The Ross woman came to this city a short time ago from Woodbridge and the order of the court was for her to pack her belongings and leave town before 4 o'clock this afternoon or she would be arrested and sent to jail for 59 days and fined $100 in addition to having the children taken from her.

BANK STOCK TAXATION IS CONSIDERED UNFAIR

Attention of Governor Wilson and the authorities at Trenton is to be directed to the necessity, or advisability, of a bill that will change the method of taxing bank stock. Under the present arrangement the tax is collected in the town where the owner resides. For instance, if a man owns Plainfield bank stock, and resides in Bound Brook, the latter town reaps the benefit. In many instances more than sixty per cent. of bank stock taxes are paid in other towns than that in which the banking house is located.

The ground on which the change is being advocated is that since the stockholders receive the benefit and protection of the city in which they are located, it is only fair that the tax on the stock should be paid into that city's treasury and not diverted to another city that has no cost by reason of the bank's maintenance.

AUTO HITS SCISSOR GRINDERS MACHINE

An automobile being driven by H. M. Brakeley, of Dunellen, in which his brothers Paul and George, the latter's wife and Arthur L. Wells, of East Seventh street, this city, were passengers, collided with Antonio Franceschette and his scissors grinding machine on Watchung avenue last night about 9 o'clock. Franeschette was bowled over and claimed that he was seriously injured about the back, left leg and arm Patrolman Messler took all hands to police headquarters and summoned Dr. Pittis, who after a careful examination was only able to find a small scratch on the alleged victim's left arm. The grinding machine was upset but not broken.

After a lot of wrangling the man who rings the bell for trade agreed to accept $8, which sum he thought would restore his equilibrium and equanimity and buy court plaster. Brakeley paid the $8 and took a receipt. The auto was going the same way as the knife grinder.

RAIN TODAY SPELLS 6 WEEKS' DAMPNESS

Now by St. Swithin and his halldome of Winchester if it rains this day, the sluices of the sky will be opened for the rext forty.

All know full well the legend how the good bishop, who was teacher to Egbert the King, asked that he be laid to rest in a grave on which should come light of the sun and rain of heaven, and how in the ninth century he was entombed beneath the sod over which all men might walk as they lasted. And there came certain ones who disobeyed the word of Swithin and since he was made saint, did wish to lift him from the earth and place him beneath the chancel of his cathedral of the see of Winchester, which had grown to be a mighty seat of the church.

Then was Swithin wroth and the sky darkened and the rain descended, and so for a space of forty days came the torrent unceasing. And those who would have holpen the good Saxon saint from his humble earth cell, were filled with fear and let it be that he should lie under the greenwood tree in the acre of the dead. And men say, and who shall dispute, sith it is in a book and books say sooth that ever since, peradventure it raineth on July 15, this being the day at which certain sought to lift St. Swithin that for forty days thereafter it shall pour without ite or hindrance.

4,000,000 ATYPICAL DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

Dr. Grozmann Claims There Are Hosts of Backward Children in This Country.

HALF MILLION ARE ABNORMAL.

Local Specialist Causes a Big Stir at the National Education Association Convention by his Alarming Assertions.

Dr. M. P. E. Groszmann, of Watchung Crest, was the principal sepaker on the closing day of the National Education Association convention in San Francisco yesterday and through the lecture he delivered on the backward child problem, the last day developed into one of the most important of any of the convention days. Dr. Groszmann stirred the members when he asserted that there are 4,000,000 children of this type in this country and that at least 500,000 of them are distinctly abnormal.

The inet system for determining a child's mental status, which was explained in the borough school some months ago by Dr. Groszmann, was the subject of an address delivered before the convention last Wednesday by another educator, who has made a study of the backward child problem and next to the interest aroused by Dr. Groszmann yesterday was the most important matter discussed. After his lecture Dr. Groszman was elected a national director of the association.

He put stress upon the necessity of discouraging the propagation of inevitably backward children and mentioned the tendency of stringent measures that are being suggested and in some cases employed to prevent such propagation.

Other speakers were Robert J. Aley, president of the University of Maine, who commended medical inspection of school children. Charles D. Lowry, district superintendent of schools of Chicago, discussing the teaching of deaf children, said that generally they are not found to respond fully to tests along other mental and physical lines and that their emotional life was craped.

LOCAL BENCH SHOW SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7

The Board of Governors of the Plainfield Kennel Club met at the offices of the State Trust Company last night when it was decided to hold the annual bench show at the horse show grounds on Saturday, October 7. Applications for this date will be made at once to the American Kennel Club. The club proposes to secure the best judges possible and every provision will be made for holding the best show in the history of the local organization. A large entry list is already assured and it is believed that there will be at least one thousand all told.

Special attention will be given to furnishing luncheons and dinners on the grounds and during the day a brass band will be present to render a popular program of music. The club members will offer several handsome cups and trophies and others will be offered by the club as well as outside organizations.

The place for holding the show is ideal, the surroundings being especially adapted for such an exhibition. Special definite announcements will be made soon to the members by the board of governors, and the president, Edmund L. Mackenzie, will appoint the bench show committee within a short time.

PLAINFIELD YOUNG WOMEN RETURN FROM NORTHFIELD.

The Plainfield delegation has returned from the Northfield conference for college and boarding school girls, where the name of this city was well upheld by the local young women. During the entire stay, the Plainfielders took a prominent part in all the conference activities, especially in the tennis tournament in which the girls from this city made on excellent showing.

A feature of the stay at Northfield was a luncheon given at the Northfield Hotel during the week to the local young women at the conference by several Plainfielders. Those at the affair were the Misses Louise Andrews, Barbara Fleming, Eleanor DeGraff, Bessie Alpaugh, Dorothy Adams, Muriel Collins, Margaret V. Leggett, Helen Hyde, Dorothy Burke Marie Finch, Elsie Martin, Ruth Van Vleet, Marion Snyder, Leslie Curtiss, Margaret Mead and Frederika Mead. After the luncheon the party drove in carriages to Mt. Hermann.

—Try Press want ads. They bring results.

MINORITY PARTY PICKS OUT ITS CANDIDATES FOR COUNCILMANIC NOMINATIONS.

THE COMMITTEES SLATED.

Local Membership for City and County Committees Agreed Upon—Express Themselves as Sanguine of Victory in Fall.

The Plainfield Democrats are getting busy already in preparation for the fall campaign when they say they propose to wage a lively fight here for city offices. Ward nominations for the Common Council have been made and the party managers say that they believe that each man nominated will be elected. The ward selections are as follows:

First Ward, James J. Nash; Second Ward, Charles A. Sturtevant; Third Ward, Daniel C. Courain; Fourth Ward, Charles P. Singer. Fred Endress will probably be the nominee for councilman-at-large.

It is said that the party has already received assurances of support from the independent voters which made possible the election of George W. V. Moy as Mayor last fall.

The following nominations have been made for members of the county and city committees:

First ward—county committeemen—Jeremiah Callahan, Walter L. Hetfield, George Yorke; city committeemen—F. J. McCabe, E. T. Lynch, J. C. Schinkel. Second ward—county committeemen—James Prindle, George Ord, Frank Wering; city committeemen—J. H. Harkins, LeRoy J. Ellis, Frank J. Shattle, F. A. Kirch; City committeemen—J. T. McCarty, J. F. Zerega, W. H. Harding, Joseph Kennedy. Fourth ward—county committeemen—S. H. Schleif, John Caulfield, Clarence Waldren, P. J. Reville, J. O. Stevens; city committeemen—Frank M. Wagner, Charles P. Singer, Edward Fluck and J. J. Hickey.

TWO CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE BABY CAMP

When the dire needs of the Baby Camp was pointed out in these columns yesterday afternoon, it was believed that there would be a quick response to the appeal for cash and the expectation is being realized. Fifteen dollars more was added to the fund, bringing it up to $85.00. Miss Sara Curry, the matron of the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, contributed $10.00, and "No Name" donated $5.00.

There are a whole lot of philanthropic people in this community, who will gladly help such a worthy charity, and the appeal is therefore again called to their attention. No expenses are attached to this method of obtaining money with which to meet the current expenses of the institution. Cash and checks are promptly acknowledged in these columns and just as promptly transmitted to the camp authorities. This institution is conducted by the City Union of King's Daughters and is supported solely by voluntary contribution. Can you help?

Received today:

Miss Sara Curry	$10.00
No Name	5.00
Previously acknowledged:
C. J. F.	$25.00
Anonymous	20.00
John W. Murray	10.00
Woman's Christian Work Society
7th Day Baptist Church.	5.00
From a Friend	5.00
Robert C. Woodhouse.	5.00

That Horse Story.

David Meyerowitz, of New Brunswick, the last purchaser of the black horse hired to Joseph Cisco by Amada Wolff, and sold to Herman Mintz by Cisco, has had the purchase price, $25, returned after returning the animal to Wolff. Mintz, the first purchaser, is so far the one "stuck" and it is on a joint complaint by himself and Wolff that the police are now looking for Cisco. Two clues were run down yesterday, one by Chief Kiely and one by Detective Sergeant Flynn, without locating the fugitive.

Rev. C. M. Gallup to Preach.

The union service tomorrow night will be held in Trinity Reformed church, and Rev. Dr. C. M. Gallup, of Providence, R. I., who preaches at the First Baptist church in the morning, will also preach at the union service. The churches uniting are Trinity Reformed, First M. E., First Presbyterian and First Baptist churches.

—Before going on your vacation, excursion or picnic, call at Shirley & Johnston's and get new sanitary drinking cups. They are free. 7 15 2

THE CLERGYMAN DEAD

The Rev. Robert Arnold Chace Passes Away After Six Years Illness.

SERVICES THIS AFTERNOON.

Graduate of Dartmouth and Philadelphia Divinity School—Interment at Oakwood Cemetery, Chicago.

Rev. Robert Arnold Chace, aged thirty-three years, son of Henry T. Chace, of Chicago, died last night at the home of his brother, P. G. Chace, 1159 Gresham road, of diabetes following an illness of six years. During that time he had given up his religious work. For two years he was in South Carolina, but came to Plainfield last April thinking the change might be beneficial.

Mr. Chace was born in Chicago and with a few exceptions had always lived there. He was a student at Dartmouth College in 1901-'02 and then continued his studies at the Philadelphia Divinity School in 1904-'05, where he received his degree of bachelor of divinity. He then spent one year at the University of Pennsylvania.

In 1906-'07 he was assistant rector of St. James' Episcopal church, Chicago. He gave up the rectorship to go to South Carolina, where it was thought the climate would improve his health. For two years he served as rector of the Episcopal churches at Winsboro and Ridgeway, S. C., remaining there during 1908-'09. After that he returned to Chicago, where he remained until coming to live with his brother last April.

Mr. Chace is survived by his father, Henry T. Chace, a sister, Miss Frances L. Chace, and brother, Paul G. Chace, of this city, and another brother, Henry T. Chace, Jr., of Chicago. Short funeral services were held at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Paul G. Chace on Gresham road. Rev. Elory G. Bowers, rector of St. Stephen's church, assisted by Rev. Mead McBride, rector of the Episcoopal church at Westwood, N. J., an intimate friend of the departed, officiated. The body will be taken to Chicago today, where the burial will take place in Oakwood cemetery, tomorrow.

ASK FOR EXPERTS ON PUBLIC UTILITIES

A plan whereby the assessors of various municipalities may engage experts to ascertain the true value of public utility corporations through physicial examinations, will be submitted to the Union County Board of Assessors by the Board of Assessors of Elizabeth, in the near future. This is not the first time such a plan has been suggested and the necessity of such an arrangement was realized last fall when the returns from many manufacturing concerns were unsatisfactory, but the assessors being inexperienced in dealing with propositions where there is considerable hidden property value, such as complicated costly machinery and equipment, is was impossible for an adjustment to be made.

The Elizabeth board has entered into negotiations with several experts and it is expected that these men will assist the assessors in fixing the valuation on property of various utility concerns that heretofore have, by the statements returned, not been taxed on more than fifty per cent. and in some cases no statements were returned at all.

To Join Jap Paper.

George E. Firstbrook, formerly of this city, but for the last year connected with the Westfield Standard will sever his connection with that paper in October and on Oct. 12 will leave for Tokio, Japan, where he will assume editorial duties on the Japan Gazette. He will be accompanied by his wife. Allan Sangree, of the New York World, he says will also join the Gazette's staff at the same time. Mr. Firstbroook has been engaged in the newspaper business in this vicinity for a number of years and has held positions on both of the local papers as well as the Newark News and the New York Mail.

Free Bible Lecture.

A free lecture, under the auspices of the Bible Student Association, will be given tomorrow afternoon at Building Trade Hall, on West Front street, by J. Edgar Gray, of New York. The subject will be "The Manner of the Lord's Coming." and some of the things to be discussed under this title are "Why does He come to earth again?" and "Will he descend 'with a shout' or as a 'thief in the night?'"

HEARTLESS FATHER IS SCORED BY COURT

A case of depravity was called to the attention of Overseer of the Poor Alexander Ayers by the Charity Organization Society yesterday afternoon and this morning the man in the case, Henry Donnelly, of Hunter avenue, was arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court. Donnelly is the father of three small children and it was stated that he does not supply them nor his wife clothing sufficient to allow them to leave the house and instead of bringing home eatables he spends his earnings for drink.

Judge DeMeza delivered a scathing lecture and suspended a long jail term against Donnelly if he fails to leave his weekly earnings at the Charity Organization rooms each Firday, the day on which he receives his pay.

CRANFORD REPUBLICANS ENDORSED C.B. PIERCE

At a meeting of the Cranford Republican Executive Committee held on Thursday night it was unanimously resolved:

"That the candidacy of Carlton B. Pierce for the State Senatorship from Union county be unqualifiedly endorsed.

"His record of service during three successive terms in the New Jersey Assembly attests his integrity as a man and his capacity as a legislator. A close and intelligent student of public affairs, and especially those of state wide importance; fearless in his advocacy of what he believes to be for the best interests of the people at large, and insistent for the honest fulfillment of platform pledges, it is our earnest belief that the nomination of Mr. Pierce would add strength to the Republican ticket and reflect high credit upon the party."

ELECTRIC AND JERSEY LIGHTNING BAD DOSE

Charles Market, the Polish laborer from South Plainfield, who was removed to Muhlenberg Hospital, yesterday afternoon suffering from what was at first believed to be the effects of a stroke of lightning, is reported today as resting comfortably and will soon be able to go home. The physicians have determined that Market undoubtedly was affected by lightning, but that "Jersey lightning" also played an important part in his general condition.

Further inquiry today revealed the fact that the man had been drinking to some extent, and being in this condition, was easily overcome by a bright and vivid flash of lightning which crossed his path as he crossed a field at South Plainfield, causing him to drop. The fact that the man did not altogether lose consciousness led those who picked the man up to believe that he was not seriously injured by the lightning.

BUY YOUR OWN CUP IF YOU ARE THIRSTY

The New Jersey Central still supplies ice water on all its passenger trains and also at its stations, but according to the new law, which went into effect July 4, it has removed all drinking cups and patrons of the road are obliged to get the water the best way they can. At the Eastbound Station of the New Jersey Central the company has provided an automatic drinking fountain. You press a button and the water comes forth, but the patron is compelled to provide some means of carrying the water to his lips.

Paper drinking cups are now on sale at drug stores, news stands and the Union News Company also sells these cups on trains. There has been a protest against a reported charge of five cents for the paper cups on passenger trains, it being the opinion that a penny would allow sufficient profit. Many consider that the railroad company should furnish paper cups free of cost to its patrons. It is argued that corporations created for the public service should not allow the "sharks" to take advantage of it to the detriment of their helpless patrons and some scheme should be devised for the benefit of the public by railway companies, municipalities, business firms and everyone in control of the situation.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

HE DIED OF DRINK

Frank Hefko Found Dead in Bed by Policeman Who Stopped a Disturbance.

EXCITEMENT IN DUNELLEN.

Marshal Benson's Fears That Polander Had Met a Violent Death Dispelled—Hefko Left Widow and Children in Austria.

Residents of Dunellen were alarmed yesterday afternoon when the second mysterious death within a week occurred in the vicinity of that peaceful village. The cause of the excitement was due to the discovery of Frank Hefko dead in bed by Marshal James Benson, of the police force of that borough. The dead man was Polish and he lived in a Slavish boarding house on North avenue.

It is probable that Hefko's body would not have been found for several days, it is reported by the Dunellen police, had not a quarrel occurred in the boarding house and the marshal been attracted to the scene of the disturbance. At an early hour yesterday afternoon Benson heard a disturbance in the neighborhood of the boarding house and started to investigate. He found several foreigners in the place engaged in a drunken brawl and after restoring peace, the marsbal thought it best to look around the premises.

Upon going upstairs Benson found a door locked and suspecting something unusual he broke it down. Stretched on the bed in one corner of the room the police officer saw the corpse of a middle aged man without any covers upon it. A hasty examination revealed no apparent cause for death and Benson immediately began to suspect foul play.

The marshal remained at the house and kept the residents of the place within reach until late in the afternoon when Coroner J. V. Hubbard, of Middlesex county, arrived and made an investigation. The coroner could find no marks of violence upon the body and no traces of asphyxia or acid poison. The boarders at the place, when questioned, appeared to know very little about the man but they said that he had been ill all day. When he came home Thursday night, it is alleged that he was much intoxicated, as he was a heavy drinker.

Coroner Hubbard then found that Hefko's death had been due to excess drinking and the hot weather. A permit for burial was granted and the body was taken to the morgue. The inhabitants of the boarding house were exonerated from any suspicion as they knew nothing at all of the man and all indications pointed toward death from alcohol poisoning.

The dead man was employed by the Levering & Garrigues Company at its plant near Dunellen, where it was learned that he had been in this country only a month.

This morning it was learned from friends of the dead man that Hefko was a native of Poland, Austria, where he leaves a widow and two children. Funeral services will be held at Walter G. Runyon's undertaking parlors and interment will be made in South Plainfield.

COURT PLAINFIELD SELECTS DELEGATES.

Court Plainfield, No. 1144, Independent Order of Foresters, at its meeting last night, initiated one candidate and elected Louis J. Feiring financial secretary to succeed Robert T Skinner, who resigned because of a pressure of business. It was announced that there will be a special meeting of the high court in this city in September, and Court Plainfield elected these delegates:

Louis J. Feiring, Edward J. McCue, Henry Hansen, John F. Casey, Sr., Frederick Breem, John R. Cline, James T. McCarty, Thomas Fitzgerald. The special meeting of the high court will be a one day session and there will be delegates here from all the Courts in the State.

Funeral of Christopher Wagner.

The funeral services of Christopher Wagner, father of Frank M. Wagner, of this city, were held yesterday afternoon at the home of his son, Fred Wagner, in Camden. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends, including the members of the G. A. R. Post, of Camden, of which Mr. Wagner was an honored member. The burial was in Camden.

Always After Good Things.

Diamond & Stein Laplock tires look awfully good to us. We sell them. Standard Tire Vulcanizing Company, 118 Madison avenue, H. P. Vosseller, R. E. Sebring.

—Before going on your vacation, excursion or picnic, call at Shirley & Johnston's and get new sanitary drinking cups. They are free. 7 15 2

A. E. FORCE & CO.

THE GREAT JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Important for Saturday's Business

EMBROIDERIES.

35c embroideries; fine qualities, for 15c
10c embroideries for.......5c
20c embroideries in a lot of different widths for......10c
25c nainsook, 36 inch wide, for 18c
20c white goods, checks and figures 10c
49c Corset Cover embroidery, for 29c
69c 27-inch flouncing, swiss and cambric 39c
$1.25 Combinations, corset cover and drawers.......89c
$1.00 Muslin Gowns, fine quality 75c

CORSETS.

$1.50 and $2.00 Corsets, odd lot, at 69c
$1.00 and $1.25 white lawn Waists for 69c
$2.98 Ladies fine Umbrellas for $1.49
50c Ladies' Gloves.......25c

WASH GOODS.

9c Amoskeag apron gingham for 6½c
12½c percales for 9c
10c and 12c printed lawns..7c
25c and 35c wash goods, big variety of styles, for......15c
50c novelty silk and cotton wash goods to close at....25c
15c Curtain Swiss, different styles, for 10c
$1.50 Rugs for 98c
$10.50 Rugs, 9x12 Smyrna, for $5.98

LADIES' VESTS.

Ladies' 12½c and 15c Vests for 8c

HOUSE FURNISHING DEPARTMENT.

35c to 49c Graniteware; grey granite cooking utensils for 19c

LADIES' READY TO WEAR GARMENTS AT LESS THAN HALF

$3.00 Dresses, embroidered fronts, now..$1.50
$1.50 White and Natural Color Linene....98c
$5.00 to $10.00 Dresses in white and colored; beautifully made, for...............$2.98
$15.00 Silk Waterproof Capes for.......$7.50
$25.00 White Serge Suits for...........$15.00
$15.00 White Hair Line Stripe Suits....$7.50
Silk Pongee Coats HALF PRICE.

MILLINERY.

$11.00 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for.......$4.49
$7.50 Ladies' Trimmed Hats for........$2.98
50c Men's Fine Hose for..................25c
59c Men's Negligee Shirts for..............39c
25c to 50c Men's Half Hose for..........12½c

NOTION DEPARTMENT.

25c bottle Peroxide of Hydrogen for 17c

MISSES' HOSIERY.

15c Misses' Hose.........10c
15c Boys' Hose..........10c

10c 4-4 unbleached muslin for 7c
25c Huck Towels for.....15c
12½c unbleached turkish towels for 9c
25c unbleached turkish towels for 18c
59c mercerized cotton damask for 39c
12c Fruit of the Loom muslin for 8½c
Limit 15 yards to a customer.
69c Cotton Diaper........49c
12½c Pillow Cases........9c
22c Table Oilcloth for....15c
$1.25 Fine Cotton Table Damask 79c
$1.25 Napkins to match, dozen 79c

WORK THAT TELLS.

Plenty of It Has Been Done Right Here in Plainfield.

Cures that last are cures that tell. To thoroughly know the virtues of a medicine you must investigate the cures and see if they prove permanent. Doan's Kidney Pills stand this test, and plenty of proof exists right here in Plainfield. People who testified years ago to relief from backache, kidney and urinary disorders, now declare that relief was permanent and the cure perfect. How can any Plainfield sufferer longer doubt the evidence?

Mrs. S. Driscoll, 1009 South Second St., Plainfield, N. J., says: "There was a dull pain across the small of my back and in my sides that clung to me constantly and any hard work made by condition worse. I was subject to headaches and dizzy spells, especially when stooping and I felt weak and run down. I tried plasters and various remedies but nothing helped me until I procured a supply of Doan's Kidney Pills at Randolph's Drug Store. They did such good work in correcting my trouble that I heartily recommend them." (Statement given August 25, 1908).

RE-ENDORSEMENT.

Mrs. Driscoll was interviewed on January 29, 1911, and she added to the above: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills just as highly today as I have been for the past five years. They made a lasting cure in my case."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doans'—and take no other.

NEWS OF THE WORLD FOR THE BUSY MAN

The condition of John W. Gates was reported in Paris as slightly better.

A distributer of parcels post matter from Italy was arrested in New York for charging excessive duties.

H. L. Stimson, Secretary of War, called on President Arosemena and examined the Culebra cut at Panama.

The author of "He's Up Against the Real Thing Now," was ordered to pay alimony pending suit for separation.

French royalists in Paris attempted a feeble counter demonstration to the republican national festival of July 14.

Governor Deneen, of Illinois, continued his testimony before the Lorimer investigating committee in Washington.

Although first reports of loss of life in the Canadian forest fires were exaggerated, about a hundred persons perished.

The House Committee on Expenditures in the Department of Agricultures decided to investigate this charge against Dr. Harvey W. Wiley.

According to reports in the ice investigation the New York police have found indisputable evidence of an illegal agreement among wholesale ice dealers and an unlawful restraint of trade.

Judge Bordwell, of Los Angeles, designated October 11 for the opening of the trial of John J. and James W. McNamara, charged with dynamiting the "Los Angeles Times" plant, in which nineteen persons were killed.

The four policemen on trial for alleged neglect in the Stokes case tried to show that a friend of the superintendent of the apartment house in New York, offered to sell letters which Stokes had written to Miss Graham.

Commissioner Cram spoke of the New York Subway conferences as "illegal," and while the conferrees continued to ponder the Interborough's figures it was not regarded as probable that an agreement would be reached tomorrow.

Great Britain and Japan signed a treaty of alliance for ten years; the main modification of the 1905 document is that neither signatory shall be called upon under the treaty to fight a power with whom it has concluded a general arbitration treaty.

Congress.—Senate: An agreement was reached to vote on the Canadian reciprocity bill on July 22, on the wool tariff revision on July 27, on the Free List bill on August 1, reapportionment bill on August 3, and statehood bill for Arizona and New Mexico on August 7. The House was not in session.

The Quarantine investigation revealed that Dr. Doty asked for $25,000 for use in the cholera scare on bills which included piano tuning and tennis sets, and that $15,000 collected from steamship companies since last October, ordered paid to New York State, had been used in paying old bills as "emergency bills."

"VOICE OF SPIRIT" TOLD HIM TO GET NEW WIFE.

Bridgeton, July 15.—Joseph A. Poland, who was given a hearing here Thursday before Justice of the Peace Arthur C. Mulford, on the charge of beating his wife, did not deny the allegations of the witnesses against him. He explained that he had a vision in which a heavenly voice told him to put his wife from him and take a new spouse more worthy. Justice Mulford placed him under bonds to keep the peace.

Witnesses swore that on the night of July 1 Poland prayed aloud for the Lord to take his and their child with her, and that in the same night he assaulted her by kicking her in the side.

The wife testified that she was still ill from the effects of the treatment to which she was subjected.

HAREM BATHING SUIT NOW.

Asbury Park, July 15.—The harem bathing suit made its appearance on the bathing grounds at the Asbury Avenue Casino Thursday afternoon and in a few minutes the wearer was the cynosure of hundreds of eyes. She was followed about and when she entered the water she was surrounded by a crowd.

The woman tried to break away, but the crowd increased to such number that she was completely blocked in for a while. The embarrassment she met with caused her to faint, and she was removed to the Emergency Hospital, where she was treated by Dr. R. W. Marren, and afterward taken to her hotel in a rolling chair. When asked to give her name the woman said that she had already received too much notoriety.

N. Y. Board of Health on Wine.

Dr. James of the New York Board of Health says: "I take pleasure in testifying to the superior qualities of the wine produced by Speer Wine Co. I recommend it as a superior wine for the sick and debilitated. I have been through the 5 acres of vineyards and the winery during the wine making and am satisfied as to the purity of Speer's Wines.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

COAL DEALERS.

JOS. HARRIGAN
Old Company's Lehigh Coal
Boulets prepared Anthricite Coal
$5.00 per ton.
929 South Avenue
Telephone 198.

WALTER TEMPLE
Successor to Rheaume.
COAL
OFFICE AND YARD
674 South Second St. Tel. 281

TenEyck & Harris,
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL
Office Rowley's Drug Store, 218 W. Front St. Tel. 61J-2.

GEORGE O. STEVENS
747 WEST FRONT ST.

R. L. CLINE
(Successor to C. H. Ruggs & Co.)
BEST QUALITY LEHIGH COAL
Yard and office 432 W. 3d St. Tel. 93

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 SOUTH AVE. Tel. 1155

N. Meyers & Sons
BEST LEHIGH COAL
Office, 121 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1152-W
Yard, Washington and East Fourth Streets. Tel. 607-L

Richard Parrott, Jr.
BEST GRADE OF LEHIGH
COAL
'Phone 1569. 686 South Second St.

TIMBO'S
Stock for Smokers
Romeo and Juliets, La Carolinea, Bocky's, Manuel Garcias, Acker Merrails & Condit's La Elegancias, and a fine line of New York and Tampe makes. Fancy Smokers' Articles.
133-13.. North Avenue.

Parquet and Hardwood Floors.
Old Floors Refinished
GEO. E. WATT
150 North Ave. Tel. 333-w

VAIL BROS.
Plumbing, Tinning and Heating.
Satisfaction Guaranteed.
General Repairing a Specialty.
Night service promptly attended to.
Phone 1067 W 123 Duer St.

FURNITURE,
OIL CLOTHS,
STOVES, ETC.
LOUIS KADESH
23 Somerset Street

THE DAILY PRESS may be obtained from the following Newsdealers and agents. 10c a week.

CITY.

[illegible] & Moorhouse, The City Market 126 North Ave
[illegible]evely..............157 North Ave.
[illegible] & Co.........316 Watchung Ave.
[illegible]..........312 Watchung Ave.
[illegible]..........347 West Front St.
[illegible] M. Jenson....467 West Fourth St.
[illegible] News Co.............R. R. Station
[illegible] Field, Jr.............411 Park Ave.
[illegible] Laing............149 W. Front St.
[illegible] Mallison..Fourth and Liberty Sts.
[illegible]..................111 Park Ave.
[illegible] & Stahl..........113 Somerset St.
W. H. Olmstead.....321 Watchung Ave.
T. A. Garthwaite..Cor. 4th & Watchung
[illegible]..Cor. E. 3rd & Richmond Sts.

SUBURBAN.

[illegible]........................H. Peters
New Market........................Coriell
Bound Brook..........Union News Co.
Somerville................Jacob Genert
Westfield....C. J. Wittke, A. E. Snyder
Westfield.......................L. Glasser
[illegible] Plains...............Frank Anson
South Plainfield.................Hamilton
[illegible]........................Frank Anson
Netherwood.............W. H. Olmstead

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

SOMERVILLE.

Central Hook-and-ladder Company held a drill Thursday evening on its premises on Division street. After the drill a meeting of the company was held to plan for the contemplated firemen's parade this autumn.

John T. Winchester, who recently sold his large farm north of Somerville, has purchased some lots from the Ross estate within the borough, and has begun building a residence.

District Deputy Grand Master Frederick Van Wagoner installed the officers of Somerset Lodge No. 43, I. O. O. F., at a meeting in the clubroom last evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Tillman, of Raritan, are entertaining Abram Henderson and Misses Cynthia and Beatrice Hunt, of Glen Gardner.

Matthew McNally has resigned from the Cartwright drug store, and his place has been filled by George Van Fleet.

Mrs. John Applegate has returned to her home in Raritan, after visiting her daughter, Mrs. William O. Davis, at Boston.

George A. West left yesterday for Matteawan, N. Y., where he will spend a time with Dr. B. F. Seaman.

Mrs. George V. Wilson has gone to Providence, R. I., where she is visiting her son, Arthur K. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winter and son Herman, of Middaugh street, are at Cape Cod for a month.

Miss Katherine Hardgrove is spending a week with her uncle, W. H. F. Van Fleet, at Finderne.

Walter Mundy, of Stanton, is spending a two weeks' vacation with his cousin, Ewing Van Fleet.

Mrs. J. H. Wolverton, of Jersey City, is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Asa R. Dilts, in Raritan.

George W. Rockafellow is spending his vacation at Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Toronto.

Clarence Coleman, of Newark, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. Charles Smith, in Raritan.

Joseph Navatto has purchased the Garvesio residence on Second avenue in Raritan.

Mrs. William Oberbrunner and son Carl are spending a week in Philadelphia.

Alvah Vliet is spending some time at Whitehouse, where he formerly resided.

William H. H. Wyckoff is about again, after a long and serious illness.

Miss Katherine Gilmore is visiting relatives at Glen Gardner.

Miss Ethel Bellis is taking a two weeks' vacation.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought
Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

DUNELLEN AND VICINITY.

Next week the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church will have a trolley party. The young people will charter a car and make the trip around the loop, going from Dunellen to Bound Brook to New Brunswick to Perth Amboy to Boynton Beach and home again by way of Westfield. A stop will be made for rest and lunch at Boynton Beach.

Large crowds attended the fair and carnival, which was held at Wayside Park last week and the first part of this week by Washington Camp No. 98, P. O. S. A. The proceeds from the sales will be used in fitting out the camp's initiatory team.

Benjamin Dodwell, of Front street, who is employed by the American Car and Foundry Company, is enjoying his vacation this week.

Miss Nellie Vail, of Dunellen avenue, is taking her vacation this week. Miss Vail is employed by the Harrington Leather Works.

Mrs. Harry C. Apgar has returned to Philadelphia after visiting Mrs. Joseph C. Apgar this week.

Miss Sarah Cole of Washington avenue, leaves today for a week end visit at Ocean Grove.

PERSONAL.

Miss Florence Swan, of this city, has been visiting at Harlingen.

Mrs. Elmer E. Garretson, of Roselle, has been visiting relatives in this city.

Max Schwed, a nephew of Isaac Schwed, of this city, is spending his vacation in Canada.

Fred Hall, of this city, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hall, of Readington.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Fatise, of Richmond street, left on the Cedric today for Europe. They will spend a month in France, their native land.

Patrolman Richard Birmingham started this week on his vacation and Patrolman Nicholas Myers has returned to duty after enjoying his outing.

Miss Jessie Hockridge, of Crescent avenue, who has been away from the city for sometime for the benefit of her health, has returned much improved.

NEGRO BATHING QUESTION.

Asbury Park, July 15.—Beach Commissioner Howard Hurlick has what he thinks is a solution of the negro bathing problem. Mr. Hurlick would locate the proposed grounds for the colored group at the foot of Wesley Lake, between the Casino and the Ocean Grove pavilion. He has measured the space there and finds, he says, that there is ample room.

Mr. Hurlick would build more bathhouses in the Casino group and he figures that 150 of them would be necessary to answer requirements. The group could be so divided that the colored people would not come in contact with the whites.

Commissioners Patterson and Berry adhere to their original idea, that the proper place for the bathing grounds for the negroes is at Eighth avenue. They declare that, although this is in the cottage and big hotel section of the city, still it is the most available spot at the present time.

All talk of an injunction to restrain the Beach Commission from locating the new colored group at Eighth avenue seems to have died out. A North Asbury man said yesterday that there wasn't any use taking further action until the Beach Commission began erecting the bathhouses, or, at least, had the lumber on the ground.

RESUMES PROBE INTO EXCISE GRAFT CHARGES.

Elizabeth, July 15.—The grand jury yesterday morning resumed its investigation of the bribery charges made against Excise Commissioner Thomas Y. Bye.

Former saloon-keeper Mursinsky, who was ordered by the jury to be locked up for contempt in refusing to answer certain questions put to him, was later released in $300 bail. He lives at 180 Inslee place and sued to run a saloon at Port avenue and First street. He then built a $6,000 house on Inslee place and was trying to get a license for this place.

It is alleged that he offered $500 to an excise commissioner if he could get a license.

ECONOMICAL BATHERS NABBED.

Ocean Grove, July 14.—Two young men who wanted to save twenty-five cents apiece, undressed under the boardwalk yesterday afternoon and donning bathing suits, which they brought with them, went into the surf.

The pair was taken into custody and, to the officer they gave their names as Wesley Glover and Saffa Vosgare, of 1685 Bathgate avenue, New York. They were liable to a fine of $10, but on their promise not to repeat the offense were given their liberty.

Rev. E. W. Roberts, pastor of the Shiloh Baptist church, is attending the Middlesex Central District Baptist Association convention which is being held at Elizabeth. Mr. Roberts is the president of the association.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

D. Foster Updike's Amusements!

Haw hee! haw hee! haw hee! hee haw! I wish some of you howlers would hee haw, instead of howl, then get a pair of big ears. You would look so perfectly natural.

INCREASING.

On account of the extreme heat sending people from the City to the country, or my way. I have been compelled to add two more New York men to my Plainfield office and open up an office in New York.

A GOOD THING.

I admit I have made some miscalculations for this week, but that is on account of one of my barkers backing without cause, that is where a lawyer is a good thing. I can attend to my own business now. My other two backers had better look wise, too.

YOUR BUSINESS.

I can not see how Updike, without wearing a plug hat or an automobile to deceive the public can run such a business. But

CREDITORS PLEASE RISE.

I have a contract signed to be completed next Tuesday, 18th, after which I will be able to look you all square in the face.

MY TIME IS YOURS

D. Foster Updike

159 NORTH AVE. 'PHONE 1907

STORE CLOSES 12:30 P. M. SATURDAYS

FOR VACATION TIME

A joy-giving, comfort-imparting, economy-insuring Gillette Safety Razor.

The Outfit is beautiful, triple-plated silver, leather case.

Any man can give himself a delightful velvet shave in three minutes with the Gillette. Impossible to cut or irritate the face.

The Gillette Safety Razor is 24 razors in one. Always ready to use. NO STROPPING OR HONING.

The Gillette has twelve double edged blades; each blade as thin as paper, perfectly tempered and glass hardened; gives from ten to thirty perfect shaves. Additional blades at nominal cost.

Gillette Razor, triple-plated silver with blades, leather case, $5.00; will save five times its cost the first year.

Other styles, too—The Auto Strop, $5.00; Enders, $1.00, and the Star, $1.50.

For sale by

H.E.GAYLE HARDWARE CO.

TEL. 398 FRONT ST. and PARK AVE.

GO TO

GEORGE A. SCHEELEIN & CO.'S

for Fresh Jersey Meats and Poultry; also Fresh Jersey Vegetables. Extra Low Prices for Cash.

104 North Av., cor. Park. Tel. 463-R

A large assortment of LION SHIRTS at $1.00
A large assortment of HOSIERY for Men, Women and Children at

Putnam & De Graw's

Toilet Tissue Paper, 1,000 sheets to the roll; regular 5c value; sale, roll.....3c
(Limit 6 rolls).

More For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

Ramonie Batiste, good selection of light or dark styles; regular 12½c; clearance sale, yard 9c

In Planning This July Clearance Sale Our Aim Was to Make It the Greatest Money-Saving Event of the Year

And that we've succeeded in our ambition and even exceedod the high mark we aimed at was amply demonstrated by the enthusiastic buying of the past few days.

Shoppers who came merely to compare prices were immediately convinced that this is the real bonafide money saving stock clearing event of the entire year. The goods are so fresh, so new, so perfect, so thoroughly in accord with present modes and fashions that many wondered why we should reduce the price so recklessly when the season is only half over.

ANOTHER LOT OF CHILDREN'S DRESSES, ABOUT 100; VALUES UP TO $1.98; JULY SALE 98c

This is manufacturers clean up time; they cut up all surplus stocks of piece goods and make them up into the best selling styles for clearance sale; in this way they close out their stocks and the retailer procures good, desirable bargains to offer the public; this second lot of 100 dresses is different from the first lot; the styles are all good, the values run from $1.69 to $2.25; sizes 2 to 5 and 6 to 14. every size in the lot but not in every style; July sale.....98c

A SECOND LOT OF MISSES' DRESSES, VALUES UP TO $3.98; JULY SALE..$1.98

Did you see the first lot last week? They sold completely out by Saturday morning and those who waited for this second lot will be delighted with this assortment; the styles are pretty, materials that give satisfaction; about 8 styles in all; some in several colors, giving you about 65 dresses to choose from; values are up to $3.98 easily; July sale.....$1.98

(Sizes 15, 16 and 18 for misses and small women).

BOYS' WASH SUITS—CLEAN UP OF A LEADING MAKE; VALUES UP TO $2.98—JULY SALE $1.19

This is the best bargain in good wash suits we have even seen; we closed out from a well known manufacturer his entire sample line, consisting of about 350 boys' colored wash suits, and divided them in our two stores; the 150 for this store are in and assorted in piles by sizes to make choosing easy; not one suit in the lot is worth les than $1.75 and from that up to $2.98. So we certainly feel justified in saying that it's the best bargain we have ever seen in boys' wash suits; ages 2 to 7; July sale $1.19

GOOD NEWS FOR MEN.

PLAIN AND FANCY SOISETTE SHIRTS, $1.25 QUALITY; JULY SALE 89c

About 10 dozen men's soisette shirts in plain and stripes. We closed out one-fourth off, and place on sale in the same way; the make is the well known Wellington Brand, with double cuffs; soisette is the coolest summer shirt, and deserves its popularity; sizes 14 to 17; $1.25 quality; July sale 89c.

The Grocer Telephones

"I'M sorry, Mrs. Blank, but we are just out of that; sold the last this morning. Must have it to-day? All right, we'll get it for you.

"Central, give me long distance."

The grocer gets the wholesaler in a neighboring city, orders the goods, satisfies his customer, and protects his trade.

Ordering by mail in such a case would be out of the question.

It is the Bell Telephone Local and Long Distance Service that makes such accommodation possible.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

Every Bell Telephone is the Centre of the System

284

This store is truly for the economically inclined. The goods we sell are of dependable quality, so you are assured of getting satisfactory service out of any article you buy---then again our prices are the very lowest possible---so you are assured of getting full value for every dollar you spend. Could the most frugal economist ask more than that?

Balance of summer goods including

Porch Screens, Screen Doors, Porch Chairs, Hammocks, Refrigerators, Swings

at the most interesting prices.

Trunks, Bags, Suit Cases

Always the largest stock of well-made serviceable goods in these lines and a real saving in price too.

Shirley & Johnston
Babcock Building

SPORTS OF TODAY

BASEBALL.

BASEBALL POOLS.

NATIONAL	Sat.	Sun.	Mon.	Tues.	Wed.	Thurs	Fri.	Total
New York	5	..	2	4	4	9	..	24
Brooklyn	1	..	0	2	5	6	..	14
Boston	7	..	6	..	12	6	7	38
Philadelphia	2	..	4	12	4	1	5	28
Chicago	2	..	2	6	..	3	..	13
Cincinnati	11	..	2	2	3	0	4	22
Pittsburg	3	..	2	13	3	4	..	25
St. Louis	6	..	2	..	19	8	5	40
AMERICAN
New York	2	5	5	8	12	1	3	36
Philadelphia	9	9	..	8	9	7	1	15
Boston	5	9	8	6	4	2	2	36
Washington	3	2	2	1	3	3	1	15
St. Louis	7	3	5	3	2	7	4	30
Cleveland	4	1	2	4	1	7	4	23
Chicago	12	2	2	8	8	1	0	33
Detroit	7	6	4	14	9	8	6	54

NATIONAL LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Philadelphia	48	31	.608
New York	47	31	.603
Chicago	45	30	.600
St. Louis	44	33	.571
Pittsburg	43	33	.565
Cincinnati	32	44	.421
Brooklyn	29	47	.382
Boston	19	58	.247

Yesterday's Results.

Boston, 7; St. Louis, 5.
Philadelphia, 5; Cincinnati, 4.
Pittsburg at New York; rain.
Chicago at Brooklyn; rain.

Games Today.

Cincinnati at New York.
St. Louis at Brooklyn.
Pittsburg at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Boston.

AMERICAN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Detroit	55	24	.696
Philadelphia	49	29	.628
New York	41	37	.526
Boston	42	38	.525
Chicago	40	37	.519
Cleveland	40	42	.488
Washington	27	53	.338
St. Louis	22	56	.282

Yesterday's Results.

St. Louis, 4; New York, 3.
Detroit, 6; Philadelphia, 1.
Boston, 2; Chicago, 0.
Cleveland, 4; Washington, 1.

Games Today.

New York at Cleveland.
Philadelphia at St. Louis.
Boston at Detroit.
Washington at Chicago.

EASTERN LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	53	28	.654
Baltimore	51	30	.630
Toronto	46	35	.568
Jersey City	34	39	.466
Montreal	34	39	.466
Buffalo	34	40	.459
Newark	29	44	.397
Providence	27	53	.338

Yesterday's Results.

Newark, 7; Baltimore, 3.
Jersey City, 7; Providence, 4.
Buffalo, 4; Rochester, 3.
Rochester, 10; Buffalo, 5.
Toronto, 4; Montreal, 3.

Games Today.

Newark at Baltimore (2 games).
Jersey City at Providence.
Rochester at Buffalo (2 games).
Toronto at Montreal.

PETS AT BOUND BROOK FOR THE GAME TODAY

The Pets are scheduled to move up to Bound Brook this afternoon to cross bats with the nine from the wet town. The nearest league game for the local fans today will be the Scotch Plains-Somerville contest at the 'Plains but of course everyone wants to see the locals beat the Brookers.

Manager Doerflinger announces that the Plainfield lineup will be the same as usual with Waller in the box and Nelson on the receiving end. Bound Brook has made no statement regarding their makeup but with last Saturday's players they gave the Pets a hard rub.

The Scotch Plains-Somerville game will be a fight for second place and with the 'Plains boys travelling at their present rate, something is going to fly before the Somerville boys let this game slip through their fingers. Westfield and High Bridge will have a session on the latter team's grounds.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.
Plainfield	6	0	1,000
Somerville	4	2	.667
Scotch Plains	4	3	.571
Westfield	3	4	.428
High Bridge	2	5	.285
Bound Brook	1	6	.142

Which team will blame the umpires this afternoon?

Some people are never satisfied.

Nevertheless it takes all kinds of fans to make a ball league.

The Somerville-Scotch Plains game on the Plains diamond this afternoon will be a fight for blood as the result of this contest will determine who shall be second in the league race. May the better nine win.

By lying idle yesterday the Giants slipped back into second position and the Phillies roosted on the top round after they took a 5-4 game from the Red Stockings.

According to all reports, Ortlieb will try for the third time to fool the Plainfield batters when the local team travels to Bound Brook this afternoon.

Fred Luderus, first baseman for the Quakers, is leading the National League in home runs. He has twelve circuit swats to his credit all of them being made on the Philadelphia grounds except one, which was clouted at Washington Park against the Superbas.

The Detroit Tigers sealed things up more or less (principally more) by taking the fourth game of the series from the Athletics yesterday. Jack Coombs, the star twirler for the Philadelphia team, was ineffective before the bats of Hughey's sluggers.

PLATT ADAMS TO GO AFTER HOP, STEP AND JUMP MARK.

Platt Adams, the former Olympic first sacker of the local Y. M. C. A. nine and member of the New York Athletic Club, will go after the standing hop, step and jump record of the late Malcolm Ford, in the members' games of the Pastime A. C., on Sunday. Platt will have his old rival, Dan Ahearn, of the Pastime A. C., opposing him and a record is sure to go by the boards when these two jumpers, the greatest in the world, clash.

The present record is 30 feet 3 inches. This event has been put on the program in addition to the regular members' contests. In the same games Sunday, Adams will compete in the discus against Jim Duncan, the Mohawk A. C. man. The latter is anxious to atone for his defeat at the Pittsburg games and will go out for one of his record throws. Duncan has a twelve-hour job which keeps him in the sun all day and for this reason he does not always feel in the best of condition.

WITH TRACK MEN.

For China to pass a squad of athletes to the Olympic games in 1912 is the plan of the Swedish authorities. Coach Beal, the Yankee trainer of the Chinese team, has given his word that his charges will appear if the heavy cost of travel can be overcome by the granting of reduced fares on the Russian railroads. The Olympic committee of Sweden has urged the Russian committee to have the railroad authorities lower the Orientals' cost of travel.

Hearing of the revival of long-distance running in New York, Dorando, the Italian professional Marathoner, intends leaving his mother country and coming here for another roll of American money.

Johnny Hayes, who has been abroad for some weeks looking for some easy change, will sail back for home within a few days.

Three Stars in Mile.

According to John O'Gorman, who is arranging the details for the big set of games to be given by St. Agnes' Club at Washington Park, Brooklyn, on July 29, Mel Sheppard, the half-mile national champion, has given up the idea of making a trip to Scotland but will run a mile against Abel Kiviat at the meet. Sheppard has promised O'Gorman his entry. No doubt the two will measure strides with J. P. Jones, the sensational Cornell mile champion.

Magee Missing.

A diligent search is being made to locate Sherwood Magee, left fielder of the Phillies, who was indefinitely suspended for assaulting Umpire Finnerman, and whose whereabouts are unknown. His clubmates fear for his reason. He disappeared last Tuesday, after he had informed Mrs. Magee that he was going to the park to see the game from the new clubhouse. He has not been seen since.

Sunday School League Games Today.

Trinity Reformed Sunday-school and the First Baptist nine are scheduled to cross bats in the city Sunday-school league on the Oval this afternoon and the Park Avenue team will meet the Monroe Avenue bunch on the Clinton avenue grounds. The latter game will decide the leadership of the league as neither of these teams has yet lost a contest.

Need $50,000 for Olympics.

A sum of $50,000 is needed to send the American athletes to the Olympaid at Sweden next year. The American Union has started the ball rolling by subscribing $1,000 to the fund and it is expected that substantial gifts will be made by the leading sporting men of the country.

SOUTH CAROLINIANS KILLED.

Engaged Pair Meet Death in Automobile Accident.

Asheville, N. C., July 15.—Early Thursday morning an automobile containing several persons went over an embankment three miles from Hendersonville, N. C.

Miss Lena Bowman, of Sumter, S. C., and Robert Bettis, of Trenton, S. C., were killed; Miss Mabel Bowman, of Sumter, was seriously injured. Miss Lena Bowman and Robert Bettis were to have been married a few days hence.

GEORGE L. RECORD ROBBED.

Thieves Get Little at His Jersey City Home.

Jersey City, July 15.—During the absence of State Assessor George L. Record and his family at Casco Bay, near Portland, Me., his home at 593 Bergen avenue, was ransacked by thieves. All the silverware and other valuables were placed in storage before the Record family went to Maine and the thieves secured such a small amount of booty that Mr. Record did not see fit to report the matter to the police when he discovered it on his return a few days ago.

WHEN U NEED
—EITHER—

ICE
COAL
WOOD
LUMBER

JUST PHONE 1040

and you will get the BEST in the shortest possible time.

PLAINFIELD ICE & SUPPLY CO.
222 Madison Ave.

BUY A LISK
THE WASH BOILER THAT IS GUARANTEED FOREVER.

Against rust.

Think of it—absolutely no chance of your finest clothes getting rust stained from the boiler.

There is not a better wash boiler made than the LISK and we doubt if you could buy one as good at any price.

The heavy copper bottom is joined to the sides by extra strong seams.

OUR GUARANTEE.

We will replace at once and without a question any Lisk Wash Boiler we sell which ever shows signs of a rust spot.

ALUMINUM—The Ideal Kitchen Ware

There is no more sanitary and cleanly ware for cooking than Aluminum. And—

It's very low price puts it within the reach of all.

Come in and see the countless articles of Aluminum Ware we have in stock.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-123 East Front St., Plainfield, N. J. Two 'Phones, 6-214

KOLB'S SATURDAY SPECIALS

COCOANUT KISSES, lb	18c
AFTER LUNCH MINTS, lb	18c
MOLASSES KISSES, lb	18c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box	25c
ASSORTED CHOCOLATES AND BON BONS, lb box	25c

We carry all the leading kinds of Ice Cream, Water Ices and Sundaes. Our new Ice Cream Parlor, which was recently completed, is the coolest place in town. Ice Cream orders in any quantity always receive our prompt attention. Give us a trial and convince yourself.

KOLB'S, 112 WEST FRONT ST.

CHANCE FOR STEADY WORK

Reliable men wanted for positions as motormen and conductors. Must be between the ages of 21 and 40 years. Good wages.

Apply at Waiting Room, Watchung Avenue and Fourth Street, Plainfield, Fridays from 9 to 10:30 A. M.

PUBLIC SERVICE RAILWAY COMPANY

VIEBROCK'S GROCERY,
(FORMERLY R. W. BARNES)
217 PARK AVENUE

Fruits, Vegetables, Delicatessen, and everything found in a well stocked Grocery Store. Prompt service, prices reasonable.

Phone 1519-W HENRY VIEBROCK.

THE DAILY PRESS.

Home News. Independent in Politics.

A. L. FORCE, Editor and Proprietor.

Published Daily, except Sunday, at 3 p. m.
105 NORTH AVENUE.

TELEPHONES
Editorial, 1300. Business, 1301.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

The Daily Press has the most complete carrier and mail service of any paper in the metropolitan district.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for Change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

Branch Office.

Newark—F. N. Sommer, 794 Broad street. (Advertiser Building).

Newark—Goldsmith Co., 62 Market street.

July 15 In American History.

1776—"Mad Anthony" Wayne's force captured Stony Point, on the Hudson.

1883—Charles Haywood Stratton (Tom Thumb), famous dwarf, died; born 1838.

1903—Mrs. James G. Blaine, widow of the famous statesman, died; born 1827.

1910—Z. B. Knight, who is said to have named the Republican party in 1854, died; born 1821.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

(From noon today to noon tomorrow.)
Sun sets 7:26, rises 4:38; moon rises 10:15 p. m.

During Your Vacation

Keep in touch with home by having all the news of the day brought to you for 10 CENTS A WEEK.

The Daily Press

Plainfield's Leading Newspaper will follow you wherever you go if you notify the office. Let it follow you to

Seashore or Country

Plainfield, N. J., July 15, 1911.

PROGRAM FOR STATE DENTISTS' BIG MEET.

Asbury Park, July 15.—The official program is out for the forty-first annual session of the New Jersey State Dental Society, which will be held at the Casino here July 19, 20 and 21. The opening day, Wednesday, will be marked by the annual address of the president Dr. W. F. Naylor, of Somerville. Following the miscellaneous society business, the proposal and election of new members and other business, the exhibitors will open their section in the Casino. Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to social amenities. That evening Dr. M. I. Schamberg, of New York, will read an illustrated paper on "Progress of X-ray Work in Connection with Dentistry and Oral Surgery."

A plea for the return to the use of the porcelain inlay will be made at the Thursday morning session by Dr. Frank E. Cheeseman, of Chicago. Dr. Van Broadus Dalton, of Cincinnati, will also read a technical paper. Thursday afternoon has been set apart for clinics. For the meeting that evening Dr. Arthur D. Black, of Chicago, has prepared a paper on "Better Reorganization of State Dental Societies and Some Benefit to Both the Public and the Profession."

The report of the State Dental Board of Examiners is down for the Friday morning session, together with reports of the president and treasurer of the trust funds for ill and indigent dentists, of the society's treasurer and of all standing committees. The election of officers will also take place then.

Clinics will be held Friday afternoon and that night there will be a general report of all committees, discussions of same, and adjournment.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results

Headquarters for
Gibson's
RYE.
E. C. Westcott, Agent.
115 East Front Street.

"Great Saturday Specials"

MEN'S FURNISHINGS.
MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS AT 45c.
Made of best quality madras, with attached cuffs; equal to what you'd pay 75c for elsewhere.

SUIT CASES AT $1.00.
Light weight fibre dress suit cases 24 inch size; leather bound and brass trimmed; a big bargain.

ENAMELED WARE 19c.
A special lot of double coated grey enameled ware, consisting of Preserving Kettles, Saucepans, Double Boilers, Tea and Coffee Pots, Dish Pans, etc. Would be good value for 50c each.

CURTAIN DRAPERY.
All the short ends of fine quality scrim, single and double face, in a great variety of designs; values up to 30c a yard; for.....12½c

CARPET DEPARTMENT.
Kurdistan Brussels Rugs, size 9x12; regular $12, for.....$8.00

Axminster Rugs, size 3x5; regular $3.50, for.....$2.50

Moire Window Shades, size 3x6, regular 50c, for 29c

WASH GOODS 10c A YARD PRESENTING VALUES UP TO 25c.
Short lengths from the July Clearing Sale; consisting of Batiste, Lawns, Foulards, Flaxon, Egyptian Tissues, Imported Dimities, Dress Ginghams, Organdies and Pongees. The season's greatest wash goods event.

SATURDAY SALE OF FRAMED PICTURES 98c WORTH UP TO $2.50.
Consisting of Fruits, Game, Landscapes, etc., in handsome polished 2½-inch wood frames; sizes 12x24 and 16x20; now on exhibtion in the window.

HOSIERY SPECIALS.
Ladies' Stockings, fine guaze lisle with high spliced heels and double soles; as good as most stores charge 3 for $1.00; Saturday special..21c

Ladies Stockings, fine gauze cotton; full seamless; absolutely fast black; worth 19c a pair; Saturday 11c.

SWINGS, MOWERS, CROQUET
at greatly reduced prices.
$3.98 and $5.98 Swings now $2.98 and $3.98.
Mowers worth up to $4.50 now $2.98
Croquet, worth reg. $1.50, now $1.15

CHILDREN'S ROMPERS.
Made of extra good quality gingham and well made; about all sizes and colors; 75c values; Saturday 48c

SKIRTS AND GOWNS $1.00.
A lot of handsome white Petticoats and Gowns, that have been used for samples and are slightly mussed; worth up to $3.25.

BIG SALE OF BEAUTIFUL SHIRT WAISTS. 59c EACH; WORTH $1.00.
Made of fine white lawn, with fancy hemstitched Dutch collars and turn over cuffs; the very newest in shirtwaists.

SHIRT WAISTS 48c.
A lot of odds and ends of high class waists, made of good material and neatly trimmed with lace and embroidery, but slightly mussed from handling; values to $1.25.

BATH FIXTURES 50c.
Bath sprays, Hanging Soap Dishes, Soap Stands, Towel Bars and Towel Arms, all heavy nickel plated on brass; worth to buy regular $1.00.

Woodhull & Martin Co. "The Store of Quality"

In the Churches

Baptist.

First Baptist Church—Divine worship at 10:30 a. m., Rev. Dr. C. M. Gallup, of Providence, R. I., will preach; Bible School, Men's Bible conference class, 9:30; Young People's Society, 7 p. m.; 7:45, union service at Trinity Reformed Church.

Park Avenue—Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, pastor—11:00, preaching; 9:45, Bible school; 7:45, preaching.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00, prayer meeting; 10:30, preaching; 9:30, Sunday school; 6:30, vesper service, short sermon by the pastor.

Mt. Olive—M. W. Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday school; 7:30, preaching.

Ebenezer—Rev. G. E. Scruggs, pastor—11:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday school.

Calvary—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching by the pastor; 3:30, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Shiloh—Rev. Eward Roberts, pastor—preaching at 11:00 a. m. by Rev. R. M. Johnson, of Pennington; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00 p. m., preaching by Rev. George Washington, of Virginia.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus—10:45, preaching by Rev. Albertus Broek, of Clinton Avenue Reformed Church, Newark; 9:30, Sunday school; 6:45, union service of Young People's Societies; 7:45, union service with sermon by Rev. Dr. C. M. Gallup, of Providence, R. I.

Netherwood Reformed church, Leland and Midway avenues—Pastor, Rev. Royal A. Stout—11:00, preaching by the pastor, subject, "The Eternal Christ;" 9:45, Sunday school; 7:00, Christian Endeavor; 7:45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "So Great Salvation."

German—Rev. C. H. Schneegas, pastor—10:45, preaching in German; no evening service.

Marconnier Chapel—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:00, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 7:45, union service at Trinity Reformed church.

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, minister—10:30, morning worship; 9:30, Sunday school. Rev. Dr. Henry H. Stebbins, of Rochester, N. Y., will preach in the morning; no evening service during the summer.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—10:30, preaching; 2:30, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching.

Warren chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:45, Sunday school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:30, preaching by the pastor.

Bethel Chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon, pastor—Services 11:00 a. m., preaching; Sunday school, 3:00; 8:00 p. m., preaching and communion.

Episcopal.

Grace Church—Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, Rector—Services: 7:30 a. m., celebration of the Holy Communion; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer, litany and sermon. On the first Sunday of the month Holy Communion and sermon; 3 p. m., Sunday school; 4:30 p. m., evensong.

Church of the Heavenly Rest—Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday school; 11:00, matins and sermon (Holy Eucharist first Sunday in the month); 7:30 p. m., Evensong and sermon; services in charge of lay reader.

St. Stephen's—Rev. Elory G. Bowers, B. D., rector—7:30, Holy Communion; 9:45, matins and sermon.

Holy Cross Church—Rev. Elory G. Bowers will be in charge of the 11:00 o'clock services.

Grace Church Mission for Colored People—10:00 a. m., Sunday school; 8 p. m., evensong and address. Strangers are cordially invited.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Sunday school; 7:30, union service at Trinity Reformed church.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Church—Rev. C. S. Kemble, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor; Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; 7:15, Epworth League; 8:00 evening service. If weather is oppressive evening services will be held on the lawn in front of Epworth House.

Grace M. E.—Rev. C. C. Cain, minister—11:00, preaching by the pastor; 9:30, Sunday school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. Littleton Sturgess, pastor—11:00, a. m., preaching by the pastor; 3:00, Sunday school; 8:00, preaching by the pastor.

Roman Catholics.

St. Mary's Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 2:30; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday school at 3.00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, morning worship; 11:55, Sunday school; excursion tickets will be distributed.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, pastor—10:30, Sunday school; 4:30, young people's meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00 a. m.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Grave street and Mercer avenue—9:45, Sunday school; 10:30, preaching in German; 8:00, preaching in Swedish.

Swedish Lutheran—Rev. John Estlund, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue; evening service only.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock Building, Front street and Madison avenue—Service 11:00 a .m., lesson sermon, "Life;" 10:00, Sunday school; reading room open daily 2 to 5 p. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—Rev. A. C. Nickerson, pastor—Church closed until September.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Captain and Mrs. Hewitt officers in charge—11:00, Holiness meeting at the hall; 2:30, Sunday school and Bible class in hall; 6:30, Young People Legion meeting; 8:00, gospel service with special music.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms; 7:45, gospel talk and special music.

Italian Mission—409 East Third street—Preaching by Theodore Boretty, Sundays at 10:30 a. m. in Italian, and song and prayer service Wednesday evenings at 8:00; Sunday school in English and Italian at 2:30.

West End Tabernacle—2:30 p. m., Sunday school; 7:00, C. E. meeting; 8:00 p. m., gospel service.

Wilson Memorial Chapel—10:45 a. m., preaching service.

Meeting room, 209 East Front street, near Watchung avenue—George Mackenzie will deliver an address each Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All Bible students are invited to attend and bring their Bibles.

W. C. T. U.—4 p. m., gospel temperance service; Rev. Evarts C. Conover will speak.

Gospel Tent—Church and East Front street—services are held in Swedish every Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday at 8 p. m., and every Wednesday at 8 p. m. in English.

HENDRICKS HAS BEE.

New Brunswick, July 15.—Peter H. S. Hendricks, Democratic freeholder, is out for the nomination of sheriff and a lively contest for the Democratic nomination is promised. William H. Quackenboss, the present sheriff, is a New Brunswick man, and Perth Amboy is charging that this city is trying to monopolize the office and has a candidate in Mayor Albert Bollschweiler, who is the strongest politicial figure in Perth Amboy now, barring County Clerk B. M. Gannon.

Thomas G. Burke, of Perth Amboy, also has his eyes on the nomination. Perth Amboy is also furnishing two candidates for the Republican nomination, John Hanson, a former freeholder, and Mr. Fullerton. Daniel W. Clayton, of Monroe, is pretty sure of the Democratic nomination for surrogate, and the Republicans are talking of nominating Alfred S. March, a lawyer of this city.

YARDMASTER KILLED.

Uncoupling Freight Cars, Loses Hold on Hand-Rail.

While attempting to uncouple a freight car from the rear end of a train yesterday morning, August Wieber, of 35 Prospect street, Elizabeth, assistant yardmaster of the Central Railroad yards at Division and Trumbull streets, Elizabeth, lost his hold on the hand-rail, and as he fell, was caught by one of the stepping rods of the following car and dragged for almost thirty feet, finally falling to the side of the track and receiving such injuries that he died a few hours later in the hospital.

Another Veto from Mayor.

Mayor William Howard, of Rahway, last night turned over to City Clerk Charles H. Lambert his veto on the railroad track elevation ordinance passed Tuesday night, July 4, at that place. This is the second time that Mayor Howard has vetoed the same ordinance, which was passed by council by more than a two-third vote. From indications the ordinance will be passed over the Mayor's veto, as it meets with general approval.

—Use Press Want Ads.

American Ice Cream
IN ALL FLAVORS.

ALSO

French Ice Cream
Most Delicious.

High Standard of Quality Thruout the Year.

DEMOLLI
Caterer, Confectioner, French Baker.
331 West Front St.
Telephone 257.

The Dutch Arms of the Netherwood Reformed church will hold its monthly meeting Monday evening at the home of William T. Banks, 205 Netherwood avenue. All the members are urged to be present.

BLANKETS and CURTAINS
LEFT TO BE CLEANED
WILL BE STORED OVER SUMMER IF DESIRED.

Beginning July 15, ending September 2, store will close at noon on Saturdays.

G. O. KELLER'S CLEANING ESTABLISHMENT
125 PARK AVENUE TELEPHONE 857-J

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We desire to inform our many friends that we have opened a branch office in Plainfield under the Personal Supervision of Wm. N. Gray, Sr., the President of this Corporation, Established many Years at Cranford and Westfield. We have one of the best Equipped Undertaking Establishments in the State, Where with Judgement, Good taste and Knowledge of values the cost of funerals are kept surprisingly LOW and yet meet every requirement of propriety and affection. Let us show you we can do this.

GRAY BURIAL and CREMATION COMPANY
410 East Sixth Street, Plainfield, N. J. Telephone 1784-w

Copyright 1909, by C. E. Zimmerman Co.—No. 63

WHILE YOUR INCOME IS STEADY AND EVERYTHING IS RUNNING SMOOTHLY you don't miss the money deposited in a bank account, but under adverse circumstances you miss the money that you have spent.

DON'T wait for the well to run dry but start a bank account WITH US today.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK
4% INTEREST.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE
FIRST NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

John S. Lewis
Artesian Well Contractor.

Estimates Cheerfully Given
Box 173, Scotch Plains, N. J

R. Morris Adkins
MASSEUR and HYDROPATH
Treatment by appointment only.
'Phone, Plainfield 150

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av. Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L

EXCURSIONS.

ANNUAL EXCURSION
of the
First Presbyterian, Congregational and Park Avenue Baptist Sunday Schools to Asbury Park and Ocean Grove
THURSDAY, JULY 20
Tickets—adults, $1.25; children, 90c. Train leaves Dunellen, 8:00; Clinton avenue, 8:06; Grant avenue, 8:08; Plainfield, 8:15. Return, leave Asbury Park 6:30. 7 14 6

POPULAR EXCURSION
TO ATLANTIC CITY
VIA
New Jersey Central
WEDNESDAY, JULY 19
ROUND TRIP $2.50 Children $1.25
Train leaves Plainfield 7:46 a. m.
7 13 3 th-s-m

EDUCATIONAL.

Drake Business College
Individual Instruction Given to Backward Students.
English, Bookkeeping, Arithmetic, Shorthand, Typewriting and all other commercial subjects.
Special Course in Business Penmanship.
Day and Evening Sessions now open. New students may enter Monday, August 7th, or any school day thereafter. Catalogue on request. Send for enrollment blank.
112 East Front street. Plainfield.

Students May Enter at Any Time.
Plainfield Business College and School of English
For Practical Business Training
Visitors Welcome. Investigate Now
A. S. HERR, Principal & Proprieto
Wodhull & Martin Bldg. 'Phone 34

Fresh Killed Poultry and New Laid Eggs.
OUR FRESH KILLED BROILERS and SPRING DUCKS are now ready for market. For QUALITY & PRICE they cannot be surpassed. Ask for prices. Our NEW LAID EGGS cannot be surpassed, either in FRESHNESS or FLAVOR, because no eggs are over three days old when delivered, and because our HENS are kept in a sanitary manner and DO NOT RUN AT LARGE. We deliver Tuesdays and Fridays. A trial is solicited. Drop us a card to call.
Grace Poultry Farm
Somerville, N. J.

R. ISKRAUT, D.V.M.
VETERINARY SURGEON AND DENTIST
Member of the Royal Vet. College, Hanover, Germany.
HORSES, COWS, DOGS A SPECIALTY
Office: HEDDEN LIVERY,
118 East 4th St., Plainfield, N. J.
DAY AND NIGHT. TELEPHONE 114.

"AT THE FOUNTAIN" SPECIAL

AZUREA SUNDAES 10c MAJESTIC SUNDAES 10c
PYRAMID SUNDAES 15c PRINCETON DELIGHT 15c

CRANE'S PHILADELPHIA ICE CREAM

DON'T YOU WANT TO TAKE SOME HOME?

T. S. Armstrong

THE APOTHECARY Cor. Park and North Aves.

AMONG OUR NEIGHBORS

PLAINS AND FANWOOD.

John Rickerson was cut on the right arm, while working about a machine at the Hall Signal Works, at Garwood. It was found necessary to put ten stitches in the cut in order to close it and it will be sometime before he will be able to resume his position again.

The local employes of the Aeolian Co., of Garwood, return to work next week, after a two weeks' vacation, while the company has been taking account of stock.

Services tomorrow at the Baptist church will be morning preaching at 10:45 and B. Y. P. U. meeting at 7 p. m. in the church parlors.

Hugh O'Loughlin, who was recently appointed night marshal by the township committee, will begin his duties tonight.

Mrs. Robert Jahn left yesterday for a visit of several weeks with her brother, in Wisconsin.

The Misses Florence and Louise Nicholl are enjoying July at Hamilton, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ward have been entertaining relatives from New York.

SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

E. H. Thornton has been entertaining Alexander Macintosh, president of the Brooklyn Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Mr. and Mrs. James McCaffrey and son, of Elizabeth, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Kaine, of Lakeview avenue.

Miss Mayme Gallagher, of Metuchen, is visiting friends here.

SWALLOWS' NEST BANK NOTES.

A pair of swallows of Fieberbrunn, in the Tyrol, have stolen a number of ten-kronen bank notes to line their nest with.

The parent birds discovered that the new notes were just the shade of blue to match their eggs, the tissue being tough but flexible and exactly the material they needed. The nest and the missing notes were only discovered when the swallows had abandoned it and it fell to the ground.

The feat has been equaled by that of an enterprising mouse in Dornbirn which abstracted a number of twenty-kronen (sixteen shillings eight pence) notes to the value of £8, of a delicate, reddish-brown shade, from the cash drawer of a butcher, and, tearing them to pieces adapted them to the purpose of making a nest for her family of seven. The butcher, in his search for the notes, suspected and traced the mouse and found the nest under the boarding. He carefully picked up the remains of the notes and returned them to the bank, where they were pieced to gether. The butcher recovered £7 10s., the bank claiming ten shillings for "material loss" caused by the mouse's teeth.—Tit-Bits.

THE COLONEL AND THE CARDS.

Colonel Cecil Lyon, the Republican national committeeman from Texas, was induced one night to sit in a poker game in New York, says the Popular Magazine. The play had been in progress about an hour when a newcomer rather the worse for strong drink, bought a stack of chips.

On the next hand dealt the colonel had three aces "pat." The newcomer drew three cards, and the colonel said, in an nonshalant, bored manner he guessed he would take one. Then the betting began, and grew fiercer and fiercer. Every time the colonel raised the stranger raised him back again. Finally Lyon called.

The other man spread out an ace-high straight. He had held the king and ace and drawn the ten, jack and queen.

The colonel, looking like a man at the funeral of a dear relative, remarked in shrill tones:

"Down in my State when a man draws cards like that somebody else draws a gun."

Cruel.

"Pa, the young man that called last night is a marine artist," ventured the pretty girl at breakfast.

"H'm!" grunted the old man over his buckwheat cakes. "What have I to do with that?"

"Why—er—he said possibly you could tell him where to go for inspiration."

"He did, eh? Well, tell him to go down and paint a picture of the River Styx."—Judge's Library.

—Press Want Ads. Pay.

—Use Daily Press want ads. They bring results.

PERSONAL.

Miss Katharine Holmes, of Bloomfield, is visiting Miss Elizabeth Nash, of the Valley road.

E. M. Snyder and family, of Prospect avenue, have gone to Montreal, Canada, for a visit.

Miss Barbara Fleming, of Park avenue, is spending a few days at Locust, Long Island.

Thomas T. Tinis, of Jackson avenue, is spending a two weeks' vacation at Little Moose N. Y.

Miss Dorothy Burke, of Ravine road, is spending the summer at Sugar Hill, New Hampshire.

Miss Dorothy Adams, formerly of this city, is visiting friends and relatives in town for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welle and daughter, Florence, of East Front street, left today for a vacation trip in New York city.

Miss Mildred Everett, a pupil nurse at Muhlenberg Hospital, and her cousin, Miss Jane Everett, are sojourning at Peapack.

Rev. Dr. John A. Chambliss, of Central avenue, has returned from a visit with his granddaughter Mrs. Eugene Blake, wife of Dr. Eugene Blake, of New Haven, Conn. Dr. Chambliss will preach tomorrow in the Baptist church of Red Bank.

PALEFACE BARGAINERS.

Green McCurtain, once chief of the Choctaws, had a very high opinion of the business astuteness of white men, says the Mobile Register. "No Indian can get the better of a paleface," Chief McCurtain said to a Guthrie reporter during the recent Oklahoma investigation. "And when two palefaces get bargaining together then it is like cutting diamonds. Two Oklahoma palefaces once hunted in my camp. They spent the evening with me and over the fire and the firewater they began to barter and traffic and to make deals and dickers. Finally Bill said:

" 'Sam, let's trade hosses—my bay for your roan.'

" 'It's a go,' Sam agreed. 'The trade's a go. Shake on it, partner.'

"They shook hands. Then Bill said with a loud laugh:

" 'Sam, I've bested ye this time. My horse is dead. Died yesterday.'

" 'So's mine dead,' said Sam. 'Died this mornin'. And what's more, I've took his shoes off.' "

Proctor's All-Star Bill.

Gus. Sohlke, well-known as a producer of comic operas and musical comedies, has just introduced into vaudeville a new act entitled "The Bama Bama Girls," which will be offered at Proctor's theatre on Monday. The scene is a toy shop and there is plenty of comedy, good singing and pleasing scenic effects. There are eight cute classy damsels, sure to make a hit. The Bates and Snell Company will present a political playlet, "His Master's Voice," showing a struggle between the mayor and boss for supremacy; Goff Phillips, a clever monologuist and the Ito Family of Japanese, in a novelty act said to be great.

Whot Held 'Em Up.

In a certain "boom" town in the West there were two builders of a type too familiar, indeed, everywhere who were said to be the most extraordinary of their kind.

One day when the two men met and fell to talking of their respective venture, one remarked:

"Bill, you always did have better luck than I. Look at my last lot of buildings—collapsed before they were finished. That wind that put them out didn't seem to harm yours. Yet both your houses and mine were built the same—same materials, same workmanship."

"That's true enough," replied the other builder, "but you forget one thing—my houses had been papered."—Harper's Magazine.

MASTER PAINTERS CONVENTION ENDS

Asbury Park, July 15.—The master painters have gone. Their four days' convention is at an end. But before they went they told the people here that their houses are not properly painted and that whisk brooms do not take the place of paint brushes. The delegates were o' the opinion that the reason Asbury Park was not a sightly town as far as its buildings were concerned is because they are not painted properly. They declared that bellboys paint the hotels and that poor paints are used.

The session yesterday consisted chiefly in the election of officers, B. F. Davis, of Jersey City, was re-elected president. H. B. Brewster, of Newark succeeded A. A. Sippel, also of Newark, as vice-president. W. E. Tremain, of Orange, was chosen organizer in place of Charles E. Van Syckle, of Newark. Charles Greenhalg, the secretary was re-elected, as was also H. L. Bartholomew, of New Brunswick, the treasurer.

The new executive board members from the Asbury Park association is Frank Walker and the other members of this board are: William Bollman, of Hudson county; D. E. Kent, Paterson; L. B. Saunders, Orange; E. E. King, Elizabeth; Henry Witt, Jr., Newark; Alex Stewart, Passaic; Theodore A. Titus, Montclair; L. B. Woolston, Plainfield; James H. Braithwait, Trenton; J. M. Masters, Bergen county; Matthew Willem, Englewood; C. B. Crystal, Summit; J. Collis, West Hudson county; R. S. Turton, New Brunswick; John T. French, Atlantic City, and J. F. Tanggard, of Perth Amboy. It is decided to leave the selection of a place for the midwinter meeting of the executive board as well as the next annual convention to the executive board and the State organizer.

LOCAL REALTY TRANSFERS RECORDED AT ELIZABETH.

The following property transfers have been filed in the office of the County Registrar:

Emma R. Naylor to Samuel Berkowitz, northwest side of West Third street, 86 feet, southwest of Prescott place, $1; Central Park Realty Company to William H. Abbott, lots 128, 129, 130, 131, 132 map of Central Park, $1; Bridget Gilson, unmarried to William R. Causbrook, northeasterly side line of Netherwood avenue, known as lot No. 11, map of Gilson property, $1; William H. Wootoon, et ux., to Mary C. K. Randolph, lot 7, map of Sarah Dickinson, $1; John Antolik, et ux., to Louis Kadesh, Third street, corner J. Harrigan, $1; Harver J. Ubert to Phillip B. McIntyre, southeasterly side West Seventh street, 60 feet of Monroe avenue, $1.

SEWER PROBLEM.

Jersey City, July 15.—Representatives of North Bergen, West Hoboken and Jersey City held a conference yesterday in Mayor Wittpenn's office regarding the connection made with the southern point outlet sewer of Jersey City and West Hoboken by North Bergen without permission. The township had been ordered to remove the connection or come to terms with the municipal owners of the sewer.

Mayor Wittpenn was busy on a commission government speech and did not attend the conference. He was represented by Corporation Attorney James J. Murphy. Assistant City Engineer Nicholas Wortendyke was also present. George J. McEwan, town attorney, represented West Hoboken and Travers H. McCauley represented North Bergen.

It was decided to plan an amicable agreement.

"The Mermaid."

The "Mermaid," the popular through express, via the New Jersey Central from Scranton to the North Jersey Coast resorts is now in service in both directions. The Mermaid which carries Pullman broiler parlor car will leave Plainfield at 2:11 p. m., until Sept. 6 inclusive. Returning, the Mermaid arrives Plainfield 2:23 p. m. 7 1 10oaw

In Advance.

It does no good to swat the fool
Who rocks the boat after 'tis done;
I rather think we ought to break
His neck before the trip's begun.
—Birmingham Age-Herald.

James J. and Charles A. Higgins
Undertakers & Embalmers
ANNOUNCE THE OPENING OF THEIR OFFICE AT
332 Park Ave., cor. W. Fourth St.
'PHONE CONNECTION
NIGHT AND DAY SERVICE
NEW JERSEY AND NEW YORK LICENSES
ESTABLISHED IN ELIZABETH SINCE 1868

ICED TEA AND COFFEE TIME

is now here. Just such days as these, when the mercury hit the 90 degree mark, suggested this most wholesome and at the same time economical, blood cooling beverage.

You will like our 50 cent Oolong Tea because it's superior in every way to any Tea you've ever tasted.

Our Java and Mocha Coffee makes a delicious drink.

NEUMAN BROS.
GROCERS
Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760
Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

$1.50 Mauch Chunk Excursion.
Next Sunday, July 16, via New Jersey Central. Leave Plainfield 9:18 a. m. 7 13 2th-s

Advertised Mail Matter

E. H. Bird, P. M.

Bourke, Mr. M C	Jones, Mrs Chas S
Bowman, Mr	Jones, Mr Jess
Barnes, Miss Edith	Jefferson Hospital
Burdick, Mrs	Jones, Mr Charles
Burk, Mr John	Kaffy, Mrs Chas.
Cold, Miss Rute	Kapchowe, Miss A
Connelley, Miss A M	Kiley, Mrs
Carmen, Mrs Henry	La Morgia, Mr D
Clark, Mr G W	Luyke, Mrs
Casey, Miss H G	Murray, Mrs Annie
Catea, Mr F P R	Moore, Mrs P
Clase, Mr&Mrs R	Mason, Miss Ella S
DeLaAligne, Carlos	Marston, Prof. C W
Dixon, Miss Rose	Midgeley, Mrs
Ford, Gertrude	Music Editor Record
Frires, Mrs Sarah	Moore, J M
Fugan, Mr Joseph	Mann, Jas
Greene, Mrs Geo	Nelson, Mr Albin
Green, Mrs M F	Neill, S
Goff, Jr Mrs J	Norman & San J M
Galvin, Esq J A	Perrine, Mrs Edw
Hall, Miss A E	Perrin, Mrs L V
Haines, Mr Frank	Rhiner, Mary
Habley, Mr Elisa	Rogers, Mr H S
Hodges, Priscilla	Retalio, Mr Pete
Howard, Mr D F	Stevens, Miss S E
Hopkins, J D	Streeter, Mr J Paul
Hoffman, Mr H	Taylor, Mrs G F
Hart, Mrs V B	Tinsanen, Mr H
Hoffett, Mrs C S	Thorne, Mr A C
Winston, Miss C

"Please say Advertised"

WANTED YOUNG WOMEN

Between the ages of 17 and 23 to learn Telephone Operating.
Salaries paid while learning.
Rapid advancement and permanent positions to those who qualify.
Write or call at 109 East Fourth Street, Monday, after 9 o'clock.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE COMPANY

WE ARRANGE LOANS
to the entire satisfaction of our customers and the RATE OF INTEREST charged is only SIX PER CENT. A YEAR. We also make a fair charge for services rendered in searching records, appraising security, etc. In addition to the privilege of making easy weekly or monthly payments, we also give a COPY of agreement, which shows amount advanced, number of payments, and discount.

HONORABLE DEALING and COURTEOUS TREATMENT.

HOUSEHOLD LOAN CO.,
148 E. FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD NEW JERSEY.
Office Hours 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. Telephone 820-J.

AUCTIONEERS
WM. A. SCHORB & CO.,
Plainfield Second-hand Furniture Store.
Are prepared to conduct auctions of Household Goods, Real Estate or Personal Property; Prompt Service and Satisfaction Guaranteed; also dealers in second-hand furniture; we buy and sell everything.
120 Madison avenue, Jackson Building. 'Phone 1707-W

$75 Fine Upright Pianos. Lowest prices and easiest terms. No agents. $95
No canvassers. No heavy rents and expenses. No annoying solicitations. Why pay agents enormous profit. Bargains guaranteed. NEW JERSEY PIANO CO., 315 W. Front St. Open Evenings. Terms to suit.

To know your baggage will be called for when ordered is a comfort. Be comfortable. Order
Hoagland's Express
to call for your BAGGAGE
Office 205 Park Av Tel. 833-w
Home Tel. 648-L.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the many friends who so kindly rendered service during the sickness of Mrs. Christiana Coddington.
Signed, THE FAMILY.

Watchung Express Co.
Incorporated.
120 Madison Ave. Tel. 1064-M-2
All Orders Promptly Attended To.

T. A. MOORE
UNDERTAKER
Office and Residence,
614 E. 6th St., 'Phone 741-R.

Established 1872.
P. CASEY & SON.
UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS
Office 116 Park Ave., Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St. Tel. 903-R. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 3094-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,
UNDERTAKERS.
402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40, Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 315.

Chas. L. Stanley,
159 East Front St. 'Phone 928
Headquarters for choice Cut Flowers and Potted Plants. Floral design work a specialty.
33,000 feet of glass. South Ave.

L. L. MANNING & SON.
STEAM GRANITE WORKS.
Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church

MARRIED.

DEPEW-DRAYTON—On July 14, at the chantry of Grace church by the Rev. M. K. Bailey, Margaret Manning Drayton to Richard Henry Depew, of Plainfield, New Jersey.

DIED.

CHACE—At the residence of his brother, Mr. Paul G. Chace, 1159 Gresham road, on Friday, July 14, 1911, Rev. Robert Arnold Chace, in his 33d year.

Services and interment at Oakwoods Cemetery, Chicago, Ill.

HARRINGTON—At her residence, 414 Central avenue, on Friday, July 14, 1911, Mary Randolph, wife of the late Jubel Harrington, in her 95th year.

Services at the Seventh-Day Baptist church, on Sunday, July 16, at 4 p. m.

Classified Advertisements

Rates for advertisements under this heading one cent a word for first insertion. one half a cent a word for consecutive insertions of the same advertisement running for less than one month, one month, fifty cents a line (6 words to a line). double rate for advertisement set in capitals.

No advertisements received for less than ten cents.

Copy for death and marriage notices and classified advertising accepted up to 2:30 p. m.

THE DAILY PRESS is not at liberty to give any information regarding advertisements that require an address in care of this office. Persons answering these ads should mail or leave answers as stated in advertisements

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — SEAMERS, LACE RUNNERS AND FINISHERS; ALSO FEW LEARNERS; PAID WHILE LEARNING. INQUIRE RINK BUILDING, NAT LEVY & CO. 3 4 tf

GIRL wanted. City Market News Stand, 125 North avenue.

WANTED TO RENT.

WANTED—3 unfurnished rooms centrally located Address W E. care of Press 3 21 tf

COUPLE would like three furnished rooms for light housekeeping; terms reasonable Address H. W., 413 Park avenue. 7 13 2

WANTED—MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—To hire a good work horse. Apply 17 Lincoln place.

WANTED—Pony cart and harness. Address C. H., care The Daily Press. 7 13 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—Man; one who knows how to dry clean and also a presser. Call at once, C. P. Brewin, French Dry Cleaner, 107 Central avenue. 7 15 3

CARPENTER wanted. Charles Hand, Eighth street houses. 7 15 3

WANTED—Blacksmith for horse shoeing and wagon repairing; steady job to good man. W. M. Pace, High Bridge, N. J. 7 15 2

WANTED—Reliable man, single, one who understands care of horse, cow and vegetable garden. Apply with reference, Frank H. Lewin, Plainfield avenue, near Hunt Club. 7 13 3

FOR RENT.

APARTMENT to let Jackson building. Inquire Endress or Janitor. 12 17 tf

TO RENT—Ten-room house, thoroughly renovated, all improvements, to family of adults; five minutes to station. Inquire 402 Park avenue. 7 1 tf

FOUR pleasant rooms to rent, on West Second street. Address M. W. H., care Daily Press. 4 21 tf

TO LET—Eight room corner flat, from August first. Apply Alex Thorn, 15 Craig place. 7 6 tf

TO LET—Apartment, central; $11. LaRue, 152 North avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—Office or desk room. John Manley, 321 Park avenue. 7 5 tf

TO LET—5 and 7-room apartments; all improvements; East End. Inquire 108 Central avenue. 5 31 tf

DOUBLE house to let, Sycamore street; seven rooms each side; newly painted and papered; part improvements; centrally located. Apply Neuman Bros. 6 2 tf

TO LET—Lower floor, 4 rooms; $11; West Third below Clinton avenue. Owner 17 Craig place. 7 11 tf

THREE or four rooms; central location. J. Manley. 6 13 tf

TO LET—Houses, part improvements; $12; all improvements $20. Inquire 1092 Arlington avenue. 7 13 1mo

FOR RENT—Brick stucco house, park section of borough; newly painted and decorated; gas, electricity, open plumbing; $50; Address Bargain, care Press. 7 6 tfeod

FLAT TO LET—Four rooms, 671 West Fourth street. Apply 968 West Fifth street. 7 11 tf

NEW drug store to rent; no other store within a mile; corner Grant avenue and Second street, Plainfield, N. J. Apply M. F. Watson, Plainfield, N. J. 6 27 tf

TO LET—Seven rooms, all improvements; hot water heat; $25. M. F. Gano, 142 North avenue. 4 21 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—At Somerville, N. J., 9-room house, part improvements, barn and fine chicken houses; lot 100x150; 5 minutes from depot. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 4 7 tf

FOR SALE—Property at 171 Duer street; lot 50x125; 7-room house; part improvements. Write or call. 6 20 tf

FOR SALE—Good built house, all improvements; good size lot; easy terms. Address Renwanz, Daily Press. 7 12 tf

HOUSE—8 rooms, improvements, lot 50x195; price $3,450; easy terms. Would exchange for lot. Address G. A. F., Dunellen, N. J. 7 13 6

HOUSE for sale on Clinton avenue, a few minutes to depot; 8 rooms, bath, all modern improvements; fine condition; a bargain. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care Woodhull & Martin Co. 5 8 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot 12 28 tf

TITLES abstracted for purchasers of real estate and bond and mortgage loans. Chas. J. McNabb, 209 North avenue. 2 18 tf

MONEY to loan on first bond and mortgage, in sums ranging from $1,000 to $5,000. J. V. E. Vanderhoef, care of Woodhull & Martin Co. 2 17 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 6 9 tf

MONEY to loan on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 4 9 tf

MORTGAGES placed on good security. Francis J. Blatz, First National Bank Building. 8 21 tf

$25,000 TO LOAN at 5 per cent in sums to suit, on good mortgages Elston M. French. 171 North avenue 9 19 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

FOUND—A watch; owner can have by applying at No. 3 fire engine house.

LOST—Pair gold eye glasses. Reward at Daily Press office. 7 14 3

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Very pretty shetland pony, four years old; price $150. P. O. Box 301, Plainfield, N. J. 6 28 tf

FOR SALE—Pair of spotted ponies, 14 hands high, also wagon and harness; very fine rig; have been driven by lady. Inquire Blair's stable, 114 West Sixth street. 7 14 3

FOR SALE—Overland Runabout, 1911 model 45, 25 H. P.; extra large shoes, top, speedometer, Presto light, full equipment, demonstration by appointment; price $500. William Jeffery, 134 Park Avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 7 14 6

FOR SALE—Crabb Pipe Organ in first class condition with pedal base, foot and lever pump; sweet tone; good for parlor or chapel; $150 to quick purchaser; cash or liberal terms can be arranged. Mathushek & Son Piano Co., 310 West Front street, Plainfield, N. J. 7 14 3

GOOD toned piano cheap; bargain in fine automobile. John Manley, broker, 321 Park avenue. 7 11 6

BICYCLE for sale; ladies' Columbia, in good repair. Dilts, 95 Jackson avenue, N. P. 7 15 3

FOR SALE—Two good work or delivery horses; cheap for cash; also good cow. Valley Farm, Clinton avenue, south of Lehigh tracks. 7 13 3

OLD papers for sale; put up in packages of 100 copies for 10c. Apply at this office.

MISCELLANEOUS.

STORE your furniture with the Plainfield Storage Company; reasonable rates. Orders left for moving vans. Nagle's, Front and Grove Sts. 1 7 tf

PASTURE for cows. 1261 East Front street. 7 5 tf

PHOTOGRAPHS taken in the home. N. S. Wardner, 610 Division St. 'Phone 100-W. 3 24 tf

W. K. MACKEY'S fresh, crisp soft seed hothouse cukes, absolutely free of bitter taste, now on the market. 6 26 1mo

BOARD your dogs for the summer at Parker's Dog Haven, Mountain avenue near Leland; unlimited runs. 7 7 tf

THE EXCHANGE, No. 325 West Front street. Tel. 901-R. Largest display in furniture, rugs, bedding and general household goods in the city. Cash or liberal credit. An honest man's promise to pay—that is all we ask. 1 5 tf

BEFORE selling your furniture see Latourette, 326 West Front St. tf

H. H. BUTLER, D. V. S.—Pet animals a specialty. OFFICE AT GANDL'S Riding School, Kensington avenue, near Putnam. Telephone 194 (cut out for reference). 1 3 tf

P. H. LATOURETTE, auctioneer; sales promptly attended to; satisfaction guaranteed. 326 West Front street. 2 10 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

GOOD accommodations; low rates; Boyce's Hotel, 97 Somerset St. tf

TO LET—Rooms without board; breakfast if desired. Miss Kline, 21 Sandford avenue. 6 29 1mo

FURNISHED or unfurnished rooms; improvements. 47 Woodbine avenue. 6 29 tf

COOL, pleasant furnished rooms. 175 East Front street. 7 15 3

TWO cool connecting rooms; board optional; private, select house on shady corner; near station. 602 Madison avenue. 7 7 12

DESIRABLE rooms with board, 303 East Seventh street. Mrs. L. Hellstrom. 3 25 tf

ONE large front room and one single room with board. Apply Mrs. A. L. Waldorf, 134 Crescent avenue. 4 15 tf

ATTRACTIVE room for couple; exceptional table. Mrs. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue 12 5 tf

FURNISHED rooms, light and airy, in nice neighborhood, near centre of town. 225 East Fifth St. tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry, 226 E. Front street. Reliable help, moderate fees; temporary help at short notice. Near Y. W. C. A. Phone 666. 9 20 tf

EMPLOYMENT Agency, Mrs. Keller, 22 Somerset place, the oldest and most reliable (all nationalities). Phone 1724. 7 1 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rates; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

NUMBER of desirable houses to rent; good location; will be pleased to show at any time. Apply to J. E. Curtis, 183 North avenue. 6 27 1mo

THOSE desiring to own a farm should consult one who has been selling farms for years, and he is yours truly, William Henry Rogers, 136 Park avenue, Plainfield. tf

"CAP" ANSON'S

FORTY YEARS IN BASEBALL

Dedicated to all my old comrades and lovers of the sport, who have made the game what it is today, and to all those who will continue to "play ball" after we old-timers have struck out for the last time.

ADRIAN C. ANSON.

(Copyright, 1911, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate in Great Britain and Canada. All rights reserved.)

CHAPTER XXII.

I Dine With King Kalakaua.

The seven-day sail from the Golden Gate to Honolulu harbor was indeed a dream. It was blue above and blue below, the sky without a cloud and the sea without a ripple.

Before leaving San Francisco, Mr. Spalding had looked into the matter of extending our journey around the globe. An agent was sent to England to find out whether or no we might expect to do a good business in Europe. He was to cable the result of his investigations to Australia. In case the report should be favorable, Spalding and myself decided that we would go right on from Australia instead of returning the way we had come. This possibility of a change in our original plan we wanted to keep to ourselves, but the newspaper correspondents with our party—there were four or five of them, all as keen as hounds for the scent—got wise to the situation and the details of the proposed trip were made public in the United States long before we knew positively that the scheme would go through. It also leaked up on board ship during our journey to Honolulu, and was received without any doubt of a successful termination by the men of both teams, who were delighted over the prospect.

Owing to the fact that we had not left San Francisco at the appointed time our plan to play ball in Hawaii on Saturday, November 24, fell to the ground. At the time scheduled for the game at Honolulu we were ploughing the blue waters of the Pacific, at least 150 miles from the ball grounds, and as we sat in the moonlight on the vessel's deck that Saturday night we wondered what our advance agent, sent on before from San Francisco, was thinking of our failure to materialise.

It was just daybreak on Sunday morning that our lookout called out "Land ho!" and a little later most of the members of our party appeared on deck to get an early glimpse of the "Paradise of the Pacific." I'm not much of a poet, but I certainly could have ground out a few as I stood against that rail and watched the beauty of that group of islands unfold little by little. The sight was almost enough to make a ball player sentimental. As we neared the shore we were met by boatloads of Kanakas bearing baskets filled with flower wreaths, with which they proceeded to decorate each member of our party, with an extra one for the ladies. As captain of the Chicagos I got a crown of roses in addition to my other floral adornments, and thus togged out I went below and presented myself to Mrs. Anson, who had been slow in rising and was just about to join me on deck.

"Merciful goodness!" she exclaimed as I entered the stateroom, a sure enough symphony in color and fragrance. "What has happened?"

"Can't you see for yourself?" I warbled. "I'm queen of the May."

"Don't be a —" What I know not, but I had my suspicions.

When we reached the deck the cables were being made fast, and as we were drawn slowly into the slip we looked down from our perch at a crowd of fully 2,000 persons assembled there to welcome us. Just then the king's band, composed of dark-faced Kanakas attired in white duck suits, struck up on "Yankee Doodle" and we replied with a rousing cheer. From the deck we saw people of almost every clime, the dark-complexioned, straight-haired natives a big majority, their handsome dusky faces and white clothing giving a decidedly foreign touch to the scene.

We were told that on the previous day all business had been suspended in the city in expectation of our arrival and that the disappointment over our non-appearance was keen. The king had sat up most of the night waiting for us to come in, and to help him bear up under his disappointment he had put himself outside of such a quantity of liquid solace that he had fallen asleep on his throne, and so did not wake up in time to come down to the dock to greet us.

When we reached the hotel, which stood in the center of a beautifully laid-out park, we thought we were going to be quartered at the royal palace. While we were at breakfast the royal band, stationed just outside on the balcony, gave us a first-class concert. Here we were introduced for the first time to the native dish "poi," a sort of pink mush that the natives eat with the forefinger, plunging it into the mass, giving it a peculiar twist that causes some of the "poi" to adhere and then conveying it in that manner to the lips. It struck me at once that those who had what is known as the "baseball finger" well developed would have a cinch with the "poi" business. Both Williamson and Ward had the advantage over the rest of us in that way. After breakfast we were notified that his majesty, King Kalakaua, would receive us at the palace at 11 o'clock. That invitation, of course, was equivalent to a command, and we hurried into our glad rags. When the appointed hour arrived the royal band formed in front of the hotel and Clarence Duval, our mascot, in full uniform of a drum-major, took his place at the head of the musicians. I wish you might have seen the contortions that ornery little moke went through with. It was certainly a great day for Clarence. United States Minister Morrill, who was to do the presentation act, and President Spalding followed the band, and then came the members of the two teams in double file, and, last of all, the ladies in carriages.

The king received us very affably in the great throne room of his palace, with a bow and a smile as we were presented by Mr. Morrill, one by one. I was surprised to find how up-to-date he looked—not a bit like the old cannibal of the story books. He was dark and rather portly, but tall, and he had one of the whitest sets of teeth I ever saw, natural or otherwise, I can't say. He was dressed in American clothes, but I didn't hear him speak a word of English. Before we left the palace we got a bid to dine with his majesty that evening, and, of course, we accepted.

As luck would have it, Sunday sports are forbidden by law in Hawaii, and as we were to sail on that very night there was no opportunity to play ball. Some of the foreign residents, backed by a lot of the prominent natives, tried to get us to disregard the law and play an exhibition game, and a petition bearing over 1,000 names was sent in to us begging us to go right ahead. Our refusal to defy the law was a great disappointment to those who had been awaiting our coming for weeks, but I guess it was the correct thing for us to do.

The king's dinner party was given in the brilliantly illuminated garden of the queen's palace, and I want to tell you that it was a way-up affair. The spot was a veritable fairyland, the tropical foliage ablaze with lights of all colors and flowers everywhere. His majesty was off his dignity and hobnobbed with the boys to the very best of his ability. When the banquet was to be served his royal nibs offered his arm to Mrs. Spalding—who looked a mighty sight more like a queen herself than he did like a king—and led the way to the palm grove where the feast was spread, followed by Princess Liluokalani, the king's sister, Prince Kawanonakoa and the rest of the party. The tables were laid upon blocks elevated about six inches from the ground in the shape of the letter U, and we sat cross-legged on strips of matting, while shapely Kanaka maidens in white flowing robes stood behind us moving big fans of gorgeous colors. Gee, but it was interesting!

"Poi" in huge calabashes was served first, and the king graciously invited Mrs. Spalding to make the initial dip. There was plenty of other delicacies and we did full justice to everything. I know I didn't refuse anything that was passed, and I don't mind telling you that I had my hands full, as well as my mouth. After dinner the king's attorney general spoke in behalf of his majesty and then Mr. Spalding had his little say in behalf of the party. Then Frank Lincoln got off some of his best laugh producers, but the thing that made the biggest hit with Kink Kalakaua was a hoe-down by Clarence Duval, to the patting of hands by Pfeffer, Burns, Ryan and Williamson. His Kanaka majesty was so tickled that he presented the little coon with a ten-dollar gold piece. As we left the palace grounds we stopped to give three hearty cheers for "Old King Calico," three more for Hawaii and three finals for the ladies. An hour later we were once more aboard the steamer, and as we swung out to sea there went with us as a farewell greeting the sweet strains of the "Aloha" from the royal band on the dock.

CHAPTER XXIII.

I Play Ball in Kangaroo Land.

So far as I know, the first game of professional baseball ever played in Australia was the exhibition given by the Chicago and All-America teams on the afternoon of December 15, 1888. It was played on the grounds of the Sydney Cricket association, and I want to say right here that there is nothing in the United States that will compare with those grounds in beauty or convenience. In spite of several counter attractions 5,500 persons assembled to see how the American national game was conducted, and, fortunately for us, both teams were on their mettle. The crowd, too, was in luck, for it got a redhot game from start to finish; the pitching of John Taner for the Chicagos being of the gilt-edged order.

The fielding and base running of both teams were right up to the mark, and at the end of the first inning the game was a tie, each team having scored four runs, and so it remained until the ninth inning, when the picked nine sent a man across the plate and scored the winning run. I regard it as one of the hardest-fought games on the tour. That game gave baseball quite a start in Australia, where it is now played a good deal.

The following Monday morning we played our first game of cricket on the Sydney grounds. I had been hugging myself more or less over my ability as a cricket player and had put in a lot of practice on the deck alley during the voyage, so I leave you to imagine my disgust when I tell you that I struck at the first ball bowled to me and went out on a little pop-up fly to Fogarty. If you think the boys didn't take advantage of my bad luck to guy me unmercifully you've got another guess coming. It didn't add to my cheerfulness to have the All-Americas win the game, with a score of 67 to 33.

That afternoon I got into more trouble. We played our second game of ball in the presence of 3,000 people and the All-Americas won, with a score of 7 to 5. The batteries on that occasion were Baldwin and myself for the Chicagos and Healy and Earl for the picked nine. Surely my cup of grief was full to overflowing!

Next day we played our first game with the Australian cricketers, and although we had 17 men against their 11 we were beaten badly, the Americans making 87 runs, while the Australians ran their score up to 115, for only six wickets. The game began at 11 in the forenoon, and was called at four so that we might play another game of ball, which, at the end of the fifth inning resulted in a victory for the All-Americas, both teams being too fagged out to do themselves credit.

We didn't play any more cricket in Australia. I was confident then, and I am still, that if we had been as strong in bowling as we were in fielding we should have beaten the Australians at their own crack game. As it was, we stood a mighty poor show against these skilled players, and it is just as well that we didn't insist on giving them further opportunity to do us.

From Sydney we went to Melbourne. There we met with the same cordiality that has made the memory of Australia a never-to-be-forgotten joy. We played our first game at Melbourne December 22 in the presence of the largest crowd that had ever assembled on the Melbourne oval, the handsomest grounds in Australia. It was a perfect summer day even though it was so near Christmas. The club house balconies were packed with ladies in warm weather attire and even the roof had been pre-empted by those who were anxious to secure a good view of the game. The grand stand was overflowing and a great crowd encircled the field. It was certainly a grand sight, and as I looked over the scene I couldn't help feeling inspired to go in and do my best, and I suppose every other man in both nines had a similar feeling.

(To be continued next Saturday).

The Mascot of Sweet Briar Gulch

BY HENRY WALLACE PHILLIPS

This Romance of a Lonely, Lovelorn Miner Appeals to the Fancy and Holds the Interest Because of Its Humor, Its Pathos, Its Chivalry and Its Broad Humanity

It Will Appear as a Serial in This Paper

Read Chapter 1. It Starts Today

CHAS. E. VAIL

Jeweler and Optician

has RE-OPENED at his new location

236 Park Avenue

Opposite North Ave.

All are cordially invited to inspect his new store.

Eastman's Kodak Supplies

SMALLEY BROS.

147 North Avenue.

BUTCHERS

CHOICE MEATS. GAME IN SEASON.

ROASTING AND BROILING CHICKENS A SPECIALTY.

Orders called for and delivered. Telephone 88-A.

If there is anything needed to make your automobile trip more enjoyable, say in the line of an electric horn, which by the way is very useful in the country, or any of the other small supplies, give us a call and the probability is we have just what you want.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.

407 WATCHUNG AVENUE.

JOHN WINZENRIED'S

Storage Wareshoue

316-318 WEST FRONT ST.

Separate Rooms—Clean and Dry. Furniture removed with care. Tel. 640-R. Residence 312 Lee place.

New Jersey Central

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 5.36, 6.00, 6.27, 6.55, 7.25, 7.28, 7.45, 7.46, 7.56, 7.59, 8.12, 8.30, 8.56, 8.43, 9.29, 9.59, 10.11, 11.00, 11.52 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.11, 1.25, 2.42, 2.43, 3.11, 3.48, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 6.40, 7.10, 7.33, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.41, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.30, 9.42, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.40, 1.11, 1.24, 2.01, 2.41, 3.11, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.35, 6.48, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.42, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.36, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.46, 8.36, 9.29, 10.11, 11.00 a. m., 12.00, 12.36, 1.25, 2.42, 3.11, 4.12, 4.40, 5.45, 6.29, 7.33, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.40, 1.20, 2.41, 3.24, 4.29, 5.41, 6.48, 8.13, 8.35, 9.42, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.17, 9.43, 11.19 a. m., 2.00, 2.23, 5.21, 5.43, (6.38 p. m. Easton only). Sunday—5.45, 10.26 a. m., 1.58, 5.43, 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkes-Barre and Scranton—5.18, 9.43 a. m., 2.23, 5.43 p. m. Sunday—5.45, 10.29 a. m. 5.43 p. m.

For Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.36, 11.00 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, 3.48, 4.40, 5.53, 6.29, 11.28 p. m. Sunday—(7.58, Lakewood only), 8.52 a. m., 2.24, 8.13 p. m.

For Lakewood and Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.36 Saturdays only), 1.25, 2.11, (3.48 Lakewood only). Sunday—(7.58 Lakewood only), 9.24 a. m., 2.01 p. m.

For Philadelphia—7.03, 7.39, 8.45, 9.03, 10.43, 11.48 a. m., 12.42, 2.17, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 night. Sunday—8.45, 9.56, 10.43, 11.42 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.38, 4.55, 6.38, 6.44, 7.42, 8.47, 9.46, 10.54, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 night

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44, 7.42 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

W. G. BESLER, Vice-Pres. & Gen. Mgr. W. C. HOPE, G. P. A.

6 25 11

WALKS

We Construct Them

Trap Rock, Cement

Experience

R. G. BUSH

Tel. Con. 743-5 South Ave

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Estimates Furnished. Jobbing a Specialty.

1120 Myrtle Avenue Tel. 847-J

YOUR DULL Headaches

Probably come from overstrained eyesight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye-trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

FREE EXAMINATION BY

Stiles & Co.

PHILADELPHIA EYE SPECIALISTS

at 107 East Front Street, Every Thursday.

Hours 11:15 a. m. to 3 p. m.

KODAKS

Complete line of Photo Supplies

Printing and Developing

AT DOANE'S

115 Park Ave.

Cedar Posts & Bean Poles

KINDLING AND GRATE WOOD.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at 89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 19-F-42

J. C. POPE & CO.,

INSURANCE AGENTS

110 E. Front St Plainfield, N. J.

Hodge's Pharmacy.

Y. M. C. A. Building.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to the City Treasurer and Regulating the Receipt and Disbursement of City Moneys.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The City Treasurer shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, execute a bond in the sum of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars to the inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of all the duties of his office, with such freehold security as the Common Council shall approve and direct, which bond shall be submitted to the Common Council for its approval, and, when so approved, shall be deposited with the City Clerk for safe keeping.

Sec. 2. The City Treasurer shall receive all moneys belonging to or in any way appertaining to the City, unless otherwise provided by law, and shall forthwith deposit the same in such bank or banks as the Common Council shall from time to time designate as the depositories of city moneys, in the name of "The Treasurer of the City of Plainfield."

Sec. 3. City moneys, except where otherwise provided by law, shall be disbursed only upon warrants drawn on the City Treasurer as follows:

1) Upon the "Library Fund" such warrants shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer of the Board of Directors of the Public Library and Reading Room.

(2) Upon the appropriation for the Board of Health, such warrants shall be signed by the President and countersigned by the Secretary of said Board.

(3) In all other cases, such warrants shall be signed by the President of the Common Council and countersigned by the City Clerk, as Auditor.

Provision may be made by resolution for substitutionary signature and counter signature in case of absence of any or either of the officers named.

In all cases where claims must be submitted to the Mayor for approval or disapproval, the signatures and countersignatures, original or substitutionary, herein provided for, shall afford plenary evidence that the claim embraced in the warrant has either been approved by the Mayor, or, if disapproved by him, has been ordered to be nevertheless paid. If a claim has been marked "disapproved" by the Mayor and the claim has been ordered to be nevertheless paid, pursuant to the statute in such case made and provided, that fact, and the date of such action, shall be noted on the claim.

Every warrant drawn on the "Library Fund" shall be accepted in writing by the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient to the credit of that fund in the designated depository in which by law it must be separately kept, and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that fund.

Every warrant drawn on the appropriation for the Board of Health shall be accepted in writing by the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient funds to the credit of that appropriation, and the City Treasurer shall, in writing, on said warrant, direct payment thereof by a bank, being one of the designated depositories of city moneys; and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that bank.

Upon every other warrant, if for a claim properly audited, the City Treasurer, if there be sufficient funds wherewith to pay the same, shall, in writing, on said warrant, direct payment thereof by a bank, being one of the designated depositories of city moneys; and such warrant shall thereupon be honored as a draft or check on that bank.

In each case, such direction of payment shall be considered an acceptance of such warrant as a draft on the City Treasurer.

Sec. 4. The City Treasurer shall keep in a suitable book or books in such manner as directed by the Common Council, or its appropriate committee, the separate accounts of the several funds for which moneys shall be received or paid out by him, each under its proper head and title, so that the account of each of these funds shall show at all times the exact amount to the credit or debit of such fund. The Treasurer shall also keep a detailed record of all assessments made or authorized to be made by the Common Council, setting forth the date and purpose of each assessment, the name of persons assessed, the amount assessed against each, and the date of the payment of the same.

Sec. 5. Whenever the Common Council shall authorize money to be borrowed on the credit and in the name of the City in anticipation of the collection of taxes, the City Treasurer shall prepare and sign a note for the amount so authorized to be borrowed, payable at such time as shall be fixed by the Common Council, which note shall likewise be signed by the Mayor, and unless otherwise directed by the Common Council the City Treasurer shall cause such note to be discounted at one of the designated depositories of city moneys; the net proceeds thereof shall be credited to the account of the Treasurer of the City of Plainfield in such bank, and credited by the City Treasurer to the fund for which the money was borrowed. At the maturity of the note so discounted, the amount thereof shall be chargeable against said account.

Sec. 6. The City Treasurer shall render to the Common Council at each of its regular meetings a statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him from the date of his last preceding statement; and at the last meeting in each year he shall render a statement of all moneys received and disbursed by him during the current year, and he shall submit for inspection his books to the Mayor or Common Council or its appropriate committee, or any city officer the Common Council shall designate, whenever requested to do so.

Sec. 7. No claim or demand of any kind against the City, except as by law or this ordinance otherwise provided, shall be paid or directed to be paid by the City Treasurer, unless first regularly allowed and ordered paid by the Common Council, and a statement in writing to that effect duly signed by the City Clerk be filed with the City Treasurer. Upon receiving from the City Clerk said written statement of claims or demands allowed and ordered paid by the Common Council, the City Treasurer shall forthwith prepare warrants for the payment thereof, and have them properly signed as herein provided, and direct payment thereof by a designated depository of city moneys, as herein provided.

Sec. 8. Upon the warrants provided for in the last section being returned to City Treasurer after payment, the same shall be attached to the original claim. All paid warrants shall be filed by the City Treasurer, regularly numbered, and a detailed record of each shall be kept by him. The City Treasurer shall also require proper receipts for all checks or drafts issued by him, and shall file the same in regular order, and safely preserve as vouchers all such receipts as well as the claims and paid warrants hereinbefore first referred to, subject to the orders of the Common Council.

Section 9. All ordinances and parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith, and particularly the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance relating to the City Treasurer and the payment of City Moneys," approved February 8, 1893, and amended by ordinance approved July 12, 1897, are hereby repealed; but no ordinance or part of ordinance theretofore existing shall be revived by such repeal.

Adopted by the Common Council June 26, 1911. Approved by the Mayor July 6, 1911.

GEORGE W. V. MOY, Mayor.
Attest: J. T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

7 8 2s

EXECUTOR'S SETTLEMENT—Notice is hereby given that the final account of the subscriber, surviving executor of Sarah P. Potter, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union on Wednesday, the twenty-sixth day of July next.

Dated June 22, 1911.

WILLIAM C. HUBBARD.
ASA F. RANDOLPH, Proctor.
Fees—$4.20. 6 24 5s

CHAS. KEIDERLING

FURNITURE PACKER.

Furniture, Trunks, Pictures China, Glass and Bric-a-Brac Packed and Crated for Storage and Shipping. Storage Rooms to Let.

Tel. 559-J 358 E. Front St.

BLAMES WAR FOR THE HIGH COST OF LIVING.

Miss Katherine D. Blake, of New York City, newly elected treasurer of the National Education Association, arraigned war as directly responsible for the high cost of living in an address delivered recently at a departmental meeting of the association.

She advocated the teaching of the dignity and heroism of peace, proposed an organization of "schoolboy friends and schoolgirl friends" to replace the "boy scout" movement, and suggested "making peace picturesque."

This, she planned, could be done by decorating members of the new organization with the national tricolor, brilliant with gold.

"We are far enough along on the road to civilization to realize that robbery and murder are not respectable, even when wholesale, and to dare to teach this to our children," said Miss Blake.

"They must learn the bitter results of military dominance so that our country may not slip so fast toward this condition as it has in the last ten years.

"How many people know that in this period our expenditures for military purposes have increased 360 per cent. Congress can cheerfully vote two twenty-million-dollar battleships a year and scornfully refuse $75,000 to the commission of education for vitally needed research work. We can spend thousands on a sham battle at Newport, yet have no funds to teach the children of our mountain regions. We stand seventh in percentage of illiteracy, and it is the native-born Americans, to a great extent who drag us down in the scale of education. Already militarism is so powerful that seventy per cent. of all money annually spent by the national government is for war, past or to come.

The Massachusetts Commission of Inquiry has shown that the cost of the necessities of life rises with each war and falls with each peace period. Today we are suffering from the effects of the Spanish-American War, combined with the Boer War and the Russo-Japanese War."

"Bud" Mars, well known as an aviator, in a flight at Erie, Penn., lost control of his machine and was dashed to the ground, sustaining injuries which physicians thought would result fatally.

THE MASCOT OF SWEET BRIAR GULCH

By Henry Wallace

COPYRIGHT 1908 BY THE BOBBS MERRILL COMPANY.

PROLOGUE.

This romance of Jim Felton, the lonely, lovelorn miner of Sweet Briar Gulch; of Anne, the faraway sweetheart who refused to be a wife; of the mine that wouldn't produce a dollar, no matter how hard it was worked, and of Ches, the little mascot who played such an important role in Jim's life drama, appeals to the fancy and holds the interest because of its humor, its pathos, its chivalry and its broad humanity.

CHAPTER I.

